4331. If the grantor die before acknowledgment, or if for any cause his attendance cannot be procured in order to make the same, or, having appeared, he refuses to acknowledge it, proof of the execution and delivery of the deed may be made by any competent subscribing witness thereto, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment; and the witness must state, upon oath, his own place of residence, that he set his name to the deed as a witness, that he knew the grantor in such deed, and saw him sign or heard him acknowledge he had signed the same; and such proof shall not be taken unless the officer is personally acquainted with such subscribing witness, or has satisfactory evidence that he is the same person who was a subscribing witness to such deed.

4332. The officer has power to issue the necessary subpœnas for the subscribing witnesses, residing in the same county, to appear before him for the purpose aforesaid.

4333. Every person who, being served with a subpœna, and having been tendered the fees of a witness in a justice's court, shall, without reasonable cause, refuse or neglect to appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to answer upon oath touching the matters aforesaid, shall forfeit to the party injured one hundred dollars; and may also be committed to prison by the officer who issued such subpœna, there to remain without bail until he shall submit to answer upon oath as aforesaid.

4334. If all the subscribing witnesses shall be dead, or out of the state, such death or absence is first to be proved, and then the execution of the deed may be proved before such officer by proving the handwriting of the grantor, and of any subscribing witness to such deed.

4336. Every officer who shall take the acknowledgment of proof of any deed shall endorse a certificate thereof, signed by himself, on the deed; and in such certificate shall truly and specifically set forth the matters hereinbefore required to be done, known or proved, on such acknowledgment or proof, together with the names of the witnesses examined before such officer, and their places of residence, and the substance of the evidence by them given.

4337. Every deed acknowledged or proved, and certified by any of the officers before named, including the certificate specified in section five of this chapter [4329], whenever such certificate is required by law, may be read in evidence without further proof, and shall be entitled to be recorded. The record of a deed duly recorded, or a transcript thereof duly certified, may also be read in evidence with the like force and effect as the original deed, whenever, by the party's oath or otherwise, the original is known to be lost, or not belonging to the party wishing to use the same, nor within his control. Neither the certificate of the acknowledgment or of the proof of any deed, nor the record or transcript of the record of such deed, shall be conclusive, but may be rebutted, and the force and effect thereof may be contested by any party affected thereby. If the party contesting the proof of a deed shall make it appear that such proof was taken upon the oath of an interested or incompetent witness, neither such deed, nor the record thereof, shall be received in evidence until established by other competent proof.

Copy of record competent without proving loss of original where defendant in ejectment seeks to prove title in a stranger, even if there is a discrepancy between date of deed and acknowledgment. Buck v. Gage, 27, 310 (43 N. W., 110). Delaney v. Errickson, 10, 500 (6 N. W., 600). Applied in case stated. Rupert v. Penner, 35, 590 (53 N. W., 598).

4338. The certificate of the proof or acknowledgment of every deed, and the certificate of the genuineness of the signature of any officer, in the cases where such last mentioned certificate is required, shall be recorded together with the deed so proved or acknowledged; and unless the said certificates be so recorded, neither the record of such deed, nor the transcript thereof, shall be read or received in evidence.

4339. Every deed entitled by law to be recorded shall be recorded in the order and as of the time when the same shall be delivered to the *register of deeds for that purpose, and shall be considered recorded from the time of such delivery.

Former act read "clerk" at *, 1887, p. 368. Filing a properly executed deed for record protects the party, whether it be recorded or not. The destruction of the deed record would not change the rule. Deming v. Miles, 35, 742 (53 N. W., 665).

4340. All deeds, mortgages, and other instruments of writing which are required to be recorded shall take effect and be in force from and after the time of delivering the same to the register of deeds for record, and not before, as to all creditors and subsequent purchasers in good faith without notice; and all such deeds, mortgages, and other instruments shall be adjudged void as to all such creditors and subsequent purchasers without notice whose deeds, mortgages, and other instruments shall be first recorded; Provided, That such deeds, mortgages, or instruments shall be valid between the parties.

Former act read "clerk." 1887, p. 369. Possession is notice. Uhl v. May, 5, 161. A duly acknowledged and recorded deed is constructive notice to all persons through or under the grantor. Edminster v. Higgins, 6, 269. Traphagen v. Irwin, 18, 198 (24 N. W., 684). Record is only notice of lands described in the conveyance, but an after-acquired judgment is subject to a mortgage describing the wrong lands. Galway, Semple & Co. v. Malchow, 7, 288. Purchaser at execution sale of lands with sheriff's certificate, but who had not yet received his deed, will be protected against an unrecorded mortgage upon a bill of foreclosure filed before the time allowed a defendant to redeem his land had expired. Bennet v. Fooks and Moffit, 1, 465. A deed prior to attachment, but not recorded until after, takes precedence of attachment if recorded before deed based on attachment sale. Hubbart v. 4341. They shall not be deemed lawfully recorded unless they have been previously acknowledged or proved in the manner herein prescribed.

4342. Deeds and other instruments relating to or affecting the title of real estate in this state shall be recorded in the county in which such real estate, or any part thereof, is situated; but if such county is not organized, then in the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes.

4344. It shall be no objection to the record of a deed that no official seal is appended to the recorded acknowledgment or proof thereof if, when the acknowledgment or proof purports to have been taken by an officer having an official seal, there be a statement in the certificate of acknowledgment or proof that the same is made under his hand and seal of office, and such statement shall be presumptive evidence that the affixed seal was attached to the original certificate.

Amended 1875, p. 90.

4345. The copy of any record, or of any recorded deed or instrument, attested and authenticated in such manner as would by law entitle it to be read in evidence, may, on proof of the loss of the original and of the record, be again recorded, and such record shall have the same effect as the original record.

4346. Any will of real estate which shall have been duly proved in the county court of any county in this state, and any such will, the proof of which shall be contested in that court and carried up by appeal or otherwise, and the validity of which shall be finally established, may with the certificate of proof annexed thereto, be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county or counties where the said real estate lies, in the same manner and with like effect as in case of deeds.

4347. Any exemplification of any decree or judgment in partition on final decree in chancery affecting real estate may in like manner be recorded in the office of the register of deeds in any county in which any real estate described therein may be situated; such record or exemplification thereof shall be received in evidence and shall be as effective in all cases as the original exemplification would be if produced, and shall be open to the same objections.

Amended 1887, p. 370.

4348. On recording any such will, exemplification, or decree, the register of deeds shall index the same with the indices of deeds, and as near as may be as deeds are indexed, placing the name of the devisor, petitioner, or plaintiff with the grantors, and the devisee or defendant with the grantees.

Amended 1887, p. 370.

4349. Every deed conveying real estate which by any other instrument in writing shall appear to have been intended only as a security in the nature of a mortgage, though it be an absolute conveyance in terms, shall be considered as a mortgage; and the person for whose benefit such deed shall be made shall not derive any advantage from the recording thereof unless every writing operating as a defeasance of the same, or explanatory of its being designed to have the effect only of a mortgage or conditional deed, be also recorded therewith, and at the same time.

To vary the legal import of a deed the evidence in reference to the understanding and intention of the parties must be clear, certain, and conclusive. Schade v. Bessinger, 3, 146. A deed absolute on its face, intended as security for the payment of a sum of money, will be construed as a mortgage. Wilson v. Richards, 1, 344. Webb v. Hoselton, 4, 318. Hurley v. Estes, 6, 391. Newman v. Edwards, 22, 260 (34 N. W., 382). Grantee in instrument apparently a deed but really a mortgage, cannot make a valid lease of premises. Connolly v. Giddings, 24, 134 (37 N. W., 939). Where grantee in deed, absolute on its face but in fact a mortgage, conveys the property to his brother, who has notice sufficient to put him on inquiry, grantors may redeem. Eiseman v. Gallagher, 24, 81 (37 N. W., 941). See Wamsley et al. v. Crook, 3, 352; Deroin v. Jennings, 4, 99; Lipp v. Land Syndicate 24, 692 (40 N. W., 129). An absolute deed intended as a mortgage properly recorded gives notices of the interest of the grantee, though the contract to reconvey is in parol. Livesey v. Brown, 35, 115 (52 N. W., 838).

4350. Any mortgage that has been or may hereafter be recorded may be discharged by an entry on the margin of the record thereof, signed by the mortgagee, or his legal personal representative or assignee, acknowledging the satisfaction of the mortgage, in the presence of the register of deeds, or his deputy, who shall subscribe the same as a witness, and such entry shall have the same effect as a deed of release duly acknowledged and recorded.

Amended 1887, p. 370. The word "assignee" applies to any assignee of the mortgage without regard to the form of the assignment. Daniels v. Densmore, 32, 40 (48 N. W., 906).

4352. Every such certificate, and the proof or the acknowledgment thereof, shall be indexed in the order of mortgages, and recorded at full length; and in the record of discharge the register of deed shall make a reference to the book and page where the mortgage is recorded.

Amended 1887, p. 371.

4353. If any mortgagee, or his personal representative or assignee, after full performance of the condition of the mortgage, whether before or after a breach thereof, shall for the space of seven days after being thereto requested, and after tender of his reasonable charges, refuse or neglect to discharge the same as provided in this chapter, or to execute or acknowledge a certificate of discharge or release thereof, he shall be liable to the mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, in the sum of one hundred dollars damages, and also for all actual damages occasioned by such neglect or refusal, to be recovered in the proper action.

The only party who can enter this satisfaction is the one who owns and receives the debt. If he be an assignee, he should provide himself with authority to satisfy the mortgage. No particular form of words necessary. Daniels v. Densmore, 32, 14 (48 N. W., 906).

4354. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the conveyance of all claims and improvements upon the public lands.

4355. No grant or conveyance of lands, or interest therein, shall be void for the reason that at the time of the execution thereof such lands shall be in the actual possession of another, claiming adversely.

4357. The governor of this state may commission so many commissioners in such of the states and territories of the United States, and in the District of Columbia, as he may deem expedient, in any one city or county, who shall continue in office four years, and shall have authority to take the acknowledgment and proof of the execution of any instrument in writing, conveying real estate, or any interest therein, or affecting the same, lying in this state, or of any assignment, transfer, power of attorney, satisfaction of a judgment, or of a mortgage, or of any other writing to be used or recorded in this state; and also to administer oaths and affirmations necessary to the proper discharge of their duties. *All acts performed in pursuance of the laws of this state or the laws of the territory of Nebraska, by commissioners of deeds heretofore appointed by the governor of the territory of Nebraska, shall be deemed and held to be valid and binding in law.

Amended and all after * added 1867, p. 51.

4358. Any acknowledgment or proof taken in pursuance of the powers hereby conferred, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and certified by the commissioner, under his hand and official seal, upon the instrument mentioned in the preceding section, shall, when authenticated as hereinafter mentioned, be entitled to be recorded in the office of the county clerk, and shall have the same force and effect, and be as available as if taken or made before any officer by this chapter authorized to take proofs or acknowledgments, residing in this state; and any affidavit or affirmation so made before any such commissioner, certified and authenticated as aforesaid, may be read in evidence, and shall be as good and effectual to all intents as if taken and certified by an officer authorized to administer oaths residing in this state.

4359. Every commissioner appointed as aforesaid shall, before he performs any duty by virtue of his appointment and of this law, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation before some officer authorized to administer the same, well and faithfully to perform all the duties of such commissioner, under and by virtue of the laws of Nebraska, which oath or affirmation shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state of Nebraska. And every such commissioner shall also, before he enters upon the duties of his office, cause to be prepared an official seal, on which shall be designated his name and the words "a commissioner for Nebraska," together with the name of the state or territory, city, and county within which he shall reside, and for which he shall have been appointed, and shall transmit to and cause to be filed in the office of said secretary a distinct impression of such seal, taken upon wax or some other substance capable of receiving and retaining a clear impression together with his signature in his own proper handwriting.

4360. When any deed or other insturument shall be proved or acknowledged, or any oath or affirmation shall be taken before any commissioner appointed by virtue of this chapter, before it shall be entitled to be used, recorded, or read in evidence, in addition to the preceding requisites, there shall be subjoined or affixed to the certificate, signed and sealed by each commissioner as aforesaid, a certificate under the hand and official seal of the secretary of state of Nebraska, certifying that such commissioner was, at the time of taking such proof or acknowledgment, or of administering such oath or affirmation, duly authorized to take the same, and that the secretary is acquainted with the handwriting of such commissioner, or has compared the signature to such certificate with the signature of such commissioner deposited in his office, and has also compared the impression of the seal affixed to such certificate with the impression of the seal of such commissioner deposited in his office, and that he verily believes the signature and the impression of the seal of the said certificate to be genuine.

4361. No commissioner appointed under or by virtue of this law shall be authorized to take the proof or acknowledgment of any deed or instrument, or to administer any oath or affirmation, at any place other than that within which he shall reside, or for which he shall have been appointed; and every certificate of any such commissioner to any proof or acknowledgment taken before him, or to any oath or affirmation administered by him, shall specify the day on which, and the city, or town, and county within which the same was taken or administered; and without such specification, the said certificate shall be void.

4362. No acknowledgment of any conveyance having been executed shall be taken by any officer, unless the officer taking the same shall know, or have satisfactory evidence that the person making such acknowledgment is the person described in and who executed such conveyance.

4363. The recording of an assignment of a mortgage shall not, in it self, be deemed notice of such assignment to the mortgagor, his heirs, or personal representatives, so as to invalidate any payment made by them, or either of them, to the mortgagee.

Assignment of part of the notes secured by mortgage is an assignment pro tanto of the mortgage. Studebaker Mfg. Co. v. McCargur, 20, 503 (30 N. W., 686). See Moses v. Comstock, 4, 520.

Amended 1883, p. 264; 1887, p. 372.

4365. Every officer within this state authorized to take the acknowledgment or proof of any conveyance, and every county clerk who shall be guilty of knowingly stating an untruth, or guilty of any malfeasance or fraudulent practice in the execution of the duties prescribed for them by law, in relation to the taking or the certifying the proof or acknowledgment, or the recording or certifying of any record of any such conveyance, mortgage, or instrument in writing, or in relation to the canceling of any mortgage, shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to punishment by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding one year, and shall also be liable in damages to the party injured.

4366. Any real estate belonging to a married woman may be managed, controlled, leased, devised, or conveyed by her by deed, or by will, in the same manner and with like effect as if she were single.

Where husband and wife formerly owned land in severalty, the land being sold, the proceeds deposited in bank in husband's name, afterwards land purchased and deed made to husband, and when suit brought against the husband he deeds land to wife, held, that such deed is void. Aultman, Taylor & Co. v. Obermeyer, 6, 265. Contracts made with reference to the faith and credit of her separate estate binding. Married woman may mortgage her dower interest. Hale v. Christy, 8, 269.

4367. To convey her right of dower, she must execute a deed with or without her husband.

4368. The term "real estate," as used in this chapter, shall be construed as co-extensive in meaning with "lands, tenements, and hereditaments," and as embracing all chattels real, except leases for a term not exceeding one year.

Does not apply to school land leases, which are personal property. Mulloy v. Kyle, 26, 316 (41 N. W., 1117).

4369. The term "purchaser," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to embrace every person to whom any real estate or interest therein shall be conveyed for a valuable consideration, and also any assignee of a mortgage or lease, or other conditional estate.

4370. The term "deed," as used in this chapter, shall be construed to embrace every instrument in writing by which any real estate or interest therein is created, aliened, mortgaged, or assigned, or by which the title to any real estate may be affected in law or equity, except last wills, and leases for one year or for a less time.

In deed which does not state where the land is, but which is acknowledged in Douglas county, the presumption is that the land is in that county. Butler v. Davis et al., 5, 524. For quitclaim deed, see Snowden v. Tyler, 21, 216 (31 N. W., 661).

4371. The preceding section shall not be construed to extend to a letter of attorney, or other instrument containing a power to convey lands as agent or attorney for the owner of such lands; but every such letter or instrument, and every executory contract for the sale or purchase of lands, when proved or acknowledged in the manner prescribed in this chapter, may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of any county in which the real estate to which such power or contract relates may be situated; and when so proved or acknowledged, and the record thereof, when recorded, or the transcript of such record, may be read in evidence, in the same manner and with the like effect as a conveyance recorded in such county.

Amended 1887, p. 372. Form held good. Alexander v. Goodwin, 20, 219 (29 N. W., 468). See Cones v. Neligh, 5, 304.

Sec. 4372. "An act providing for the recording of a duly authenticated copy of the record of any power of attorney recorded in the county clerk's office in any county of the state. 1883, p. 265. In force June 1.

4372. That a duly authenticated copy of the record of any power recorded in this state shall be entitled to record, and shall operate to all intents and purposes, having the same force and effect, as the record of the original instrument. Such copy shall be duly authenticated only when there shall be attached thereto a certificate of the register of deeds under his hand and official seal, setting forth that the same is a true copy of the orignal record in his office, the date of the filing of the original instrument, and the volume and the page where the same is recorded; Provided, That it shall be unlawful for any register of deeds in this state to give a certified copy of any power of attorney which has been revoked and the revocation thereof filed in his office, without also stating the facts of such revocation in his certificate, and any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

4373. A married woman shall not be bound by any covenant in a joint deed of herself and husband.

4374. The term "heirs," or other technical words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple.

The common law rule is not in force in this state, and words of inheritance are not necessary to convey the fee. Little v. Giles, 25, 321 (41 N. W., 186).

4375. Every conveyance of real estate shall pass all the interest of the grantor therein, unless a contrary intent can be reasonably inferred from the terms used.

All after * added 1875, p. 90.

4377. Estates may be created to commence at a future day.

4378. In the construction of every instrument creating or conveying, or authorizing or requiring the creation or conveyance of any real estate, or interest therein, it shall be the duty of the courts of justice to carry into effect the true interest of the parties, so far as such intent can be collected from the whole instrument, and so far as such intent is consistent with the rules of law.

Courts will try to give effect to the true intent of the parties. Eiseley v. Spooner, 23, 473 (36 N. W., 659). The granting or conveyance and the habendum clause of a deed must be reconciled if possible. Rupert v. Penner, 35, 600 (53 N. W., 598).

4379. In the absence of stipulations to the contrary, the mortgagor of real estate retains the legal title and right of possession thereof.

Mortgagor not liable for rents and profits while in possession. Renard v. Brown, 7, 453. And the mortgagee has no interest in the real estate which he can convey by lease. Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., v. Lovitt, 10, 302 (4 N. W., 986). Mortgage does not convey title but is a mere lien on property. And mortgagee does not become assignee of covenants running with the lands. Davidson v. Cox, 11, 252 (9 N. W., 95). See Higginbottom v. Benson, 24, 463 (39 N. W., 418).

Secs. 4380 to 4390. "An act for the relief of occupants and claimants," etc. 1883, p. 249. In force February 23. (Repealing G. S., ch. 51.)

4380. That in all cases where any person claiming title to real estate, whether in actual possession or not, for which such person can show a plain and connected title, in law or equity, derived from the records of some public office, or from the United States, or from this state, or derived from any such person by devise, descent, deed, contract, or bond, such person or persons claiming or holding as aforesaid, shall not be evicted or turned out of possession of such real estate, nor shall his claim or title be set aside or canceled by any court in any proceedings brought or commenced by any person setting up and proving an adverse and better title or claim to such real estate, until such person claiming as aforesaid shall be fully paid the value of all lasting and valuable improvements made upon such real estate by such claimant or by those under whom he claims, and also for all taxes and assessments paid upon said real estate by such claimant, and the persons under whom he claims, with interest thereon at the same rate of interest as provided by law for delinquent taxes, and for all sums of money paid by such occupant or claimant, or those under whom he claims, to redeem such real estate from any sale or sales for non-payment of taxes previous to receiving actual notice by the commencement of suit on such adverse title or claim by which such eviction or cancellation may be had, unless such occupant or claimant shall refuse to pay the person so setting up and proving an adverse and better title the value of such real estate without improvements made thereon as aforesaid, upon the demand of the successful claimant as hereinafter provided.

The last clause of this section, containing an implication that unless the occupant pays the value of the land on demand of the owner he must be turned out of possession, is in conflict with subsequent sections and is superseded by them. Leighton v. Young (Circ. Ct.), 52 Fed. Rep. 439. Vendee under contract providing for a forfeiture of all improvements in case of non-performance on his part, is not, in case of eviction, entitled to benefits of this act. Vance v. B. & M. R. R. Co., 12, 290 (11 N. W., 334). See B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Dobson, 19, 452 (27 N. W., 442). Shuman v. Willits, 19, 705 (28 N. W., 301).

4381. [Occupants.—Who are.]—Any person in possession of or claiming any real estate under a certificate of entry or under the homestead or pre-emption laws of the United States, as well as the persons enumerated in the first section of this act, shall be considered as having sufficient title to demand the value of improvements, and to demand the amount of all taxes and assessments paid by such claimant or those under whom he claims, under the provisions of the first section of this act. The tax certificates and the tax receipts of the county treasurer shall, for the purposes of this and the preceding section provided, be conclusive evidence of the assessment, levy, and payment of the taxes on such real estate, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the taxes paid by such occupant or claimant.

A person claiming under a tax deed is entitled to pay for improvements, etc. Page v. Davis, 26, 670 (42 N. W., 875).

4382. The court rendering judgment or decree in any case provided for by this act against any occupant or claimant shall, at the request of such occupant or claimant, issue an order to the sheriff of the county wherein such real estate is situated, commanding him to summons three disinterested freeholders of such county, whose duty it shall be to appraise such real estate and the improvements aforesaid at their cash value as hereinafter provided. Such appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath to impartially appraise the said real estate and improvements, which oath shall be filed with the clerk of the court issuing such order. The order thus issued to the sheriff shall be accompanied by written instructions from the court to the appraisers, necessary to carry out the provisions of this act. Such appraisers shall be allowed the same fees and mileage as jurors are allowed in the district court.

Final judgment should be rendered prior to taking any steps for the ascertainment of the value of the improvements. And where party in ejectment elects to proceed under this statute, he is estopped from having original judgment reviewed on error. Buchanan v. Dorsey, 11, 375 (9 N. W., 546).

4383. The appraisers shall jointly proceed at once, after service of said order on them, to view the real estate in question, and to assess the value of all lasting and valuable improvements on the same, previous to the party receiving actual notice as aforesaid of said adverse claim. They shall also assess the net anual value of the rents and profits which the occupant or claimant has received after having received notice of the successful claimant's title by service of process, and they shall deduct the amount thereof from the estimated value of the improvements aforesaid. They shall also assess the value of the land in question at the time such occupant went into possession thereof, or such claimant commenced to pay the tax thereon, as the same may be.

Harrall v. Gray, 12, 544 (11 N. W., 851). Cited and construed, Fletcher v. Brown, 35, 666 (53 N. W., 577).

4384. The appraisers shall make report in writing of their appraisement and deposit the same in a sealed envelope with the clerk of such court, within the time required by the court, and if either party shall think himself aggrieved by such appraisement he may file objections thereto at the term to which the same is returned, if returned in term time, ten days before such term adjourns, and if such report is made in vacation, or if made in term time, less than ten days before such term adjourns, then such objections may be filed on or before the second day of the term next ensuing. Upon the hearing of such objections, if the court is of the opinion that injustice has been done by such appraisement, the same shall be set aside and a new appraisement ordered. New appraisers shall thereupon be summoned and like proceedings had as hereinbefore provided.

4385. If no objections are made to the appraisement, or if made and overruled, the court shall proceed without pleadings to ascertain the amount of taxes paid by the occupant or claimant, with interest as hereinbefore provided for. If the appraisement reported to the court shall show a sum in favor of the occupant or claimant against whom such a decree or judgment is rendered, the amount of taxes and interest as ascertained by the court shall be added thereto, and decree entered therein in favor of such unsuccessful occupant or claimant against the said person proving a better title. Such decree shall constitute and be a lien upon said real estate, but in case the appraisement shall show a balance due the person proving a better title, the amount of such balance shall be deducted from the amount found due the occupant or unsuccessful claimant for taxes and interest, and decree be entered for the difference in favor of such occupant or claimant. If upon the whole finding there shall appear a balance due the successful claimants, judgment shall be rendered in his favor therefor.

This and following sections are valid, and the right here given enforcible by the federal courts; but they are not bound by the method of enforcement followed by the state courts (sec. 4380). Leighton v. Young (Circ. Ct.), 52 Fed. Rep., 439.

4387. If the successful claimant shall elect to pay and does pay to the occupant or claimant the balance found due him on the final hearing within such time as the court shall direct, then a writ of possession shall be issued in his favor against such occupant, or decree shall be entered against such unsuccessful claimant, as the case may require.

4388. If the successful claimant shall elect to receive the value of the real estate without improvements, to be paid by the occupants or claimant within such time as the court shall direct, and shall tender a general warranty deed for such real estate to the occupant or claimant, and such occupant or claimant shall refuse or neglect to pay said sum of money to the successful claimant within the time allowed by the court for that purpose, then such successful claimant shall deposit with the clerk of the court the amount found due the occupant or claimant, and thereupon a writ of possession shall be issued in favor of such successful claimants, or decree shall be entered in his favor as the case shall require.

4389. The occupant or claimant shall in no case be evicted from the possession, or deprived of his right in the premises, except as provided in the two preceding sections, and in case the successful claimant shall neglect to elect to take said real estate with improvements, or to convey the same to the occupant or claimant, within such time as the court shall direct, then decree shall be entered in favor of the occupant or claimant upon his paying into court the value of the real estate without improvement. Such decree shall have the effect to transfer and convey to such occupant or claimant the title and rights of the successful claimant.

4390. This act shall apply to all suits now pending or hereafter brought, wherein any of the claims or rights herein set forth shall be demanded, and such demand for improvements or taxes may be made upon the overruling by the court of a motion for a new trial, or in case the suit is one in equity, then such demand may be made within three days after the entry of decree. In suits now disposed of in which the unsuccessful occupant or claimant would have been entitled to the relief herein provided for, such occupant or claimant may make such application to the court within six months after this act shall become a law; Provided, however, That all of the provisions of this act shall be limited and restricted to those cases where the title to the real estate in controversy is derived from some source other than that which comes from such tax titles, tax certificates, tax receipts, or the payment of taxes by any person claiming any interest in or title to such real estate, by reason of such tax deeds, or tax titles, tax certificates, or tax receipts.

Request may be made after decision in supreme court in original case. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Dobson, 17, 455 (23 N. W., 353, 511). "Such tax titles," etc., construed. Page v. Davis, 26, 678 (42 N. W., 875).

Secs. 4391 to 4395. "An act to quiet title to real estate." 1873. In force February 24. G. S., p. 882.

4391. That an action may be brought and prosecuted to final decree, judgment, or order by any person or persons, whether in actual possession or not, claiming title to real estate against any person or persons who claim an adverse estate or interest therein, for the purpose of determining such estate or interest, and quieting the title to said real estate.

Party not in possession must have the legal title; party in possession without legal title must have been in possession for considerable time and that his right is threatened, or must have established his right by repeated litigation. State v. S. C. & P. R. R., 7, 376. One having but a leasehold interest may proceed under this act. McDonald v. Early, 15, 67 (17 N. W., 257). Neither party entitled to two trials. Mollie v. Peters, 28, 670 (44 N. W., 872). Either party is entitled to a jury. Betts v. Sims, 25, 184 (41 N. W., 117). Keens v. Gaslin, 24, 317 (38 N. W., 797). This does not dispense with the requirement that such plaintiff must have a legal title in order to maintain his action. Frost v. Spitley, 7 Sup. Ct. Rep., 1129; reversing 15 Fed. Rep., 299. A state has power to provide by statute that the title to land within its limits shall be settled by a suit in which the defendant being a non-resident is brought into court by publication only. Arndt v. Griggs, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 557. But this doctrine is doubted in Remer v. McKay, 54 Fed. Rep., 432.

4392. All such pleadings and proofs and subsequent proceedings shall be had in such action now pending or hereafter brought as may be necessary to fully settle and determine the question of title between the parties to said real estate, and to decree the title to the same, or any part thereof, to the party entitled thereto; and the court may issue the appropriate order to carry such decree, judgment, or order into effect.

Plaintiff must set out the title he calls a cloud. McDonald v. Early, 15, 68 (17 N. W., 257). See Rogers v. Empkie Hardware Co., 24, 655 (39 N. W., 844). Where cause of action not stated in petition, trial court may allow it to be amended so as to state cause of action in ejectment. Homan v. Hellman, 35, 414 (53 N. W., 369). Cited and construed, Arndt v. Griggs, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 557. Cited, Remer v. McKay, 54 Fed. Rep., 435.

4393. Any person or persons having an interest in remainders or reversion in real estate shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits of this act.

See Ins. Co. of North America v. McLimans, 28, 653 (44 N. W., 991).

4394. If the defendant or any one of several defendants shall appear and disclaim all title and interest adverse to the plaintiff such defendant shall recover his costs. In other cases the costs shall abide the final decree, judgment, or order in the action.

Secs. 4396 to 4399. "An act restricting non-resident aliens and corporations not incorporated under the laws of Nebraska in their right to acquire and hold real estate," etc. 1889, p. 483. In force March 16. (Repealing chapters 62 and 65, Laws 1887).

State alone can divest title. Carlow v. Aultman & Co., 28, 672 (44 N. W., 873).

4397. Whenever any such lands shall revert and escheat to the state of Nebraska, as provided in this act, it shall be the duty of the county attorney of the county in which such lands are situated, to proceed against such alien in the district court of the county where the land is situated for the purpose of having such forfeiture declared. Service of summons may be had upon the non-resident alien defendants by publication as provided in the statutes of Nebraska for the service of summons by publication in cases of foreclosure of mortgages, and the court shall have power to hear and determine the questions presented in such cases and to declare such lands escheated to the state; and when such forfeiture shall be declared by the district court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to notify the governor of the state that the title to such lands is vested in the state by the decree of the said court; and the clerk of the court shall present the auditor of public accounts with the bill of costs incurred by the county in prosecuting such case, who shall issue a warrant to the clerk of the court on the state treasury to repay the county for such costs incurred. The heirs or persons who would have been entitled to such lands, shall be paid by the state of Nebraska the full value thereof, as ascertained by appraisement upon the oaths of the judge, treasurer, and clerk of the county where such lands lie, and such lands shall then become subject to the law, and shall be disposed of as other lands belonging to the state; Provided, That the expense of the appraisement shall be deducted from the appraised value of the land.

Secs. 4400 to 4404. "An act to provide security to the public against errors, omissions, and defects in abstracts of title to real estate and for the use of abstracts in evidence." 1887, p. 565. In force July 1.

4400. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to engage in the business of compiling abstracts of titles to real estate in the state of Nebraska, and demand and receive pay for the same, without first filing in the office of the county judge of the county in which such business is conducted, a bond to the state of Nebraska in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), with not less than three sureties, residents of the county, to be approved by such county judge, conditioned for the payment by such abstracters of any and all damages that may accrue to any party or parties by reason of any error, deficiency, or mistake in any abstract or certificate of title made and issued by such person or persons.

4401. When any abstracter shall have duly filed his bond as above provided, he shall be entitled to receive a certificate from such county judge that said bond has been by him duly approved and filed for record, which certificate shall be valid so long as such abstracter shall maintain his surety upon the bonds, as herein provided for, unimpaired, and the possession of such valid certificate, at the date of issuance of any abstract, shall entitle such abstract of title to real estate, certified to and issued by such abstracter, to be received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the existence of the record of deeds, mortgages, and other instruments, conveyances, or liens affecting the real estate mentioned in such abstract, and that such record is as described in said abstract of title.

4402. Any party to a civil action who may desire to use in evidence at the trial thereof any abstract of title to real estate as herein provided, shall furnish to the opposing party or his attorney a copy of such abstract at least three days before the trial of said action, and in case such real estate be not in the county where such trial is to take place, then such copy shall be so furnished to the opposing party or his attorney, to allow a sufficient number of days, such opposing party to proceed by the usual route of travel to the county seat of the county where such real estate may be situated and return to the place of trial, in addition to the three days for preparation above provided for.

4403. The bond herein provided for may run during the continuance of said person or persons in said abstract business, not to exceed five years, and the county judge of the county where the bond herein provided for may be filed may at any time, upon complaint of any owner of real estate in his county, require such abstracter upon ten days' notice to give additional security upon said bond, and show cause why the same should not be declared invalid and the certificate thereof recalled and annulled; and if within such time the additional security to be approved by said county judge be not furnished, and no sufficient reason be shown to the judge why the same should not be required, then said bond shall be declared invalid, and the certificate thereof recalled and annulled.

4404. The abstracter or complainant may have an appeal to the district court from such decision of the judge by preserving the evidence taken at the hearing, which shall be certified up by such judge, and such appeal shall be summarily decided by the court upon such evidence, and the cost of such appeal, including the furnishing of said evidence, shall be adjudged against the defeated party.

Sec. 4405. "An act entitled 'An act providing for the record of certain papers and documents' in the county clerk's office and to make the same evidence." 1885, p. 298. In force March 5.

4405. Whenever any person referred to in the third section of the act of congress entitled "An act to provide for the location of certain confirmed land claims in the state of Missouri, and for other purposes," approved June 21, 1828 (11 Statutes at Large, 294 and 295), has had a private land claim which has not been located and satisfied, has died before making the entry therein authorized of public land, and his right so to do has been sold by order of the probate court of the county and state of his residence, and the entry of public lands in this state has been made by the purchaser or his grantee, and letters patent of the United States have issued to the original claimant or his legal representatives, it shall be competent for the owner of the land under the patentee to cause to be recorded in the book of deeds in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the land is situate, a copy of the proceedings of the said probate court upon which the right of the original claimant was sold as aforesaid, together with the proceedings of the several officers on said sale, which copy shall be duly certified by the clerk of said court or of any court which has succeeded to the jurisdiction of said probate court, and in which the records of said probate court are by law deposited, and the record so made in the county clerk's office shall be taken and held by all courts of this state as evidence of the transfer of the right to make such entry in the land office, and of the title of the purchaser at said probate sale, and his grantees under the said sale to the lands patented as aforesaid, and a copy of the said record in the county clerk's office, certified by that officer, may be read in evidence with the like force and effect as the original papers.

Secs. 4406 and 4407. "An act to provide for the disposition of unclaimed lots entered in trust by corporate authorities. 1867, p. 94. In force June 24.

4406. That all persons who shall be or may become the owners of any equities of title in and to any town lot or lots or land within any incorporated town or city in this state, by virtue of which they shall be entitled to demand and receive from the corporate authorities a title in fee simple to the same, shall present their claims and make demand for their deed, within sixty days from the passage of this act, in all those cases where the lot, lots, or lands have already been unclaimed for the period of two years; and in all cases of sites of corporate towns or cities which may be hereafter entered the property shall be claimed and the deed demanded within three years after such entry; Provided, That if any person shall neglect to comply with the terms of this act as aforesaid, the title in and to such realty shall vest in the corporation as fully, and to all intents and purposes, as though conveyed to said town or city by deed of general warranty.

4407. This act shall be construed to apply to rights acquired previous to the entry of the land; and in no case to rights of parties acquired by virtue of any tax sale.

CHAPTER 48.—SALVAGES.

4408. When any boat, raft, lumber, staves, shingles, logs, rails, posts, cordwood, or other valuable timber shall be lost or wrecked upon any river or creek, any person may take up and secure the same.

4410. When any person shall take up and secure any such property of less value than ten dollars, he may retain and dispose of the same to his own use, provided the owner does not claim the same within ten days after the taking up of such property.

4411. When such property shall be of greater value than ten dollars, the justice of the peace shall, by warrant under his hand, direct any constable to sell the same at public vendue, giving ten days' notice, by three advertisements put up in public places in his precinct, of the time and place of sale.

4412. The owner, on proof of ownership before any justice of the peace, may have restitution of his property at any time before the sale is made, on payment of salvage and costs.

4413. If no claimant appears on or before the time of the sale, the justice shall allow to the taker-up his salvage according to this act, and the balance of said money, after paying the costs, shall be paid by said justice into the treasury, for the benefit of public schools of such county.

4414. When it may be necessary to ascertain the value of any property so taken, any justice of the peace of the proper county, on the application of any party concerned, may appoint three freeholders, who, being sworn, shall ascertain and assess the value of such property, and return their valuation to such justice.

4415. Within two days after the taking up and securing of any such wrecked property, the salvor shall make oath before a justice of the peace of the precinct in which such property is taken up or secured, that the property was lost or wrecked and in a perishable condition, and that he was not directly or indirectly instrumental in causing the property to be so wrecked or lost, and also the quantity, quality, and estimated value of such property, and the time and place of taking up, and that he has not disposed or secreted any part of the same. If such property be not claimed and proved by the owner within ten days after the filing of such affidavit, such justice shall, on the application of such salvor, issue a warrant directed to any constable of said township, directing him to sell the same at public vendue, first giving ten days' notice, by three advertisements put in public places in his precinct, of the time and place of sale; and if such property be not claimed and proved by the owners, and the salvage and costs paid, then such property shall be sold and the proceeds shall be returned to such justice, who shall pay to the proper parties the salvage and costs of proceeding; and the remainder, if any, shall be paid into the county treasury for the benefit of public school fund of such county, unless the owner shall make proof of his right to the same within three months;

Provided, If the name or initial of the owner of any log, toy, or other property, be plainly marked or branded thereon, then the salvor shall, in addition to the foregoing proceedings, also give notice to the owner, if known from such mark or brand.

4416. If any person shall retain, sell, or dispose of any such property wrecked, lost, or adrift, without complying with each and all of the requirements of this act, such person shall be deemed guilty of the larceny of such property, and on conviction thereof shall be punished as for the unlawful taking, stealing, and carrying away of such property.

CHAPTER 49.—SEALS.

4417. The use of private seals upon all deeds, mortgages, leases, bonds, and other instruments and contracts in writing is hereby abolished, and the addition of a private seal to any such instrument or contract in writing hereafter made shall not affect its equity or legality in any respect.

See Richardson v. Woodruff, 20, 137 (29 N. W., 308).

4418. All deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing, for the conveyance or incumbrance of real estate, or any interest therein, which have heretofore been made and executed, without the use of a private seal are, notwithstanding, hereby declared to be legal and valid in all courts of law and equity in this state and elsewhere.

CHAPTER 50.—STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Secs. 4419 to 4421. "An act to aid and encourage the 'Nebraska State Historical Society.'" 1883, p. 340. In force June 1.

4419. That the "Nebraska State Historical Society," an organization now in existence—Robt. W. Furnas, president; James M. Woolworth and Elmer S. Dundy, vice presidents; Samuel Aughey, secretary, and W. W. Wilson, treasurer, their associates and successors—be and the same is hereby recognized as a state institution.

4420. That it shall be the duty of the president and secretary of said institution to make annually reports to the governor, as required by other state institutions. Said report to embrace the transactions and expenditures of the organization, together with all historical addresses which have been or may hereafter be read before the society or furnished it as historical matter, or data of the state or adjacent western regions of country.

4421. That said reports, addresses, and papers shall be published at the expense of the state, and distributed as other similar official reports, a reasonable number, to be decided by the state and society, to be furnished said society for its use and distribution.

CHAPTER 51.—STATE PRINTING.

Secs. 4422 to 4436. "An act to establish a printing law for the state of Nebraska," etc. 1883, p. 257. In force December 1, 1884. (Repealing Laws 1867, p. 64, et seq.)

4423. The printing of all bills for the legislature, with such matters as may be ordered by either house thereof, to be printed in bill form, shall be let in one contract. The printing and binding of the senate and house journals shall be let in another contract. The printing and binding of reports of state officers authorized by law to be printed, and all other reports and documents ordered by the legislature, except such as enter into and form a part of the journals, shall be let in another contract. The printing and binding of the laws, joint resolutions, and memorials enacted by the legislature shall be let in another contract. And the printing and binding of all blanks, blank books, and circulars required to be furnished by the officers of the executive department of the state shall be let in another contract.

4424. The contracts for printing of bills and reports of state officers shall be let on the second Tuesday in December for a period of two years following. The contract for the publication of laws and journals of each regular and special session shall be let within twenty days after the final adjournment of such session. The contract for the furnishing of blanks, blank books, and circulars shall be let within thirty days after the adjournment of each regular session of the legislature, for the period of two years following.

4425. Immediately after the adjournment of any regular or special session of the legislature, the board shall advertise in five newspapers of general circulation, printed in the state, for proposals for printing of laws and journals of such session, and twenty days prior to the time fixed in the preceding section for the letting of other contracts shall similarly advertise for proposals for the letting of such other contracts. The advertisement shall briefly refer to said letting, stating the number of copies of the different kinds of work, the style and size thereof, the quality of paper and binding required, and samples of the same, and that copy of work to be done may be seen at the office of the secretary of state. The advertisement shall also state that the board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

4426. It shall be the duty of the board to decide on the kind, style, and form, the amount of printed matter on a page, the kind and quality of paper, the size of type, the quality and style of binding, and all materials necessary for the publication of the laws, journals, reports of state officers, and bills, and also place samples and copy of work to be done of the same on exhibition in the office of the secretary of state, and all bids and contracts shall strictly conform thereto. Each bid shall state what the bidder is willing to do the work complete, including composition, paper, press work, stitching, binding, lettering, and all material entering into the work required.

4428. The proposal or bid for any of the contracts aforesaid shall not be considered unless the same shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of five-thousand dollars ($5,000), with two or more sureties, that in case the party propose ing for any such contract shall be awarded the same such party will, within five days after the award to him of such contract, enter into bonds for the faithful performance thereof.

4429. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to give immediate notice to the successful bidder that his proposal has been accepted, and each successful bidder shall in five days thereafter enter into bonds to the state in the sum of not less than twice the amount of the contract price for each and every contract so awarded to him, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said board, conditioned for the faithful performance, pursuant to this act, of that contract for which he has been adjudged the successful bidder; and if he fail to so give bond within the time allowed, then the contract shall be given to the next lowest bidder who will give bond as aforesaid, or the board may in their discretion advertise anew and relet the contract in the manner hereinbefore provided.

4430. Each contractor under the provisions of this act shall furnish the proper officer with proof sheets in page form of any work required to be done under his contract, and immediately upon the completion thereof shall deliver the same without expense to the secretary of state, who shall deliver the work to the officer entitled thereto.

4431. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to draw all contracts let under the provisions of this act, and each contract shall be signed by the members of the said board and the party to whom such contract has been awarded; and said contract and the bonds as hereinbefore provided for shall be filed in the office of secretary of state. In case of the non-performance of any contract by the contractor, whereby the state is damaged, and in case any successful bidder shall fail to enter into bond as heretofore provided, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, when so directed by the board, to bring suit upon the proper bond and contract for the recovery of any damage that the state may have sustained by reason thereof.

4432. Upon the completion of each contract or any particular job of work required under any of the provisions of this act, payment therefor shall be made to the proper contractor at the contract price upon vouchers certified to as "correct" by the printing board, in the same manner that other accounts against the state are paid, out of any funds appropriated for that purpose by the legislature.

4433. The contractor for the printing of bills or any matter printed in bill form shall promptly, and without unnecessary delay, execute all orders of the legislature, or either house thereof, for such printing, and for each failure to complete said printing within three days after receiving the order for the same the contractor shall forfeit and pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars, to be deducted from his account on settlement; and all contractors under the provisions of this act shall without unnecessary delay execute all orders issued to them by the printing board, and the contractor for printing and binding the laws shall deliver the same to the secretary of state within sixty days after the adjournment of each session of the legislature, and the contractor for printing and binding of the journals shall deliver the same to the secretary of state within ninety days after receiving the copy thereof.

4434. The secretary of state shall furnish a true and accurate copy of the laws and journals as they may be demanded by the printer thereof, and the clerks of the respective branches of the legislature shall each furnish to the printer, who is bound by his contract to print the same, copies of the journals, bills, reports, and other papers and documents, without unnecessary delay, and no contractor shall be accountable for any delay occasioned by the want of such copy.

Secs. 4437 to 4440. "An act to provide for preparing and publishing a full statement of moneys expended at each session of the legislature." 1877, p. 157. In force June 1.

4437. The auditing board for state printing, consisting of the secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, and state treasurer, shall within thirty days after the adjournment of each session of the legislature receive proposals from the daily newspapers of the state for one publication in said paper of a statement to be prepared by the auditor of public accounts as hereinafter provided.

4438. The said board of audit shall award the contract to one of the three daily papers having the largest daily circulation in the state, the same to be ascertained by the affidavit of the publishers thereof, and from such other reliable information as said board may be able to obtain.

4439. After said award has been made as aforesaid the auditor of public accounts shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a certified statement of all appropriations whatever made by the last session of the legislature, and also a full statement of the expenses of said legislative session, specifying the amount of each item and to whom and for what paid.

4440. The expenses incurred by virtue of the provisions of this act shall be audited and paid in the manner now provided by law for the payment of other state printing.

Sec. 4441. "An act providing for the printing of biennial reports of certain state officers." 1875, p. 165. In force February 25. (Sec. 1 superseded by sec. 1, act 1881, p. 90 [see 3100]; sec. 3, temporary and omitted.)

4441. The state printer receiving the copy for printing said biennial reports during or any time before the contract shall have expired shall furnish and complete the order given under his contract, and the same shall be audited and paid for as provided by law.

CHAPTER 52.—TRUSTS.

KECKLEY ANTI-TRUST LAW.

Secs. 4442 to 4449. "An act to prohibit persons, partnerships, companies, associations, or corporations engaged as manufacturers or dealers from entering into any understanding, contract, combination, pool, or trust for any purpose whatever, and to provide punishment for violations of the same, and providing means for the suppression of such evils and remedies for persons injured thereby." 1889, p. 516. In force June 30.

4442. [Combinations in restraint of trade.]—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation organized for any purpose whatever or engaged in the manufacture or sale of any article of commerce or consumption, or for any such person or persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation dealing in any natural product to enter into any contract, agreement, or combination with any other person or persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation organized and doing business in this state, or in any other state or territory and doing business in this state, engaged in the manufacturing, selling, or dealing in the same, or any like manufactured or natural product whereby a common price shall be fixed for any such article or product, or whereby the manufacture or sale thereof shall be limited or the amount, extent, or number of such product to be sold or manufactured shall be determined, or whereby any one or more of the combining or contracting parties shall suspend or cease the sale or manufacture of such products, or whereby the products or profits of such manufacture or sale shall be made a common fund to be divided among the respective persons, partnerships, companies, association, or corporation so entering into such contract, agreement, or combination.

4443. Pooling between persons, partnerships, companies, associations or corporations, engaged in the same or like business for any purpose whatever, and the formation of combinations or common understanding between two or more persons, companies, partnerships, associations, or corporations, in the nature of what are commonly called trusts, for any purpose whatever, or the continuance of the same after the taking effect of this act, are hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, and each day of the continuance of any such pool or trusts shall constitute a separate offense.

4444. That in any case any person, persons, company, partnership, association, or corporation shall do, cause to be done, or permit to be done, any act, matter, or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, such person, persons, partnership, company, or corporation shall be liable to the person, persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation injured thereby, for the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of any such violations of the provisions of this act, together with a reasonable counsel or attorney fee to be fixed by the court in every case of recovery, which attorney's fee shall be taxed and collected as part of the costs in the case, and the property of any person who may be a member or interested in any partnership, association, company, or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be liable for the full amount of such judgment and may be levied upon and sold to satisfy the same.

4445. Any association of persons doing business in this state in a firm, partnership, or corporate name, and not incorporated under the laws of the state who shall violate the provisions of this act, in addition to the other penalties and liabilities herein provided, shall forfeit its right to do business in such firm, partnership, or corporate name; and if any such person shall thereafter continue to do business in such firm, partnership, or corporate name, they shall incur the penalties provided in section three (3) of the act entitled "An act providing for the recording the names of all members of associations doing business under a firm, partnership, or corparate name."

See sec. 3230, ch. 40.

4446. Any corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, in addition to the other penalties and liabilities herein provided, shall surrender and forfeit its right and privileges as a corporation, and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the proper county to institute proceedings against said corporation or the persons constituting the same for the purpose of having the same dissolved, and the same proceedings shall be and the same judgment may be rendered as is provided in title 23, entitled "Information," of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4447. Any person, partnership, company, association, or corporation subject to the provisions of this act, or any director, officer, receiver, trustee, clerk, lessee, agent, or person acting for or employed by them or either of them who shall violate any of the provisions of section one (1) or two (2) of this act shall be declared guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned in the jail of the county for a period not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

4448. In any action brought under any of the provisions of this act the court before whom the same shall be pending may compel any person, or persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation so proceeded against, or any of the members of any such partnership or corporation, or any director, officer, receiver, trustee, agent, employee, or clerk of them, or either of them, to attend, appear, and testify in such suit or proceeding, and may compel the production of the books and papers of any such person, persons, partnership, company, association, or corporation party to any such proceeding.

4449. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any assemblies or associations of laboring men from passing and adopting such regulations as they may think proper, in reference to wages and the compensation of labor, and such assemblies and associations shall retain—and there is hereby reserved to them—all the rights and privileges now accorded to them by law, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Secs. 4449a to 4449c. "An act to prohibit lumber dealers, coal dealers, or other persons, companies, partnerships or associations from entering into any contract or agreement or combination to pool or fix the price at which lumber or coal shall be sold, and to provide punishment for violation of the same." 1893, ch. 49, p. 398. In force August 1.

4449*a*. That it shall be unlawful for any lumber dealer, or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association of lumber dealers, coal dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation or association, to enter into any agreement, contract or combination with any other lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation, association, person or party, for the pooling or fixing of prices of different and competing dealers and sellers, or to divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such dealers and sellers, or any portion thereof, or for fixing the price at which any lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association of lumber dealers or coal dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, association or party, shall sell lumber or coal, and in case of any agreement, contract or combination for such pooling of prices of different competing dealers and and sellers, or to divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of dealers and sellers, or any portion thereof, or for fixing in any manner the price at which any lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association of lumber dealers or coal dealers, or any other persons, partnership, company, corporation or association for dealing in coal or lumber shall sell lumber or coal, or of fixing in any manner a minimum price at which any lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association shall sell lumber or coal, each day of its continuance shall be deemed a separate offense, and shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

4449*b*. That in case any lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, or any person or persons, partnership, company, corporation or association, subject to the provisions of this act shall do or cause to be done, or knowingly suffer, or permit to be done, any act, matter or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing, in this act required to be done, such lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association shall be liable to the person or persons, or party injured thereby, to the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of any such violation of any of the provisions of this act, together with reasonable counsel fees or attorney's fee to be fixed by the court in every case of recovery, which attorney fee shall be taxed and collected as a part of the costs in the case, and in any such action, brought for the recovery of damages under the provisions of this act, the court before whom the same shall be pending, may compel any lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association of lumber dealers or coal dealers, and any person or persons, partnership, company, corporation or association, subject to the provisions of this act, or any director, officer, receiver, trustee, agent, employee or clerk of them, or either of them defendant in such action or suit to attend, appear and testify in such case; and the court may also compel the production of the books and papers of such lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership, company, corporation or association of lumber dealers or coal dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation or association, party to any such suit. The claim that any such testimony or evidence may tend to criminate the person giving such evidence, shall not excuse such witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person in the trial of any criminal proceedings.

4449*c*. That any lumber dealer or lumber dealers, coal dealer or coal dealers, partnership company, corporation or association, person or persons, subject to the provisions of this act, or any director or officer, or any receiver, trustee, clerk, lessee, agent, or person acting for, or employed by them, or either of them, who alone or with any other person, party, partnership, company, corporation or association shall willfully suffer or permit to be done any act, matter or thing in this act prohibited, or declared to be unlawful, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall willfully omit or fail to do any act, matter or thing in this act required to be done, or shall cause or willingly suffer or permit any act, matter or thing so directed by this act not to be done or shall aid or abet any such omission or failure, or shall be guilty of any infraction of any of the provisions of this act, or shall aid or abet therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than two hundred dollars, and not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, and shall moreover be liable to the suit of the party injured or damaged.

Secs. 4449*d* to 4449*h*. "An act to provide for the security and payment of rebate vouchers, or certificates issued by incorporated companies, trusts, associations, firms and individuals, and to provide a penalty for the violation of this act. 1893, ch. 25, p. 348. In force April 6. (Watson's bill.)

4449*d*. That all incorporated companies, trusts and associations, firms or individuals doing business within this state which issue rebate vouchers or certificates or make any promises, verbal or in writing, to allow within a specified time a reduction in the price charged upon the condition of the sale, shall deposit in such trust company or companies, or such bank or banks in the state of Nebraska, as shall from time to time be appointed and designated by the state auditor under his hand and seal, such sum or sums of money, as shall be equal in amount to such rebate vouchers or certificates issued, or promises made as aforesaid upon or derived from the business done in this state by such incorporated companies, trusts, and associations, firms or individuals as security for the payment of all such rebate vouchers, certificates or promises, and all sales made or contracts formed by or with any such companies, trusts and associations, firms or individuals, shall not be lawful and binding upon the citizens of this state, unless such companies, trusts and associations, firms or individuals shall have complied with the provisions of this act.

4449*e*. It shall be the duty of the proper officers of the company or companies, bank or banks holding such deposited sum or sums for the security and payment of such rebate vouchers, certificates or promises, to properly and officially certify all such rebate vouchers, certificates or promises, if made in writing, on presentation, and the same shall thereupon become a legal lien upon all such sum or sums so deposited and held by such trust company or companies, bank or banks, as herein provided, and all such rebate vouchers, certificates or promises, if made in writing, shall also be transferable at the option of the payee by endorsement thereon by the payee and subsequent endorsees, and when due shall be payable by such depository upon presentment by the person legally entitled thereto.

4449*f*. It shall be the duty of all incorporated companies, trusts, and associations, firms or individuals doing business in this state as provided in section one (1) of this act, to notify the state auditor on the fifth day of each month, or if that day be a Sunday or legal holiday, on the day following, of the number and amount of all rebate vouchers or certificates issued by them or promises made by them as hereinbefore described upon their business done in this state within the preceding month, and the said auditor within ten days thereafter, shall notify and direct such incorporated companies, trusts, and associations, firms or individuals, to deposit within ten days after the date of such notice or direction in such trust company or companies, bank or banks, as shall be appointed and designated by said auditor, such sum or sums as shall be equal in amount to all such rebate vouchers or certificates so issued or promises made by them as herein provided to secure the payment of the same.

4449*g*. Within twenty days after this act shall take effect, the auditor of the state shall designate and appoint such good and reliable trust company or companies, or such good and reliable bank or banks in the state of Nebraska, as depositories of such sum or sums as are herein provided, as shall agree to pay the largest amount of interest upon such sum or sums as they may receive on deposit to secure the payment of the rebate vouchers or certificates issued or promises made by such incorporated company or companies, trusts and associations, firms or individuals, such interest to be paid to the incorporated company or companies, trusts or associations, firms or individuals depositing such sum or sums as provided for in this act.

4449*h*. Any incorporated company, trust, association, firm or individual, who shall violate any provision of this act, shall forfeit all right to transact or do business in this state, and any officer, agent, servant or other employee of any such incorporated company, trust or association, firm or individual, who shall represent or attempt to transact or to do business in this state after such incorporated company, trust or association, firm or individual has violated any provision of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand ($1,000) dollars, nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars, and by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and any citizen or inhabitant of this state, who shall knowingly make a sale or enter into a contract with any such company, trust or association, firm or individual who have failed to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand ($1,000) dollars, nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars; and by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year, nor more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 53.—VETERANS.

SECS. 4450 to 4452. "An act to provide for the publication of the names of all ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines residing in Nebraska." 1887, p. 620. In force March 4.

4450. The assessor of each precinct, township, or ward shall make and deliver to the county clerk of their respective counties, at the time of making their annual assessment in the year 1887, and every two years thereafter, a corrected list of all persons who served in the United States army, navy, and marine corps during the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and the war of the rebellion, designating the rank, company, regiment, battery, or vessel in which they served, and their present residence and postoffice address, which several lists shall be returned with the assessor's books to the county clerk, who shall, on or before the first day of June, 1887, certify to the secretary of state a true copy of said lists, alphabetically arranged by regiments and states, the secretary of state to furnish each county clerk with sufficient blanks for this purpose.

4451. The secretary of state, on receipt of said lists from the county clerks, shall proceed to consolidate said lists alphabetically by regiments and states, and publish two thousand copies in book form as a roster of the ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines now residents of Nebraska, three copies of which shall be furnished each post of the Grand Army of the Republic in the state of Nebraska, one hundred copies to the state library for exchange with other libraries, fifty copies to the commissioner of pensions, the remaining books to be retained by the secretary of state for distribution.

4452. All expenses attending the publication of the foregoing roster shall be paid from the fund for printing laws, journals, and such other printing as is required under contract.

Sec. 4453. "An act to prevent persons from unlawfully using or wearing the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic." 1887, p. 670. In force March 31.

4453. Any person who shall willfully wear the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic, or who shall use or wear the same to obtain aid or assistance thereby within this state, unless he shall be entitled to wear or use the same under the rules and regulations of the department of Nebraska, Grand Army of the Republic, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for a term not to exceed thirty (30) days in the county jail, or a fine not to exceed twenty (20) dollars, or by both such fine or imprisonment.

Sec. 4454. "An act to prevent persons from unlawfully using or wearing the insignia or rosette of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States." 1889, p. 578. In force June 30.

4454. Any person who shall willfully wear the insignia or rosette of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, or use the same to obtain aid or assistance within this state, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the constitution and by-laws, rules, and regulations of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days, or a fine not to exceed twenty (20) dollars, or by such fine or imprisonment.

Secs. 4455 to 4458. "An act to provide for the relief of Union soldiers, sailors, and marines, and the indigent wives, widows, and minor children of indigent or deceased Union soldiers, sailors, and marines." 1889, p. 528. In force June 30.

4455. That the county board of the several counties of this state are hereby authorized to levy, in addition to the taxes now levied by law, a tax not exceeding three-tenths of one mill upon the taxable property of their respective counties, to be levied and collected as now provided by law for the assessment and collection of taxes, for the purpose of creating a fund for the relief and for funeral expenses of honorably discharged indigent Union soldiers, sailors, and marines, and the indigent wives, widows, and minor children not over 14 years of age in the case of boys, and not over 16 years of age in the case of girls, of such indigent or deceased Union soldiers, sailors, and marines, having a legal residence in said county, to be disbursed as hereinafter provided.

4456. The county board in each county of this state shall, on second Tuesday in January, 1890, appoint three persons who are residents of such county, at least two of whom shall be honorably discharged Union soldiers, one to serve three years, one to serve two years, and one to serve one year from date of appointment, and and each year thereafter one person to serve for three years, such persons so appointed, when organized by the selection of one of their number as chairman and one as secretary, shall be designated and known as "The Soldiers' Relief Commission." The members of said commission shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office and shall each give bonds in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for faithful performance of their duties. In the event of a vacancy in said commission occurring from any cause, the county board shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

4457. [Duties.]—The Soldiers' Relief Commission shall meet at the clerk's office on the second Monday in February of each year, and at such other times as is deemed necessary, and shall examine and determine who are entitled to relief under the provisions of this act and shall make lists of such persons, and at the February meeting such commission, after determining the probable amount necessary for the purpose provided herein, shall certify the amount to the county board, and the county board of each county at its regular meeting in June of each year shall make such levies as shall be necessary to raise the required relief fund, not exceeding three-tenths of a mill on the taxable property of such county. The Soldiers' Relief Commission shall fix the amount to be paid in each case, the aggregate not to exceed the levy of said tax for any one year, and shall certify the lists to the county clerk. The clerks shall, within twenty days thereafter, transmit to the justices of the peace in his county a list of the names of the persons in the respective townships or precincts to whom relief has been awarded and the amount thereof. The county clerk, on the first Monday of each month after said fund is ready for distribution, shall issue his warrant to the Soldiers' Relief Commission, upon the county treasurer, for the several amounts awarded. Such commission shall disburse the same to the person or persons named in the lists, taking receipts therefor; or such fund may be disbursed in any other manner directed by the commission; Provided, however, That when said commission is satisfied that any person entitled to relief under this act will not properly expend the amount allowed, the commission may pay the amount to some suitable person; who shall expend the same for such person in such manner as the commission may direct; And provided further, That said commission at any meeting may decrease, increase or discontinue any amount before awarded, and may add new names to the lists, which shall be certified to the county clerk. The Soldiers' Relief Commission shall, at the end of each year, make to the county board a detailed report of the transactions of such commission; such reports shall be accompanied with vouchers for all moneys disbursed.

4458. The county board may at any time remove any member of the commission for neglect of duty or maladministration and appoint others in the place of members thus removed.

Secs. 4459 to 4461. "An act to provide for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, or marines who may hereafter die without leaving means sufficient to defray expenses, and to provide head-stones to mark their graves." 1885, p. 214. In force June 5.

4459. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners or board of supervisors in counties under township organization of this state to designate some suitable person in each precinct or township, whose duty it shall be to cause to be decently interred the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine who served in the army or navy of the United States during the late war, who may hereafter die without leaving sufficient means to defray funeral expenses. Such burial should not be made in any cemetery or burial ground used exclusively for the burial of the pauper dead; Provided, The expenses of such burial shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five dollars; And provided further, That in case that surviving relatives of the deceased shall desire to conduct the funeral, and are unable to pay the charges therefor, they shall be permitted so to do, and the expenses shall be paid as herein provided.

4460. The grave of any such deceased soldier, sailor, or marine shall be marked by a head-stone, containing the name of the deceased, and the organization to which he belonged or in which he served; Provided, It shall be the duty of the county commissioners or supervisors in counties under township organization, upon the death and burial of any such soldier, sailor, or marine residing within such county at the time of his death, to make application to the proper authorities under the general government for a suitable head-stone as provided by act of congress, and cause the same to be placed at the head of such deceased soldier's grave.

4461. The expenses of such burial shall be paid by the county in which such soldier, sailor, or marine shall have died. And the board of county commissioners or supervisors of such county are hereby authorized and directed to audit the account and pay the said expenses in similar manner as other accounts against such county are audited and paid.

CHAPTER 54.—WAREHOUSES.

4462. Whenever any personal property shall be consigned to, or deposited with, any forwarding merchant, wharf keeper, warehouse keeper, tavern keeper, or the keeper of any depot for the reception and storage of trunks, baggage, and other personal property, such consignee or bailee shall immediately cause to be entered in a book, to be provided and kept by him for that purpose, a description of such property, with the date of the reception thereof.

4463. If such property shall not have been left with such consignee or bailee for the purpose of being forwarded or otherwise disposed of, according to directions received by such consignee or bailee, at or before the time of the reception thereof, and the name and residence of the owner of such property be known or ascertained, the person having such property in his custody shall immediately notify such owner, by letter to be directed to him and deposited in a postoffice to be transmitted by mail, of the reception of such property.

4464. In case any such property shall remain unclaimed for three months after its reception as aforesaid, the person having possession thereof shall cause a notice to be published, once in each week for four successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the same county, if there be one, and if not, then in some paper published at the seat of government, describing such property, and specifying the time when it was so received, and stating that unless such property shall be claimed within three months from the first publication of such notice, and the lawful charges thereon paid, the same will be sold according to the statute in such case made and provided.

4465. In case the owner or person entitled to such property shall not, within three months after the publication of such notice, claim such property and pay the lawful charges thereon, including the expense of such publication, the person having possession of the property, his agent or attorney, may make and deliver to any justice of the peace of the same county an affidavit, setting forth a description of the property remaining unclaimed, the time of its reception, the publication of this notice, and whether the owner of such property is known or unknown.

4466. Upon the delivery to him of such affidavit, the justice shall cause such property to be opened and examined in his presence, and a true inventory thereof to be made, and shall make and annex to such inventory an order under his hand that the property therein described be sold by the sheriff of the county where the same shall be, at public auction, upon due notice.

4467. It shall be the duty of the sheriff receiving such inventory and order to give ten days' notice of the sale by posting up written notices thereof in three public places in the county or city, and to sell such property at public auction for the highest price he can obtain therefor.

4468. Upon completing the sale, the sheriff making the same shall endorse upon the order aforesaid a return of his proceedings upon such order, and the proceeds of the sale after deducting his fees, which shall be the same as upon an execution.

4469. From the proceeds of such sale the justice shall pay the charges and expenses legally incurred in respect to such property, or a ratable proportion to each claimant if there be not sufficient to pay the whole; and such justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such charges in a summary manner, and shall be entitled to three dollars for each day's services rendered by him in such proceeding.

4471. The treasurer shall file in his office and safely keep all the papers so delivered to him, and make a proper entry of the payment to him of any moneys arising from such sale, in the books of his office.

4472. If the owner of the property sold, or his legal representatives, shall, at any time, within five years after such moneys shall be deposited in the county treasury, furnish satisfactory evidence of the ownership of such property, he or they shall be entitled to receive from such treasurer the amount so deposited with him.

Secs. 4474 and 4475. "An act to provide and regulate the liens of warehouse receipts under certain circumstances." 1879, p. 73. In force February 27.

4474. Any packer of pork or beef, or any manufacturer of distilled spirits or of linseed oil, having a warehouse for the storage of his own products; and any keeper of an elevator, warehouse, crib, or tanks wherein he stores his own grain, flaxseed, or linseed oil, may issue receipts for his own meats, spirits, grain, flaxseed, or linseed oil which he actually has so stored, in the usual form of warehouse receipts, which shall have the same force and effect as the receipts issued by the keeper of a public warehouse, to parties having property so stored therein, which receipts shall be negotiable by endorsement, and entitle the bona fide holder thereof advancing money on the credit of the same to a lien upon the property so stored and described therein, for the money so advanced, as to all subsequent purchasers and creditors of any person interested therein from the issue of such receipts and the advance of such money.

Amended 1887, p. 640; 1889, p. 405. An order drawn upon and accepted by a warehouseman is equivalent to a warehouse receipt. Michel v. Ware. 3, 235.

4475. If any person described in the preceding section shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, to any other person, false, fraudulent or fictitious warehouse receipts acknowledgments, or other instrument in writing to the effect that he had in store in his warehouse, elevator, or crib, meats, spirits, or grain, whereas in fact he had not the same so stored, according to the purport or effect of said receipt, acknowledgment, or writing; or having issued his receipt thereon as in the proceeding section provided, shall sell, or incumber, ship, transfer, or in any manner remove beyond his immediate control, the property described in such receipt, without first having discharged the lien in said section provided, or without the written consent of the holder of such receipt, with the intent to deceive, or defraud, or injure any person whomsoever, or if any person shall endorse, assign, transfer, or deliver to any other person any such false or fraudulent receipt, acknowledgment, or instrument in writing, knowing the same to be false, fraudulent, or fictitious, with like intent, such person shall be judged guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) and imprisonment in the penitentiary of this state not exceeding three years. Amended 1887, p. 641.

Secs. 4476 to 4529. "An act to create and regulate public warehouses, and the warehousing, shipping, weighing, and inspection of grain." 1891, p. 363. In force Aug. 1. See preface.

4476. [What are.]—That all elevators or storehouses where grain or other property is stored for a compensation, whether the property stored be kept separate or not, are declared to be public warehouses.

4479. Classified.—All public warehouses as herein defined shall be divided into three classes, to be designated A, B, and C respectively, and they shall receive, ship, store, and handle the property of all alike without discrimination. This does not apply to property extra hazardous.

4480. Classes defined.—Public warehouses of Class A shall embrace all warehouses, elevators, and granaries in which grain is stored in bulk, and in which the grain of different owners is mixed together, or in which grain is stored in such a manner that the identity of different lots or parcels cannot be accurately preserved, such warehouses, elevators, or granaries being located in the cities of the metropolitan or first class. Public warehouses of Class B shall embrace all other warehouses, elevators, or granaries in which grain is stored in bulk, and in which the grain of different owners is mixed together. Public warehouses of Class C shall embrace all other warehouses or places where property of any kind is stored for a consideration.

4481. License.—The proprietor, lessee, or manager of any public warehouse shall be required, before transacting any business in such warehouse, to procure from the board of transportation a license permitting such proprietor, lessee, or manager to transact business as a public warehouseman under the law of this state, which license shall be issued by the board of transportation upon a written application, which shall set forth the location and name of such warehouse, and the individual name of each person interested as owner or principal in the management of the same; or, if the warehouse be owned or managed by a corporation, the name of the president, secretary, and treasurer of such corporation shall be stated, and the said license shall give authority to carry on and conduct the business of a public warehouse in accordance with the laws of this state and shall be revocable by the said board of transportation upon complaint of any person in writing, setting forth the particular violation of law, and upon satisfactory proof, to be taken in such manner as may be directed by the said board of transportation.

*So in original.

4482. Bond.—The person receiving a license as herein provided shall file with the said board of transportation a bond to the people of the state of Nebraska, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by said board of transportation, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as public warehouseman, and his full and unreserved compliance with all laws of this state in relation thereto.

4483. Penalty for doing business without a license.—Any person who shall transact the business of a public warehouse without first procuring a license as herein provided, or who shall continue to transact any such business after such license has been revoked (save only that he may be permitted to deliver property previously stored in such warehouse) shall on conviction be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each and every day such business is carried on, and the said board of transportation may refuse to renew any license or to grant a new one to any of the persons whose license has been revoked within one year from the time it was revoked.

4484. Not to discriminate—Not to mix grain receipts.—It shall be the duty of any warehouseman of Classes A and B to receive for storage or shipment any grain that may be tendered to him in the usual manner in which warehouses are accustomed to receive the same in the ordinary and usual course of business, not making any discrimination between persons desiring to avail themselves of warehouse facilities, and in the case of every warehouseman of Class A such grain in all cases shall be inspected and guarded by a duly authorized inspector, and stored with grain of a similar grade received at the same time as near as may be. In no case shall grain of different grades be mixed together in warehouses of Class A while in store, but if the owner or consignee so requests and the warehousemen consent thereto, his grain of the same grade may be kept in a bin by itself apart from that of the owners, which bin shall thereupon be marked and known as a "separate bin." If a warehouse receipt be issued for grain so kept separate, it shall state on its face that it is in a separate bin, and shall state the number of such bin, and no grain shall be delivered from such warehouse of Class A unless it be inspected on the delivery thereof by a duly authorized inspector of grain. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to require the receipt of grain into any warehouse in which there is not sufficient room to accommodate or store it properly, or in cases where such warehouses are necessarily closed.

4485. Manner of issuing receipts, Class A.—Upon application of the owner or consignee of grain stored in a public warehouse of Class A, the same being accompanied with evidence that all transportation or other charges which may be a lien upon such grain, including charges for inspection, have been paid, the warehousemen shall issue to the person entitled thereto a warehouse receipt therefor, subject to the order of the owner or consignee, which receipt shall bear date corresponding with the receipt of the grain into store, and shall state upon its face the quantity and inspected grade of the grain, and that the grade mentioned in it has been received into store, to be stored with grain of the same grade by inspection, received at about the date of the receipt, and that it is delivered upon the return of the receipt, properly endorsed by the person to whose order it was issued, and the payment of proper charges for storage. All warehouse receipts for grain issued from the same warehouse shall be consecutively numbered, and no two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during any one year except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case the new receipt shall bear the same date and number as the original and shall be marked plainly on its face "duplicate." If the grain was received from railroad cars the number of each car shall be stated upon the receipt, with the amount it contained; if from canal boat, barge, or other vessel, the name and number of such craft; if from teams or by other means the manner of its receipt shall be stated on its face. The number of the bin shall also be written on the face of the receipt when desired by the owner or consignee.

4486. Canceling receipts.—Upon the delivery of grain or other property from store, upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked across its face with the word "Canceled," with the name of the person canceling the same, and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put in circulation, nor shall grain or other property be delivered twice upon the same receipt.

4487. Further of issuing and canceling receipts.—No warehouse receipt shall be issued except upon the actual delivery of grain or other property into store in the warehouse from which it purports to be issued and which is to be represented by the receipt, nor shall any receipt be issued for a greater quantity of grain or other property than was contained in the lot or parcel stated to have been received, nor shall more than one receipt be issued for the same lot of grain or other property except in cases where receipt for a part of a lot are desired, and then the aggregate receipts for a particular lot shall cover that lot and no more. In cases where a part of the grain or other property represented by the receipt is delivered out of store and the remainder is left, a new receipt may be issued for such remainder, but such new receipt shall bear the same date as the original, and shall state on its face that it is balance of receipt of the original number, and the receipt upon which a part has been delivered shall be canceled in the same manner as if it had all been delivered. In case it be desirable to divide one receipt into two or more, or in case it be desirable to consolidate two or more receipts into one, and the warehouseman consent thereto, the original receipt shall be canceled the same as if the grain or other property had been delivered from store, and the new receipts shall express on their face that they are parts of other receipts or a consolidation of other receipts, as the case may be, and the number of the original receipts shall also appear upon the new ones issued as explanatory of the change, but no consolidation of receipts of dates differing more than ten days shall be permitted, and all new receipts issued for old ones canceled, as herein provided, shall bear the same dates as those originally issued as near as may be.

4488. Not to limit liability.—No warehouseman in this state shall insert in any receipt issued by him any language in anywise limiting or modifying his liabilities or responsibilities as imposed by the laws of this state.

4489. Delivery of property.—On the return of any warehouse receipt issued by him, properly endorsed, and the tender of all proper charges upon the property represented by it, such property shall be deliverable to the holder of such receipt in the order demanded and as rapidly as due diligence, care, and prudence will justify. Unless the property represented by such receipt shall be promptly delivered as above, after such demand shall have been made, the warehouseman in default shall be liable to the owner of such receipt for damages for such default ten per cent of the value of the property at the time of the demand, and in addition thereto one per cent of the value of the property for each and every day of such neglect or refusal to deliver.

4491. Chief inspector.—It shall be the duty of the governor to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, a suitable person, who shall not be a member of any board of trade, and who shall not be interested directly or indirectly in any warehouse in this state, a chief inspector of grain, who shall hold his office for the term of two years, unless sooner removed as hereinafter provided for, in every city or county in which is located a warehouse of Class A or B; Provided, That no such grain inspector for cities or counties in which are located warehouses of Class B shall be appointed, except upon the application and petition of two or more warehousemen of Class B doing business in such city or county; and when there shall be a legally organized board of trade in such cities or counties such application and petition shall be officially endorsed by such board of trade before such application and petition shall be granted.

II. His duties.—It shall be the duty of such chief inspector of grain to have a general supervision of the inspection of grain as required by this act or laws of this state, under the advice and immediate direction of the board of transportation.

III. Assistant inspectors.—The said chief inspector shall be authorized to nominate to the said board of transportation such suitable persons in sufficient number as may be deemed qualified for assistant inspectors, who shall not be members of any board of trade nor interested in any warehouse, and also such other employees as may be necessary to properly conduct the business of his office, and the said board of transportation is authorized to make such appointments.

IV. Chief inspector's oath and bond.—The chief inspector shall, upon entering the duties of his office, be required to take an oath, as in case of other officers, and he shall execute a bond to the people of the state of Nebraska in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), when appointed for any city in which is located a warehouse of Class A, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000), when appointed for any other city or county, with sureties to be approved by the board of transportation, with a condition therein that he will faithfully and strictly discharge the duties of his said office of inspector according to law and the rules and regulations prescribing his duties, and that he will pay all damages to any person or persons who may be injured by his neglect, refusal, or failure to comply with law and the rules and regulations aforesaid.

V. Assistant inspector's oath and bond.—And each assistant inspector shall take a like oath, execute a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), with like conditions, and to be approved in like manner as is provided in case of the chief inspector, which said several bonds shall be filed in the office of said board of transportation, and suit may be brought upon said bond or bonds in any court having jurisdiction thereof, in the county where the plaintiff or defendant resides, for the use of the person or persons injured.

VI. Rules for inspection charges.—The chief inspector of grain and all assistant inspectors of grain and other employees in connection therewith shall be governed in their respective duties by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by said board of transportation, and the said board of transportation shall have full power to make all rules and regulations for the inspection of grain, and shall also have power to fix the rate of charges for the inspection of grain, and the manner in which the same shall be collected, which charges shall be collected, which charges shall be regulated in such a manner as will in the judgment of the said board of transportation produce sufficient revenue to meet the necessary expenses of the service of inspection and no more.

VII. Pay of inspector and assistants.—It shall be the duty of the said board of transportation to fix the amount of compensation to be paid to the chief inspector, assistant inspectors, and all other persons employed in the inspection service, and prescribe the time and manner of their payment.

VIII. Appointment of registrar and assistants.—The said board of transportation are hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person as warehouse registrar and such assistants as may be deemed necessary to perform the duties imposed upon such registrar by the provisions of this act.

IX. General supervision, pay, etc.—The said board of transportation shall have and exercise a general supervision and control of such appointments, shall prescribe their respective duties, shall fix the amount of their compensation and the time and manner of its payment.

X. Removal from office.—Upon the complaint in writing of any person to the said board of transportation, supported by reasonable and satisfactory proof, that any person appointed or employed under the provisions of this section has violated any of the rules prescribed for his government, has been guilty of an improper act, or has been found insufficient* or incompetent for the duties of his position, such person shall be immediately removed from his office or employment by the same authority that appointed him, and his place shall be filled, if necessary, by a new appointment, or in case it shall be deemed necessary to reduce the number of persons so appointed or employed, their term of service shall cease under the orders of the same authority by which they were appointed or employed.

XI. Expenses, how paid.—All necessary expenses incident to the inspection of grain and to the office of registrar economically administered, including the rent of suitable offices, shall be deemed expenses of the inspection service, and shall be included in the estimate of expenses of such inspection service, and shall be paid from the funds collected for the same.

4492. Rates of storage.—Every warehouseman of public warehouses of Class A shall be required during the first week in January of each year to publish in one or more of the newspapers, daily, if there be such published in the city in which [such] warehouse is situated, a table or schedule of rates for the storage of grains in his warehouse during the ensuing year, which shall not be increased, except as is hereinafter provided during the year, and such published rates, or any published reduction of them, shall apply to all grain received into such warehouse from any person or source, and no discrimination shall be made directly or indirectly for or against any charges made by such warehouseman for the storage of grain. The maximum charge for storage and handling of grain, including the cost of receiving and delivering, shall be for the first ten days or part thereof.

4493. Weighing.—All grain shall be weighed on receipt and delivery from the public warehouse of Classes A and B, and annually on the date prescribed by the board of transportion all grain in bulk stored in said public warehouses shall be weighed according to its kind and grade and reported to the registrar.

4494. Loss by fire—Heating—Order of delivery—Grain out of condition.—No public warehouseman shall be held responsible for any loss or damage to property by fire while in his custody, provided reasonable care and vigilance be exercised to protect and preserve the same, nor shall he be held liable for damage to grain by heating if it can be shown that he has exercised proper care in handling and storing the same, and that such heating or damage was the result of causes beyond his control, and in order that no injustice may result to the holder of grain in any public warehouse of Classes A and B, it shall be deemed the duty of such warehouseman to dispose of by delivery or shipping in the ordinary and legal manner of so delivering that grain of any particular grade which was first received by them or which has been the longest time in store in his warehouse, and unless public notice has been given that some portion of the grain in his warehouse is out of condition or becoming so, such warehouseman shall deliver grain of quality equal to that received by him on all receipts as presented. In case, however, any warehouseman of Classes A and B shall discover that any portion of the grain in his warehouse is out of condition or becoming so, and it is not in his power to preserve the same, he shall immediately give public notice by advertisement in a daily newspaper in which [such] warehouse is situated, and by posting a notice in the most public place for such a purpose in such city, of its actual condition as near as he can ascertain it, shall state in such notice the kind and grade of the grain and the bins in which it is stored, and shall also state in such notice the receipts outstanding upon which such grain will be delivered, giving the numbers, amounts, and dates of each, which receipts shall be those of the oldest dates then in circulation or uncanceled, the grain represented by which has not previously been declared or receipted for as out of condition, or if the grain longest in store has not been receipted for he shall so state, and shall give the name of the party for whom such grain was stored, the date it was received and the amount of it, and the enumeration of receipts and identification of grain so discredited shall embrace, as near as may be, as great a quantity of grain as is contained in such bins, and such grain shall be delivered upon the return and cancellation of the receipts and the unreceipted grain upon the request of the owner or person in charge thereof. Nothing herein contained shall be held to relieve the said warehouseman from exercising proper care and vigilance in preserving such grain after publication of its condition, but such grain shall be kept separate and apart from all direct contact with other grains, and shall not be mixed with other grain while in store in such warehouse. Any warehouseman guilty of any act or neglect, the effect of which is to depreciate property stored in the warehouse under his control, shall be held responsible as at common law, or upon the bond of such warehouseman, and in addition thereto the license of such warehouseman shall be revoked. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to permit any warehouseman to deliver any grain stored in a special bin or by itself, as provided in this act, to any but the owner of the lot, whether the same be represented by a warehouse receipt or otherwise. In case the grain declared out of condition, as herein provided for, shall not be removed from store by the owner thereof within one month from the date of the notice of its being out of condition, it shall be lawful for the warehouseman where the grain is stored to sell the same at public auction for the account of said owner by giving ten days' notice by advertisement in a daily newspaper, if there be such published in the city or town where such warehouse is located.

4495. Tampering with grain stored—Private business—Drying—Cleaning—Moving.—It shall not be lawful for any public warehouseman to mix any grain of different grades together or to select different qualities of the same grade for the purpose of storing or delivering the same, nor shall he attempt to deliver grain of one grade for another, or in any way tamper with grain while in his possession or custody, with a view of securing any profit to himself or any other person, and in no case, even of grain stored in a separate bin, shall he be permitted to mix grain of different grades together while in store. He may, however, on request of the owner of any grain stored in a private bin, be permitted to dry, clean, or otherwise improve the condition or value of any such lot of grain, but in such case it shall only be delivered as such separate lot or as the grade it was originally when received by him, without reference to the grade it may be as improved by such process of drying or cleaning. Nothing in this section, however, shall prevent any warehouseman from moving grain while within his warehouse for its preservation or safe keeping.

4496. Examination of grain and scales—Incorrect scales.—All persons owning property or who may be interested in the same in any public warehouse, and all duly authorized inspectors of such property, shall at all times during ordinary business hours be at full liberty to examine any and all property stored in any public warehouse in this state, and all proper facilities shall be extended to such person by the warehouseman, his agent, and his servants for an examination, and all parts of public warehouses shall be free for the inspection and examination of any person interested in property stored therein, or of any authorized inspector of such property; and all scales used for the weighing of property in public warehouses shall be subject to examination and test by any duly authorized inspector or sealer of weights and measures at any time when required by any person or persons, agent or agents, whose property has been or is to be weighed on such scales, the expense of such test by an inspector or sealer to be paid by the warehouse proprietor if the scales are found incorrect, but not otherwise. Any warehouseman who may be guilty of continuing to use scales found to be in an imperfect or incorrect condition by such examination and test, until the same shall have been pronounced correct and properly sealed, shall be liable to be proceeded against as hereinafter provided.

4497. Grain must be inspected.—In all places where there is* legally appointed inspectors of grain no proprietor or manager of a public warehouse of Classes A and B shall be permitted to receive any grain and mix the same with the grain of other owners in the storage thereof until the same shall have been inspected and graded by said inspector.

4498. Any person who shall assume to act as an inspector of grain, who has not been legally appointed and sworn, shall be held to be an impostor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) for each and every attempt to so inspect grain, to be recovered before a justice of the peace.

4499. Misconduct of inspector—Influencing.—Any duly authorized inspector of grain who shall be guilty of neglect of duty, or who shall knowingly or carelessly inspect or grade any grain improperly, or who shall accept any money or other consideration, directly or indirectly, for any neglect of duty as such inspector of grain, and any person who shall improperly influence any inspector of grain in the performance of his duties as such inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), in the discretion of the court, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

4500. Owner, etc., dissatisfied with inspection—His rights.—In case any owner or consignee of grain shall be dissatisfied with the inspection of any lot of grain, or shall from any cause desire to receive his property without its passing into store, he shall be at liberty to have the same withheld from going into any public warehouse (whether the property may have been previously consigned to such warehouse or not), by giving notice to the person or corporation in whose possession it may be at the time of giving such notice, and such grain shall be withheld from going into store and be delivered to him, subject only to such proper charges as may be a lien upon it prior to such notice. The grain, if in railroad cars, to be removed therefrom by such owner or consignee within twenty-four hours after such notice has been given to the railroad company having it in possession, provided such railroad company place same in a proper and convenient place for unloading, and any person or corporation refusing to allow such owner or consignee to so receive his grain or other property in car loads shall be deemed guilty of conversion and shall be liable to pay such owner or consignee double the value of the property so converted. Notice that such grain or other property is not to be delivered into store may also be given to the proprietor or manager of any warehouse into which it would otherwise have been delivered, and if after such notice it be taken into store in such warehouse, the proprietor or manager of such warehouse shall be liable to the owner for double its market value.

4501. Combination.—It shall be unlawful for any proprietor, lessee, or manager of any public warehouse to enter into any contract, agreement, understanding, or combination with any railroad company or other corporation, or with any individual or individuals, by which the property of any person is to be delivered to any public warehouse for storage or for any other purpose contrary to the direction of the owner, his agent or consignee. Any violation of this section shall subject the offender to be proceeded against as provided in the next section of this act.

4502. Suits.—If any warehouseman shall be deemed guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this act it shall be lawful for any person injured by such violation to bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction upon the bond of such warehouseman, in the name of the people of the state of Nebraska, to the use of such person. In all criminal prosecutions against a warehouseman for the violation of any of the provisions of this act it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county in which said prosecution is brought to prosecute the same to a final issue, in the name of and on behalf of the people of the state of Nebraska.

4503. Warehouse receipts negotiable.—Warehouse receipts for property stored in any class of public warehouses as herein described shall be transferable by the endorsement of the party to whose order such receipt may be issued, and such endorsement shall be deemed a valid transfer of the property represented by such receipt, and may be made either in blank or to the order of another. All warehouse receipts for property stored in public warehouses of Class C shall distinctly state on their face the brand or distinguishing marks upon such property.

4504. False receipts—Fraudulent removal.—Any warehouseman of any public warehouse who shall be guilty of issuing any warehouse receipt for any property not actually in store at the time of issuing such receipt, or who shall be guilty of issuing any warehouse receipt in any respect fraudulent in its character, either as to its date or the quantity, quality, or inspected grade of such property, or who shall remove any property from store except to preserve it from fire or other sudden danger, without the return and cancellation of any and all outstanding recipts that may have been issued to represent such property, shall, when convicted thereof, be deemed guilty of a crime, and shall suffer, in addition to any other penalties prescribed by this act, imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one and not more than ten years.

4505. Common law remedy saved.—Nothing in this act shall deprive any person of any common law remedy now existing.

4506. Printed copy of act posted.—All proprietors and managers of public warehouses shall keep posted up at all times in a conspicuous place in their business offices and in each of their warehouses a printed copy of this act.

4507. Duty of board of transportation.—It shall be the duty of the board of transportation to see that the provisions of this act are duly enforced.

DEFINING ADDITIONAL DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF TRANSPORTATION IN COUNTIES WITH PUBLIC WAREHOUSES.

4508. Additional duties of the board of transportation.—In addition to their present duties the board of transportation shall examine into the condition and management and all other matters concerning the business of public warehouses in this state, so far as the same pertain to the relation of such warehouses to the public and to the accommodation and security of persons doing business therewith, and whether such warehouses, their officers, directors, managers, lessees, agents, and employees comply with the laws of this state now in force, or which shall hereafter be in force concerning them. And whenever it shall come to their knowledge, either upon complaint or otherwise, or they shall have reason to believe that any such law or laws have been or are being violated, they shall prosecute or cause to be prosecuted all such corporations or persons guilty of such violation. In order to enable said board of transportation to efficiently perform their duties under this act, it is hereby made their duty to cause one of their number, at least once in six months, to visit each county in the state in which is or shall be located a public warehouse, and personally inquire into the management of such warehouse business.

4510. Cancellation of warehouse licenses.—Said board of transportation are hereby authorized to hear and determine all applications for the cancellation of warehouse licenses in this state which may be issued in pursuance of any laws of this state, and for that purpose to make and adopt such rules and regulations concerning such hearing and determination as may from time to time by them be deemed proper. And if, upon such hearing, it shall appear that any public warehouseman has been guilty of violating any law of this state concerning the business of public warehousemen, said commissioners may cancel and revoke the license of said public warehouseman, and immediately notify the officer who issued such license of such revocation and cancellation; and no person whose license as a public warehouseman shall be canceled or revoked shall be entitled to another license or to carry on the business in this state of such public warehouseman, until the expiration of not less than six months from the date of such revocation and cancellation, and until he shall have again been licensed; Provided, That this section shall not be construed as to prevent any such warehouseman from delivering any grain or other property on hand at the time of such revocation or cancellation of his said license. And all licenses issued in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed null and void.

4511. Power to examine books, etc.—The property, books, records, accounts, papers and proceedings of all such public warehousemen shall at all times, during business hours, be subject to the examination and inspection of the said board of transportation, and they shall have power to examine under oath or affirmation any and all owners, managers, lessees, agents and employees of such public warehouses and other persons, concerning any matter relating to the condition and management of such business.

4512. May examine witnesses, etc.—In making any examinations as contemplated in this act, or for the purpose of obtaining information pursuant to this act, said board of transportation shall have the power to issue subœpnas for the attendance of witnesses as may administer oaths. In case any person shall willfully fail or refuse to obey said subpœnas, it shall be the duty of the county court of any county, upon application of said board of transportation, to issue an attachment for such witness, and compel such witness to attend before the said board of transportation, and give his testimony upon such matters as shall be lawfully required by the said board of transportation, and the said court shall have power to punish for contempt as in other cases of refusal to obey the process and order of such court.

4513. Penalty against witnesses.—Any person who shall willfully neglect or refuse to obey the process of subpœna issued by said board of transportation, and appear and testify as therein required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to an indictment in any court of competent jurisdiction, and on conviction thereof shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court before which such conviction shall be had.

4514. Penalty against public warehousemen, etc.—Every railroad corporation, and every owner, lessee, manager, or employee of any public warehouse who shall willfully neglect to make and furnish any report required in this act at the time herein required, or who shall willfully and unlawfully hinder, delay, or obstruct said board of transportation in the discharge of the duties hereby imposed upon them, shall forfeit and pay a sum of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense, to be recovered in an action of debt in the name and for the use of the people of the state of Nebraska.

4515. Attorney general and county attorney to prosecute suits.—It shall be the duty of the attorney general and the county attorney in every district and county, on the request of said board of transportation, to institute and prosecute any and all suits and procedings which they or either of them shall be directed by said board of transportation to institute and prosecute for a violation of this act or any law of this state concerning public warehouses, or the officers, employees, owners, operators, or agents of any such public warehouses.

4516. In name of people.—All such prosecution shall be in the name of the people of the state of Nebraska, and all moneys arising therefrom shall be paid into the state treasury by the sheriff or other officer collecting the same. No suits commenced by said board of transportation shall be dismissed except said board shall consent thereto.

4517. Rights of individuals saved.—This act shall not be so construed as to waive or affect the right of any person injured by the violation of any law in regard to public warehouses from prosecuting for his private damages in any manner allowed by law.

4518. Board of transportation to estimate grades.—Within thirty days after this act becomes a law the said board of transportation shall establish a proper number and standard of grades for the inspection of grain, and may alter or change the same from time to time; Provided, No modification or change of grades shall be made, or any new ones established, without public notice being given of such contemplated change for at least thirty days prior thereto, by publication in one or more daily newspapers printed in each city containing warehouses of Class A; And provided further, That no mixture of old and new grades, even though designated by the same name or distinction, shall be permitted while in store.

4519. Committee of appeals.—Within twenty days after this act takes effect the said board of transportation shall appoint three discreet and competent persons to act as a committee of appeals in every city wherein is located a public warehouse of Class A, who shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors are appointed. At every year thereafter a like committee shall be appointed by the said board of transportation, who shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors are appointed; Provided, Said board of transportation shall have [power] in their discretion to remove from office any member of said committee at any time, and fill vacancies thus created by the appointment of other discreet persons.

4520. Appeals—Notices.—In all matters involving doubt of* the part of the chief inspector or any assistant inspector as to the proper inspection of any lot of grain, or in case any owner, consignee, or shipper of grain, or any warehouse manager shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the chief inspector or any assistant inspector, an appeal may be made to said committee of appeal, and the decision of a majority of said committee shall be final. Said board of transportation are authorized to make all necessary rules governing the manner of appeals as herein provided. And all complaints in regard to the inspection of grain, and all notices requiring the services of the committee on appeal, may be served on said committee or may be filed with the warehouse registrar of said city, who shall immediately notify said committee of the fact and who shall furnish said committee with such clerical assistance as may be necessary for the proper discharge of their duties. It shall be the duty of said committee, on receiving such notice, to immediately act on and render a decision in each case.

4521. Committee on appeals—Oath—Bond—Who may serve on.—The said committee on appeals shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, take an oath as in the case of other inspectors of grain, and shall execute a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) with like conditions as is provided in the case [of] other inspectors of grain, which said bond shall be subject to the approval of the said board of transportation. It is further provided that the salaries of said committee on appeals shall be fixed by the said board of transportation, and be paid from the inspection fund, or by the party taking the appeal, under such rules as the board of transportation shall prescribe, and all necessary expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be paid out of the fund collected for the inspection service upon the order of the said board of transportation on the state treasurer; Provided, That no person shall be appointed to serve on the committee of appeal who is a purchaser of or a receiver of grain or other articles to be passed upon by said committee.

* So in original.

4522. Registered for collection—Inspection fees.—No grain shall be delivered from store from any public warehouse of Class A for which, or representing which, warehouse receipts shall have been issued, except upon the return of such receipts stamped or otherwise plainly marked by the warehouse registrar with the words "Registered for collection," and the date thereof, and said board of transportation shall have power to fix the rates of charges for the inspection of grain both into and out of the public warehouse, which charges shall be a lien upon all grain so inspected, as may be collected of the owners, receivers, or shippers of such grain, in such manner as the board of transportation may prescribe.

4523. Deposit of inspection fund.—All moneys collected for the inspection fund shall be deposited with the state treasurer, who shall be liable under his official bond for the proper care of same, and no payment shall be made therefrom except by order of the said board of transportation as they may prescribe.

4524. Weighmaster, appointment of.—That there shall be appointed by the state board of transportation in all cities where there is state inspection of grain, a state weighmaster, and such assistance as shall be necessary.

4525. Duties.—Said state weighmaster and assistants shall, at the place aforesaid, supervise and have exclusive control of the weighing of grain and other property which may be subject to inspection, and the inspection of scales, and the action and certificate of such weighmaster and assistants in the discharge of their aforesaid duties shall be conclusive upon all parties in interest.

4526. Fix fees.—The said board of transportation shall fix the fees to be paid for the weighing of grain or other property, which fees shall be paid equally by all parties interested in the purchase and sale of the property weighed, or scales ininspected and tested.

4527. Weighmaster,—Qualifications—Bond—Compensation.—Said state weighmaster and assistants shall not be a member of any board of trade or association of like character. They shall give bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), conditioned for the faithful discharge of their duties, and shall receive such compensation as the board of railroad and warehouse commissioners shall determine.

4528. May adopt rules.—The said board of transportation shall adopt such rules and regulations for the weighing of grain or other property as they shall deem proper.

4529. Neglect of duty—Penalty.—In case any person, warehouseman, or railroad corporation, or any of their agents or employees, shall refuse or prevent the aforesaid state weighmaster or either of his assistants from having access to their scales, in the regular performance of their duties, in supervising the weighing of any grain or other property in accordance with the tenor and meaning of this act, they shall forfeit the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for each and every offense, to be recovered in an action of debt before any justice of the peace in the name of the people of the state of Nebraska, such penalty or forfeiture to be paid to the county in which the suit is brought, and shall also be required to pay all costs of prosecution.

NOTE.—I observe that this bill fails to provide for the fixing of rates of storage, the same evidently being inadvertently omitted in the enrollment. Inasmuch as the bill in its present shape contains many provisions of benefit to those engaged in the producing and the storage of grain, it receives my approval. JAMES E. BOYD, Governor.

CHAPTER 55.—WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

4530. The standard of weights and linear measures shall be the same as that established by act of congress for the several states, except that the ton shall consist of two thousand pounds.

4531. A bushel shall consist of two thousand one hundred and fifty cubic inches. The half-bushel, peck, and half-peck shall consist of the proper division and subdivision of a bushel.

	POUNDS.		POUNDS.

Lime, unslacked, per bushel	80	Timothy grass	45
Malt, barley	30	Salt	50
Oats	32	Turnips	55
Onions	57	Wheat	60
Onion sets	25

4535. Any person who shall knowingly keep false weights or measures, and shall buy and sell articles thereby, shall forfeit and pay, upon conviction, a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars, to be recovered before any court having competent jurisdiction; the fine shall be appropriated to the use of common schools in the same county; he shall also be liable to the injured party in double the amount of damages, with costs of suit.

As to this penalty, see A. & N. R. R. Co. v. Baty, 6, 37.

PART III.

THE CODES.

CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.[*]

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

4537 (1). The rule of the common law, that statutes in derogation thereof are to be strictly construed, has no application to this code. Its provisions and all proceedings under it shall be liberally construed, with a view to promote its object and assist the parties in obtaining justice.

Especially should the construction be liberal as to the provisions respecting the appearance of parties and the making up of issues, to the end that a full and fair hearing of cases on their merits may be had. Kepley v. Irwin, 14, 301 (15 N. W., 719). Provisions of code construed liberally. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 137. Rules of construction. State v. Russell, 17, 204 (22 N. W., 455).

TITLE I.—FORM OF CIVIL ACTIONS.

4538 (2). The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of all such actions and suits heretofore existing, are abolished; and in their place there shall be hereafter but one form of action, which shall be called a civil action.

Amended 1867, p. 71. Distinctions between actions at law and suits in equity not abolished; nature of distinction stated. Wilcox v. Saunders, 4, 575. Distinction between law and equity abolished. Cropsey v. Wiggenhorn, 3, 115.

4539 (3). In such action, the party complaining shall be known as the plaintiff, and the adverse party as the defendant.

4540 (4). There can be no feigned issues; but a question of fact not put in issue by the pleadings may be tried by a jury, upon an order for the trial, stating distinctly and plainly the question of fact to be tried; and such order is the only authority necessary for a trial.

In equity cases court may submit special facts to a jury. Harral v. Gray, 10, 189 (4 N. W., 1040). The trial of foreclosure of mechanic's lien is for a court and not for a jury. Dohle v. Omaha Foundry, 15, 437 (19 N. W., 644). Jury not allowed in contempt cases. Gandy v. State, 13, 45 (14 N. W., 143). The allegata and probata must agree. Imhoff v. House, 36, — (53 N. W., 1032).

[*] The present Code of Civil Procedure is that contained in, and adopted with, the Revised Statutes of 1866, p. 683, with the modifications made by subsequent legislatures. Acts which have not expressly amended the Code, but whose subject-matter is analogous to its provisions, are inserted therein, and may be distinguished from the original by the absence of duplicate section numbers. Prior to the Code of 1866, the following, respectively, were in force in the state:

1. An act adopting certain parts of the Code of Iowa. 1855, page 55. In force March 16.
2. An act respecting practice and proceedings in courts of justice, and for other purposes. 1857 (3d sess.), p. 41. Approved February 13.
3. An act to establish a Code of Civil Procedure. 1858, p. 109. In force April 1, 1859. This Code appears to have been substantially re-enacted by that of 1866, forming the basis for the first eighteen titles thereof.

There was also "An act for revising, consolidating and preparing a general code for the territory of Nebraska," 1855-6, p. 85; but this is of interest rather as the first attempt to consolidate the laws of Nebraska than as a landmark in the history of its codes of civil practice.

TITLE II.—Time of Commencing Civil Actions.

4541 (5). Civil actions can only be commenced within the time prescribed in this title, after the cause of action shall have accrued.

Statute is to be construed as one of repose not of payment. Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 370. Payment of part by member of dissolved partnership will take cause out of statute and charge the individual members. Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 375. Statute of limitations does not run against the state. Blazier v. Johnson, 11, 405 (9 N. W., 543). Mere want of knowledge of facts which, if known, would be sufficient to sustain a cause of action, will not prevent the running of the statute. Welton v. Merrick County, 16, 83 (20 N. W., 111). Dismissal without hearing on merits a judgment of nonsuit does not constitute a bar. Pence v. Uhl, 11, 322 (9 N. W., 40). Cheney v. Cooper, 14, 418 (16 N. W., 471). Philpott v. Brown & Ryan, 16, 387 (20 N. W., 288). The limitation herein applies equally to matters of defense or counter-claim. Parker v. Kuhn, 21, 420 (32 N. W., 74). The benefit of this statute may be waived, and will be unless pleaded. Taylor v. Courtnay, 15, 196 (16 N. W., 842). A. & N. R. R. Co. v. Miller, 16, 664 (21 N. W., 451). See also for general remarks on statute, Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 370; Chapman v. Kimball, 7, 404; Hurley v. Cox, 9, 233 (2 N. W., 705); Arnett v. Zinn, 20, 594 (31 N. W., 240); Fulton v. Levy, 21, 483 (32 N. W., 307); Foxworthy v. City of Hastings, 23, 777 (37 N. W., 657).

4542 (6). An action for the recovery of the title or possession of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, can only be brought within ten years after the cause of such action shall have accrued. * This section shall be construed to apply also to mortgages.

Original section read twenty-one years. Amended and all after * added 1869, p. 67. Statute of repose. Must recover on the strength of his own title, not on the weakness of his adversary. Hurley v. Cox, 9, 233 (2 N. W., 705). Occupant must not only claim adverse, but must occupy adversely during the entire period. Hull v. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co., 21, 386 (32 N. W., 162). When statute vests occupant with the property. Horbach v. Miller, 4, 46. Gregory v. Lincoln, 13, 356 (14 N. W., 423). Trussel v. Lewis, 13, 417 (14 N. W., 155). The title of adverse claimant need not be a valid one; open, notorious, exclusive, adverse possession for ten years gives good title. Haywood v. Thomas, 17, 237 (22 N. W., 460). Tax deed though void is color of title. Color of title is not necessary to adverse possession. Gatling v. Lane, 17, 81 (22 N. W., 227 and 453). Housel v. Boggs, 17, 94 (22 N. W., 226). Action to foreclose mortgage may be brought at any time within ten years. Stevenson v. Craig, 12, 464 (12 N. W., 1). Herdman v. Marshall, 17, 252 (22 N. W., 696). Gatling v. Lane, 17, 77 (22 N. W., 227). Foreclosure of mortgages barred in ten years. Hale v. Christie, 8, 268. The time within which a real estate mortgage may be foreclosed is not extended under section 4553 by absence of defendant from the state. Merriam v. Goodlet, 36, — (54 N. W., 686). Suit to foreclose mortgage is not barred until ten years from time it is due. Cheney v. Cooper, 14, 418 (16 N. W., 433). Studebaker Mfg. Co. v. McCarger, 20, 501 (30 N. W., 686). A deed absolute, but construed as a mortgage upon unoccupied lands, statute of limitations does not begin to run until tender of money due and refusal to reconvey. Wilson v. Richards, 1, 342. Mortgage construed as collateral security to note and void when statute of limitations has run against the note. Kyger v. Ryley, 2, 28. Notes secured by mortgage are evidence of the debt until the mortgage itself is barred. Cheney v. Woodruff, 20, 126 (29 N. W., 275). Cheney v. Janssen, 20, 132 (29 N. W., 289). Motive is not material if possession is adverse. Fitzgerald v. Brewster, 31, 51 (47 N. W., 475). Rule of adverse possession as applied to public roads is in favor of the public so far as the right of easement is involved. Graham v. Flynn, 21, 232 (31 N. W., 742). A defendant in possession relying on this statute has the burden to show all the statutory requirements. Weeping Water v. Reed, 21, 270 (31 N. W., 797). Statute begins to run against party entering land from the time he has done all things required of him by federal laws. Carroll v. Patrick, 23, 847 (37 N. W., 671). Statute runs in favor of one holding adverse possession under claim of right, though he acted under a mistake. Levy v. Yerga, 25, 764 (41 N. W., 773). Fencing, cultivation, paying taxes, etc., constitute adverse possession. Tourtelotte v. Pearce, 27, 62 (42 N. W., 915). Lease by defendant in ejectment, of plaintiff's unenclosed land, held not to stop running of statute as to an adjoining strip enclosed by defendant. Tex v. Pflug, 24, 669 (39 N. W., 839). Statute not suspended on account of minority of children when it began to run in lifetime of father. Hardy v. Riddle, 24, 674 (39 N. W., 841). Statute of limitations will not run against the cestui que trust in possession of trust property, and bar his right to the same in favor of the naked trustee. Clark v. Clark, 21, 412 (32 N. W., 157). Statute begins to run at once on breach of covenant against incumbrances. To be considered as a statute of repose. Chapman v. Kimball, 7, 402. Statute does not begin to run against homesteader until right to patent has fully accrued. Mills v. Traver, 35, 292 (53 N. W., 67). Taking of tax deed does not suspend statute. Griffith v. Smith, 27, 54 (42 N. W., 749). On facts stated, held that defendant being in possession for ten years, action barred. McKesson v. Hawley, 22, 696 (35 N. W., 883). Horbach v. Miller, 4, 45. See Colvin v. R. V. Land Ass'n, 23, 75 (36 N. W., 361).

4543 (7). Any person entitled to commence any action for the recovery of the title or possession of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, who may be under any legal disability when the cause of action accrues, may bring such action within ten years after the disability is removed, and at no time thereafter.

Amended 1873; G. S., 525. An Indian may be barred under this statute where it is not shown that he is uneducated or unfamiliar with the laws. Felix v. Patrick (Circ. Ct.), 36 Fed. Rep., 457.

4544 (8). An action for the forcible entry and detainer, or forcible detainer only, of real property can only be brought within one year after the cause of such action shall have accrued.

4545 (9). Civil actions, other than for the recovery of real property, can only be brought within the following periods, after the cause of action shall have accrued:

A partial payment or new promise made after debt is barred will revive it. Rolfe v. Pilloud, 16, 21 (19 N. W., 615, 970). Extension of time to principal without knowledge of surety releases surety. Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 370. Lee v. Bruegman, — Neb., — (— N. W., —). General demurrer raises question of limitations. Aultman v. Cole, 16, 4 (19 N. W., 783).

4546 (10). Within five years, an action upon a specialty, or any agreement, contract, or promise in writing, or foreign judgment.

This is not applicable to county warrants. Brewer v. Otoe County, 1, 382. This applies to a county warrant, and statute begins to run from the time the money is or should be collected. King Iron Bridge Co. v. County of Otoe, 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 583; reversing 27 Fed. Rep., 800. Village warrants barred in five years. Arapahoe v. Albee, 24, 242 (38 N. W., 737). Action to foreclose tax lien barred in five years after time for redemption expires. Parker v. Matheson, 21, 547–8 (32 N. W., 598). Shepherd v. Burr, 27, 434–5 (43 N. W., 256). Action for damages for a breach of covenant may be brought within five years. Kern v. Kloke, 21, 533 (32 N. W., 574). A promissory note secured by mortgage is not a specialty within the meaning of the statute. Seymour v. Street, 5, 88. Foreign judgment properly authenticated is conclusive upon the subject-matter but not upon the jurisdiction of the court in which it was pronounced. Eaton v. Hasty, 6, 428. Action on foreign judgment may be defended when such judgment was obtained by fraud. Keeler v. Elston, 22, 311 (34 N. W., 891). Five years' residence bars an action on a foreign judgment. Nelson v. Becker, 32, 101 (48 N. W., 962). Defendant must have lived five full years in Nebraska before action on foreign judgment is barred. Nicholas v. Farwell, 24, 180, 186 (38 N. W., 820). See Packer v. Thompson, 25, 691. Judgment of other state court is a foreign judgment. Marx v. Kempner, 25, 107 (41 N. W., 111). See Weaver v. Cressman, 21, 679 (33 N. W., 478). Statute cannot run in two different states at the same time. Edgerton v. Wachter, 9, 501 (4 N. W., 85). Neither can the time expired in one state be added to that in another. Harrison v. Union National Bank, 12, 501 (11 N. W., 752). Statute of limitations for and against municipal corporations. May v. School District, 22, 206 (34 N. W., 377). Statute runs during temporary absence from the state. Blodgett v. Utley, 4, 29. Part payment or a new promise by one partner after dissolution does not renew an outlawed firm note. Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 370. Lee v. Bruegman, — Neb., — (— N. W., —). Indorsement on a note of money realized from collateral left with the holder for that purpose removes the bar of the statute. Sornberger v. Lee, 14, 194 (15 N. W., 345).

Has no application to a tax. Price v. Lancaster County, 18, 202 (24 N. W., 705). Applies to money received by agent for principal. Arnett v. Zinn, 20, 593 (31 N. W., 240). This limitation applies to a county as well as to an individual. County of Boone v. B. & M. R. R. Co., 11 Sup. Ct. Rep., 689. But see Brewer v. Otoe County, 1, 382.

4548 (12). Within four years, an action for trespass upon real property; an action for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property; an action for an injury to the rights of the plaintiff, not arising on contract, and not hereinafter enumerated; an action for relief on the ground of fraud, but the cause of action in such case shall not [be] deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the fraud.

Statute commences to run as soon as plaintiff learns facts which, on inquiry suggested thereby, would lead to the discovery of the fraud. Wright v. Davis, 28, 479 (44 N. W., 490). Rugan v. Sabin, 53 Fed Rep., 416 (— C. C. A., —). Statute does not begin to run until discovery of fraud. Blake v. Chambers, 4, 95. Where the fraud consists in a fraudulent transfer, the statute begins to run from the recording of the deed. Gillespie v. Cooper, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 302). The statute begins to run against a cause of action based on a void deed from the time the deed is declared void. Lamb v. Ewing (Circ. Ct. App.), 54 Fed. Rep., 269. Action by mortgagor against morgagee is barred in four years from the wrongful seizure. Brashier v. Talleth, 31, 622 (48 N. W., 398). Action by junior incumbrancer on ground of fraud shall be brought within four years from the discovery of the fraud. Parker v. Kuhn, 21, 421 (32 N. W., 74). Actions for relief on the ground of accident or mistake are classed with those for relief on the ground of fraud, and the statute does not commence to run until the discovery thereof. Ainsfield v. Moore, 30, 403 (46 N. W., 828). An action for rents and profits is barred in four years, and is not limited to the time of service of summons in the action. Harrall v. Gray, 12, 543 (11 N. W., 851). Prosecution for bastardy commenced more than four years after birth of child not barred where evidence shows that accused is putative father, and that mother has continued to insist on his supporting it. Denham v. Watson, 24, 781 (40 N. W., 308). See Hellman v. Davis, 24, 793 (40 N. W., 309); Reeves v. Nye, 28 571 (44 N. W., 736).

4549 (13). Within one year an action for libel, slander, assault and battery, malicious prosecution, of false imprisonment; an action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, but where the statute giving such action prescribes a different limitation, the action may be brought within the period so limited.

An action against stockholders under sec. 349 is not barred in one year. Coy v. Jones, 30, 799 (47 N. W., 208). Right of action for malicious prosecution complete when prosecution disposed of finally. Casebeer v. Drahoble, 13, 466 (14 N. W., 397).

4550 (14). An action upon the official bond or undertaking of an executor, administrator, guardian, sheriff, or any other officer, or upon the bond or undertaking given in attachment, injunction, or in any case whatever required by statute, can only be brought within ten years.

Action on county treasurer's bond may be brought any time within ten years. Alexander v. Overton, 22, 229 (34 N. W., 629).

4551 (15). Actions brought for damages growing out of the failure or want of consideration of contracts, express or implied, or for the recovery of money paid upon contracts, express or implied, the consideration of which has wholly or in part failed, shall be brought within four years.

4552 (16). An action for relief not hereinbefore provided for, can only be brought within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

See Parker v. Kuhn, 21, 433 (32 N. W., 74). This applies to all claims that may be made the ground of action at law not otherwise provided for. A proceeding by mandamus is barred in four years. State, ex rel. Chemical National Bank, v. School District No. 9, 30, 520 (46 N. W., 613).

4553 (17). If a person entitled to bring any action mentioned in this title, except for a penalty or forfeiture, be, at the time the cause of action accrued, within the age of twenty-one years, a married woman, insane, or imprisoned, every such person shall be entitled to bring such action within the respective times limited by this title after such disability shall be removed. The absence from the state, death, or other disability of a non-resident, save the cases mentioned in this section, shall not operate to extend the period within which actions in rem shall be commenced by and against such non-resident or his representatives.

In proceedings in rem absence from the state does not operate to extend time. Peters v. Dunnells, 5, 466. The absence must be such as will prevent the bringing of an action during such absence.. If the right to bring an action is not suspended, the running of the statute will not be interrupted. Omaha & Florence L. & T. Co. v. Parker, 33, 778 (51 N. W., 139). The time within which a real estate mortgage may be foreclosed is not extended under this section by the absence of defendant from the state. Merriam v. Goodlet, 36, — (54 N. W., 686). Feebleness of mind and body not a disability. Rugan v. Sabin, 53 Fed. Rep., 416 (— C. C. A., —).

4554 (18). All actions or causes of action which are or have been barred by the laws of this state, or any state or territory of the United States, shall be deemed barred under the laws of this state.

Intended to include mortgages. Seymour v. Street, 5, 89. See Kittle v. DeLamater, 8, 332; Hower v. Aultman, 27, 255 (42 N. W., 1039).

Statute of limitation stops running at the date of summons which is served, and in case of constructive service is at the date of the first publication. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 19, 36 (26 N. W., 614). An alias summons in proceedings in error issued more than a year from date of final order is too late. Baker v. Sloss, 13, 231 (13 N. W., 212). Cited, Wright v. Smith, 11, 343 (7 N. W., 537). Jurisdiction attaches when defendant legally served. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 136. When summons served issued after action barred, no jurisdiction. Aultman v. Cole, 16, 5 (19 N. W., 783). This applies to an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien. Burlingim v. Cooper, 36, — (53 N. W., 1025).

4556 (20). If, when a cause of action accrues against a person, he be out of the state, or shall have absconded or concealed himself, the period limited for the commencement of the action shall not begin to run until he come into the state, or while he is absconded or concealed; and if after the cause of action accrues he depart from the state, or abscond, or conceal himself, the time of his absence or concealment shall not be computed as any part of the period within which the action must be brought.

Person absent from the state, or absconding, statute does not run against. Forbes v. Thomas, 22, 553 (35 N. W., 411). Mere temporary absence from state does not suspend statute. Usual place of residence defined. Blodgett v. Utley, 4, 30. Debtor must reside for the full statutory time within the state before action is barred. Edgerton v. Wachter, 9, 502 (4 N. W., 85). Where party makes note in another state and continues to reside there over three years and then removes to Nebraska, he cannot add the time resided there to time resided here to make up the five years' limitation. Harrison v. Union National Bank, 12, 501 (11 N. W., 752). Where a party contracts a debt and then moves to the state, the statute commences to run from the time he enters the state. Minneapolis Harvester Works v. Smith, 36, — (54 N. W., 974). This section applies to all personal causes of action, whether they accrue within or without this state or in favor of a resident or non-resident thereof. Hartley v. Crawford, 12, 472 (11 N. W., 729). Cited, Nicholas v. Farwell, 24, 186 (38 N. W., 820).

4557 (21). When a cause of action has been fully barred by the laws of any state or country where the defendant has previously resided, such bar shall be the same defense in this state as though it had arisen under the provisions of this title.

A party relying upon the statute of limitations of another state must plead the statute as any other fact. Minneapolis Harvester Works v. Smith, 36, — (54 N. W., 974).

4558 (22). In any cause founded on contract, when any part of the principal or interest shall have been paid, or an acknowledgment of an existing liability, debt, or claim, or any promise to pay the same, shall have been made in writing, an action may be brought in such case within the period prescribed for the same, after such payment, acknowledgment, or promise.

A promise to be available must be in writing. Arnett v. Zinn, 20, 594 (31 N. W., 240). Letters which do not acknowledge the judgment as an existing liability are not sufficient to remove the bar. Nelson v. Becker, 32, 103 (48 N. W., 962). The giving of a deed or mortgage to secure a debt is not an acknowledgment of the debt within this statute. Ashby v. Washburn, 23, 573 (37 N. W., 267). Part payment on a promissory note removes the bar of the statute. Sornberger v. Lee, 14, 194 (15 N. W., 345). The payment of a dividend by the assignee of an insolvent does not renew the debt. Whitney v. Chambers, 17, 90 (22 N. W., 229). A promise by one joint debtor will not take a debt out of the statute as to his co-contractors, unless he is specially authorized by them for that purpose. Mayberry v. Willoughby, 5, 369. Lee v. Bruegman, — Neb., — (— N. W., —). How partial payments applied with reference to statute. Ashby v. Washburn, 23, 578 (37 N. W., 267). See Rolfe v. Pilloud, 16, 21 (19 N. W., 615, 970); Devereaux v. Henry, 16, 55 (19 N. W., 697); Johnson v. Ghost, 11, 418 (8 N. W., 391).

4559 (23). In all actions upon bills of exchange or promissory notes, or other written instruments, whenever any of the parties thereto are designated by the initial letter or letters, or some contraction of the Christian or first name or names, it shall be sufficient to designate such person by the name, initial letter or letters, or contraction of the first name or names, instead of stating the Christian or first name or names in full.

4560 (24). Any company or association of persons formed for the purpose of carrying on any trade or business, or for the purpose of holding any species of property in this state, and not incorporated, may sue and be sued by such usual name as such company, partnership, or association may have assumed to itself or be known by, and it shall not be necessary in such case to set forth in the process or pleadings, or to prove at the trial the names of the persons composing such company.

Failure to set out names of partners in petition not fatal. Jansen & Co. v. Mundt, 20, 324 (30 N. W., 53). Action against C. C. and H. R., in business under the firm name of C. & R., is an action against the individual members; if one only can be served with summons, jurisdiction over him is required. Rowland v. Shephard, 27, 500 (43 N. W., 344). A petition in which plaintiffs are set out as "Weisz & Mall Co., a partnership doing business in the state of Iowa," is bad. Weiss & Mall Co. v. Davey, 28, 566 (44 N. W., 470). In actions against partners on partnership contracts, all partners should be joined, but omission of a party as co-defendant not ground for nonsuit and can only be taken advantage of by a plea in abatement properly verified. Miller v. Finn, 1, 290. Makers of note payable to "People's Bank" estopped to deny payee's legal capacity to sue thereon. Bair v. People's Bank, 27, 580 (43 N. W., 347). Assets of partnership liable for its debts. People, ex rel. Till, v. Roy, 3, 261. Incoming partner not liable for previously contracted debts unless there is a special contract with good consideration. Parmalee v. Wiggenhorn, 6, 326. Attachment brought by non-resident partnership is not void. Cady v. Smith, 12, 628 (12 N. W., 95). May be proven by admission of the individual members. Converse v. Shambaugh, 4, 378. Sufficiency of notice, query. Miller v. Finn, 1, 290. See Peaks v. Graves, 25, 239 (41 N. W., 151).

Service on partnership at its usual place of business sufficient. Rosenbaum v. Hayden, 22, 748 (36 N. W., 147). This is cumulative and does not prevent service on the individuals. Herron v. Cole, 25, 698 (41 N. W., 765). Where action against members as individuals and one is absent from state, service may be had on the others. Winters v. Means, 25, 245 (41 N. W., 157).

4562 (26). In cases where a company shall sue in its partnership name, such company shall procure the writ to be endorsed by a responsible surety, resident of the county, for costs, or otherwise give security for costs.

Requirement of security for costs is not jurisdictional. Haskins v. Citizens Bank, 12, 40 (10 N. W., 466). Security for costs is an essential prerequisite to maintenance of an action. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Dick & Son, 7, 246. But a firm may be surety for plaintiff. Tessier v. Crowley, 17, 209 (22 N. W., 422).

4563 (27). If the plaintiff, in any judgment so rendered against any company or partnership, shall seek to charge the individual property of the persons composing such company or firm, it shall be lawful for him to file a bill in chancery against the several members thereof, setting forth his judgment and the insufficiency of the partnership property to satisfy the same, and to have a decree for the debt, and an award of execution against all such persons, or any of them, as may appear to have been members of such company, association, or firm.

Where action is brought against the partners individually, upon a judgment obtained against the firm, the petition must allege that the partnership property is insufficient to satisfy the judgment. Ruth v. Lowrey, 10, 262 (4 N. W., 977). Leach v. Millburn Wagon Co., 14, 109 (15 N. W., 232).

Sec. 28 repealed. G. S., 713.

TITLE III.—PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS.

4564 (29). Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except as otherwise provided in section thirty-two.

Real party in interest is party entitled to proceeds. Hoagland v. Van Etten, 22, 684 (35 N. W., 869). A naked assignment will not support an action by the assignee. Hoagland v. Van Etten, 23, 462 (36 N. W., 755). But court may allow such assignee to acquire the actual interest of his assignor. Hoagland v. Van Etten, 31, 297 (47 N. W., 920). Where a chose in action is assigned, the assignee is the proper person to bring an action thereon. Mills v. Murry, 1, 328. Action will lie in name of county against treasurer for money due the county. Thorne v. Adams County, 22, 327 (36 N. W., 515). Action maintained in the name of real party in interest. Lacey v. Central National Bank, 4, 185. A person not nominally a party to a suit must be shown by the petition to have some interest in proceedings before he will be allowed to defend. Hicklin v. Neb. City National Bank, 8, 468. See Peaks v. Graves, 25, 238 (41 N. W., 151); State, ex rel. Sch. Dist. v. White, 29, 292 (45 N. W., 631). A private person can only abate a public nuisance when he can show some special injury to himself. Kittle v. Fremont, 1, 337. Tenants in common may or may not join in an action against a mere trespasser. Mattis v. Boggs, 19, 701 (28 N. W., 325).

4565 (30). The assignee of a thing in action may maintain an action thereon in his own name and behalf, without the name of the assignor.

The assignee of a chose in action is the only proper party to sue thereon. Mills v. Murray, 1, 327. The assignee of a mechanic's lien may foreclose the same. Rogers v. Omaha Hotel Co., 4, 58. A contract of guaranty is assignable, and the assignee may maintain an action thereon in his own name. Weir v. Anthony 35, 396 (53 N. W., 206).

4566 (31). In the case of an assignment of a thing in action, the action by the assignee shall be without prejudice to any set-off or other defense now allowed; but this section shall not apply to negotiable bonds, promissory notes, or bills of exchange, transferred in good faith, and upon good consideration before due.

Endorsee for collection may sue in his own name, but subject to equitable defenses of maker. Roberts v. Snow, 27, 430–1 (43 N. W., 241). Defense available against one not an innocent purchaser; knowledge of agent charges principal. First National Bank v. Erickson, 20, 586 (31 N. W., 387). The purchaser of a note before due without notice takes it free from the defense of usury. Wortendyke v. Meehan, 9, 226 (2 N. W., 339). Savings Bank v. Scott, 10, 86 (4 N.W., 314). A negotiable instrument transferred upon good consideration before due is not subject to set-off. Boyer v. Clark, 3, 166. (See section 4644.) The purchaser of a note after maturity takes it subject to any set-off good between the original parties. Davis v. Neligh, 7, 82. In an action on a negotiable certificate of deposit, transferred after due, the maker may set off any cross demand which existed at the time of the transfer. First National Bank v. Security National Bank, 34, 71 (51 N. W., 305). Assignment of notes secured by real estate mortgage carries the security with it. Richards v. Kountze, 4, 209. Albright v. Russell, 5, 210. Assignment of mortgage only to innocent purchaser does not prevent plea of usury. Doll v. Hollenbeck, 19, 642 (28 N. W., 286). Cited and construed, Alexander v. Overton, 36, — (54 N. W., 825).

4567 (32). An executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a person with whom or in whose name a contract is made for the benefit of another, or a person expressly authorized by statute, may bring an action without joining with him the person for whose benefit it is prosecuted. Officers may sue and be sued in such name as is authorized by law, and official bonds may be sued upon in the same way.

Agent may bring suit in his own name when note is made to him or order. Stoll v. Sheldon, 13, 208 (13 N. W., 201). Official bonds, how prosecuted. Albertson v. State, 9, 434 (2 N. W., 742–892.) Action by husband for surrender value of insurance policy on his own life in favor of his wife, sustained. New York Ins. Co. v. Bonner, 11, 172 (7 N. W., 745). Cited, State, ex rel. Board of Transportation, v. M. P. R. Co., 29, 558 (45 N. W., 788).

Secs. 33 and 34 repealed. G. S., 713.

4568 (35). If a husband and wife be sued together, the wife may defend for her own right; and, if the husband neglect to defend, she may defend for his right also.

4569 (36). The action of an infant must be brought by his guardian or next friend. When the action is brought by his next friend the court has power to dismiss it if it is not for the benefit of the infant; or to substitute the guardian of the infant, or any person, as the next friend.

4570 (37). The guardian, or the next friend, is liable for the costs of the action brought by him, and, when he is insolvent, the court may require security for them. Either may be a witness in an action brought by him.

Infant not liable for costs. If becoming of full age during the pendency of the action he disclaims all benefits, cannot be charged with costs. Kleffel v. Bullock, 8, 343. Guardian should appear and defend, but failure to do so does not render judgment void. McAllister v. Lancaster Co. Bank, 15, 297 (18 N. W., 57).

4571 (38). The defense of an infant must be by a guardian for the suit, who may be appointed by the court in which the action is prosecuted, or by a judge thereof, or by a probate judge. The appointment cannot be made until after service of the summons in the action as directed by this Code.

See McAllister v. Lancaster County Bank, 15, 297 (18 N. W., 57).

4572 (39). The appointment may be made upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years, and apply within twenty days after the return of the summons. If he be under the age of fourteen, or neglect so to apply, the appointment may be made upon the application of any friend of the infant, or on that of plaintiff in the action.

4573 (40). All persons having an interest in the subject of the action, and in obtaining the relief demanded, may be joined as plaintiffs, except as otherwise provided in this title.

The objection that plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue must be made, if at all, by a party to the suit. Miller v. Willis, 15, 14 (16 N. W., 840). In an action by a surety who has paid the judgment, the original plaintiffs are not necessary parties. Eaton v. Lambert, 1, 339. An attorney may be admitted as a party plaintiff. Reynolds v. Reynolds, 10, 579 (7 N. W., 322). Oliver v. Sheeley, 11, 522 (9 N. W., 689). Tenants in common may join in ejectment for possession of real estate. Mattis v. Boggs, 19, 701 (28 N. W., 325). All parties interested in a replevin bond may join in a suit upon it. Kaufman v. Wessel, 14, 163 (15 N. W., 219). Applicable to actions in replevin. Earle v. Burch, 21, 710 (33 N. W., 254). In action by county to foreclose tax lien, city not a necessary party. County of Lancaster v. Rush, 35, 123 (52 N. W., 837).

4574 (41). Any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who is a necessary party to a complete determination or settlement of the question involved therein.

Cannot be changed into a suit in equity nor into one for money, neither does offset or counterclaim lie. Blue Valley Bank v. Bane, 20, 299 (30 N. W., 64). Holland v. Commercial Bank, 22, 586 (36 N. W., 112). All defendants in a joint judgment are necessary parties to proceedings in error. Curten v. Atkinson, 29, 622 (46 N. W., 91).

4575 (42). Of the parties to the action, those who are united in interest must be joined as plaintiffs or defendants; but if the consent of one who should have been joined as plaintiff cannot be obtained, he may be made a defendant, the reason being stated in the petition.

Parties jointly liable must be joined as defendants. Fox v. Abbott, 12, 331 (11 N. W., 303). Leach v. Milburn, 14, 109 (15 N. W., 232). Bowen v. Crow, 16, 559 (20 N. W., 850). Not all contributors to fund by which church edifice was built need join in action to restrain sale thereof. Avery v. Baker, 27, 396 (43 N. W., 174).

4576 (43). When the question is one of a common or general interest of many persons, or when the parties are very numerous, and it may be impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.

4577 (44). Persons severally liable upon the same obligation or instrument, including the parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes, may, all or any of them, be included in the same action, at the option of the plaintiff.

See Bennett v. Townsend, 1, 460.

4578 (45). An action does not abate by the death, marriage, or other disability of a party, or by the transfer of any interest therein during its pendency, if the cause of action survive or continue. In the case of the marriage of a female party, the fact being suggested on the record, the husband may be made a party with his wife; and in the case of the death or other disability of a party, the court may allow the action to continue by or against his representative or successor in interest. In case of any other transfer of interest the action may be continued in the name of the original party; or the court may allow the person to whom the transfer is made, to be substituted in the action.

Transfer of interest of party to his co-plaintiff is no ground for dismissing the action. Magenau & Co. v. Bell, 13, 249 (13 N. W., 277). Purchase of plaintiff's interest not cause for dismissal. Dodge v. O. & S. W. R. R. Co., 20, 280 (29 N. W., 936). Where notes sued on were assigned as collateral and sued by the assignee after which the assignor discharged the indebtedness, held that this did not abate the action by the assignee. Howell v. Alma Milling Co., 36, — (54 N. W., 127). An action may be renewed by supplemental pleadings and service of summons. Section 4981 et seq. are not exclusive. Rakes v. Brown, 34, 304 (51 N. W., 848). Last clause cited, Temple v. Smith, 13, 514 (14 N. W., 527). Cited, Fox v. Abbott, 12, 330 and 333 (11 N. W., 303).

4579 (46). The court may determine any controversy between parties before it, when it can be done without prejudice to the rights of others, or by saving their rights; but when a determination of the controversy cannot be had without the presence of other parties, the court must order them to be brought in.

Supreme court on appeal will not adjudicate rights of one not made a party below. Koenig v. C., B. & Q. R. Co., 27, 700, 705 (43 N. W., 423). Assignee not allowed to come in. Ashton v. Jones, 14, 429 (16 N. W., 434). An equity cause in which not all parties were before the district court will be remanded by the supreme court for the purpose of having such parties brought in. Smith v. Shaffer, 29, 656 (45 N. W., 936). Cited and rule applied on facts stated, Smith v. Kinney, 32, 166 (49 N. W., 341). Cited, Gamble v. Wilson, 33, 273 (50 N. W., 3).

4580 (47). When, in an action for the recovery of real or personal property, any person having an interest in the property applies to be made a party, the court may order it to be done.

The right to the property must be directly in issue. Kimbro v. Clark, 17, 403 (22 N. W., 788). A mere contingent liability to answer over to the defendant without any privity with the plaintiff is not sufficient ground for intervention. Omaha Southern Railway Co. v. Beeson, 36, — (54 N. W., 557). Cited, Gamble v. Wilson, 33, 273 (50 N. W., 3).

4581 (48). [Property—Preservation—Interpleader.]—Upon the affidavit of a defendant before answer in an action upon contract, or for the recovery of personal property, that some third party, without collusion with him, has or makes a claim to the subject of the action, and that he is ready to pay or dispose of the same, as the court may direct, the court may make an order for the safe-keeping, or for the payment, or deposit in court, or delivery of the subject of the action, to such person as it may direct, and an order requiring such third party to appear in a reasonable time and maintain or relinquish his claim against the defendant. If such third party, being served with a copy of the order by the sheriff, or such other person as the court may direct, fail to appear, the court may declare him barred of all claim in respect to the subject of the action, against the defendant therein. If such third party appear, he shall be allowed to make himself defendant in the action, in lieu of the original defendant, who shall be discharged from all liability to either of the other parties in respect to the subject of the action, upon his compliance with the order of the court for the payment, deposit, or delivery thereof.

4582 (49). The provisions of the last section shall be applicable to an action brought against a sheriff, or other officer, for the recovery of personal property, taken by him under execution, or for the proceeds of such property so taken and sold by him. And the defendant in such action shall be entitled to the benefit of those provisions against the party in whose favor the execution issued, upon exhibiting to the court the process under which he acted, with his affidavit that the property, for the recovery of which, or its proceeds, the action is brought, was taken under such process.

4583 (50). [Interested party substituted.]—In an action against a sheriff, or other officer, for the recovery of property taken under an execution, and replevied by the plaintiff in such action, the court may, upon application of the defendant, and of the party in whose favor the execution issued, permit the latter to be substituted as the defendant, security for the costs being given.

Substitution must be made before final judgment. Hicklin v. Neb. City National Bank, 8, 467. A railroad company has no right to have a third party substituted for it because such third party has agreed to indemnify it for costs of the right of way. Omaha Southern Railway Co. v. Beeson, 36, — (54 N. W., 557).

Secs. 4584 to 4586. "An act to amend title three (3) of the Code of Civil Procedure of the Compiled Statutes of the state of Nebraska entitled 'Parties to Civil Actions,' and to provide for the intervention of third parties claiming an interest in the event of any suit pending or to be brought in any of the courts of the state of Nebraska." 1887, p. 655. In force July 1.

4584. Any person who has or claims an interest in the matter in litigation, in the success of either of the parties to an action, or against both, in any action pending or to be brought in any of the courts of the state of Nebraska, may become a party to an action between any other persons or corporations, either by joining the plaintiff in claiming what is sought by the petition, or by uniting with the defendants in resisting the claim of the plaintiff, or by demanding anything adversely to both the plaintiff and defendant, either before or after issue has joined in the action, and before the trial commences.

An assignee for creditors may intervene in an attachment suit affecting the property of his assignors. Commercial National Bank v. Nebraska State Bank, 33, 292 (50 N. W., 157). See Harman v. Barhydt, 20, 630 (31 N. W., 488); Holland v. Commercial Bank, 22, 586 (36 N. W., 113). Cited, Gamble v. Wilson, 33, 273 (50 N. W., 3).

4585. The court shall determine upon the intervention at the same time that the action is decided, and if the claim of the intervenor is not sustained he shall pay all costs of the intervention.

4586. The intervention shall be by petition, which must set forth the facts on which the intervention rests, and all the pleadings therein shall be governed by the same rules as obtain in regard to other pleadings provided for by the code. But if such petition is filed during term the court shall direct the time in which answers thereto shall be filed.

TITLE IV.—THE COUNTY IN WHICH ACTIONS ARE TO BE BROUGHT.

4587 (51). All actions to recover damages for any trespass upon or any injury to real estate shall be brought only in the county where such real estate is situated, and all *actions for the following causes must be brought in the county in which the subject of the action is situated, except as provided in section fifty-two (52): First—For the recovery of real property or of an estate or interest therein. Second—For the partition of real property. Third—For the sale of real property under a mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance or charge;* Provided, All actions now pending in any district court for any of the causes mentioned in this section, not within the county wherein such real estate is situated, shall remain, be tried, and disposed of in the county where commenced.

Original section comprised only matter from * to *; remainder added 1889, p. 376. Cited, Yorgensen v. Yorgensen, 6, 385; Flint v. Gurrell, 12, 342 (11 N. W., 431); O. & R. V. R. Co. v. Brown, 29, 501 (46 N. W., 39).

4588 (52). If the real property, the subject of the action, be an entire tract, and situated in two or more counties, or if it consists of separate tracts situated in two or more counties, the action may be brought in any county in which any tract or part thereof is situated, unless it be an action to recover the possession thereof. And if the property be an entire tract, situated in two or more counties, an action to recover the possession thereof may be brought in either of such counties; but if it consists of separate tracts in different counties, the possession of such tracts must be recovered by separate actions brought in the counties where they are situated.

Cited, State Bank v. Green, 11, 307 (9 N. W., 36); Parker v. Starr, 21, 683 (33 N. W., 424).

4589 (53). An action to compel the specific performance of a contract of sale of real estate may be brought in the county where the defendants, or any of them, reside.

Behr v. Willard, 11, 605 (10 N. W., 525). Whitehorn v. Crans, 20, 397 (30 N. W., 406).

4590 (54). Actions for the following causes must be brought in the county where the cause, or some part thereof, arose: First—An action for the recovery of a fine, forfeiture, or penalty, imposed by a statute; except that, when it is imposed for an offense committed on a river, or other stream of water, or road which is the boundary of two or more counties, the action may be brought in any county bordering on such river, water-course, or road, and opposite to the place where the offense was committed. Second—An action against a public officer, for an act done by him in virtue or under color of his office, or for a neglect of his official duty. Third—An action on the official bond or undertaking of a public officer.

An action on judgment of amercement may be brought against the sureties on sheriff's official bond in county where the amercement was had. McNee v. Sewell, 14, 534 (16 N. W., 827).

4591 (55). An action other than one of those mentioned in the first three sections of this title, against a corporation created by the laws of this state, may be brought in the county in which it is situated, or has its principal office or place of business; but if such corporation be an insurance company, the action may be brought in the county where the cause of action, or some part thereof, arose.

4592 (56). An action against a railroad company, or an owner of a line of mail stages, or other coaches, for an injury to person or property upon the road or line, or upon a liability as a carrier, may be brought in any county through or into which the said road or line passes.

Applies to action against railroad company for damages from overflow caused by one of its bridges. O. & R. V. Co. v. Brown, 29, 501 (46 N. W., 39).

4593 (57). An action other than one of those mentioned in the first three sections of this title, against a turnpike road company, may be brought in any county in which any part of the road lies.

4595 (59). An action other than one of those mentioned in the first three sections of this title, against a non-resident of this state or a foreign corporation may be brought in any county in which there may be property of, or debts owing to, said defendant, or where said defendant may be found; but if said defendant be a foreign insurance company, the action may be brought in any county where the cause, or some part thereof, arose.

4596 (60). Every other action must be brought in the county in which the defendant, or some one of the defendants, resides, or may be summoned.

An action cannot be brought in a county in which the defendant does not reside, before he enters the county, with the intention of serving him when he comes within the county. Coffman v. Brandhoeffer, 33, 284 (50 N. W., 6). Action against maker and several endorsees may be brought in any county where any one of the parties reside or may be summoned, and summonses issued for the others to the counties in which they respectively reside or may be summoned. Pearson v. Kansas Mfg. Co., 14, 213 (15 N. W., 346). The "defendant" must have a real and substantial interest in the controversy. Dunn v. Haines, 17, 560 (23 N. W., 501). Cobbey v. Wright, 23, 255 (36 N. W., 505). A suit for the recovery of money is a local action and governed by this section. Coffman v. Brandhoeffer, 33, 283 (50 N. W., 6). Prosecution for bastardy properly maintained in county where mother resides, though temporarily staying in another county when child was born. Ingram v. State, 24, 37 (37 N. W., 943). A quo warranto may be brought in supreme court by any citizen. State, ex rel. Fair, v. Frazier, 28, 455 (44 N. W., 471). See Cobbey v. Wright, 29, 277-8 (45 N. W., 460).

4597 (61). In all cases in which it shall be made to appear to the court that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the suit is pending, or when the judge is interested or has been of counsel in the case or subject-matter thereof, or is related to either of the parties, or otherwise disqualified to sit, the court may, on application of either party, change the place of trial to some adjoining county, wherein such impartial trial can be had; but if the objection be against all the counties of the district, then to the nearest county in the adjoining district.

Amended 1873; G. S., 532. That numerous persons in the county are biased or prejudiced is not ground for change in a civil case. N. E. N. R. R. Co. v. Frazier, 25, 48 (40 N. W., 604).

Secs. 4598 and 4599. "An act to amend the code of civil procedure." 1873; G. S., p. 712.

4598. When an order is made transferring a cause for trial, as provided in the preceding section [4597], the clerk of the court must transmit the pleadings and papers therein to the clerk of the court to which it is transferred. The costs and fees thereof, and of filing the papers anew, must be paid by the party at whose instance the order was made. The court to which an action is transferred shall have and exercise over the same the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein.

4599. When an action action affecting the title or possession of real estate has been brought in or transferred to any court of a county, other than the county in which the real estate or some portion of it is situated, the clerk of such court must, after final judgment therein, certify such judgment under his seal of office, and transmit the same to the corresponding court of the county in which the real estate affected by the action is situated. The clerk receiving such copy must file, docket, and record such judgment in the records of the court, briefly designating it as a judgment transferred from ——— court (naming the proper court).

TITLE V.—COMMENCEMENT OF A CIVIL ACTION.

CHAPTER I.—MANNER OF COMMENCING CIVIL ACTIONS.

4600 (62). A civil action must be commenced by filing in the office of the clerk of the proper court a petition, and causing a summons to be issued thereon.

Amended 1869, p. 63; 1871, p. 111. Summons must be served before jurisdiction had. Meyers v. Le Poidevin, 9, 536 (4 N. W., 319). Not necessary to issue new summons on amended petition, Schuyler National Bank v. Bollong, 28, 692 (45 N. W., 164). Cited, Rogers v. Redick, 10, 333 (6 N. W., 413).

4601 (63). The plaintiff shall also file with the clerk of the court a precipe, stating the names of the parties to the action, and demanding that a summons issue thereon.

Amended 1869, p 63; 1871, p. 110.

4602 (64). The summons shall be issued by the clerk, shall be under the seal of the court from which the same shall issue, and shall be signed by the clerk. Its style shall be, "The state of Nebraska, —— county," and it shall be dated the day it is issued. It shall be directed to the sheriff of the county, and command him to notify the defendant or defendants named therein, that he or they have been sued, and must answer the petition filed by the plaintiff, giving his name at the time stated therein, or the petition will be taken as true, and judgment rendered accordingly. And where the action is for the recovery of money only, there shall be endorsed on the writ the amount to be furnished in the precipe, for which, with interest, judgment will be taken, if the defendant fail to answer. If the defendant fail to appear, judgment shall not be rendered for a larger amount and the costs.

Need not be in exact language here given. Hurford v. Baker, 17, 445 (23 N. W., 339). Endorsement of amount only necessary where money judgment alone asked. Judgment cannot exceed endorsement in case of default. Watson v. McCartney, 1, 133. Crowell v. Galloway, 8, 218.

When the defendant fails to appear, it is error to render judgment for larger amount than is endorsed on the summons. McKay v. Hinman, 13, 35 (13 N. W., 15). Cooperative Stove Co. v. Grimes, 9, 124 (2 N. W., 345). Forbes v. Bringe, 32, 760 (49 N. W., 720). Where in an unnecessary case an endorsement is made, it should not be misleading or incomplete. Boulware v. Otoe County, 16, 26 (19 N. W., 454). Jurisdiction attaches to defendant as soon as legally served. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 136. May be amended correcting mistake, and so amended relates back to time of service. Martin v. Coppock, 4, 177. Action for recovery of money only does not include an action in foreclosure. Jones v. Null, 9, 60 (1 N. W., 867).

4603 (65). Where the action is rightly brought in any county, according to the provisions of title four, a summons shall be issued to any other county, against any one or more of the defendants at the plaintiff's request.

Summons may issue from county court to other counties. Pearson v. Kansas Mfg. Co., 14, 213 (15 N. W., 346). The defendant in the county where suit brought must be a necessary and not a sham defendant. Dunn v. Haines, 17, 560 (23 N. W., 501). Cobbey v. Wright, 23, 250 (36 N. W., 505).

4604 (66). Whenever the time for bringing parties into court is not fixed by statute, the summons shall be returnable on the second Monday after the day of its date, but when issued to any other county than the one in which the action is brought, it may be made returnable at the option of the party having it issued, on the third or fourth Monday after its date. It shall state the day of the month on which it is returnable.

No discretion vested in either the clerk or court. Crowell v. Galloway, 3, 218. When issued to another county, may be made returnable on second Monday if plaintiff so elect. State v. R. V. & W. R. Co., 27, 853 (44 N. W., 51). Summons returnable on Sunday or holiday not void. Ostertag v. Galbraith, 23, 735 (37 N. W., 637).

4605 (67). When a writ is returned "not summoned," other writs may be issued, until the defendant or defendants shall be summoned; and when defendants reside in different counties, writs may be issued to such counties at the same time.

Not necessary after amended petition. Healy v. Aultman & Co., 6, 351. Alias summons should not issue except on a return of "not summoned," but a failure in this respect was held not fatal. Ensign v. Roggencamp, 13, 32 (12 N. W., 811).

CHAPTER II.—SERVICE OF SUMMONS—ACTUAL SERVICE.

4606 (68). The summons shall be served by the officer to whom it is directed, who shall endorse on the original writ the time and manner of service. It may also be served by any person not a party to the action, appointed by the officer to whom it is directed. The authority of such person shall be endorsed on the writ. When the writ is served by a person appointed by the officer to whom it is directed, or when the service is made out of this state, the return shall be verified by oath or affirmation.

Where person has been taken into another county to answer a criminal charge, he is exempt from service of summons until a reasonable time has elapsed to enable him to return home. Palmer v. Rowan, 21, 458 (32 N. W., 210). Where summons is directed to sheriff of particular county, private person, without appointment, cannot serve it. R. V. R. R. Co. v. Sayer, 13, 281 (13 N. W., 404). Where sheriff a party, county court process should be directed to and served by coroner. Barlass v. May, 16, 647 (21 N. W., 436). Special authority to serve. Gilbert v. Brown, 9, 94 (2 N. W., 376). Haskins v. Citizens Bank, 12, 41 (10 N. W., 466). R. V. R. R. Co. v. Sayer, 13, 282 (13 N. W., 404). (See sections 5349 and 5566.) Service by unauthorized person void. Gilbert v. Brown. 9, 94 (2 N. W., 376). A bailiff as such cannot serve process. Cresswell v. McCaig, 11, 228 (9 N. W., 52).

4607 (69). The service shall be by delivering a copy of the summons to the defendant personally, or by leaving one at his usual place of residence, at any time before the return day.

Usual place of residence defined. Forbes v. Thomas, 22, 554 (35 N. W., 411). Place of residence means place of abode. Seymour v Street, 5, 85. Forbes v. Thomas, 22, 554 (35 N. W., 411). Sheriff's return is not conclusive as to the fact of residence, and defendant may show that place where copy was left was not, at the time, his residence. Walker v. Lutz, 14, 276 (15 N. W., 352).

Leaving copy at place of business not good. Aultman & Taylor Co. v. Steinan, 8, 112. Summons served on wife by leaving at house with husband held good after judgment though she never saw it. Morse v. Engle, 28, 545 (44 N. W., 859). Service of summons upon a husband alone is not a good service on the wife, even if he is served with two copies thereof, one being designed for the wife. Summons can only be left at the usual place of residence when defendant is not found there. Holliday v. Brown, 33, 662 (51 N. W., 839). Return of summons against husband and wife, showing only personal service on former, will not support judgment by default against wife. Carper v. Woodford, 24, 135 (38 N. W., 39). Delivery of copy by third person in presence of the sheriff, held sufficient. Palmer v. Belcher, 21, 59 (31 N. W., 262). Service on partnership by serving each member of firm good. Herron v. Cole Bros., 25, 698 (41 N. W., 765). Service by "reading" not good. Newlove v. Woodward, 9, 502 (4 N. W., 237). Service on partnership must be at its place of business. Ruth v. Lowrey, 10, 263 (4 N. W., 977). A return "by delivering to him a true and certified copy of the same," is good and sufficient; it need not run in the words of the statute. Betts v. Boyd, 31, 817 (48 N. W., 889). The presumption always is that officer did his duty. Parker v. Starr, 21, 683 (33 N. W., 424). Service on the return day sufficient. Aumock v. Jamison, 1, 432.

4608 (70). In all cases the return must state the time and manner of service.

Service good on Harrison Johnson if returned served on "within named H. Johnson." Record of a return of service is absolutely conclusive. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 133. The words "with all the endorsements thereon," although appearing but once in the return, held to apply to copies served on separate defendants. Wells v. Turner, 14, 446 (16 N. W., 484). Informality in return waived if not objected to. Brown v. Brown, 10, 351 (6 N. W., 397). Presumption is that service was made within the officer's county. Gilbert v. Brown, 9, 94 (2 N. W., 376).

4609 (71). The officer to whom the summons is directed must return the same at the time therein stated.

Service on return day good and will support a judgment by default. Aumock v. Jamison, 1, 432.

4610 (72). An acknowledgment on the back of a summons, or the voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to a service.

Admission of service on back of summons held to be equivalent to actual legal service. Cheney v. Harding, 21, 67 (31 N. W., 255). Appearance waives defects in summons. Kane v. U. P. R. R. Co., 5, 107. Appearance for any other purpose than to object to the jurisdiction of the court waives defects in summons. Kane v. People, 4, 512. Cropsey v. Wiggenhorn, 3, 108. Crowell v. Galloway 8, 215. Defendant may appear specially to object to jurisdiction of court. Newlove v. Woodward 9, 504 (4 N. W., 237). Special appearance must be for the sole purpose of questioning the right of the court to proceed, or court will hold it a general appearance. Crowell v. Galloway, 8, 220. Special appearance. Aultman & Taylor Co. v. Steinan, 8, 112. Appearance by motion for relief waives all errors in service and gives court jurisdiction. White v. Merriam, 16, 96 (19 N. W., 703). Where judgment by default is entered defendant may ask that default be opened, and may then object to the jurisdiction of the court over his person. Cobbey v. Wright, 23, 250 (36 N. W., 505). Answer to merits of case, followed by trial, waives defects. Walker v. Turner, 27, 106 (42 N. W., 918). Where agent enters appearance which is recognised by defendant, who files cross-bill, such appearance cannot be questioned. Miller v. Finn, 1, 291.

Where the president or chief officer is absent from the county, service may be made upon the treasurer. McMurtry v. Tuttle, 13, 233 (13 N. W., 213). Service may be had on an agent having the general conduct of the business. Porter v. C. & N. R. R. Co., 1, 15. Where the president of a foreign corporation not doing business in the state is inveigled into the state, a service upon him is not good. Fitzgerald Construction Co. v. Fitzgerald, 11 Sup. Ct. Rep., 36.

4612 (74). When the defendant is an incorporated insurance company, and the action is brought in a county in which there is an agency thereof, the service may be upon the chief officer of such agency.

4613 (75). When the defendant is a foreign corporation, having a managing agent in this state, the service may be upon auch agent.

Managing agent defined. Porter v. C. & N. R. R. Co., 1, 15. Service upon a local managing agent is good if not objected to in time. McCormick v. Walthers, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 486.

4614 (76). When the defendant is a minor under the age of fourteen years the service must be upon him and upon his guardian or father; or if neither of these can be found, then upon his mother, or the person having the care or control of the infant, or with whom he lives. If neither of these can be found, or if the minor be more than fourteen years of age, service on him alone shall be sufficient. The manner of service may be the same as in the case of adults.

Unless it otherwise appears it will be presumed that the officer did his duty; and when service made upon a widow and her children it will be held good. Parker v. Starr, 21, 682 (33 N. W., 424). Both the minor and his guardian, or father, mother, or other person, must be served if possible to make the service good. Hughes v. Housel, 33, 707 (50 N. W., 1127).

CONSTRUCTIVE SERVICE.

4615 (77). Service may be made by publication in either of the following cases: First—In actions brought under the fifty-first, fifty-second, and fifty-third sections of this code, where any or all of the defendants reside out of the state. Second—In actions brought to establish or set aside a will, where any or all of the defendants reside out of the state. Third—In actions brought against a non-resident of this state, or a foreign corporation having in this state property or debts owing to them, sought to be taken by any of the provisional remedies, or to be appropriated in any way. Fourth—In actions which relate to, or the subject of which is, real or personal property in this state where any defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent therein, or the relief demanded consists wholly or partially in excluding him from any interest therein, and such defendant is a non-resident of the state or a foreign corporation. Fifth—In all actions where the defendant, being a resident of the state, has departed therefrom, or from the county of his residence, with intent to delay or defraud his creditors or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with the like intent.

Pendency of attachment proceedings was notice to third parties from the date of the publication of notice, and this notice continued during the pendency of the action and until execution of deed. Day v. Thompson, 11, 127 (7 N. W., 533). Affidavit examined and held sufficient. McCormick v. Paddock, 20, 491 (30 N. W., 602). An affidavit alleging that the case is one under this section, while defective, is not void. Majors v. Edwards, 36, — (53 N. W., 1041). An affidavit stating that the action is brought to foreclose a mortgage on real estate in the county, and that the defendant is a non-resident and absent from the state, and cannot be served therein, is sufficient to authorize publication. Taylor v. Coots, 32, 38 (48 N. W., 964). An affidavit for publication failing to state that the defendants reside out of the state is invalid, and may be quashed on motion without appearing generally. Brown v. Rice, 30, 236 (46 N. W., 489). Constructive service in action to quiet title is upheld. Arndt v. Griggs, 134 U. S., 316 (10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 557). Where petition is filed in supreme court publication must be made in Lancaster county. Flint v. Gurrell, 12, 342 (11 N. W., 431). On default after service by publication no other relief can be granted except that claimed by the petition and notice. Vorce v. Page, 28, 294 (44 N. W., 452). Cited, McGavock v. Pollack, 13, 538 (14 N. W., 659); Murphy v. Lyons, 19, 689 (28 N. W., 328); Shedenhelm v. Shedenhelm, 21, 390 (32 N. W., 170); Arndt v. Griggs, 134 U. S., 316 (10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 557); Remer v. McKay, 54 Fed. Rep., 435.

4616 (78). Before service can be made by publication, an affidavit must be filed, that service of a summons cannot be made within this state, on the defendant or defendants to be served by publication, and that the case is one of those mentioned in the preceding section. When such affidavit is filed the party may proceed to make service by publication.

Affidavit need not be in language of statute, but all material facts must be stated. Britton v. Larson, 23, 811 (37 N. W., 681). Sufficient if it state nature of action and that service cannot be had in the state. Fouts v. Mann, 15, 177 (18 N. W., 64). Affidavit must show that defendant is a non-resident of, and that service of summons cannot be made upon him within, this state, or publication is void. McGavock v. Pollack, 13, 538 (14 N. W., 659). Not necessary that the grounds of the cause of action shall be stated. Shedenhelm v. Shedenhelm, 21, 391 (32 N. W., 170). Where there is not an entire omission to state some material fact, but which is insufficiently set forth, proceedings not void but merely voidable. In case examined, affidavit held sufficient. Fulton v. Levy, 21, 482 (32 N. W., 307). When defendant admits in writing on summons that he is a non-resident, affidavit not necessary. Cheney v. Harding, 21, 71 (32 N. W., 64). Statute does not require the petition to be filed before affidavit is made. Armstrong v. Middlestadt, 22, 713 (36

N. W., 151). Defects in affidavit for service cured by affidavit for attachment. Miller v. Eastman, 27, 413 (43 N. W., 179). Affidavit held not good. Holmes v. Holmes, 15, 615 (19 N. W., 600). Service before affidavit filed void. Murphy v. Lyons, 19, 692 (28 N. W., 328).

4617 (79). The publication must be made four consecutive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county where the petition is filed, if there be any printed in such county; and if there be not, in some newspaper printed in this state, of general circulation in that county. It must contain a summary statement of the object and prayer of the petition, mention the court wherein it is filed, and notify the person or persons thus to be served, when they are required to answer.

That defendant is required to answer on the forenoon of the legal answer day does not make the notice void. Armstrong v. Middlestadt, 22, 711 (36 N. W., 151). Publication deemed complete on the distribution of the fourth copy. Davis v. Huston, 15, 31 (16 N. W., 820). Five publications are equally good. Fouts v. Mann, 15, 178 (18 N. W., 64). A notice published five consecutive weeks, though more than is required, is valid. Taylor v. Coots, 32, 38 (48 N. W., 964). Cited, Flint v. Gurrell, 12, 352 (11 N. W., 431).

4618 (80). Service by publication shall be deemed complete when it shall have been made in the manner and for the time prescribed in the preceding section; and such service shall be proved by the affidavit of the printer or his foreman or principal clerk, or other person knowing the same.

Proof may be made by affidavit of book-keeper or other person with knowledge of the facts. Taylor v. Coots, 32, 38 (48 N. W., 964). Such proof may be amended like the return of an officer. Britton v. Lawson, 23, 812 (37 N. W., 681). Service by publication for divorce. Atkins v. Atkins, 8, 201 (2 N. W., 466).

4619 (81). In all cases where service may be made by publication, and in all other cases where the defendants are non-residents, and the cause of action arose in the state, suit may be brought in the county where the cause of action arose, and personal service of the summons may be made out of the state by the sheriff or some person appointed by him for that purpose. In all cases where service of a summons is made on a person without the state, proof of such service must be made by affidavit, stating the time and manner of service, and such service shall be made in the same manner as summonses are served on parties residing within this state.

Proof of service must be made by affidavit. Without venue, affidavit defective. Blair v. West Point Mfg. Co., 7, 152. See Cheney v. Harding, 21, 71 (32 N. W., 64). Service under this section held good. Curtis v. Perry, 33, 523 (50 N. W., 426).

4620 (82). A party against whom a judgment or order has been rendered without other service than by publication in a newspaper, may, at any time within five years after the date of the judgment or order, have the same opened, and be let in to defend; before the judgment or order shall be opened, the applicant shall give notice to the adverse party of his intention to make such an application, and shall file a full answer to the petition, pay all costs, if the court require them to be paid, and make it appear to the satisfaction of the court, by affidavit, that during the pendency of the action he had no actual notice thereof in time to appear in court and make his defense; but the title to any property, the subject of the judgment or order sought to be opened, which by it, or in consequence of it, shall have passed to a purchaser in good faith, shall not be affected by any proceedings under this section, nor shall they affect the title of any property sold before judgment under an attachment. The adverse party, on the hearing of an application to open a judgment or order, as provided by this section, shall be allowed to present counter-affidavits, to show that during the pendency of the action the applicant had notice thereof in time to appear in court and make his defense.

Applicant must show an interest in subject-matter and a right to be heard. Strangers to record cannot. Powell v. McDowell, 16, 424 (20 N. W., 271). Notice to open may be served on attorney. Merriam v. Gordon, 20, 407 (30 N. W., 410.) Notice to agent sufficient, when. Merriam v. Calhoun, 15, 571 (19 N. W., 708). Is a continuation of the original action and service on attorney in original action is good. Merriam v. Gordon, 17, 325 (22 N. W., 563). An action is not pending between the rendition and opening of a judgment, and a purchaser during that time takes a good title. Scudder v. Sargent, 15, 104 (17 N. W., 369). The defendant, served by publication, who has no actual notice of the pendency of the action, has a right to have the judgment opened up, which cannot be denied him by the court when he brings himself within the requirements of the statute. Brown v. Conger, 10, 239 (4 N. W., 1009). Savage v. Aikin, 14, 316 (15 N. W., 693). Sufficiency of proof upon which to set aside judgment considered. Gaslin v. Ritzel, 83, 743 (50 N. W., 1123). An unauthorized appearance by an attorney cannot affect a party's rights. Kepley v. Irwin, 14, 304 (15 N. W., 719). This section has no application to proceedings for divorce. O'Connell v. O'Connell, 10, 392 (6 N. W., 467). A vacation of the decree and dismissal of the action does not affect the title of a bona fide purchaser while the decree was in force. Watson v. Ulbrich, 18, 190 (24 N. W., 732). But title of good-faith purchaser is not impaired if opened. Warren v. Dick, 17, 241 (22 N. W., 462). Section construed to apply to heirs of deceased. In re Reed, 19, 397 (27 N. W., 391). Cited, Cheney v. Harding, 21, 67 (31 N. W., 255); Arndt v. Griggs, 134 U. S., 316 (10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 557); Remer v. McKay, 54 Fed. Rep., 435.

4621 (83). In actions where it shall be necessay to make the heirs or devisees of any deceased person defendants, and it shall appear by the affidavit of the plaintiff annexed to his petition that the names of such heirs or devisees, or any of them, and their residences, are unknown to the plaintiff, proceedings may be had against such unknown heirs or devisees, without naming them, and the court shall make such order respecting service as may be deemed proper; if service by publication be ordered, the publication shall not be less than four weeks.

4622 (84). Where the action is against two or more defendants, and one or more shall have been served, but not all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows: First—If the action be against defendants jointly indebted upon contract, he may proceed against the defendant served, unless the court otherwise direct. Second—If the action be against defendants severally liable, he may, without prejudice to his rights against those not served, proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

Cited, Fox v. Abbott, 12, 330 (11 N. W., 303).

4623 (85). When the summons has been served or publication made, the action is pending, so as to charge third persons with notice of pendency, and while pending no interest can be acquired by third persons in the subject-matter thereof as against the plaintiff's title; Provided, however*, That in all actions brought to affect the title to real property, the plaintiff may, either at the time of filing his petition or afterwards, file, or in case any defendant sets up an affirmative cause of action, and demands relief which shall affect the title to real estate, may, at the time of filing such answer, or any time afterwards, file with the clerk or register of deeds of each county in which the said real estate thus to be affected, or any part thereof, may be situated, a notice of the pendency of such action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the property in such county sought to be affected thereby. If the action be for a foreclosure of a mortgage, such notice must contain the date of the mortgage, the parties thereto, and the time and place of recording the same. The clerk or register of deeds of such county shall record notice thus filed and enter the same upon the numerical index of all lands, any part of which is included in the description in said notice, for which he shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty (50) cents, to be paid by the person filing such notice, and which shall be taxed as a part of the costs in said action. From the time of filing such notice shall the pendency of such action be constructive notice to any purchaser or incumbrancer to be affected thereby, and every person whose conveyance or incumbrance is subsequently executed or subsequently recorded shall be deemed to be a subsequent purchaser or incumbrancer, and shall be bound by all proceedings taken in said action after the filing of such notice to the same extent as if he were made a party to the action. The court in which said action was commenced may, at any time after the action shall be settled, discontinued, or abated, on an application of any person aggrieved, and on good cause shown, and on such notice as the court may determine, order said notice to be canceled by the clerk or register of deeds of any county in which said notice may have been filed or recorded. Such cancellation shall be made by an endorsement to that effect on the margin of the record, which shall refer to the order directing the same, for which the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five (25) cents.

All after * added 1887, p. 643. Lien of attachment takes effect from date of levy, and a deed and mortgage made of the attached land, pendente lite, are no cloud upon title of attachment creditor. Wright v. Smith, 11, 343 (7 N. W., 537). A judgment lien created pendente lite is extinguished by foreclosure in case stated. Harrington v. Latta, 23, 84 (36 N. W., 364). Cited and construed, Lincoln Rapid Transit Co. v. Rundle, 34, 559 (52 N. W., 563). Cited, Shuman v. Willets, 17, 482 (23 N. W., 358).

4624 (86). When any part of the real property, the subject-matter of an action, is situated in any other county or counties than the one in which the action is brought, a certified copy of the judgment in such action must be recorded in the clerk's office of such other county or counties before it shall operate therein as a notice, so as to charge third persons as provided in the preceding section. It shall operate as such notice without record in the county where it is rendered, but this section shall not apply to actions or proceedings under any statute now in force which does not require such record.

Secs. 4625 and 4626. "An act in relation to service of process in certain actions concerning real estate." 1877, p. 17. In force June 1.

4625. That it shall be lawful for any person, or corporation, owning or claiming any interest in or lien upon any real estate lying within this state, to make and file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such real estate is situated an appointment, in writing, of some person, who shall be a resident of the county in which said lands lie, upon whom process may be sued [served], in any suit, action, or proceeding, concerning or affecting such real estate, to which such owner or claimant shall be made a party. Such appointment shall be acknowledged in the manner provided by law for the acknowledgment of deeds. From and after the filing of such appointment as herein provided, service of any writ, summons, order, or notice, in any suit, action, or proceeding concerning or affecting such real estate shall be made upon the person so appointed and designated in such manner as may be provided by law for the service of process upon persons found in this state, and shall be held and taken to be a valid and effectual service upon such owner or claimant. A copy of such appointment, or of the record thereof, duly certified by the said clerk, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof, And no service made by publication shall be valid in respect to any such owner or claimant, who shall have filed an appointment under the provisions of this act; Provided, That such appointment may be at any time revoked by such owner or claimant, but such revocation shall be in writing, duly acknowledged, and filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk in which the appointment shall have been filed and recorded, but such revocation shall not affect any suit or procedings commenced before the same shall have been recorded; And provided further, that this act shall in nowise affect any action or proceeding which shall have been commenced before the passage hereof, in which service of process shall have been made in accordance with the law in force at the time of its commencement.

4626. That the county clerk of each county shall keep a book in which he shall record such appointments as shall be filed under the provisions of this act and any revocation thereof, and shall be entitled to demand and receive therefor a fee of seventy-five cents, and ten cents for each folio of one hundred words contained therein.

TITLE VI.—JOINDER IN ACTIONS.

4627 (87). The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same petition, whether they be such as have heretofore been denominated legal, or equitable, or both, when they are included in either of the following classes: First—The same transaction or transactions connected with the same subject of action. Second—Contracts, express or implied. Third—Injuries, with or without force, to person and property, or either. Fourth—Injuries to character. Fifth—Claims to recover the possession of personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof. Sixth—Claims to recover real property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof, and the rents and profits of the same. Seventh—Claims against a trustee by virtue of a contract, or by operation of law.

Amended 1867, p. 71. Legal and equitable causes of action may be included in one suit, but they must be actual, not prospective. Weinland v. Cochran, 9, 482 (4 N. W., 67). Wilcox v. Saunders, 4, 585. Action to recover possession of land may be joined with one to recover rents and profits. Harrall v. Gray, 12, 543 (11 N. W., 851). Correction of and recovery on bond in same action. Stewart v. Carter, 4, 566. Transactions connected with the same subject-matter may be united in one petition. Also such injuries may be united in the same action, whether with or without force, and may also be united, not only with each other, but with injuries to the person. Freeman v. Webb, 21, 170 (31 N. W., 656). One action may be maintained upon two separate official bonds, when they were both given by the same officer for the same purpose. Holeran v. School District, 10, 408 (6 N. W., 472). An account stated and a note given in settlement thereof, may be joined. Claire v. Claire, 10, 54 (4 N. W., 411). Demurrer lies only when joinder forbidden; this does not refer to the manner in which causes are joined. Hardy v. Miller, 11, 397 (9 N. W., 475). Defects not taken advantage of by demurrer or answer are waived. Claire v. Claire, 10, 56 (4 N. W., 411).

4628 (88). The causes of action so united must affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial.

TITLE VII.—PLEADINGS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER I.—PLEADINGS IN GENERAL.

4629 (89). The pleadings are the written statements by the parties of the facts constituting their respective claims and defenses.

Pleading should be made to conform to provisions of title 7; refusal of party to reform a pleading drawn in common law form, sufficient ground for striking it from the files. Hilton v. Bachman, 24, 491–2 (39 N. W., 419). In construing a pleading, the rule is that it must be taken most strongly against the pleader. Gibson v. Parlin, 13, 294 (13 N. W., 405). A fact necessarily inferable from the pleadings need not be proved. Leffel & Co. v. Schermerhorn, 13, 342 (14 N. W., 418). Finding of facts and judgment must conform to, and be supported by, the allegations of the pleadings on which they are based. Lipp v. Horbach, 12, 371 (11 N. W., 431). It is presumed that the pleader has stated his case as favorably to himself as the facts warranted. Humphries v. Spafford, 14, 489 (16 N. W., 911). Where pleadings are all lost and none substituted, it is error for the court to render judgment. Grimison v. Russell, 11, 469 (9 N. W., 647).

4630 (90). [Sufficiency, how determined.]—The rules of pleading heretofore existing in civil actions are abolished, and hereafter the forms of pleading in civil actions in courts of record, and the rules by which their sufficiency may be determined are those prescribed by this code.

Sufficiency should be tested by motion rather than demurrer. Mills v. Rice, 3, 86. Rathburn v. B. & M. R. R. Co., 16, 441 (20 N. W., 390).

4631 (91). [Pleadings allowed.]—The only pleadings allowed are: First—The petition by the plaintiff. Second—The answer or demurrer by the defendant. Third—The demurrer or reply by the plaintiff. Fourth—The demurrer to the reply by the defendant.

CHAPTER II.—THE PETITION.

4632 (92). [Contents.]—The petition must contain: First—The name of the court and county in which the action is brought, and the names of the parties, plaintiff and defendant. Second—A statement of the facts constituting the cause of action in ordinary and concise language, and without repetition. Third—A demand of the relief to which the party supposes himself entitled. If the recovery of money be demanded the amount thereof shall be stated; and if interest thereon be claimed the time from which interest is to be computed shall also be stated.

The issue of fact raised by the pleading is the only subject on which the jury have to pass, except in an action of replevin, when they shall inquire into the rights of property and right of possession. School District v. Shoemaker, 5, 37. Title of cause is part of petition. Sufficient in body of petition to say "plaintiff" and "defendant." Stubendorf v. Sonnenschein, 11, 238 (9 N. W., 91). Petition should state all the facts essential to the existence of a cause of action, and not simply conclusions or ultimate facts, which should be left to inference from primary facts properly alleged. Bell v. Sherer, 12, 411 (11 N. W., 861). Where parties are designated as defendants in the title, the addition of the word "partners" will not restrict the action to one against the firm alone. King v. Bell, 13, 411 (14 N. W. 141). The allegata and probata must agree. Imhoff v. House, 36, — (53 N. W., 1032). A note past due secured by mortgage is a sufficient fact to constitute a cause of action for foreclosure, averments of petition. Townsend v. Case Threshing Machine Co., 31, 841 (48 N. W., 899). Copy of instrument sued upon should be attached to petition. Dorrington v. Meyer, 8, 214. Petition must show interest of plaintiff. Hicklin v. Neb. City Nat. Bank, 8, 468. When a material allegation is omitted from the pleadings the presumption is that it does not exist. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. York County, 7, 493. Prayer may be resorted to where there is doubt, as whether pleader relies on a legal or equitable cause of action. Keens v. Gaslin, 24, 316–17 (38 N. W., 797). Where all relief prayed for cannot be granted the court should grant such relief as the facts will warrant, whether it be legal or equitable. Rhea v. Reynolds, 12, 128, 132 (10 N. W., 549). Motion to strike from files proper only where there is a defect in matters of form required by statute. Hershiser v. Delone, 24, 381 (38 N. W., 863). Defective petition not amendable after verdict. Objection to admission of evidence on the ground that petition does not state a cause of action may be taken at any time during the trial. Curtis & Co. v. Cutler, 7, 318. Petition on contract must aver performance of all conditions precedent or show a waiver. Livesey v. Omaha Hotel, 5, 65. Boehme v. Omaha Hotel, 5, 82. In petition for rescission of contract on account of fraud, particular circumstances must be set out. Arnold v. Baker, 6, 135. Petition which seeks to establish a trust should set out all the facts and circumstances from which a trust would result. Courvoisier v. Bouvier, 3, 61. In an action in the nature of a creditor's bill brought on a foreign judgment, petition should show that defendant had no property in the state subject to attachment or garnishment. Weaver v. Cressman, 21, 678 (33 N. W., 478). A petition which alleges that defendant is indebted to the plaintiff for a specific sum then due and payable, for goods, etc., sold and delivered, is good. Tessier v. Reed, 17, 105 (22 N. W., 225). An allegation in a petition that a bill was unjust, and was audited and allowed through fraudulent and undue means, too general. Clark v. Dayton, 6, 201. "Weisz & Mall Co., a partnership doing business in the state of Iowa," is not a sufficient compliance with the first clause. Weisz & Mall Co. v. Davey, 28, 566 (44 N. W., 470). In replevin, petition should state that plaintiff is owner or has special property therein, that he is entitled to the immediate possession of the same, and that the defendant wrongfully detains the same. Defective petition cured where averment is set up in the answer. Haggard v. Wallen, 6, 272. Averment of petition in replevin that owner has a special interest in the goods and entitled to the immediate possession thereof, mere proposition of law. Curtis & Co. v. Cutler, 7, 320. In an action for damages on attachment bond, petition should show that the order was wrongfully obtained. If it fails to do this it is fatally defective. Eaton v. Barscherer, 5, 471. In action for breach of covenants of warranty, necessary to allege eviction by a paramount title. Mills v. Rice, 3, 85. Mere general averment of fraud and misrepresentation insufficient. Tepoel v. National Bank, 24, 817 (40 N. W., 415). Petition, though indefinitely stating a conclusion, sufficient after verdict. Atkins v. Gladwish. 27, 847 (44 N. W., 37). Petition in action for conspiracy held sufficient. Booker v. Puyear, 27, 358 (43 N. W., 133). See Clarke v. The O. & S. W. R. R., 5, 331.

4633 (93). Where the petition contains more than one cause of action, each shall be separately stated and numbered.

Not void if not numbered. Schuyler v. Bollong, 28, 692 (45 N. W., 164). Where second and third counts of petition conflict with first, proper motion is to strike out inconsistent matter, or to require plaintiff to elect. Keens v. Gaslin, 24, 315 (38 N. W., 797). Petition not stating cause of action separately must be changed if defendant object. Schuyler Nat. Bank v. Bollong, 24, 823 (40 N. W., 411). Demurrer to pleading admits whatever is set up in such pleading. Nesbitt v. Campbell, 5, 431.

CHAPTER III.—DEMURRER.

4634 (94). The defendant may demur to the petition only when it appears on its face: Either—First—That the court has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant, or the subject of the action. Second—That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue. Third—That there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause. Fourth—That there is a defect of parties plaintiff or defendant. Fifth—That several causes of action are improperly joined. Sixth—That the petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. Nuckolls v. Tomlin, 9, 357 (2 N. W., 875). Where petition is demurred to on the ground only that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action no other ground will be considered. Turner v. Althaus, 6, 84. If ground stated in demurrer be not provided in the code, will be regarded as a general demurrer. McClary v. Sioux City & Pacific R. R. Co., 3, 52. A general demurrer raises questions of statute of limitations. Merriam v. Miller, 22, 226 (34 N. W., 625). Aultman v. Cole, 16, 4 (19 N. W., 783). Statute of limitations cannot be interposed by a general demurrer unless petition shows ouster by reason of breach of covenants of warranty. Mills v. Rice, 3, 76. That there are too many plaintiffs or defendants joined in a petition is not ground for demurrer under the code. Boldt v. Budwig, 19, 739 (28 N. W., 280). Objection that plaintiffs have not legal capacity to sue should be made on that ground, and cannot be taken by general demurrer. Court will not look beyond pleading demurred to; so held on demurrer to an amended petition. Sanborn & Follett v. Hale, 12, 320 (11 N. W., 302). A misjoinder of parties plaintiff is not a cause for demurrer. County of Lancaster v. Rush, 35, 123 (52 N. W., 837). A demurrer for defect of parties defendant will lie only where it appears on the face of the petition that necessary parties defendant are wanting. A demurrer for misjoinder of causes of action will lie only where the joinder itself is forbidden, such as uniting an action in tort with one upon contract. Hardy v. Miller, 11, 397 (9 N. W., 475). Demurrer lies to statement of facts and not to prayer for relief. When several defendants join in a demurrer to a petition which is good as to one, demurrer will be overruled. Missouri Valley Land Co. v. Bushnell, 11, 194 (8 N. W., 389). If pleading is correct in substance, not in form, proper remedy by motion. Party waives his right to error if he answers after demurrer is overruled. Farrar & Wheeler v. Triplett, 7, 240. If an answer to a petition will put the plaintiff upon the proof of any one of the material allegations of his petition, it is good against a general demurrer. Ruth v. Ruth, 12, 596 (12 N. W., 108). Demurrer to petition because no copy of contract is attached will not be sustained. Lash v. Christie, 4, 263. Good on ground that petition does not show personal property within jurisdiction of treasurer of county. Iler v. Colson, 8, 334. Petition alleging that journeymen tailors had formed a conspiracy, had returned unfinished garments, that said garments were worthless, that plaintiff was unable to get other tailors to finish the work, and that he was damaged in the amount of $371, held that petition stated a cause of action. Mapstruck v. Ramge, 9, 393 (2 N. W., 739). Petition for correction of official bond and to obtain a money judgment, not demurrable for misjoinder of cause of action. Stewart v. Carter. 4, 566. Joint demurrer will be overruled if petition contains a cause of action against one of those joining it. Dunn v. Gibson, 9, 515 (4 N. W., 244.) Demurrer will not lie when it is necessary to look beyond the pleadings against which it is directed. Mill v. Jones, 5, 502. Demurrer to answer to petition foreclosing mortgage which pleads extension of time of payment, held that demurrer admitted the extension and hence no cause of action. Eby v. Ryan, 22, 474 (35 N. W., 225). Party demurring admits facts to which he demurs. The People, ex rel., v. Weston, Auditor, 3, 322. Remedy not appeal, but by petition in on error. Stewart v. Carter, 4, 567. One who stands on demurrer not allowed to answer to merits of case afterwards. Estabrook v. Hughes, 8, 502. Demurrer overruled and defendant answers, waives his exception to ruling. Mills v. Miller, 2, 308. Demurrer waived by going to trial on merits. Pettinger v. Garrison, 3, 223. Objections to overruling of demurrer waived by pleading over. Buck v. Reed, 27, 70 (42 N. W., 894). See Scott v. Twiss, 4, 138; Kelley v. Peterson, 9, 81 (2 N. W., 346); Holmes v. State, 17, 74 (22 N. W., 232).

Should state grounds distinctly, but where party proceeds to hearing of such demurrer without objection it will be treated as a general demurrer. Colby v. Lyman, 4, 430.

4636 (96). When any of the defects enumerated in section ninety-four do not appear upon the face of the petition, the objection may be taken by answer; and if no objection be taken either by demurrer or answer, the defendant shall be deemed to have waived the same, except only the objection to the jurisdiction of the court, and that the petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Defect of misjoinder of causes of action must be taken advantage of by demurrer or answer, or it is waived. Claire v. Claire, 10, 56 (4 N. W., 411). Failure to allege exclusive adverse possession will be considered waived after judgment. Tourtelotte v. Pearce, 27, 62 (42 N. W., 915). Where a cross-petition setting up a counter-claim fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, the plaintiff waives nothing by failing to object by answer or demurrer, but may take advantage of the defect at any stage of the proceedings. Brugman v. Burr, 30, 420 (46 N. W., 644).

4637 (97). When a demurrer is sustained on the ground of misjoinder of several causes of action, the court, on motion of the plaintiff, shall allow him, with or without costs in its discretion, to file several petitions, each including such of said causes of action as might have been joined; and an action shall be docketed for each of said petitions, and the same shall be proceeded in without further service.

Where cause of action in first count of petition is equitable, and that in second is legal, it is not a misjoinder. Keens v. Gaslin, 24, 316 (38 N. W., 797). Only those wrongfully sued can take advantage of a misjoinder. Roose v. Perkins, 9, 310 (2 N. W., 715). Where there is a misjoinder of causes of action, the plaintiff should be required to elect upon which cause of action he will go to trial, or to file a separate petition for each cause. Alexander v. Thacker, 30, 614 (46 N. W., 825).

4638 (98). The defendant may demur to one or more of the several causes of action stated in the petition, and answer as to the residue.

CHAPTER IV.—ANSWER.

4639 (99). The answer shall contain: First—A general or specific denial of each material allegation of the petition controverted by the defendant. Second—A statement of any new matter constituting a defense, counter-claim, or set-off, in ordinary and concise language, and without repetition.

Where a material fact is omitted it is presumed to not exist. B. & M. R. R. v. Kearney County, 17, 511 (23 N. W., 559–562). Answer waives error in overruling demurrer. Singer Mfg. Co. v. McAllister Bros., 22, 360 (35 N. W., 181). That petition does not state a cause of action is not waived by answer. B. & M. R. R. v. Kearney County, 17, 511 (23 N. W., 559–562). Denial of each allegation of petition good. Donovan v. Fowler, 17, 247 (22 N. W., 424). That defendant is not indebted the full amount claimed is not good as a general denial. Gray v. Elbling, 35, 279 (53 N. W., 68). A general denial denies an allegation of the citizenship of the parties where that is a material allegation. Roberts v. Lewis, 144 U. S., 653 (12 Sup. Ct. Rep., 782). Under a general denial a material alteration in a note sued on may be shown. Walton Plow Co. v. Campbell, 35, 175 (52 N. W., 883). Every defense must be set up in an answer. Peet v. O'Brien, 5, 362. Taking leave to answer waives objection to petition. Mulhollin v. Scoggin, 8, 204. Former dismissal must be plead. Brandt v. Albers, 6, 505. In replevin a general denial puts in issue every allegation of the petition. Richardson v. Steele, 9, 486 (4 N. W., 83). A motion to make an answer more definite and certain in an action in replevin will not be entertained. General denial sufficient. Aultman, Miller & Co. v. Stickler, 21, 76 (31 N. W., 241). A plea of general denial will entitle defendant to such damages as he may prove. Creighton v. Newton, 5, 102. School Dist. v. Shoemaker, 5, 36. An answer in which defendant "says, that he never signed the note, etc., nor is his signature thereto attached genuine, but if he did sign it, or if his signature thereto is genuine, then it was procured through the fraud, circumvention," etc., is a substantial admission of the signing of the note. Dinsmore v. Stimbert, 12, 434 (11 N. W., 872). Where answer filed in terms demands affirmative relief, parties to the suit need not be notified. Carlow v. Aultman, 28, 675 (44 N. W., 873). Where bonds sued upon are claimed to be illegal the facts constituting such illegality must be stated in the answer. Miller v. Hurford, 13, 13 (12 N. W., 832). Former recovery must be plead. Allen v. Saunders, 6, 440. Estoppel must be plead. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Harris, 8, 142. New matter must be pleaded. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Lancaster County, 7, 34. Answer that note was given for an illegal consideration not good defense in hands of innocent purchaser. Smith v. Columbus State Bank, 9, 35 (1 N. W., 893). Existence of corporation is not put in issue by a general denial. Dietrichs v. L. & N. W. R. R., 13, 46 (13 N. W., 13). General denial does not put in issue the corporate existence of a corporation or its power to sue. National Life Ins. Co. v. Robinson, 8, 455. Overruling of motion to make answer more specific, not reversible error. McDuffie v. Bentley, 27, 384–5 (43 N. W., 123). Davis v. Sloman, 27, 881 (44 N. W., 41). See Mordhorst v. Neb. Telephone Co., 28, 610 (44 N. W., 469).

4640 (100). The defendant may set forth in his answer as many grounds of defense, counter-claim, and set-off as he may have. Each must be separately stated and numbered and they must refer in an intelligible manner to the cause of action which they are intended to answer.

Answer must contain every ground of defense, else not available. Peet v. O'Brien, 5, 362. Defendant is permitted to plead as many defenses as he may have if they are consistent with each other. McKinster v. Hitchcock, 19, 105 (26 N. W., 705). Cited, Raymond Bros. v. Green & Co., 12, 218 (10 N. W., 709).

4641 (101). The counter-claim mentioned in the last section must be one existing in favor of a defendant, and against a plaintiff, between whom a several judgment might be had in the action, and arising out of the contract or transaction set forth in the petition as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, or connected with the subject of the action.

A counter-claim is an independent cause of action in which the defendant becomes an actor in respect to his claim, and it is required to be stated with the same distinctness and certainty as in a petition. Dale v. Hunneman, 12, 225 (10 N. W., 711), A claim arising subsequent to the commencement of the suit is not a proper counter-claim. Tessier v. Englehart, 18, 172 (24 N. W., 734). Answer setting up counter-claim held to constitute a plea of confession and avoidance. Gillen v. Riley, 27, 163 (42 N. W., 1054). Mortgagor entitled to counter-claim for waste by mortgagee in possession. Smith v. Fife, 2, 13. In a suit on notes given for rent of a store, damage to the stock therein by reason of repairs to the store is not a proper counter-claim. Brugman v. Burr, 30, 406 (46 N. W., 644). Money paid for liquors sold contrary to law may be recovered back without demand, but is a set-off rather than a counter-claim. Delahaye v. Heitkemper, 16, 480 (20 N. W., 385). Fouts v. Mann, 15, 175 (18 N. W., 64).

4642 (102). If the defendant omit to set up the counter-claim or set-off, he cannot recover costs against the plaintiff in any subsequent action thereon; but this section shall not apply to causes of action which are stricken out of or withdrawn from the answer, as provided in sections one hundred and three and one hundred and twenty-six.

4643 (103). When it appears that a new party is necessary to a final decision upon the counter-claim, the court may either permit the new party to be made, by a summons, to reply to the counter-claim, or may direct the counter-claim to be stricken out of the answer, and made the subject of a separate action.

4644 (104). A set-off can only be pleaded in an action founded on contract, and must be a cause of action arising upon contract, or ascertained by the decision of the court.

A set-off may be pleaded in all actions founded upon contract whether the damages are liquidated or not. Raymond Bros. v. Green & Co., 12, 220 (10 N. W., 709). Does not apply to mutual judgments, nor for unliquidated damages. Boyer v. Clark, 3, 167–8. Only a bona fide claim belonging to defendant when suit commenced is proper as a set-off. Simpson v. Jennings, 15, 674 (19 N. W., 473). Delinquent tax not the subject of set-off. Neb. City v. Gas Co., 9, 347 (2 N. W., 870).

4645 (105). When it appears that a new party is necessary to a final decision upon the set-off, the court shall permit the new party to be made, if it also appear that owing to the insolvency or non-residence of the plaintiff, or other cause, the defendant will be in danger of losing his claim unless permitted to use it as a set-off.

4646 (106). When cross-demands have existed between persons under such circumstances that if one had brought an action against the other a counter-claim or set-off could have been set up, neither can be deprived of the benefit thereof by the assignment or death of the other, but the two demands must be deemed compensated, so far as they equal each other.

See Mills v. Saunders, 4, 194.

4647 (107). The guardian of an infant or person of an unsound mind, or attorney for a person in prison, shall deny in the answer all material allegations of the petition prejudicial to such defendant.

CHAPTER V.—REPLY.

Sec. 108 repealed. G. S., p. 713.

4648 (109). The plaintiff may demur to one or more of the defenses set up in the answer, stating in his demurrer the grounds thereof, and where the answer contains new matter the plaintiff may reply to such new matter denying generally or specifically each allegation controverted by him; and he may allege, in ordinary and concise language, and without repetition, any new matter not inconsistent with the petition, constituting a defense to such new matter in the answer.

Amended 1873; G. S., p. 541. Reply must be made to all the material allegations in the answer or they will be taken as true. Dillon v. Russell & Holmes, 5, 488. Williams v. Evans, 6, 219. Payne v. Briggs, 8, 78. A reply denying averments of answer inconsistent with petition is bad. Herdman v. Marshall, 17, 252 (22 N. W., 690). Judgment on demurrer should be against party whose pleading was first defective in substance. Hower v. Aultman, 27, 251 (42 N. W., 1039.) A counter-claim or set-off is for the purposes of demurrer regarded as a petition. Brugman v. Burr, 30, 415(46 N. W., 644). No reply to answer or new matter necessary unless it constitutes a counter-claim or set-off. McCann v. McLennan, 2, 287. Reply may be filed after verdict, where both parties have proceeded on the theory that answer is denied. Whitney v. Preston, 29, 249 (45 N. W., 619).

CHAPTER VI.—GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING.

4649 (110). The answer or demurrer of the defendant shall be filed on or before the third Monday, and the reply or demurrer of the plaintiff on or before the fifth Monday, after the return day of the summons or service by publication.

All parties are bound to take notice of pleadings filed in time, but are only bound by actual knowledge or notice of those filed out of time. Cockle v. Clark, 23, 704 (37 N. W., 628). Arnold v. Badger Lumber Co., — Neb., — (55 N. W., 269).

4650 (111). The court, or the judge thereof in vacation, for good cause shown, may extend the time for filing an answer or reply upon such terms as may be just.

4651 (112). Every pleading in a court of record must be subscribed by the party or his attorney.

4652 (113). Every pleading of fact must be verified by the affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney. A pleading verified as herein required, shall not be used against a party in any criminal prosecution or action or proceeding for a penalty or forfeiture, as proof of a fact admitted or alleged in such pleading; and such verification shall not make other or greater proof necessary on the side of the adverse party.

Want of verification not jurisdictional. Dorrington v. Meyer, 8, 213. Failure of may be cured by amendment. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 135. Want of verification no ground for dismissing action. Fritz v. Barnes, 6, 435. Petition in error need not be verified. Newton v. Woodward, 9, 504 (4 N. W., 237). Objections to verification waived if not made before objections to matter in petition. Hershiser v. Delone, 24, 382 (38 N. W., 863). Affidavit signed "Frank Delone, per P. B. Murphy, Agt.," sufficient. Hershiser v. Delone, 24, 382 (38 N. W., 863).

4653 (114). The verification mentioned in the last section shall not be required to the answer of a guardian defending for an infant or person of unsound mind, or a person imprisoned; nor in any case where the admission of the truth of a fact stated in the pleading might subject the party to a criminal or penal prosecution.

4654 (115). If there be several persons united in interest and pleading together, the affidavit may be made by any one of such parties.

4655 (116). The affidavit shall be sufficient if it state that the affiant believes the facts stated in the pleading to be true.

4656 (117). In all cases where the party pleading is a non-resident of the county in which the action is brought, or if he shall be absent from the county where the pleading is filed, an affidavit made before filing the pleading, stating the substance of the facts afterwards inserted in the pleading, shall be a sufficient verification. Such affidavit shall be filed with the pleading intended to be verified thereby.

4657 (118). The affidavit verifying pleadings may be made before any notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths, and must be signed by the party making the same; and the officer before whom the same was taken shall certify that it was sworn to or affirmed before him and signed in his presence.

The certificate of such officer, signed officially by him, shall be evidence that the affidavit was duly made, that the name of the officer was written by himself, and that he was such officer, and nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit an attorney at law, who is a notary public, from swearing a client to any pleading or other paper or affidavit in any proceeding in any of the courts of this state.

4658 (119). The verification of the pleading does not apply to the amount claimed, except in actions founded on contracts, express or implied, for the payment of money only.

Fifth clause added 1875, p. 34. Attorney may verify. Cropsey v. Wiggenhorn, 3, 116.

4660 (121). In the construction of any pleading, for the purpose of determining its effects, its allegations shall be liberally construed, with a view to substantial justice between the parties.

Damages which necessarily result from the injury complained of need not be set out more fully. Kingsley v. Butterfield, 35, 228 (52 N. W., 1101). Description of property in action of replevin. Bilby v. Townsend, 29, 221 (45 N. W., 619). Cited, Burr v. Boyer, 2, 267; Downing v. Glenn, 26, 324 (41 N. W., 1119); Buck v. Reed, 27, 70 (42 N. W., 894).

Secs. 122 and 123 repealed. G. S., 713.

4661 (124). If the action, counter-claim, or set-off be founded on an account, or on a note, bill, or other written instrument, as evidence of indebtedness, a copy thereof must be attached to and filed with the pleading, except in actions founded upon notes issued to circulate as money. If not so attached and filed, the reason thereof must be shown in the pleading.

Copies should be attached. Dorrington v. Meyer, 8, 214. Failure to attach a copy of the instrument is not ground of demurrer, but of motion. Ryan v. State Bank, 10, 527 (7 N. W., 276). Omission to attach copy of instrument sued upon not ground to dissolve attachment. Can be taken advantage of only by motion. Olmstead v. Rivers, 9, 235 (2 N. W., 366). And comes too late on answer. Cheney v. Straube, 35, 523 (53 N. W., 479). Where the action is upon a written contract for the payment of money, the defendant has a right to insist that a copy of the instrument shall be attached to the petition before he answers the same. Taylor v. Trumbull, 32, 509 (49 N. W., 375).

4662 (125). If redundant, scandalous, or irrelevant matter be inserted in any pleading, it may be stricken out on motion of the party prejudiced thereby. And when the allegations of a pleading are so indefinite and uncertain that the precise nature of the charge or defense is not apparent, the court may require the pleading to be made definite and certain by amendment.

Motion to make petition definite and certain comes too late after answer is filed. Stevenson v. Anderson, 12, 85 (10 N. W., 552). Motion to make more definite will not be entertained after a demurrer has been overruled. Fritz v. Grosmaklaus, 20, 416 (30 N. W., 411). Matter not stricken out as irrelevant. Scofield v. The State National Bank, 9, 321 (2 N. W., 888). It is not necessary that such a motion be to strike out all irrelevant matter. Brugman v. Burr, 30, 417 (46 N. W., 644). Cited, Ryan v. State Bank, 10, 528 (7 N. W., 276); Schuyler Natl. Bank v. Bollong, 28, 687, (45 N. W., 164).

4663 (126). The court, at any time before the final submission of the cause, on motion of the defendant, may allow a counter-claim or set-off, set up in the answer, to be withdrawn, and the same may become the subject of another action. On motion of either party, to be made at the time such counter-claim or set-off is withdrawn, an action on the same shall be docketed and proceeded in as in like cases after process served; and the court shall direct the time and manner of pleading therein. If an action be not so docketed, it may afterwards be commenced in the ordinary way.

4664 (127). In pleading a judgment, or other determination of a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it shall be sufficient to state that such judgment or determination was duly given or made. If such allegation be controverted, the party pleading must establish, on the trial, the facts concerning jurisdiction.

Court will take judicial notice that a circuit court is a court of general jurisdiction. Specklemeyer v. Dailey, 23, 103 (36 N. W., 356). Nicholas v. Farwell, 24, 188 (38 N. W., 820). But not so of a superior court. Tessier v. Englehart, 18, 167 (24 N. W., 734).

4665 (128). In pleading the performance of conditions precedent in a contract, it shall be sufficient to state that the party duly performed all the conditions on his part; and if such allegation be controverted, the party pleading must establish on the trial the facts showing such performance.

Cited, German American Insurance Co. v. Etherton, 25, 509 (41 N. W., 406).

4666 (129). In an action, counter-claim, or set-off, founded upon an account, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other instrument, for the unconditional payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to give a copy of the account or instrument, with all credits and indorsements thereon, and to state that there is due to him on such account or instrument, from the adverse party, a specified sum, which he claims with interest. When others than the makers of a promissory note, or the acceptors of a bill of exchange, are parties in the action, it shall be necessary to state also the kind of liability of the several parties, and the facts, as they may be, which fix their liability.

This provision is not mandatory; any proper statement of cause of action is good. Collingwood v. The Merchants Bank, 15, 120 (17 N. W., 359). The last clause would seem to require a copy of the endorsement to be in the petition. Nicholas v. Barnes, 11, 456 (9 N. W., 652). It must be alleged that sum claimed is due on note in controversy. Gage v. Roberts, 12, 279 (11 N. W., 306). Petition must allege that there is something due on the instrument sued on. Bowen v. School District, 10, 269 (4 NW.., 981). Copy of note may be embodied in petition, and need not be attached. Barnes v. Van Keuren 31, 165 (47 N. W., 848). When negotiable instrument is lost after it becomes due, a recovery may be had thereon in a court of law. Mowery v. Mast & Co., 14, 512 (16 N. W., 839). Petition held sufficient. Studendorf v. Sonnenschein, 11, 237 (9 N. W., 91).

4667 (130). In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to such statute by its title, and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

4668 (131). In an action for a libel or slander it shall be sufficient to state, generally, that the defamatory matter was published or spoken of the plaintiff, and if the allegation be denied, the plaintiff must prove on the trial the facts, showing that the defamatory matter was published or spoken of him.

Words held libelous and actionable per se. Finch v. Vifquain, 11, 280 (9 N. W., 43).

4669 (132). In the actions mentioned in the last section the defendant may allege the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and may prove the same, and any mitigating circumstances to reduce the amount of damages, or he may prove either.

Where the issue is that of malice plaintiff has the opening and closing. Vifquain v. Finch, 15, 505 (19 N. W., 706).

4670 (133). In an action for the recovery of real property, it shall be described with sufficient certainty to enable an officer holding an execution to identify it.

4671 (134). Every material allegation of the petition not controverted by the answer, and every material allegation of new matter in the answer not controverted by the reply, shall, for the purposes of the action, be taken as true; but the allegation of new matter in the reply shall be deemed to be controverted by the adverse party as upon a direct denial or avoidance. Allegations of value or of amount of damage shall not be considered as true by failure to controvert them.

Amended 1873; G. S., 545. A denial must be direct and unambiguous. Harden v. A. & N. R. R., 4, 523. The burden of proving new matter, such as payment set up in the reply, is on the plaintiff. Kelsey v. McLaughlin, 10, 7 (4 N. W., 361). New matter set up by defendant in replevin taken as true. Westover v. Vandoran, 29, 656 (46 N. W., 47). Burden of proving new matter alleged in the answer is on defendant. Ewarth v. Nier, 11, 442 (9 N. W., 569). Where a cause is submitted on the pleadings, only such matters of defense in the answer as are admitted, or not denied in the reply, are to be considered as established. Blanchard v. Jamison, 14, 246 (15 N. W., 212). Hardy v. Miller, 11, 397 (9 N. W., 475). Allegations of value are not to be taken as true, because not denied in subsequent pleadings, but must be proved by party making them. Campbell v. Brosius, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 215). Where the capacity of the parties to sue is not raised by the pleadings it is waived. Deputron v. Young, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 543.

4672 (135). A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim or defense, which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient.

Failure to plead a material fact raises a presumption that it does not exist. Cheney v. Dunlap, 27, 404 (43 N. W., 178).

4673 (136). Neither presumptions of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in the pleading.

4674 (137). If an original pleading be lost, or withheld by any person, the court may allow a copy thereof to be substituted.

CHAPTER VII.—MISTAKES IN PLEADING, AND AMENDMENTS.

4675 (138). No variance between the allegation in a pleading and the proof, is to be deemed material, unless it have actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice, in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. Whenever it is alleged that a party has been so misled, that fact must be proved to the satisfaction of the court, and it must also be shown in what respect he has been misled; and thereupon the court may order the pleading to be amended upon such terms as may be just.

Description in insurance policy locating property in N. W., instead of S. E. quarter, as proof shows it to be, not material. State Ins. Co. v. Schreck, 27, 540–1 (43 N. W., 340). Variances in copy of bond, held, not fatal. Koppelkom v. Huffman, 12, 99 (10 N. W., 577).

4676 (139). Whenever the variance is not material, as provided in the last section, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, and may order an immediate amendment without costs.

Pleadings may be amended to conform to facts proven. Keim & Co. v. Avery, 7, 58.

4677 (140). When, however, the allegation of the claim or defense to which the proof is directed is unproved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its general scope and meaning, it is not to be deemed a case of variance within the last two sections, but a failure of proof.

4678 (141). The plaintiff may amend his petition without leave, at any time before the answer is filed, without prejudice to the proceeding; but notice of such amendment shall be served upon the defendant, or his attorney, and the defendant shall have the same time to answer or demur thereto as to the original petition.

4679 (142). At any time within ten days after a demurrer is filed, the adverse party may amend, of course, on payment of costs since filing the defective pleading. Notice of filing an amended pleading shall be forthwith served upon the other party, who shall have the same time thereafter to answer or reply thereto, as to an original pleading.

4680 (143). Upon a demurrer being overruled, the party who demurred may answer or reply, if the court be satisfied that he has a meritorious claim or defense, and did not demur for delay.

4681 (144). The court may, either before or after judgment, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, amend any pleading, process or proceeding, by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect, or by inserting other allegations material to the case, or, when the amendment does not change substantially the claim or defense, by conforming the pleading or proceeding to the facts proved. And whenever any proceeding taken by a party fails to conform in any respect to the provisions of this code, the court may permit the same to be made conformable thereto, by amendment.

Original section allowed amendment only "before judgment;" amended 1875, p. 35. Has reference solely to amendment of pleadings. Ashton v. Jones, 14, 429 (16 N. W., 434). This section confers upon the court an almost unlimited power of amendment "in furtherance of justice." Deck v. Smith, 12, 393 (10 N. W., 705). Where the ends of justice seem to demand it, leave will be given in the supreme court to amend a petition so as to fully state the cause of action. Humphries v. Spafford, 14, 490 (16 N. W., 911). Amendment may be made after trial. Catron v. Shepherd, 8, 318. Error to refuse amendment in furtherance of justice. Savings Bank v. Shaffer, 9, 5 (1 N. W., 980). Permitting amendments to be filed rests in discretion of court, and may be conditioned on taxation of costs. Oberfelder v. Kavanaugh, 29, 432 (45 N. W., 471). A petition in ejectment may be amended to one in equity; so long as the identity of the cause of action is preserved, the form of the action is not material. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 19, 33 (26 N. W., 614). Supersedeas bond is a proceeding and can be amended. State v. Thiele 19, 220 (27 N. W., 109). Appeal bond may be amended. O'Dea v. Washington Co., 3, 122. Stay bond is amendable. State v. Russell, 17, 201 (22 N. W., 455). Defective verification may be amended. Johnson v. Jones, 2, 136. Indiscretion of court. Mills v. Miller, 3, 95. Affidavit in replevin may be amended. Crans v. Cunningham, 13, 205 (13 N. W., 176). Officer may amend his return to conform to facts though ten years have elapsed. O'Brien v. Gaslin, 20, 350 (30 N. W., 274). Petition may be amended which in describing land makes whole amount five acres instead of two hundred and forty as intended. Frey v. Owen, 27, 872 (44 N. W., 42). In suit against partnership it is learned during the trial that transaction was with an individual of the firm, amendment allowed. Reed v. Beardsley, 6, 495. A pleading can be used as evidence, when an amended pleading is filed if it is at variance with the original. Bunz v. Cornelius, 19, 107 (26 N. W., 621). See Brandt v. Albers, 6, 596; Brown v. Rogers, 20, 548 (31 N. W., 75); O. & R. V. R. R. Co. v. Brown, 29, 498 (46 N. W., 39).

4682 (145). The court in every stage of an action must disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings which does not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party; and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect.

Description in replevin affidavit as "seven head of horses," etc., and in amended petition as "three mares," "three horses," and "one colt," no variance. Nollkamper v. Wyatt, 27, 569 (43 N. W., 357). Cited, Ensign v. Rogencamp, 13, 32 (12 N. W., 811). Savage v. Aiken, 21, 610 (33 N. W., 241).

4683 (146). If the demurrer be sustained, the adverse party may amend, if the defect can be remedied by way of amendment, with or without costs, as the court in its discretion shall direct.

4684 (147). When either party shall amend any pleading or proceeding, and the court shall be satisfied, by affidavit, or otherwise, that the adverse party could not be ready for trial in consequence thereof, a continuance may be granted to some day in term, or to another term of the court.

Counter-affidavit not proper. Affidavit that prisoner was informed, etc., not good. Williams v. The State, 6, 338.

4685 (148). When the plaintiff shall be ignorant of the name of a defendant, such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name and description, and when his true name is discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly. The plaintiff in such case must state, in the verification of his petition, that he could not discover the true name, and the summons must contain the words "real name unknown," and a copy thereof must be served personally upon the defendant.

4686 (149). Either party may be allowed, on notice, and on such terms as to costs as the court may prescribe, to file a supplemental petition, answer, or reply, alleging facts material to the case, occurring after the former petition, answer, or reply.

Cited, Killinger v. Hartman, 21, 313 (31 N. W., 918); Savage v. Aiken, 21, 610 (33 N. W., 241); Rogers v. Empkie Hardware Co., 24, 655 (39 N. W., 844).

4687 (150). Whenever two or more actions are pending in the same court which might have been joined, the defendant may, on motion and notice to the adverse party, require him to show cause why the same shall not be consolidated, and if no such cause be shown, the said several actions shall be consolidated.

Not error if plaintiff fails to consolidate his causes of action. Beck v. Devereaux, 9, 112 (2 N. W., 365).

4688 (151). The order for consolidation may be made by the court or by a judge thereof in vacation.

TITLE VIII.—Provisional Remedies.

CHAPTER I.—ARREST AND BAIL.

CHAPTER II.—REPLEVIN OF PROPERTY.

4689 (181). The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property, may, at the commencement of the suit, or any time before answer, claim the immediate delivery of such property as provided in this chapter.

Gist of action is the unlawful detention. Haggard v. Wallen, 6, 272. Question is, right of property at commencement of action. Fisher v. Burchall, 27, 247 (42 N. W., 1034). Replevin will lie to recover possession of buildings erected on a lot by party claiming title thereto, who, by judicial determination, has been evicted therefrom, if not affixed to the soil, though another did afterwards affix them to the soil. Mills v. Redick, 1, 438. Replevin will not lie to oust a tenant from the occupancy of a building. McCormick v. Riewe, 14, 509 (16 N. W., 832). Demand not necessary. Pyle v. Warren, 2, 253. Where no bill of particulars was filed in justice's court, no question of departure can be raised in district court on appeal. School Dist. No. 36 v. McIntie, 14, 48 (14 N. W., 656). Barlass v. Braash, 27, 222-3 (42 N. W., 1028). Meharry v. Halligan, 29, 565 (45 N. W., 928).

4690 (182). An order for the delivery of personal property to the plaintiff shall be made by the clerk of the court in which the action is brought, when there shall be filed in his office an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney showing: First—A description of the property claimed. Second—That the plaintiff is the owner of the property, or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he is entitled to the immediate possession of the same. Third—That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant. Fourth—That it was not taken in execution on any order or judgment against said plaintiff; or for the payment of any fine, tax, or amercement assessed against him, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this chapter, or any other mesne or final process issued against him; Provided*, That such affidavit may omit the first and last clause of this subdivision, and in lieu thereof show that the property was taken in execution on a judgment or order, other than an order of delivery in replevin, and that the same is exempt from such execution or attachment under the laws of this state; And provided further, That the provisions of this act shall extend to and apply as well to proceedings in replevin had before justices of the peace.

Amended and all after * added 1877, p. 9. Affidavit is a prerequisite in all cases. Bardwell v. Stubbert, 17, 488 (23 N. W., 344). Affidavit in replevin may be amended. Crans v. Cunningham, 13, 205 (13 N. W., 176). And see H. & G. I. R. R. v. Ingalls, 13, 279 (13 N.W., 403). Even after judgment. Wilson v. Macklin, 7, 53. Petition verified on mere belief will not take the place of affidavit; but court may permit filing of amended affidavit relating back to commencement of action. Lewis v. Connolly, 29, 224 (45 N. W., 622). Description in affidavit as "seven head of horses," etc., and in amended petition as "three mares," "three horses," and "one colt," no variance. Nollkamper v. Wyatt, 27, 569–70 (43 N. W., 357). Plaintiff must have such interest as shall entitle him to the immediate possession of the property. Jimmerson v. Green, 7, 27. As to special ownership. Blue Valley Bk. v. Bane, 20, 298 (30 N. W., 64). Not necessary that petition should contain all averments of section. Sufficient if petitioner states that he is the owner of and entitled to the immediate possession and that said goods are unlawfully detained. Daniels v. Cole, 21, 157 (31 N. W., 491). Replevin of property held under an execution merely suspends the levy until final determination of the replevin action. Bowman v. First National Bank of Nelson, 36, — (54 N. W., 124). Under the priviso in this section, the plaintiff cannot state in his affidavit "the property was not taken on execution," and without amendment prove that it was taken on execution, but exempt. Eikenbary v. Clifford, 34, 610 (52 N. W., 377). Answer that defendant does not unlawfully detain the said goods and chattels of the said plaintiff puts in issue right of property and right of possession. Moore v. Kepner, 7, 293.

4691 (183). The order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiff shall be addressed and delivered to the sheriff. It shall state the names of the parties, the court in which the action is brought, and command the sheriff to take the property, describing it, and deliver it to the plaintiff, and to make return of the order on a day to be named therein.

4692 (184). The return day for the order of delivery, when issued at the commencement of the suit, shall be the same as that of the summons; when issued afterwards, it shall be twenty days after it issued.

When writ is returnable on Sunday or holiday, is not void but returnable the following day. Ostertag v. Galbraith, 23, 735 (37 N. W., 637).

4693 (185) The sheriff shall execute the order by taking the property therein mentioned. He shall also deliver a copy of the order to the person charged with the unlawful detention of the property, or leave such copy at his usual place of residence.

Failure to deliver copy of order to defendant cannot be taken advantage of after judgment. Baker v. Daily, 6, 472. Writ of replevin cannot be served on Sunday. Bryant v. State, 16, 653 (21 N. W., 406). By the service of the order the court acquires an exclusive jurisdiction for all purposes. Domestic & Foreign Miss'y Soc. v. Hinman, 13 Fed. Rep., 161.

4694 (186). The sheriff, or other officer, shall not deliver to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, the property so taken, until there has been executed, by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, a written undertaking to the defendant in at least double the value of the property taken, to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him, and return the property to the defendant, in case judgment for a return of such property is rendered against him. The undertaking shall be returned with the order.

* to * inserted 1873; G. S., p. 553. Surety bound with principal. Moore v. Kepner, 7, 294. One who has given bond and received property cannot refuse to prosecute action and enjoin others from doing so. Kinkaid v. Hiatt, 24, 578 (39 N. W., 600). Bond in another action properly admitted in evidence. Barlass v. Braash, 27, 222 (42 N. W., 1028). When mortgagee replevies goods from sheriff, who holds them under an order of attachment against the mortgagor, the sheriff's measure of damages is the amount called for by his writ, where value of property equals or exceeds that sum. Kersenbrock v. Martin, 12, 374 (11 N. W., 462). Judgment for mortgagee in replevin by mortgagor not a bar to action by latter for accounting. Lathrop v. Cheney, 29, 455 (45 N. W., 617). The facts of the mortgagee's insecurity must be apparent to justify sale before due. A junior mortgagee has the right to redeem from the senior mortgage. Hull v. Godfrey, 31, 204 (47 N. W., 850). Measure of damages for wrongful detention of stock of goods by sheriff not merely net income of store at time; all other elements may be considered. Schars v. Barnd, 27, 94 (42 N. W., 906). Claim for damages may be increased by amendment on appeal to district court in proper case. Deck v. Smith, 12, 392 (10 N. W., 705). Not necessary that court shall find the value of property when possession sued for. Earle v. Burch, 21, 711 (33 N. W., 254). Connelly v. Edgerton, 22, 89 (34 N. W., 76). Verdict should respond to the issue made by the pleadings. Search v. Miller, 9, 30 (1 N. W., 975). See Chamberlain v. Brown, 25, 438 (41 N. W., 284).

Appraisal not admissible as evidence. Barlass v. Braash, 27, 223 (42 N. W., 1028).

4696 (188). If the undertaking, required by section one hundred and eighty-six, be not given within twenty-four hours from the taking of the property under said order, the sheriff or other officer shall return the property to the defendant. And if the sheriff or other officer deliver any property so taken to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, or keep the same from the defendant, without taking such security within the time aforesaid, or if he takes insufficient security, he shall be liable to the defendant in damages.

4697 (189). The defendant may, within twenty-four hours from the time the undertaking referred to in the preceding section is given by the plaintiff, give notice to the sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he must be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties must justify upon notice as bail on arrest. The sheriff or other officer shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties, until the objection to them is waived as above provided or until they justify. The property shall be delivered to the plaintiff when the undertaking required by section one hundred and eighty-six has been given.

Officer not liable for sufficiency of sureties on replevin bond after twenty-four hours, unless objected to. Thomas v. Edgerton, 36, — (54 N. W., 426).

4698 (190). [Proceedings in action—Jury—Findings.]—If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and judgment be rendered against him on demurrer, or if he otherwise fail to prosecute his action to final judgment, the court shall, on application of the defendant or his attorney, impanel a jury to inquire into the right of property and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken. If the jury shall be satisfied that said property was the property of the defendant at the commencement of the action, or if they shall find that the defendant was entitled to the possession only of the same at such time, then, and in either case, they shall assess such damages for the defendant as are right and proper; for which, with costs of suit, the court shall render judgment for the defendant.

Omission of word possession from verdict not fatal under facts stated. Hershisher v. Delone, 24, 385 (38 N. W., 863). Cannot be changed into a suit in equity. Blue Valley Bk. v. Bane 20, 299 (30 N. W., 64). A general denial and claim of a return of the property is a sufficient answer. Flynn v. Jordan, 17, 520 (23 N. W., 519). Judgment should be in the alternative for return of property, or, in case a return cannot be had, for its value, unless it is shown by the record that a return could not be had. Attorneys cannot make an agreement contrary to the facts that will bind the sureties on replevin bond. Lee v. Hastings, 13, 510 (14 N. W., 476).

4699 (191). In all cases, when the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, where the jury shall find upon issue joined for the defendant, they shall also find whether the defendant had the right of property, or the right of possession only, at the commencement of the suit; and if they find either in his favor, they shall assess such damages as they think right and proper for the defendant; for which, with costs of suit, the court shall render judgment for the defendant.

The damages of an officer acting lawfully are the value of his writs if not greater than the property. Welton v. Beltezore, 17, 399 (23 N. W., 1). Where property has been in any way restored to defendant during pendency of suit, he cannot maintain an action for its value. Rinker v. Lee, 29, 783 (46 N. W., 211).

4700. The judgment in the cases mentioned in sections one hundred and ninety, and one hundred and ninety-one, and in section one thousand and forty-one of said code [5513], shall be for a return of the property or the value thereof in case a return cannot be had, or the value of the possession of the same, and for damages for withholding said property, and costs of suit.

The place where property is replevied is a suitable place to return it. Plaintiff is only required to return the property in the condition he found it. When portion of goods cannot be returned, and their value can be definitely ascertained, such value in money may be tendered in their stead, together with the remaining goods. If defendant refuses to accept, and proceeds to collect judgment, he may be enjoined. Reavis v. Horner, 11, 479 (9 N. W., 643). If return cannot be had, value of property the measure of damages. Cruts v. Wray, 19, 583 (27 N. W., 634). Where the judgment was that defendants have a return of the property, and in case of failure to return the property a money judgment, and within the time plaintiff offered to return the property and defendant refused to accept it, held that an injunction would lie restraining the collection of the money on execution. Frey v. Drahos, 10, 594 (7 N. W., 319). Judgment must be in the alternative. Singer Mfg. Co. v. Dunham, 33, 689 (50 N. W., 1122). Manker v. Sine, 35, 750 (53 N. W., 734). Defendant is only divested of his interest in the property by a final judgment. Moore v. Herron, 17, 701 (24 N. W., 425). Court has no discretion. Hastings v. McGintie, 7, 238. Cited, Deck v. Smith, 12, 392 (10 N. W., 705).

4701 (192) In all cases where the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, where the jury shall find for the plaintiff, on an issue joined, or on inquiry of damages upon a judgment by default, they shall assess adequate damages to the plaintiff for the illegal detention of the property; for which, with costs of suit, the court shall render judgment for defendant.

Court may find damages. Baker v. Daily, 6, 473. Damages allowed only on return of property. Aultman, Miller & Co. v. Stickler, 21, 79 (31 N. W., 241). Not necessary to render judgment for possession. Nollkamper v. Wyatt, 27, 576–7 (43 N. W., 357). Plaintiff must show special damage to himself distinct from that done the public at large before injunction will lie. Shed et al. v. Hawthorne et al., 3, 186. Measure of damages value of property and legal costs and charges in making collection. Black v. Winterstein, 6, 224. Defendant construed to mean plaintiff. Blue Valley Bk. v. Bane, 20, 300 (30 N. W., 64). Demand for return of property not necessary to maintain action of replevin. Homan v. Laboo, 1, 209. Frey v. Drahos, 7, 200.

4702 (193). When the property claimed has not been taken, or has been returned to the defendant by the sheriff for want of the undertaking required by section one hundred and eighty-six, the action may proceed as one for damages only, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to such damages as are right and proper; but if the property be returned for want of the undertaking required by section one hundred and eighty-six, the plaintiff shall pay all costs made by taking the same.

Judgment should be for damages only; not for return of property. Philleo v. McDonald, 27, 145 (42 N. W., 904). Measure of damages is value of property taken with interest. Hainer v. Lee, 12, 455 (11 N. W., 888). Damages may be recovered even where defendant parted with possession before commencement of suit. Lininger v. Mills, 29, 301 (45 N. W., 462). Cited, State, ex rel. Stevens, v. Carson, 27, 503 (43 N. W., 361).

Sec. 4703. "An act to amend the code of civil procedure in actions of replevin." 1875, p. 44. In force February 25.

4703. That whenever any action in replevin shall be dismissed by the court for irregularities or defects in the proceedings by the plaintiff, judgment may be given in favor of the defendant on proof of the value of the property and amount of damages.

Where the action is dismissed because plaintiff had not legal capacity to sue, and defendant impaneled a jury and took judgment, held not to bar replevin for the same property. Rodgers v. Levy, 36, — (54 N. W., 1080).

4704 (194). An order may be directed to any other county than the one in which the action is brought, for the delivery of the property claimed. Several orders may issue at the same time, or successively, at the option of the plaintiff; but only one of them shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

4705 (195). The sheriff or other officer, in the execution of the order of delivery, may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed, or any part thereof, is concealed; but not until he has been refused an entrance into said building or enclosure and the delivery of the property, after having demanded the same.

4706 (196). No suit shall be instituted on the undertaking given under section one hundred and eighty-six, before an execution issued on a judgment in favor of the defendant in the action shall have been returned, that sufficient property whereon to levy and make the amount of such judgment cannot be found in the county.

Suit on bond cannot be brought until execution against principal returned unsatisfied. Lininger v. Raymond, 9, 46 (2 N. W., 359). This is imperative and cannot be waived by the court. Hershiser v. Jordan, 25, 276 (41 N. W., 147).

4707 (197). Any order for the delivery of property issued under section one hundred and eighty-two, without the affidavit required thereby, shall be set aside at the cost of the clerk issuing the same, and such clerk, as well as the plaintiff, shall also be liable in damages to the party injured.

CHAPTER III.—ATTACHMENT.

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL ATTACHMENTS.

Subdivision 1.—Grounds of Attachment.

4708 (198). The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant, and upon the grounds herein stated: First—When the defendant, or one of several defendants, is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of this state; or, Second—Has absconded with the intent to defraud his creditors; or, Third—Has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; or, Fourth—So conceals himself that a summons cannot be served upon him; or, Fifth—Is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the jurisdiction of the court, with the intent to defraud his creditors; or, Sixth—Is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors; or, Seventh—Has property, or rights in action, which he conceals; or, Eighth—Has assigned, removed, or disposed of, or is about to dispose of, his property, or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud his creditors; or, Ninth—Fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit is about to be or has been brought. But an attachment shall not be granted on the ground that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of this state, for any claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment, or decree.

There are nine distinct grounds of attachment here, any one of which will support the action, and affidavit is not bad that states one as the eighth in exact language of statute. Tessier v. Englehart, 18, 170 (24 N. W., 734). Sufficient if in words of statute. Tallon v. Ellison & Sons, 3, 73. An action is deemed commenced for this purpose when papers are filed. Coffman v. Brandhoeffer, 33, 282 (50 N. W., 6). When all provisions of statute are complied with, court has jurisdiction. Day v. Thompson, 11, 127 (7 N. W., 533). Attachment is a proceeding ancillary to the main action in which allowed. Reed v. Maben, 21, 700 (33 N. W., 254). An attachment may issue while the suit is pending on error. Strickler v. Hargis, 34, 471 (51 N. W., 1039). When affidavit is filed that defendant is a non-resident no summons need be issued. But in such case no judgment can be rendered for sale of attached property until notice is given to defendant by publication, and notice must contain description of property attached. Wescott v. Archer, 12, 346 (11 N. W., 491-577). But see Grebe v. Jones, 15, 312 (18 N.W., 81). Attachment lies not alone against property of one who has given an express promise, but also of one on whose part law implies a promise; e. g., one who has received another's money for the purpose of loaning it. Hart v. Barnes 24, 786 (40 N. W., 322). An action for damage for baeach of covenant of warranty will sustain attachment. Cheney v. Straube, 35, 521 (53 N. W., 479). So will an action on an underaking for an attachment. Withers v. Brittain, 35, 437 (53 N. W., 375). Cannot be maintained for a tort. Livesey v. Omaha Hotel, 5, 67. An affidavit for attachment stating "that the said claim in said action is for damages in not delivering goods purchased," does not show that the action is for a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment, or decree, and does not authorize an attachment against a non-resident or foreign corporation. Rouss v. Wright, 14, 460 (16 N. W., 765). Court should require a statement from applicant revealing fully grounds of apprehension. Seidentopf v. Annabil, 6, 539. When goods are found in the possession of a stranger who claims title, the party must both allege and prove not only issuing of attachment but every material fact and condition necessary to the regularity of its issue. Oberfelder v. Kavanaugh, 21, 492 (32 N. W., 295). Mere insolvency not ground for attachment. Walker v. Hagerty, 20, 485 (30 N. W., 556). A party absconds when he hides, conceals, or absents himself clandestinely with the intent to avoid legal process. Gandy v. Jolly, 34, 537 (53 N. W., 658). And where an attachment suit is instituted against absconding debtor in one county, process may be served upon him in any other county, and judgment rendered on such service is valid. Gandy v. Jolly, 35, 712 (53 N. W., 658). Cited, Miller v. Eastman, 27, 411 (43 N. W., 179).

Subdivision 2.—How an Attachment is Obtained.

4709 (199). An order of attachment shall be made by the clerk of the court in which the action is brought, in any case mentioned in the preceding section, when there is filed in his office an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, showing: First—The nature of the plaintiff's claim. Second—That it is just. Third—The amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover. Fourth—The existence of some one of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in the preceding section.

Sufficient if in words of the statute. Ellison v. Tallon, 2, 14. Affidavit held good. Tessier v. Reed, 17, 105 (22 N. W., 225). Affidavit sufficient if it state nature of plaintiff's claim; reference may be had to petition for fuller statement. Hart v. Barnes, 24, 787 (40 N. W., 322). An affidavit setting forth ground of attachment substantially in the words of the statute will sustain the attachment as long as it stands undenied; but when denied its truthfulness must be shown by proof of facts or the attachment will fail. Steele v. Dodd, 14, 497 (16 N. W., 909). As to sufficiency of affidavit by agent. Tessier v. Englehart, 18, 170 (24 N. W., 734). Affidavit need not allege that affiant is attorney or agent if clerk satisfied. Tessier v. Crowley, 16, 372 (20 N. W., 264). Affidavit need not state that there is property subject to levy in jurisdiction. Grebe v. Jones 15, 315 (18 N. W., 81). Want of venue curable by amendment. Omission of name in body o affidavit immaterial. Rudolf v. McDonald, 6, 165. Where affidavit was sworn to before the clerk of the court in which action is pending, but the venue was omitted, it will be presumed that the clerk administered the oath in the proper county; this proceeding cannot be attacked collaterally but only in a direct proceeding. Crowell v. Johnson, 2, 156. Affidavit for attachment of real estate cures defects in affidavit for service by publication. Miller v. Eastman, 27, 413 (43 N. W., 179). Cited, Holland v. Commercial Bank, 22, 580 (36 N. W., 113).

4710 (200). When the ground of the attachment is, that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of the state, the order of attachment may be issued without an undertaking. In all other cases, the order of attachment shall not be issued by the clerk until there has been executed in his office, by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the clerk, an undertaking not exceeding double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay the defendant all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, if the order be wrongfully obtained.

Where defendant is a non-resident, undertaking not necessary. Olmstead v. Rivers, 9, 236 (1 N. W., 366). Grebe v. Jones, 15, 314 (18 N. W., 81). Not unconstitutional. Marsh v. Steele, 9, 104 (1 N. W., 869). See Jones v. Fruin, 26, 79 (42 N. W., 283).

4711 (201). The order of attachment shall be directed and delivered to the sheriff. It shall require him to attach the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, stocks, or interest in stocks, rights, credits, moneys, and effects of the defendant in his county not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's claim, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit, and the probable costs of the action, not exceeding fifty dollars.

Sheriff's interest in goods is amount due on writ with costs. Armstrong v. Lynch, 29, 87 (45 N. W., 274).

4712 (202). Orders of attachment may be issued to the sheriff of different counties; and several of them may, at the option of the plaintiff, be issued at the same time, in succession; but such only as has been executed shall be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise directed by the court.

Only one affidavit is necessary. Thompson v. Stetson, 15, 112 (17 N. W., 368).

Cited, Coffman v. Brandhoeffer, 33, 282 (50 N. W., 6).

Subdivision 3.—Execution and Return Thereof.

4714 (204). When there are several orders of attachment against the same defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by the sheriff.

Attachment first levied is entitled to priority. Moore v. Fedawa, 13, 381 (14 N. W., 170).

4715 (205). The order of attachment shall be executed by the sheriff without delay. He shall go to the place where the defendant's property may be found, and there, in the presence of two residents of the county, declare that by virtue of said order he attaches said property at the suit of such plaintiff; and the officer, with the said residents, who shall be first sworn or affirmed by the officer, shall make a true inventory and appraisement of all the property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and residents, and returned with the order. Where the property attached is real property, the officer shall leave with the occupant thereof, or, if there be no occupant, in a conspicuous place thereon, a copy of the order. Where it is personal property, and accessible, he shall take the same into his custody, and hold it subject to the order of the court.

An assignment placed in sheriff's hands before he levies an attachment is superior thereto. Wells v. Lamb, 18, 354 (24 N. W., 682). Wrongful levy. Bierbower v. Singer, 27, 414 (43 N. W., 254). See Oberfelder v. Kavanaugh, 29, 427 (45 N. W., 471).

4716 (206). The sheriff shall deliver the property attached to the person in whose possession it was found, upon the execution by such person, in the presence of the sheriff, of an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, resident in the county, to the effect that the parties to the same are bound, in double the appraised value thereof, that the property, or its appraised value in money, shall be forthcoming to answer the judgment of the court in the action; but if it shall appear to the court that any part of said property has been lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident, the value thereof shall be remitted to the person so bound.

Giving of an undertaking does not prevent owner from moving to dissolve attachment. Whiteley v. Davis, 20, 506 (31 N. W., 74). Giving of an undertaking does not operate as a dissolution. Hilton v. Ross, 9, 410 (2 N. W., 862). Owner may have the property at any time by giving this bond. Wilson v. Shepherd, 15, 18 (16 N. W., 826).

4717 (207). When the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make oath, in writing, that he has a good reason to and does believe that any person or corporation, to be named and within the county where the action is brought, has property of the defendant (describing the same) in his possession, if the officer cannot come at such property, he shall leave with such garnishee a copy of the order of attachment with a written notice that he appear in court, at the return of the order of attachment, and answer, as provided in section two hundred and twenty-one.

As a rule clerk of district court not liable as garnishee; but there are cases where a court of equity will subject funds in hands of clerk to payment of debts. Weaver v. Cressman, 21, 679 (33 N. W., 478). Municipal corporation not liable in. The People, ex rel. Spaun, v. Mayor of Omaha, 2, 169. In case stated, held that plaintiffs had an equitable lien on property in possession of garnishees and had not lost their rights by laches. Reed v. Fletcher, 24, 435-6 (39 N. W., 437). Note obtained by fraud not in the hands of a bona fide holder may be attached. Clough v. Buck, 6, 348. Cited, Mathews v. Smith & Crittenden, 13, 188 (12 N. W., 821).

4718 (208). The copy of the order and the notice shall be served upon the garnishee as follows: If he be a person, they shall be served upon him personally, or left at his usual place of residence; if a corporation, they shall be left with the president or other officer of the same, or a managing agent thereof.

4719 (209). Different attachments of the same property may be made by the same officer, and one inventory and appraisement shall be sufficient, and it shall not be necessary to return the same with more than one order.

One appraisement is sufficient. Connelly v. Edgerton, 22, 89 (34 N. W., 76). These levies must be made while the officer has possession under his first levy. Merrill v. Wedgewood, 25, 289 (41 N. W., 149).

4720 (210). Where the property is under attachment, it shall be attached under subsequent orders as follows: First—If it be real property, it shall be attached in the manner prescribed in section two hundred and five. Second—If it be personal property, it shall be attached as in the hands of the officer, and subject to any previous attachment. Third—If the same person or corporation be made a garnishee, a copy of the order and notice shall be left with him, in the manner prescribed in section two hundred and seven.

4721 (211). The officer shall return upon every order of attachment what he has done under it. The return must show the property attached, and the time it was attached. When garnishees are served, their names, and the time each was served, must be stated. The officer shall also return with the order all undertakings given under it.

As to return. Grebe v. Jones, 15, 312 (18 N.W., 81).

4722 (212). An order of attachment binds the property attached from the time of service, and the garnishee shall stand liable to the plaintiff in attachment for all property, moneys, and credits in his hands, or due from him to the defendant, from the time he is served with the written notice mentioned in section two hundred and seven; but where the property is attached in the hands of a consignee, his lien thereon shall not be affected by the attachment.

Order of attachment binds the property from the time of service. Rudolf v. McDonald, 6, 166. Attaching and garnishing creditors may enjoin sale of goods under execution, until priorities of liens are determined. Northfield Knife Co. v. Shapleigh, 24, 638 (39 N. W., 788). Cited, Moore v. Fedawa, 13, 381 (14 N. W., 170).

Subdivision 4.—Disposition of Attached Property.

4723 (213). The court, or any judge thereof, during vacation, may, on the application of the plaintiff, and on good cause shown, appoint a receiver, who shall take an oath faithfully to discharge his duty, and shall give an undertaking to the state of Nebraska, in such sum as the court or judge may direct, and with such security as shall be approved by the clerk of the court, for the faithful performance of his duty as such receiver, and to pay over all money, and account for all property, which may come into his hands by virtue of his appointment, at such times and in such manner as the court may direct.

4724 (214). Such receiver shall take possession of all notes, due bills, books of account, accounts, and all other evidences of debt, that have been taken by the sheriff or other officer, as the property of the defendant in attachment, and shall proceed to settle and collect the same. For that purpose, he may commence and maintain actions in his own name as such receiver; but in such actions no right of defense shall be impaired or affected.

4725 (215). Such receiver shall forthwith give notice of his appointment to the persons indebted to the defendant in attachment. The notice shall be written or printed, and shall be served on the debtor or debtors, by copy personally, or by copy left at the residence; and from the date of such service the debtors shall stand liable to the plaintiff in attachment for the amount of moneys and credits in their hands, or due from them to the defendant in attachment, and shall account therefor to the receiver.

4726 (216). Such receiver shall, when required, report his proceedings to the court, and hold all moneys collected by him, and property which may come into his hands, subject to the order of the court.

4727 (217). Where a receiver is not appointed by the court or a judge thereof, as provided in section two hundred and thirteen, the sheriff or other officer attaching the property shall have all the powers, and perform all the duties of a receiver appointed by the court or judge, and may, if necessary, commence and maintain actions in his own name as such officer. He may be required to give security, other than his official undertaking.

4728 (218). The court shall make proper orders for the preservation of the property during the pendency of the suit. It may direct the sale of property when, because of its perishable nature, or the costs of keeping it, a sale will be for the benefit of the parties. In vacation, such sale may be ordered by the judge of the court. The sale shall be public, after such advertisement as is prescribed for the sale of like property on execution, and shall be made in such manner, and upon such terms of credit, with security, as the court or judge, having regard to the probable duration of the action, may direct. The proceeds, if collected by the sheriff, with all the moneys received by him from garnishees, shall be held and paid over by him, under the same requirement and responsibilities of himself and sureties as are provided in respect to money deposited in lieu of bail.

Subdivision 5.—Proceedings upon Attachment.

4729 (219). If the defendant, or any other person on his behalf, at any time before judgment, cause an undertaking to be executed to the plaintiff by one or more sureties resident in the county, to be approved by the court, in double the amount of the plaintiff's claim as stated in his affidavit, to the effect that the defendant shall perform the judgment of the court, the attachment in such action shall be discharged, and restitution made of any property taken under it, or the proceeds thereof. Such undertaking shall also discharge the liability of a garnishee in such action for any property of the defendant in his hands.

4730 (220). The undertaking mentioned in the last section may, in vacation, be executed in the presence of the sheriff having the order of attachment in his hands, or, after the return of the order, before the clerk, with the same effect as if executed in court; the sureties in either case to be approved by the officer before whom the undertaking is executed.

4731 (221). The garnishee shall appear as follows: If the order of attachment be returned during a term of court, he shall appear at that term; if the order be returned during vacation, he shall appear at the term next after its return. He shall appear and answer, under oath, all the questions put to him touching the property of every description and credits of the defendant in his possession or under his control, and he shall disclose truly the amount owing by him to the defendant, whether due or not, and in case of a corporation, any stock therein held by or for the benefit of the defendant, at or after the service of notice; * but a garnishee shall not be required to appear in this or in any other case unless there is tendered to him the same fees as a witness is entitled to in the suit in which the garnishee proceedings are had, and such fees may be taxed and collected in the same manner as other costs in such proceedings.

All after * added 1877, p. 10. Service of notice on garnishee creates a lien on goods; latter not subject to levy and sale during attachment. Northfield Knife Co. v. Shapleigh, 24, 638 (39 N. W., 788). Where garnishee abandons property, court may appoint suitable person to take charge of same. Northfield Knife Co. v. Shapleigh, 24, 639 (39 N. W., 788). Garnishee who has notice that defendant has assigned debt must so state in answer, to be protected from action by assignee. Coleman v. Scott, 27, 82-3 (42 N. W., 896).

4732 (222). A garnishee may pay the money owing to the defendant by him, to the sheriff having the order of attachment, or into court. He shall be discharged from liability to the defendant, for any money so paid, not exceeding the plaintiff's claim. He shall not be subjected to costs beyond those caused by his resistance of the claim against him; and if he disclose the property in his hands, or the true amount owing by him, and deliver or pay the same according to the order of the court, he shall be allowed his costs.

4733 (223). If the garnishee do not appear in court and answer, as required by section two hundred and twenty-one, the court may proceed against him by attachment as for a contempt.

4734 (224.) If the garnishee appear and answer, and it is discovered on his examination, that at or after the service of the order of attachment and notice upon him, he was possessed of any property of the defendant, or was indebted to him, the court may order the delivery of such property and the payment of the amount owing by the garnishee, into the court; or the court may permit the garnishee to retain the property or the amount owing, upon the execution of an undertaking to the plaintiff by one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the amount shall be paid, or the property forthcoming, as the court may direct.

Money due from a sheriff on contract, or surplus proceeds after satisfying an execution, may be garnished. Oppenheimer v. Marr, 31, 814 (48 N. W., 818).

4735 (225). If the garnishee fail to appear and answer, or if he appear and answer, and his disclosure is not satisfactory to the plaintiff, or if he fail to comply with the order of the court, or deliver the property and pay the money owing into court, or give the undertaking required in the preceding section, the plaintiff may proceed against him in an action, by filing a petition in his own name, as in other cases, and causing a summons to be issued upon it; and thereupon such proceedings may be had as in other actions, and judgment may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, for the amount of the property and credits of every kind of the defendant in the possession of the garnishee, and for what shall appear to be owing by him to the defendant, and for the costs of the proceedings against the garnishee. If the plaintiff proceed against the garnishee by action, for the cause that his disclosure was unsatisfactory, unless it appear in the action that such disclosure was incomplete, the plaintiff shall pay the costs of such action. The judgment in this action may be enforced as judgments in other cases. When the claims of the plaintiff in attachment are satisfied, the defendant in attachment may, on motion, be substituted as the plaintiff in the judgment.

The order of court is not conclusive on the garnishee; he may contest his liability. Hollingworth v. Fitzgerald, 16, 497 (20 N. W., 836). The rights of an attaching creditor against a garnishee are no greater than the rights of the attachment debtor. Fitzgerald v. Hollingsworth, 14, 189 (15 N. W., 345). Failure of the plaintiff to show that the answer of the garnishee was incomplete will not defeat the action, but only relieve the garnishee of the liability for costs. Cornish v. Russell, 32, 400 (49 N. W., 379). A garnishee can only release himself from liability by complying with the order of the court. Russell v. Lau, 30, 805 (47 N. W., 193). Cited, Clark v. Foxworthy, 14, 242 (15 N. W., 342).

4736 (226). Final judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee, until the action against the defendant in attachment has been determined; and if in such action judgment be rendered for the defendant in attachment, the garnishee shall be discharged, and recover costs. If the plaintiff shall recover against the defendant in attachment, and the garnishee shall deliver up all the property, moneys, and credits of the defendant in his possession, and pay all the moneys from him due as the court may order, the garnishee shall be discharged, and the costs of the proceedings against him shall be paid out of the property and moneys so surrendered, or as the court may think right and proper.

4737 (227). If judgment be rendered in the action for the defendant, the attachment shall be discharged, and the property attached, or its proceeds, shall be returned to him.

4738 (228). If judgment be rendered for the plaintiff, it shall be satisfied as follows: So much of the property remaining in the hands of the officer, after applying the moneys arising from the sale of perishable property, and so much of the personal property and lands and tenements, if any, whether held by legal or equitable title, as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, shall be sold by order of the court, under the same restrictions and regulations as if the same had been levied on by execution; and the money arising therefrom, with the amount which may be recovered from the garnishee, shall be applied to satisfy the judgment and costs. If there be not enough to satisfy the same, the judgment shall stand, and execution may issue thereon, for the residue, in all respects, as in other cases. Any surplus of the attached property, or its proceeds, shall be returned to the defendant.

No judgment can be rendered without service of summons upon defendant either personally or by publication. Wescott v. Archer, 12, 349 (11 N. W., 491, 577). Sale of attached lands under order of court is governed by the same restrictions and regulations as if the same had been levied on by execution. Helmer v. Rehm, 14, 220 (15 N. W., 344).

4739 (229). The court may compel the delivery to the sheriff, for sale, of any of the attached property for which an undertaking may have been given, and may proceed summarily on such undertaking, to enforce the delivery of the property, or the payment of such sum as may be due upon the undertaking, by rules and attachments, as in cases of contempt.

4740 (230). The court may order the sheriff to repossess himself, for the purpose of selling it, of any of the attached property which may have passed out of his hands without having been sold or converted into money; and the sheriff shall, under such order, have the same power to take the property as he would have under an order of attachment.

4741 (231). If personal property which has been attached, be claimed by any person other than the defendant, it shall be the duty of the officer to have the validity of such claim tried, and such proceedings must be had thereon, with the like effect, as in case the property had been seized upon execution, and claimed by a third person.

4742 (232). Where several attachments are executed on the same property, or the same persons are made garnishees, the court, on the motion of any of the plaintiffs, may order a reference to ascertain and report the amounts and priorities of the several attachments.

Subdivision 6.—General Provisions.

4743 (233). From the time of the issuing of the order of attachment, the court shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction, and to have control of all subsequent proceedings under this chapter; and if, after the issuing of the order, the defendant, being a person, should die, or a corporation and its charter should expire by limitation, forfeiture or otherwise, the proceeding shall be carried on; but in all such cases other than where the defendant was a foreign corporation, his legal representatives shall be made parties to the action.

4744 (234). The defendant may, at any time before judgment after reasonable notice to the plaintiff, move the court for additional security on the part of the plaintiff; and if, on such motion, the court is satisfied that the surety in the plaintiff's undertaking has removed from this state, or is not sufficient for the amount thereof, it may vacate the order of attachment, and direct restitution of any property taken under it, unless in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, sufficient security is given by the plaintiff.

4745 (235). The defendant may, at any time before judgment, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, move to discharge an attachment, as to the whole or a part of the property attached.

Merits of case not to be inquired into in motion to dissolve. Olmstead v. Rivers, 9, 236 (2 N. W., 366). Motion will not avail after judgment. Hilton v. Ross, 9, 408 (2 N. W., 862). Motion to dissolve for the reason that the petition was headed "Supreme Court of the State of New York." A writ of attachment which does not run in the name of the people of Nebraska is voidable only. Livingston v. Coe, 4, 381. Discharged where cause for was a debt fraudulenty contracted and one not so incurred, though amount of latter was but $8.50. Meyer v. Evans, 27, 371–2 (43 N. W., 109). See Warren v. Barsby, 24, 811 (40 N. W., 314); McCord-Brady Co. v. Krause, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 215).

4746 (236). If the motion be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, or papers and evidence in the case, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence, in addition to that on which the order of attachment was made.

Secs. 4747 to 4750. "An act requiring copies of attachments to be filed in certain cases." 1873; G. S., p. 714. In force February 8.

4747. That whenever an attachment shall issue to any other county than the one in which the action is brought, and any lands shall be attached by virtue thereof, it shall be the duty of the officers attaching said property to make out a true copy of said order of attachment, and file the same in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county where the lands so attached are situated. He shall also certify upon said copy of said order of attachment, that the same is a true copy of the original writ received by him, and he shall also endorse thereon the description of the property attached, and the time when the same was attached, under and by virtue of the original order of attachment.

Undertaking must be given within time specified, or goods returned to adverse party. State, ex rel. Rieschick, v. Cunningham, 9, 148 (1 N. W., 1011).

4748. It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds of the county, when the copy of the order of attachment has been filed as provided in this act, to record the same in the miscellaneous record, together with the certificate of the officers heretofore mentioned, and such copy of said orders of attachment, and certificate so filed and recorded, shall be sufficient notice to subsequent purchasers of said land so attached as aforesaid.

4749. If the order of attachment be discharged it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which the action is brought to certify that fact, together with the time when the order was discharged, to the recorder of deeds in whose office the copy of said order has been recorded as aforesaid; whereupon such recorder shall file such certificate, and write across the record of such copy the word "discharged," and also the time of discharge as shown in said certificate.

4750. The officer, for making out said copy of the order of attachment, and the clerk, for recording the same, shall each receive such compensation as is now allowed by law for similar services, to be taxed in the costs, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Secs. 4751 and 4752. "An act to provide for the retention of attached property pending a review on error of an order discharging the attachment." 1873. In force February 17. G. S., p. 715.

4751. That when an order discharging an order of attachment is made, and any party affected thereby shall except thereto, the court or judge shall fix the number of days, not to exceed twenty, in which such party may file his petition in error, during which time the property attached shall be held by the sheriff or other officer, during which period the petition in error shall be filed, and the party filing the same shall give an undertaking to the adverse party, with surety or sureties, to be approved by the court, in double the amount of the appraised value of the property attached, conditioned to pay said adverse party all damages sustained by such party in consequence of the filing of said petition in error, in the event that such order of attachment shall be discharged by the court, in which said petition in error shall be filed, as having been unlawfully obtained.

The order may be reviewed without giving bond; that is only necessary to retain the property. Adams v. Morgan, 26, 150 (41 N. W., 993). Wilson v. Shepherd, 15, 17 (16 N. W., 826). Where the garnishee is discharged, the giving of a supersedeas bond alone will not compel him to hold the money; the petition in error must also be filed within the twenty days. Lehnoff v. Fisher, 32, 111 (48 N. W., 821). This remedy is general in its application. The mode of review is as broad as the remedy. County judge may sign bill of exceptions. Osborne v. Canfield, 33, 334 (50 N. W., 167).

4752. The original action shall proceed to trial and judgment in every other respect as though no writ of error had been prosecuted.

ARTICLE II.—ATTACHMENTS IN CERTAIN ACTIONS.

4753 (237). A creditor may bring an action on a claim before it is due and have an attachment against the property of the debtor, in the following cases: First—Where a debtor has sold, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of his property, with the fradulent intent to cheat or defraud his creditors, or to hinder or delay them in the collection of their debts. Second—Where he is about to make such sale, conveyance, or disposition of his property, with such fraudulent intent. Third—Where he is about to remove his property, or a material part thereof, with the intent or to the effect of cheating or defrauding his creditors, or of hindering and delaying them in the collection of their debts.

An attachment for a debt before due can only issue in substantial accordance with this statute. Philpott v. Newman, 11, 302 (9 N. W., 94). It is only in exceptional cases of fraud on the part of the debtor that actions can be brought on claims before due. Green v. Raymond Bros., 9, 297 (2 N. W., 881). Court or judge must grant order. Seidentopf v. Annabil, 6, 528. Mere insolvency of debtor not a cause. Peru Co. v. Benedict, 24, 345 (38 N. W., 824). A federal circuit court has jurisdiction to determine plaintiff's right to an attachment in such a case. Schunk v. Moline, 13 Sup. Ct. Rep., 416.

4754 (238). The attachment authorized by the last section may be granted by the court in which the action is brought, or by a judge thereof, or by the probate judge of the county; but before such action shall be brought, or such attachment shall be granted, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make an oath, in writing, showing the nature and amount of the plaintiff's claim, that it is just, when the same shall become due, and the existence of some one of the grounds for attachment enumerated in the preceding section.

Order here provided for is a judicial act, and it cannot be granted on Sunday or a legal holiday. Merchants National Bank of Omaha v. Jaffray, 36, — (54 N. W., 259). Statute does not require affiant to swear that he is the plaintiff, his agent or attorney. Reed v. Bagley, 24, 237 (38 N. W., 827). Tessier v. Crowley, 16, 369 (20 N. W., 264). County judge has jurisdiction to grant attachment on a claim not due. No written application other than the affidavit is necessary; nor is it necessary that he make a formal docket entry. Winchell v. McKinzie, 35, 817 (53 N. W., 975). When county judge grants attachment and signs order officially, presumed that he is judge of county, and that district judge is absent therefrom. Reed v. Bagley, 24, 336 (38 N. W., 827).

4755 (239). If the court or judge refuse to grant an order of attachment, the action shall be dismissed, but without prejudice to a future action; and in all such actions application for an attachment must be made.

4756 (240). The order of the court or judge granting the attachment, shall specify the amount for which it is allowed, not exceeding a sum sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim and the probable costs of the action.

Order need not appear on face of writ. Armstrong v. Lynch, 29, 92 (45 N. W., 274).

4757 (241). The order of attachment, as granted by the court or judge, shall not be issued by the clerk until there has been executed in his office such undertaking on the part of the plaintiff as is directed by section two hundred.

The bond and affidavit are prerequisities to the issuance of the attachment, and must be proved by the party claiming thereunder. Gamble v. Wilson, 33, 275 (50 N. W., 3).

4758 (242). The plaintiff in such action shall not have judgment on his claim before it becomes due, and the proceedings on attachment may be conducted without delay.

4759 (243). The proceedings in the first article of this chapter subsequent to section two hundred, shall, so far as they are applicable, regulate the attachments authorized by this article.

ARTICLE III.—GARNISHMENT IN CERTAIN CASES.

4760 (244). In all cases where an execution issued upon any judgment of a court of record, or of a justice of the peace, shall be returned by the officer in whose hands the same was placed for service, unsatisfied for want of sufficient property whereof to levy and collect the same, and the judgment creditor in such execution, his agent or attorney, shall file an affidavit in the office of the clerk of the court, or justice of the peace, from which said execution issued, that he has good reason to and does believe that any person or corporation (naming them) have property of and are indebted to the judgment debtor, the said clerk or justice of the peace shall issue a summons as in other cases, requiring such person or corporation to appear in court and answer such interrogatories as shall be propounded to him, it or them, touching the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the said judgment debtor in his, its, or their possession or control.

Execution must issue and return before garnishment. If judgment set aside, garnishee discharged. Clough v. Buck, 6, 348. Return of officer, Wilson v. Burney, 8, 41. The equity of redemption in mortgaged or pledged personal property, even after condition broken, is such an interest as may be reached by attachment or garnishment before judgment or by garnishment after judgment in aid of execution. Burnham v. Doolittle, 14, 218 (15 N. W., 606). But see Chicago Lumber Co. v. Fisher, 18, 334 (25 N. W., 340).

4761 (245). The summons shall be made returnable, and the said persons or corporations shall be required to appear, as in ordinary cases of summons [4604], and thereafter like proceedings shall be had therein, and said garnishees shall be held liable, in all respects, as in cases of garnishees before judgment.

4762 (246). The summons shall be served as a summons in an original action is served [4606 et seq.]; the said persons or corporations so summoned shall be liable to the judgment creditor in said execution for all property, moneys, and credits in his, its, or their hands, or due from him, it, or them to the judgment debtor in said execution, at the time of, and which may come into his, its, or their hands or control, after the service of said summons.

4763 (247). No proceedings against such garnishee or garnishees shall be quashed, or such garnishee or garnishees discharged, by reason of any informality or irregularity, merely, of the affidavit or summons provided for in this article.

Cited, Burnham v. Doolittle, 14, 215 (15 N. W., 606).

4764 (248). In cases where the garnishee, in answering such interrogatories, shall disclose that he has property in his possession, or under his control, belonging to the defendant or defendants in execution, the court shall order the same to be taken and sold by the officers upon execution, as in other cases.

4765 (249). In cases where the garnishee, in answering such interrogatories, shall disclose that he is indebted to the defendant in execution, the court shall order the garnishee to pay over the amount found to be due from the said garnishee to the defendant in execution, which amount shall be collected by execution, as in other cases, as near as may be, and such amount, when paid or collected, shall be credited on the original judgment, and the garnishee shall be credited for the amount so paid or collected.

Order not subject to collateral attack. Wilson v. Burney, 8, 41. There is no personal judgment but simply an order to pay amount admitted to be due, which may be enforced by means of an ordinary execution. But order cannot be made if garnishee makes any legal or equitable claim to the amount in his hands or if he insists upon his right to hold it for any lawful purpose. Clark v. Foxworthy, 14, 242 (15 N. W., 342). B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Chicago Lumber Co., 18, 304 (25 N. W., 94). The order made by the court is not conclusive on the garnishee—he may contest his liability. Hollingsworth v. Fitzgerald, 16, 497 (20 N. W., 836). An order to pay money into court is final and conclusive, unless appealed from. Union National Bank v. Hickey, 34, 303 (51 N. W., 825).

CHAPTER IV.—INJUNCTION.

4766 (250). The injunction provided by this code is a command to refrain from a particular act. It may be the final judgment in an action, or may be allowed as a provisional remedy; and when so allowed it shall be by order. The writ of injunction is abolished.

Writ abolished. Boyd v. State, 19, 131 (26 N. W., 925).

4767 (251). When it appears by the petition that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which during the litigation would produce great or irreparable injury to the plaintiff, or when, during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual, a temporary injunction may be granted to restrain such act. It may also be granted in any case where it is specially authorized by statute.

Will be allowed when public officers are proceeding, under a color of right, to impair either public or private rights, or where their proceedings will result in great injury to private citizens without corresponding advantage to the public. Normand v. Otoe Co., 8, 21. To prevent the discharge of water upon the lands of another. Davis v. Londgreen, 8, 45. To restrain sale under a fraudulent mortgage. Becker v. Anderson, 6, 503. Where plaintiff, by replevin, obtains possession of certain drafts in dispute, he cannot refuse to prosecute the action and enjoin defendant from doing so. Kinkaid v. Hiatt, 24, 578 (39 N. W., 600). Will not lie to prevent removal of county officers to county seat. Scott v. McGuire, 15, 305 (18 N. W., 93). Will not lie to restrain building of bridge by plaintiff, when defendant has expended large sums of money in erecting another bridge without objection. Fremont Ferry and Bridge Co. v. Dodge Co., 6, 26.

4768 (252). The injunction may be granted at the time of commencing the action, or at any time afterward, before judgment, by the supreme court or any judge thereof, the district court or any judge thereof, or, in the absence from the county of said judges, by the probate judge thereof, upon it appearing satisfactorily to the court or judge, by the affidavit of the plaintiff or his agent, that the plaintiff is entitled thereto.

A violation of an injunction granted by the county judge is a contempt of the district court, and is not punishable by the county judge. Johnson v. Bouton, 35, 900 (53 N. W., 996).

4769 (253). If the court or judge deem it proper that the defendant, or any party to the suit, should be heard before granting the injunction, it may direct a reasonable notice to be given to such party to attend for such purpose at a specified time and place, and may, in the meantime, restrain such party.

4770 (254). An injunction shall not be granted against a party who has answered, unless upon notice; but such party may be restrained, until the decision of the application for an injunction.

See State v. Wakely, 28, 431 (44 N. W., 488).

4771 (255). No injunction, unless provided by special statute, shall operate until the party obtaining the same shall give an undertaking, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court granting such injunction, in an amount to be fixed by the court or judge allowing the same, to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain, if it be finally decided that the injunction ought not to have been granted.

Party enjoined not liable for contempt unless undertaking is given. Baker v. Meisch, 29, 233 (45 N. W., 685). When action on bond may be brought. Bemis v. Gannett, 8, 237. Action on bond. See Smith v. Gregg, 9, 216 (2 N. W., 459).

4772 (256). The order of injunction shall be addressed to the party enjoined, shall state the injunction, and shall be issued by the clerk. Where the injunction is allowed at the commencement of the action, the clerk shall endorse upon the summons, "injunction allowed," and it shall not be necessary to issue the order of injunction; nor shall it be necessary to issue the same, where notice of the application therefor has been given to the party enjoined. The service of the summons so endorsed, or the notice of the application for an injunction, shall be notice of its allowance.

4774 (258). An injunction binds the party, from the time he has notice thereof, and the undertaking required by the applicant therefor is executed.

4775 (259). No injunction shall be granted by a judge, after a motion therefor has been overruled, on the merits of the application, by his court; and where it has been refused by the court in which the action is brought, or a judge thereof, it shall not be granted to the same applicant by a court of inferior jurisdiction or any judge thereof.

4776 (260). An injunction granted by a judge may be enforced as the act of the court. Disobedience of an injunction may be punished as a contempt by the court, or by any judge who might have granted it in vacation. An attachment may be issued by the court or judge, upon being satisfied by affidavit of the breach of the injunction, against the party guilty of the same; and he may be required, in the discretion of the court or judge, to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, for the use of the county, to make immediate restitution to the party injured, and give further security to obey the injunction; or, in default thereof, he may be committed to close custody, until he shall fully comply with such requirement, or be otherwise legally discharged.

This does not give a county judge the right to punish the violation of an injunction granted under section 4768. Johnston v. Bouton, 35, 905 (53 N. W., 995).

4777 (261). A party enjoined may, at any time before judgment, upon reasonable notice to the party who has obtained the injunction, move the court for additional security; and if it appear that the surety in the undertaking has removed from the state, or is insufficient, the court may vacate the injunction, unless in a reasonable time, sufficient security be given.

4778 (262). On the hearing of an application for an injunction, each party may read affidavits. All affidavits shall be filed.

4779 (263). If the injunction be granted without notice, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon notice, to the court in which the action is brought, or any judge thereof, to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the petition and affidavits upon which the injunction is granted, or upon affidavits on the part of the party enjoined, with or without answer. The order of the judge allowing, dissolving, or modifying an injunction, shall be returned to the office of the clerk of the court in which the action is brought, and recorded and obeyed as if made by the court.

4780 (264). If the application be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence, in addition to that on which the injunction was granted.

4781 (265). A defendant may obtain an injunction upon an answer in the nature of a counter-claim. He shall proceed in the manner prescribed in this chapter.

Secs. 4782 to 4784. "An act to provide for supersedeas bonds in certain cases." 1889, p. [illegible]. In force March 29.

4782. That in case of the dissolution or modification by any court, or any judge at chambers, of any temporary order of injunction, which has been or may hereafter be granted, the court or judge so dissolving or modifying said order of injunction shall at the same time fix a reasonable sum as the amount of a supersedeas bond, which the person or persons applying for said injunction may give, and prevent the doing of the act, or acts, the commission of which was, or may be sought to be restrained by the injunction so dissolved or modified.

An order of a judge of a district court overruling a motion to vacate a temporary injunction granted at the commencement of an action is not a final order, and cannot be reviewed until the final determination of the cause in the district court. Clark v. Fitch, 32, 511 (49 N. W., 374).

4783. Such supersedeas bond shall be executed on or before twenty (20) days from the time of the order dissolving or modifying such injunction, shall be signed by one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court, and shall be conditioned that the party or parties who obtained such injunction shall pay to the defendant, or defendants, all damages which he or they shall sustain by reason of said injunction, if it be finally decided that such injunction ought not to have been granted.

4784. Such supersedeas bond shall stay the doing of the act or acts sought to be restrained by the suit, and continue such injunction in force until the case is heard and finally determined by the judgment, decree, or final order of the court in term time.

CHAPTER V.—RECEIVERS.

4785 (266). A receiver may be appointed by the supreme court, or the district court, or by the judge of either, in the following cases: First—In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim, or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of any party to the suit, when the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured. Second—In an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage, when the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured, or is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt. Third—After judgment, or decree to carry the same into execution, or to dispose of the property according to the decree or judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal. Fourth—In all cases provided for by special statutes. Fifth—In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of courts of equity.

Appointment discretionary with district judge. Jacobs v. Gibson, 9, 382 (2 N. W., 893).

4786 (267). No receiver shall be appointed except in a suit actually commenced and pending, and after notice to all parties to be affected thereby, of the time and place of the application, the names of the proposed receiver, and of his proposed sureties, and of the proposed sureties of the applicant. Such notice shall state upon what papers the application is based, and be served upon the adverse party, or his solicitor, at least five days before the proposed hearing, and one additional day for every thirty miles of travel from the place of serving the notice to the place where the application is to be made, by the usually traveled route, or shall be published in the same manner as notices of the pendency of suits to non-resident defendants.

Order appointing receiver without notice served on defendant void. Johnson v. Powers, 21, 295 (32 N. W., 62). Requirements of this section do not affect power of court to grant amendments on hearing of application. McCord v. Weil, 29, 682 (46 N. W., 152).

4787 (268). Should the delay occasioned by the giving the notice provided for in the last preceding section be hazardous to the rights of any party, the court or judge may, by order, direct the sheriff of the county in which such action is pending to take temporary possession of the property, and shall appoint an early day for the hearing of the application, and if at such hearing the application is refused, restitution shall be made of the property to the party from whom the same was taken.

4788 (269). Every order appointing a receiver shall require the applicant to give a bond conditioned to pay all damages which the other parties to the suit, or any of them, may sustain by reason of the appointment of a receiver in case it shall be finally decided that the order ought not to have been granted, and shall also require the receiver to give a bond conditioned to faithfully discharge his duties as receiver and obey all orders of the court. The said bonds shall each run to the defendant, and all adverse parties in interest, and be for the use of any party to the suit, and be in a penal sum equal to double the value of the property in question, and be executed by two or more sureties, to be approved by the court or judge making the appointment, and be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court; nor shall the same be considered executed until they are so filed.

4790 (271). Any party to the suit may, upon the hearing of the application, show, by affidavit or otherwise, objections to the proposed sureties, and to the proposed receiver, and what is the value of the property to be taken possession of, and that a receiver ought not to be appointed. He may also nominate a person to be receiver, giving at the same time the names of his proposed sureties. No person shall be appointed receiver who is party, solicitor, counsel, or in any manner interested in the suit.

4791 (272). Every order appointing a receiver shall contain special directions in respect to its powers and duties, and upon application of any party to the suit, after due notice thereof, such further directions may be made in that behalf by the court or judge as may in the further progress of the cause become proper.

4792 (273). Every receiver shall be considered the receiver of any party to the suit, and no others.

4793 (274). Every order appointing a receiver without the notice provided for herein, shall be void, and every such order heretofore made, under which the appointee has not possessed himself of the property in question, shall be suspended until an order shall have been made, and the bonds executed and filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

If order valid on its face, receiver protected for acts done in good faith. Edee v. Strunk, 35, 307 (53 N. W., 70).

4794 (275). When a decree shall be rendered in a suit in which a receiver has been appointed, and such decree shall not finally determine the rights of the parties, any one of them may apply to the court for the possession of the property and proceeds thereof in the receiver's hands. If such application be resisted, the matter may be referred to a master, to take and report to the court the testimony of the parties. And on the coming in of said report, the court shall, by its order, award the possession of the property and the proceeds thereof to the party entitled thereto; and thereupon the receiver shall surrender the property and the proceeds thereof to such party. All orders appointing receivers, giving them further directions and disposing of the property, may be appealed to the supreme court in the same manner as final orders and decrees.

Amended by inserting words "or judge" after "court," 1871, p. 113.

CHAPTER I.—ISSUE.

4796 (277). Issues arise on the pleadings where a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by one party and controverted by the other. They are of two kinds: First—Of law. Second—Of fact.

4797 (278). An issue of fact arises: First—Upon a material allegation in the petition, denied by the answer. Second—Upon a set-off or counter-claim presented in the answer and denied by the reply. Third—Upon material new matter in the answer or reply, which shall be considered as controverted by the opposite party without further pleading.

CHAPTER II.—TRIAL.

ARTICLE I.—TRIAL IN GENERAL.

4798 (279). A trial is a judicial examination of the issues, whether of law or of fact in an action.

Case must be tried on issue made by pleadings. Tootle v. Maben, 21, 620 (33 N. W., 264).

4799 (280). Issues of law must be tried by the court, unless referred as provided in section two hundred and ninety-eight. Issues of fact arising in actions for the recovery of money, or of specific real or personal property, shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury trial is waived, or a reference be ordered as hereinafter provided.

A party to a foreclosure of a mechanic's lien cannot demand a jury. Dohle v. Omaha Foundry, 15, 437 (19 N. W., 644). Court can only pass upon the issues raised by the pleadings. School District v. Randall, 5, 411.

4800 (281). All other issues of fact shall be tried by the court, subject to its power to order any issue or issues to be tried by a jury, or referred as provided in this code [4819].

4801. Actions shall be triable at the first term of the court, after the issues therein, by the times fixed for pleading, are, or should have been made up; and when, by the times fixed for pleading, the issues are or should have been made up during a term, such action shall be triable at that term. When the issues are or should have been made up, either before or during a term of court, but after the period for preparing the trial docket of such term, the clerk shall place such actions on the trial docket of that term.

ARTICLE II.—TRIALS BY JURY.

Subdivision 1.—Formation of the Jury.

4802 (282). The general mode of summoning, impaneling, challenging, and swearing the jury, is not changed by this code.

Subdivision 2.—Conduct of the Trial.

4803 (283). When the jury has been sworn the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the court for special reasons otherwise direct: First—The plaintiff must briefly state his claim, and may briefly state the evidence by which he expects to sustain it. Second—The defendant must then briefly state his defense, and may briefly state the evidence he expects to offer in support of it. Third—The party who would be defeated if no evidence were given on either side, must first produce his evidence; the adverse party will then produce his evidence. Fourth—The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence in their original case. Fifth—When the evidence is concluded, either party may request instructions to the jury on points of law, which shall be given or refused by the court; which instructions shall be reduced to writing, if either party require it. Sixth—The parties may then submit or argue the case to the jury. In the argument, the party required first to produce his evidence shall have the opening and conclusion. If several defendants having separate defenses appear by different counsel, the court shall arrange their relative order. Seventh—The court may again charge the jury after the argument is concluded. [See 1071.]

Argument to jury governed by the order of introducing testimony. Brooks v. Dutcher, 22, 655 (36 N. W., 128). Instructions may be given to the jury at any time before they retire. Billings v. McCoy Brothers, 5, 191. Land-owner, in appeal in right of way cases, entitled to open and close. O. & R. V. R. R. v. Walker, 17, 435 (23 N. W., 348). In a libel, where defendant justifies and pleads no malice, plaintiff has opening and closing. Vifquain v. Finch, 15, 505 (19 N. W., 706). In motion to dissolve attachment the burden is on plaintiff, and he has opening and closing. Olds v. Benedict, 25, 375 (41 N. W., 254). The order of introducing evidence is in the discretion of the trial court. C., K. & N. R. R. v. Hazels, 26, 373 (42 N. W., 93). Where the evidence is not sufficient to make a case the court should so instruct. Hiatt v. Brooks, 17, 39 (22 N. W., 73). Statements during argument, as to adverse attorney, if not in evidence and likely to prejudice jury, reversible error. M. P. R. Co. v. Metzger, 24, 90 (38 N. W., 27).

4804 (284). Whenever, in the opinion of the court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order them to be conducted in a body, under the charge of an officer, to the place, which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

4805 (285). When the case is finally submitted to the jury they may decide in court or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they must be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict, or are discharged by the court, subject to the discretion of the court to permit them to separate temporarily at night, and at their meals. The officer having them under his charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict, unless by order of the court, and he shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

A verdict arrived at by dividing the sum of the amount of recovery named by each juror by 12 is not necessarily void. Village of Ponca v. Crawford, 23, 668 (37 N. W., 609). Burke v. Magee, 27, 157 (42 N. W., 890).

4806 (286). If the jury are permitted to separate either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with or suffer themselves to be addressed by any other person, on the subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express any opinion thereon, until the cause is finally submitted to them.

4807 (287). After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the law arising in the case, they may request the officer to conduct them to the court, where the information upon the point of law shall be given, and the court may give its recollection as to the testimony on the point in dispute, in the presence of or after notice to the parties or their counsel.

Misstatement by the court of material testimony is reversible error. Stephens v. Patterson, 29, 697 (46 N. W., 154).

4808 (288). The jury may be discharged by the court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears that there is no probability of their agreeing.

4809 (289). In all cases where the jury are discharged during the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, it may be tried again immediately or at a future time, as the court may direct.

4810 (290). When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court, their names called by the clerk, and the verdict rendered by the foreman. When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the clerk asking each juror if it is his verdict. If any one answers in the negative, the jury must again be sent out for further deliberation.

Not proper to arrive at verdict by dividing sum of estimates of each juror by whole number of jurors. Village of Ponca v. Crawford, 23, 668 (37 N. W., 609). Burke v. Magee, 27, 157–8 (42 N. W., 890). General verdict must respond to all the issues between the parties. Meredith v. Kennard, 1, 317. When there is testimony that would support a verdict, court not at liberty to disregard such testimony. Grant v. Cropsey, 8, 210. Jury may be allowed to separate after agreeing and sealing up verdict and afterward come into court and report it. Rogers v. Sample, 28, 144 (44 N. W., 86).

4811 (291). The verdict shall be written, signed by the foreman, and read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry made whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagree, the jury must be sent out again; but if no disagreement be expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the verdict is complete, and the jury discharged from the case. If, however, the verdict be defective in form only, the same may, with the assent of the jury before they are discharged, be corrected by the court.

Defective verdict may be amended by the jury or by the court with consent of jury. Davis v. Neligh, 7, 83. Verdict handed to court in absence of parties and court not in session void. Young v. Seymour, 4, 89.

Subdivision 3.— Verdict.

4812 (292). The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce, generally, upon all or any of the issues either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury finds the facts only. It must present the facts as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and they must be so presented as that nothing remains to the court but to draw from them conclusions of law.

A party cannot wait until after verdict and then ask for a special finding. Everson v. Graves, 26, 264 (41 N. W., 994). Refusal of court to submit special findings, not error when a favorable answer would not have defeated the general verdict. First National Bank of North Bend v. Miltonberger, 33, 852 (51 N. W., 232).

4813 (293). In every action for the recovery of money only, or specific real property, the jury, in their discretion, may render a general or special verdict. In all other cases, the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict, in writing, upon all or any of the issues; and in all cases may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. The special verdict or finding must be filed with the clerk and entered on the journal.

It is error for the court to receive and enter up judgment upon a general verdict when special findings are not answered. Doom v. Walker, 15, 339 (18 N. W., 138). Submission of questions for special findings discretionary with trial judge. Floaten v. Ferrell, 24, 353 (38 N. W., 732). Submission properly refused. Neb. & Iowa Ins. Co. v. Christiansen, 29, 581 (45 N. W., 924). See Marx v. Kilpatrick, 25, 119 (41 N. W., 111).

4814 (294). When the special finding of facts is inconsistent with the general verdict, the former controls the latter, and the court may give judgment accordingly.

4815 (295). When by the verdict either party is entitled to recover money of the adverse party, the jury in their verdict must assess the amount of recovery.

Jury must assess amount of recovery. Bowers v. Rice, 19, 578 (27 N. W., 646). Verdict of jury should find amount. Lamb v. Briggs, 22, 144 (34 N. W., 217). Entitled to same respect as verdict of jury. Graham v. Kibble, 9, 187 (2 N. W., 455).

ARTICLE III.—TRIAL BY THE COURT.

4816 (296). The trial by jury may be waived by the parties in actions arising on contract, and with the assent of the court, in other actions, in the following manner: First—By the consent of the party appearing, when the other party fails to appear at the trial by himself or attorney. Second—By written consent in person, or by attorney, filed with the clerk. Third—By oral consent in open court entered on the journal.

4817 (297). Upon the trial of questions of fact by the court, it shall not be necessary for the court to state its finding, except, generally, for the plaintiff or defendant, unless one of the parties request it, with a view of excepting to the decision of the court upon the questions of law involved in the trial; in which case the court shall state in writing the conclusions of fact found, separately from the conclusions of law.

If vague and uncertain, will not support a judgment. Sprick v. Washington Co., 3, 253. When judgment is that "defendants do have and recover judgment in this action against the plaintiffs, and that said defendants recover of and from said plaintiffs their costs," it is not a final judgment. Sprick v. Washington Co., 3, 256. Statute merely requires the court to find the "conclusions of facts separately from the conclusions of law," but does not require it to separate its finding of facts. Haller v. Blaco, 14, 196 (15 N. W., 348). It is error for court to refuse to make findings, and such error cannot be cured by subsequent rulings. Wiley v. Shars, 21, 715 (33 N. W., 418). Justice must make finding of facts. Crossley v. Steele, 13, 220 (13 N. W., 175). Court must make a finding of fact in all cases or judgment not valid. Foster v. Devinney, 28, 421 (44 N. W., 479). Cited, Mills v. Miller, 2, 317.

ARTICLE IV.—TRIAL BY REFEREES.

4818 (298). All or any of the issues in the action, whether of fact or law, or both, may be referred, upon the written consent of the parties, or upon their oral consent in court entered upon the journal.

Purely legal question cannot be referred except by consent of parties. Lamaster v. Scofield & Cowperthwait, 5, 156. Kinkaid v. Hiatt, 24, 578 (39 N. W., 600). A referee appointed to take testimony and report it to the court has no authority to decide upon the admissibility of the evidence offered. Brotherton v. Brotherton, 14, 187 (15 N. W., 347). Cited, Mills v. Miller 3, 95.

4819 (299). When the parties do not consent, the court may, upon the application of either, or of its own motion, direct a reference in either of the following cases: First—Where the trial of an issue of fact shall require the examination of mutual accounts, or where the account is on one side only, and it shall be made to appear to the court that it is necessary that the party on the other side should be examined as a witness to prove the account; in which cases the referees may be directed to hear and report upon the whole issue, or upon any specific question of fact involved therein. Second—Where the taking of an account shall be necessary for the information of the court before judgment, in cases which may be determined by the court, or for carrying a judgment into effect. Third—Where a question of fact, other than upon the pleadings, shall arise upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of an action.

4820 (300). The trial before referees is conducted in the same manner as a trial by the court. They have the same power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses, to administer all necessary oaths in the trial of the case, and to grant adjournments, as the court upon such trial. They must state the facts found and the conclusions of law, separately, and their decision must be given, and may be excepted to and reviewed in like manner. The report of the referees upon the whole issue, stands as the decision of the court, and judgment may be entered thereon in the same manner as if the action had been tried by the court. When the reference is to report the facts, the report has the effect of a special verdict.

Right of referee to proceed with a trial does not extend beyond time at which he is directed to make his report. Robinson v. O'Conner, 12, 406 (11 N. W., 859). Mere failure of referee to file his report in time fixed in the order of reference does not invalidate it. Dietrichs v. L. & N. W. R. R., 13, 43 (13 N. W., 13). A referee has authority, and it is his duty to sign bill of exceptions in cases tried before him. Light v. Kennard, 10, 331 (6 N. W., 372). Exceptions referred to, apply only to the findings of fact or conclusion of law of referee. To obtain a review of the decisions of a referee, motion for new trial is necessary. Light v. Kennard, 11, 130 (7 N. W., 539). Entitled to same force as judgment of the court. Brown v. O'Brien, 4, 199. Special findings of same weight as special verdict. Gillespie v. Brown, 16, 459 (20 N. W., 632). Court should sustain report only when it corresponds to its own view of law and merits of case. Gibson v. Gibson, 24, 412 (39 N. W., 450). District court may set aside findings but decide the case on evidence reported by referee. Such evidence need not be preserved by bill of exceptions. Secs. 298, 301, 303, 307, and 310, cited Gibson v. Gibson, 24, 405 (39 N. W., 450).

Appointment. Mills v. Miller, 3, 93.

4822 (302). A reference as provided in this chapter cannot be ordered by a probate court, except by consent of parties to the reference and referees.

4823 (303). It shall be the duty of the referees to sign any true exceptions taken to any order or decision by them made in the case, and return the same with their report to the court making the reference.

If no exceptions to ruling of referee taken, finding will be conclusive. Hosford v. Stone, 6, 381. Referee has authority to sign bill of exceptions which may contain all evidence, and must do so if necessary to determine questions raised. Such bill is not required to be signed by the judge, and is not subject to provisions of sec. 311 of the civil code for settling bills of exceptions. Turner v. Turner, 12, 162 (10 N. W., 545). This confers ample authority upon a referee to sign a bill of exceptions. State, ex rel. Dunterman, v. Gaslin, 30, 653 (46 N. W., 917). Bill should be signed by referee, but if it is signed by district judge and no objection is made in district court, none will be heard in supreme court. Cattle v. Haddox, 14, 60 (14 N. W., 803). See note to section 4820, referring to Light v. Kennard, 10, 331 (6 N. W., 372). Carlson v. Beckman, 35, 392 (53 N. W., 203).

4824 (304). A judge in vacation, upon the written consent of the parties, may make any order of reference which the court, of which he is a member, could make in term time. In such case, the order of reference shall be made on the written agreement of the parties to refer, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court, with the other papers in the case.

4825 (305). The referees must be sworn or affirmed well and faithully to hear and examine the cause, and to make a just and true report therein according to the best of their understanding. The oath may be administered by any person authorized to take depositions.

4826 (306). The referees shall be allowed such compensation for their services as the court may deem just and proper, which shall be taxed as a part of the costs in the case.

ARTICLE V.—EXCEPTIONS.

4827 (307). [Definition.]—An exception is an objection taken to a decision of the court upon a matter of law.

Must state grounds. Pyle v. Warren, 2, 248. Must be specific and definite. Lynam v. McMillan, 8, 138. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Harris, 8, 141. Each portion claimed to be erroneous must be specifically pointed out and excepted to or will be unavailing. Strader v. White, 2, 360. No exception need be taken to a final judgment. Welton v. Beltezore, 17, 399 (23 N. W., 1). Want of exceptions do not necessarily deprive a prisoner of a right to new trial for errors of the court prejudicial to him. Schlencker v. The State, 9, 303 (2 N. W., 710). See Dodge v. The People, 4, 231; McReedy v. Rogers, 1, 124; Strader v. White, 2, 360; Mills v. Miller, 2, 316).

4828 (308). The party objecting to the decision must except at the time the decision is made, and time may be given to reduce the same to writing as hereinafter provided.

Amended 1877, p. 11. Unavailing unless taken in court below. Thompson v. The People, 4, 526. To be available, exception must be taken at time of committing error. Black v. Winterstein, 6, 226. Clough v. The State, 7, 330. If the court refuses to admit evidence, must offer to prove the facts and take exception. Mordhorst v. Neb. Telephone Co., 28, 610 (44 N. W., 46). Burns v. Fairmont, 28, 866 (45 N. W., 175). Instructions not excepted to at trial will not be considered in supreme court. Holloway v. Schooley, 27, 557 (43 N. W., 346). Exceptions to the rulings of law by referee should be preserved in bill of exceptions taken at the time. Simpson v. Gregg, 5, 237. Errors or irregularities occurring at the trial not subject to review unless exceptions taken. Lowrie v. France, 7, 192. To be available, each specific instruction must be excepted to. Brooks v. Dutcher, 22, 650 (36 N. W., 128). Exception must be so definite that the court can readily understand to what it was intended to apply. Gibson v. Arnold, 5, 187. In trial by referee, when all the facts are not preserved, findings of fact will not be disturbed. Farmer v. Vollentine, 7, 501. Error to read from a deposition of witness and then ask him if he had not so testified; should first submit the deposition to witness. Cropsey v. Averill, 8, 157. Cited, Dunbier v. Day, 12, 602 (12 N. W. 109).

4829 (309). No particular form of exception is required. The exception must be stated, with so much of the evidence as is necessary to explain it, and no more, and the whole as briefly as possible.

Ground of the objection should be stated, together with the ruling of the court, and both preserved by bill of exceptions, or court will not consider them. Michel v. Ware, 3, 235. Objection unavailing unless grounds stated. Wright v. Greenwood, 7, 438. General exception to instructions insufficient. Brooks v. Dutcher, 24, 300 (38 N. W., 780). Where the exception is for the admission of illegal evidence on the trial, the bill of exceptions need contain no more of the testimony than is necessary to explain the exception taken. The effect of the opposite attorneys agreeing to a bill of exceptions discussed. Dietrichs v. L. & N. R. R. Co., 12, 230 (10 N. W., 718). See Monroe v. Elburt, 1, 175.

4830 (310). Where the decision objected to is entered on the record, and the grounds of objection appear in the entry, the exception may be taken by the party causing to be noted, at the end of the decision, that he excepts.

Objections not embodied in bill of exceptions disregarded. Heard v. Dubuque County Bank, 8, 15. When objection to testimony is made reason should be given. Tecumseh Town Site Case, 3, 279. Cited, Morgan v. Larsh, 1, 363; Mills v. Miller, 2, 316.

4831 (311). [Bill of exceptions.]—Where the decision is not entered on the record or the grounds of objection do not sufficiently appear in the entry, the party excepting must reduce his exceptions to writing within fifteen (15) days, or in such time as the court may direct, not exceeding forty (40) days from the adjournment of the court sine die, and submit the same to the adverse party or his attorney of record for examination and amendment if desired. Such draft must contain all the exceptions taken upon which the party relies. Within ten days after such submission the adverse party may propose amendments thereto and shall return said bill with his proposed amendments to the other party, or his attorney of record. The bill and proposed amendments must, within ten days thereafter, be presented by the party seeking the settlement of the bill to the judge who heard or tried the case, upon five (5) days' notice to the adverse party, or his attorney of record, at which time the judge shall settle the bill of exceptions. If no amendments are proposed, or if proposed and allowed, the proposed bill may be presented with the amendments, if any, to the judge for settlement, without notice to the adverse party or his attorney of record. When settled, the bill must be signed by the judge with his certificate to the effect that the same is allowed. In case of the death of the judge or when it is shown by affidavit that the judge is prevented by sickness, or absence from his district, as well as in cases where the parties interested shall agree upon the bill of exceptions (and shall have attached a written stipulation to that effect to the bill), it shall be the duty of the clerk to settle and sign the bill in the same manner as the judge is by this act required to do; and shall thereupon be filed with the papers in the case, and have the same force and effect as though signed by the court. In cases where a party seeking to obtain the allowance of a bill of exceptions has used due diligence in that behalf, but has failed to secure the settlement and allowance of the same as herein required, it shall be competent for the judge who tried the cause, upon due showing of diligence, and not otherwise, to extend the time herein allowed, but not beyond forty days additional to that herein provided, making such specific directions in that behalf as shall seem just to all parties.

Amended 1877, p. 11. Rewritten 1881, p. 202. Where it is sought to present to the supreme court alleged errors occurring at the trial in district court, a bill of exceptions, settled and signed as, required by law, is indispensably necessary, and no other paper, record, or showing can be made to take its place. Edwards v. Kearney, 14, 84 (15 N. W., 329). Stipulation of facts will not take place of bill. Herbinson v. Taylor, 29, 219 (45 N. W., 626). Bill of exceptions is only necessary to bring that into the record which would not otherwise be in it. O'Donohue v. Hendrix, 13, 256 (13 N. W., 215). What the bill must contain: Affidavits used below, Oliver v. Sheeley, 11, 521 (9 N. W., 689); Walker v. Lutz, 14, 275 (15 N. W., 352); Kyle v. Chase, 14, 530 (16 N. W., 821); Tessier v. Crowley, 16, 372 (20 N. W., 264); Donovan v. Sherwin, 16, 129 (20 N. W., 26). Depositions: Kyle v. Chase, 14, 530 (16 N. W., 821); all evidence, Faulkner v. Myers, 6, 417; Simpson v. Gregg, 5, 238; all matters intended for consideration of supreme court, Ray v. Mason, 6, 102. Must not contain matters filed with clerk or entered on his journal. Eaton v. Carruth, 11, 232 (9 N. W., 58). Where illegal testimony is admitted over objection an exception must be taken to make objection available. Dunbar v. Day, 12, 597 (12 N. W., 109). Where there is no bill of exceptions on file presumed that evidence supports findings. State v. Knapp, 8, 437. Where there is no bill of exceptions court can only notice such errors as appear on the face of the records proper. Miller v. Rolph, 8, 439. Applicable to equitable as well as legal actions. Jefferson Co. v. Saxon, 10, 17 (4 N. W., 309). Party has fifteen days in which to reduce exceptions to writing, but court may extend time not to exceed forty days. First National Bank v. Bartlett, 8, 321. The "fifteen days" commence to run from the last day of the term. Judge compelled by mandamus to sign bill of exceptions. State v. Weaver, 11, 166 (8 N. W., 385). The time within which a bill of exceptions must be prepared begins to run from the final adjournment of the term at which the cause was decided. State, ex rel. Cochran, v. Hopewell, 35, 824 (53 N. W., 990); distinguishing Bickel v. Dutcher, 35, 761 (53 N. W., 663), where the contrary rule is applied to appeal cases. Supreme court will not review grounds on which trial judge extends time from forty to eighty days. Greenwood v. Cobbey, 24, 653 (39 N. W., 833). If no showing appears presumption is that bill of exceptions was signed within time provided by law. Nyce v. Shaffer, 20, 508 (30 N. W., 943).

Where forty days are allowed for presenting bill, if it is signed by the judge in twenty days thereafter, it is good. Sherwin v. O'Connor, 23, 222 (36 N. W., 491). No notice of an application for an order extending time for preparing and serving bill is necessary. When such order is granted it should be filed with the clerk of the district court. When no amendments are proposed, no notice of its presentation for allowance by the judge is necessary. Bill must be filed in the district clerk's office. First National Bank of Denver v. Lowrey, 36, — (54 N. W., 568). Time within which bill may be allowed not extended by delay of trial judge in ruling on motion for new trial. Failure of adverse party to return bill in ten days not a waiver of the default. City of Seward v. Klenk, 27, 616 (43 N. W., 407). Bill mislaid by mistake, time of loss deducted from whole time between rendition of judgment and the filing in supreme court. Allis v. Newman, 29, 209 (45 N. W., 621). Where the record fails to show an extension of time, judge has no authority, after fifteen days allowed for serving the bill, to sign it on the ground that an attorney in the case is under a wrong impression as to his rights. Greenwood v. Craig, 27, 672 (43 N. W., 427). Where no extension has been granted, judge cannot sign bill of exceptions after the first time granted has expired. Gray v. Elbling, 35, 280 (53 N. W., 68). A district judge has authority to extend the time where forty days was given before the adjournment of the term, upon a proper showing of diligence; and notice thereof need not be given to the adverse party. McDonald v. McAllister, 32, 516 (49 N. W., 377). Statutory time to present bill is allowed after the filing of a remittitur. Dodge v. Runels, 20, 33 (28 N. W., 849). Where an attorney of record to whom a bill of exceptions is presented proposes amendments thereto without objection, he cannot afterwards be heard to complain that it was not presented to him within the statutory time. O. & N. N. R. R. Co. v. Redick, 14, 56 (14 N. W., 665). Where attorneys for the adverse party, when called on to propose amendments, certify on bill which purports to contain the testimony that they have no amendments to propose, the court will presume that the bill contains all the testimony. Cattle v. Haddox, 14, 60 (14 N. W., 803). It is the duty of the adverse party, upon receiving a bill of exceptions, to propose amendments thereto, and return such bill in the time limited by statute. Deck v. Smith, 12, 207 (10 N. W., 705). If he fails to do so, and on that account bill was not settled in time allowed by statute, the bill will not be quashed on his motion. Id. And see Fitzgerald v. Hollingsworth, 13, 199 (13 N. W., 209). Where bill of exceptions is retained by trial judge until after time for appeal has passed, appellant is not deprived of his appeal. Parker v. Kuhn, 19, 395 (27 N. W., 399). Judge may be compelled to sign bill by mandamus, if presented in time. State v. Gaslin, 25, 74 (40 N. W., 601). Bill not served upon adverse party within the time allowed, judge has no power to sign. Birdsall v. Carter, 16, 422 (20 N. W., 287). One judge may hear and pass upon a motion for a new trial in a suit tried before another, and may extend the time for preparation of the bill in a proper case. A bill of exceptions should be allowed, though presented after the proper time, if returned by the adverse party without proposing amendments or making objections. State, ex rel. Downing, v. Gaslin, 32, 295 (49 N. W., 353). May be allowed and signed by judge after he goes out of office. State v. Barnes, 16, 37 (19 N. W., 701). When bill of exceptions not filed within eighty days, the fault being with the reporter, held, should be signed. Richards v. The State, 22, 146 (34 N. W., 346). Where trial had, and verdict, bill of exceptions must be presented within forty days from close of the term, though hearing on motion for new trial is continued to next term. Donovan v. Sherwin, 16, 129 (20 N. W., 26). Where the parties interested agree upon a bill of exceptions by written stipulation attached thereto, the clerk of the court can settle and allow it, independently whether the judge is either disqualified or unable to do so. Great Western Mfg. Co. v. Hunter, 14, 452 (16 N. W., 474). Signed by clerk. Shaffroneck v. Martin, 9, 39 (2 N. W., 343). Though agreed to by attorneys, if not signed by judge or clerk, will be stricken from the files. Credit Foncier of America v. Rogers, 8, 36. Leighton & Brown v. Stuart, 8, 97. McCathron v. McCathron, 15, 145 (17 N. W., 265). Provisions do not apply to justices of the peace. Leach v. Sutphen, 11, 528 (10 N. W., 409). Exceptions to opinion of probate judge upon questions of law arising during the trial of a case cannot be reviewed by petition in error unless trial had by jury. Kellogg v. Huntington, 4, 96. Cited, Taylor v. Tilden & McFarland, 3, 339. A motion to strike bill of exceptions from the file for the reason that said bill was allowed and filed in vacation not good; correct practice is to raise question by motion to quash. Code of 1866. Mewis v. Johnson Harvester Co., 5, 218. Motion to quash bill of exceptions for the reason that decree was not rendered until five months after trial, held, that the trial term continued until a decision was rendered. Wineland v. Cochran, 8, 529. Where there are several defendants, service on the attorney of one within the time fixed will usually be sufficient. Crane Bros. Mfg. Co. v. Keck, 35, 683 (53 N. W., 606). Fitzgerald v. Brandt, 36, — (54 N. W., 992). After case is submitted it is too late to object that the bill of exceptions had not been presented to the adverse party. Atkins v. Atkins, 13, 272 (13 N. W., 285). Motion to quash bill of exceptions will not be entertained after case is submitted. Deitrichs v. L. & N. W. R. R., 13, 501 (14 N. W., 528). Unless a bill of exceptions is authenticated as required by law, the supreme court cannot consider it. Edwards v. Kearney, 13, 502 (14 N. W., 536). Objections in supreme court to bill of exceptions must be made in a reasonable time and come too late after printing of the briefs. Yates v. Kinney, 23, 650 (37 N. W., 590). Superior court cannot correct, but will remand where errors are shown. Hoagland v. Van Etten, 27, 706 (43 N. W., 422). Bill of exceptions of cause tried in the district court must be filed in that court; and if the original bill is read in the supreme court, the district clerk's certificate that it is the original bill must be attached to it. Aultman v. Patterson, 14, 57 (14 N. W., 804). If not allowed or certified to may be stricken from files of supreme court. Holloway v. Schooley, 27, 556-7 (43 N. W., 346). This does not govern the settlement of exceptions in cases tried before a referee. State, ex rel. Dunterman, v. Gaslin, 30, 653 (46 N. W., 917). Cited, Horbach v. Miller, 4, 43; Midland Pacific R. R. Co. v. McCartney, 1, 404; Mills v. Miller, 2, 317; Wells, Fargo & Co. v. Preston, 3, 446.

4832. This act shall apply to all cases hereafter decided as well as all that have been already adjudicated by final order or judgment; and that the provisions of this act shall apply to actions in equity sought to be appealed to the supreme court, under the act of March 3, 1873, entitled "An act to provide for appeals in actions in equity."

4833 (312). No exception shall be regarded, unless it is material, and prejudicial to the substantial rights of the party excepting.

4834 (313). Exceptions taken to the decision of any court of record may, by leave of such court, be withdrawn from the files by the party taking the same, at any time before proceedings in error are commenced, and before the exceptions are recorded.

ARTICLE VI.—NEW TRIAL.

4835 (314). A new trial is a re-examination in the same court of an issue of fact after a verdict by a jury, report of a referee, or a decision by the court. The former verdict, report, or decision shall be vacated, and a new trial granted on the application of the party aggrieved, for any of the following causes affecting materially the substantial rights of such party: First—Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, referee, or prevailing party, or any order of the court or referee, or abuse of discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial. Second—Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party. Third—Accident or surprise, which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against. Fourth—Excessive damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice. Fifth—Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property. Sixth—That the verdict, report or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law. Seventh—Newly discovered evidence, material for the party applying, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial. Eighth—Error of law occurring at the trial, and excepted to by the party making the application.

Motion for, necessary in order to obtain review. Simpson v. Gregg, 5, 238. Hull v. Miller, 6, 129. Miller v. Antelope County, 35, 237 (52 N. W., 1116). Likewise in an equity case. Obernalte v. Edgar, 28, 72 (44 N. W., 82). But not necessary when court had only ruled on motion or demurrer to a pleading. O'Donohue v. Hendrix, 13, 256 (13 N. W., 215). Motion addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court. Sang v. Beers, 20, 372 (30 N. W., 258). But such discretion must not be abused. Johnson v. Dinsmore, 11, 394 (9 N. W., 558). Motion must contain all the errors complained of. Midland Pacific R. Co. v. McCartney, 1, 398. Mills v. Miller, 2, 317. Wells, Fargo & Co. v. Preston, 3, 446. Errors must be specifically presented in motion, in order to be assigned in supreme court. Hosford v. Stone, 6, 380. McCormick v. Keith, 8, 143. Dorrington v. Meyer, 8, 213. Uhl v. Robison, 8, 276. Tomer v. Densmore, 8, 388. Shaffer v. Maddox, 9, 211 (2 N. W., 464). McCormick v. Drummit, 9, 386 (2 N. W., 729). Spencer v. Thistle, 13, 228 (13 N. W., 214). Manning v. Cunningham, 21, 290 (31 N. W., 933). Sherwin v. O'Connor, 24, 605 (39 N. W., 620). Dunham v. Courtnay, 24, 629 (39 N. W., 784). An assignment in the language of subdivision VIII is sufficient to present for review a ruling of the court upon a demurrer ore tenus interposed before the introduction of evidence. Riverside Coal Co. v. Holmes, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 256). Labaree v. Klosterman, 33, 150 (49 N. W., 1102). General assignment insufficient. Brunswick v. McClay, 7, 138. Russell v. Rosenbaum, 24, 772 (40 N. W., 287). Grounds: (1) Admission of immaterial and irrelevant testimony over defendant's objection. Midland Pacific R. R. Co. v. Williamson, 1, 406. Midland Pacific R. R. Co. v. Newman, 1, 408. Simpson v. Armstrong, 20, 513 (30 N. W., 941). Dunbier v. Day, 12, 597 (12 N. W., 109). Disregard by jury of material testimony which, if considered, would have required a different verdict. Dunbier v.

Day, 12, 597 (12 N. W., 109). Disregard by jury of instructions. Meyer v. Midland Pacific R. R. Co., 2, 342. Aultman v. Reams, 9, 490 (4 N. W., 81). (2) Misconduct of attorney of prevailing party. Bullis v. Drake, 20, 172 (29 N. W., 292). No ground for, that juror was asleep and court's attention was not called to it. Scott v. Waldeck, 12, 5 (10 N. W., 413). Not granted on charge that juror conversed with outsider during trial, if denied by such juror and not sustained by trial court. Everton v. Esgate, 24, 235 (38 N. W., 794). (3) Unavoidable accident. Dobson v. Dobson, 7, 299. (4) Verdict clearly against weight of evidence. Fried v. Remington, 5, 527. Spurgeon v. Clemmens, 6, 309. Matthewson v. Burr, 6, 315. Fisk v. The State, 9, 66 (2 N. W., 381). Holland v. Griffith, 13, 475 (14 N. W., 387). But it must be clearly so. Midland Pacific R. R. Co. v. McCartney, 1, 404. Midland Pacific R. R. Co. v. Williamson, 1, 406. Cook v. Powell, 7, 284. McCann v. McDonald & Co., 7, 309. A. & N. R. R. Co. v. Jones, 9, 71 (2 N. W., 363). Marshall v. Roe, 20, 310 (30 N. W., 59). (5) Balanced or conflicting evidence is not sufficient. Callahan v. Callahan, 7, 42. Lea v. McLennan. 7, 146. (6) Nor mere difference of opinion between court and jury. Caw v. The People, 3, 357. High v. Merchants Bank, 6, 157. Hedman v. Anderson, 6, 401. McCune v. Thomas, 6, 489. Kruger v. Harvester Co., 9, 534. (7) Merely cumulative evidence insufficient. Scofield v. Brown, 7, 224. Livesey v. Festner, 28, 333 (44 N. W., 441). Keiser v. Decker, 29, 95 (45 N. W., 272). A new trial will not be granted in a civil action on the ground of improper admission or rejection of evidence, unless in the opinion of the appellate court some substantial wrong has been thereby occasioned. Daly v. Melendy, 32, 852 (49 N. W., 926). Affidavit must state what particular effort has been made to procure testimony. Tomer v. Densmore, 8, 389. Goracke v. Hintz, 13, 397 (14 N. W., 379). And it must clearly appear that such evidence could not be obtained at the first trial. Heady v. Fishburn, 3, 266. New trial will not be granted for newly discovered evidence which merely tends to discredit opposite witnesses. Ogden v. The State, 13, 438 (14 N. W., 165). The rule is that if, with the newly discovered evidence before them, the jury would not have come to the same conclusion, a new trial will be granted. Ogden v. The State, 13, 438 (14 N. W., 165). Evidence taken on hearing of petition for new trial in action for personal injury which merely tends to show that injury was committed in somewhat different manner than that testified to, is insufficient. Newly discovered evidence, as well as that given at the trial, should be set out in a bill of exceptions. O., N. & B. H. R. R. Co. v. O'Donnell, 24, 758–9 (40 N. W., 298). Referee cannot grant motions for new trial. Murray v. School District, 11, 439 (9 N. W., 573). Party appealing to supreme court is estopped from assailing judgment on the ground of irregularity in entering. Irwin et al. v. Nuckolls et al., 3, 443. Must fully present his case to the court below and obtain ruling thereon before entitled to review in supreme court. Gibson v. Arnold, 5, 187. To entitle a litigant to new trial there must be a final judgment in the court below. In case cited entry mere recital. Miller v. B. & M. R. R. Co., 7, 228. Affidavit for, on account of lost deposition must set out testimony contained therein. Alleged violation of agreement to postpone trial, denied by prevailing party, not ground for. Felton v. Moffett, 29, 585 (45 N. W., 930). Neglect of attorneys—as ground for. Bernstien v. Brown, 23, 64 (36 N. W., 369). Not granted unless it appear reasonably certain that wrong has been done. Brown v. Hurst, 3, 356. Not granted on evidence superinduced by extra-judicial statements of trial judge not in harmony with record. Brooks v. Dutcher, 24, 300 (38 N. W., 780). See Horn v. Queen. 4, 114; Horacek v. Keebler, 5, 358; Garrison v. Aultman & Co., 20, 314 (30 N. W., 61); Wright v. The State, 21, 500 (32 N. W., 576); Keens v. Gaslin, 24, 314 (38 N. W., 797); McDonald v. Early, 24, 818 (40 N. W., 410).

Cited, Shoff v. Wells, 1, 169.

4837 (316). The application for a new trial must be made at the term the verdict, report, or decision is rendered, and, except for the cause of newly discovered evidence, material for the party applying, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial, shall be within three days after the verdict or decision was rendered, unless unavoidably prevented.

No limit as to time within which ruling must be made. Affidavits in support of motion may be filed at any time before submission, though the three days have expired. Harris v. The State, 24, 807 (40 N. W., 317). Where motion is made more than three days after verdict, or by amendment to motion previously filed, question raised should not be considered. Aultman, Miller & Co. v. Leahy, 24, 286 (38 N. W., 740). Fox v. Meacham, 6, 535. The court is powerless to extend the time for filing a motion. McDonald v. McAllister, 32, 518 (49 N. W., 377). Failure to except to overruling of motion will not justify supreme court in dismissing case. Burke v. Pepper. 29, 320 (45 N. W., 466). "Unavoidably prevented," does not include mere neglect. Roggencamp v. Dobbs, 15, 622 (20 N. W., 100). Cited, City of Lincoln v. Beckman, 23, 679 (37 N. W., 593). (See also sec. 6719.)

4838 (317). The application must be by motion upon written grounds, filed at the time of making the motion. It shall be sufficient, however, in assigning the grounds of the motion to assign the same in the language of the statute and without further or other particularity. The causes enumerated in subdivisions 2, 3, and 7 of section 314, must be sustained by affidavits showing their truth, and may be controverted by affidavits.

* to * inserted 1881, p. 201. Motion for new trial must be made and ruled on in all cases of the trial of issues of fact to obtain a review in the supreme court. Lichty v. Clark, 10, 475 (6 N. W., 760). Oral motion or written one not specifying grounds therefor not sufficient. Phœnix Ins. Co. v. Readinger, 28, 587 (44 N. W., 864). Motion must contain all the grounds defendant claims relief upon. Yates v. Kinney, 25, 122 (41 N. W., 128). Instructions must be specially excepted to. Cleveland Paper Co. v. Banks, 15, 23 (16 N. W., 833). Where there are two defendants and one of them desires to raise a question peculiar to himself he should make a separate motion and not join with his co-defendant. Wiggenhorn v. Kountz, 23, 691 (37 N. W., 603). Motion for new trial not necessary when error is taken from justice of the peace. Newlove v. Woodward, 9, 504 (4 N. W., 237). Motion for new trial unnecessary in cases brought to district court from justice, where no retrial of issues of fact is to be had. Leach v. Sutphen, 11, 527 (10 N. W., 409). "Errors of law occurring at the trial" is sufficient assignment. Labaree v. Klosterman, 33, 150 (49 N. W., 1102). Cited, Riverside Coal Co. v. Holmes, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 256).

4839 (318). Where the grounds for a new trial could not with reasonable diligence, have been discovered before, but are discovered after the term at which the verdict, report of referee or decision was rendered or made, the application may be made by petition, filed as in other cases; on which a summons shall issue, be returnable and served, or publication made, as prescribed in section seventy-nine. The facts stated in the petition shall be considered as denied without answer, and if the service shall be complete in vacation, the case shall be heard and summarily decided at the ensuing term. The case shall be placed on the trial docket, and the witnesses shall be examined in open court, or their depositions taken as in other cases, but no such petition shall be filed more than one year after the final judgment was rendered.

Petition should show why facts not discovered sooner. B. & M. R. R. v. Dobson, 17, 450 (23 N. W., 353, 511). Only applicable to causes named in section 4835. Thompson v. Sharp, 17, 69 (22 N. W., 78). Neglect of attorney not sufficient. Roggencamp v. Dobbs, 15, 621 (20 N. W., 100). New trial will not be granted after stay of execution taken. Banks v. Hitchcock, 20, 315 (30 N. W., 56). See Smith v. Groves, 24, 545 (39 N. W., 597). Cited, Johnson v. Parrotte, 34, 29 (51 N. W., 290).

ARTICLE VII.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

4840 (319). Whenever damages are recoverable, the plaintiff may claim and recover any rate of damages to which he may be entitled for the cause of action established.

Measure of damages in action in nature of trespass de bonis asportatis. Hamilton v. Law, 24, 65 (37 N. W., 688). Damages for failure to ship goods will not be sustained. French v. Ramge, 2, 260. Where a contract to place machinery in a mill by a certain day, and the mill is not ready at that day, damages will not be allowed for failure to place machinery at time specified. Holmes v. Boydston, 1, 355. Measure of damages is worth, not cost. Rule is difference between the value of machinery furnished and what it would cost to replace the same with such as was demanded by the contract. Holmes v. Boydston, 1, 356. Cited, Goodrich v. McClary, 3, 130.

4841 (320). The provisions of this title respecting trials by jury, apply, so far as they are in their nature applicable, to trials by the court.

ARTICLE VIII.—TIME OF TRIAL.

4842 (321). The clerk of the district court shall keep at least eight books, to be called the appearance docket, the trial docket, the journal, the complete record, the execution docket, * the fee book, the general index, and the judgment record.

All after * added 1873, G. S., p. 579. The fee book of the clerk is a public record, open to the inspection of all interested. State, ex rel. Griggs, v. Meeker, 19, 106 (26 N. W., 620). Where transcript of judgment from county court is filed in district court, it is notice to purchasers of real estate if not placed on general index. Hamilton v. Whitney, Clark & Co., 19, 303 (27 N. W., 125).

4843 (322). On the appearance docket, he shall enter all actions in the order in which they were brought, the date of the summons, the time of the return thereof by the officer, and his return thereon, the time of filing the petition, and all subsequent pleadings. * On the general index he shall enter the names of the parties to every suit, both direct and inverse, with the page and book where all proceedings in such action may be found. The judgment record shall contain the judgment debtor and the judgment creditor, arranged alphabetically, the date of the judgment, the amount of the same, and the amount of costs, with the page and book where the same may be found. Transcripts of judgments from justices of the peace, or courts of probate, filed in the district court, shall be entered upon said judgment record; and whenever any judgment is paid off and discharged, the clerk shall enter such fact upon the judgment record in a column provided for that purpose.

All after * added 1873, G. S., p. 579. Index a part of record. Metz v. The State Bank of Brownville, 7, 171.

4844 (323). The trial docket shall be made out by the clerk of the court at least twelve days before the first day of each term of the court; and the actions shall be set for particular days in the order in which the issues were made up, whether of law or of fact, and so arranged that the cases set for each day shall be tried as nearly as may be on that day. For the purpose of arranging said docket, an issue shall be considered as made up when either party is in default of a pleading. * If the defendant fails to answer or demur, the cause for the purpose of this section shall be deemed to be at issue upon questions of fact, but in every such case the plaintiff may move for and take such judgment as he is entitled to, on the defendant's default, on or after the day on which said action shall be set for trial. No witnesses shall be subpœnaed in any case while the cause stands upon issue of law; and whenever the court shall regard the demurrer in any case as frivolous, and put in for delay only, no leave to answer or reply shall be given, unless upon payment of all costs then accrued in the action; Provided, That when the number of actions to be docketed shall exceed three hundred, the judge or judges of the district court for the county may by rule or order classify them in such manner as they may deem expedient, and cause them to be placed according to such classification upon different dockets; and the respective dockets may be proceeded with and causes thereon be tried, heard, or otherwise disposed of, concurrently by one or more of the judges; and provision may be made by rule of court that issues of fact shall not be for trial at any term when the number of pending actions shall exceed three hundred, except upon such previous notice of trial as may be prescribed thereby.

* to * and all after third * added 1887, p. 648.

4846 (327). The clerk shall make out a copy of the trial docket and other dockets, if any, for the use of the bar before the first day of the term of court.

* to * added 1887, p. 649.

Sec. 4847 added 1887, p. 649.

4847. The clerk shall make out a copy of the dockets for the use of the bar before the first day of the term of court.

TITLE X.—EVIDENCE.

CHAPTER I.—COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES.

4848 (328). Every human being of sufficient capacity to understand the obligation of an oath, is a competent witness in all cases, civil and criminal, except as otherwise herein declared. The following persons shall be incompetent to testify: First—Persons of unsound mind at the time of their production. Second—Indians and negroes who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them intelligently and truly. Third—Husband and wife, concerning any communication made by one to the other during the marriage, whether called as a witness while that relation subsists or afterward. Fourth—An attorney, concerning any communication made to him by his client in that relation or his advice thereon, without the client's consent in open court or in writing produced in court. Fifth—A clergyman or priest, concerning any confession made to him in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs, without the consent of the person making the confession.

Thoughts and understandings not evidence. Turner v. Althaus, 6, 55. Kittle v. St. John, 7, 74. Opinion of witness not admissible. Frey v. Drahos, 6, 11. Expert witness. Bollman v. Lucas, 22, 802 (36 N. W., 465). Right to cross-examination limited to facts and circumstances stated in direct examination. Burley v. The State, 1, 395; Clough v. The State 7, 340. Question of credibility is for the jury to determine. McCann v. McDonald, 7, 309. Party to an action may be called to testify by his adversary. Dogge v. The State, 21, 277 (31 N. W., 929). Courtnay v. Knox, 31, 657 (48 N. W., 763). An Indian was held incompetent to testify because it was not shown that he had the capacity to understand the obligations of an oath. Priest v. The State, 10, 399 (6 N. W., 468). Communication to be privileged, must be made while the relation of client and attorney exists. Romberg v. Hughes, 18, 582 (26 N. W., 351). The protection of the statute applies to communications made from a party to an attorney in negotiating to employ him; and such communications can only be testified to by the attorney with the party's consent. Nelson v. Becker, 32, 103 (48 N. W., 962).

4849 (329). No person having a direct legal interest in the result of any civil action or proceeding, when the adverse party is the representative of a deceased person, shall be permitted to testify to any transaction or conversation had between the deceased person and the witness, unless the evidence of the deceased person shall have been taken and read in evidence by the adverse party in regard to such transaction or conversation, or unless such representative shall have introduced a witness who shall have testified in regard to such transaction or conversation, in which case the person having such direct legal interest may be examined in regard to the facts testified to by such deceased person or such witness, but shall not be permitted to further testify in regard to such transaction or conversation.

Rewritten 1883, p. 328. "Representative" defined. Holmes v. Wilhite, 3, 150. Where plaintiff by his agent and defendant contracted and the agent died, defendant is not estopped from testifying when sued by plaintiff. Kansas Mfg. Co. v. Wagoner, 25, 442 (41 N. W., 287). Where the defendant, an estate, has shown part of a transaction with the deceased, the plaintiff is entitled to show the whole. American Savings Bank v. Harrington, 34, 598 (52 N. W., 376). Parrish v. McNeil, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 222). As to effect of the introduction of a note in evidence, see Smith v. Gardner, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 246). Party cannot render himself competent to testify by transfering his interest during pendency of action. Magenau & Co. v. Bell, 13, 248 (13 N. W., 277). Cited and applied, Ransom v. Schmela, 13, 78 (12 N. W., 926); Housel v. Cremer, 13, 300 (14 N. W., 399); Martin v. Scott, 12, 46 (10 N. W., 532); Stevenson v. Valentine, 27, 343 (43 N. W., 107); Rakes v. Brown, 34, 304 (51 N. W., 848).

4850 (330). Facts which have heretofore caused the exclusion of testimony may still be shown for the purpose of lessening its credibility.

4851 (331). The husband can in no case be a witness against the wife, nor the wife against the husband, except in a criminal proceeding for a crime committed by the one against the other, but they may in all criminal prosecutions be witnesses for each other.

A wife cannot be compelled to testify in regard to a transaction by which her husband deeded her property which third parties claim is in fraud of their rights. Niland v. Kalish, —, Neb., —, (55 N. W., 295). Papers or letters offered in evidence, it will not be questioned by the court whether they are communications between the husband and wife. Geiger v. The State, 6, 549. Wife is a competent witness when husband charged with adultery. Lord v. State, 17, 529 (23 N. W., 507).

4852 (332). Neither husband nor wife can be examined in any case as to any communication made by the one to the other while married, nor shall they, after the marriage relation ceases, be permitted to reveal, in testimony, any such communication made while the marriage subsisted.

4853 (333). No practicing attorney, counselor, physician, surgeon, minister of the gospel, or priest of any denomination shall be allowed, in giving testimony, to disclose any confidential communication, properly intrusted to him in his professional capacity, and necessary and proper to enable him to discharge the functions of his office according to the usual course of practice or discipline.

See 4848. When attorney's authority is disputed by his client he may in certain cases testify. Brigham v. McDowell, 19, 414 (27 N. W., 384). Construed, Romberg v. Hughes, 18, 582 (26 N. W., 351).

4854 (334). The prohibitions in the preceding sections do not apply to cases where the party in whose favor the respective provisions are enacted, waives the rights thereby conferred.

4856 (336). A witness is not excused from answering a question upon the mere ground that he would be thereby subjected to a civil liability.

4857 (337). But when the matter sought to be elicited would tend to render him criminally liable, or to expose him to public ignominy, he is not compelled to answer, except as provided in the next section.

4858 (338). A witness may be interrogated as to his previous conviction for a felony. But no other proof of such conviction is competent except the record thereof.

It is not proper to ask if he had plead guilty to an offense. Marion v. State, 16, 361 (20 N. W., 289). Record from another state proper evidence of. Long v. State, 23, 38 (36 N. W., 310).

4859 (339). When part of an act, declaration, conversation, or writing is given in evidence by one party, the whole on the same subject may be inquired into by the other; thus, when a letter is read, all other letters on the same subject between the same parties may be given. And when a detached act, declaration, conversation, or writing, is given in evidence, any other act, declaration, or writing which is necessary to make it fully understood, or to explain the same, may also be given in evidence.

4860 (340). When an instrument consists partly of written and partly of printed form, the former controls the latter, where the two are inconsistent.

4861 (341). When the terms of an agreement have been intended in a different sense by the parties to it, that sense is to prevail against either party in which he had reason to suppose the other understood it.

4862 (342). Historical works, books of science or art, and published maps or charts, when made by persons indifferent between the parties, are presumptive evidence of facts of general notoriety or interest.

Standard works on scientific subjects are admissible. Sioux City & P. R. R. Co. v. Finlayson, 16, 588 (20 N. W., 860).

4863 (343). When a subscribing witness is absent from the county in which the action is pending, denies or does not recollect the execution of the instrument to which his name is subscribed as such witness, its execution may be proved by other evidence.

Rewritten 1873; G. S., p. 583. The absence of the attesting witnesses may be established like any other fact. Proof of facts from which a presumption arises that they are absent is sufficient. Buchanan v. Wise, 34, 695 (52 N. W., 163).

4864 (344). Evidence respecting handwriting may be given by comparisons made, by experts or by the jury, with writings of the same person which are proved to be genuine.

See Huff v. Nimms, 11, 364 (9 N. W., 548); Grand Island Banking Co. v. Shoemaker, 31, 124 (47 N. W., 696).

4865 (345). The entries and other writings of a person deceased, made at or near the time of the transaction, and in a position to know the facts therein stated, are presumptive evidence of such facts, when the entry was made against the interest of the person so making it or when made in a professional capacity or in the ordinary course of professional conduct, or when made in the performance of a duty specially enjoined by law.

These rules must be strictly complied with. Gilbert v. Saddlery Co., 26, 212 (42 N. W., 11). When admissible. Campbell v. Holland, 22, 598 (35 N. W., 871). Books of account only admissible in evidence when they contain charges of one party against the other. Van Every v. Fitzgerald, 21, 40 (31 N. W., 264). To be admissible in evidence must contain charges against opposite party, must be original entries and must be verified by the clerk making them. Pollard v. Turner, 22, 368 (35 N. W., 192). Entries made by a clerk and not identified by him not admissible. Holland v. Commercial Bank, 22, 579 (36 N. W., 113). Wife competent witness to prove book of account when husband disqualified under section 4849. Martin v. Scott, 12, 46, 47 (10 N. W., 532).

4867 (347). Every private writing, except a last will and testament, after being acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner prescribed for the proof or acknowledgment of conveyances of real property, may be read in evidence without further proof.

Written contract admissible in evidence under general allegation that party contracted, without indicating how. Hamilton v. Lau, 24, 64 (37 N. W., 688).

4868 (348). The judge of the court is a competent witness for either party and may be sworn upon the trial. But in such a case it is in his discretion to order the trial to be postponed or suspended, and to take place before another judge.

4869 (349). The usual protest by a notary public, without proof of his signature or notarial seal, is evidence of the dishonor and notice of a bill of exchange or promissory note.

CHAPTER II.—MEANS OF PRODUCING WITNESSES.

4871 (351). The subpœna shall be directed to the person therein named, requiring him to attend at a particular time and place, to testify as a witness; and it may contain a clause directing a witness to bring with him any book, writing, or other thing under his control, which he is bound by law to produce as evidence.

4872 (352). When the attendance of a witness before any officer authorized to take depositions is required, the subpœna shall be issued by such officer.

4873 (353). The subpœna shall be served either by reading, or by copy delivered to the witness or left at his usual place of residence; but such copy need not contain the name of any other witness.

4874 (354). A witness shall not be obliged to attend for examination on the trial of a civil action, except in the county of his residence, nor to attend to give his deposition out of the county where he resides, or where he may be when the subpœna is served upon him.

4875 (355). A witness may demand his traveling fees, and fee for one day's attendance, when the subpœna is served upon him, and if the same be not paid, the witness shall not be obliged to obey the subpœna. The fact of such demand and non-payment shall be stated in the return.

4876 (356). Disobedience of a subpœna, or a refusal to be sworn, or to answer as a witness, or to subscribe a deposition, when lawfully ordered, may be punished as a contempt of the court or officer by whom his attendance or testimony is required.

4877 (357). When a witness fails to attend in obedience to a subpœna (except in case of a demand and failure to pay his fees), the court or officer before whom his attendance is required, may issue an attachment to the sheriff, coroner, or constable of the county, commanding him to arrest and bring the person therein named before the court or officer, at a time and place to be fixed in the attachment, to give his testimony, and answer for the contempt. If the attachment be not for immediately bringing the witness before the court or officer, a sum may be fixed in which the witness may give an undertaking with surety for his appearance. Such sum shall be endorsed on the back of the attachment, and if no sum is so fixed and endorsed, it shall be one hundred dollars. If the witness be not personally served, the court may, by a rule, order him to show cause why an attachment should not issue against him.

4878 (358). The punishment for the contempt mentioned in section three hundred and fifty-six, shall be as follows: When the witness fails to attend in obedience to the subpœna (except in case of a demand and failure to pay his fees), the court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars. In other cases, the court or officer may fine the witness in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars nor less than five dollars, or may imprison him in the county jail, there to remain until he shall submit to be sworn, to testify, or to give his deposition. The fine imposed by the court shall be paid into the county treasury, and that imposed by the officer shall be for the use of the party for whom the witness was subpœnaed. The witness shall also be liable to the party injured for any damages occasioned by his failure to attend, or his refusal to be sworn, to testify, or give his deposition.

Power to punish for contempt is inherent in every court having common law jurisdiction. Kregel v. Bartling, 23, 852 (37 N. W., 668).

4879 (359). A witness so imprisoned by an officer before whom his deposition is being taken, may apply to a judge of the supreme court, district court, or probate court, who shall have the power to discharge him if it appear that his imprisonment is illegal.

4880 (360). Every attachment for the arrest, or order of commitment to prison, of a witness by a court or officer, pursuant to this chapter, must be under the seal of the court or officer, if he have an official seal, and must specify particularly the cause of the arrest or commitment; and if the commitment be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the order. Such order of commitment may be directed to the sheriff, coroner, or any constable of the county where such witness resides or may be at the time, and shall be executed by committing him to the jail of such county, and delivering a copy of the order to the jailer.

4881 (361). A person confined in any prison in this state may, by order of any court of record, be required to be produced for oral examination in the county where he is imprisoned; but in all other cases his examination must be by deposition.

4883 (363). A witness shall not be liable to be sued in a county in which he does not reside, by being served with a summons in such county, while going, returning, or attending in obedience to a subpœna.

4884 (364). At the commencement of each day, after the first day, a witness may demand his fees for that day's attendance in obedience to a subpœna, and if the same be not paid he shall not be required to remain.

4885 (365). Before testifying the witness shall be sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. The mode of administering an oath shall be such as is most binding upon the conscience of the witness.

CHAPTER III.—MODE OF TAKING THE TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES.

4886 (366). The testimony of witnesses may be taken in three modes: First—By affidavit. Second—By deposition. Third—By oral examination.

4887 (367). An affidavit is a written declaration under oath, made without notice to the adverse party.

Witness must state facts, not understandings. Lacey v. Central National Bank, Omaha, 4, 183.

4889 (369). An oral examination is an examination in the presence of the jury or tribunal which is to decide the fact or act upon it, the testimony being heard by the jury or tribunal from the lips of the witness.

ARTICLE I.—AFFIDAVIT.

4890 (370). An affidavit may be used to verify a pleading, to prove the service of a summons, notice, or other process, in an action, to obtain a provisional remedy, an examination of a witness, a stay of proceedings, or upon a motion, and in any other case permitted by law.

4891 (371.) An affidavit may be made in and out of this state, before any person authorized to take depositions, and must be authenticated in the same way, except as provided in section one hundred and eighteen.

ARTICLE II.—DEPOSITIONS.

Subdivision 1.—When to be Used.

4892 (372). The deposition of any witness may be used only in the following cases: First—When the witness does not reside in the county where the action or proceeding is pending, or is sent for trial by change of venue, or is absent therefrom. Second—When, from age, infirmity, or imprisonment, the witness is unable to attend the court, or is dead. Third—When the testimony is required upon a motion, or in any other case where the oral examination of the witness is not required.

May be read in evidence after new parties brought in to establish same facts. Holmes v. Boydston, 1, 354. Deposition may be taken by notary in office of attorney interested. Singer Mfg. Co. v. McAllister Bros., 22, 360 (35 N. W., 181). See Sells v. Haggard, 21, 362 (32 N. W., 66).

4893 (373). Either party may commence taking testimony by depositions, at any time after service upon the defendant.

Subdivision 2.—Officers Who May Take Them.

4894 (374). Depositions may be taken in this state before a judge or clerk of the supreme or district court, or before a probate judge, justice of the peace, notary public, mayor, or chief magistrate of any city or town corporate, or before a master commissioner, or any person empowered by a special commission; but depositions taken in this state, to be used therein, must be taken by an officer or person whose authority is derived within the state.

Clerk of court out of state not authorized to take depositions without commission. Starring v. Mason, 4, 368.

4896 (376). The officer before whom depositions are taken must not be a relative or attorney of either party, or otherwise interested in the event of the action or proceeding.

4897 (377). Any court of record of this state, or any judge thereof, is authorized to grant a commission to take depositions within or without the state. The commission must be issued to a person or persons therein named, by the clerk, under the seal of the court granting the same, and depositions under it must be taken upon written interrogatories, unless the parties otherwise agree.

Subdivision 3.—Manner of Taking and Authenticating Them.

4898 (378). Prior to the taking of any deposition, unless taken under a special commission, a written notice specifying the action or proceeding, the name of the court or tribunal in which it is to be used, and the time and place of taking the same, shall be served upon the adverse party, his agent, or attorney of record, or left at his usual place of abode. The notice shall be served so as to allow the adverse party sufficient time by the usual route of travel to attend, and one day for preparation, exclusive of Sundays and the day of service; and the examination may, if so stated in the notice, be adjourned from day to day. *The notice shall also specify the names of the witnesses to be examined. And when the place of taking the depositions shall be out of the state, or more than fifty miles from the place of trial of the action, the adverse party, within forty-eight hours after the service of the notice, may serve upon the party taking the deposition, his agent or attorney of record, written cross-interrogatories to be propounded to any witness, and such last-named party shall cause them to be transmitted to the officer before whom the deposition is taken, who shall propound them to the witness, and they shall be answered subject to objections, as in other cases.

All after * added 1875, p. 37. Notice served on the 24th to take on the 28th, two days' travel from place of service, one Sunday intervening, is one day less than legal time. Cool v. Roche, Hall & Ray, 15, 25 (17 N. W., 119). Sufficiency of notice, see Button v. Berry, 20, 329 (30 N. W., 254).

4899 (379). When the party against whom the deposition is to be read is absent from, or a non-resident of the state, and has no agent or attorney of record therein, he may be notified of the taking of the deposition by publication. The publication must be made three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper printed in the county where the action or proceeding is pending, if there be any printed in such county, and if not, in some newspaper printed in this state, of general circulation in that county. The publication must contain all that is required in a written notice, and may be proved in the manner prescribed in section eighty.

4900 (380). The deposition shall be written in the presence of the officer taking the same, either by the officer, the witness, or some disinterested person, and subscribed by the witness.

4901 (381). The deposition so taken shall be sealed up and endorsed with the title of the cause and the name of the officer taking the same, and by him addressed and transmitted to the clerk of the court where the action or proceeding is pending. It shall remain under seal until opened by the clerk by order of the court, or at the request of a party to the action or proceeding, or his attorney.

4902 (382). Depositions taken pursuant to this article, shall be admitted in evidence on the trial of any civil action or proceeding pending before any justice of the peace, mayor, or other judicial officer of a city, or town corporate, or before any arbitrators or referees, and such deposition shall be sealed up, endorsed with the title of the action or proceeding, the name of the officer taking the same, and addressed and transmitted by such officer to such justice, mayor, or other judicial officer, arbitrators, or referees.

4903 (383). When a deposition has once been taken, it may be read in any stage of the same action or proceeding, or in any other action or proceeding, upon the same matter between the same parties, subject, however, to all such exceptions as may be taken thereto under the provisions of this title.

When adverse party has appeared and cross-examined, he may read such portion of the deposition as he chooses without being compelled to read the whole. Converse v. Meyer, 14, 192 (15 N. W., 340).

4904 (384). Depositions taken pursuant to this title, by any judicial or other officer herein authorized to take depositions, having a seal of office, whether resident in this state or elsewhere, shall be admitted in evidence upon the certificate and signature of such officer, under the seal of the court of which he is an officer, or his official seal, and no other or further act of authentication shall be required. If the officer taking the same have no official seal, the deposition, if not taken in this state, shall be certified and signed by such officer, and shall be further authenticated, either by parol proof adduced in court, or by the official certificate and seal of any secretary or other officer of state keeping the great seal thereof, or of the clerk or prothonotary of any court having a seal, attesting that such judicial or other officer was at the time of taking the same, within the meaning of this chapter, authorized to take the same. But if the deposition be taken within this state by an officer having no seal, or within or without this state under a special commission, it shall be sufficiently authenticated by the official signature of the officer or commissioner taking the same.

Deposition taken before notary public in another state may be read in evidence without further authentication. Martin v. Coppock, 4, 177. Deposition should contain venue. Payne v. Briggs, 8, 78.

4905 (385). The officer taking the deposition shall annex thereto a certificate showing the following facts: First—That the witness was first sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Second—That the deposition was reduced to writing by some proper person (naming him). Third—That the deposition was written and subscribed in the presence of the officer certifying thereto. Fourth—That the deposition was taken at the time and place specified in the notice.

4906 (386). When a deposition is offered to be read in evidence, it must appear to the satisfaction of the court that for any cause specified in section three hundred and seventy-two, the attendance of the witness cannot be procured.

It will be presumed that a non-resident cannot be present. Sells v. Haggard & Co., 21, 362 (32 N. W., 66). But to be available, objection must be made before the deposition is read. Converse v. Meyer, 14, 193 (15 N. W., 340). If the witness is openly within the county at the time of trial and can be produced in court, his deposition cannot be read over the objection of the adverse party. Everett v. Tidball, 34, 803 (52 N. W., 816).

4907 (387). Every deposition intended to be read in evidence on the trial must be filed at least one day before the day of trial.

4908 (388). The following fees shall be allowed for taking depositions in the state, viz: Swearing each witness, five cents; for each subpœna, attachment, or order of commitment, fifty cents; for each hundred words contained in such deposition and certificate, ten cents, and no more; and such officer may retain the same until such fees are paid. Such officer shall also tax the costs of the sheriff or other officer who shall serve the process aforesaid, and fees of the witnesses, and may also, if directed by the persons entitled thereto, retain such depositions until said fees are paid.

Subdivision 4.—Exceptions to Depositions.

4910 (390). No exception other than for incompetency or irrelevancy shall be regarded unless made and filed before the commencement of the trial.

Objections that answer is not responsive cannot be made on reading of deposition. Sioux City & P. R. R. Co. v. Finlayson, 16, 587 (20 N. W., 860). Cited, Dietrichs v. L. & N. W. R. R., 13, 47 (13 N. W., 13).

4911 (391). The court shall, on motion of either party, hear and decide the questions arising on exceptions to depositions before the commencement of the trial.

4912 (392). Errors of the court in its decisions upon exceptions to depositions are waived, unless excepted to.

CHAPTER IV.—ADMISSION, INSPECTION, AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, AND GENERAL PROVISIONS.

4913 (393). Either party may exhibit to the other or his attorney, at any time before the trial, any paper or document material to the action, and request an admission in writing of genuineness. If the adverse party or his attorney fail to give the admission in writing within four days after the request, and if the party exhibiting the paper or document be afterwards put to any cost or expense to prove its genuineness, and the same be finally proved or admitted on the trial, such costs and expenses, to be ascertained at the trial, shall be paid by the party refusing to make the admission, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that there were good reasons for the refusal.

4914 (394). Either party or his attorney may demand of the adverse party an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy of a book, paper or document in his possession or under his control, containing evidence relating to the merits of the action or defense therein. Such demand shall be in writing, specifying the book, paper, or document with sufficient particularity to enable the other party to distinguish it, and if compliance with the demand within four days be refused, the court or judge, on motion and notice to the adverse party, may in their discretion order the adverse party to give the other, within a specified time, an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy of such book, paper, or document; and on failure to comply with such order, the court may exclude the paper or document from being given in evidence, or, if wanted as evidence by the party applying, may direct the jury to presume it to be such as the party by affidavit alleges it to be. This section is not to be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce any book, paper or document when he is examined as a witness.

Demand should be made on adverse party for paper. Secondary evidence not admitted until primary is satisfactorily accounted for. Birdsall et al. v. Carter et al., 5, 520. Court may compel party in possession of books and papers to allow adverse party to inspect and make copies thereof. First National Bank v. Smith, 36, — (54 N. W., 255). Notice to adverse party to produce writings before evidence is given of their contents dispensed with on proof that such party has stated that writings are lost. Barmby v. Plummer, 29, 68-9 (45 N. W., 277). This section does not apply to public records open to the inspection of all. Spellman v. Flynn, 19, 342 (27 N. W., 224).

4915 (395). Either party or his attorney, if required, shall deliver to the other party or his attorney, a copy of any deed, instrument, or other writing whereon the action or defense is founded, or which he intends to offer in evidence at the trial. If the plaintiff or defendant shall refuse to furnish the copy or copies required, the party so refusing shall not be permitted to give in evidence, at the trial, the original, of which a copy has been refused. This section shall not apply to any paper a copy of which is filed with a pleading.

4916 (396). Printed copies in volumes of statutes, code, or other written law, enacted by any other territory or state, or foreign government, purporting or proved to have been published by the authority thereof, or proved to be commonly admitted as evidence of the existing law in the courts or tribunals of such territory, state or government, shall be admitted by the courts and officers of this state on all occasions, as presumptive evidence of such laws. The unwritten or common law of any other territory, state, or foreign government may be proved as facts by parol evidence, and the books of reports of cases adjudged in their courts may also be admitted as presumptive evidence of such law.

4917 (397). If a witness conceal himself, or in any other manner attempt to avoid being personally served with a subpœna, any sheriff or constable having the subpœna may use all necessary and proper means to serve the same, and for that purpose may break into any building or other place where the witness is to be found, having first made known his business and demanded admittance.

4918 (398). In addition to the above remedies, if a party to a suit in his own right, on being duly subpœnaed, fail to appear and give testimony, the other party may, at his option, have a continuance of the cause as in cases of other witnesses, and at the cost of the delinquent.

Either party may subpœna the other. Dogge v. State, 21, 278 (31 N. W., 929).

4919 (399). The supreme or district court may, by rule, require the production of any papers or books which are material to the just determination of any cause pending before it, for the purpose of being inspected and copied by or for the party thus calling for them.

4920 (400). The petition for that purpose must state the facts expected to be proved by such books or papers, and that, as the petitioner believes, such books and papers are under the control of the party against whom the rule is sought, and must show wherein they are material. The rule shall thereupon be granted to produce the book and papers, or show cause to the contrary, if the court deem such rule expedient and proper.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE.

4923 (403). Publications required by law to be made in a newspaper, may be proved by affidavit of any person having knowledge of the fact, specifying the time when and the paper in which the publication was made, but such affidavit must, for the purposes now contemplated, be made within six months after the last day of publication.

Proof of publication of notice may be made by the foreman of newspaper office. Miller v. Le Fevre, 10, 77 (4 N. W., 929).

4924 (404). The posting up or service of any notice or other paper required by law, may be proved by the affidavit of any competent witness, attached to a copy of said notice or paper, and made within six months of the time of such posting up.

4925 (405). Any other fact which is required to be shown by affidavit, and which may be required for future use in any action or other proceeding, may be proved by pursuing the course above indicated, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will admit.

4926 (406). Such proof so made may be perpetuated and preserved for future use by filing the papers above mentioned in the office of the judge of probate, and the original affidavit appended to the notice or paper, if there be one, and if not the affidavit by itself is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein, but does not preclude other modes of proof now held sufficient.

4927 (407). A copy of the field notes of any county surveyor, or a plat made by him, and certified under oath as correct, may be received as evidence to show the shape or dimensions of a tract of land, or any other fact whose ascertainment requires only the exercise of scientific skill or calculation.

EVIDENCE.

4928 (408). Duly certified copies of all records and entries or papers belonging to any public office, or by authority of law filed to be kept therein, shall be evidence in all cases of equal credibility with the original records or papers so filed.

This includes chattel mortgages. Hall v. Aitken, 25, 360 (41 N. W., 192). Proper method of correcting an imperfect record is by making a perfect one authenticated by proper certificates. Haggerty v. Walker, 21, 597 (33 N. W., 244).

4929 (409). Every officer having the custody of a public record or writing is bound to give any person on demand a certified copy thereof, on payment of the legal fees therefor.

4930 (410). The certificate of a public officer that he has made diligent and ineffectual search for a paper in his office is of the same efficacy in all cases as if such officer had personally appeared and sworn to such facts.

4931 (411). The usual duplicate receipt of the receiver of any land office, or, if that be lost or destroyed, or beyond the reach of the party, the certificate of such receiver, that the books of his office show the sale of a tract of land to a certain individual, is proof of title equivalent to a patent against all but the holder of an actual patent.

United States land officer's certificate is such color of title as to start the statute of limitations to running. Carrol v. Patrick, 23, 847 (37 N. W., 671). Such receipt does not establish the legal title in the holder thereof. Langdon v. Sherwood, 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 432. Cited, Kinney v. Degman, 12, 240 (11 N. W., 318); Morton v. Green, 2, 458.

4932 (412). In the cases contemplated in the last three sections, the signature of the officer shall be presumed to be genuine until the contrary is shown.

4933 (413). A judicial record of this state, or of any other federal court of the United States, may be proved by the producing of the original, or by a copy thereof, certified by the clerk or the person having the legal custody thereof, authenticated by his seal of office, if he have one.

4934 (414). That of a sister state may be proved by the attestation of the clerk and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of a judge, chief justice, or presiding magistrate, that the attestation is in due form of law.

Judgment of another state, on judgment note and cognovit, duly transcripted to this state constitutes a cause for action. Nicholas v. Farwell, 24, 180 (38 N. W., 820). Judgment of a sister state court, duly authenticated according to act of congress, is conclusive on merits. Eaton v. Hasty, 6, 428.

4935 (415). The official certificate of a justice of the peace of any of the United States, to any judgment, and the preliminary proceeding before him, supported by the official certificate of the clerk of any court of record within the county in which such justice resides, stating that he is an acting justice of the peace of that county, and that the signature of his certificate is genuine, is sufficient evidence of such proceedings and judgment.

4936 (416). Copies of records and proceedings in the courts of a foreign country may be admitted in evidence, upon being authenticated as follows: First—By the official attestation of the clerk or officer in whose custody such records are legally kept. Second—By the certificate of one of the judges or magistrates of such court, that the person so attesting is the clerk or officer legally entrusted with the custody of such records, and that the signature to his attestation is genuine. Third—By the official certificate of the officer who has the custody of the principal seal of the government under whose authority the court is held, attested by said seal, stating that such court is duly constituted, specifying the general nature of its jurisdiction, and verifying the seal of the court.

4937 (417). Acts of the executive of the United States or of this state or of any state in the Union, or of a foreign government, are proved by the records of the state department of the respective governments, or by public documents purporting to have been printed by order of the legislatures of those governments respectively, or by either branch thereof.

4938 (418). The proceedings of the legislature of this state, or any state of the Union, or of the United States, or of any foreign government, are proved by the journals of those bodies respectively, or of either branch thereof, and either by copies officially certified by the clerk of the house in which the proceedings were had, or by a copy purporting to have been printed by their order.

4939 (419). Printed copies of the statute laws of this state, or of any of the United States, or of congress, or of any foreign government, purporting or proved to have been published under the authority thereof, or proved to be commonly admitted as evidence of the existing laws in the courts of such state or government, shall be admitted in the courts of this state, as presumptive evidence of such law.

4940 (420). The public seal of the state or county affixed to a copy of a written law or other public writing, is also admissible as evidence of such law or writing respectively; the unwritten law of any other state or government may be proved as fact by parol evidence, and also by the books of reports of cases adjudged in their courts.

CHAPTER V.—PROCEEDINGS TO PERPETUATE TESTIMONY.

4941 (421). The testimony of a witness may be perpetuated in the following manner: The applicant shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court a petition, to be verified, in which shall be set forth, specially, the subject-matter relative to which testimony is to be taken, and the names of the persons interested, if known to the applicant; and if not known, such general description as he can give of such persons as heirs, devisees, alienees, or otherwise. The petition shall also state the names of the witnesses to be examined, and the interrogatories to be propounded to each; that the applicant expects to be a party to an action in a court of this state, in which such testimony will, as he believes, be material; and the obstacles preventing the immediate commencement of the action, where the applicant expects to be the plaintiff.

4942 (422). The court, or judge thereof, may forthwith make an order allowing the examination of such witnesses. The order shall prescribe the time and place of the examination, how long the parties interested shall be notified thereof, and the manner in which they shall be notified.

4943 (423). When it appears satisfactorily to the court or judge that the parties interested cannot be personally notified, such court or judge shall appoint a competent attorney to examine the petition and prepare and file cross-interrogatories to those contained therein.

4944 (424). The witnesses shall be examined upon the interrogatories of the applicant, and upon cross-interrogatories, where they are required to be prepared, and no others shall be propounded to them; nor shall any statement be received which is not responsive to some one of them. The attorney filing the cross-interrogatories shall be allowed a reasonable fee therefor, to be taxed in the bill of costs.

4945 (425). Such depositions shall be taken before some one authorized by law to take depositions, or before some one specially authorized by the court or judge, and shall be returned to the clerk's office of the court in which the petition was filed.

4946 (426). The court or judge, if satisfied that the depositions have been properly taken, and as herein required, shall approve the same and order them to be filed; and if a trial be had between the parties named in the petition, or their privies or successors in interest, such depositions, or certified copies thereof, may be given in evidence by either party, where the witnesses are dead, or insane, or where their attendance for oral examination cannot be obtained or required; but such depositions shall be subject to the same objections for irrelevancy and incompetency as may be made to depositions taken pending an action.

TITLE XI.—JUDGMENT.

CHAPTER I.—JUDGMENT IN GENERAL.

4948 (428). [Definition.]—A judgment is a final determination of the rights of the parties in an action.

Must be rendered while the judge is present and the court in session. Horn v. Miller, 20, 100 (29 N. W., 260). Final judgment, what is a. Hall v. Vanier, 7, 398. Sufficiency of entry. Lewis v. Watrus, 7, 479. Judgment and findings must conform to and be supported by allegations of pleadings. Lipp v. Horbach, 12, 371 (11 N. W., 431). "It is considered by the court that said J. B. should have judgment entered and stand as against the said defendant, and that the plaintiff recover of and from the defendant his costs herein, taxed at $——," held, not a final judgment in ejectment. Meglemere v. Bell, 14, 377 (15 N. W., 703). An action can be maintained on a domestic judgment. Eldredge v. Aultman, 35, 884 (53 N. W., 1008). Judgment in county court in following form was held not void: "I hereby render judgment against plaintiff for costs herein; judgment rendered against plaintiff for costs." Marsh v. Snyder, 14, 9 (14 N. W., 804). For form of judgment, see McNamara & Duncan v. Cabon, 21, 590 (33 N. W., 259). Informal judgment, held not void. Black v. Cabon, 24, 248 (38 N. W., 780). Judgment conclusive. Mills v. Paynter, 1, 440. Entry and finding on journal. Nuckolls v. Irwin, 2, 67. Failure of trial court to make finding not fatal. Hansen v. Bergquist, 9, 278 (2 N. W., 858). Setting aside judgment final order. Hansen v. Bergquist, 9, 275 (2 N. W., 858). Test of whether former judgment is a bar to action: will same evidence sustain both actions. Gayer v. Parker, 24, 644 (39 N. W., 845). See Hicklin v. Neb. City National Bank, 8, 467.

4949 (429). Judgment may be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs, and for or against one or more of several defendants; it may determine the ultimate rights of the parties on either side, as between themselves, and it may grant to the defendant any affirmative relief to which he may be entitled. In an action against several defendants, the court may, in its discretion, render judgment against one or more of them, leaving the action to proceed against the others, whenever a several judgment may be proper. The court may also dismiss the petition with costs, in favor of one or more defendants, in case of unreasonable neglect on the part of the plaintiff to serve the summons on other defendants, or to proceed in the cause against the defendant or defendants served.

On the trial of a joint action against the principal and sureties on an official bond the judgment may be against any number of the defendants, as the testimony warrants. But several actions on such bond cannot be maintained. And in such joint action for official negligence, a recovery may be had against the officer alone without proof of the execution of the bond, when the petition states a case against him exclusive of the bond. Ryan v. State Bank, 10, 531 (7 N. W., 276). Evidence sufficient to sustain judgment against one but insufficient as to others who fail to make motion for new trial by themselves alone, judgment will not be disturbed. Hoke v. Halverstadt, 22, 423 (35 N. W., 204). It is not error to dismiss the action as to one of several defendants and proceed as to the others. Morrissey v. Schindler, 18, 677 (26 N. W., 476). Voluntary release of one joint judgment debtor operates as a release of his co-defendant. Lamb v. Gregory, 12, 508 (11 N. W., 755). Justice must make entry in terms provided by law, after which time no further authority. Fox v. Meacham, 6, 533. Final judgment rendered against the property instead of the person not void. Crowell v. Johnson, 2, 155. Cited, Cropsey v. Wiggenhorn, 3, 115; Long & Smith v. Clapp, 15, 423 (19 N. W., 467); Earle v. Burch, 21, 710 (33 N. W., 254).

Sec. 4950. "An act to give affect to the transcripts of judgment in the several district courts." 1869, p. 158. In force February 15.

4950. That the transcript of a judgment in any district court in this state may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in any county, and such transcript shall be a lien on the property of the debtor in any county in which such transcript is filed, in like manner, as in the county where such judgment was rendered, and execution may be issued on judgment obtained by such transcript as on the original judgment; Provided, That such transcript shall at all times be effected and be in the same plight as the original judgment.

A transcript of a justice judgment must be filed in the district court of the county where rendered to become a lien on real estate. It cannot be sent directly to another county. Pemberton v. Pollard, 18, 439 (25 N. W., 582). But judgment of county court can be sent direct to any county in the state. Cabon v. Gruenig, 18, 562 (26 N. W., 253). Payment, though under protest, by one against whom judgment has been rendered by justice of peace to clerk of district court of another county, with whom transcript had been filed, cannot be recovered back. McBride v. Lathrop, 24, 95–6 (38 N. W., 32). Not specific lien on the real property of debtor, but a general lien subject to all prior incumbrances. Metz v. The State Bank of Brownville, 7, 171. Error in name of debtor on judgment index, held not to charge third party with notice. Phillips v. McKaig, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 259).

Sec. 4951. "An act giving effect to judgments and decrees." 1869, p. 70. In force February 12.

4951. When any judgment or decree shall be rendered for a conveyance, release, or acquittance, in any court of this state, and the party or parties against whom the judgment or decree shall be rendered do not comply therewith within the time mentioned in said judgment or decree, such judgment or decree shall have the same operation and effect, and be as available as if the conveyance, release, or acquittance had been executed conformable to such judgment or decree.

The intention of this statute is to transfer the title from a party who fails to convey to the one to whom it ought to be conveyed. Langdon v. Sherwood, 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 430. Cited and construed, Arndt v. Griggs, 10 Sup. Ct. Rep., 558.

Secs. 4952 and 4953. "An act authorizing transcripts of judgments and decrees rendered in the state of Nebraska by the circuit and district courts of the United States to be filed in the counties of said state, and prescribing the conditions under which they may be filed." 1889, p. 377. In force March 28.

4952. That a transcript of any judgment or decree rendered in a circuit or district court of the United States, within the state of Nebraska, may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in any county in this state, and such transcript, when so filed and entered on the judgment record, shall be a lien on the property of the debtor in any county in which such transcript is so filed, in the same manner and under the same conditions only as if such judgment or decree had been rendered by the district court of such county; Provided, That such transcript shall at all times be affected and be in the same plight as the original judgment.

4953. Nothing herein shall be construed to require the docketing of a judgment or a decree of a United States court, or the filing of a transcript thereof in any state office within the same county in this state in which the judgment or decree is rendered, in order that such judgment or decree may be a lien on any property within such county.

4954 (430). An action may be dismissed without prejudice to a future action: First—By the plaintiff, before the final submission of the case to the jury, or to the court, where the trial is by the court. Second—By the court, where the plaintiff fails to appear on the trial. Third—By the court, for want of necessary parties. Fourth—By the court, on the application of some of the defendants, where there are others whom the plaintiff fails to prosecute with diligence. Fifth—By the court, for disobedience by the plaintiff of an order concerning the proceedings in the action. In all other cases, upon the trial of the action, the decision must be upon the merits.

Where plaintiff's evidence tends to support his cause of action court cannot dismiss case without verdict. Dolby v. Tingley, 9, 417 (2 N. W., 866). Smith v. S. C. & P. R. R., 15, 584 (19 N. W., 638). Where an action is dismissed by the court without a hearing upon the merits, the order of dismissal will not bar a future action. Cheney v. Cooper, 14, 418 (16 N. W., 433). Dismissal terminates jurisdiction of court, and is not a final order which can be reviewed on error. Grimes v. Chamberlain, 27, 610–11 (43 N. W., 395). With just provision for costs, cause may be reinstated when dismissed for want of prosecution without notice. Berggren v. Berggren, 24, 764 (40 N. W., 284). Motion to dismiss when plaintiff has rested before sufficiently proving his case, court will not entertain, but will allow party to withdraw rest and proceed with case. Gillette v. Morrison, 9, 401 (2 N. W., 853). Action in replevin cannot be dismissed after delivery of property without prejudice to a future action. Aultman v. Reams, 9, 489 (4 N. W., 81). Action cannot be dismissed by plaintiff after submission and against objection of defendant. State v. Scott, 22, 640 (36 N. W., 121). Stipulation of parties to suit to dismiss held a valid agreement independent of jurisdiction of justice. Wilcox v. Brown, 20, 361 (30 N. W., 264).

SEC. 4955. "An act for the dismissal of certain actions in vacation." 1867, p. 51. In force June 12.

4955. That the party plaintiff, in any case pending in the district or supreme court of the state, shall, when no counter-claim or set-off has been filed by the opposite party, have the right in the vacation of any of said courts to dismiss his said action without prejudice, upon payment of costs, which said dismissal shall be, by the clerk of any of said courts, entered upon the journals and take effect from and after the date thereof.

Such dismissal is final where no set-off or counter-claim has been filed. Harris v. Cronk, 17, 475 (23 N. W., 341). After a cause is submitted to the court, the right of the plaintiff to dismiss without prejudice and without leave of court is at an end. Sharp v. Brown, 34, 410 (51 N. W., 1030).

4956 (431). In any case where a set-off or counter-claim has been presented, the defendant shall have the right of proceeding to the trial of his claim, although the plaintiff may have dismissed the action or failed to appear.

CHAPTER II.—JUDGMENT UPON FAILURE TO ANSWER.

4957 (432). If the taking of an account, or the proof of a fact, or the assessment of damages, be necessary to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a failure to answer, or after a decision of an issue of law, the court may, with the assent of the party not in default, take the account, hear the proof, or assess the damages; or may, with the like assent, refer the same to a referee, master, or commissioner, or may direct the same to be ascertained or assessed by a jury. If a jury be ordered, it shall be on or after the day on which the action is set for trial.

Party is in default when he fails to answer or demur in time limited by law. Hardy v. Miller, 11, 398 (9 N. W., 475). Not in default until after answer day. Rich v. Stretch, 4, 189. Error to enter judgment without taking default. Jones v. Null, 9, 61 (1 N. W., 867). To set aside a default it is necessary for defendant to exhibit such excuse for default as he may be able and to show good defense in whole or part to action. Dorrington v. Meyer, 8, 213. See Sang v. Lee, 20, 675 (31 N. W., 85; Haggerty v. Walker, 21, 598 (33 N. W., 244).

CHAPTER III.—JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION.

4958 (433). Any person indebted or against whom a cause of action exists may personally appear, in a court of competent jurisdiction, and, with the assent of the creditor or person having such cause of action, confess judgment therefor whereupon judgment shall be entered accordingly.

A judgment by confession must have the assent of the creditor, expressed or implied. Flanigan v. Continental Ins. Co., 22, 237 (34 N. W., 367). A judgment confessed by the manager of defendant, a corporation, without showing written authority so to do, is void, and will not support a sale made thereunder. Howell v. Gilt Edge Mfg. Co., 32 Neb., 629 (49 N. W., 704). Cited, Young v. Pritchett, 10, 356 (6 N. W., 414); Grimison v. Russell, 11, 470 (9 N. W., 647).

4959 (434). The debt or cause of action shall be briefly stated in the judgment, or in a writing to be filed as pleadings in other actions.

4961 (436). Every attorney who shall confess judgment in any case, shall, at the time of making such confession, produce the warrant of attorney for making the same to the court before which he makes the confession, and the original or a copy of the warrant shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the judgment shall be entered.

4962 (437). If any person be in custody in a civil action, at the suit of another, no warrant of attorney executed by the person in custody, to confess judgment in favor of the person at whose suit he is in custody, shall be of any force, unless some attorney expressly named by the person in custody be present, and sign the warrant of attorney as a witness.

CHAPTER IV.—MANNER OF GIVING AND ENTERING JUDGMENT.

4963 (438). When a trial by jury has been had, judgment must be rendered by the clerk in conformity to the verdict, unless it is special, or the court order the case to be reserved for future argument or consideration.

4964 (439). Where the verdict is special, or where there has been a special finding on particular questions of fact, or where the court has ordered the case to be reserved, it shall order what judgment shall be entered.

4965 (440). Where, upon the statements in the pleadings, one party is entitled by law to judgment in his favor, judgment shall be so rendered by the court, though a verdict has been found against such party.

Grimison v. Russell, 11, 471 (9 N. W., 647). Where after verdict a party moves for judgment on the pleadings, notwithstanding the verdict which was overruled on which he moved for a new trial which was granted, after which an amended answer was filed and a new trial had. Held that he had waived his right for judgment on the pleadings. Becker v. Simonds, 33, 684 (50 N. W., 1129).

4969 (444). The clerk shall make a complete record of every cause as soon as it is finally determined, unless such record or some part thereof be duly waived.

To constitute a waiver both parties must agree that complete record shall not be made at the term in which final judgment is rendered. Colonial & U. S. Mortgage Co. v. Foutch, 31, 283 (47 N. W., 929).

4970 (445). He shall make up such record in each cause, in the vacation next after the term at which the same was determined, and the presiding judge of such court shall, at its next term thereafter, subscribe the same.

4971 (446). The records shall be made up from the petition, the process, return, the pleadings subsequent thereto, reports, verdicts, orders, judgments, and all material acts and proceedings of the court; but if the items of an account, or the copies of a paper attached to the pleadings, be voluminous, the court may order the record to be made by abbreviating the same, or inserting a pertinent description thereof, or by omitting them entirely. Evidence must not be recorded.

Cited, on question of making complete record where pleadings are lost, Grimison v. Russell, 11, 471 (9 N. W., 647); McDonald v. Penniston, 1, 326; Mills v. Miller, 2, 317; Findley v. Bowers, 9, 76 (2 N. W., 349).

4972 (447). When the judicial acts or other proceedings of any court have not been regularly brought up and recorded by the clerk thereof, such court shall cause the same to be made up and recorded within such time as it may direct. When they are made up, and upon examination found to be correct, the presiding judge of such court shall subscribe the same.

Includes judgments and decrees. Horn v. Miller, 20, 101 (29 N. W., 260).

4973 (448). No complete record shall be made: First—In criminal prosecutions where the indictment has been quashed, or where the prosecuting attorney shall have entered a nolle prosequi on the indictment. Second—In cases where an action has been dismissed without prejudice to a future action. Third—In actions in which, in open court, at the term at which the final order or judgment shall be made, both parties shall declare their agreement that no record shall be made.

4974 (449). In cases where an action has been dismissed without prejudice to a future action, the clerk shall make a complete record of the proceedings, upon being paid for making the same by the party desiring the record to be made.

4975 (450). A complete record shall be made in the case mentioned in section four hundred and thirty-one, unless waived by the parties.

CHAPTER V.—CONVEYANCE BY COMMISSIONERS.

4976 (451). Real property may be conveyed by master commissioners as hereinafter provided: First—When, by an order or judgment in an action or proceeding, a party is ordered to convey such property to another, and who shall neglect or refuse to comply with such order or judgment. Second—When specific real property is required to be sold under an order or judgment of the court.

4977 (452). A sheriff may act as a master commissioner under the second subdivision of the preceding section. Sales made under the same shall conform in all respects to the laws regulating sales of land upon execution.

4978 (453). The deed of a master commissioner shall contain the like recital and shall be executed, acknowledged and recorded, as the deed of a sheriff, of real property sold under execution.

TITLE XII.—CAUSES OF ACTION WHICH SURVIVE, AND ABATEMENT OF ACTIONS.

4979 (454). In addition to the causes of action which survive at common law, causes of action for mesne profits, or for an injury to real or personal estate, or for any deceit or fraud, shall also survive, and the action may be brought, notwithstanding the death of the person entitled or liable to the same.

4980 (455). No action pending in any court shall abate by the death of either or both the parties thereto, except an action for libel, slander, malicious prosecution, assault, or assault and battery, for a nuisance, or against a justice of the peace for misconduct in office; which shall abate by the death of the defendant.

TITLE XIII.—REVIVOR.

CHAPTER I.—REVIVOR OF ACTIONS.

4981 (456). Where there are several plaintiffs or defendants in an action, and one of them dies, or his powers as a personal representative cease, if the right of action survive to or against the remaining parties, the action may proceed, the death of the party, or the cessation of his powers, being stated on the record.

This and following sections apply to actions in justice court as well. Miller v. Curry, 17, 321 (22 N. W., 559). But the remedy under this title is not exclusive, as revivor may be had by supplemental pleading and service of summons under sec. 4578. Rakes v. Brown, 34, 304 (51 N. W., 848).

4982 (457). Where one of several plaintiffs or defendants dies, or his powers as a personal representative cease, if the cause of action do not admit of a survivorship, and the court is of opinion that the merits of the controversy can be properly determined, and the principles applicable to the case fully settled, it may proceed to try the same as between the remaining parties; but the judgment shall not prejudice any who were not parties at the time of the trial.

4983 (458). Where one of the parties to an action dies, or his powers as a personal representative cease, before the judgment, if the right of action survive in favor of or against his representatives or successor, the action may be revived, and proceed in their names.

Bastardy proceedings by mother on her death revived in name of county. Dodge v. Kemnitz, 28, 227 (44 N. W., 184). Cited, Fox v. Abbott, 12, 329 (11 N. W., 303).

4984 (459). The revivor shall be, by a conditional order of the court if made in term, or by judge thereof if made in vacation, that the action be revived in the names of the representatives or successor of the party who died, or whose powers ceased, and proceed in favor of or against them.

Cited, Fox v. Abbott, 12, 329 (11 N. W., 303).

4985 (460). The order may be made on the motion of the adverse party, or of the representatives or successor of the party who died, or whose powers ceased, suggesting his death or the cessation of his powers, which, with the names and capacities of his representatives or successor, shall be stated in the order.

4986 (461). If the order is made by consent of the parties, the action shall forthwith stand revived; and if not made by consent, the order shall be served in the same manner, and returned within the same time, as a summons, upon the party adverse to the one making the motion, and if sufficient cause be not shown against the revivor, the action shall stand revived.

Fox v. Abbott, 12, 330 (11 N. W., 303).

4987 (462). When the plaintiff shall make an affidavit, that the representatives of the defendant, or any of them, in whose name the action may be ordered to be revived, are non-residents of the state, or have left the same to avoid the service of the order, or so conceal themselves that the order cannot be served upon them, or that the names and residence of the heirs or devisees of the person against whom the action may be ordered to be revived, or some of them, are unknown to the affiant, a notice may be published for four consecutive weeks, as provided by section seventy-nine, notifying them to appear on a day therein named, not less than ten days after the publication is complete, and show cause why the action should not be revived against them; and if sufficient cause be not shown to the contrary, the action shall stand revived.

4988 (463). Upon the death of the plaintiff in an action, it may be revived in the names of his representatives, to whom his right has passed. Where his right has passed to his personal representative, the revivor shall be in his name; where it has passed to his heirs or devisees, who could support the action if brought anew, the revivor may be in their names.

4989 (464). Upon the death of a defendant in an action, wherein the right, or any part thereof survives against his personal representative, the revivor shall be against him; and it may also be against the heirs or devisees of the defendant, or both, when the right of action, or any part thereof, survives against them.

4990 (465). Upon the death of a defendant in an action for the recovery of real property only, or which concerns only his rights or claims to such property, the action may be revived against his heirs or devisees, or both, and an order therefor may be forthwith made in the manner directed in the preceding sections of this title.

4991 (466). An order to revive an action against the representatives or successor of a defendant shall not be made without the consent of such representatives or successor, unless in one year from the time it could have been first made.

Actions may also be revived by bill after one year. Hunter v. Leahy, 18, 81 (24 N. W., 680). This limitation does not apply to a proceeding to revive a judgment. Boyd, Administrator, v. Furnas, — Neb., — (55 N.W., 865).

4992 (467). An order to revive an action in the names of the representatives or successor of a plaintiff, may be made forthwith, but shall not be made without the consent of the defendent, after the expiration of one year from the time the order might have been first made; but where the defendant shall also have died, or his powers have ceased in the meantime, the order of revivor on both sides may be made in the period limited in the last section.

4993 (468). When it appears to the court by affidavit that either party to an action has been dead, or, where a party sues or is sued as a personal representative, that his powers have ceased, for a period so long that the action cannot be revived in the names of his representatives or successor, without the consent of both parties, it shall order the action to be stricken from the docket.

CHAPTER II.—REVIVOR AND NEW PARTIES TO JUDGMENT.

4996 (471). When a judgment is recovered against one or more persons jointly indebted upon contract, those who were not originally summoned may be made parties to the judgment by action.

4997 (472). If either or both the parties die after judgment, and before satisfaction thereof, their representatives, real or personal, or both, as the case may require, may be made parties to the same, in the same manner as is prescribed for reviving actions before judgment; and such judgment may be rendered and execution awarded as might or ought to be given or awarded against the representatives real or personal, or both, of such deceased party.

Where a judgment is joint the revivor must be in that form. Fox v. Abbott, 12, 329 (11 N. W., 303).

4998 (473). If a judgment become dormant, it may be revived in the same manner as is prescribed for reviving actions before judgment.

Upon proceedings to revive a dormant judgment no objections will be heard which seek to go behind the original judgment. Wright v. Sweet, 10, 191 (4 N. W., 1043). It seems that the proceedings to revive a judgment should be by affidavit and not by petition. Wright v. Sweet, 10, 191 (4 N. W., 1043). Can be revived at any time in any court. Hunter v. Leahy, 18, 81 (24 N. W., 680). Creighton & Morgan v. Gorum 23, 504 (37 N. W., 76). In proceedings to revive a dormant judgment originally rendered by default, defendant may show that the place of service was not in fact his place of residence; that in fact he had no notice of the pendency of the action. Haynes v. Aultman, Miller & Co., 36, — (54 N. W., 511). Revival of the original judgment continues it with all its incidents from the time of rendition. Eaton v. Hasty, 6, 424. Payment of dormant judgment is voluntary and cannot be recovered back. Gerecke v. Campbell, 24, 309 (38 N. W., 847).

TITLE XIV.—EXECUTIONS.

4999 (474). Executions shall be deemed process of the court, and shall be issued by the clerk and directed to the sheriff of the county. They may be directed to different counties at the same time.

Execution issued without a seal is not void. Seal may be added. Taylor v. Courtnay, 15, 199 (16 N. W., 842). If officer fail to show authority for seizing goods in possession of third party claiming them, such claimant is entitled to a judgment for possession and damages. Schars v. Barnd, 27, 97 (42 N. W., 906).

5000 (475). Executions are of three kinds: First—Against the property of the judgment debtor. Second—Against his person. Third—For the delivery of the possession of real property with damages for withholding the same, and costs.

CHAPTER I.—AGAINST THE PROPERTY OF THE JUDGMENT DEBTOR.

5001 (476). Lands, tenements, goods, and chattels, not exempt by law, shall be subject to the payment of debts, and shall be liable to be taken on execution and sold as hereinafter provided.

5002 (477). The lands and tenements of the debtor within the county where the judgment is entered, shall be bound for the satisfaction thereof, from the first day of the term at which judgment is rendered; but judgments by confession, and judgments rendered at the same term at which the action is commenced, shall bind such lands only from the day on which such judgments are rendered. All other lands, as well as goods and chattels of the debtor, shall be bound from the time they shall be seized in execution.

Lien attaches from the first day of the term at which it was rendered. Filley and Hopkins v. Duncan, 1, 138. Miller v. Finn, 1, 294. Colt v. Dubois, 7, 393. Lien of judgment is subject to all prior liens, either legal or equitable. Unrecorded deed has precedence over simple judgment lien. Mansfield v. Gregory, 11, 297 (9 N. W., 87). Judgment lien attaches to lands subsequently acquired. Does not create a specific lien. Colt v. Dubois, 7, 394. And does not affect bona fide purchasers until levy made. Filley and Hopkins v. Duncan, 1, 137. Judgment in the district court is not a lien upon an equitable interest in land. Nesler v. Neher, 18, 649 (26 N. W., 471). Withnell v. Cortland Wagon Co. (Dist. of Neb.), 25 Fed. Rep., 372. An equity in real estate cannot be sold on an ordinary execution on a law judgment so as to give good title. Dworak v. More, 25, 735 (41 N. W., 777). A judgment lien relates back to the first day of the term, and takes priority over a deed made during the term. Kellerman v. Aultman (Dist. of Neb.), 30 Fed. Rep., 888. Cited, Godman v. Boggs, 12, 16 (10 N. W., 403); Reynolds v. Cobb, 15, 380 (19 N. W., 502); Courtnay v. Parker, 21, 585 (33 N. W., 262).

Secs. 5002*a* and 5002*b*. "An act to enable judgment debtors to dissolve the general lien of judgments pending proceedings of appeal or error." 1893, ch. 42, p. 383. In force August 1.

5002*a*. In all cases wherein the judgment of any court, for payment of money only, which now is, or may hereafter be a general lien on property of the judgment debtor, and the debtor proposes to take proceedings, in error, or by appeal for review of such judgment, he may deposit in the court in which such judgment is rendered the full sum of such judgment, interest and costs, there to abide till termination of such appellate proceedings, and may file bond in such sum as the court or judge thereof may determine with sureties to the approval of the clerk of such court, conditioned to pay interest on the judgment debt and costs to accrue in event the judgment be affirmed. On such payment being made, and such bond filed and approved, the general lien of the judgment shall be dissolved.

5002*b*. If such judgment be affirmed, the money so deposited shall be paid to the judgment creditor, but if such judgment be reversed, the debtor may withdraw such deposit.

Secs. 5003 to 5012. "An act to provide for stay of executions and orders of sale." 1875, p. 49. In force February 23.

5003. Hereafter no stay of execution or order of sale upon any judgment or decree shall be granted for a longer time than nine months from and after the rendition of such judgment or decree.

Stay should be taken within statutory time, but if taken without the time allowed will be good on sufficient consideration. Cameron v. Sandwich Mfg. Co., 6, 446. Principal must join with sureties in bond, else not binding on either. Gregory v. Cameron, 7, 419. By taking stay, party waives all error, and is estopped to attack judgment in any way. Miller v. Hyers, 11, 474 (9 N. W., 645.)

5004. The order of sale on all decrees for the sale of mortgaged premises shall be stayed for the period of nine months from and after the rendition of such decree, whenever the defendant shall, within twenty days after the rendition of such decree, file with the clerk of the court a written request for the same; Provided, That if the defendant make no such request within said twenty days, the order of sale may issue immediately after the expiration thereof.

Taking a stay is an appearance and waives prior defects. Franse v. Armbuster, 28, 470 (44 N. W., 481). Land contract treated as mortgage, and bond not required for a stay. Spencer v. Moyer, 29, 309 (45 N. W., 464). On a judgment foreclosing a mechanic's lien and for sale of building and premises defendant is not entitled to stay of execution and order of sale on mere request without filing a bond with security. Paine v. Putnam, 10, 589 (7 N. W., 336).

5005. On all judgments for the recovery of money only, except those rendered in any court on an appeal or writ of error thereto or against any officer or person or corporation, or the sureties of any of them, for money received in a fiduciary capacity, or for the breach of any official duty, there may be a stay of execution if the defendant therein shall, within twenty days from the rendition of judgment, procure two or more sufficient freehold sureties to enter into a bond, acknowledging themselves security for the defendant for the payment of the judgment, interest, and costs, from the time of rendering judgment until paid, as follows: First—If the sum for which judgment was rendered, exclusive of costs, does not exceed fifty dollars, three months. Second—If the sum for which judgment was rendered, exclusive of costs, exceeds fifty dollars and does not exceed one hundred dollars, six months. Third—If the sum for which judgment was rendered, exclusive of costs, exceeds one hundred dollars, nine months.

Stay bond requires two or more sureties; unless surety waives, one insufficient. Cutler v. Roberts, 7, 14. Stay bond may be amended. State v. Russell, 17, 20, (22 N. W., 455).

5006. Officers approving stay bonds shall require the affidavits of the signers of such bonds that they own real estate not exempt from execution, and aside from incumbrance, to the value of twice the amount of the judgment.

5007. No proceedings in error or appeal shall be allowed after such stay has been taken, nor shall a stay be taken on a judgment entered as herein contemplated, against one who is surety in the stay of execution.

No appeal shall be allowed after a stay of execution. McCreary v. Pratt, 9, 122 (2 N. W., 352). Cited, Sullivan Savings Institution v. Clark, 12, 580 (12 N. W., 103). See note to 5003 citing Miller v. Hyers, 11, 474 (9 N. W., 645). This does not apply to a motion to correct decree made under section 5146. Hoagland v. Way, 35, 390 (53 N. W., 207). Cited and construed, Parker v. Ormsby, 11 Sup. Ct. Rep., 913.

5008. The sureties for the stay of execution may be taken and approved by the clerk, and the bond shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and have the force and effect of a judgment confessed from the date thereof against the property of the sureties, and the clerk shall enter and index the same in the proper judgment docket, as in the case of other judgments.

5009. When the surety is entered after execution issued, the clerk shall immediately notify the sheriff of the stay, and he shall forthwith return the execution, with his doings thereon.

Mandamus will lie to compel court to issue execution against the property of both principal and sureties. State v. Fleming, 21, 323 (32 N. W., 73).

5013 (482). If execution shall not be sued out within five years from the date of any judgment that now is or may hereafter be rendered in any court of record in this state, or if five years shall have intervened between the date of the last execution issued on such judgment and the time of suing out another writ of execution thereon, such judgment shall become dormant, and shall cease to operate as a lien on the estate of the judgment debtor.

Execution issued by clerk district court upon a transcript of a judgment of a justice and by the sheriff levied upon real estate and afterwards, before the sale, returned unsatisfied by order of the creditor in execution, will prevent the judgment becoming dormant. Godman v. Boggs, 12, 17 (10 N. W., 403). A tax cannot be levied to pay a dormant judgment. State v. School District, 25, 303 (41 N. W., 155). Miller v. Finn, 1, 294. Reynolds v. Cobb, 15, 381 (19 N. W., 502).

5014 (483). The writ of execution against the property of the judgment debtor, issuing from any court of record in this state, shall command the officer to whom it is directed that of the goods and chattels of the debtor he cause to be made the money specified in the writ, and for want of goods and chattels he cause the same to be made of the lands and tenements of the debtor; and the exact amount of the debt, damages, and costs for which the judgment is entered shall be endorsed on the execution.

Runge v. Brown, 29, 119 (45 N. W., 271).

5015 (484). When two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be sued out during the term in which judgment was rendered, or within ten days thereafter, and when two or more writs of execution against the same debtor shall be delivered to the officer on the same day, no preference shall be given to either of such writs; but if a sufficient sum of money be not made to satisfy all executions, the amount made shall be distributed to the several creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective demands. In all other cases the writ of execution first delivered to the officer shall be first satisfied. And it shall be the duty of the officer to endorse on every writ of execution the time when he received the same; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to affect any preferable lien which one or more of the judgments on which execution issued may have on the lands of the judgment debtor.

Executions placed in hands of officer on same day prorate. State v. Hunger, 17, 217 (22 N. W., 457). Hour of receipt need not be endorsed on execution from justice or county court. Johnson v. Walker, 23, 743 (37 N. W., 639).

5016 (485). The officer to whom a writ of execution is delivered shall proceed immediately to levy the same upon the goods and chattels of the debtor; but if no goods and chattels can be found, the officer shall endorse on the writ of execution "no goods," and forthwith levy the writ of execution upon the lands and tenements of the debtor, which may be liable to satisfy the judgment.

While personalty must be sold before realty, latter may be levied on before advertisement and sale of former. Runge v. Brown, 29, 119 (45 N. W., 271). Where judgment creditor accepts from his debtor a note due in nine months, secured by a mortgage, and directs constable to refrain from levy, he cannot make a second levy in six weeks. Carper v. Woodford, 24, 137–8 (38 N. W., 39). As to levy and possession of growing crop. Johnson v. Walker, 23, 744 (37 N. W., 639).

5017 (486). If the officer, by virtue of any writ of execution issued from any court of record in this state, shall levy the same on any goods and chattels claimed by any person other than the defendant, it shall be the duty of said officer forthwith to give notice in writing to some justice of the peace in the county, in which shall be set forth the names of the plaintiff and defendant, together with the name of the claimant; and at the same time he shall furnish the said justice of the peace with a schedule of the property claimed. And it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace immediately upon the receipt of such notice and schedule to make an entry of the same upon his docket, and issue a writ of summons, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon five disinterested men having the qualification of electors, who shall be named in said summons, to appear before him, the said justice, at the time and place therein mentioned, which time shall not be more than three days after the date of said writ, to try and determine the right of the claimant to the property in controversy. And it shall be the duty of the claimant to give two days' notice in writing to the plaintiff or other party for whose benefit such execution was issued and levied as aforesaid, his agent or attorney, if within the county, of the time and place of such trial; and he shall, moreover, prove to the satisfaction of said justice that such notice was given, or that the same could not be given by reason of the absence of the party, his agent or attorney.

Sheriff has no right to institute proceedings for trial of property. Storms v. Eaton, 5, 458. For action on undertaking, see Noakes v. Switzer, 12, 160 (10 N. W., 536). See note to section 5469, Civil Code. Cited, Schell v. Husenstine, 15, 12 (16 N. W., 758).

5018 (487). The jury summoned as aforesaid shall be sworn to try and determine the right of the claimant to the property in controversy, and a true verdict to give, according to the evidence. If the jury shall find the right to said goods and chattels, or any part thereof, to be in the claimant, they shall also find the value thereof, and the justice shall render judgment upon such finding of the jury, for the claimant, that he recover his costs against the plaintiff in execution, or other party to the same for whose benefit the execution issued, and also that he have restitution of said goods and chattels, or any part thereof, according to the finding of the jury. But if the right of the said goods and chattels, and every part thereof, shall not be in the claimant according to the finding of said jury, then the said justice shall render judgment on such finding, in favor of the plaintiff in execution, or other party for whose benefit the same was issued and levied, against said claimant for costs, and award execution thereon. Said justice of the peace, in the taxation of costs accruing by reason of such claim and trial, shall allow each juror summoned and sworn the sum of fifty cents; and for the sheriff, constable, or other officer, and witnesses, and for himself, he shall tax such fees as are allowed by law, to each respectively, for like services rendered in other cases. Such judgment for the claimant (unless an undertaking shall be executed, as provided in the next section) shall be a justification of the officer in returning "no goods" to the writ of execution, by virtue of which the levy has been made, as to such part of the goods and chattels as were found to belong to such claimant.

If upon trial the jury find against claimant he cannot maintain replevin, but if it find for claimant, plaintiff in execution may tender bond and allow the sale to go on. Storms v. Eaton, 5, 458. See Bollman v. Pasewalk, 22, 767 (36 N. W., 134).

5019 (488). If the jury shall find the property, or any part thereof, to be in the claimant, and the plaintiff in execution shall at any time within three days after said trial tender to the sheriff or other officer having such property in his custody on execution, an undertaking, with good and sufficient sureties, payable to such claimant, in double the amount of the value of such property as assessed by the jury, to the effect that they will pay all damages sustained by reason of the detention or sale of such property, then the sheriff or other officer shall deliver said undertaking to claimant, and proceed to sell such property, as if no such trial of the right of property had taken place, and shall not be liable to the claimant therefor.

5020 (489). In all cases where a sheriff, coroner, or other officer shall, by virtue of an execution, levy upon any goods and chattels which shall remain upon his hands unsold, for want of bidders, for the want of time to advertise and sell, or any other reasonable cause, the officer may, for his own security, take of the defendant an undertaking with security in such sum as he may deem sufficient, to the effect that the said property shall be delivered to the officer holding an execution for the sale of the same, at the time and place appointed by said officer, either by notice given in writing to said defendant in execution, or by advertisement, published in a newspaper printed in the county, naming therein the day and place of sale. If the defendant shall fail to deliver the goods and chattels at the time and place mentioned in the notice to him given, or to pay to the officer holding the execution, the full value of said goods and chattels, or the amount of said debt and costs, the undertaking given as aforesaid shall be considered as broken and may be proceeded on as in other cases.

5021 (490). The officer who levies upon goods and chattels by virtue of an execution issued by a court of record, before he proceeds to sell the same, shall cause public notice to be given of the time and place of sale, for at least ten days before the day of sale. The notice shall be given by advertisement published in some newspaper printed in the county, or in case no newspaper be printed therein, by putting up advertisements in five public places in the county; two advertisements shall be put up in the precinct where the sale is to be held. And where goods and chattels levied upon cannot be sold for want of bidders, the officer making such return shall annex to the execution a true and perfect inventory of such goods and chattels, and the plaintiff in such execution may thereupon sue out another writ of execution, directing the sale of the property levied upon as aforesaid; but such goods and chattels shall not be sold unless the time and place of sale be advertised as hereinbefore provided.

Sufficiency of notice. Drew v. Kirkham, 8, 482.

Secs. 5023 to 5027. "An act for the more equitable appraisement of real property under judicial sale." 1875, p. 60.

5023. Whenever, hereafter, execution shall be levied on any lands and tenements, the officer levying the same shall call an inquest of two disinterested freeholders, who shall be residents of the county where the lands taken on execution are situated, and administer to them an oath impartially to appraise the interest of the person, or persons, or corporation against whom the execution is levied, in the property so levied upon, and such officer, together with said freeholders, shall appraise said interest at its real value in money, and such appraisement shall be signed by such officer and said freeholders, respectively.

The object of an appraisement is to protect the debtor, and if not fairly made will be set aside Taylor v. Courtnay, 15, 197 (16 N. W., 842). Appraisers called to value real estate levied upon must appraise the property at its value in money, and deduct the liens therefrom, specifically enumerating each lien and the amount due thereon. It is not sufficient to appraise the interest of the debtor therein. Rosenfield v. Chada, 10, 421 (6 N. W., 630). Appraisers act judicially; other officers do not. Amount of mortgage under foreclosure should not be deducted to find the interest of the owner. Drew v. Kirkham, 8, 481. Return of officer must show that the appraisers were residents of the county in which the premises are situated. Each lot shall be appraised separately. Laughlin v. Schuyler, 1, 409. Presumption is that there are no liens. Failure to notice them not prejudicial. La Flume v. Jones, 5, 259. Failure to appraise land does not render deed void. In a sale of single tract lying in two counties, sheriff must call appraisers from county where decree was rendered. State Bank v. Green, 11, 307 (9 N. W., 36). Appraisement not jurisdictional. Neligh v. Keene, 16, 407 (20 N. W., 277). Rights of prior mortagee and others sufficiently protected by this proceeding. Stratton v. Reisdorph, 35, 314 (53 N. W., 136). The provisions of these sections and of sections 4976-7 and 5029 apply to all sales of real estate under the process of the court, whether upon execution or order of sale. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 14, 367 (15 N. W., 711).

5024. That for the purpose of the appraisement mentioned in the last preceding section, the officer and the freeholders therein named shall deduct from the real value of the lands and tenements levied on, the amount of all liens and incumbrances for taxes or otherwise, prior to the lien of the judgment under which execution is levied, and to be determined as hereinafter provided, and which liens and incumbrances shall be specifically enumerated, and the sum thereafter remaining shall be the real value of the interest therein of the person or persons, or corporation against whom or which the execution is levied.

5025. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, the clerk of the district court, and the county treasurer of the county, and the treasurer of the village, town or city wherein such levy is made for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the liens and incumbrances upon the lands and tenements so levied upon, on application of the sheriff in writing holding such execution, to certify to said sheriff under their respective hands and official seals the amount and character of all liens existing against the lands and tenements levied on which are prior to the lien of such levy as the said liens appear of record in their respective offices, for which certificate and the necessary search thereof said officer shall receive a fee of one dollar ($1) each, to be paid by the plaintiff in the execution and taxed as increase costs in the action in which the judgment on which execution was issued was rendered.

Amended 1893, ch. 43, p. 384. In force August 1. Appraisers act judicially. Should find the actual amount due on incumbrances and must specifically enumerate the liens and incumbrances they find against the property. Sessions v. Irwin, 8, 9. Fee for such service should be entered on fee book. State v. Allen, 23, 454 (36 N. W., 756).

5026. The officer holding such appraisement shall forthwith deposit a copy thereof, including his application to the officers enumerated in section three of this act, and their official certificates as in said section provided, in the office of the clerk of the court from which such execution issued, and shall immediately advertise and sell said real estate, lands, and tenements agreeably to the provisions of this act, but in no case shall he sell any such real estate, lands, or tenements for less than two-thirds the appraised value of the interest of the person, persons, or corporation against whom the execution was issued, unless it appear from the appraisement under this act that the liens and incumbrances thereon equal or exceed its real value in money.

No authority to sell until copy of appraisement has been deposited with clerk of court from which execution issued. Jones v. Null, 9, 256 (2 N. W., 350).

5027. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, but shall not apply to executions which shall issue upon judgments already entered.

5028 (494). Nothing contained in this and the preceding sections of this title shall in anywise extend to affect the sale of land by the state, but all lands therein, the property of individuals indebted to the state for any debt or taxes, or in any other manner, shall be sold without valuation, for the discharge of such debt or taxes, agreeably to the laws for such cases made and provided.

5029 (495). In all cases where real estate may hereafter be levied upon, by virtue of any execution or order of sale, and shall have been appraised, and twice advertised and offered for sale, and shall remain unsold for want of bidders, it shall be the duty of the officer to cause a new appraisement of such real estate to be made, and successive executions or orders of sale may issue at any time in vacation, after the return of the officer "not sold for want of bidders," at the request of the plaintiff or his attorney.

Unless appraisement is vacated there is no authority for making a second one until property has been twice offered for sale, but the fact that sale was made in view of such an appraisement would not be sufficient ground for setting it aside, when, in fact, it conformed to a former and valid one. Hubbard v. Draper, 14, 502 (16 N.W., 847).

5930 (496). If the property of any clerk, sheriff, coroner, justice of the peace, constable, or any collector of state, county, town, or township tax, shall be levied on, for or on account of any moneys that now are, or may hereafter be, by them collected or received in their official capacity, the property so levied on shall be sold without valuation.

5031 (497). Lands and tenements, taken in execution, shall not be sold until the officer cause public notice of the time and place of sale to be given for at least thirty days before the day of sale, by advertisement in some newspaper printed in the county, or, in case no newspaper be printed in the county, in some newspaper in general circulation therein, and by putting up an advertisement on the court house door, and in five other public places in the county, two of which shall be in the precinct where such lands and tenements lie. All sales made without such advertisement shall be set aside, on motion, by the court to which the execution is returnable.

Notice must be published for at least thirty days prior to sale. Lawson v. Gibson, 18, 139 (24 N. W., 447). Notice first published March 6, not sufficient to warrant sale made on April 5 following. Miller v. Le Fevre, 10, 78 (4 N. W., 929). Notice published in every issue from March 16 to April 13, good. Carlow v. Aultman, 28, 672 (44 N. W., 873). Where notice of sale has been published in newspaper in county, not necessary to post notices. Parrat v. Neligh, 7, 459. Real estate appraised and advertised before the return day of the writ may be sold after the return day. Wyant v. Tuthill, 17, 496 (23 N. W., 342). Sheriff has no authority to resell lands after sale closed and bidder has refused to pay the amount of his bid. Sheriff should bring action against bidder for the amount of his bid. Jones v. Nnll, 9, 256 (2 N. W., 350). Notice published by a party six months before sale, warning public from purchasing, as title to lands has been fraudulently obtained, not sufficient to vacate sale. Runge v. Brown, 29, 121 (45 N. W., 271). Such notice describing the property as in the mortgage or decree is generally sufficient. Miller v. Lanham, 35, 886 (53 N. W., 1010). Notice not stating amount of decree, not fatal. Stratton v. Reisdorph, 35, 314 (53 N. W., 136). Cited, Helmer v. Rehm, 14, 220 (15 N. W., 344).

Sec. 5032. "An act providing for the redemption of real estate from decree and judgment liens." 1875, p. 57. In force February 25.

5032. The owners of any real estate against which a decree of foreclosure has been rendered in any court of record, or any real estate levied upon to satisfy any judgment or decree of any kind, may redeem the same from the lien of such decree or levy at any time before the sale of the same shall be confirmed by a court of competent jurisdiction, by paying into court the amount of such decree or judgment, together with all interests and costs; and in case the said real estate has been sold to pay any person not a party plaintiff to the suit, the person so redeeming the same shall pay to said purchaser twelve per cent interest on the amount of the purchase price from the date of sale to the date of redemption, or deposit the same with the clerk of the court where the decree or judgment was rendered.

A motion to set aside confirmation must state grounds. Powers and duties of court relative to sales of mortgaged premises. Renard v. Brown, 7, 455. Where party not plaintiff purchases, owner may redeem by paying the purchaser the purchase money with twelve per cent interest thereon from date of sale to date of redemption. Swearingen v. Roberts, 12, 334 (11 N. W., 325).

5033 (498). If the court, upon there turn of any writ of execution, or order of sale for the satisfaction of which any lands and tenements have been sold, shall, after having carefully examined the proceedings of the officer, be satisfied that the sale has in all respects been made in conformity to the provisions of this title, the court shall direct the clerk to make an entry on the journal that the court is satisfied of the legality of such sale, and an order that the officer make to the purchaser a deed of such lands and tenements; and the officer on making such sale may retain the purchase money in his hands until the court shall have examined his proceedings as aforesaid, when he shall pay the same to the person entitled thereto, agreeable to the order of the court; Provided*, That the judge of any district court may confirm any such sale at any time after such officer has made his return, on motion and ten days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney of record, if made in vacation. When any sale is confirmed in vacation, the judge confirming the same shall cause his order to be entered on the journal by the clerk.

Amended and all after * added 1875, p. 38. Court has authority to confirm or set aside sale, but no authority to make conditions. Green v. State Bank, 9, 168 (2 N. W., 228). Order of confirmation cures defects and cannot be attacked collaterally. Phillips v. Dawley, 1, 323. Crowell v. Johnson, 2, 156. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 14, 368 (15 N. W., 711). Wilcox v. Raben, 24, 370 (38 N. W., 844). Confirmation of sale cures irregularities of sale, but does not settle the question of title. Schriber v. Platt, 19, 630 (28 N. W., 289). Sale not final until confirmed by court. Phillips v. Dawley, 1, 321. The title of the purchaser depends entirely on the sale being finally confirmed; until this is done, the rights of the execution debtor are not certainly divested. State Bank v. Green, 10, 134 (4 N. W., 942). All proceedings must be shown to be regular before court will confirm. Lawson v. Gibson, 18, 140 (24 N. W., 447). Confirmation only applies to the regularity of the proceedings, does not cut off equitable grounds of relief. Taylor v. Courtnay, 15, 199 (16 N. W., 842). After confirmation of sale, made fraudulently, equity will set the same aside, especially so when sale is ex parte. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 19, 40 (26 N. W., 614). Judge of district court has authority to confirm sale in vacation. McMurtry v. Tuttle 13, 233 (13 N. W., 213). A purchaser at judicial sale subjects himself to the jurisdiction of the court and may be summarily required to pay his bid. Gregory v. Tingley, 18, 318 (25 N. W., 88). Where it appears that a bidder was deterred from bidding by false representations; sale will be set aside. Aldrich v. Lewis, 28, 502 (44 N. W., 735). Objections to confirmation must be specific, and raised below in order to be considered in supreme court. Runge v. Brown, 29, 119, 121-2 (45 N. W., 271). Ten days' notice to defendant, if confirmation is made in vacation, necessary to a valid sale. Armstrong v. Middlestadt, 22, 716 (36 N. W., 151). Court will not consider legality of mortgage where it does not appear that the sale was not made in conformity to law. State National Bank v. Scofield, 9, 499 (4 N. W., 71). Sheriff's sales on execution are not judicial sales, strictly speaking. Bachle v. Webb, 11, 427 (9 N. W., 473). Sufficient if order refer to officer's return for name of town or city in which the lots sold are located. Wilcox v. Raben, 24, 370 (38 N. W., 844).

5034 (499). The sheriff or other officer, who, upon such writ or writs of execution, shall sell the said lands and tenements, or any part thereof, shall make to the purchaser or purchasers, thereof, as good and sufficient a deed of conveyance of lands and tenements sold as the person or persons against whom such writ or writs of execution were issued could have made of the same, at the time they became liable to the judgment, or at any time thereafter.

Successor to sheriff may make deed, not necessarily his immediate successor. Phillips v. Dawley, 1, 323.

5035 (500). The deed shall be sufficient evidence of the legality of such sale and the proceedings therein until the contrary be proved, and shall vest in the purchaser as good and as perfect an estate in the premises therein mentioned as was vested in the party, at or after the time when such lands and tenements became liable to the satisfaction of the judgment. And such deed of conveyance, to be made by the sheriff or other officer, shall recite the execution or executions, or the substance thereof, and the names of the parties, the amount, and date of term of rendition of each judgment, by virtue whereof the said lands and tenements were sold as aforesaid; and shall be executed, acknowledged, and recorded as is or may be provided by law, to perfect the conveyance of real estate in other cases.

Sale conveys the estate subject to whatever incumbrance there is on it, and if there are unpaid taxes the purchaser takes subject to such taxes. Vaughn v. Clark, 5, 239. Purchaser at judicial sale takes no higher title than the judgment debtor had. Westheimer v. Reed, 15, 664 (19 N. W., 626). Lamb v. Sherman, 19, 687 (28 N. W., 319). Recording of deed prior to sale notice of outstanding title. Mansfield v. Gregory, 8, 435. Wright v. Smith, 11, 343 (7 N. W., 537). See Gue v. Jones, 25, 637 (41 N. W., 555). Purchasers at execution sale may compel sheriff to execute a deed. Lamb v. Sherman, 19, 687 (28 N. W., 319).

5036 (501). The officer who levies upon goods and chattels, or lands and tenements, or who is charged with the duty of selling the same by virtue of any writ or execution, may refuse to publish a notice of the sale thereof by advertisement in a newspaper until the party for whose benefit such execution issued, his agent or attorney, shall advance to such officer so much money as will be sufficient to discharge the fees of the printer for publishing such notice.

5037 (502). Before any officer shall be excused from giving the notification mentioned in the last section, he shall demand of the party for whose benefit the execution was issued, his agent or attorney (provided either of them resides in the county), the fees in said section specified.

5038 (503). All sales of lands or tenements under execution shall be held at the court house, if there be one in the county in which such lands and tenements are situated, and if there be no court house, then at the door of the house in which the district court was last held. No sheriff or other officer making the sale of property, either personal or real, or any appraiser of such property, shall, either directly or indirectly, purchase the same; and every purchase so made shall be considered fraudulent and void.

Neither sheriff nor appraiser can purchase, either directly or indirectly. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 19, 39 (26 N. W., 614). Sale to an appraiser is void as against all persons injured only. Reno v. Hale, 28, 652 (44 N. W., 996). Purchase by appraiser of one tract does not invalidate sale to another of different property. Runge v. Brown, 29, 121 (45 N. W., 271).

5039 (504). If lands and tenements levied on as aforesaid are not sold upon one execution, other executions may be issued to sell the lands so levied upon.

5040 (505). In all cases when two or more executions shall be put into the hands of any sheriff or other officer, and it shall be necessary to levy on real estate to satisfy the same, and either of the judgment creditors in whose favor one or more of said executions is issued shall require the sheriff, or other officer, to make a separate levy to satisfy his execution or executions, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, or other officer, to levy said executions, or so many thereof as may be required, on separate parcels of real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, giving to the officer making the levy on behalf of the creditor, whose execution may, by the provisions of this chapter, be entitled to a preference, the choice of such part of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors as will be sufficient, at two-thirds of the appraised value, to satisfy the same. And in all cases where two or more executions, which are entitled to no preference over each other, are put into the hands of the same officer, it shall be the duty of the officer, when required, to levy the same on separate parcels of the real property of the judgment debtor or debtors, when, in the opinion of the appraisers, the same may be divided without material injury; and if the real property of said debtors will not be sufficient, at two-thirds of its appraised value, to satisfy all the executions chargeable thereon, such part of the same shall be levied on to satisfy each execution as will bear the same proportion in value to the whole as the amount due on the execution bears to the amount of all the executions chargeable thereon, as near as may be, according to the appraised value of each separate parcel of said real property.

5041 (506). If the term of service of the sheriff, or other officer, who has made or shall hereafter make sale of any lands and tenements, shall expire, or if the sheriff or other officer shall be absent, or be rendered unable, by death or otherwise, to made a deed of conveyance of the same, any succeeding sheriff or other officer, on receiving a certificate from the court from which the execution issued, for the sale of said lands and tenements, signed by the clerk, by order of said court, setting forth that sufficient proof has been made to the court that such sale was fairly and legally made, and on tender of the purchase money, or if the same or any part thereof be paid, then, on proof of such payment and tender of the balance, if any, may execute to the said purchaser or purchasers, or his or their legal representatives, a deed of conveyance of said lands and tenements so sold. Such deed shall be as good and valid in law and have the same effect as if the sheriff or other officer who made sale had executed the same.

5042 (507). If, on any sale made as aforesaid, there shall be in the hands of the sheriff or other officer more money than is sufficient to satisfy the writ or writs of execution, with interest and costs, the sheriff or other officer shall, on demand, pay the balance to the defendant in execution, or his legal representatives.

5043 (508). If any judgment or judgments, in satisfaction of which any lands or tenements are sold, shall at any time thereafter be reversed, such reversal shall not defeat or affect the title of the purchaser or purchasers; but, in such case, restitution shall be made by the judgment creditor, of the moneys for which such lands or tenements were sold, with lawful interest from the day of sale.

Purchaser at judicial sale where no supersedeas bond has been filed takes absolute title though purchaser be judgment creditor and though judgment be reversed on appeal. McAusland v. Pundt, 1, 248. See Runge v. Brown, 29, 122 (45 N.W., 271). This does not prevent a review on appeal of the order of confirmation. Deputron v. Young, 10 Sup Ct. Rep., 546.

5044 (509). No judgment heretofore rendered, or which hereafter may be rendered, on which execution shall not have been taken out and levied before the expiration of five years next after its rendition, shall operate as a lien upon the estate of any debtor, to the preference of any other bona fide judgment creditor; but in all cases where judgment has been or may be rendered in the supreme court, and a special mandate awarded to the district court to carry the same into execution, the lien of the judgment creditor shall continue for five years after the first day of the next term of the district court to which such mandate may be directed. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to defeat the lien of any judgment creditor who shall fail to take out execution and cause a levy to be made as herein provided, when such failure shall be occasioned by appeal, proceedings in error, injunction, or by vacancy in the office of sheriff and coroner, or the inability of such officer, until one year after such disability shall be removed. In all cases where real estate has been or may hereafter be taken on execution, and appraisal, [appraised] and twice advertised and offered for sale, and shall remain unsold for want of bidders, it shall be the duty of the court from which such execution issued, on application of the plaintiff, to set aside such appraisement and order a new one to be made, or to set aside such levy and appraisement and award a new execution to issue, as the case may require.

Original section allowed judgment to run one year only, without execution. Amended 1873, G. S., p. 613. Cited, Hibbard v. Weil & Kahn, 5, 46; Godman v. Boggs, 12, 17 (10 N. W., 403). See note to section 5013. Reynolds v. Cobb, 15, 380 (19 N. W., 502).

5045 (510). The sheriff or other officer, to whom any writ of execution shall be directed, shall return such writ to the court to which the same is returnable, within sixty days from the date thereof.

Property may be sold after the return day. Johnson v. Bemis, 7, 226. Presumptions as to return. Runge v. Brown, 29, 120-1 (45 N. W., 271).

5046 (511). In all cases where judgment is rendered in any court of record within this state, upon any other instrument of writing, in which two or more persons are jointly and severally bound, and it shall be made to appear to the court, by parol or other testimony, that one or more of said persons so bound signed the same as surety or bail for his or their co-defendant, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court, in recording the judgment thereon, to certify which of the defendants is principal debtor, and which are sureties or bail. And the clerk of the court aforesaid shall issue execution on such judgment, commanding the sheriff or other officer to cause the money to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the principal debtor, but for want of sufficient property of the principal debtor to make the same, that he cause the same to be made of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the surety or bail. In all cases the property, both personal and real, of the principal debtor, within the jurisdiction of the court, shall be exhausted before any of the property of the surety or bail shall be taken in execution.

Cashier of bank no authority to release surety. See Merchants Bank v. Rudolf, 5, 538. Payment of judgment by endorser of note sued on is a satisfaction of judgment, and assignment thereof by plaintiff to paying endorser will not entitle him to levy on land of a co-defendant. Potvin v. Meyers, 27, 756–7 (44 N. W., 25).

5047 (512). Each freeholder, summoned to appraise real estate under the provisions of this chapter, shall be allowed and receive for his services the sum of fifty cents, for each day he may be so engaged as such appraiser, to be collected on the execution, by virtue of which the property appraised was levied on, if claimed at the time of making the return of such appraisement. And when any freeholder, summoned as aforesaid, shall fail to appear at the time and place appointed by the officer, and discharge his duty as appraiser, he shall, on complaint being made to any justice of the peace of the precinct in which such freeholder resides, forfeit and pay the sum of fifty cents for every such neglect, unless he can render a reasonable excuse. Such sum shall be collected by said justice, and paid into the county treasury for the use of the county.

5048 (513). If any sheriff or other officer shall refuse or neglect to execute any writ of execution to him directed, which has come to his hands; or shall neglect or refuse to sell any goods and chattels, lands and tenements; or shall neglect to call an inquest, and return a copy thereof forthwith to the clerk's office; or shall neglect to return any writ of execution to the proper court, on or before the return day thereof; or shall neglect to return a just and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels by him taken in execution, unless the said sheriff or other officer shall return, that he has levied and made the amount of the debt, damages, and costs; or shall refuse or neglect on demand to pay over to the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney of record, all moneys by him collected or received, for the use of said party, at any time after collecting or receiving the same, except as provided in section four hundred and ninety-eight; or shall neglect or refuse, on demand made by the defendant, his agent, or attorney of record, to pay over all moneys by him received for any sale made, beyond what is sufficient to satisfy the writ or writs of execution, with interest and legal costs, such sheriff or other officer shall, on motion in court and two days' notice thereof in writing, be amerced in the amount of said debt, damages, and costs, with ten per centum thereon, to and for the use of said plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be.

County court has authority to amerce an officer (sheriff) for failing to return an execution issued by said court and delivered to him. The proper mode of reviewing an order of amercement is by petition in error. Ghost v. Hill, 11, 472 (9 N. W., 642). The statute makes the sureties on the sheriff's official bond liable in an action upon a judgment of amercement; and action may be brought in county where amercement was had, although none of the defendants reside in such county. McNee v. Sewell, 14, 533 (16 N. W., 827). This gives no additional rights, but merely a more expeditious way of enforcing a pre-existing right. Crooker v. Melick, 18, 227 (24 N. W., 689). No ground of amercement shown under the evidence. Russell v. Grimes, 27, 812 (44 N. W., 107).

5049 (514). If any clerk of a court shall neglect or refuse, on demand made by the person entitled thereto, his agent, or attorney of record, to pay over all money by him received, in his official capacity, for the use of such person, every such clerk may be amerced; and the proceedings against him and his sureties shall be the same as provided for in the foregoing section against sheriffs and their sureties.

5050 (515). When the cause of amercement is for refusing to pay over money collected as aforesaid, the said sheriff or other officer shall not be amerced in a greater sum than the amount so withheld, with ten per centum thereon.

5051 (516). When execution shall be issued in any county in this state, and directed to the sheriff or coroner of another county, it shall be lawful for such sheriff or coroner having the execution, after having discharged all the duties required of him by law, to inclose such execution, by mail, to the clerk of the court who issued the same. On proof being made by such sheriff or coroner that the execution was mailed soon enough to have reached the office where it was issued within the time prescribed by law, the sheriff or coroner shall not be liable for any amercement or penalty, if it do not reach the office in due time.

5052 (517). No sheriff shall forward by mail any money made on any such execution, unless he shall be specially instructed to do it by the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney of record. In all cases of a motion to amerce a sheriff or other officer of any county other than the one from which the execution issued, notice in writing shall be given to such officer, as hereinbefore required, by leaving it with him, or at his office, at least fifteen days before the first day of the term at which such motion shall be made, or by transmitting the notice by mail at least sixty days prior to the first day of the term at which such motion shall be made. All amercements, so procured, shall be entered on the record of the court, and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment.

5053 (518). Each and every surety of any sheriff or other officer may be made a party to the judgment as rendered as aforesaid, against the sheriff or other officer, by action, to be commenced and prosecuted as in other cases. But the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of any such surety shall not be liable to be taken on execution, when sufficient goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the sheriff or other officer, against whom execution may be issued, can be found to satisfy the same. Nothing herein contained shall prevent either party from proceeding against such sheriff or other officer by attachment, at his election.

See Pasewalk v. Bollman, 29, 525 (45 N. W., 780).

5054 (519). In cases where a sheriff or other officer may be amerced, and shall not have collected the amount of the original judgment, he shall be permitted to sue out an execution, and collect the amount of said judgment in the name of the original plaintiff, for his own use.

Sec. 520 repealed 1875, p. 88.

HOMESTEAD AND OTHER EXEMPTIONS.

5055 (521). All heads of families who have neither lands, town lots, or houses subject to exemption as a homestead, under the laws of this state, shall have exempt from forced sale on execution the sum of five hundred dollars in personal property.

A party moving into this state with intention of residing, even though he has no dwelling, is entitled to his exemption. Chesney v. Francisco, 12, 628 (12 N. W., 94). See Swaney v. Hutchins, 13, 266 (13 N. W., 282). Exempt property may be claimed at any time before it is sold. Chesney v. Francisco, 12, 627 (12 N. W., 94). Crans v. Cunningham, 13, 206 (13 N. W., 176). Resident alien entitled to exemption. The People, ex rel. Dobson, v. McClay, 2, 9. Debtor who owns house which he occupies as homestead is not entitled to exemption, although it is incumbered for all it is worth. State, ex rel. Kahoon, v. Krumpus, 13, 321 (14 N. W., 409). Nor where he lives upon land though he has not proved up. Axtell v. Warden, 7, 184. Any interest in land bars this claim. State v. Townsend, 17, 532 (23 N. W., 509). Cannot have both a home and $500. Stout v. Rapp, 17, 470 (23 N. W., 364). Members of partnership not entitled to exemptions out of partnership assets. People, ex rel. Till, v. Roy, 3, 262. Exempt property under an attachment cannot be released under these sections, but may be released by an order of the justice. State v. Sanford, 12, 426 (11 N. W., 868). This decision has been overruled. Hamilton v. Fleming, 26, 243 (41 N. W., 1092). State, ex rel. Stevens, v. Carson, 27, 501 (43 N. W., 361). Attempted transfer of property to wife not a waiver of exemption by husband. State, ex rel. Scoville, v. Wilson, 31, 464 (48

N. W., 147). State, ex rel. Stevens, v. Carson, 27, 501 (43 N. W., 361). Will be liberally construed; claimant can replevin or sue for value; is not concluded by order holding the attachment good, etc. Hamilton v. Fleming, 26, 242 (41 N. W., 1002). Debtor to avail himself of exemption must file inventory. Mann v. Welton, 21, 543 (32 N. W., 599). A judgment in favor of the debtor may be set off to him as an exemption. Mace v. Heath, 34, 54 (51 N. W., 317). A divorced husband may be the head of a family. Roberts v. Moody, 30, 683 (46 N. W., 1013). Where the husband has absconded, the wife may claim and have set off to her the family exemptions. Frazier v. Syas, 10, 115 (4 N. W., 934). State, ex rel. Scoville, v. Wilson, 31, 464 (48 N. W., 147). The wife of a disabled husband may be the head of a family, and claim the exemptions as such. State, ex rel. Lucus, v. Houck, 32, 525 (49 N. W., 462). Referred to, Bell v. Sherer, 12, 412 (11 N. W., 861).

5056 (522). Any person desiring to avail himself of the exemption as provided for in the preceding section, must file an inventory, under oath, in the court where the judgment is obtained, or with the officer holding the execution, of the whole of the personal property owned by him or them, at any time before the sale of the property; and it shall be the duty of the officer to whom the execution is directed to call to his assistance three disinterested freeholders of the county where the property may be, who, after being duly sworn by said officer, shall appraise said property at its cash value.

Intention of claimant not material. Affidavit enumerating all debtor's property, its aggregate value being less than $500, is sufficient, and officer thereafter selling liable on his bond. Kreisel v. Eddy, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 224).

5057 (523). Upon such inventory and appraisement being completed, the defendant in execution, or his authorized agent, may select from such inventory an amount of such property, not exceeding, according to such appraisal, the amount or value herein exempted, but if neither such defendant nor his agent shall appear and make such selection, the officer shall make the same for him.

5058 (524). Nothing in this subdivision shall be considered as exempting any real or personal property from levy and sale for taxes.

5059 (529). Nothing in this subdivision shall be considered as exempting any real estate from taxation or sale for taxes.

5060 (530). [Chattels exempt.]—No property hereinafter mentioned shall be liable to attachment, execution, or sale, on any final process issued from any court in this state, against any person being a resident of this state and the head of a family. First—The family Bible. Second—Family pictures, school books and library for the use of the family. Third—A seat or pew in any house or place of public worship. Fourth—A lot in any burial ground. Fifth—All necessary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family. All beds, bedsteads, and bedding necessary for the use of such family. All stoves and appendages put up or kept for the use of the debtor and his family, not to exceed four. All cooking utensils, and all other household furniture not herein enumerated, to be selected by the debtor, not exceeding in value one hundred dollars. Sixth—One cow, three hogs, and all pigs under six months old, and if the debtor be at the time actually engaged in the business of agriculture, in addition to the above, one yoke of oxen, or a pair of horses in lieu thereof; ten sheep, and the wool therefrom, either in the raw material or manufactured into yarn or cloth; the necessary food for the stock mentioned in this section, for the period of three months; one wagon, cart, or dray, two plows, and one drag; the necessary gearing for the team herein exempted; and other farming implements not exceeding fifty dollars in value. Seventh—The provisions for the debtor and his family necessary for six months' support, either provided or growing, or both, and fuel necessary for six months. Eighth—The tools and instruments of any mechanic, miner, or other person, used and kept for the purpose of carrying on his trade or business. The library and implements of any professional man. All of which articles hereinbefore intended to be exempt, shall be chosen by the debtor, his agent, clerk, or legal representative, as the case may be.

Debtor is entitled to these exemptions in addition to the $500 allowed by section 5055. Will iams v. Golden, 10, 434 (6 N. W., 766). Under subdivision VIII, "The library and implements of any professional man" are exempt, whether he is the head of a family or not. Roberts v. Moody, 30, 685 (48 N.W., 1013). Exempt property cannot be the subject of fraudulent alienation. Bloedorn v. Jewell, 34, 651 (52 N.W., 367). Team of mules, wagon, and harness, exempt. Officer must call appraisers. State, ex rel. Metz, v. Cunningham ,6, 92. Wife can hold exempt property when husband has absconded. Frazier v. Syas, 10, 117 (4 N. W., 934). A policy of life insurance payable to the wife is exempt from husband's debts; but this rule does not apply to an endowment policy paid to her before his death. Talcott v. Field, 34, 611 (52 N. W., 400).

5061 (531). Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to exempt any property in this state from execution or attachment for clerks', laborers', or mechanics' wages for money due and owing by any attorney at law for money or other valuable consideration received by said attorney for any person or persons, *nor shall anything in this chapter be construed to exempt from execution or attachment property of the value of more than five hundred dollars ($500) for any debt contracted by any person in the purchase of the actual necessaries of life for himself or family, or for any person or persons who were at the time of contracting such debt dependent upon such person purchasing the same for support; Provided, That where the debt contracted therefor shall be deemed the debt of both husband and wife; And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt in the aggregate more than five hundred dollars worth of personal property to both husband and wife.

Amended 1869, p. 67. All after * added 1887, p. 649. Persons who contract for and furnish the labor and services of others with or without their own are not entitled to the benefit of this statute. Henderson v. Nott, 36, — (54 N. W., 88). This does not apply to debts contracted by the head of a family for groceries and provisions furnished him as supplies for a boarding house. Lehnoff v. Fisher, 32, 111 (48 N. W., 821). One laborer cannot garnishee another for money earned within sixty days. Snyder v. Brune, 22, 190 (34 N. W., 364.)

Sec. 5062. "An act to exempt laborers', mechanics', and clerks' wages in the hands of employers, from execution, attachment, and garnishee process." 1869, p. 170. In force February 15.

5062. The wages of laborers, mechanics, and clerks who are heads of families, in the hands of those by whom such laborers, mechanics, or clerks may be employed, both before and after such wages shall be due, shall be exempt from the operation of attachment, execution, and garnishee process; Provided, That not more than sixty days' wages shall be exempt; Provided further, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to protect the wages of persons who have or are about to abscond or leave the state from the provisions of law now in force upon that subject; Provided further, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to permit the attachment of sixty days' wages in the hands of the employer.

Applies to heads of families who are non-residents of the state. Wright v. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co., 19, 180 (27 N. W., 90). Exempt wages taken by creditor may be recovered back. Albrecht v. Treitschke, 17, 205 (22 N. W., 418). Wages of laborer for sixty days exempt. Either party may bring to the attention of the court facts showing money is exempt. If garnishee pay, action may be maintained against him for recovery. Exempt money not subject to fraudulent alienation. U. P. R. R. Co. v. Smersh, 22, 751 (36 N. W., 139). Sixty days' wages of laborers, mechanics, or clerks, who are heads of families, in the hands of their employer are absolutely exempt from execution, attachment, or garnishment, even for groceries and provisions. Lehnoff v. Fisher, 32, 111 (48 N. W., 821). A foreign corporation cannot be garnisheed in this state. Wright v. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co., 19, 175 (27 N. W., 90). Justice cannot be compelled to release exempt wages from garnishment after case is taken to district court. State, ex rel. Rudabeck v. Livsey, 27, 56 (42 N. W., 762). Duty of garnishee to set up in garnishee answer debtor's exemptions if he knows them. Turner v. S. C. & P. R. R., 19, 247 (27 N. W., 103.)

Sec. 5063. "An act to exempt from levy and sale on execution or attachment all pension money, and property purchased and improved exclusively therewith, of the soldiers, sailors, and marines, who were disabled in the service of the United States." 1887, p 656. In force July 1.

5063. That in addition to the exemptions now provided for by the code of civil procedure, there shall also be exempt from levy and sale upon execution or attachment, to every resident of the state of Nebraska, who became disabled in the service of the United States as a soldier, sailor, or marine, all pension money hereafter received and all property hereafter purchased and improved exclusively therewith, not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) in value, of and belonging to such soldier, sailor, or marine.

Secs. 5064 to 5067. "An act to provide for the better protection of the earnings of laborers, servants, and other employes of corporations, firms or individuals engaged in interstate business." 1889, p. 369. In force March 29. (Berlin law.)

5064. That it be and is hereby declared unlawful for any creditor of, or other holder of any evidence of debt, book account, or claim of any name or nature against any laborer, servant, clerk, or other employee, of any corporation, firm or individual, in this state, for the purpose below stated, to sell, assign, transfer, or by any means dispose of any such claim, book account, bill, or debt of any name or nature whatever, to any person or persons, firm, corporation, or institution, or to institute, in this state or elsewhere, or prosecute any suit or action for any such claim or debt against any such laborer, servant, clerk, or employee by any process seeking to seize, attach, or garnish the wages of such person or persons earned within sixty days prior to the commencement of such proceeding, for the purpose of avoiding the effect of the laws of the state of Nebraska concerning exemptions.

Where a creditor assigns his claim to a party in another state who collects it from the employer, such creditor is liable to the debtor for the amount so taken without his consent. O'Connor v. Walter, — Neb., — (55 N. W, 867).

5066. In any proceeding, civil or criminal, growing out of a breach of sections one or two of this act, proof of the institution of a suit, or service of garnishment summons by any persons, firm, or individual, in any court of any state or territory other than this state, or in this state, to seize by process of garnishment or otherwise, any of the wages of such persons as defined in section one of this act, shall be deemed prima-facie evidence of an evasion of the laws of the state of Nebraska and a breach of the provisions of this act on the part of the creditor or resident in Nebraska causing the same to be done.

5067. Any persons, firm, company, corporation, or business institution guilty of a violation of sections one or two of this act shall be liable to the party injured through such violation of this act, for the amount of the debt sold, assigned, transferred, garnished or sued upon, with all costs and expenses and a reasonable attorney's fee, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state; and shall further be liable by prosecution to punishment by a fine not exceeding the sum of two hundred dollars and costs of prosecution.

CHAPTER II.—PROCEEDINGS IN AID OF EXECUTION.

5068 (532). Where a judgment debtor has not personal or real property subject to levy on execution, sufficient to satisfy the judgment, any interest which he may have in any banking, turnpike, bridge, or other joint stock company, or any interest he may have in any money, contracts, claims, or choses in action, due or to become due to him, or in any judgment or decree, or any money, goods, or effects which he may have in possession of any person, body politic or corporate, shall be subject to the payment of such judgment by proceedings in equity, or as in this chapter prescribed.

An allegation in petition "that defendant has no property whatever subject to sale on execution" is sufficient. Sayre v. Thompson, 18, 39 (24 N. W., 383). Cited, State v. Eberly, 12, 621 (12 N. W., 96).

5069 (533). When an execution against the property of a judgment debtor, or one of several debtors in the same judgment, is issued to the sheriff of a county where he resides, or if he do not reside in the state, to the sheriff of the county where the judgment was rendered, or a transcript of a justice's judgment has been filed, is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, the judgment creditor is entitled to an order from a probate judge or a judge of the district court of the county to which the execution was issued, requiring such debtor to appear and answer concerning his property, before such judge, or referee appointed by such judge, at a time and place specified in such order, within the county to which the execution was issued.

Must obtain judgment before order had. Weinland v. Cochran, 9, 482 (4 N. W., 67). Judgment must be rendered and execution issued and returned unsatisfied before creditor's bill will lie. Weil and Cahn v. Lankins, 3, 387.

5070 (534). After the issuing of an execution against property, and upon proof by affidavit of the judgment creditor or otherwise, to the satsfaction of the district court or a judge thereof, or a probate judge of the county in which the order may be served, that the judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court or judge may, by order, require the judgment creditor to appear at a time and place in said county to answer concerning the same. And such proceedings may thereupon be had for the application of the property of the judgment debtor towards the satisfaction of the judgment as are prescribed in this chapter.

5071 (535). Instead of the order requiring the attendance of the judgment debtor, as provided in the last two sections, the judge may, upon proof to his satisfaction, by affidavit of the party, or otherwise, that there is danger of the debtor leaving the state or concealing himself to avoid the examination herein mentioned, issue a warrant, requiring the sheriff to arrest him and bring him before such judge within the county in which the debtor may be arrested. Such warrant can be issued only by a probate judge, or a judge of the district court of the county in which such debtor resides or may be arrested. Upon being brought before the judge, he shall be examined on oath, and other witnesses may be examined on either side, and if on such examination it appear that there is danger of the debtor leaving the state, and that he has property which he unjustly refuses to apply to such judgment, he may be ordered to enter into an undertaking, in such sum as the judge may prescribe, with one or more sureties, that he will from time to time attend for examination before the judge or referee as shall be directed. In default of entering into such undertaking, he may be committed to the jail of the county by warrant of the judge, as for a contempt.

5072 (536). No person shall, on examination pursuant to this chapter, be excused from answering any question on the ground that his examination will tend to convict him of a fraud, but his answer shall not be used as evidence against him in a prosecution for such fraud.

5073 (537). After the issuing of execution against property, any person indebted to the judgment debtor may pay to the sheriff the amount of his debt, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the execution, and the sheriff's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount so paid or directed to be credited by the judgment creditor on the execution.

5074 (538). After the issuing or return of an execution against property of the judgment debtor, or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, and upon proof by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the judge, that any person or corporation has property of such judgment debtor, or is indebted to him, the judge may, by an order, require such person or corporation, or any officer or member thereof, to appear, at a specified time and place, within the county in which such person or corporation may be served with the order to answer, and answer concerning the same. The judge may also, in his discretion, require notice of such proceeding to be given to any party in the action, in such manner as may seem to him proper.

5075 (539). Witnesses may be required, upon the order of the judge, or by a subpoena issued by the clerk of the district court, to appear and testify upon any proceedings under this chapter, in the same manner as upon the trial of an issue.

5076 (540). The party or witness may be required to attend before the judge, or before a referee appointed by the court or judge. If before a referee, the examination must be taken by the referee and certified by the judge. All examinations and answers before a judge or referee under this chapter must be on oath, but when a corporation answers, the answer must be on the oath of an officer thereof.

5077 (541). The judge may order any property of the judgment debtor not exempt by law, in the hands of either himself or any other person or corporation, or due to the judgment debtor, to be applied towards the satisfaction of the judgment; but the earnings of the debtor for his personal services, at any time within three months next preceding the order, cannot be so applied, where it is made to appear by the debtor's affidavit or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of a family supported wholly or partly by his labor.

5078 (542). The judge may also, by order, appoint the sheriff of the proper county, or other suitable person, a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor, in the same manner, and with the like authority as if the appointment was made by the court. The judge may also, by order, forbid a transfer or other disposition of the property of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, and any interference therewith.

5080 (544). The judge or referee, acting under the provisions of this chapter, shall have power to continue his proceedings from time to time until they are completed.

5081 (545). The judge may, in his discretion, order a reference to a referee agreed upon or appointed by him, to report the evidence of the facts.

All after * added 1875, p. 39.

5083 (547). The orders to judgment debtors and witnesses, provided for in this chapter, shall be in writing and signed by the judge making the same, and shall be served as a summons in other cases. The judge shall reduce all his orders to writing, which, together with a minute of his proceedings, signed by himself, shall be filed with the clerk of the court of the county in which the judgment is rendered, or the transcript of the justice filed, and the clerk shall enter on his execution docket the time of filing the same.

5084 (548). The judge shall allow to clerks, sheriffs, referees, receivers, and witnesses such compensation as is allowed for like services in other cases, to be taxed as costs in the case, and shall enforce by order the collection thereof from such party or parties as ought to pay the same.

5085 (549). The probate judge shall be allowed for his services, under this chapter, the sum of three dollars in each case, and such fees as are allowed by law to clerks of the district court for similar services.

CHAPTER III.—EXECUTIONS AGAINST THE PERSON.

5086 (550). An execution against the person of a judgment debtor shall require the officer to arrest such debtor and commit him to the jail of the county until he pay the judgment, or be discharged according to law.

5087 (551). An execution against the person of the debtor may be issued upon any judgment for the payment of money. First—When the judgment debtor has removed, or begun to remove any of his property out of the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to prevent the collection of the money due on the judgment. Second—When he has property, rights in action, evidences of debt, or some interest or stock in some corporation or company, which he fraudulently conceals with the like intent. Third—When he has assigned or disposed of all or any part of his property, or rights in action, or has converted the same into money, with intent to defraud his creditors, or with the intent to prevent such property from being taken in execution. Fourth—When he fraudulently contracted the debt, or incurred the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered. Fifth—When he was arrested on an order before judgment, and has not been discharged as an insolvent debtor, or the order has not been set aside as improperly made.

5088 (552). An execution against the person of the debtor can be issued only when the same is allowed by the supreme court, district court, or probate court, or any judge of either, upon being satisfied, by the affidavit of the judgment creditor or his attorney, and such other evidence as may be presented, of the existence of one or more of the particulars mentioned in the last preceding section.

5092 (556). The death of a person under arrest in an action does not satisfy the judgment, but an execution may issue thereon, as if the arrest had been made.

5093 (557). If a person imprisoned under an order of arrest made before judgment is not charged in execution within ten days after judgment, he shall be discharged from such imprisonment.

Cited, Ex parte Donahoe, 24, 69 (38 N.W., 28).

5094 (558). In cases of commitment under this chapter, or upon arrest before or after judgment in civil cases, the person imprisoned, in case of his inability to perform the act or endure the imprisonment may be discharged from imprisonment by the court or judge committing him, or the court or judge thereof in which the judgment was or might be rendered, on such terms as may be just.

CHAPTER IV.—EXECUTIONS FOR THE DELIVERY OF REAL PROPERTY.

5095 (559). If the execution be for the delivery of the possession of real property, it shall require the officer to deliver the same, particularly describing the property, to the party entitled thereto, and may at the same time require the officer to satisfy any costs or damages recovered in the same judgment, out of the goods and chattels of the party against whom it was rendered, and for want of such goods and chattels, then out of the lands and tenements, and in this respect it shall be deemed an execution against the property.

5096 (560). When the judgment is not for the recovery of money or real property, the same may be enforced by attachment, by the court rendering the judgment, upon motion made, or by a rule of the court upon the defendant; but in either case, notice of the motion, or a service of a copy of the rule, shall be made on the defendant a reasonable time before the order of attachment is made.

CHAPTER V.—JUDGMENT BEFORE JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

All proceedings after transcript filed in district court should be had in district court. Garrison v. Aultman & Co., 20, 314 (30 N.W., 61). Judgment entered and transcript filed in district court against W. G. & J. L. Bowman sufficient to attach lien. Smith v. Hawley 2, 285. If paid, though under protest, to clerk of district court of another county, where transcript has first been filed, amount cannot be recovered back. McBride v. Lathrop, 24, 95 (38 N. W., 32). A transcript filed for a lien by one party may also be availed of by the other for an appeal transcript. Fulton v. Ryan, 33, 458 (50 N. W., 430). Judgment of justice cannot be transcripted directly to another county. Pemberton v. Pollard, 18, 439 (25 N. W., 582). But judgment of county court can. Cabon v. Gruenig, 18, 562 (26 N. W., 253). Cited, Godman v. Boggs, 12, 17 (10 N. W., 403).

5099 (563). Execution may be issued thereon to the sheriff by the clerk of the court, in the same manner as if the judgment had been taken in court, and the sheriff shall execute and return the same as other executions; and in case of sale of real estate, his proceedings shall be examined and approved by the court, as in other cases.

Cited, Godman v. Boggs, 12, 18 (10 N. W., 403).

5100 (564). The justice of the peace shall certify on the transcript the amount, if any, paid on such judgment. The costs of the transcript, the filing of the same, and the entry of the case on the execution docket, shall be paid by the party filing the same, and not be taxed to the other party.

TITLE XV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROCEEDINGS.

CHAPTER I.—OFFER TO COMPROMISE.

5101 (565). The defendant in an action for the recovery of money only, may, at any time before the trial, serve upon the plaintiff, or his attorney, an offer in writing, to allow judgment to be taken against him for the sum specified therein. If the plaintiff accept the offer, and give notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney, within five days after the offer was served, the offer, and an affidavit that the notice of acceptance was delivered in the time limited, may be filed by the plaintiff, or the defendant may file the acceptance, with a copy of the offer verified by affidavit; and in either case, the offer and acceptance shall be noted in the journal, and judgment shall be rendered accordingly. If the notice of acceptance be not given in the period limited, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn, and shall not be given in evidence, or mentioned on the trial. If the plaintiff fails to obtain judgment for more than was offered by the defendant, he shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer.

Offer must be made in open court or notice served to carry subsequent costs. Rose v. Peck, 18, 532 (26 N. W., 363). Does not apply to ad quod damnum case. Johnson v. Sutliff, 17, 423 (23 N. W., 9).

CHAPTER II.—SUBMITTING A CONTROVERSY.

5103 (567). Parties to a question which might be the subject of a civil action, may, without action, agree upon a case containing the facts upon which the controversy depends, and present a submission of the same to any court which would have jurisdiction, if an action had been brought. But it must appear by affidavit that the controversy is real, and the proceedings in good faith, to determine the rights of the parties. The court shall, thereupon hear and determine the case and render judgment as if an action were pending.

The validity of an appropriation act may be determined in this way. State, ex rel. Casper, v. Moore, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 300). See In re Groff, 21, 647 (33 N. W., 426); State, ex rel. Bullock, v. Babcock, 22, 35 (33 N. W., 709); State, ex rel. Norfolk, v. Babcock, 22, 615 (35 N. W., 941).

5104 (568). The case, the submission and the judgment shall constitute the record.

5105 (569). The judgment shall be with costs, may be enforced, and shall be subject to reversal, in the same manner as if it had been rendered in an action, unless otherwise provided in the submission.

CHAPTER III.—OFFER TO CONFESS JUDGMENT.

5106 (570). After an action for the recovery of money is brought, the defendant may offer in court to confess judgment for part of the amount claimed, or part of the causes involved in the action. Whereupon, if the plaintiff, being present, refuse to accept such confession of judgment in full of his demands against the defendant in the action, or having had such notice that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time of making it, as the court shall deem reasonable, fail to attend, and on the trial, do not recover more than was so offered to be confessed, such plaintiff shall pay all the costs of the defendant incurred after the offer. The offer shall not be deemed to be an admission of the cause of action or amount to which the plaintiff is entitled, nor be given in evidence upon the trial.

To carry subsequent costs an offer must be made in open court or served upon the opposite party. Rose v. Peck, 18, 532 (26 N. W., 363). Does not apply to ad quod damnum case. Johnson v. Sutliff, 17, 423 (23 N. W., 9).

5107 (571). Before an action for the recovery of money is brought against any person, he may go into the court of the county of his residence, or of that in which the person having the cause of action resides, which would have jurisdiction of the action, and offer to confess judgment in faver of such person for a specified sum on such cause of action. Whereupon, if such person, having had such notice that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time and place of making it, as the court shall deem reasonable, do not attend to accept the confession, or attending, refuse to accept it, and should afterwards commence an action upon such cause, and not recover more than the amount so offered to be confessed, he shall pay all the costs of the action; and on the trial thereof, the offer shall not be deemed to be an admission of the cause of action, or amount to which the plaintiff is entitled, nor be given in evidence.

CHAPTER IV.—MOTIONS AND ORDERS.

5108 (572). A motion is an application for an order addressed to the court or a judge in vacation, by any party to a suit or proceeding, or one interested therein.

Motion based on same grounds as a previous one cannot be filed without leave of court, and should not be allowed except for sufficient cause. Hershiser v. Delone, 24, 382 (38 N. W., 863).

5109 (573). Several objects may be included in the same motion, if they all grow out of or are connected with the action or proceeding in which it is made.

5110 (574). Where notice of a motion is required, it must be in writing, and shall state the names of the parties to the action or proceeding in which it is to be made, the name of the court or judge before whom it is to be made, the place where and the day on which it will be heard, the nature and terms of the order or orders to be applied for, and if affidavits are to be used on the hearing, the notice shall state that fact. It shall be served a reasonable time before the hearing.

5111 (575). Notices of motions mentioned in this chapter may be served by a sheriff, coroner, or constable, or by any disinterested person, and the return of any such officer, or affidavit of any such person, shall be proof of service. The service shall be on the party or his attorney of record, if the said party or his attorney be resident within the county in which the motion is made, and in case there is more than one party adverse to such motion, service shall be made upon each party or his attorney.

5112 (576). The service of a notice shall be made as is required by law for the service of a summons, and when served by an officer, he shall be entitled to like fees.

5113 (577). Motions to strike pleadings and papers from the files may be made with or without notice, as the court or judge shall direct.

Motion to strike part of the records from the files will not be entertained by the supreme court. Hughes & Bickle v. Kellogg, 3, 187. Motion to strike part of a petition from the files denied. Shaffer v. Maddox, 9, 209 (2 N. W., 464).

5114 (578). Every direction of a court or judge made, or entered in writing and not included in a judgment, is an order.

5115 (579). Orders made out of court, shall be forthwith entered by the clerk in the journal of the court, in the same manner as orders made in term.

TITLE XVI.—Error in Civil Cases.

CHAPTER I.—PROCEEDINGS TO REVERSE, VACATE, OR MODIFY JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS IN COURTS OF APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

5116 (580). A judgment rendered, or final order made, by a probate court, justice of the peace or any other tribunal, board, or officer exercising judicial functions, and inferior in jurisdiction to the district court, may be reversed, vacated, or modified by the district court.

Error appearing upon the record of the county court may be reviewed by the district court Rudolph v. Winters, 7, 128. An order of the county court allowing an account against an estate may be reviewed on error in district court. Rogers v. Redick, 10, 333 (6 N. W., 413). The decisions of the county superintendent of schools may be appealed from. State v. Clary, 25, 407 (41 N. W., 256). Cited, Waltham v. Mullaly, 27, 488 (43 N. W., 252). This applies to federal courts as well. Spitley v. Frost (Dist. of Neb.), 15 Fed. Rep., 306.

An order requiring an attorney to pay money alleged to have been collected by him into court "for the use of the plaintiff, and in default that execution issue therefor," is a final order. Baldwin v. Foss, 14, 456 (16 N. W., 480). Order discharging an attachment is a final order and may be reviewed. Adams v. Morgan, 26, 150 (41 N. W., 993). See Morse v. Engle, 26, 247 (41 N. W., 1098). An order discharging a garnishee in a special proceeding is a final order. Turpin v. Coates, 12, 322 (11 N. W., 300). Application to modify decree of divorce is final order. O'Brien v. O'Brien, 19, 584 (27 N. W., 640). An order of the district court vacating its own judgment during the term at which it was rendered is not a final order. Brown v. Edgerton, 14, 454 (16 N. W., 474). A verdict that defendant recover of plaintiff judgment upon the verdict of the jury for his costs, taxed at $67.93, not final judgment. Nichols, Shepard & Co. v. Hall, 5, 195. An order of the district court sustaining a motion to strike a petition from the files is not a final order from which error may be taken. Welch v. Calhoun, 22, 167 (34 N. W., 348). An order of district court granting a new trial is not a final order and not reviewable. Artman v. West Point Mfg. Co., 16, 575 (20 N. W., 873). Nor is a finding that the allegations of the petition are true. Daniels v. Tibbets, 16, 666 (21 N. W., 454). Overruling of objections to jurisdiction is not. School District v. Cooper, 29, 433 (45 N. W., 618). An order for temporary alimony is not a final order. Aspinwall v. Aspinwall, 18, 463 (25 N. W., 623). An order dissolving a temporary injunction is not a final order. Smith v. Sabler, 1, 311. Scofield v. State National Bank of Lincoln, 8, 17. Order appointing a receiver is final. McCord v. Weil, 29, 683 (46 N. W., 152). The quashing of service by summons on motion is not such a final order as is subject to review before final judgment. Persinger v. Tinkle, 34, 5 (51 N. W., 299). An order quashing service by publication is not a final order. Brown v. Rice, 30, 236 (46 N. W., 489).

5118 (582). A judgment rendered, or final order made by the district court, may be reversed, vacated or modified by the supreme court, for errors appearing on the record.

Proceeding in error must be commenced within one year from rendition of judgment. Roesink v. Barnett, 8, 147. All defendants in a joint judgment are necessary parties to proceedings in error. Curten v. Atkinson, 29, 622 (46 N. W., 91). It is only for errors appearing on the record that a judgment of district court can be reversed. Faulkner v. Meyers, 6, 418. In divorce case, wherein no motion for new trial was made, and more than six months had elapsed since decree, it was held that none of the errors assigned would be considered, the sole question being, was the petition sufficient to sustain the judgment? Equity cases may be taken to supreme court on error or on appeal. When taken on appeal, no motion for a new trial is necessary; but when taken on error, the same proceedings are necessary as in law cases. Swansen v. Swansen, 12, 210 (10 N. W., 713). A mandamus may be reviewed on error. State v. The Judges, 19, 151 (26 N. W., 723).

Sec. 583 repealed 1877, p. 14.

5119 (584). The proceedings to obtain such reversal, vacation, or modification, shall be by petition, entitled "petition in error," filed in the court having power to make such reversal, vacation, or modification, setting forth the errors complained of, and thereupon a summons shall issue and be served, or publication made, as in the commencement of an action. A service on the attorney of record in the original case shall be sufficient. The summons shall notify the adverse party that a petition in error has been filed in a certain case, naming it, and shall be returnable on or before the first day of the next term of court, if issued in vacation, and twenty days before the commencement of the term; if issued in term time, or within twenty days before the commencement of the term, it shall be returnable on a day named in said summons. In all cases in the supreme court, if a case be docketed twenty days or more before the next succeeding term it shall stand for hearing at said term. If less than twenty days intervene the cause shall not stand for trial, except by consent of all the parties thereto, until the second term after the docketing of said cause, except causes brought before the court in the exercise of its original jurisdiction.

Amended 1885, p. 375. Attorney of record may make voluntary appearance of his clients without service of summons in error. McDonald v. Penniston, 1, 325. No jurisdiction acquired without service of summons in error. Wiley v. Neal, 24, 142 (37 N. W., 926). Summons cannot issue until after petition in error is filed. Benson v. Michael, 29, 133 (45 N. W., 276). City of Brownville v. Middleton, 1, 10. Not necessary that a case be docketed fifteen days in case of habeas corpus. Smith v. State, 21, 555 (32 N. W., 594). Summons must be issued within one year from date of final judgment or order, but may be served afterward. Rogers v. Redick, 10, 333 (6 N. W., 413). An alias summons in proceedings in error issued more than a year from date of final order is too late to be of any effect. Baker v. Sloss, 13, 231 (13 N. W., 212). R. V. R. R. Co. v. Sayre, 13, 282 (13 N. W., 404). When publication is necessary it must be made in Lancaster county. Flint v. Gurrell, 12, 342 (11 N. W., 431). By going to supreme court on error, objection to jurisdiction over the person is waived. Hurford v. Baker, 17, 443 (23 N. W., 339). Petition in error may be amended. Spencer v. Thistle, 13, 201 (13 N. W., 208). Every case submitted to supreme court should contain a transcript of the pleadings constituting the issue tried in the district court; otherwise the judgment will be affirmed. Galley v. Knapp, 14, 262 (15 N. W., 329). Record is sole evidence of proceedings below. Barlass v. Braash, 27, 219 (42 N. W., 1028). Supreme court obtains jurisdiction only by petition in error. City of Brownville v. Middleton, 1, 10. In law cases, to obtain the review of an error it must have been assigned in a motion for a new trial. Weits v. Wolfe, 28, 500 (44 N. W., 485). Roode v. Dunbar, 9, 96 (2 N. W., 345). All parties to a judgment are necessary in a petition to reverse it. Wolf v. Murphy, 21, 474 (32 N. W., 303). The right of the plaintiff to a decision of the questions presented by the petition in error does not depend upon either a bill of exceptions or a motion for a new trial. Baldwin v. Foss, 14, 456 (16 N. W., 480). Proceedings in error will not be dismissed on the ground that the motion for new trial was not made in time; nor for the reason that bill of exceptions was not settled in time. Hollenbeck v. Tarkington, 14, 430 (16 N. W., 472). Mistake of fact occurring at time not incorporated in bill of exceptions not sufficient ground to set aside judgment of supreme court and to grant a new trial. Under constitution, supreme court can only reverse, vacate, or modify a judgment rendered by district court for errors appearing on the record. Morrill v. Taylor, 6, 253. Aggrieved party must seek relief at hands of court where error occurred before he can be heard in a court of error unless error be a jurisdictional one. Griggs v. Le Poidevin, 11, 388 (9 N. W., 557). Singleton v. Boyle, 4, 415. Johnson v. Ghost, 11, 414 (8 N. W., 391). Roode v. Dunbar, 9, 96 (2 N. W., 345). Ruling of a court on admission of evidence must be presented in motion for new trial before it can be assigned as error. Assignment "that court erred in rejecting evidence offered by plaintiff" is too indefinite unless all the evidence excluded ought to have been admitted. Birdsall v. Carter, 11, 145 (7 N. W., 751). Exception must be taken to ruling on motion for new trial. Murray v. School District, 11, 436 and 438 (4 N. W., 316, and 9 N. W., 573). To make affidavits used to impeach an award of arbitrators a part of the record they must be embodied in a bill of exceptions. Sides v. Brendlinger, 14, 492 (17 N. W., 113). Barlass v. Braash, 27, 218 (42 N. W., 1028). Burke v. Pepper, 29, 322 (45 N. W., 466). Where an exception is duly taken to the admission of illegal testimony, it is not waived by cross-examining the witness respecting it. Marsh v. Snyder, 14, 240 (15 N. W., 341). An assignment in error, "that the court erred in admitting the testimony" of the witnesses (naming them), when objection was made to only a portion of such testimony, is too indefinite to be noticed. Graham v. Hartnett, 10, 518 (7 N. W., 280). An assignment of error "that the court erred in the instructions given to the jury" is too indefinite to be considered unless the whole charge be bad. Tagg v. Miller, 10, 443 (6 N. W., 764). Birdsall v. Carter, 11, 144 (7 N. W., 751). Where, in action of ejectment, defendant is beaten and then asks for and obtains judgment for taxes paid by him on the premises, and receives the same, he is estopped to have a review of the original judgment on error. Strong v. Irwin, 12, 446 (11 N. W., 877). To bring question of removal to federal court before supreme court, objections to judgment below should be preserved in the bill of exceptions. Certificates of clerk of circuit court of the United States not available. Singleton v. Boyle, 4, 415. Where judgment of justice of the peace is taken to district court and reversed, as an independent action, the sole object of which is to vacate or modify the judgment against which it is directed, the judgment of reversal is a final judgment which can be reviewed only by petition in error. Banks v. Uhl, 5, 241. See Furnas v. Nemaha County, 5, 368. Bemis v. Rogers, 8, 150. Kinney v. Hickok, 24, 173 (38 N. W., 816)

5120 (585). The summons mentioned in the last section shall, upon the written precipe of the plaintiff in error, or his attorney, be issued by the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed, to the sheriff of any county in which the defendant in error or his attorney of record may be; and if the writ issue to a foreign county, the sheriff thereof may return the same by mail to the clerk, and shall be entitled to the same fees as if the same had been returnable to the district court of the county in which such officer resides. The defendant in error, or his attorney, may waive in writing the issuing or service of the summons.

Summons must be issued but need not be served within one year. Hendrickson v. Sullivan, 28, 790 (44 N. W., 1135). Where there are several attorneys, service on one of them is sufficient. Comstock v. Cole, 28, 470 (44 N. W., 487). Justice of the peace has no authority to appoint a person to serve summons from supreme court. R. V. R. R. Co. v. Sayre, 13, 282 (13 N. W., 404).

Amended 1885, p. 376, so as to require abstracts of the record; this requirement abolished 1887, p. 651. All before * constituted original section. Record should show when, where, and before what court proceedings took place. Orr v. Orr, 2, 171. Only such matter should be included in the transcript as is necessary to a correct understanding of the case. Galley v. Galley, 13, 200 (13 N. W., 172). Hilton v. Bachman, 24, 492 (39 N. W., 419). Transcript must be filed with petition in error. City of Brownville v. Middleton, 1, 10. Should contain only enough for a full understanding of the case. Orr v. Seaton, 1, 106. McDonald v. Penniston, 1, 325. Morgan v. Larsh, 1, 363. Smith v. Fife, 2, 10. Evidence not properly in record stricken out on motion. Nebraska City v. Baker, 1, 181. Judicial power of supreme court limited to questions presented by transcript of the records of the court below. Robertson v. Hall, 2, 19. Notes of clerk not part of record. Nuckolls v. Irwin, 2, 67. Judgment will not be reversed unless error affirmatively appears of record. McClure v. Lavender, 21, 183 (31 N. W., 672). In order to predicate error upon the refusal of a trial court to permit supplemental pleading to be filed, the paper, or substance of it, must be made a part of the record. Killinger v. Hartman, 21, 313 (31 N. W., 918). Cited on motion to strike transcript from the files. Campbell v. Sutton, 12, 523 (12 N. W., 3). An appeal will not be dismissed on the ground that no bill of exceptions has been settled and allowed. Hines v. Cochran, 36, — (53 N. W., 1118). In a case presented upon transcript alone, instructions presumed to have been correct, if applicable to any state of facts. Willis v. State, 27, 102 (42 N. W., 920). Fischer v. Burchall, 27, 245 (42 N. W., 1034).

5122 (587). Judges of probate courts, justices of the peace, and other judicial tribunals having no clerk, and clerks of every court of record, shall, upon request and being paid the lawful fees therefor, furnish an authenticated transcript of the proceedings, containing the judgment or final order of said courts, to either of the parties to the same, or to any person interested in procuring such transcript.

Secs. 5123 to 5126. "An act to authorize the use of original bills of exception and testimony preserved in equity cases, and making up transcripts and record of cases and proceedings at law and in equity, on removal thereof to the supreme court, and to provide for the costs incidental thereto." 1881, p. 204. In force March 1. (Secs. 1, 2, and 4 amended so as to authorize use of original bills in law cases. 1885, p. 377.)

5123. That in all cases or proceedings now pending or hereafter to be brought in any district court of this state, as well as in all cases or proceedings that have been finally adjudicated in any of said courts within six months next prior to the date of the passage of this act, which it is sought or desired to remove to the supreme court of this state, on proceedings in error, or by appeal in equity in the manner now prescribed by law, it shall not be necessary to copy the bill, or bills of exception, or the deposition, testimony, and proof in cases that have been preserved in form similar to bills of exception or otherwise, as contemplated by an act passed March 3, 1873, entitled "An act to provide for appeals in actions in equity," taken or used in any such case or proceedings into the transcript or record for the supreme court, but such original bills of exception and testimony in equity and cases at law so as aforesaid preserved, shall be, on the request of any party desiring to so prosecute such case or proceeding to the supreme court, attached to the transcript or record of such other parts of the record in the case or proceeding as may be desired by such party, and the transcript or record for the supreme court, so made up, shall be received in all respects as if the said bill or bills of exceptions or depositions, testimony, and proof in equity cases so as aforesaid properly preserved were copied into such transcript or record for the supreme court.

Supreme court cannot correct, but will remand where errors are shown. Hoagland v. Van Etten, 27, 706 (43 N. W., 422). Bill not allowed or certified to may be stricken from files of supreme court on motion. Holloway v. Schooley, 27, 556 (43 N. W., 346). Stipulation of facts will not take place of bill. Herbison v. Taylor, 29, 219 (45 N. W., 626). Supreme court will not require appellee to supply exhibits not made a part of the bill. Bickel v. Dutcher, 35, 761 (53 N. W., 663).

5124. And it is further enacted that when the original bill or bills of exceptions, or testimony in equity and law cases, is so as aforesaid made a part of a transcript or record for the supreme court, the clerk shall state such fact in his certificate thereto, and omit to certify that the same have been copied into such record or transcript.

Clerk must certify that it is the original bill. Hogan v. O'Niel, 17, 641 (24 N. W., 213). Must be certified properly or will be quashed Flynn v. Jordan, 17, 520 (23 N. W., 519). This certificate may be waived expressly or by long acquiescence. Yates v. Kinney, 23, 650 (37 N. W., 590).

5125. When any case or proceeding in which the record or transcript has been so as aforesaid made up, shall have been finally determined in the supreme court, the said original bill or bills of exception, and testimony, shall be by the clerk of the supreme court transmitted to the clerk of the district court below, whence such case or proceeding was removed, on the request of any party to the suit or proceeding, provided the cost of the transmittal thereof shall be first paid to said clerk of the supreme court if he shall demand it, by the party applying therefor.

5126. In the event a rehearing of any such cause or proceeding shall be allowed by the supreme court, or if for any other reason said court shall need or desire the use of such original bill or bills of exception or testimony in equity and law cases, it is hereby authorized to order the return of the same to it, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in whose custody the same may be to transmit the the same to the clerk of the supreme court upon being personally served with a copy of such order of the supreme court, duly certified under the seal of the court, and the expense of the transmittal of such bills and testimony, together with costs made in recording, certifying, and serving such order shall be taxed to the unsuccessful party to such suit or proceeding unless the supreme court shall otherwise order; Provided, That the party at whose instance such expense of transmittal is to be made shall advance the same to the clerk who is desired to incur such expenses if required by him. Service of such certified copy of said order may be made by any person. If done by the sheriff of any county, his official return shall be sufficient evidence of the fact of service. If by any other person, the service shall be sufficiently proved by his affidavit to the fact.

5127 (588). No proceeding to reverse, vacate, or modify any judgment or final order rendered in the probate court, or district court, except as provided for in the next section, and the fourth subdivision of this section, shall operate to stay execution, unless the clerk of the court in which the record of said judgment or final order shall be shall take a written undertaking, to be executed on the part of the plaintiff in error to the adverse party, with one or more sufficient sureties, as follows: First—When the judgment or final order sought to be reversed directs the payment of money, the written undertaking shall be in double the amount of the judgment or order, to the effect that the plaintiff in error will pay the consideration money and costs in case the judgment or final order shall be affirmed in whole or in part. Second—When it directs the execution of a conveyance or other instrument, the undertaking shall be in such sum as may be prescribed by any court of record in this state, or any judge thereof, to the effect that the plaintiff in error will abide the judgment, if the same shall be affirmed, and pay the costs. Third—

When it directs the sale or delivery of possession of real property, the undertaking shall be in such sum as may be prescribed by any court of record, or any judge thereof, to the effect that during the possession of such property by the plaintiff in error he will not commit, or suffer to be committed, any waste thereon, and if the judgment be affirmed he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property, from the date of the undertaking until the delivery of the possession pursuant to the judgment, and all costs. Fourth—When it directs the assignment or delivery of documents, they may be placed in the custody of the clerk of the court in which judgment was rendered, to abide the judgment of the appellate court, or the undertaking may be in such sum as may be prescribed as aforesaid, to abide the judgment and pay costs, if the same shall be affirmed.

Amended 1875, p. 131. Bond only necessary to stay proceedings, not to obtain review. Walton v. Beltezore, 17, 399 (23 N. W., 1). No supersedeas bond allowed in mandamus cases. State v. The Judges, 19, 150 (26 N. W., 723). See Parker v. Courtnay, 28, 608 (44 N. W., 863).

5128 (589). Instead of the undertaking prescribed in the second subdivision of the last section, the conveyance or other instrument may be executed and deposited with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered or order made, to abide the judgment of the appellate court.

5129 (590). Before the written undertaking herein mentioned in section five hundred and eighty-eight shall operate to stay execution of the judgment or order, * a petition in error must be filed in the appellate court, and * the execution of the undertaking, and the sufficiency of the sureties must be approved by the court in which the judgment was rendered or order made, or by the clerk thereof; and the clerk shall endorse said approval, signed by himself upon the undertaking, and file the same in his office for the defendant in error.

* to * inserted 1873, G. S., p. 630.

5130 (591). In an action arising on contract for the payment of money only, notwithstanding the execution of the undertaking in the last section mentioned, to stay proceedings, if the defendant in error give adequate security to make restitution in case the judgment is reversed or modified, he may, upon leave obtained from the court below, or a judge thereof in vacation, proceed to enforce the judgment. Such security must be an undertaking executed to the plaintiff in error by at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that if the judgment be reversed or modified, he will make full restitution to the plaintiff in error of the money by him received under the judgment.

5131 (592). No proceedings for reversing, vacating or modifying judgments or final orders shall be commenced unless within one year after the rendition of the judgment or making of the final order complained of, or in case the person entitled to such proceedings be an infant, a person of unsound mind, or imprisoned within one year as aforesaid, exclusive of the time of such disability; Provided, That the provisions of this act shall only apply to the judgments or decrees rendered after the date of its taking effect.

Original section allowed three years, and included married women among those under disability; latter omitted and time changed to six months, 1875, p. 40; changed to one year, 1877, p. 14. Proceedings in error must be commenced within one year from rendition of judgment, without regard to the time when the motion for new trial was decided. Hollenbeck v. Tarkington, 14, 431 (16 N. W., 472). Phenix Life Ins. Co. v. Swantkowski, 31, 246 (47 N. W., 917). If filed in supreme court after one year, will be dismissed on motion. Patterson v. Woodland, 28, 250 (44 N. W., 112). Summons in error need not be served within the year. Hendrickson v. Sullivan, 28, 790 (44 N. W., 1135). Proceedings commenced sixteen months after judgment dismissed, though an appeal (subsequently dismissed) had been filed in the same case and notice issued within a year. Benson v. Michael, 29, 134 (45 N. W., 276). Act of 1877 extended time to one year. Judgment rendered May 17, law not taking effect until June 1, petition in error filed December 13, 1877, held, filed too late. French v. English, 7, 124. All defendants in a joint judgment are necessary parties to error proceedings, and upon failure to make them such within a year, supreme court acquires no jurisdiction. Curten v. Atkinson, 29, 622 (46 N. W., 91). The words "unsound mind" are used in this statute in the same sense as the word "insane." Witte v. Gilbert, 10, 540 (7 N. W., [illegible]). See Clark v. Morgan & Co., 21, 674 (33 N. W., 245). This applies to a bill in chancery to vacate a judgment and order a new trial. Tice v. School District No. 18 (Circ. Ct.), 14 Fed. Rep., 886.

5132 (593). No proceedings to reverse, vacate, or modify any judgment rendered, or final order made, by a justice of the peace, shall operate as a stay of execution, unless the clerk of the district court shall take a written undertaking to the defendant in error, executed on the part of the plaintiff in error, by one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay all the costs which have accrued or may accrue on such proceedings in error, together with the amount of any judgment that may be rendered against such plaintiff in error, either on the further trial of the case, after the judgment of the court below shall have been set aside or reversed, or upon and after the affirmance thereof in the district court. *Nor shall said proceedings operate as a stay of execution on judgments of restitution rendered in actions for the forcible entry and detention, or the forcible detention only, of lands and tenements, unless a further undertaking shall be taken in the manner aforesaid, conditional for the payment to the defendant in error of all money or sums of money that has accrued or may accrue to said defendant from the plaintiff in error for the use, occupation, or rent of the lands and tenements in controversy, in case the judgment sought to be reversed shall be affirmed.

All after * added, as it now reads, 1871, p. 110.

5133 (594). When a judgment or final order shall be reversed either in whole or in part, in the supreme court, the court reversing the same shall proceed to render such judgment as the court below should have rendered, or remand the cause to the court below for such judgment; and the court reversing such judgment or final order, shall not issue execution in causes that are removed before them on error, on which they pronounced judgment as aforesaid, but shall send a special mandate to the court below, as the case may require, to award execution thereupon; and it shall be the duty of the judges of the supreme court to prepare and file their opinion in every case as brought before them, within sixty days after the decision of the same, and no mandate shall be sent to the court below until the opinion provided for by this section has been filed. The court to which such special mandate is sent shall proceed in such case in the same manner as if such judgment or final order had been rendered therein, and on motion and good cause shown, it may suspend any execution made returnable before it by order of the supreme court, in the same manner as if such execution had been issued from its own court, but such power shall not extend further than to stay proceedings until the matter can be further heard by the supreme court.

* to * inserted 1875, p. 41. If court cannot award new trial, will enter such judgment as district court should have entered. McCann v. McLennan, 2, 290. See Merriam v. Gordon, 20, 408 (30 N. W., 410).

5134 (595). When a judgment or final order is reversed, the plaintiff in error shall recover his costs, and when reversed in part, and affirmed in part, costs shall be equally divided between the parties.

Where a judgment is reversed and remanded plaintiff in error is entitled to his costs in supreme court. R. V. R. Co. v. Fink, 28, 402 (44 N. W., 434). Affirmance conditioned on filing of remittitur, in which case costs ordered to be equally divided. Carter v. Munson, 27, 178 (42 N. W., 1032).

5135 (596). When a judgment or final order shall be affirmed in the supreme court, the said court shall also render judgment against the plaintiff in error for five per cent upon the amount due from him to the defendant in error, unless the court shall enter upon its minutes that there was reasonable ground for the proceedings in error.

5136 (597). A mistake, neglect, or omission of the clerk shall not be a ground of error, until the same has been presented and acted upon in the court in which the mistake, neglect, or omission occurred.

5137 (598). Rendering judgment before the action stood for trial according to the provisions of this code, shall be deemed a clerical error.

5139 (600). If the judgment of a justice of the peace, taken on error, as herein provided, to the district court, be affirmed, it shall be the duty of such court to render judgment against the plaintiff in error for the costs of suit, and to award execution therefor; and the court shall thereupon order its clerk to certify its decision in the premises, to the justice, that the judgment affirmed may be enforced as if such proceedings in error had not been taken; or such court may award execution to carry into effect the judgment of such justice, in the same manner as if such judgment had been rendered in the district court.

5140 (601). When the proceedings of a justice of the peace are taken on error, to the district court, in manner aforesaid, and the judgment of such justice shall be reversed or set aside, the court shall render judgment of reversal, and for the costs that have accrued up to that time, in favor of the plaintiff in error, and award execution therefor; and the cause shall be retained by the court for trial and final judgment, as in cases of appeal.

When judgment is reversed in district court, the case stands for trial de novo in that court. Michty v. Clark, 10, 475 (6 N. W., 760). Where county court had no jurisdiction, the district court could acquire none on appeal. Brondberg v. Babbott, 14, 520 (16 N. W., 845).

5141. A complete record of every cause in the supreme court, as soon as it is finally determined, shall be made by the clerk of such court. Such record shall consist of the petition in error, the process and subsequent proceedings, and opinion of the court, but shall not include the transcript of proceedings had in the district court.

Secs. 5142 to 5145. "An act to provide for appeals in actions in equity." 1873. In force March 3. G. S., p. 716.

5142. That in actions in equity either party may appeal from the judgment or decree rendered or final order made by the district court, to the supreme court of the state; the party appealing shall, within six months after the date of the rendition of the judgment or decree, or the making of the final order, procure from the clerk of the district court and file in the office of the clerk of the supreme court a certified transcript of the proceedings had in the cause in the district court, containing the pleadings, the judgment or decree rendered or final order made therein, and all the depositions, testimony, and proofs offered in evidence on the hearing of the cause, and have the said cause properly docketed in the supreme court; and on failure thereof, the judgment or decree rendered or the final order made in the district court shall stand and be proceeded in as if no appeal had been taken.

Time does not begin to run until decree has been entered of record so that appellant can have a transcript thereof. Bickel v. Dutcher, 35, 761 (53 N. W., 663); overruling Horn v. Miller, 20, 101 (29 N. W., 260). The time here fixed is jurisdictional, and can only be extended where appellant is guilty of no laches. Fitzgerald v. Brandt, 36, — (54 N. W., 992). Supreme court cannot extend time for taking appeal. Verges v. Roush, 1, 114. Affidavits will be received showing transcript filed in time. Filing mark of clerk only prima facie evidence. Tootle v. White, 4, 405. No other notice required than filing supersedeas bond. State Bank of Neb. v. Green, 8, 305. It is not essential to jurisdiction that transcript should be complete; notice of appeal is not essential; modifies Jefferson Co. v. Saxon, 10, 14 (4 N. W., 309). Schuyler v. Hanna, 28, 604 (44 N. W., 731). It must show when, where, and in what court judgment was taken. Clark v. Wright, 6, 413. Stipulation of facts will not take place of bill. Herbison v. Taylor, 29, 219 (45 N.W., 626). The same steps are required to preserve the evidence for use on appeal as on error. Where appellant fails to appear and point out any error, and no error is apparent, judgment will be affirmed. Leech v. Philpott, 12, 577 (12 N. W., 116). An appeal will not be dismissed on the ground that no bill of exceptions has been settled and allowed. Hines v. Cochran, 36, — (53 N. W., 1118). Motion for a new trial is a condition precedent to a review in the supreme court. Creighton v. Newton, 5, 101. Decree confirming sale of real estate is a final order from which an appeal will lie. State Bank of Neb. v. Green, 8, 304. Where demurrer has been sustained in suit in equity, the case may be appealed to supreme court. Arnold v. Baker, 6, 136. In an action before a justice of the peace, where judgment was taken by default, and petition filed in district court to set aside such judgment and obtain a new trial, an appeal will lie where such default was unavoidable. Horn v. Queen, 5, 477. An appeal lies to supreme court from a decree granting a divorce. Practice in such a case. Brotherton v. Brotherton, 12, 73 (10 N. W., 543). A ruling on a motion to retax costs is reviewable. Whitall v. Cressman, 18, 509 (26 N. W., 245). An order for temporary alimony cannot be taken up until final judgment in divorce. Aspinwall v. Aspinwall, 18, 463 (25 N. W., 623). An appeal does not lie from an order vacating the temporary injunction granted at the commencement of the action and which fails to show any final disposition of the case. School District v. Brown, 10, 441 (6 N. W., 770). Nor from an order overruling motion to vacate. Clark v. Fitch, 32, 511 (49 N. W., 374). See Irwin et ux. v. Calhoun & Croxton, 3, 457; Glore v. Hare, 4, 132; Jefferson Co. v. Saxon, 10, 17 (4 N. W., 309); Morse & Co. v. Engle, 26, 247 (41 N. W., 1098).

Same procedure must be observed in preparing bill of exceptions in an equity case as in action at law. When bill of exceptions was signed without being submitted to adverse party, it was quashed in motion. Uhling v. Schellenberg, 12, 609 (12 N. W., 272). Howard v. Lamaster, 13, 222 (13 N. W., 211). Must have certificate of judge. Hale v. Christie, 8, 267.

5144. No appeal in any case in equity, now pending and undetermined, or which shall hereafter be brought, shall operate as a supersedeas, unless the appellant or appellants shall, within twenty days next after the rendition of such judgment or decree, or the making of such final order, execute to the adverse party a bond with one or more sureties as follows: First—When the judgment, decree, or final order appealed from directs the payment of money, the bond shall be in double the amount of the judgment, decree, or final order, conditioned that the appellant or appellants will prosecute such appeal without delay, and pay all condemnation money and costs which may be found against him or them on the final determination of the cause in the supreme court. Second—When the judgment, decree, or final order directs the execution of a conveyance or other instrument the bond shall be in such sum as shall be prescribed by the district court, or judge thereof in vacation, conditioned that the appellant, or appellants, will prosecute such appeal without delay, and will abide and perform the judgment or decree rendered, or final order which shall be made by the supreme court in the cause. Third—When the judgment, decree, or order directs the sale or delivery of possession of real estate, the bond shall be in such sum as the court, or judge thereof in vacation, shall prescribe, conditioned that the appellant or appellants will prosecute such appeal without delay, and will not during the pendency of such appeal commit, or suffer to be committed, any waste upon such real estate. * Fourth—When the judgment, decree, or final order dissolves or modifies any order of injunction which has been, or hereafter may be granted, the supersedeas bond shall be in such reasonable sum as the conrt, or judge thereof in vacation, shall prescribe, conditioned that the appellant or appellants will prosecute such appeal without delay, and will pay all costs which may be found against him or them on the final determination of the cause in the supreme court; and such supersedeas bond shall stay the doing of the act or acts sought to be restrained by the suit, and continue such injunction in force until the case is heard and finally determined in the supreme court. The undertaking given upon the allowance of the injunction shall be and remain in effect until it is finally decided whether or not the injunction ought to have been granted.

All after * added 1889, p. 371. Amount of bond discretionary with court. Attorney no authority to waive supersedeas bond. State Bank of Nebraska v. Green, 8, 306. A third party buying land where no bond is given takes a good title. Parker v. Courtnay, 28, 608 (44 N. W., 863). Unless supersedeas bond is executed according to law, the clerk should issue order of sale. State v. Thiele, 19, 221 (27 N. W., 109). A defendant failing to resist confirmation of a sale of real estate cannot appeal therefrom. State, ex rel. McClosky, v. Doane, 35, 709 (53 N. W., 611).

5145. Before any bond executed as aforesaid shall operate as a supersedeas, the execution of the same, and the sufficiency of the sureties therein, must be approved by the clerk of the court in which the judgment or decree was rendered or the final order was made.

CHAPTER II.—PROCEEDINGS TO REVERSE, VACATE OR MODIFY JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS IN THE COURTS IN WHICH THEY ARE RENDERED.

5146 (602). A district court shall have power to vacate or modify its own judgments or orders, after the term at which such judgment or order was made: First—By granting a new trial of the cause, within the time and in the manner prescribed in section three hundred and eighteen. Second—By a new trial granted in proceedings against defendants constructively summoned, as provided in section seventy-seven. Third—For mistake, neglect or omission of the clerk, or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order. Fourth—For fraud practiced by the successful party in obtaining the judgment or order. Fifth—For erroneous proceedings against an infant, married woman, or person of unsound mind, where the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings. Sixth—For the death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action. Seventh—For unavoidable casualty or misfortune, preventing the party from prosecuting or defending. Eighth—For errors in a judgment shown by an infant in twelve months after arriving at full age, as prescribed in section four hundred and forty-two. Ninth—For taking judgments upon warrants of attorney, for more than was due to the plaintiff, when the defendant was not summoned, or otherwise legally notified of the time and place of taking such judgment.

Does not confer original jurisdiction. Proceedings may be reviewed in error. Iler v. Darnell, 5, 193. Stranger cannot be substituted after judgment. Hicklin v. Nebraska City National Bank, 8, 467. That a summons served on wife by leaving at home with husband was by him destroyed and never seen by her, is not cause for a new trial. Morse v. Engle, 28, 543 (44 N. W., 859) Petition to reinstate case dismissed for want of prosecution, alleging as excuse lack of knowledge that time of holding court had been changed, does not show unavoidable accident or misfortune. Smith v. Pinney, 2, 145. District court has discretionary powers over its own judgments during term at which they are rendered. Wise v. Frey, 9, 220 (2 N. W., 375). Decree of divorce may be set aside after term when obtained by fraud. Wisdom v. Wisdom, 24, 551 (39 N. W., 594). If errors of fact are alleged, issue may be joined and trial had. If sufficient is shown, court next inquires into defenses. Thompson v. Sharp, 17, 69 (22 N. W., 78). Exercise of this power by county court upheld. Mordhorst v. Reynolds, 23, 488 (37 N. W., 80). A suit to set aside or modify a judgment for other grounds must be founded upon some recognized source of equity jurisdiction. Douglas v. Connell, 15, 617 (19 N. W., 591). A party is not deprived of the right to move under this section by taking a stay. Hoagland v. Way, 35, 390 (53 N. W., 207). Cited, Jennings v. Simpson, 12, 566 (11 N. W., 880); Spencer v. Thistle, 13, 229 (13 N. W., 214); Carlow v. Aultman, 28, 675 (44 N. W., 873).

5147 (603). The proceedings to vacate or modify the judgment or order on the grounds mentioned in subdivisions four, five, six, seven, eight, and nine of the last preceding section, shall be by petition verified by affidavit, setting forth the judgment or order, the grounds to vacate or modify it, and the defense to the action, if the party applying was defendant. On such petition a summons shall issue and be served as in the commencement of an action; Provided, Such summons shall not issue in any case in which there is upon the minutes of the court, or among the files of the case, a waiver of error by the party or his attorney, unless the court or a judge thereof shall endorse upon the petition permission to issue such summons.

5148 (604). The proceedings to correct mistakes or omissions of the clerk, or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order, shall be by motion, upon reasonable notice to the adverse party or his attorney in the action. The motion to vacate a judgment because of its rendition before the action regularly stood for trial, can be made only in the first three days of the succeeding term.

5149 (605). The court may first try and decide upon the grounds to vacate or modify a judgment or order, before trying or deciding upon the validity of the defense or cause of action.

5150 (606). A judgment shall not be vacated on motion or petition, until it is adjudged that there is a valid defense to the action in which the judgment is rendered, or, if the plaintiff seeks its vacation, that there is a valid cause of action; and where a judgment is modified, all liens and securities obtained under it shall be preserved to the modified judgment.

Spencer v. Thistle, 13, 229 (13 N. W., 214).

5151 (607). The party seeking to vacate or modify a judgment or order, may obtain an injunction suspending proceedings on the whole or part thereof, which injunction may be granted by the court, or any judge thereof, upon its being rendered probable, by affidavit or by exhibition of the record, that the party is entitled to have such judgment or order vacated or modified.

5153 (609). Proceedings to vacate or modify a judgment or order, for the causes mentioned in subdivisions four, five, and seven of section six hundred and two, must be commenced within two years after the judgment was rendered or order made, unless the party entitled thereto be an infant, married woman, or person of unsound mind, and then within two years after removal of such disability. Proceedings for the causes mentioned in subdivisions three and six of the same section shall be within three years, and in subdivision nine within one year, after the defendant has notice of the judgment.

5154 (610). The provisions of this title, subsequent to section six hundred and one, shall apply to the supreme court and probate court, so far as the same may be applicable to the judgments or final orders of such courts. The parties shall be limited to the same time in which to commence proceedings; and in estimating time, the probate court shall, for this purpose, be considered as holding in each year, three terms of four months each, the first commencing on the first day of January of each year.

5155 (611). Cases pending in appellate courts on writs of error or otherwise, when this code takes effect, shall be conducted to final judgment as if it had not been adopted, and the liens of judgments and decrees rendered when it takes effect shall be preserved.

TITLE XVII.—Costs.

5156 (612). In all cases in which the plaintiff is a non-resident of the county in which the action is to be brought, before commencing such action the plaintiff must furnish a sufficient surety for costs. The surety must be a resident of the county where the action is to be brought, and approved by the clerk. His obligation shall be complete, simply by endorsing the summons, or signing his name on the complaint as security for costs. He shall be bound for the payment of all costs which may be adjudged against the plaintiff in the court in which the action is brought, or in any other to which it may be carried, and for costs of the plaintiff's witnesses, whether the plaintiff obtained judgment or not.

A cause will not be dismissed where security not given in time required. King v. Jackson, 25, 467 (41 N. W., 448). An order to retax costs is applicable, and such appeal would not necessarily bring any other branch of the case before the supreme court. B. & M. R. R. Co. v. Beebe, 14, 475 (16 N. W., 747).

5157 (613). An action in which security for the costs is required by the last section, and has not been given, shall be dismissed on motion and notice by the defendant at any proper time before judgment, unless in a reasonable time, to be allowed by the court, such security for costs be given.

5158 (614). If the plaintiff in an action, after its commencement, become a non-resident of the county in which it is brought, he shall give security for costs in the manner and under the restrictions provided in the two preceding sections.

5159 (615). In an action in which security for costs has been given, the defendant may at any time before judgment, after reasonable notice to the plaintiff, move the court for additional security on the part of the plaintiff; and if, on such motion, the court be satisfied that the surety has removed from this state, or is not sufficient, the action may be dismissed, unless, in a reasonable time to be fixed by the court, sufficient security be given by plaintiff.

5160 (616). After final judgment has been rendered in an action in which security for costs has been given, as required by this chapter, the court, on motion of the defendant, or any other person having a right to such costs, or any part thereof, after ten days' notice of such motion, may enter up judgment in the name of the defendant, or his legal representatives, against the surety for costs, his executors or administrators, for the amount of the costs adjudged against the plaintiff, or so much thereof as may be unpaid. Execution may be issued on such judgment, as in other cases, for the use and benefit of the persons entitled to such costs.

5161 (617). If any informer, under a penal statute, to whom the penalty, or any part thereof, if recovered, is given, shall dismiss his suit or prosecution, or fail in the same, he shall pay all costs accruing on such suit or prosecution, unless he be an officer whose duty it is to commence the same.

5164 (620). Where it is not otherwise provided by this and other statutes, costs shall be allowed of course to the plaintiff, upon a judgment in his favor, in actions for the recovery of money only, or for the recovery of specific real or personal property.

Each party is primarily liable for his own costs and may be required to pay or secure them in advance. Sechhler & Brotherton v. Stark, 12, 243 (11 N. W., 320).

5165 (621). If it shall appear that a justice of the peace has jurisdiction of an action, and the same has been brought in any other court, the plaintiff shall not recover costs; and in all actions for libel, slander, malicious prosecution, assault, assault and battery, false imprisonment, criminal conversation, seduction, actions for nuisance, or against a justice of the peace for misconduct in office, if the damages assessed be under five dollars, the plaintiff shall not recover any costs.

Plaintiff cannot recover costs when action is within jurisdiction of justice of the peace and brought in any other court. Geere v. Sweet, 2, 77. Action commenced in county court, judgment on appeal for $18, costs not allowed. Willard v. Ford, 16, 543 (20 N. W., 859). Jury found there was due the plaintiff from defendant $193.40, and to defendant from plaintiff on an offset $118.40, and accordingly gave a verdict for plaintiff of $75; held that plaintiff was not entitled to costs. Moore v. Darrow, 11, 462 (9 N. W., 637). See Martin v. Grover, 9, 264 (2 N. W., 354); R. V. R. Co. v. Fink, 28, 397 (44 N. W., 434).

5166 (622). Costs shall be allowed of course to any defendant upon a judgment in his favor in the actions mentioned in the last two sections.

5167 (623). In other actions the court may award and tax costs, and apportion the same between the parties on the same or adverse sides, as in its discretion it may think right and equitable.

Taxation of costs may be made a condition to permitting amended pleadings to be filed. Oberfelder v. Kavanaugh, 29, 432 (45 N. W., 471). Court has authority to apportion costs in a bastardy case. Jones v. State, 14, 210 (14 N. W., 901). See Hale v. Young, 24, 489 (39 N. W., 406).

5168 (624). Where several actions are brought on one bill of exchange, promissory note, or other obligation or instrument in writing, against several parties, who might have been joined as defendants in the same action, as allowed by section forty-four [4577], no costs shall be recovered by the plaintiff in more than one of such actions, if the parties proceeded against in the other actions were, at the commencement of the previous action, openly within the state.

5169 (625). When a summons is issued to another county than that in which the action or proceeding is pending, it may be returned by mail, and the sheriff shall be entitled to the same fees as if the summons had issued in the county of which he is sheriff.

Secs. 5170 and 5171. "An act to provide for taxing of costs in certain cases." 1875, p. 63. In force February 25.

5170. That when an application shall be made to a court of record to postpone a trial, the payment to the adverse party of a sum not exceeding ten dollars, besides the costs of the term, may in the discretion of the judges be imposed as a condition of granting the postponement.

See Coombs v. Brenklander, 29, 588 (45 N. W., 929).

5171. Costs may be allowed on a motion or demurrer, in the discretion of the court or judge, not exceeding ten dollars, which shall be absolute against the losing party on such demurrer or motion; Provided, That this provision shall not apply to verbal motions and demurrer ore tenus during the course of the trial.

TITLE XVIII.—ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS IN PARTICULAR CASES.

CHAPTER I.—ACTIONS CONCERNING REAL PROPERTY.

5172 (626). In an action for the recovery of real property, it shall be sufficient, if the plaintiff state in his petition that he has a legal estate therein, and is entitled to the possession thereof, describing the same as required by section one hundred and thirty-three, and that the defendant unlawfully keeps him out of the possession. It shall not be necessary to state how the plaintiff's estate or ownership is derived.

Under the code the action presents but two questions, title and the right of possession. Malloy v. Malloy, 35, 227 (52 N. W., 1097). Ejectment proper remedy for trial of title to lands. Snowden v. Tyler, 21, 215 (31 N. W., 661). Petition need not be in exact words of statute. Dunn v. Remington, 9, 84 (2 N. W., 230). Plaintiff must rely upon the strength of his own title, not on the weakness of his adversary's. Weeping Water v. Reed, 21, 271 (31 N. W., 797). Buck v. Gage, 27, 310 (43 N. W., 110). Butler v. Davis et al., 5, 525. Plaintiff must have not only legal title, but right to possession. Uppfalt v. Nelson, 18, 534 (26 N. W., 362). Must allege and prove that he has been turned out of the possession or has yielded the possession to the paramount title. Anderson v. Buchanan, 20, 272 (29 N. W., 935). When the proceedings of a railroad to condemn land are void, ejectment a proper remedy. No defense that condemnation proceedings are pending.

Hull v. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co., 21, 375 (32 N. W., 162). Where defendant is not in possession, and land is wild, uninclosed prairie, no damages can be awarded for use and occupation. Griffey v. Kennard, 24, 178 (38 N. W., 791). Tax sale certificate does not constitute color of title to real estate. McKeighan v. Hopkins, 14, 363 (15 N. W., 711). One not made a party, but in possession adverse to plaintiff, may enjoin latter from ousting him, but injunction will not prevent plaintiff from bringing suit to eject occupant. Tarkington v. Link, 27, 829 (44 N. W., 35). Defendant may interpose an equitable defense. Blazier v. Johnson, 11, 406 (9 N. W., 543). McMurtry v. Brown, 6, 369. Cited, Dale v. Hunneman, 12, 223 (10 N. W., 711).

5173 (627). It shall be sufficient in such action if the defendant in his answer deny, generally, the title alleged in the petition, or that he withholds possession, as the case may be; but if he deny the title of the plaintiff, possession by the defendant shall be taken as admitted. Where he does not defend for the whole premises, the answer shall describe the particular part for which defense is made.

Under a general denial defendant may prove by any legal evidence any fact which will defeat plaintiff; as, that a deed in plaintiff's chain of title was procured by fraud. Staley v. Housel, 35, 167 (52 N. W., 888).

5174 (628). In an action by a tenant in common of real property, against a co-tenant, the plaintiff must state, in addition to what is required in the first section of this chapter, that the defendant either denies the plaintiff's right, or did some act amounting to such denial.

5175 (629). In an action for the recovery of real property, where the plaintiff shows a right to recover at the time the action was commenced, but it appears that his right has terminated during the pendency of the action, the verdict and judgment must be according to the fact, and the plaintiff may recover for withholding the property.

5176 (630). In an action for the recovery of real property, the party against whom judgment is rendered may, at any time during the term at which the judgment is rendered, demand another trial by notice on the journal, and thereupon the judgment shall be vacated, and the action shall stand for trial at the next term.

First judgment is binding if not set aside at that term. Cannot be attacked collaterally. Bryant v. Estabrook, 16, 217 (20 N. W., 245). New trial allowed on account of newly discovered evidence. Smith v. Groves, 24, 545 (39 N. W., 597). Does not apply to actions quia timet. Mollie v. Peters, 28, 670 (44 N. W., 872).

5177 (631). No further trial can be had in such action, except upon appeal, unless for good cause shown, as in other actions.

5178 (632). The parties in an action for the recovery of property may avail themselves, if entitled thereto, of the relief of the statutes in force for the relief of occupying claimants of land.

To recover under occupying claimants' act (4380) for improvements or taxes, they must have been incurred while in good faith claiming title. Carter v. Brown, 35, 670 (53 N. W., 580). Rents and profits accrued since the service of summons in ejectment only are referred to in this section. Fletcher v. Brown, 35, 660 (53 N. W., 577).

5179 (633). If a guardian, tenant for life or years, joint tenant or tenant in common or real property, commit waste thereon, he is liable to pay three times the damages which have resulted from such waste, to the person who is entitled to sue therefor.

5180 (634). Judgment of forfeiture and conviction may be rendered against the defendant, whenever the amount of damages so recovered is more than two-thirds the value of the interest such defendant has in the property wasted, and when the action is brought by the person entitled to the reversion.

5181 (635). Any person whose duty it is to prevent waste, and who has not used reasonable care and diligence to prevent it, is deemed to have committed it.

5182 (636). For willful trespass, injuring any timber, tree, or shrub on the land of another, or in the street or highway in front of another's cultivated ground, yard, or town lot, or on the public grounds of any town, or any land held by this state, for any purpose whatever, the trespasser shall pay treble damages at the suit of any person entitled to protect or enjoy the property aforesaid.

5183 (637). Nothing herein contained authorizes the recovery of more than the just value of the timber taken from uncultivated wood land for the repair of a public highway or bridge in its immediate neighborhood.

5184 (638). The owner of an estate in remainder or reversion may maintain either of the aforesaid actions for injuries done to the inheritance, notwithstanding any intervening estate for life or years.

5185 (639). An heir, whether a minor or of full age, may maintain these actions for injuries done in the time of his ancestors as well as in his own time, unless barred by the statute of limitations.

5186 (640). Where lands or tenements are sold by virtue of an execution, the purchaser at such sale may maintain his action against any person, for either of the causes above mentioned, occurring or existing after his purchase.

5188 (642). But if for this purpose he employ timber vastly superior to that required for the occasion, he will be deemed to have committed waste, and will be liable accordingly.

CHAPTER II.—ACTIONS ON OFFICIAL SECURITIES.

5189 (643). When an officer, executor, or administrator within this state, by misconduct or neglect of duty, forfeits his bond or renders his sureties liable, any person injured thereby, or who is by law entitled to the benefit of the security may bring an action thereon, in his own name, against the officer, executor, or administrator, and his sureties, to recover the amount to which he may be entitled by reason of the delinquency. The action may be instituted and proceeded in on a certified copy of the bond, which copy shall be furnished by the person holding the original thereof.

See note to section 4949, citing Ryan v. State Bank, 10, 531 (7 N. W., 276).

5190 (644). A judgment in favor of a party for one delinquency, does not preclude the same or another party from an action on the same security for another delinquency.

CHAPTER III.—PROCEEDINGS UPON MANDAMUS.

Secs. 5191 and 5192 formed secs. 2 and 3, ch. 42, R. S. 1866, p. 279. (Sec. 1 refers to quo warranto. See post, 5237.)

5119. Any private person may, on his own relation, sue out writs of mandamus without application to the prosecuting attorney.

A relator having a personal right to be enforced may bring mandamus in the name of the state on his relation. State, ex rel. Levy, v. Spicer, 36, — (54 N. W., 849).

5192. Persons suing out either of the writs under the provisions of this chapter shall be liable to costs as in civil cases.

Secs. 5193 and 5194. "An act to regulate the prosecution of cases of original jurisdiction in the supreme court." 1867, p. 47. In force June 10.

5193. That proceedings in the supreme court in applications for mandamus shall be regulated by chapter 3 of title 18 [5191] of the code of civil procedure, in applications by quo warranto by title 23 [5238] of said code, and on application for habeas corpus by chapter 25 [5886] of the criminal code; and all other provisions of law relating to those remedies shall be applicable to said proceedings when had in said court exercising its original jurisdiction.

5195 (645). The writ of mandamus may be issued to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person, to compel the performance of an act which the law specially enjoins as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station. But though it may require an inferior tribunal to exercise its judgment, or proceed to the discharge of any of its functions, it cannot control judicial discretion.

Should not be used to correct errors but to compel action. State v. Kinkaid, 23, 641 (37 N. W., 612). Application for writ should show a demand and refusal, and should set forth facts which clearly impose upon the respondent the duty which it is sought to compel him to perform. Kemerer v. State, 7, 133. Relator must show a clear right to the performance by the respondent of the particular duty sought to be enforced, and that he has no adequate remedy at law. State v. City of Omaha, 14, 267 (15 N. W., 210). And that the respondent is in default of some legal duty then due at his hands. State, ex rel. Reed, v. Ramsey, 8, 292. Any person may compel an officer to perform a duty imposed by law. State v. Cummings, 17, 311 (22 N. W., 545). The writ cannot be used to contract legal discretion, but to compel officers to act. State, ex rel. Silver, v. Kendall, 15, 267 (18 N. W., 85). State v. Saline County, 18, 426 (25 N. W., 587). State v. Reynolds, 18, 431 (25 N. W., 610). Writ may be set aside by court granting same if obtained by fraud. State v. Matley, 17, 567 (24 N. W., 200). Mandamus is an action at law and is reviewable on error and not on appeal. State v. Lancaster County, 13, 223 (13 N. W., 212). Private party must make demand before he can obtain writ to compel county clerk and treasurer to keep their books in a particular manner. State v. Eberhardt, 14, 204 (15 N. W., 320). Office of writ not to find a definite sum due, but merely that it is the duty of proper officers to provide for what is due. State v. Cather, 22, 796 (36 N. W., 157). Lowest bidder or taxpayer may bring. People v. Commissioners of Buffalo County, 4, 161. Moderator may be compelled to sign reports of taxes voted in school district. State v. Studheit, 11, 361 (9 N. W., 559). The moderator of a school district may be compelled to countersign orders, by mandamus brought by superintendent. Montgomery v. State, ex rel., 35, 655 (53 N. W. 568). Writ will issue to compel railway company to deposit with county judge amount of an award of damages for right of way, from which no appeal has been taken. State, ex rel. Farmer, v. G. I. & W. C. R. Co., 27, 698 (43 N. W., 419). Mandamus awarded against state auditor to compel him to pay for 3,500 copies of Guy Brown's Statutes. State v. Wallichs, 12, 234 (11 N. W., 321). Will lie to compel sheriff to appoint appraisers under exemption laws. People, ex rel. Dobson, v. McClay, 2, 8. Writ lies to compel sheriff to quitclaim real estate, received by assignment for creditors, to his successor. Strunk v. State, ex rel. Lipp, 33, 326 (50 N. W., 14). Mandamus awarded against a county treasurer to compel him to pay certain county warrants, there being sufficient funds in the treasury. State v. Gandy, 12, 233 (11 N. W., 296). Speaker may be compelled to open and publish returns immediately upon organization of legislature. State, ex rel. Benton, v. Elder, 31, 170 (47 N. W., 710). A board may be compelled to convene and revoke a license granted by it illegally. State, ex rel. Cheever, v. Johnson, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 874). This court will not compel district court to fix an appeal bond in confirmation of sale of real estate not resisted in that court. State, ex rel. McClosky, v. Doane, 35, 707 (53 N. W., 611). Petition asking that notice of mortgage sale be published in a certain paper does not state ground for relief. State, ex rel. Elliott, v. Holliday, 35, 333 (53 N. W., 142). Title to an office cannot be tried by mandamus; yet the regularity or validity of a claimant's right may be looked into. State v. Planbeck, 36, — (54 N. W., 667). Cited, In re Sawyer, 8 Sup. Ct. White, 29, 291 (45 N. W., 631).

Writ will not issue where there is an adequate remedy at law. State, ex rel. Roberts, v. Mayor, 4, 261. State v. Gillespie, 9, 506 (4 N. W., 239). Will not issue to compel clerk of district court to issue order of sale, where there has been no application to such district court to direct the order. State, ex rel. Sloman, v. Moores, 29, 123 (45 N. W., 278). Writ will not lie to compel commissioners of public buildings to draw warrant in payment of subcontractor who has done work on public building. People, ex rel. Hudson, v. Butler, 2, 6. Not allowed when right to office drawn in question. Anderson v. Colson, 1, 172. Will not issue to compel levy of a tax to pay a dormant judgment. State v. School District, 25, 303 (41 N. W., 155). Writ to compel revocation of saloon license will not be granted by supreme court while an appeal is pending before it, from judgment of district court, sustaining action of city council. State, ex rel. Foster, v. Barton, 27, 476 (43 N. W., 249). Will not issue to compel justice to make order in a case after it has been taken to district court. State, ex rel. Rudabeck, v. Livsey, 27, 56 (42 N. W., 762). Mandamus to compel treasurer to issue tax deeds will not lie where actions are pending in other courts to have tax proceedings declared void. State v. Patterson, 11, 266 (9 N.W., 82). Nor to compel an officer to release property where replevin would lie. State v. Gillespie, 9, 507 (4 N. W., 239). Writ will not issue to correct error committed by a court, or other tribunal exercising judicial powers. McGee v. State, ex rel., etc., 32, 149 (49 N. W., 220). The right to mandamus is barred in four years under section 4552. State, ex rel. Chemical National Bank, v. School District No. 9, 30, 520 (46 N. W., 613).

5198 (648). When the right to require the performance of the act is clear, and it is apparent that no valid excuse can be given for not performing it, a peremptory mandamus may be allowed in the first instance. In all other cases, the alternative writ must be first issued.

But when the facts upon which the application is based are disputed on the hearing of the order to show cause, an alternative and not a peremptory writ must be first issued. American Water Works Co. v. State, 31, 447 (48 N. W., 64).

5199 (649). The motion for the writ must be made upon affidavit, and the court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice.

5200 (650). The allowance of the writ must be endorsed thereon, signed by a judge of the court granting it, and the writ must be served personally upon the defendant. If the defendant duly served neglect to return the same, he shall be proceeded against as for a contempt.

May be allowed by judge at chambers within his district when right is clear. Clark v. State, 24, 265 (38 N. W., 752).

5201 (651). On the return day of the alternative writ, or such further day as the court may allow, the party on whom the writ shall have been served, may show cause, by answer made, in the same manner as an answer to a petition in a civil action.

Mere allegations of fraud and illegal voting, without any statement of facts upon which such charges were based, were held not sufficient as a defense to application for mandamus. Hunter v. State, 14, 507 (16 N. W., 830).

5202 (652). If no answer be made, a peremptory mandamus must be allowed against the defendant. If an answer be made containing new matter, the same shall not in any respect conclude the plaintiff, who may, on the trial or other proceeding, avail himself of any valid objection to its sufficiency, or may countervail it by proof, either in direct denial or by way of avoidance.

5203 (653). No other pleading or written allegation is allowed than the writ and answer. These are the pleadings in the case, and have the same effect and are to be construed and may be amended in the same manner as pleadings in a civil action; and the issues thereby joined must be tried, and the further proceedings thereon had in the same manner as in a civil action.

Verification upon information and belief not good. Affidavit should set out facts. The State, ex rel. Leonard, v. School Dists. Nos. 3 and 4, Clay Co., 8, 98. Writ may be demurred to and answer allowed if overruled. Long v. State, 17, 60 (22 N. W., 120). The facts cannot be determined on ex parte affidavits against objection of a party. American Water Works Co. v. State, 31, 447 (48 N. W., 64).

5204 (654). If judgment be given for the plaintiff, he shall recover the damages which he shall have sustained, to be ascertained by the court or a jury, or by referees, in a civil action, and costs; and a peremptory mandamus shall also be granted to him without delay.

5205 (655). A recovery of damages by virtue of this chapter, against a party who shall have made a return to a writ of mandamus, is a bar to any other action against the same party for the making of such return.

5206 (656). Whenever a peremptory mandamus is directed to any public officer, body, or board, commanding the performance of any public duty especially enjoined by law, if it appear to the court that such officer, or any member of such body or board, has without just excuse refused or neglected to perform the duty so enjoined, the court may impose a fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars, upon every such officer, or member of such body or board. Such fine, when collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the duty ought to have been performed; and the payment thereof is a bar to an action for any penalty incurred by such officer, or member of such body or board, by reason of his refusal or neglect to perform the duty so enjoined.

Respondent not liable for contempt for not paying judgment for costs. State v. Jaynes, 19, 697 (26 N. W., 711).

TITLE XIX.—JURIES.

5207 (657). All free white males residing in any of the counties of this state, having the qualifications of electors, and being over the age of twenty-one years, and of sound mind and discretion, and not being judges of the supreme court or district courts, clerks of the supreme or district courts, sheriffs, coroners or jailers, or subject to any bodily infirmity amounting to a disability, and who have not been convicted of a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, and are not subject to disability for the commission of any offense which by special provision of law does or shall disqualify them, are and shall be competent persons to serve on all grand and petit juries, within their counties respectively; Provided, That persons over sixty years of age, ministers of the gospel, probate judges, county commissioners, licensed attorneys, practicing physicians, postmasters, and carriers of the United States mails, shall not be compelled to serve as jurors.

Colored men competent. Brittle v. The People, 2, 224. Juror must be an elector of county wherein he is called to serve. Hart v. State, 14, 574 (16 N. W., 905).

Sec. 5208. "An act concerning the competency of jurors." 1877, p. 16. In force June 1.

5208. That on the trial of any suit in which a municipal corporation is a party, the inhabitants and taxpayers of such municipal corporation shall be competent jurors if otherwise competent and qualified according to law.

Taxpayer competent in suit against city. City of Omaha v. Olmstead, 5, 453.

5209 (658). In each of the counties in this state wherein a district court is appointed or directed to be holden, the county commissioners of the county shall, at least fifteen days before the first day of the session of the court, meet together, or any two of them may meet, and select sixty persons possessing the qualifications prescribed in section six hundred and fifty-seven,* and as nearly as may be, a proportionate number from each precinct in the county, and shall, within five days thereafter, furnish to the clerk of the district court of the county, or his deputy, a list of the names of the persons selected.

The law requiring a proportionate number of jurors to be selected from each precinct is mandatory. Barton v. State, 12, 263 (11 N. W., 323). Clark v. Saline County, 9, 522 (4 N. W., 246). Shall be summoned from the body of the county. Smith v. State, 4, 287. List may be made on basis of last vote of the several precincts. Bohanan v. State, 15, 209 (18 N. W., 129). This section must have a reasonable construction. Polin v. State, 14, 542 (16 N. W., 898). Not proper for court to order sheriff to fill up jury with certain persons. Prenit v. People, 5, 379. Power should be exercised with care. McElroy v. State, 9, 164 (2 N. W., 378). Grand jury called in part from a petit jury constitutes an illegal body. Burley v. State, 1, 396. Extra jurymen may be called when regular panel excused or challenged. Dodge v. People, 4, 230. A challenge to the panel must be sworn to positively. Weeping Water v. Haldeman, 35, 142 (52 N. W., 892). Objections to inequality of the selection and other errors are waived, unless objected to before trial by motion to quash the panel. Davis v. State, 31, 254 (47 N W., 854) Cited sub nom. section 5159, Baldwin v. State, 12, 63 (10 N. W., 463); Barton v. State, 12, 264 (11 N. W., 323); Ex parte Crawford, 12, 382 (11 N. W., 494); State v. Page, 12, 389 (11 N. W., 495).

5210 (659). The clerk or deputy clerk receiving the names shall write the name of each person selected on a separate ticket, and place the whole number of tickets into a box or other suitable and safe receptacle, and shall preserve the list of names furnished by the commissioners in the files of his office.

5211 (660). The clerk of the district court or his deputy, and the sheriff or his deputy, or, if there be no sheriff or deputy sheriff, the coroner of the county shall, at least ten days before the first day of the session of the district court, meet together and draw by lot out of a box, a receptacle wherein shall be kept the tickets mentioned and referred to in section six hundred and fifty-nine (659) of said title, twenty-four names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall be the petit jurors. And when a grand jury is ordered, the clerk or deputy clerk, and sheriff or deputy sheriff, or coroner, if there be no sheriff or deputy sheriff, shall then draw sixteen (16) additional names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall be the grand jury.

5212 (661). The clerk shall, on the day of the drawing aforementioned, issue an order to the sheriff, deputy sheriff, or coroner, as the case may be, commanding him to summon the persons whose names are drawn as petit jurors to appear before the district court at or before the hour of eleven o'clock on the morning of the first day of the term, stating in the order the day of the week and month and the place of the sitting of the court, to serve as petit jurors, and a like order commanding the sheriff, deputy sheriff, or coroner to summon the grand jury when a grand jury has been ordered and drawn.

5213 (662). The sheriff, deputy sheriff, or coroner, having received the order, shall, at least five days before the first day of the session of the court, make service of said order upon each person whose name was selected and drawn as a petit juror by reading or delivering a copy of the same to the person summoned, or by leaving a copy at his residence, except that the copy shall contain only the name of the person served and not the name of any other petit juror. And when a grand jury is ordered and summoned service of said order shall be made on each person in the same manner as is provided for service on a petit juror in this section.

Amended 1885, p. 382. Officer cannot demand fees in advance for serving summons. Beach v. State, ex rel. Emmons, 27, 398 (43 N. W., 177).

5214 (663). Each grand juror and petit juror summoned shall appear before the court on the day and at the hour specified in the summons, and shall not depart without leave of court.

5215 (664). Whenever the proper officers fail to summon a grand or petit jury, or when all the persons summoned as grand or petit jurors do not appear before the district courts, or whenever at any general or special term, or at any period of a term for any cause there is no panel of grand jurors or petit jurors, or the panel is not complete, said court may order the sheriff, deputy sheriff, or coroner to summon without delay good and lawful men, having the qualifications of jurors, and each person summoned shall forthwith appear before the court, and if competent, shall serve on the grand jury or petit jury, as the case may be, unless such person may be excused from serving or lawfully challenged.

5216 (665). No person shall be summoned as a juror in any district court of this state more than once in two years, and it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any juror called to be sworn in any cause that he has been summoned and attended said court as a juror, at any term of said court held within two years prior to the time of such challenge; Provided, No finding, verdict, or inquest returned by any jury shall be invalidated or set aside because a member of such jury served as a grand or petit juror within the two (2) years immediately preceding such verdict or inquest.

Rewritten 1881, p. 207. That a juryman has served within the two years is ground of challenge whether he be summoned regularly or as a talesman. Wiseman v. Bruns, 36, — (54 N. W., 858).

5218 (667). If any person summoned to appear as grand juror or petit juror, fails, refuses or neglects to appear, such person shall be considered guilty of contempt of the court, and may be fined by the court in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars; and if any person, when a second order or attachment is issued, neglects or refuses to appear, such person may be fined as above provided, and imprisoned by the court not longer than ten days in the county jail; and if the county commissioners in any county neglect or fail to select and furnish to the clerk names of persons as hereinbefore provided, such persons so offending may be fined by the court not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars; and if any clerk of the district court, or deputy clerk, or sheriff, deputy sheriff, or coroner, neglects or fails to perform the duties imposed by this chapter, the person so offending shall be considered guilty of contempt of court, and may be fined by the court not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars; and if guilty of gross misconduct in office and contempt, may be imprisoned by the court not longer than thirty days in the county jail.

JURIES IN COUNTIES OF 70,000.

Secs. 5220 to 5233. "An act to provide for the manner of selecting, drawing, and summoning grand and petit jurors in counties having a population of seventy thousand (70,000) or more, to prescribe the qualifications of such jurors, to provide for the punishment of persons seeking to serve as jurors, or seeking to have other persons selected as jurors," etc. 1889, p. 408. In force March 30. (Repealing secs. 658–61 and 665 of code.)

5220. That the county board of commissioners or supervisors of counties having a population of seventy thousand (70,000) or more shall at or before the time of its meeting in January in each year, or at any time thereafter when necessary for the purposes of this act, make a list of a sufficient number, not less than one-tenth of the legal voters of each town or precinct in the county, giving the place of residence of each name on the list, to be known as the jury list.

5221. In making such selection, the county board shall choose a proportionate number from the residents of each town or precinct, and shall take the names of such only as are in the opinion of the board: First—Citizens of the town or precinct not exempt from serving on juries. Second—Of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, and under sixty years old. Third—In possession of their natural faculties. Fourth—Free from all legal exceptions, of fair character, of approved integrity, of sound judgment, well informed, and who understand the English language.

Changed by omitting first part of old section, 1891, p. 401.

5222. If, for any reason, the list or the selection provided for in the foregoing sections of this act shall not be made at the meeting of the board held at the time specified, such list or selection shall be made at any meeting, to be held as soon thereafter as may be.

5224. As often as one list shall have been exhausted, another shall be furnished, as provided in section one (1) of this act, and the jurors shall be selected therefrom in the manner provided in sections two (2) and three (3). The clerks of the district courts and other courts of record in the county shall, at the end of each term of court, furnish the county clerk a list of all persons who have served as jurors during the term.

5225. A list of jurors so selected shall be kept in the office of the county clerk, who shall write the name and residence of each person selected upon a separate ticket and put the whole into a box or wheel to be kept for that purpose.

5226. At least twenty days before the first day of any trial term of the district court, the clerk of such court shall repair to the office of the county clerk, and in the presence of such county clerk, and at least one of the judges of the district court, after the box or wheel containing said names has been well shaken by the county clerk, and without partiality, draw thirty (30) names of persons, then residents of said county, for each judge sitting with a jury in said court, as petit jurors for the first three weeks of that term, unless such court shall otherwise order, and said clerk shall, immediately after such drawing, post in a conspicuous place in his office the names of the persons so drawn, and shall also immediately notify said persons by registered letters of the fact of their having been drawn as jurors, which notice shall command them to appear at the place of holding such court at the hour of ten A. M. of the first (1st) day of the term of said court. If any person so drawn shall fail to appear at said time and place, the court shall order the clerk to issue a summons for him to appear forthwith, which shall be served as provided in section six hundred and sixty-two (662) of the code of civil procedure, and unless such person upon his appearance shall make it satisfactorily appear to the court that he had no actual notice that he was drawn as a juror, and required to report as aforesaid, he shall be taxed with the costs of such service, which shall be entered as a judgment against him in favor of the state, and when collected shall be turned over to the treasurer of said county. The court shall examine all jurors so drawn who appear, and if more than twenty-four petit jurors for each judge sitting with a jury, who are qualified and not subject to any exemptions or any of the disqualifications provided in this act, shall appear and remain after all excuses are allowed, the court shall discharge by lot the number in excess of twenty-four for each judge sitting with a jury. At the same time and in the same manner the clerk of said court shall also draw the same number of names as petit jurors for the second three weeks of that term, and the persons so drawn shall be notified and summoned the same as those first drawn, and, during the term, the court shall direct the clerk to draw, notify, and summon other petit jurors in the manner described, as often as the length of the term may require; Provided, That should said clerk draw from the said box the name of a person whom he may know to be dead, it shall be the duty of said clerk to report the name of such person to the county clerk, and said clerk of such court shall draw other names until the required number shall have been selected; Provided, also, That whenever there shall be pending for trial in said court, any criminal cause wherein the defendant is charged with a felony, and the judge holding said court shall be convinced from the circumstances of the case that a jury cannot be obtained from the regular panel to try said cause, said judge may in his discretion prior to the day fixed for the trial of said cause direct the clerk to draw (in the same manner as the regular panel is drawn) such number as the judge may direct as a special panel, from which a jury may be selected to try said cause, which panel shall be notified and summoned for said day the same as the regular panel.

5227. If a grand jury shall be required by law or by order of the judge for any term of court, it shall be the duty of the county board in each of the counties in this state wherein such court is directed to be holden, at least twenty (20) days before the sitting of such court, to select twenty-three (23) persons, possessing the qualifications as provided in section two (2) of this act, and as near as may be a proportionate number from each town or precinct in their respective counties, to serve as grand jurors at such term; and to cause the county clerk, within five days thereafter, to certify the names of the persons so selected as grand jurors to the clerk of the court for which they are selected, who shall issue and deliver to the sheriff of the county wherein the court is to be held, at least ten days before the term of the court for which they shall have been selected, or during term time if the court shall order, a summons commanding him to summon the persons so selected as aforesaid, to appear before such court at or before the hour of eleven (11) o'clock A. M., on the first day of the term, or upon such other day as the judge shall direct, to constitute a grand jury for such term. The sheriff shall serve such summons in the manner provided for service of summons on petit jurors, and for any refusal or neglect so to do, shall be deemed guilty of contempt of court, and may be fined therefor as provided in section six hundred and sixty-seven (667) of the code of civil procedure. The judge shall examine the jurors who appear, and if more than sixteen grand jurors who are qualified and not subject to any exemption or any of the disqualifications provided in this act shall appear and remain after all excuses are allowed, the sheriff or deputy sheriff shall draw by lot the names of the number in excess of sixteen who shall be discharged by the court; and the sixteen remaining shall constitute the grand jury.

5228. The clerk of the court shall, within five days after such drawing, issue to the sheriff a summons commanding him to summon, as petit jurors, a sufficient number, not less than thirty, of the persons so drawn, giving their residences, to appear at the place of holding such court, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of the first day of the term, or upon such other day of the term as the judge shall direct and a like number to appear at the same place and hour two weeks after the time, at which the former number of jurors were summoned to appear, and the same number for each two weeks thereafter the court will probably be in session, which summons shall be served as provided in section six hundred sixty-two (662) of the code of civil procedure.

5229. If for any reason the panel of petit jurors shall not be full at the opening of such court, or at any time during the term, the clerk of such court may again repair to the office of the county clerk and draw in the same manner as at the first drawing, such number of jurors as the court shall direct, to fill such panel, who shall be notified and summoned in the same manner as the others, and, if necessary, jurors may continue to be so drawn, notified, and summoned from time to time until the panel shall be filled. In case a jury shall be required in such court for trial of any cause, before the panel shall be filled in the manner herein provided, the court shall direct the sheriff to summon from the bystanders, or from the body of the county, a sufficient number of persons having the qualifications of jurors, as provided in this act, to fill the panel, in order that a jury to try such cause may be drawn therefrom, and when such jury is drawn, the persons selected from the bystanders, or from the body of the county, to fill the panel, and not chosen on the jury, shall be discharged from the panel, and those who shall be chosen to serve on such jury shall also be discharged from the panel at the conclusion of the trial; Provided, That persons selected from the bystanders, as provided in this section, shall not thereby be disqualified or exempt from service as jurors, when regularly drawn by the clerk for that purpose, in the manner provided in this act.

5230. When by reason of challenge in the selection of a jury for the trial of any cause, or by reason of the sudden sickness or absence of any juror for any cause, the regular panel shall be exhausted, the court may direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of persons having the qualifications of jurors to fill the panel for the pending trial; but, upon objection by either party to the cause to the sheriff summoning a sufficient number of persons to fill the panel, the court shall appoint a special bailiff to summon such person; Provided, The same person shall not be appointed special bailiff more than once at any term of court. Any person who shall seek the position of juror, or who shall ask any attorney or other officer of the court or other person to secure his selection as a juryman, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and be fined not exceeding twenty dollars ($20), and shall thereby be disqualified from serving as a juror for that term, and such fact shall be sufficient ground for challenge. Any attorney or party to a suit pending for trial at that term who shall request or solicit the placing of any person upon a jury shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of the court and be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), and the person so sought to be put upon the jury shall be disqualified to serve as a juror at that term of court.

5231. It shall be sufficient cause of challenge of a petit juror that he lacks any one of the qualifications mentioned in section two (2) of this act; or in section six hundred and fifty-seven (657) of the code of civil procedure, or if he is not one of the regular panel, that he has served as a juror on the trial of a cause in any court of record in the county within one year previous to the time of his being offered as a juror, or that he is a party to a suit pending for trial in that court, at that term. It shall be the duty of the court to discharge from the panel all jurors who do not possess the qualifications provided in this act as soon as the fact is discovered; Provided, If a person has served on a jury in a court of record within one year he shall be exempt from again serving during such year unless he waives such exemption; Provided further, That it shall not be a cause of challenge that a juror has read in the newspapers an account of the commission of the crime with which the prisoner is charged, if such juror shall state on oath that he believes he can render an impartial verdict, according to the law and the evidence; And provided further, That in the trial of any criminal cause, the fact that a person called as a juror has formed an opinion or impression based upon rumor or upon newspaper statements (about the truth of which he has expressed no opinion) shall not disqualify him to serve as a juror in such case, if he shall upon oath state that he believes he can fairly and impartially render a verdict therein, in accordance with the law and the evidence, and the court shall be satisfied of the truth of such statement.

See Palmer v. The People, 4, 75. Last clause held to apply to civil cases also. Scott v. Chope, 33, 95 (49 N. W., 940).

5232. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court at the commencement of each week of the term to write the name of each petit juror summoned and retained for that week on a separate ticket, and put the whole into a box or other place for safe keeping, and as often as it shall be necessary to empanel a jury, the clerk, sheriff, or coroner shall, in the presence of the court, draw by chance twelve names out of such box or other place, which shall be designated the twelve to be sworn on the jury, and in the same manner for the second jury, in their turn, as the court may order and direct.

5233. Sections six hundred fifty-eight (658), six hundred fifty-nine (659), six hundred sixty (660), six hundred sixty-one (661), and six hundred sixty-five (665) of the code of civil procedure, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, shall be repealed so far as respect counties having a population of seventy thousand (70,000) or more; Provided, That the existing law relating to juries shall be in effect in the respective counties until such time as the county boards of the respective counties having a population of seventy thousand (70,000) or more shall have complied with provisions of this act.

This act construed and held valid, and not to be operative and not to supersede the old law until the board acts under it. Neal v. State, 32, 327 (49 N. W., 174).

TITLE XX.—CONTEMPTS.

5234 (669). Every court of record shall have power to punish by fine and imprisonment, or by either, as for criminal contempt, persons guilty of any of the following acts: First—Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior towards the court, or any of its officers in its presence. Second—Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance tending to interrupt its proceedings. Third—Willful disobedience of or resistance willfully offered to any lawful process or order of said court. Fourth—Any willful attempt to obstruct the proceedings or hinder the due administration of justice in any suit, proceedings, or process pending before the courts. Fifth—The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn or affirmed as a witness, and when sworn or affirmed, the refusal to answer any legal and proper interrogatory.

Power to punish for contempt is inherent in every court having common law jurisdiction without regard to statute. Kregel v. Bartling, 23, 852 (37 N. W., 668). District court has authority to punish for contempt any person who attempts to corrupt or unlawfully influence jurors. Proceedings for constructive contempt must be commenced by an information under oath. The acts constituting the alleged contempt must be stated. Gandy v. State, 13, 449 (14 N. W., 143). Failure to pay judgment for alimony is not a contempt. Segear v. Segear, 23, 308 (36 N. W., 536). A county judge cannot punish the violation of an injunction granted by him under section 4768. Johnson v. Bouton, 35, 903 (53 N. W., 995).

5235 (670). Contempts committed in the presence of the court may be punished summarily; in other cases the party, upon being brought before the court, shall be notified of the accusation against him, and have a reasonable time to make his defense.

Secs. 672, 673, 674, relative to contempts in justice's court, being identical with secs. 5568–70, post, are omitted.

TITLE XXI.

Secs. 675 to 688, comprising this title, providing for appeals from district to supreme court having been, in effect, declared inoperative [Irwin v. Calhoun, 3, 453] are omitted. For the act now in force regulating such appeals, see secs. 5142 to 5145.

QUO WARRANTO.

Sec. 5237 formed sec. 1 of ch. 42, R. S. 1866, p. 279. Secs. 2 and 3 refer to mandamus. See ante, secs. 5191 and 5192.

5237. When any citizen of this state shall claim any office which is usurped, invaded, or unlawfully held and exercised by another, the person so claiming such office shall have the right to file in the district court an information in the nature of a quo warranto, upon his own relation, and with or without the consent of the prosecuting attorney, and such person shall have the right to prosecute said information to final judgment; Provided, He shall have first applied to the prosecuting attorney to file the information, and the prosecuting attorney shall have refused or neglected to file the same.

Any one claiming an office may proceed by quo warranto in his own name if attorney general refuses to bring such action. State v. Frazier, 28, 455 (44 N. W., 471). Information by a private individual to enable him to take the seat of a de facto officer must state facts showing relator's right. State, ex rel. Cooper, v. Hamilton, 29, 205 (45 N. W., 279). Where the only claim the relator has to an office is as a hold-over, if he voluntarily abandons the office to the respondent while the action is pending, it is an abandonment of the action. One claiming an office by quo warranto must show that he has a better title than the incumbent. State, ex rel. Thayer, v. Boyd, 34, 435 (51 N. W., 964). In a proceeding to oust a corporation of its franchise it is the only necessary party defendant. State v. A. & N. R. Co., 24, 156 (38 N. W., 43). Is not for the correction of errors, but to compel action. State v. Kinkaid, 23, 641 (37 N. W., 612).

TITLE XXII.—Boats.

TITLE XXIII.—Informations.

5238 (704). An information may be filed against any person unlawfully holding or exercising any public office or franchise within this state, or any office in any corporation created by the laws of this state, or when any public officer has done or suffered any act which works a forfeiture of his office, or when any persons act as a corporation within this state without being authorized by law, or if, being incorporated, they do or omit acts which amount to a surrender or forfeiture of their rights and privileges as a corporation, or when they exercise powers not conferred by law.

Quo warranto lies to try the title of relator to the office of county treasurer. State v. Stein, 13, 531 (14 N. W., 481). Or that of governor. State, ex rel. Thayer, v. Boyd, 31, 704 (48 N. W., 739). The proper proceeding to oust officers of a corporation, without legal existence. State, ex rel. Summers, v. Uridel, — Neb., — (— N. W., —). Cited, In re Sawyer, 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 490.

5239 (705). Such information may be filed by the prosecuting attorney of the proper county whenever he deems it his duty so to do.

Information good though not filed by district attorney. Kane v. The People, 4, 512. Where private person has no direct interest in the result of the action, he cannot maintain it. Where the state at large is interested, the attorney general is the proper party to bring it. State v. Stein, 18, 532 (14 N. W., 481).

5240 (706). He must file such information when directed to do so by the governor, the legislative assembly, or the district court.

5241 (707). Such information shall consist of a plain statement of the facts which constitute the grounds of the proceeding, addressed to the court, which shall stand for an original petition.

5243 (709). The defendant shall appear and answer such information in the usual way, and issue being joined it shall be tried in the ordinary manner.

The respondent must answer precisely by what statutory authority he exercises the functions of an office. State, ex rel. Sabin, v. Tillma, 32, 789 (49 N. W., 806).

5244 (710). When the defendant is holding an office to which another is claiming the right, the information should set forth the name of such claimant, and the trial must, if practicable, determine the rights of the contesting parties.

5245 (711). If judgment be rendered in favor of such claimant, he shall proceed to exercise the functions of the office, after he has qualified as required by law.

A hold-over officer in case of contest can qualify after the decision in the contest. State, ex rel. Thayer, v. Boyd, 31, 735 (48 N. W., 739).

5246 (712). The court, after such judgment, shall order the defendant to deliver over all books and papers in his custody or under his control belonging to said office.

5247 (713). When the judgment has been rendered in favor of the claimant, he may at any time within one year thereafter bring suit against the defendant and recover the damages he has sustained by reason of the act of the defendant.

5248 (714). When several persons claim to be entitled to the same office or franchise, an information may be filed against all or any portion thereof, in order to try their respective rights thereto.

5249 (715). If the defendant be found guilty of unlawfully holding or exercising any office, franchise, or privilege, or if a corporation be found to have violated the law by which it holds its existence, or in any other manner to have done acts which amount to a surrender or forfeiture of its privileges, judgment shall be rendered that such defendant be ousted, and altogether excluded from such office, franchise, or privilege, and also that he pay the costs of the proceeding.

5250 (716). If the defendant be found to have exercised merely certain individual powers and privileges to which he was not entitled, the judgment shall be the same as above directed, but only in relation to those particulars in which he is thus exceeding the lawful exercise of his rights and privileges.

5251 (717). When an information is upon the relation of a private individual, it shall be so stated in the petition and proceedings, and such individual shall be responsible for costs in case they are not adjudged against the defendant. In other cases the title of the cause shall be the same as in a criminal prosecution, and the payment of costs shall be regulated by the same rule.

5252 (718). In case judgment is rendered against a pretended, but not real, corporation, the costs may be collected from any person who has been acting as an officer or proprietor of such pretended corporation.

5253 (719). If a corporation is ousted and dissolved by the proceedings herein authorized, the court shall appoint three disinterested persons as trustees of the creditors and stockholders.

5254 (720). Such trustees shall enter into bond, in such a penalty and with such security as the court may approve, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their trust.

5255 (721). Suit may be brought on such bond by any person injured by the negligence or wrongful act of the trustees in the discharge of their duties.

5256 (722). The trustees shall proceed immediately to collect the debts and pay the liabilities of the corporation, and to divide the surplus among those thereto entitled.

5259 (725). They shall sue for and recover the debts and property of the corporation, and shall be responsible to the creditors and stockholders respectively, to the extent of the effects which come to their hands, in the same manner as though they were the executors of a deceased person.

5260 (726). When judgment of ouster is rendered against a corporation on account of the misconduct of the directors or officers thereof, such officers shall be jointly and severally liable to an action by any one injured thereby.

5261 (727). Any person who, without good reason, refuses to obey any order of the court as herein provided shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail until he comply with said order, and shall be further liable for the damages resulting to any person on account of his refusal to obey such order.

5262 (728). A proceeding of this kind may be instituted, in the manner above contemplated, for the purpose of annulling or vacating any letters patent granted by the proper authorities of this state, where there is reason to believe that the same were obtained by fraud, or through mistake or ignorance of a material fact, or when the patentee, or those claiming under him, have done or omitted an act in violation of the terms and conditions on which the letters were granted, or have by any other means forfeited the interest acquired under the same.

TITLE XXIV.—CHANCERY.

CHAPTER I.

CHAPTER II.—ADOPTION OF CHILDREN.

5263 (796). Whenever it may be desirable that any person or persons shall adopt the child of another, the same may be consummated in the manner hereinafter provided.

5264 (797). The parents, guardians, or other person or persons having lawful control or custody of any minor child, may make a statement in writing before the county judge of the county where the person or persons desiring to adopt such child reside, that he, she, or they voluntarily relinquish all right to the custody of, and power and control over such child (naming him or her), and all claim and interest in and to the services and wages of such child, to the end that such child shall be fully adopted by the party or parties (naming them) desiring to adopt such child, which statement shall be signed and sworn to by the party making the same, before said county judge, in the presence of at least two witnesses, and the person or persons desiring to adopt such child shall also make a statement in writing, to the effect that he, she, or they freely and voluntarily adopt such child (naming him or her) as their own, with such limitations and conditions as shall be agreed upon by the parties, which said statement shall also be signed and sworn to by the parties making the same, before said county judge, in the presence of at least two witnesses; but when such child is an inmate of "The Home for the Friendless," or of any orphans' home organized under the laws of this state, and has been voluntarily surrendered in writing by its parents or guardians, for the purpose of adoption, to the directors or trustees of the "Society of the Home for the Friendless," or of such orphans' home, or has no father or mother living, or has been previously abandoned by its parents or guardians, or left in any such charitable institution for four months without being claimed, then the written consent of the president of the board of directors or trustees of said society, or of such orphans' home shall be given to such adoption, signed in the presence of any county judge of this state and certified by him to the county judge of the county where the person or persons desiring to adopt such child reside, which shall be received in the place of the relinquishment as herein required; Provided, In all cases where such child shall be of the age of fourteen years and upward, the written consent of such child shall be necessary to the validity of such proceeding; And provided further, Whenever it shall be desirable the party or parties adopting such child may, by stipulations to that effect in such statement, adopt such child and bestow upon him or her equal rights, privileges, and immunities of children born in lawful wedlock, and such statement or consent shall be filed with and recorded by said county judge in a book kept in his office for that purpose.

5265 (798). And such county judge shall appoint a time and place for the hearing of said matter.

Rewritten 1885, p. 385.

5266 (799). At the time and place of the hearing of such matter, if said hearing shall not be adjourned, the said probate judge shall render a decree therein, in accordance with the conditions and stipulations of said statement; Provided, In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of said probate judge that such proceedings are not for the best interest of the child or children, he may refuse to enter such decree, and the matter shall thereupon be dismissed.

5267 (800). All decrees entered in such case in conformity with the provisions and requirements of this chapter, shall be conclusive upon all the persons interested in such proceedings or matter, and the child or children thus adopted shall take the surname of the person or persons adopting the same, and all relations of parent and child, agreeable to such stipulations and the decree of the probate court, shall attach, and such child or children, if so stated in such decree, shall be subject to the exclusive control and custody of such parent or parents, and shall possess and enjoy all the rights, privileges, inheritance, heirships, and immunities of children born in lawful wedlock.

5268 (801). The probate judge shall be entitled to charge the same fees for such services as now are or hereafter may be provided by law for like services in other cases.

TITLE XXVI.—PARTITION.

5269 (802). When the object of the action is to effect the partition of real property among several joint owners, the petition must describe the property, and the several interests and estates of the several joint owners thereof, if known. *All tenants in common, or joint tenants of any estate in land, may be compelled to make or suffer partition of such estate or estates in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

All after * added 1871, p. 112. Dower interest insufficient. Hurste v. Hotaling, 20, 181 (29 N. W., 299). Co-tenants must account for rents. Miller v. Mills, 4, 366. See Perry v. Granger, 21, 581 (33 N. W., 261).

5270 (803). If the number of shares or interests is known, but the owners thereof are unknown, or if there are, or are supposed to be, any interests which are unknown, contingent, or doubtful, these facts must be set forth in the petition with reasonable certainty.

5271 (804). Creditors having a specific or general lien upon all or any portion of the property may or may not be made parties, at the option of the plaintiff.

5272 (805). If the lien is upon one or more undivided interests of any of the parties, it shall, after partition or sale, remain a charge upon those particular interests or the proceeds thereof. But the due proportion of costs is a charge upon those interests paramount to all other liens.

5273 (806). The answers of the defendants must state, among other things, the amount and nature of their respective interests. They may deny the interest of any of the plaintiffs, and by supplemental pleading, if necessary, may deny the interests of any of the other defendants.

5274 (807). Where there are two or more plaintiffs they may reply jointly, or either of them may reply to any or all the answers of the defendants.

5275 (808). Issues may thereupon be joined and tried between any of the contesting parties, the question of costs on such issues being regulated between the contestants agreeably to the principles applicable to other cases.

5276 (809). Each of the parties appearing, whether as plaintiff or defendant, must exhibit his documentary proof of title, if he has any, and must file the same, or copies thereof, with the clerk.

Documentary proof may not be necessary. Mills v. Miller, 2, 314.

5277 (810). If the statements in the petition and answers are not contradicted in the manner aforesaid, or by the documentary proof exhibited as above required, they shall be taken as true.

5278 (811). After all the shares and interests of the parties have been settled in any of the methods aforesaid, judgment shall be rendered confirming those shares and interests, and directing partition to be made accordingly.

5279 (812). Upon entering such judgment the court shall appoint referees to make partition into the requisite number of shares.

Mills v. Miller, 3, 92.

5280 (813). For good and sufficient reasons appearing to the court, the referees may be directed to allot particular portions of the land to particular individuals. In other cases the shares must be made as nearly as possible of equal value.

Where the premises are incapable of a fair division, the court can award pecuniary compensation to one of the parties. Lynch v. Lynch, 18, 586 (26 N. W., 390).

5281 (814). If it appears to the referees that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, they shall so report to the court.

5282 (815). If satisfied with such report the court shall cause an order to be entered, directing the referees to sell the premises so situated, and shall also fix the terms of sale.

5283 (816). Before proceeding to sell, the referees shall each give security, to be approved by the court or judge thereof, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. At any time thereafter the court may require further and better security.

5284 (817). The same notice of sale shall be given as when lands are sold on execution by the sheriff, and the sale shall be conducted in like manner.

5285 (818). After completing said sale, the referees must report their proceedings to the court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser, and the price bid therefor, which report shall be filed with the clerk.

5286 (819). After making the order of sale as aforesaid, the court shall direct the clerk to report whether there be any general incumbrance by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, upon any portion of the property.

5287 (820). If deemed advisable, the court may appoint a referee to inquire into the nature and amount of incumbrances, and report accordingly. From that report an appeal lies to the court.

5288 (821). The referee shall give the parties interested at least five days' notice of the time and place when he will receive proof of the amount of such incumbrances.

5289 (822). In taking such proof he may receive, with other evidence, the affidavit of the parties interested.

5290 (823). If any incumbrance be ascertained to exist, the proceeds of the sale of that portion, after the payment of costs, or so much thereof as is necessary, shall, if the owner consent, be paid over to the incumbrancer.

5291 (824). If the owner object to the payment of such incumbrance, the money shall be retained or invested by order of the court to await final action in relation to its disposition, and notice thereof shall be forthwith given to the incumbrancer, unless he has already been made a party.

5292 (825). The court may direct an issue to be made up between the incumbrancer and the owner, which shall be decisive of their respective rights.

5293 (826). If an estate for life or years be found to exist as an incumbrance upon any part of said property, and if the parties cannot agree upon the sum in gross which they will consider an equivalent for such estate, the court shall direct the avails of the incumbered property to be invested and the proceeds to be paid to the incumbrancer during the existence of the incumbrance.

5294 (827). The proceedings in relation to the incumbrances shall not delay the distribution of the proceeds of other shares in respect to which no difficulties exist.

5295 (828). The court in its discretion may require all or any of the parties before they receive the moneys arising from any sale authorized in this title, to give satisfactory security, to refund such moneys with interest, in case it afterward appears that such parties were not entitled thereto.

5296 (829). If the sales aforesaid be approved and confirmed by the court, an order shall be entered directing the referees, or any two of them, to execute conveyances pursuant to such sales. But no conveyance can be made until all the money is paid, without receiving from the purchaser a mortgage of the land so sold, or other equivalent security.

5297 (830). Such conveyances so executed, being recorded in the county where the premises are situate, shall be valid against all subsequent purchasers, and also against all persons interested at the time who were made parties to the proceedings in the mode pointed out by law.

5298 (831). If the owner of any share thus sold has a husband or wife living, and if such husband or wife do not agree as to the disposition that shall be made of the proceeds of such sale, the court must direct it to be invested in real estate under the supervision of such person as it may appoint, taking the title in the name of the owner, of the share sold as aforesaid.

5299 (832). If the sales are disapproved, the money paid and the securities given must be returned to the persons respectively entitled thereto.

5300 (833). When partition is deemed proper the referees must make out the shares by visible monuments, and may employ a competent surveyor and the necessary assistants to aid them.

5301 (834). The report of the referees must be in writing, signed by at least two of them. It must describe the respective shares with reasonable particularity, and be accompanied by a plat of the premises.

5302 (835). Unless the shares are allotted to their respective owners by the referees as hereinbefore contemplated the clerk shall number the shares and then draw the names of the future owners by lot.

5303 (836). When partition can be conveniently made of part of the premises, but not of all, one portion may be partitioned and the other sold as hereinafter provided.

5304 (837). On good cause shown, the report may be set aside and the matter again referred to the same or other referees.

5305 (838). Upon the report of the referees being confirmed, judgment thereon shall be rendered that the partition be firm and effectual forever.

5306 (839). The defendants may be served in the same manner as in ordinary civil action by summons, or by publication as provided in this code, and* when all the parties in interest have been duly served, any of the proceedings herein prescribed shall be binding and conclusive upon them all. If only a portion of such parties be served, they only shall be bound by such proceedings.

All before * added 1871, p. 112.

5307 (840). The judgment of partition shall be presumptive evidence of title in all cases, and as between the parties themselves it is conclusive evidence thereof, subject, however, to be defeated by proof of a title paramount to, or independent of, that under which the parties held as joint tenants or tenants in common.

5308 (841). All the costs of the proceedings in partition shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiffs, but eventually by all the parties in proportion to their interests, except those costs which are created by contests above provided for.

5309 (842). Any person claiming to hold an incumbrance upon any portion of the property involved in the suit, may, in default of the owner, appear and act as his representative in any of the proceedings under this title.

5310 (843). Persons having contingent interests in such property may be made parties to the proceedings, and the proceeds of the property so situated (or the property itself, in case of partition) shall be subject to the order of the court until the right becomes fully vested.

5311 (844). The ascertained share of any absent owner shall be retained, or the proceeds invested for his benefit.

TITLE XXVII.—FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES BY ACTION.

5312 (845). All petitions for the foreclosure or satisfaction of mortgages shall be filed in the district court in chancery where the mortgaged premises are situated.

Action of foreclosure is a proceeding in rem. Hurley v. Estes, 6, 391. Mistake in description may be corrected and decree of foreclosure entered in the same action. Palmer v. Windrom, 12, 495 (11 N. W., 750). When mortgage contains condition that if a certain payment is not made the whole amount becomes due and payable, condition must be performed or foreclosure will be allowed. Pope v. Hooper, 6, 182. Mortgagee may pay taxes and include same in petition of foreclosure. Amount due on mortgage including taxes paid constitute a single and indivisible demand. Johnson v. Payne, 11, 269 (9 N. W., 81). Equity redemption. Merriman v. Hyde, 9, 120 (2 N. W., 218). Land itself sold, not equity of redemption. All rights of parties duly in court passed to purchaser by virture of sheriff's deed. Buell v. Farwell, 8, 235. In case of foreclosure, junior incumbrancers must exercise right to redeem in time limited. Miles v. Stehle, 22, 743 (36 N. W., 142). Sale after tender of money to senior mortgagee by junior void. Incumbrancers not made parties to suit not affected by decree. Miller v. Finn, 1, 301. When first mortgagee may foreclose, notwithstanding he has been made a party to a foreclosure by second mortgagee. Forrer v. Kloke, 10, 373 (6 N. W., 428). Upon foreclosure by senior mortgagor, junior mortgagors not being made parties, bona fide purchaser at sale entitled to credit for improvements in action by junior mortgagors requiring him to redeem, and should not be charged with rents and profits. Higginbottom v. Benson, 24, 461 (39 N. W., 418). All incumbrancers, whether prior or subsequent, are proper parties; but only subsequent incumbrancers are necessary parties. If petition states facts sufficient to require a proper party to answer and he fails to do so, he will be bound by the decree. White v. Bartlett, 14, 323 (15 N. W., 702). In foreclosure suit, the answers of the several defendants claiming rights as lien holders, subsequent purchasers or lessees may be regarded also as cross-petitions for relief as against their respective co-defendants, as well as against the plaintiff. And any such defendant regularly served with process who fails to answer any material allegation of his co-defendant is bound thereby as well as by the decree founded thereon, and unless he appeals therefrom the same becomes, as to him, res adjudicata. Under our system of practice, all parties are bound to take notice of all pleadings filed in the case. Hapgood v. Ellis, 11, 142 (7 N. W., 845). One who is made a party defendant to a foreclosure suit, but fails to appear, cannot, unless he show cause for failure, claim a lien on property after sale. Graves v. Fritz, 24, 379 (38 N. W., 819). Defect of title on covenant of warranty no defense. Latham v. McCann, 2, 279. See Loney v. Courtnay, 24, 580 (39 N. W., 616).

Decree reduced $90, being the amount of possible damages in signing an appeal bond from which no loss was incurred. Smith v. Atkins, 27, 250 (42 N. W., 1043). Decree modified without notice; sale thereunder unauthorized. Symns v. Noxon, 29, 406 (45 N. W., 680). Smith v. Atkins, 27, 250 (42 N. W., 1043).

5314 (847). When a petition shall be filed for the satisfaction of a mortgage, the court shall not only have the power to decree and compel the delivery of the possession of the premises to the purchaser therof, but on the coming in of the report of sale the court shall have power to decree and direct the payment by the mortgagor of any balance of the mortgage debt that may remain unsatisfied after a sale of the mortgaged premises, in the cases in which such balance is recoverable at law; and for that purpose may issue the necessary executions, as in other cases, against other property of the mortgagor.

It is not intended that a mortgagor shall be answerable for the debt secured upon the mortgage and personalty at the same time. One of these remedies being selected, it must be exhausted before reverting to the other. Clapp v. Maxwell, 13, 543 (14 N. W., 653). But a personal judgment may be rendered against a debtor in an action foreclosing a mortgage not executed by him. Hilton v. Otoe Co. Bank (Dist. of Neb.), 26 Fed. Rep., 203.

5315 (848). After such petition shall be filed, while the same is pending, and after a decree rendered thereon, no proceedings whatever shall be had at law for the recovery of the debt secured by the mortgage, or any part thereof, unless authorized by the court.

Cannot bring an action on note after petition has been filed. Gillette v. Morrison, 9, 402 (2 N. W., 853). After foreclosure of mortgage, the mortgaged estate becomes the primary fund for the payment of the debt, and is not a mere surety for payment of the same. Colby v. Place, 11, 353 (9 N. W., 564).

5316 (849). If the mortgage debt be secured by the obligation or other evidence of debt of any other person besides the mortgagor, the complainant may make such person a party to the petition, and the court may decree payment of the balance of such debt remaining unsatisfied after a sale of the mortgaged premises, as well against such other person as the mortgagor, and may enforce such decree as in other cases.

Purchaser of mortgaged realty, who has assumed mortgage debt, may be sued at law thereon directly by mortgagee. Keedle v. Flack, 27, 839 (44 N. W., 34). All persons materially interested in the mortgaged premises should be made parties to the suit. Shellenberger v. Biser, 5, 200.

5317 (850). Upon filing a petition for the foreclosure or satisfaction of a mortgage, the complainant shall state therein whether any proceedings have been had at law for the recovery of the debt secured thereby, or any part thereof, and whether such debt, or any part thereof, has been collected and paid.

Petition should state whether any action has been had for the recovery of the debt. Gregory v. Hartley, 6, 362. Allegations sufficient. Mundy v. Whitemore, 15, 650 (19 N. W., 694). In a petition to foreclose a lien or mortgage arising out of equities between the parties, it is not necessary to state that no proceeding in law has been had. Dimick v. Grand Island Banking Co., — Neb., — (— N. W., —).

5318 (851). If it appear that any judgment has been obtained in a suit at law for the money demanded by such petition, or any part thereof, no proceedings shall be had in such case, unless, to an execution against the property of the defendant in such judgment, the sheriff or other proper officer shall have returned that the execution is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that the defendant has no property whereof to satisfy such execution except the mortgaged premises.

5319 (852). All sales of mortgaged premises under a decree in chancery shall be made by a sheriff, or some other person authorized by the court in the county where the premises or some part of them are situated, *and in all cases where the sheriff shall make such sale he shall act in his official capacity and he shall be liable on his official bond for all his acts therein, and shall receive the same compensation as is provided by law for like services upon sales under speculation [execution].

All after * added 1875, p. 42. Sheriff cannot sell a greater interest than named in the order. Tootle v. White, 4, 401. Not necessary that court issue order of sale to sheriff. Rector v. Rotton and Rotton, 3, 177. Court may direct sale to be made by master commissioner or by sheriff; their acts may be reviewed, but cannot be directed by mandamus. State, ex rel. Elliott, v. Holliday, 35, 327 (53 N. W., 142). See Symns v. Noxon, 29, 406 (45 N. W., 680).

5320 (853). Deeds shall thereupon be executed by such sheriff, which shall vest in the purchaser the same estate that would have vested in the mortgagee if the equity of redemption had been foreclosed, and no other or greater; and such deeds shall be as valid as if executed by the mortgagor and mortgagee, and shall be an entire bar against each of them, and all parties to the suit in which the decree for such sale was made, and against their heirs respectively, and all persons claiming under such heirs.

Deed conveys all the title of all parties to the action. Dodge v. O. & S. W. R. R. Co., 20, 283 (29 N. W., 936). Buchanan v. Griggs, 18, 130 (24 N. W., 452). The purchaser takes all the title the mortgagee had whether set up in the pleadings or not. Young v. Brand, 15, 601 (19 N. W., 494).

5321 (854). The proceeds of every sale made under a decree in chancery shall be applied to the discharge of the debt adjudged by such court to be due, and of the costs awarded, and if there be any surplus, it shall be brought into court for the use of the defendant, or of the persons entitled thereto, subject to the order of the court.

5322 (855). If such surplus, or any part thereof, shall remain in said court for the term of three months without being applied for, the court may direct the same to be put out at interest under the direction of the court, for the benefit of the defendant, his representatives or assigns, to be paid to them by the order of such court.

5323 (856). Whenever a petition shall be filed for the satisfaction or foreclosure of any mortgage, upon which there shall be due any interest on any portion or installment of the principal, and there shall be other portions or installments to become due subsequently, the petition shall be dismissed upon the defendant bringing into court, at any time before the decree of sale, the principal and interest due, with costs.

5324 (857). If, after a decree for sale, entered against a defendant in such case, he shall bring into court the principal and interest due, with costs, the proceedings in the suit shall be stayed, but the court shall enter a decree of foreclosure and sale, to be enforced by a further order of the court, upon a subsequent default in the payment of any portion or installment of the principal, or any interest thereafter to grow due.

This section has no application to an action to foreclose a mortgage when the whole amount secured by the mortgage is due on account of a failure to pay interest when due, but applies only to cases brought under the preceding section. Beisel v. Artman, 10, 181 (4 N. W., 1011).

5325 (858). If the defendant shall not bring into court the amount due, with costs, or if for any other cause a decree shall pass for the complainant, the court may direct a reference to a sheriff to ascertain and report the situation of the mortgaged premises, or may determine the same on oral or other testimony, and if it shall appear that the same can be sold in parcels, without injury to the parties, the decree shall direct so much of the mortgaged premises to be sold as will be sufficient to pay the amount then due on such mortgage, with costs, and such decree shall remain a security for any subsequent default.

5326 (859). If, in the case mentioned in the preceding section, there shall be any default subsequent to such decree in the payment of any portion or installment of the principal, or any interest due upon such mortgage, the court may, upon the petition of the complainant, by a further order, founded upon such first decree, direct a sale of so much of the mortgaged premises to be made, under such decree, as will be sufficient to satisfy the amount so due, with the costs of such petition and the subsequent proceedings thereon, and the same proceedings may be had as often as a default shall happen.

5327 (860). If, in any of the foregoing cases, it shall appear to the court that the mortgaged premises are so situated that a sale of the whole will be most beneficial to the parties, the decree shall, in the first instance, be entered for the sale of the whole premises accordingly.

5328 (861). In such case the proceeds of such sale shall be applied as well to the interest, portion, or installment of the principal due as towards the whole or residue of the sum secured by such mortgage, and not due and payable at the time of such sale, and if such residue do not bear interest, then the court may direct the same to be paid with a rebate of the legal interest, for the time during which such residue shall not be due and payable, or the court may direct the balance of the proceeds of such sale, after paying the sum due, with costs, to be put out at interest, for the benefit of the complainant, to be paid to him as the installments or portions of the principal or interest may become due, and the surplus for the benefit of the defendant, his representatives or assigns, to be paid to them on the order of the court.

TITLE XXVIII.—ARBITRATIONS.

5329 (862). All controversies which might be the subject of civil actions may be submitted to the decision of one or more arbitrators as hereinafter provided.

Award as binding as a judgment. Tynan v. Tate, 3, 390.

5330 (863). The parties themselves, or those persons who might lawfully have controlled a civil action in their behalf for the same subject-matter, must sign a written agreement, specifying particularly what demands are to be submitted, the names of the arbitrators, and the court by which the judgment on their award is to be rendered.

5331 (864). They shall then appear before some justice of the peace of the county and acknowledge the instrument by them signed to be their free act and deed.

5332 (865). The submission may be of some particular matters or demands, or of all demands which the one party has against the other, or of all mutual demands on both sides.

5333 (866). A submission to arbitrators of the subject-matter of a suit may also be made by an order of court, upon an agreement of parties, after suit is commenced.

5334 (867). All the rules prescribed by law in cases of referees are applicable to arbitrators, except as herein otherwise expressed, or except as otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

5335 (868). Neither party shall have the power to revoke the submission without the consent of the other.

5336 (869). If either party neglect to appear before the arbitrators, after due notice, they may nevertheless proceed to hear and determine the cause upon the evidence which is produced before them.

5337 (870). If the time within which the award is to be made is fixed in the submission, no award made after that time shall have any legal effect, unless made upon a recommitment of the matter by the court to which it is reported.

Conclusions of fact and law must be separately stated. Groves v. Scoville, 17, 593 (24 N. W., 222).

5338 (871). If the time of filing the award is not fixed in the submission, it must be filed within one year from the time such submission is signed and acknowledged, unless by mutual consent the time is prolonged.

5339 (872). The award must be in writing, and shall be delivered by one of the arbritators to the court designated in the agreement, or it may be enclosed and sealed by them and transmitted to the court, and not opened until the court so orders.

Award must state facts found and the conclusions of law thereon separately. Murry v. Mills, 1, 459. Award not set aside because it states facts separately from conclusions of law. Westover v. Armstrong, 24, 393–4 (38 N. W., 843).

5340 (873). The cause shall be entered on the docket of the court at the term to which the award is returned, and shall be called up and acted upon in its order. But the court may require actual notice to be given to either party, when it appears necessary and proper, before proceeding to act on the award.

5341 (873*). The award may be rejected by the court for any legal and sufficient reasons, or it may be recommitted for a rehearing to the same arbitrators, or any others agreed upon by the parties.

Defendant may set up that arbitrators considered matters not submitted to them. Arbitrators competent witnesses. Hall v. Vanier, 6, 88. Party seeking to set aside award must set forth facts on which he bases his belief. Belief not sufficient. McDowell v. Thomas, 4, 544. See Groves v. Scoville, 17, 593 (24 N. W., 222); Bentley v. Davis, 21, 686 (33 N. W., 473).

5342 (874). When the award has been confirmed, it shall be filed and entered on the record, and shall have the same force and effect as the verdict of a jury. Judgment may be entered and execution issued accordingly.

5343 (875). When an appeal is taken from such judgment, copies of the submission and award, together with all affidavits, shall be returned to the supreme court.

*The number 873 occurs twice in the original. R. S., p. 546.

5344 (876). If there is no provision in the submission respecting costs, arbitrators may award them at their discretion.

5345 (877). The compensation of the arbitrators shall be two dollars per day, for the time actually and necessarily spent, unless the court fix a less amount; and the fees of the justice of the peace shall be twenty-five cents for making out the agreement of submission (in case he does so), and the like amount for taking and certifying the acknowledgment thereto.

5346 (878). Nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect in any manner the control of the district court over the parties, the arbitrators or their award, nor to impair or affect any action upon an award or upon any bond or other engagement to abide an award.

TITLE XXIX.—GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THE WHOLE CODE.

CHAPTER I.—PROCESS.

5347 (880). The style of all process shall be "The state of Nebraska, ——— county." It shall be under the seal of the court from whence the same shall issue, shall be signed by the clerk, and dated the day it issued.

See also Const., art. VI, sec. 24. Shall run in the name of the state of Nebraska; not in the name of the city. City of Brownville v. Cook, 4, 106. See Phillips v. Spotts, 14, 143 (15 N. W., 332). Object of. Herron v. Cole Bros., 25, 698 (41 N. W., 765).

5348 (881). An order for a provisional remedy or any other process, in an action wherein the sheriff is a party, or is interested, shall be directed to the coroner. If both these officers are interested, the process shall be directed to and executed by a person appointed by the court or judge.

5349 (882). The court or judge, for good cause, may appoint a person to serve a particular process or order, who shall have the same power to execute it which the sheriff has. The person may be appointed on the motion of the party obtaining the process or order, and the return must be verified by affidavit. He shall be entitled to the fees allowed to the sheriff for similar services.

County judge may appoint person to serve summons. Gilbert v. Brown, 9, 94 (2 N. W., 376). Replevin papers served by party appointed by clerk cannot be first questioned in supreme court. Vinnedge v. Nicholai, 28, 136 (44 N. W., 89). Cited, R. V. R. R. Co. v. Sayer, 13, 282 (13 N. W., 404).

CHAPTER II.—DUTIES OF CLERKS.

5350 (883). All writs and orders for provisional remedies and process of every kind, shall be issued by the clerks of the several courts. Before they shall be issued, a precipe shall be filed with the clerk, demanding the same; which precipe shall be for the direction of the clerk, and not material to the papers in the case after the issuing of such writ or process.

5351 (884). It is the duty of the clerk of each of the courts to file together and carefully preserve in his office all papers delivered to him for that purpose, in every action or special proceeding.

5352 (885). He shall endorse upon every paper filed with him, the day of filing it; and upon every order for a provisional remedy, and upon every undertaking given under the same, the day of its return to his office.

5353 (886). He shall, upon the return of every summons served, enter upon the docket the name of the defendant or defendants summoned, and the day of the service upon each one. The entry shall be evidence of the service of the summons, in case of the loss thereof.

5354 (887). He shall keep the records and books and papers appertaining to the court, and record its proceedings.

5355 (888). The provisions of article eight, title nine, of this code, prescribing the duties of clerks of the district court, shall, as far as they are applicable, apply to the clerks of other courts of record.

5356 (889). The clerk of each of the courts shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him by other provisions of this code, by other statutes, and by the common law. In the performance of his duties he shall be under the direction of his court.

Supreme court will not mandamus clerk to issue order of sale where there has been no application therefor to his own court. State, ex rel. Sloman, v. Moores, 29, 122 (45 N. W., 278).

CHAPTER III.—DUTIES OF SHERIFFS.

5357 (890). The sheriff shall endorse upon every summons, order of arrest, or for the delivery of property, or of attachment or injunction, the day and the hour it was received by him.

5358 (891). He shall execute every summons, order or other process, and return the same as required by law; and if he fail to do so, unless he make it appear to the satisfaction of the court that he was prevented by inevitable accident from so doing, he shall be amerced by the court in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and shall be liable to the action of any person aggrieved by such failure.

5359 (892). The sheriff shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him by other provisions of this code, by other statutes, and by the common law.

CHAPTER IV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

5360 (893). Any duty enjoined by this code upon a ministerial officer, and any act permitted to be done by him, may be performed by his lawful deputy.

5361 (894). Whenever an oath is required by this code, the affirmation of a person conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath, shall have the same effect.

5362 (895). The time within which an act is to be done as herein provided, shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last; if the last day be Sunday, it shall be excluded.

Construed with reference to tax sale and deed. McGavock v. Pollack, 13, 536 (14 N. W., 659). Applicable to proceedings before justices of the peace. Monell & Lashley v. Terwilliger, 8, 362. See White v. German Ins. Co., 15, 661 (20 N. W., 30).

5363 (896). Section four hundred and thirty-two [4957] shall not be construed to impair the right of a party to a jury, if he appear at the trial by himself or attorney, and demand the same.

5364 (897). The ministerial officer, whose duty it is to take security in any undertaking provided for by this code, shall have the right to require the person offered as surety to make an affidavit of his qualifications, which affidavit may be made before such officer. The taking of such an affidavit shall not exempt the officer from any liability to which he might otherwise be subject for taking insufficient security.

Clerk district court ministerial officer and liable for negligently taking insufficient security. Brock v. Hopkins, 5, 236. Has no reference to the duties of a sheriff. Berrer v. Moorhead, 22, 691 (36 N. W., 118).

5365 (898). The surety in every undertaking provided for by this code, must be a resident of this state, and worth double the sum to be secured, beyond the amount of his debts, and have property liable to execution in this state, equal to the sum to be secured. Where there are two or more sureties in the same undertaking, they must in the aggregate have the qualifications prescribed in this section.

5366 (899). The judges of the supreme court shall, during the month of the first January after this code shall take effect, and every two years thereafter, meet at the capital of the state, and revise their general rules, and make such amendments thereto as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this code; and they shall make such further rules consistent therewith as they may deem proper. The rules so made shall apply to the supreme court and the district courts.

CHAPTER V.—PROVISIONS RESPECTING EXISTING ACTIONS.

5367 (900). The provisions of this code do not apply to proceedings in actions or suits pending when it takes effect. They shall be conducted to final judgment or decree, in all respects as if it had not been adopted; but the provisions of this code shall apply after a judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered, to the proceedings to enforce, vacate, modify, or reverse it.

CHAPTER VI.—PROVISIONS AS TO THE OPERATION OF THE CODE.

5368 (901). Rights of civil action given or secured by existing laws shall be prosecuted in the manner provided by this code, except as provided in the following section. If a case ever arise in which an action for the enforcement or protection of a right, or the redress or prevention of a wrong, cannot be had under this code, the practice heretofore in use may be adopted so far as may be necessary to prevent a failure of justice.

5370 (903). Where, by general or special statute, a civil action, legal or equitable, is given and the mode of proceeding therein is prescribed, this code shall not affect the proceedings under such statute, until the legislature shall otherwise provide; but in all such cases, as far as it may be consistent with the statute giving such action, and practicable under this code, the proceedings shall be conducted in conformity thereto. Where the statute designates by name or otherwise the kind of action, but does not prescribe the mode of proceeding therein, such action shall be commenced and prosecuted in conformity to this code; where the statute gives an action, but does not designate the kind of action, or prescribe the mode of proceeding therein, such action shall be held to be the civil action of this code, and proceeded in accordingly.

Secs. 5371 and 5372 formed secs. 4 and 5 of "An act to amend the code of civil procedure by abolishing the distinction between actions at law and suits in equity." 1867, p. 71. In force June 19. (Sec. 1 amended sec. 2 of this code, sec. 2 repealed secs. 2 and 87 of the same, and sec. 3 amended sec. 87; sec. 6 was repealed. 1871, p. 113.) G. S., secs. 997–8, p. 707.

5371. The final orders or decree of chancery heretofore rendered, or which may hereafter be rendered, in any chancery proceedings pending at the time this act shall take effect, may be enforced or reviewed in the same manner, and within the same time, as if this act had not taken effect; and all suits in chancery pending at the time of the taking effect of this act may be prosecuted to final decree in like manner.

5372. The words hereinafter found in the code of civil procedure shall be construed and held to mean as follows, to-wit: "complainant" shall mean plaintiff; "bill" or "complaint" shall mean petition; "suit" shall mean action or civil action; and "decree" shall mean judgment; and all other words and terms found in said code of civil procedure, heretofore applicable to the chancery practice hereby repealed, shall be so construed and held as to carry out the intention of this act, prevent a failure of justice, and give adequate relief in all cases.

TITLE XXX.—Justices of the Peace.

CHAPTER I.—JURISDICTION.

5373 (904). The jurisdiction of justices of the peace in civil cases shall, unless otherwise directed by law, be limited to the county wherein they may have been elected, and where they shall reside.

5374 (905). [Matters.]—Justices of the peace, within and co-extensive with their respective counties, shall have jurisdiction and authority: First—To administer an oath or affirmation authorized or required by law to be administered. Second—To take the acknowledgment of deeds, mortgages, and other instruments of writing. Third—To solemnize marriages. Fourth—To issue subpœna for witnesses and coerce their attendance in causes or matters pending before them, or other cause or matter wherein they may be required to take depositions. Fifth—To try the action for forcible entry and detention, or the detention only, of real property. Sixth—To proceed against security for costs and bail for the stay of execution on their dockets. Seventh—To issue attachments, and proceed against the goods and effects of debtors in certain cases. Eighth—To issue executions on judgments rendered by them. Ninth—To proceed against constables failing to make return, making false return, or failing to pay over money collected on execution, issued by such justice. Tenth—To try the right of the claimant to property taken in execution, or on attachment.

Limited to $200 by constitution, art. VI, sec. 18, and sec. 5576, post. Justice can make no order in a case after it has been taken to district court. State, ex rel. Rudabeck, v. Livsey, 27, 56 (42 N. W., 762).

Amount raised from one hundred dollars. 1881. p. 208. But where both parties claim title to the land justice would not have jurisdiction. R. V. R. Co. v. Fink, 28, 397 (44 N. W., 434).

5376 (907). Justices shall not have cognizance of any action: First—To recover damages for an assault, or assault and battery. Second—In any action for malicious prosecution. Third—In actions against justices of the peace, or other officers, for misconduct in office, except in the cases provided for in this title. Fourth—In actions for slander, verbal or written. Fifth—In actions on contracts for real estate. Sixth—In actions in which the title to real estate is sought to be recovered, or may be drawn in question, except actions for trespass on real estate, which are provided for in this title.

Justice would not have jurisdiction of an action against an officer and his bondsmen for misconduct in office. But this would not prevent sheriff being sued in justice court in trespass or trover, for wrongfully taking property on execution. Neihardt v. Kilmer, 12, 37 (10 N. W., 531). An action for the wrongful issuing out of an attachment comes under the second subdivision hereof, and a justice has no jurisdiction. Rice v. Day, 34, 102 (51 N. W., 464).

CHAPTER II.—COMMENCEMENT OF SUITS, SERVICE AND RETURN OF PROCESS, AND PROCEEDINGS IN ARREST AND ATTACHMENT.

5377 (908). Actions before justices of the peace are commenced by summons or by the appearance and agreement of the parties without summons. In the former the action is deemed commenced, upon delivery of the writ to the constable to be served; and he shall note thereon the time of receiving the same. In the latter case the action is deemed commenced at the time of docketing the case.

Mercer v. James, 6, 411.

5378 (909). When a guardian to the suit is necessary, he must be appointed by the justice as follows: First—If the infant be plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed, and to be responsible for costs if he fail in the action, must be filed with the justice. Second —If the infant be defendant, the guardian must be appointed before trial. It is the right of the infant to nominate his own guardian, if the infant be over fourteen years of age, and the proposed guardian be present and consent in writing to be appointed. Otherwise the justice may appoint any suitable person who gives such consent.

5379 (910). The style of the summons shall be: "The state of Nebraska, —— county;" it shall be dated the day it is issued, and signed by the justice issuing the same; be directed to the constable or sheriff of the proper county (except in case a person be deputed to serve it, in which case it shall be directed to such person); must contain the names of defendant or defendants, if known, and if unknown, give a description of him or them, and command the officer, or person serving the same, to summon the defendant or defendants to appear before such justice, at his office, in —— county, at a time specified therein; and must describe the plaintiff's cause of action in such general terms as to apprise the defendant of the nature of the claim against him. There shall be endorsed on the writ the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fail to appear. If the defendant fail to appear, judgment shall not be rendered for a larger amount and the costs.

Amount to be endorsed on summons only necessary when judgment is for money. Roggencamp v. Moore, 9, 108 (2 N. W., 227). Forbes v. Bringe, 32, 760 (49 N. W., 720). Claim was described as "for $75, with ten per cent interest from February 19, 1880, and ten per cent of amount as attorney fee upon a certain promissory note," and it was held sufficient. McKay v. Hinman, 13, 35 (13 N. W., 15). It is sufficient if summons issued by county judge describe plaintiff's cause of action in general terms, such as being "upon one promissory note," or the like. McPherson v. First National Bank, 12, 204 (10 N. W., 707). If the writ be addressed to the person deputized, it is sufficient; no reason need be shown. Morse v. Carpenter, 31, 224 (47 N. W., 853).

5380 (911). The summons must be returnable not more than twelve days from its date, and must, unless accompanied with an order to arrest, be served at least three days before the time of appearance, by delivering a copy of the summons, with the endorsement thereon (certified by the constable or person serving the same to be a true copy), to the defendant, or leaving the same at his usual place of residence; Provided, That an acknowledgment on the back of the summons, or the voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to service.

Sufficiency of service, see Palmer v. Belcher, 21, 60 (31 N. W., 262). Reading summons not sufficient. Copy must be left with defendant. Newlove v. Woodward, 9, 504 (4 N. W., 237). Summons must be served at least three days before the time set for trial. Leake v. Gallogly, 34, 857 (52 N. W., 824). A defendant who has appeared at any time cannot have judgment set aside but must appeal. Cleghorn v. Waterman, 16, 230 (20 N. W., 636, 877). Defects in the service must be specifically pointed out. A motion to quash which prays for a dismissal is an appearance in the action which waives the error. Bucklin v. Stickler, 32, 602 (49 N. W., 371). Summons returnable on Sunday or holiday not void but returnable on the next court day. Ostertag v. Galbraith, 23, 735 (37 N. W., 637). White v. German Ins. Co., 15, 661 (20 N. W., 30).

5381 (912). A summons against a corporation may be served upon the president, mayor, chairman of the board of directors or trustees, or other chief officer, or if its chief officer be not found in the county, upon its cashier, treasurer, secretary, clerk, or managing agent; or, if none of the aforesaid officers can be found, by a copy left at the office, or usual place of business of such corporation, with the person having charge thereof.

Applies to railroad and all other corporations, foreign as well as domestic. C., B. & Q. R. R. v. Manning, 23, 557 (37 N. W., 462). When a foreign corporation contracts a debt in this state, service in this state upon the managing agent is sufficient, though he be but temporarily in the state. Klopp v. Water Works Co., 34, 808 (52 N. W., 819).

pany, and the action is brought in a county in which there is an agency thereof, the service may be upon the chief officer of such agency.

Service on a general agent of insurance company good. Ins. Co. v. McLimans, 28, 653 (44 N. W., 991).

5383 (914). When the defendant is a foreign corporation, having a managing agent in this state, the service may be upon such agent.

This does not include service under sec. 5382 of code. C., B & Q. R. R. v. Manning, 23, 557 (37 N. W., 462).

5384 (915). When the defendant is a minor under the age of fourteen years the service must be upon him and upon his guardian or father; or, if neither of these can be found, then upon his mother, or the person having the care or control of the infant, or with whom he lives. If neither of these can be found, or if the minor be more than fourteen years of age, service on him alone shall be sufficient. The manner of service may be the same as in the case of adults.

APPEARANCE.

5385 (916). The parties are entitled to one hour in which to appear, after the time mentioned in the summons for appearance, but are not bound to remain longer than that time, unless both parties have appeared, and the justice being present, is engaged in the trial of another cause. In such case, the justice may postpone the time of appearance until the close of such trial.

If defendant appear according to common or sun time it is sufficient. Searles v. Averhoff, 28, 668 (44 N. W., 872).

ARREST BEFORE JUDGMENT.

5386 (917). An order for the arrest of the defendant in a civil action shall be made by the justice of the peace before whom the same is brought, when there is filed in his office an affidavit of the plaintiff, his authorized agent or attorney, made before any person authorized by law to administer oaths, stating the nature of the plaintiff's claim, that it is just, the amount thereof as near as may be, and establishing one or more of the following particulars: First—That the defendant has removed or begun to remove any of his property out of the county, with intent to defraud his creditors. Second—That the defendant has begun to convert his property, or any part thereof, into money, for the purpose of defauding his creditors. Third—That he has property or rights in action which he fraudulently conceals. Fourth—That he has assigned, removed, or disposed of, or begun to assign, remove, or dispose of, his property, or any part thereof, with intent to defraud his creditors. Fifth—That the defendant fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which suit is about to be brought. The affidavit shall also contain a statement of the facts claimed to justify the belief in the existence of one or more of the above particulars.

Failure to pay village occupation tax no ground for arrest. State v. Green, 27, 67 (42 N. W., 913).

5387 (918). The order of arrest may be made to accompany the summons, or at any time afterwards, before judgment.

5388 (919). The order of arrest shall not be issued by a justice of the peace until there has been executed by the plaintiff, if a resident freeholder of the county where suit is brought, otherwise by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, a written undertaking, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay the defendant all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, if the order be wrongfully obtained, not exceeding double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, stated in the affidavit.

5391 (922). Upon the return of said order of arrest, executed in pursuance of the preceding section, the trial of said cause shall proceed, unless for good cause shown, upon the application of either party, or at the instance of the justice himself, the same shall be continued, as is provided for in other cases before justices of the peace. And when the trial of said cause is continued for any period, the defendant, upon executing, with one or more sufficient sureties, a written undertaking to the effect that he will pay the amount of the judgment that may be rendered against him upon the final determination of the action, or upon depositing in the hands of the justice of the peace the amount of money mentioned in the order of arrest, and the probable amount of costs of suit, shall be forthwith discharged from custody; Provided, however, That in no case shall the defendant be detained in the custody of the officer, when said continuance has been for a period of more than forty-eight hours, unless said continuance has been made at the instance or with the consent of the defendant himself.

ARREST AFTER JUDGMENT.

5392 (923). On the judgment against the defendant in any civil suit before a justice of the peace, when the defendant is in the custody of the officer, as hereinbefore provided for, or if, after judgment against him, there is filed in the office of such justice an affidavit of the plaintiff, his authorized agent or attorney, made before any person competent to administer an oath, stating the amount of said judgment remaining unpaid, and establishing one or more of the particulars mentioned in section nine hundred and seventeen, said justice of the peace shall, unless otherwise ordered by the plaintiff, issue an execution, and accompany the same with an order for the arrest of the defendant.

ATTACHMENT.

5394 (925). The plaintiff shall have an order of attachment against the property of the defendant, in a civil action before a justice of the peace, for the recovery of money before or after the commencement thereof, when there is filed in his office an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, showing the nature of the plaintiff's claim, that it is just, the amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover, and the existence of some one or more of the following particulars: First—That the defendant, or one of the several defendants, is a foreign corporation, or is a non-resident of the state; or, Second—Has absconded, with intent to defraud his creditors; or, Third—Has left the county of his residence to avoid the service of a summons; or, Fourth—So conceals himself, that a summons cannot be served upon him; or, Fifth—Is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the county, with the intent to defraud his creditors; or Sixth—Is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money, for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of creditors; or Seventh—Has property or rights in action, which he conceals; or, Eighth—Has assigned, removed, or disposed of or is about to dispose of his property, or a part thereof, with intent to defraud his creditors; or, Ninth—Fraudulently contracted the debt, or incurred the obligation for which suit is about to be, or has been, brought. When the defendant is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of the state, the attachment shall not be granted, unless the claim is for a debt or demand arising upon contract, judgment, or decree.

5395 (926). When the ground of attachment is that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or a non-resident of the state, the order of attachment may be issued without an undertaking, but in all other cases the order of attachment shall not be issued by the justice until there has been executed in his office, by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the justice, an undertaking not exceeding double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to the effect that the plaintiff shall pay the defendant all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, if the order be wrongfully obtained.

Plaintiff need not sign undertaking. Action cannot be maintained on undertaking on ground that attachment was wrongfully issued unless it has been discharged. Eckman v. Hammond, 27, 614 (43 N. W., 397). The words "not a resident" are equivalent to "a non-resident," and sufficient in an affidavit. Nagel v. Loomis, 33, 503 (50 N. W., 441).

5396 (927). The order of attachment may be made to accompany the summons, or it may be issued at any time afterwards, before judgment; it shall be addressed and delivered to any constable or sheriff of the proper county, and shall require him to attach the goods, chattels, stocks or interests in stocks, rights, credits, moneys, and effects of the defendant in his county, not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's claim, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit, and the probable costs of the action, not exceeding fifty dollars.

5398 (929). When there are several orders of attachment against the same person in the hands of the same officer, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by said officer; he shall go to the place where the defendant's property may be found, and there, in the presence of two credible persons, declare that by virtue of said order, he attaches said property at the suit of said plaintiff; and the officer, with two residents of the county, who shall be first sworn or affirmed by the officer, shall make a true inventory and appraisement of all property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and said residents, and returned with the order; when the property can be come at, he shall take the same into his custody, and hold it subject to the order of the justice.

5400 (931). Different attachments of the same property may be made, and one inventory and appraisement shall be sufficient. The lien of the attachments shall be in the order in which they are served, and the subsequent attachments shall be served on the property, as in the hands of the officer, and subject to the prior attachments. The justice who issued the attachment having the priority of lien shall determine all questions as to the priority of liens on the property attached.

5401 (932). If the order of attachment is made to accompany the summons, a copy thereof, and the summons, shall be served upon the defendant in the usual manner for the service of a summons, if the same can be done within the county; and when any property of the defendant has been taken under the order of attachment, and it shall appear that the summons issued on the action has not been and cannot be served on the defendant in the county, in the manner prescribed by law, the justice of the peace shall continue the cause for a period not less than forty days nor more than sixty days, whereupon the plaintiff shall proceed for three consecutive weeks to publish, in some newspaper printed in the county, or if none be printed therein, then in some newspaper of general circulation in said county, a notice, stating the names of the parties, the time when, by what justice of the peace, and for what sum said order was issued, and shall make proof of such publication to the justice; and thereupon said action shall be proceeded with, the same as if summons had been duly served.

5402 (933). When the cause is continued as provided for in the preceding section, and it shall appear that any of the property taken under the attachment is live stock, or is of a perishable nature, the justice may issue his order, directing the officer having the custody thereof to dispose of the same as upon execution; and the moneys realized therefrom shall be paid over to the justice, and applied as other money realized from the sale of property attached is applied.

5403 (934). When the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall make oath in writing that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that any person or corporation, to be named, and within the county where the action is brought, has property of the defendant (describing the same) in his possession, if the officer cannot come at such property, he shall leave with such garnishee a copy of the order of attachment, with a written notice, that he appear before the justice at the return of the order of attachment, and answer as provided in section nine hundred and thirty-six.

5404 (935). The copy of the order and the notice shall be served upon the garnishee, as follows: If he be a person, they shall be served upon him personally, or left at his usual place of residence; if a corporation, they shall be left with the president or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof.

Service on a book-keeper in charge during business hours is sufficient service on a bank. First National Bank v. Turner, 30, 85 (46 N. W., 290).

5405 (936). The garnishee shall appear before the justice, in accordance with the command of the notice, and shall answer, under oath, all questions put to him touching the property of every description, and credits of the defendant in his possession or under his control, and he shall disclose, truly, the amount owing by him to the defendant, whether due or not, and, in the case of a corporation, any stock therein held by or for the benefit of the defendant, at or after the service of the notice.

Where a garnishee after service delivers money or property then in his possession to the defendant, he will not be released from liability to the plaintiff in attachment. First National Bank v. Turner, 30, 85 (46 N. W., 290).

5406 (937). A garnishee may pay the money owing to the defendant by him, to the officer having the order of attachment, or into the court. He shall be discharged from liability to the defendant for any money so paid, not exceeding the plaintiff's claim. He shall not be subjected to costs beyond those caused by his resistance of the claim against him; and if he disclose the property in his hands, or the true amount owing by him, and deliver or pay the same according to the order of the court, he shall be allowed his costs.

5407 (938). If the garnishee do not appear and answer, as required by section nine hundred and thirty-six, the justice may proceed against him by attachment as for a contempt.

5408 (939). If the garnishee appear and answer, and it is discovered on his examination that at or after the service of the order of attachment and notice upon him he was possessed of any property of the defendant, or was indebted to him, the justice may order the delivery of such property and the payment of the amount owing by the garnishee into the court, or may permit the garnishee to retain the property or the amount owing, upon the execution of an undertaking to the plaintiff, by one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the amount shall be paid, or the property forthcoming, as the court may direct.

Money due from a sheriff on contract, or surplus proceeds after satisfying an execution, is not in custodia legis. Oppenheimer v. Marr, 31, 814 (48 N. W., 818).

5409 (940). If the garnishee fail to appear and answer, or if he appear and answer, and his disclosure is not satisfactory to the plaintiff, or if he fail to comply with the order of the justice to deliver the property and pay the money owing into court, or give the undertaking required in the preceding section, the plaintiff may proceed against him in an action in his own name, as in other cases; and thereupon such proceedings may be had as in other actions, and judgment may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff for the amount of property and credits of every kind of the defendant in the possession of the garnishee, and for what shall appear to be owing by him to the defendant, and for the costs of the proceedings against the garnishee. If the plaintiff proceed against the garnishee by action, for the cause that his disclosure was unsatisfactory, unless it appear in the action that such disclosure was incomplete, the plaintiff shall pay the costs of such action. The judgment in this action may be enforced as judgments in other cases. When the claims of the plaintiff in attachment are satisfied, the defendant in the attachment may, on motion, be substituted as the plaintiff in the judgment.

Court should require garnishee to give undertaking required by statute; but failure to give would not discharge the garnishee. Dolby v. Tingley, 9, 417 (2 N. W., 866).

5410 (941). Final judgment shall not be rendered against the garnishee until the action against the defendant in attachment has been determined; and if, in such action, judgment be rendered for the defendant in attachment, the garnishee shall be discharged, and recover costs. If the plaintiff shall recover against the defendant in attachment, and the garnishee shall deliver up all property, moneys, and credits of the defendant in his possession, and pay all the moneys from him due as the court may order, the garnishee shall be discharged, and the costs of the proceedings against him shall be paid out of the property and moneys so surrendered, or as the court may think right and proper.

5411 (942). If judgment be rendered in the action for the defendant, the attachment shall be discharged, and the property attached, or its proceeds shall be returned to him.

5412 (943). If judgment be rendered for the plaintiff, it shall be satisfied as follows: So much of the property remaining in the hands of the officer, after applying the moneys arising from the sale of perishable property, if any, whether held by legal or equitable right, as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, shall be sold by order of the justice, under the same restrictions and regulations as if the same had been levied on by execution; and the money arising therefrom, with the amount which may be recovered from the garnishee, shall be applied to satisfy the judgment and costs. If there be not enough to satisfy the same, the judgment shall stand, and execution may issue thereon for the residue, in all respects as in other cases. Any surplus of the attached property or its proceeds shall be returned to the defendant.

5413 (944). The justice may order the officer to repossess himself, for the purpose of selling it, of any of the attached property which may have passed out of his hands without being sold or converted into money, and the officer shall, under such order, have the same power to take the property as he would have under an order of attachment.

5414 (945). If any of the property which has been attached be claimed by any person other than the defendant, the claimant may have the validity of such claim tried, and such proceedings must be had thereon, with like effect, as in case the property had been seized upon execution issued by the justice and claimed by a third person [5467].

5416 (947). The officer shall return upon every order of attachment what he has done under it. The return must show the property attached and the time it was attached. When garnishees are served, their names, and the time each was served, must be stated. The officer shall also return, with the order, all undertakings given under it.

5418 (949). If the defendant or other person in his behalf, at any time before judgment, cause an undertaking to be executed to the plaintiff by one or more sureties resident in the county, to be approved by the justice, in double the amount of the plaintiff's claim, to be stated in his affidavit to the effect that the defendant shall perform the judgment of the justice, the attachment in such action shall be discharged, and restitution made of any property taken under it, or the proceeds thereof; such undertaking shall also discharge the liability of a garnishee in such action, for any property of the defendant in his hands.

5419 (950). If in any case where an order of attachment has been issued by a justice of the peace it shall appear from the return of the officer and from the examination of the garnishee, that no property, moneys, rights, credits, or effects of the defendant have been taken under the attachment, but that the defendant is the owner of an interest in real estate in the county, the justice before whom said action is pending shall, at the request of the plaintiff, forthwith certify his proceedings to the district court of the proper county, and thereupon the clerk of said court shall docket said cause, and the action shall be proceeded with in said court in all respects as if the same had originated therein.

CHAPTER III.—BILL OF PARTICULARS.

5420 (951). In all cases before a justice, the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall file with such justice a bill of the particulars of his demand, and the defendant, if required by the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall file a like bill of the particulars he may claim as a set-off; and the evidence on the trial shall be confined to the items set forth in said bills.

Defendant need not file bill of particulars unless plaintiff demand it. Clarine v. Nelson, 15, 441 (19 N. W., 684). Section does not apply to action in replevin. Hill v. Wilkinson, 25, 106 (41 N. W., 134). A promissory note is a sufficient bill, if issued on. Wells v. Turner, 14, 446 (16 N. W., 484). Phœnix Ins. Co. v. Lemke, 18, 184 (24 N. W., 727). Justice having note in his possession may render judgment upon it in absence of the parties. Wells v. Turner, 14, 446 (16 N. W., 484). It would be improper for a justice to prepare bill of particulars in case before himself. McCormick v. Thompson, 10, 491 (6 N. W., 597). The bill of particulars of plaintiff and the bill of particulars of set-off claimed by defendant are the only pleadings required in an ordinary action. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co. v. Gustin, 35, 89 (52 N. W., 844). Judgment may be rendered on the pleadings. Simons v. Sowards, 29, 487 (45 N. W., 779). Cited, Andrews v. Mullin, 14, 249 (15 N. W., 216).

5421 (952). The bill of particulars must state in a plain and direct manner, the facts constituting the cause of action, or the claim to be set off.

When bill of particulars fully apprises defendant of the nature of the claim against him, it will be held sufficient. Cook v. Hester, 21, 370 (32 N. W., 72). An account is a sufficient statement. Crossley v. Steele, 13, 220 (13 N. W., 175).

5422 (953). The bill of particulars may be amended at any time before the trial, or during the trial, or upon appeal, to supply any deficiency or omission in the items, when, by such amendments, substantial justice will be promoted. If the amendment be made at the time of or during the trial, and it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the justice, by oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party, in consequence of such amendment, an adjournment must be granted. The justice may, also, in his discretion, require, as a condition of an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party, to be fixed by the justice; but such payment cannot be required unless an adjournment is made necessary by the amendment.

CHAPTER IV.—CHANGE OF THE PLACE OF TRIAL.

5423 (954). The place of trial may be changed if, on the return of process, or at any time before trial shall have commenced, it shall be made satisfactorily to appear to the justice of the peace before whom any cause is instituted, or is pending for trial, by the affidavit of either of the parties in the case, that such justice is a material witness for either party, or if a jury be demanded by the adverse party, then that he cannot, as he verily believes, have a fair and impartial trial in the precinct or place for which said justice may have been elected, on account of the bias or prejudice of the citizens thereof.

Addressed to discretion of the court. Smith v. State 4, 286. Cannot be granted after judgment by default, though it be set aside. Tyler v. Baxter, 29, 688 (46 N. W., 154).

5424 (955). If the place of trial be changed on account of the justice being a material witness in the cause, such cause may be transferred for trial before some other justice of the peace in the same precinct. If the place of trial be changed on account of the bias or prejudice of the citizens of such precinct or place, the case shall be taken to some justice in an adjoining precinct in the same county.

5425 (956). The justice granting such change shall deliver or transmit the papers in the cause, together with a certified transcript of the proceedings before him, to the justice to whom such change may be granted, who shall proceed therein and have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties, in all respects whatever, as if suit had been originally instituted before him.

5426 (957). Before any such change shall be allowed, the costs, as specified in the next following section, shall be paid by the party applying for such change.

Secs. 5428 and 5429. "An act to allow a change of venue in civil and criminal proceedings before justices of the peace, on account of the interest, bias, or prejudice of the justice." 1871, p. 70. In force March 25.

5428. That in all civil and criminal proceedings before justices of the peace, any defendant in such proceedings may apply for and obtain a change of venue, by filing an affidavit in the case made by the defendant, his agent or attorney, stating that the defendant cannot, as affiant verily believes, have a fair and impartial hearing in the case on account of the interest, bias, or prejudice of the justice, and by paying the costs now required to be paid by defendant on change of venue, for the causes and in the cases mentioned in chapter four of title thirty, part two of the Revised Statutes, and thereupon the proceedings shall be transferred to the nearest justice of the peace, to whom the said objections do not apply, of the same county, to be proceeded with in the manner pointed out for the transfer and procedure in cases on change of venue for cause mentioned in said chapter four.

This act applies to all proceedings, civil and criminal, before justices of the peace; but a second change in the same proceeding is not allowed for same cause. In re Garst, 10, 82, (4 N. W., 511). A change of venue to a justice who being unable to try the case by reason of bias or prejudice transferred to nearest justice, held no grounds for dismissal. Proper proceeding would have been to remand. Hitchcock v. McKinster, 21, 152 (31 N. W., 507). A motion for change of venue is proper after the ruling on a motion for continuance. State, ex rel. Proctor, v. Cotton, 33, 561 (50 N. W., 688). The application should be made in good faith. Osborn v. Shotwell, 38, 353 (50 N. W., 164). These provisions are not applicable to county courts. McCarthy v. State, 10, 439 (6 N. W., 769).

5429. The application shall be made before entering upon the merits of the case by the introduction and reception of evidence; and no second change of venue shall be allowed for the same cause in the same proceeding.

The party cannot dictate the justice to whom the case shall be sent, but may include in his first affidavit objections to any other justice. State, ex rel. Proctor, v. Cotton, 33, 561 (50 N. W., 688).

CHAPTER V.—ADJOURNMENTS.

5430 (959). Upon the return day, if a jury be required, or if the justice be actually engaged in other official business, he may adjourn the trial without the consent of either party, as follows: First—Where a party is in attendance who is not a resident of the county, or where the defendant is in attendance under arrest, the adjournment not to exceed forty-eight hours, and the defendant, if under arrest, to continue in custody. Second—In other cases, not to exceed eight days, unless by consent of parties. If the trial be not adjourned, it must take place immediately upon the return of the summons.

5431 (960). The trial may be adjourned upon the application of either party, without the consent of the other, for a period not exceeding thirty days, as follows: the party asking the adjournment must, if required by his adversary, prove by his own oath, or otherwise, that he cannot, for want of material testimony which he expects to procure, safely proceed to trial.

May be in language of statute, purport of testimony need not be stated. Belcher v. Skinner, 28, 91 (44 N. W., 78). Need not describe testimony sought. Award of costs on continuance discretionary with trial court. Coombs v. Brenklander, 29, 588 (45 N. W., 929).

5432 (961). An adjournment may be had either at the return day or at any subsequent time to which the cause may stand adjourned, on the application of either party, for a period longer than thirty days, but not to exceed ninety days from the time of the return of the summons, upon compliance with the provisions of the preceding section, and upon proof by the oath of the party, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the justice, that such party cannot be ready for trial before the time to which he desires an adjournment for the want of material evidence, describing it, that the delay has not been made necessary by any act or negligence on his part since the action was commenced, and that he expects to procure the evidence at the time stated by him.

Affidavit for continuance held insufficient. Rowland v. Shephard, 27, 497-9 (43 N. W., 344). An adjournment beyond the ninety days by request of defendant will not cause the justice to lose jurisdiction. Fischer v. Cooley, 36, — (54 N. W., 960).

CHAPTER VI.—WITNESS.

5433 (962). Any justice may issue subpœnas to compel the attendance of witnesses to give evidence on any trial pending before himself, or for the purpose of taking depositions, or to perpetuate testimony.

5434 (963). A subpœna may be served by a constable or any other person, and shall be served by reading the same or stating the contents thereof to the witness, or by leaving a copy thereof at his usual place of residence.

5435 (964). When not served by a constable or sheriff, or some person deputed for that purpose by a justice, no fees shall be charged in the suit for serving it.

5436 (965). If any witness, having been subpœnaed, attend and be not examined by either party, the costs of such witness shall be paid by the party ordering the subpœna, unless the adverse party, by confessing the matter, or otherwise, render unnecessary the examination of such witness.

5437 (966). Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of a justice, by proof made before him, that any person has been duly served with a subpœna to appear and give testimony before him in any matter in which he has authority to require such witness to appear and testify, that his testimony is material, and that he refuses or neglects to attend as such witness in conformity with such subpœna, the justice shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the delinquent, for the purpose of compelling his attendance, and punishing his disobedience.

5439 (968). Every person subpœnaed as aforesaid, and neglecting to appear, or refusing to testify, shall also be liable to the party in whose behalf he shall have been subpœnaed, for all damages which such party shall sustain by reason of such delinquency.

5440 (969). [Depositions.]—Depositions may be taken to be read in a cause pending before a justice of the peace, in like manner, and subject to the same restrictions and rules of law, as in cases pending in the district court [4892 et seq.].

CHAPTER VII.—THE TRIAL AND ITS INCIDENTS.

5441 (970). At the time appointed for trial, if no jury shall have been demanded by either party, the justice shall proceed to try the action, shall hear the proofs, and determine the cause according to law and the right.

It will be presumed that there was evidence to support the finding of the justice. Bell Bros. v. White Lake Lumber Co., 21, 528 (32 N. W., 561).

5442 (971). Where parties agree to enter, without process, before a justice, any action of which such justice has cognizance, such justice shall enter the same on his docket, and proceed to trial, judgment, and execution, in all respects in the same manner as if summons had been issued, served, and returned.

5444 (973). The justice shall write in a panel the names of eighteen persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, his agent or attorney, shall strike one, and then the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, shall strike one, and so on alternately, until each shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid, the justice shall strike the same in behalf of such party.

5445 (974). The justice thereupon shall issue a summons for the jury, in which the following form shall be observed in substance, as near as practicable: The State of Nebraska, ——— County. To any Constable or Sheriff of said county: You are hereby commanded to summon —— to appear before me at my office, in said county, on the —— day of ——, A. D. ——, at —— o'clock in the ——noon, to serve as jurors in a case pending before me, then and there to be tried. And this they shall in nowise omit. And have you then and there this writ, with your doings thereon. Given under my hand, this —— day of ——, A. D. ——. ——, Justice of the Peace.

Officer cannot demand fees in advance for summoning jurors. Beach v. State, 37, 398 (43 N. W., 177).

5447 (976). The constable or sheriff shall be in attendance on the court at and during the progress of the trial; and if, from challenge or other cause, the panel shall not be full, he may fill the same in the same manner as is done by the sheriff in the district court.

5448 (977). When a jury shall be in attendance, and the cause shall be continued, the jurors must attend at the time and place appointed for trial, without further notice.

5450 (979). The justice shall administer an oath or affirmation to the jury, well and truly to try the matter in difference between the parties, and a true verdict to give according to the evidence.

5451 (980). After the jury shall have been sworn, they shall sit together and hear proofs and allegations of the parties; and after hearing the same, shall be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of a constable or sheriff, until they have agreed upon their verdict, or shall be discharged by the justice.

A county judge or justice of the peace has no authority to instruct a jury. Ives v. Norris, 13, 255 (13 N. W., 276). Wilson v. Young, 15, 628 (19 N. W., 487). Burke v. Magee, 27, 157 (42 N. W., 890).

5452 (981). When the jury shall have agreed upon their verdict, they shall deliver it to the justice, publicly, who shall enter it upon his docket.

Docket entry stating not verdict itself but merely purport thereof, error without prejudice. Where judgment is based on a verdict, justice need not make findings. Dye v. Russell, 24, 830 (40 N. W., 416). Not proper to arrive at verdict by dividing sum of estimates of each juror by whole number of jurors. Burke v. Magee, 27, 157 (42 N. W., 890).

5453 (982). Whenever the justice shall be satisfied that a jury, sworn in any cause before him, cannot agree in the verdict, after having consulted upon it a reasonable time, he may discharge them and continue the cause, and may, if required by either party, proceed to strike another jury, as hereinbefore provided. The cause shall be continued to such time as the justice thinks reasonable, unless the parties, or their attorneys, agree on a longer or shorter time, or unless they agree that the justice may render judgment on the evidence already before him.

5454 (983). It shall be lawful for the justice before whom a cause has been tried, on motion, and being satisfied that the verdict was obtained by fraud, partiality, or undue means, at any time within four days after the entering of judgment, to grant a new trial, and he shall set a time for the new trial, of which the opposite party shall have at least three days' notice.

This section applies to county court. Vaughn v. O'Conner, 12, 479 (11 N. W., 738). See State v. King, 23, 545 (37 N. W., 310).

5455 (984). The opposite party shall also have a reasonable notice of such motion for a new trial, if the same is not made on the day of the former trial, and in the presence of such party; such notice to be given by the applying party. If the new trial shall be granted or the jury be unable to agree, the proceedings shall be in all respects as upon the return of the summons.

5456 (985). If either the plaintiff or defendant, in his bill of particulars, claims more than twenty dollars, the case may be appealed to the district court; but if neither party demands a greater sum than twenty dollars, and the case is tried by a jury, there shall be no appeal. [See 5477 and 5489.]

* to * inserted 1881, p. 210. Does not apply to replevin. Edwards v. Schutt, 7, 19. The language of this section said to be too plain to admit of construction and application of it made. Weast v. Sheppard, 10, 509 (7 N. W., 284). Cited, Elsanger v. Grovijohn, 29, 141 (45 N. W., 273)

5459 (988). In all cases which shall be tried by a jury before a justice of the peace, either party shall have the right to except to the opinion of the justice, upon any question of law arising during the trial of the cause; and when either party shall allege such exception, it shall be the duty of the justice to sign and seal a bill, containing such exception, if truly alleged, with the point decided, so that the same may be made part of the record in the cause.

Error does not lie from a justice on the ground that the evidence is not sufficient to support the verdict. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co. v. Goracke, 32, 90 (48 N. W., 879). See 1100. Errors of law will not be reviewed in the supreme court upon a petition from the county court to the district court in a civil action tried in county court without a jury. Nickerson v. Needles, 32, 230 (49 N. W., 433).

ARBITRATIONS.

5460 (989). At any time before trial and judgment rendered, the plaintiff and defendant consenting thereto, may have the cause submitted to the arbitrament of three disinterested men, who shall be chosen by the parties; and if the arbitrators be present they shall hear and determine the cause on oath or affirmation, to be administered by the justice. But if the persons chosen as arbitrators be not present, the justice shall issue summons for them to attend at the time and place appointed for the trial, which shall be served by any constable, sheriff, or the parties, as they may agree. The fees of arbitrators shall be the same as that paid to jurors.

5461 (990). When the arbitrators shall convene and be qualified, they shall proceed to hear and determine the cause, and make out their award in writing, which shall be valid when signed by any two of them, and return the same to the justice, who shall thereupon enter such award upon his docket, and thereon render judgment and issue execution as in other cases.

5462 (991). Every judgment rendered on such award shall conclude the rights of the parties thereto, unless it shall be made to appear to the justice of the peace who rendered such judgment, and within ten days of the rendition of the same, or to the district court, on appeal, that such award was obtained by fraud, corruption, or other undue means.

Award not set aside because it states facts separately from conclusions of law. Westover v. Armstrong, 24, 393 (38 N. W., 843).

5464 (993). But no appeal shall be allowed to the district court from a judgment of a justice of the peace rendered on an award, unless the party praying such appeal shall file with such justice an affidavit, therein stating that he or she does verily believe that such award was obtained by fraud, corruption, or other undue means.

5465 (994). And if on appeal from the judgment of a justice rendered on any such award, the district court shall be satisfied that the award was obtained by fraud, corruption, or other undue means, such court shall set aside the award, and proceed to hear and determine the cause on the merits, as in other cases of appeal.

5466 (995). But if the court shall be of the opinion that the award was not obtained by fraud, corruption, or other undue means, they shall render judgment thereon for the costs of suit and award execution as in other cases.

TRIAL OF THE RIGHT OF PROPERTY LEVIED ON OR ATTACHED.

5467 (996). When a constable or sheriff shall levy on or attach property claimed by any person or persons other than the party against whom the execution or attachment issued, the claimant or claimants shall give three days' notice, in writing, to the plaintiff or his agent, or if not found within the county, then such notice shall be served by leaving a copy thereof at his usual place of abode in such county, of the time and place of the trial of the right to such property, which trial shall be had before some justice of the county, at least one day prior to the time appointed for the sale of such property.

5468 (997). If, on the trial, the justice shall be satisfied from the proof that the property, or any part thereof, belongs to the claimant or claimants *(or in case when a jury is demanded, the jury so find), such justice shall render judgment against the party in whose favor such execution or attachment issued for the costs and issue execution therefor, and shall, moreover, give a written order to the officer who levied on, or who may be charged with the duty of selling such property, directing him to restore the same, or so much thereof as may have been found to belong to such claimant or claimants.

5469 (998). But if the claimant or claimants fail to establish his or their right to such property, or any part thereof, the justice shall render judgment against such claimant or claimants for the costs that have accrued on account of such trial, and issue execution therefor; and the officer shall not be liable to the claimant or claimants for the property so taken.

The proceeding under this statute is a summary one, is not a "civil action," and is not properly triable by a jury. State v. Powell, 10, 50 (4 N. W., 317). See sections 50.7–18. Where jury finds against claimant and judgment is rendered thereon, he cannot afterwards maintain replevin against the officer. Bray v. Saaman, 13, 519 (14 N. W., 474). For action on undertaking, see Noakes v. Switzer, 12, 160 (10 N. W., 536).

CHAPTER VIII.—JUDGMENTS.

5470 (999). Judgment that the action be dismissed without prejudice to a new action, may be entered with costs in the following cases: First—When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted. Second—When he fails to appear at the time specified in the summons, or upon adjournment, or within one hour thereafter.

5472 (1001). When judgment shall have been rendered against a defendant in his absence, the same may be set aside upon the following conditions: First—That his motion be made within ten days after such judgment was entered. Second—That he pay or confess judgment for the costs awarded against him. Third—That he notify in writing the opposite party, his agent or attorney, or cause it to be done, of the opening of such judgment and of the time and place of trial, at least five days before the time, if the party reside in the county, and if he be not a resident of the county, by leaving a written notice thereof at the office of the justice ten days before the trial.

Does not apply to plaintiffs. Proctor v. Pettitt, 25, 98 (41 N. W., 131). Applicable to county courts regardless of amount in controversy. State v. Smith, 11, 239 (9 N. W., 92). In cases in county court involving over $200, a judgment rendered in the absence of the defendant may be set aside. McCormick v. Schneider, 36, — (54 N. W., 257). Defendant, on compliance with this section, can have default set aside as a matter of right. Strine v. Kingsbaker, 12, 53 (10 N. W., 534). Clendenning v. Crawford, 7, 476. In an action within the jurisdiction of a justice, if the defendant has appeared but absents himself on the day of trial he is not entitled to have the judgment set aside but may appeal. Sullivan v. Benedict, 36, — (54 N. W., 676). Strine v. Kaufman, 12, 423 (11 N. W., 867). Crippen & Amick v. Church, 17, 304 (22 N. W., 567). Western Mutual Ben. Ass'n v. Pace, 23, 494 (36 N. W., 816). Steven v. Ins. Co., 29, 189 (45 N. W., 284). Where one default has been vacated and another is entered defendant cannot have it set aside too. Smythe v. Kastler, 16, 265 (20 N. W., 208). Defendant filed a motion for security for costs but failed to appear on the day set for trial; held, that he could not have judgment set aside. Raymond v. Strine, 14, 236 (15 N. W., 350). When party appears and files motion to dismiss action, which is overruled, but fails to appear at time set for hearing, and judgment is rendered against him before time for appearance expires, he can appeal to the district court. Andrews v. Mullin, 14, 250 (15 N. W., 216). Answer should be filed with motion to set aside default. Fritz v. Grosnicklaus, 20, 417 (30 N. W., 411). Must be a conditional order. Tootle & Hosea v. Jones, 19, 588 (27 N. W., 635). A motion to set aside is a general appearance and waives all objections to jurisdiction over the person. Leake v. Gallogly, 34, 857 (52 N. W., 824). Though the proceedings to have judgment set aside may be irregular, if not objected to at the time, such irregularity will be waived. Pollock v. Boyd, 36, — (54 N. W., 561). See Stanton & Co. v. Spence, 22, 194 (34 N. W., 359); Sornborger v. Huffman, 27, 493 (43 N. W., 242).

Immediately does not mean to-morrow but now. Austin v. Brock, 16, 642 (21 N. W., 437). If verdict is returned to justice on Sunday he should immediately render judgment upon it. Thompson v. Church, 13, 288 (13 N. W., 626). Trial commenced at 1 o'clock P. M., without a jury. At conclusion of trial justice took case under advisement until 8 o'clock the following morning, when judgment was rendered; held, that it was rendered "immediately" within the meaning of the statute. Huff v. Babbott, 14, 151 (15 N. W., 230). Verdict returned at 25 minutes past 8 P. M., judgment rendered next day, held that justice thereby lost jurisdiction. Worley v. Shong, 35, 313 (53 N. W., 72). Judgment without finding is not void. Doty v. Sumner Bros., 12, 378 (11 N. W., 464). Judgment may be rendered on pleadings. Simons v. Sowards, 29, 487 (45 N. W., 779).

5474 (1003). When the amount due to either party exceeds the sum for which the justice is authorized to enter judgment, such party may remit the excess, and judgment may be entered for the residue. A defendant need not remit such excess, and may withhold setting the same off, and a recovery for the amount set off and allowed, or any part thereof, shall not be a bar to his subsequent action for the amount withheld.

5475 (1004). If the defendant, any time before trial, offer, in writing, to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with the costs then accrued. But if he do not accept such offer before the trial, and fail to recover in the action a sum equal to the offer, he cannot recover costs accrued after the offer; but costs must be adjudged against him. But the offer and failure to accept it cannot be given in evidence, to affect the recovery, otherwise than as to costs as above provided.

An unsigned offer to confess is not sufficient. Ossenkop v. Akeson, 15, 624 (19 N.W., 709). Where docket entry shows that an offer to confess was made and refused, presumption is that it was made in writing. If plaintiff does not recover more than offer, costs will be taxed against him. Underhill v. Shea, 21, 155 (31 N.W., 510). Need not be renewed in appellate court. Kleffel v. Bullock, 8, 340. Plea of tender is very different from offer to allow judgment to be taken. The former admits that amount tendered is due, while the latter admits nothing. Murray v. Cunningham, 10, 170 (4 N. W., 319, 953). See Elsanger v. Grovijohn, 29, 142 (45 N. W., 273).

5476 (1005). Where judgment is rendered in a case where the defendant is subject to arrest and imprisonment, it must be so stated in the judgment, and entered in the justice's docket.

CHAPTER IX.—APPEALS.

5477 (1006). In all cases not otherwise specially provided for by law, either party may appeal from the final judgment of any justice of the peace, to the district court of the county where the judgment was rendered.

Appeal only lies from a final judgment of a justice of the peace. A judgment for costs merely, on verdict of jury in favor of defendant, is not a final judgment. Riddle v. Yates, 10, 511 (7 N. W., 289). Appeal does not lie from judgment by default, but plaintiff may waive this provision, and does waive it by treating the appeal as valid. Minneapolis Harvester Works v. Hedges, 11, 48 (7 N. W., 531). Right to appeal if motion for a change of venue has been filed. Wagner v. Evers, 20, 184 (29 N. W., 298). Judgment dismissing an action and for costs is a final judgment. Rogers v. Russell, 11, 363 (9 N. W., 547). Must be tried on same issues in district court as in county court, unless some matter has arisen since the trial, such as payment, release, etc. Fuller & Johnson v. Schroeder, 20, 636 (31 N. W., 109). O'Leary v. Iskey, 12, 137 (10 N. W., 576). Lee v. Walker, 35, 689 (53 N. W., 597). Defendant on appeal cannot plead a set-off or counterclaim not pleaded below. Carr v. Luscher, 35, 321 (53 N. W., 144). Where answer in lower court contains new matter, a reply thereto is proper, though none was filed in the lower court. C., B. & Q. R. R. Co. v. Gustin, 35, 89 (52 N. W., 844).

Time computed by sec. 5362. Monell & Lashley v. Terwilliger, 8, 362. District court cannot allow an appeal after four years on the ground of fraud. Miller v. Camp, 28, 415 (44 N. W., 486). Sureties in appeal bond bound, though appeal dismissed for irregularities. Adams v. Thompson, 18, 541 (26 N. W., 316). Gudtner v. Kilpatrick, 14, 347 (15 N. W., 708). Cited, Stump v. Richardson County Bank, 24, 524 (39 N. W., 433); Clark v. Strong, 14, 231 (15 N. W., 236). Justice not required to approve bond unless filed within ten days from rendition of judgment. Bell Bros. v. White Lake Lumber Co., 21, 528 (32 N. W., 561). It is immaterial who files the transcript, or the purpose of its filing. When filed for one purpose, it is available for all uses and purposes for which a transcript can be used in that court. Fulton v. Ryan, 33, 458 (50 N. W., 430).

5479 (1008). The said justice shall make out a certified transcript of his proceedings, including the undertaking taken for such appeal, and shall, on demand, deliver the same to the appellant or his agent, who shall deliver the same to the clerk of the court to which such appeal may be taken, within thirty days next following the rendition of such judgment; and such justice shall also deliver or transmit the bill or bills of particulars, the depositions, and all other original papers, if any used on the trial before him, to such clerk on or before the second day of such term; and all other proceedings before the justice of the peace in that case shall cease and be stayed from the time of entering into such undertaking.

Amended 1877, p. 15. Appellant has until the second day of succeeding term in which to file his transcript. Smith v. Borden, 22, 489 (35 N. W., 218). Not to be dismissed unless delay in filing transcript continued longer than second day of next succeeding term. Roesink v. Barnett, 8, 149. If filed within thirty days district court has jurisdiction. U. P. R. R. Co. v. Marston, 22, 724 (36 N. W., 153). If the transcript was on file by the second day of the next term after the thirty days, under the old law it was sufficient. Johnson v. Van Cleve, 23, 563 (37 N. W., 320). If appellant fails to file transcript, and appellee does so and obtains judgment, in order to vacate it appellant must apply to district court for relief. Slaven v. Hellman, 24, 647 (39 N. W., 843).

5480 (1009). The clerk, on receiving such transcript and other papers as aforesaid, shall file the same and docket the appeal.

5481 (1010). The plaintiff in the court below shall be the plaintiff in the district court; and the parties shall proceed, in all respects, in the same manner as though the action had been originally instituted in the said court.

The case must be tried on same issues as in lower court. Sawyer v. Brown, 17, 171 (22 N.

W., 355). Sells v. Haggard & Co., 21, 361 (32 N. W., 66). Cited, Deck v. Smith, 12, 393 (10 N. W., 705).

Sec. 5482. "An act to provide for the time for filing pleadings in cases of appeals from the county court and justices of the peace." 1877, p. 17. In force June 1.

5482. That in all cases of appeal from the county court or a justice of the peace, the plaintiff shall, within twenty days from and after the filing of his transcript in the district court as required by law, file his petition as required in civil cases in the court to which such appeal is taken; and the answer shall be filed and issue joined as in cases commenced in such appellate court.

New pleadings not necessary in forcible entry and detention cases. McCue v. Lee, 16, 575 (21 N. W., 1). Cited, Sornborger v. Huffman, 27, 493 (43 N. W., 242). Cause must be tried upon the same issues as were raised in the lower court, except new matter arising since the trial. Darner v. Daggett, 35, 695 (53 N. W., 608).

5483 (1011). If the appellant shall fail to deliver the transcript and other papers, if any, to the clerk, and have his appeal docketed as aforesaid within thirty days next following the rendition of said judgment, the appellee may, at the first term of the district court after the expiration of thirty days, file a transcript of the proceedings of such justice, and the said cause shall, on motion of said appellee, be docketed; and the court is authorized and required, on his application, either to enter up a judgment in his favor similar to that entered by the justice of the peace, and for all the costs that have accrued in the court, and award execution thereon, or such court may, with the consent of such appellee, dismiss the appeal, at the cost of the appellant, and remand the cause to the justice of the peace, to be thereafter proceeded in as if no appeal had been taken; and if the plaintiff in the action before the justice shall appeal from any judgment rendered against such plaintiff, and after having filed his transcript and caused such appeal to be docketed according to the provisions of this chapter, shall fail to file his petition within twenty days thereafter, unless the court, on good cause shown, shall otherwise order, or otherwise neglect to prosecute the same to final judgment, the said plaintiff shall become nonsuited, and it shall be the duty of said court to render judgment against such appellant for the amount of the judgment rendered against him by the justice together with interest accrued thereon, and for costs of suit, and to award execution therefor, as in other cases.

Amended 1887, p. 652. Transcript must be filed within thirty days next following rendition of judgment. Converse v. Campbell, 25, 38 (40 N. W., 594). Failure to perfect appeal not ground for dismissal unless willful or appeal not made in good faith. Steele v. Haynes, 20, 318 (30 N. W., 63). Not sufficient excuse for failing to file in time that transcript was mislaid by one in charge of attorney's office. Lincoln B. & T. Works v. Hall, 27, 877 (44 N. W., 45). A defeated party in county court who promptly orders a transcript for the purpose of appealing will not be denied the right because the county judge fails to prepare it within thirty days. Omaha C. C. & L. Co. v. Fay, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 211). But if no excuse offered appeal should be dismissed. Maggard v. Van Duyn, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 263). That the transcript is imperfect will not dismiss the appeal, if a perfect transcript be filed after the thirty days. Fulton v. Ryan, 33, 459 (50 N. W., 430). If the appellant fail to file his transcript within the thirty days, the appellee has either of the remedies given him notwithstanding the appellant may have given an appeal bond within the ten days. Wilde v. Preuss, 33, 790 (50 N. W., 1125). Judgment rendered by the justice on the 7th of August, appeal taken and transcript filed that day, on the 19th petition filed; nothing filed by defendant until October 17, when cause is continued, then set aside and appeal dismissed, the defendant being in default in answer. Held, that the appeal was properly taken and could not be dismissed. Dickerson v. Mechling, 30, 718 (46 N. W., 1123). This does not authorize the voluntary dismissal of an appeal by the appellant after the same is perfected without the consent of the appellee. Brugman v. Burr, 30, 417 (46 N. W., 644). General appearance of defendant cures defect in failing to file transcript within thirty days. Stevens v. Ins. Co., 29, 190 (45 N. W., 284). Held constitutional, see Muldoon v. Levi, 25, 457 (41 N. W., 280). Unauthorized dismissal of appeal. Sornborger v. Huffman, 27, 493 (43 N. W., 242). Appellee may exert this right at a subsequent term. Wilson v. Wilson, 23, 460 (36 N. W., 661). See Clapp v. Bowman & Ware, 22, 201 (34 N. W., 362); Slaven v. Hellman, 24, 648 (39 N. W., 843).

5484 (1012). If both parties fail to enter such appeal within the time limited as aforesaid, the justice, on receiving a certificate from the clerk of the court, stating that the appeal was not entered, or being entered, was dismissed as aforesaid, shall thereupon issue execution upon the judgment in the same manner as if such appeal had never been taken.

5485 (1013). If any person appealing from a judgment rendered in his favor shall not recover a greater sum than the amount for which judgment was rendered, besides costs and the interest accruing thereon, every such appellant shall pay the costs of such appeal.

5486 (1014). When any appeal shall be dismissed, or when judgment shall be entered in the district court against the appellant, the surety in the undertaking shall be liable to the appellee for the whole amount of the debt, costs, and damages, recovered against the appellant.

5487 (1015). When an appeal taken to the district court shall there be quashed, by reason of irregularity in taking or consummating the same, the cause for quashing shall be stated in the order of the court, and a transcript of such order shall be lodged with such justice, who shall thereupon proceed to issue execution in the same manner as if no appeal had been taken.

Not necessary to except to ruling of court in dismissing appeal. Morrow v. Sullender, 4, 375

5488 (1016). In proceeding on appeal when the surety in the undertaking shall be insufficient or such undertaking may be insufficient in form or amount, it shall be lawful for the court, on motion, to order a change or renewal of such undertaking, and direct the same to be certified to the justice from whose judgment the appeal was taken, or that it be recorded in said court.

Appellant obtained leave to file additional security within a limited time. Not complying was granted further time. Held not error. Robare v. Kendall, 22, 680 (35 N. W., 910).

Original section excepted also forcible entry and detainer. Omitted, 1885, p. 385. Party who sues for $20 and obtains verdict for $15, cannot defeat defendant's right of appeal by filing amended bill of particulars claiming but $19. Finch v. Hartpence, 29, 368 (45 N. W., 684).

5490 (1018). When the term of office of a justice shall expire between the date of the judgment and the time limited for appeal, such justice may take the undertaking for appeal at any time before he has delivered the docket to his successor, and give the appealing party a transcript. After the delivery of the docket the undertaking shall be given to his successor, and it shall be his duty to give the transcript, and do and perform all things required of his predecessor.

CHAPTER X.—OF THE ACTION FOR THE FORCIBLE ENTRY AND DETENTION, OR FORCIBLE DETENTION ONLY, OF PROPERTY.

5491 (1019). Any justice, within his proper county, shall have power to inquire, in the manner hereinafter directed, as well against those who make unlawful and forcible entry into lands and tenements, and detain the same, as against those who, having a lawful and peaceable entry into lands or tenements, unlawfully and by force hold the same; and if it be found upon such inquiry, that an unlawful and forcible entry has been made, and that the same lands or tenements are held by force, or that the same, after a lawful entry, are held unlawfully, then said justice shall cause the party complaining to have restitution thereof.

County court has jurisdiction. Judgment of nonsuit on the ground that county court had no jurisdiction is no bar to another suit. Pence v. Uhl, 11, 321 (9 N. W., 41). In this action notice to quit must be given, and the rights of the plaintiff and defendant will be inquired into and protected, and the judgment of the trial court may be reviewed on error. McCormick v. Riewe, 14, 510 (16 N. W., 832). Notice to quit and complaint must particularly describe the premises; but if they fail to do so and the description given includes the premises in controversy and no objection is made to the form of either in the trial court, it will be waived. Grant v. Marshall, 12, 489 (11 N. W., 743). A party who has never been in possession of land cannot maintain an action against the owner of the fee for an alleged forcible entry and detention. Haller v. Blaco, 14, 198 (15 N. W., 348). Must charge in petition that premises are unlawfully held. Blaco v. Haller, 9, 150 (1 N. W., 978). In a civil action, plea of not guilty places burden on plaintiff. Galligher v. Connell, 23, 403 (36 N. W., 566). Action does not lie against party in possession claiming interest in land. Malloy v. Malloy, 24, 768 (40 N. W., 285). Where both parties claim the land itself, the action will not lie. Streater v. Ralph, 13, 390 (14 N. W., 166). Myers v. Koenig, 5, 421. Leach v. Sutphen, 11, 528 (10 N. W., 409). Grohonsky v. Long, 20, 364 (30 N. W., 257). Alleged contract to pay tenant for improvements held, under the facts, not to constitute a defense. Connelly v. Giddings, 24, 131 (37 N. W., 939). Forcible detention will not lie against party in possession under a contract of sale. Worthington v. Woods, 22, 234 (34 N. W., 368). C., B. & Q. R. R. Co. v. Skupa, 16, 345 (20 N. W., 393). Verdict will not be reversed unless it is clearly wrong when there are no errors of law. Grant v. Marshall, 11, 265 (9 N. W., 97). Determines only the right of possession. Dale v. Doddridge, 9, 145 (1 N. W., 999). See Estabrook v. Hateroth, 22, 284 (34 N. W., 634); Estabrook v. Hateroth, 27, 800 (44 N. W., 29).

5492 (1020). Proceedings under this article may be had in all cases against tenants holding over their terms; in sales of real estate on executions, orders, or other judicial process, when the judgment debtor was in possession at the time of the rendition of judgment or decree by virtue of which such sale was made; in sales by executors, administrators, or guardians, and on partition, where any of the parties to the petition were in possession at the commencement of the suit, after such sale so made, on execution or otherwise, shall have been examined by the proper court, and the same by such court adjudged legal; and in cases where the defendant is a settler or occupier of lands or tenements, without color of title, and to which the complainant has the right of possession. This section shall not be construed as limiting the provisions of section one thousand one hundred and nineteen [4320].

But title cannot be tried by. Comstock v. Cole, 28, 470 (44 N. W., 487).

5493 (1021). A tenant shall be deemed to be holding over his term whenever he has failed, neglected, or refused to pay the rent, or any part thereof, when the same was due, and* judgments, either before the justice or in the district court, under this chapter, shall not be a bar to any after action brought by either party.

All before * added 1875, p. 43. A failure and refusal to pay the rent (taxes) as stipulated terminates the lease, and the tenant is liable to an action for forcible detention. Pollock v. Whipple, 33, 752 (51 N. W., 130). Tenant in default of payment, action may be commenced after the three days' notice to quit. Hendrickson v. Beeson & Sullivan, 21, 64 (31 N. W., 266). See Smith v. Gibson, 25, 511 (41 N. W., 360).

Notice to quit must contain specific time at which possession must be given. Connell v. Chambers, 22, 309 (34 N. W., 636). Sufficiency of notice. Dimmett v. Appleton, 20, 209 (29 N. W., 474). Notice signed by agent good. Post v. Bohner, 23, 257 (36 N. W., 508). Tenant from year to year entitled to six months' notice. Crichfield v. Remaley, 21, 180 (31 N. W., 687). Occupant entitled to three full days' notice. Dale v. Doddridge, 9, 143 (1 N. W., 999). Notice to quit may be served as well before as after the expiration of the term. Hawley v. Robinson, 14, 437 (16 N. W., 438).

5495 (1023). The summons shall not issue until the plaintiff shall have filed his complaint in writing with the justice, which shall particularly describe the premise so entered upon or detained, and shall set forth either an unlawful and forcible entry and detention, or an unlawful and forcible detention after a peaceable or lawful entry of the described premises. The complaint shall be copied into and made a part of the record.

Must particularly describe the premises sought to be recovered. Blaco v. Haller, 9, 151 (1 N. W., 978). A description perfect, except neither meridian, county or state being given, is sufficient. Devine v. Burleson, 35, 238 (52 N. W., 1112).

5496 (1024). The summons shall be issued and directed, shall state the cause of the complaint, and the time and place of trial, and shall be served and returned as in other cases. Such service shall be three days before the day of trial appointed by the justice.

5497 (1025). If the defendant does not appear in accordance with the requisitions of the summons, and it shall have been properly served, the justice shall try the cause as though he was present.

5498 (1026). No continuance shall be granted for a longer period than eight days, unless the defendant applying therefor shall give an undertaking to the adverse party, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the justice, conditioned for the payment of the rent that may accrue, if judgment be rendered against the defendant.

5499 (1027). If the suit be not continued, place of trial changed, or neither party demand a jury, upon the return day of the summons, the justice shall try the cause; and if, after hearing the evidence, he shall conclude that the complaint is not true, he shall enter judgment against the plaintiff for costs; if he find the complaint true, he shall render a general judgment against the defendant, and in favor of the plaintiff, for restitution of the premises and costs of suit; if he find the complaint true in part, he shall render a judgment for the restitution of such part only, and the costs shall be taxed as the justice shall deem just and equitable.

5500 (1028). If a jury be demanded by either party, the proceedings, until the empaneling thereof, shall be in all respects as in other cases. The jury shall be sworn or affirmed to well and truly try and determine whether the complaint of (naming the plaintiff), about to be laid before them, is true according to the evidence. If the jury shall find the complaint true, they shall render a general verdict of guilty against the defendant; if not true, then a general verdict of not guilty; if true in part, then a verdict setting forth the facts they find true.

Justice cannot charge the jury as to the law. Wilson v. Young, 15, 628 (19 N. W., 487).

5501 (1029). The justice shall enter the verdict upon his docket, and shall render such judgment in the action as if the facts authorizing the finding of such verdict had been found to be true by himself.

5502 (1030). Exceptions to the opinion of the justice, in cases under this chapter, upon questions of law and evidence, may be taken by either party, whether tried by a jury or otherwise, *or either may appeal from the judgment rendered by such justice by giving bond, with two responsible sureties to be approved by the justice, conditioned: If the plaintiff appeals, to satisfy the final judgment and costs; if the defendant appeals, to satisfy the final judgment and costs, and pay a reasonable rent for the premises during the time he wrongfully withholds the same.

All after * added 1883, p. 327. Duty of justice to approve bond. Sureties need not sign in presence of justice; objection to signatures must be made, if at all, when bond is presented. State v. Clark, 24, 320 (38 N. W., 832). The right to take exceptions clearly implies the right to have the same preserved in a bill to be authenticated by the signature of the justice. Osborne v. Shotwell, 33, 352 (50 N. W., 164).

5503 (1031). Where a judgment of restitution shall be entered by a justice, he shall, at the request of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, issue a writ of execution thereon, which shall be in the following form, as near as practicable: The State of Nebraska, —— County, ss. To any Constable or Sheriff of —— County: Whereas, In a certain action for the forcible entry and detention (or the forcible detention, as the case may be) of the following described premises, to-wit: —— lately tried before me, wherein —— was plaintiff, and —— was defendant, judgment was rendered on the —— day of ——, A. D. ——, that the plaintiff have restitution of said premises; and also that he recover costs in the sum of ——: You therefore are hereby commanded to cause the defendant to be forthwith removed from said premises, and the said plaintiff to have restitution of the same; also that you levy of the goods and chattels of the said defendant, and make the costs aforesaid and all accruing costs; and of this writ make legal service and due return. Witness my hand this —— day of ——, A. D. ——. ——, Justice of the Peace.

Upon reversal by supreme court after writ is issued, defendant should be restored to possession. Lipp v. Hunt, 29, 258 (45 N. W., 685).

5504 (1032). The officer shall, within ten days after receiving the writ, execute the same by restoring the plaintiff to the possession of the premises, and shall levy and collect the costs, and make return as upon other executions. If the officer shall receive a notice from the justice that the proceedings have been stayed by an allowance of a writ of error, he shall immediately delay all further proceedings upon the execution; and if the premises have been restored to the plaintiff he shall immediately place the defendant in the possession thereof, and return the writ, with his proceedings and costs taxed thereon.

CHAPTER XI.—OF THE REPLEVIN OF PROPERTY.

5505 (1033). The plaintiff may recover possession of specific personal property of less value than two hundred dollars, before a justice of the peace, as herein provided.

Amended 1881, p. 208. Defective bill of particulars not sufficient ground for rendering judgment for defendant. Coombs v. Brenklander, 29, 589 (45 N. W., 929).

5506 (1034). An action for this purpose shall not be brought until there is filed in the office of the justice an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, showing: First—A description of the property claimed. Second—That the plaintiff is the owner thereof, or has a special ownership therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he is entitled to the immediate possession of the property. Third—That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant. Fourth—That it was not taken in execution on any order or judgment against said plaintiff, or for the payment of any tax, fine, or amercement assessed against him, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this chapter, or any other mesne or final process issued against said plaintiff.

5507 (1035). Upon such affidavit being made and filed with the justice, he shall issue a summons as in other cases, but in addition commanding the officer immediately to seize and take into his custody, wherever they may be found in the county, the goods and chattels mentioned in the affidavit, and deliver the same to the plaintiff.

The writ protects the officer if he levies upon the property described, no matter whose property it may prove to be. Phillips v. Spotts, 14, 140 (15 N. W., 332).

5509 (1037). The officer shall not deliver to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, the property so taken, until there has been executed by one or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff a written undertaking to the defendant, in at least double the value of the property taken, but in no case less than fifty dollars, to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him.

Sureties must be residents of the county. State v. Wait, 23, 166 (36 N. W., 380). Sureties not liable unless there was a judgment to appeal from. Brounty v. Daniels, 23, 164 (36 N. W., 463). Lawrence v. Curtis, 13, 516 (14 N. W., 483). If bond not excepted to within twenty-four hours, liability of officer for sureties ceases. Thomas v. Edgerton, 36, — (54 N. W., 427).

5510 (1038). For the purpose of fixing the amount of the undertaking, the value of the property taken shall be ascertained by the oath of two responsible persons, whom the officer shall swear truly to assess the value thereof.

No authority for reappraisement. Coombs v. Brenklander, 29, 589 (45 N. W., 929).

5511 (1039). Whenever the appraised value of the property so taken shall exceed two hundred dollars, the justice shall certify the proceedings upon the said writ to the district court of his county, and thereupon shall file the orignal papers, together with a certified transcript of his docket entries, in the clerk's office of the said court; the case there to be for trial at the first term of said court on the orignal papers without further pleadings, except by the leave of the court granted on sufficient showing.

5512 (1040). If the undertaking required by section one thousand and thirty-seven be not given within twenty-four hours from the taking of the property under said order, the officer shall return the property to the defendant. And if the officer deliver any property so taken to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, or keep the same from the defendant without taking such security within the time aforesaid, or if he take insufficent security, he shall be liable to the defendant in damages.

Justice has jurisdiction until property is found to be worth over $200, and then to certify it up. Hill v. Wilkinson, 25, 105 (41 N. W., 134). Cited, Lawrence v. Curtis, 13, 516 (14 N. W., 483).

5513 (1041). If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and judgment be rendered against him, or if he otherwise fail to prosecute his action to final judgment, the justice shall, on application of the defendant, or his attorney, impanel a jury to inquire into the right of property and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken. If the jury shall be satisfied that the said property was the property of the defendant at the commencement of the action, or if they shall find that the defendant was entitled only to the possession of the same, at such time, then in either case they shall assess such damages for the defendant as are right and proper, for which, with costs of suit, the court shall render judgment for the defendant. And in all cases where the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, unless the jury shall find for the defendant, they shall also find whether the defendant had the right of property, or the right of possession only, at the commencement of the suit; and if they find either in his favor, they shall assess such damages as they think right and proper for the defendant, for which, with costs of suit, the court shall render judgment for the defendant.

A judgment in favor of defendant must be in the alternative. Singer Mfg. Co. v. Dunham, 33, 689 (50 N. W., 1122).

5514 (1042). In all cases, when the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, where the jury shall find for the plaintiff, on trial or on inquiry of damages, they shall assess adequate damages to the plaintiff for the illegal detention of the property, for which, with costs of suit, the justice shall render judgment against the defendant.

Where the jury find for plaintiff and assess his damages it is not error for them to fail to find whether he had right of property or of possession. Rogers v. Sample, 28, 141 (44 N. W., 86). "I do find for the plaintiff and against the defendants for the goods and for all the costs of this action expended." Held, sufficent to sustain a judgment in justice court for the plaintiff. A finding by a justice that the possession of the property was in plaintiff at commencement of the action will not sustain a judgment in favor of the plaintiff. Degering v. Flick, 14, 451 and 448 (16 N. W., 824 and 825).

5515 (1043). When the property claimed has not been taken, or has been returned to the defendant, for want of the undertaking required by section one thousand and thirty-nine, the action may proceed as one for damages only, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to such damages as are right and proper; but if the property be returned for want of the undertaking required by said section, the plaintiff shall pay all costs made by taking the same.

5516 (1044). The officer in executing the writ may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed, or any part thereof, is concealed; but not until he has been refused an entrance into said building or enclosure, and the delivery of the property after having demanded the same.

5517 (1045). No suit shall be instituted on the undertaking given under section one thousand and thirty-seven before an execution, issued on a judgment in favor of the defendant in the action, shall have been returned that sufficient property whereon to levy and make the amount of such judgment cannot be found in the county.

5518 (1046). If any justice shall issue a writ to replevin property, as is provided by this chapter, without the affidavit being made and filed in his office as is provided in section one thousand and thirty-four, the same shall be set aside at his costs, and he shall be liable in damages to the party injured.

CHAPTER XII.—EXECUTION—RETURN—STAY OF EXECUTION—NOTICE OF SALE—DELIVERY—UNDERTAKING.

5519 (1047). Execution for the enforcement of a judgment before a justice of the peace (except where it has been taken to the district court on error or appeal, or docketed therein, or during the time it may be stayed, as provided by this title), may issue by the justice before whom the judgment was rendered, or by his successor in office on the application of the party entitled thereto, at any time within five years of entry of the judgment, or the date of the last execution issued thereon.

No priority in executions in officer's hands on same day. State v. Hunger, 17, 217 (22 N. W., 457).

5521 (1049). Any person against whom judgment may be rendered under the provisions of this title, except as hereinafter excepted, may have stay of execution for the several periods hereinafter mentioned, by entering into an undertaking with the adverse party, within ten days after the rendition of such judgment, with good and sufficient surety, resident of the county, as the justice shall approve, conditioned for the payment of the amount of such judgment, interest, and costs, and costs that may accrue, which undertaking shall be entered on the docket of the justice, and be signed by the surety.

Principal need not sign stay bond. State v. Cochran, 28, 800 (45 N. W., 52).

5522 (1050). The stay of execution hereby authorized shall be graduated as follows, namely: First—On any judgment for $10 and under, the stay shall be for sixty days. Second—On any judgment exceeding $10, and under $50, the stay shall be for ninety days. Third—On any judgment exceeding $50 and under $100, the stay shall be for six months. Fourth—On any judgment exceeding $100 and not exceeding $200, the stay shall be for nine months. Fifth—Where judgment rendered against a surety and he takes a stay thereon, and he obtains a judgment against the principal, stay of execution must be allowed on the judgment against the principal only so long that the stay will expire one month before that allowed to the surety on the judgment against him.

5524 (1052). If the execution issued before the undertaking for stay, or that required in case of appeal, be given, and such undertaking be given afterwards and within the time allowed, the justice shall recall the execution.

5526 (1054). When any surety for the stay of execution shall become apprehensive that, by delaying the execution until the expiration of the full time of such stay, he or she may be compelled to pay the judgment, it shall be lawful for such surety to make and file affidavit of that fact before the justice on whose docket the judgment is entered; whereupon such justice shall issue execution against the judgment debtor, which shall be proceeded in as in other cases; Provided, Such bail shall not thereby be discharged from liability, but may be proceded against after the expiration of the term of stay, in the same manner as if execution had not issued as aforesaid.

5527 (1055). If the judgment debtor shall, within ten days after levying such execution, enter into a further undertaking for the stay of execution, during so much of the first stay as remains then unexpired, and shall pay costs of the execution issued against him, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the justice to take such further undertaking, and recall the execution; and the person who last became surety shall first be proceeded against, until it shall appear by the return of the officer that he or she has no goods whereon to levy, before proceedings shall be instituted on the undertaking first given.

5528 (1056). When any judgment shall be obtained against any person who shall have entered himself bail on the docket of any justice of the peace, agreeably to the provisions of this title, the original judgment shall remain good and valid in law, for the use of such bail, who, at any time thereafter, may sue out execution on such judgment, against the goods and chattels of the defendant, for the use of such bail, which shall be so endorsed by the justice, and such bail shall also be entitled to a transcript of such judgment, for his own use, which shall have the same force and effect as transcripts in other cases.

5530 (1058). The execution must be directed to a constable or sheriff of the county, and subscribed by the justice by whom the judgment was rendered, or by his successor in office, and must bear date the day of its delivery to the officer to be executed. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment, by stating the names of the parties, and the name of the justice before whom, and of the county where, and the time when, it was rendered, the amount of the judgment, and, if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon. It must require the officer substantially as follows: First—If it be a case where the defendant cannot be arrested, it must direct the officer to collect the amount of the judgment out of the personal property of the debtor, and pay the same to the party entitled thereto. Second—If it be a case where any of the judgment debtors are certified on the docket as surety; it shall command that the money be made of the personal property of the principal debtor, and for want thereof, of the personal property of the surety. In such cases the personal property of the principal, subject to execution within the jurisdiction, shall be exhausted before any property of the bail shall be taken in execution. Third—If it be a case where the defendant may be arrested, in addition to the foregoing it must direct the officer, if sufficient property of the defendant subject to the execution cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, that he arrest the debtor and commit him to the jail of the county until he pay the judgment, or be discharged according to law, unless the execution be accompanied by an order of arrest, as provided in sections nine hundred and twenty-three and nine hundred and twenty-four. Fourth—It must in all cases direct the officer to make return of the execution and the certificate thereon, showing the manner in which he has executed the same, in thirty days from the time of his receipt thereof.

5531 (1059). Upon an execution on a judgment against joint debtors, upon one or more of whom the summons was not served, the execution must contain a direction to collect the amount out of the joint property of all the defendants, or the separate property of the persons upon whom the summons was served, to be specified by name. If such judgment be also such that the defendants are subject to arrest thereon, the justice must further specify the names of those defendants served with the summons, who may be arrested for want of property.

5533 (1061). It shall be lawful for the sheriff or jailer receiving any person imprisoned on execution issued in any civil proceeding, at any time when there is no money in his hands to pay for the sustenance of such prisoner, to discharge him from prison. The jailer may, however, detain such prisoner, the adverse party being liable for such sustenance.

5534 (1062). The debtor committed as herein provided may be held in prison ten days, and, if he be a person without a family for which he provides, one day in addition for every dollar over ten, due on the execution; or, if he has a family for which he provides, one day in addition for every two dollars over twenty, due on the execution.

5535 (1063). The affidavit of an imprisoned debtor that he has a family for which he provides, specifying by name one or more persons, members of such family, and the place of their residence, is sufficient evidence thereof to authorize his discharge by the jailer.

5536 (1064). The officer is liable to the party in whose favor an execution issued to him for the amount thereof, in the following cases: First—Where he suffers thirty days to elapse without making a true return thereof to the justice, and paying to him, or to the party entitled, the money collected thereon by him. Second—Where he willfully and carelessly omits to levy on property within thirty days, or if the defendant be liable to be imprisoned, then to arrest and commit him to the jail of the county within thirty days.

5537 (1065). When an execution shall be returned unsatisfied for the want of goods and chattels, the justice shall, unless otherwise directed by the party for whom the execution issued, commence an action on the undertaking for the stay of execution, and so soon as judgment is obtained thereon, shall issue execution, and if such execution be returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, for want of goods and chattels of the bail whereon to levy, then the plaintiff may demand and have execution on the original judgment for the amount remaining due.

5538 (1066). Where bail is given for the stay of execution, and the defendant against whom the judgment was rendered shall die before the same is satisfied, the creditor may proceed against the surety in the undertaking in like manner as if execution had been issued against the defendant, and returned not satisfied for want of goods and chattels whereon to levy.

SALE ON EXECUTION.

5539 (1067). All property taken in execution under the provisions of this title shall be advertised for sale at four of the most public places within the precinct where such property was seized, at least ten days previous to the time appointed for such sale, which shall be held within the hours of ten o'clock A. M. and four o'clock P. M., at the house, or on the premises, where such property was taken, or at one of the most public places within the precinct.

See Johnson v. Walker, 23, 744 (37 N. W., 639).

5540 (1068). It shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace who issued the execution, nor for the officer holding the execution, to purchase, either directly or indirectly, any property sold on such execution. And any justice or officer who shall offend against the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay, for every such offense, any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than five dollars, to be recovered by civil action, in the name of the state of Nebraska, before any court having jurisdiction thereof, for the use of the county where such offense was committed; and shall, moreover, be liable to the action of the party injured thereby.

5541 (1069). When any cattle, or other live stock, shall be taken in execution, it shall be the duty of the justice who issued the execution, or other justice charged with the duty of collecting the judgment whereon such execution issued, to allow the officer for keeping the same a reasonable compensation, to be taxed and collected as other costs in the suit.

5542 (1070). When a constable or sheriff shall levy on and sell any goods and chattels, he shall make out and annex to his return to the execution in virtue of which such sale was made, a true inventory of all such property, and of each article thereof, and the price at which the same was sold.

5543 (1071). Where a constable or sheriff shall have levied on any goods and chattels which remain unsold for want of bidders or other just cause, it shall be his duty to return, with the execution, a schedule of all such goods and chattels. And the justice shall, unless otherwise directed by the party for whom such execution issued, or his agent, immediately thereafter issue an order, thereby commanding any officer to whom the same may be directed or delivered, to expose such property for sale; which sale, and the proceedings thereon, shall be the same as if such property had been sold on the original execution.

5544 (1072). Any officer having levied on goods and chattels, of which he permits the party against whom the execution issued to retain the possession, is hereby authorized to take such security for his own indemnity as he may require that such property shall be delivered at the time and place appointed for the sale thereof.

The giving of this bond is not a waiver of exemptions. Desmond v. State, 15, 439 (19 N. W., 644).

5545 (1073). In all cases where any lands may have been let, reserving rent in kind, and when the crops or emblements growing or grown thereon shall be levied on or attached, by virtue of any execution, attachment or other process against the landlord or tenant, the interest of such landlord or tenant, against whom such process did not issue, shall not be affected thereby.

In order to hold a lien on crop for money rent, lease must be of record before rights of third parties intervene. Gandy v. Dewey, 28, 175 (44 N. W., 106).

5546 (1074). In cases where the constable or sheriff shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the justice that he has been deprived of an opportunity of levying an execution within the time prescribed by this chapter, or otherwise prevented from making the whole of the money therein required to be made, and shall make return to the justice who issued the same to that effect, such justice is hereby authorized and required to issue further process of execution for the amount of balance remaining unsatisfied, which shall be served and returned, in all respects, as other executions are under this chapter.

CHAPTER XIII.—OF CONSTABLES, SHERIFFS, AND THEIR DUTIES.

5547 (1075). All constables and sheriffs shall be ministerial officers in justices' courts, in their respective counties, in civil and criminal cases, and civil and criminal process may be executed by them throughout the county.

5548 (1076). It shall be the duty of every constable to serve and execute all warrants, writs, precepts, executions, and other process to him directed and delivered, and in all respects whatever to do and perform all things pertaining to the office of constable. And sheriffs shall have all the powers and be subject to all the liabilities of constables in the service and return of all processes issued by justices of the peace in their respective counties.

5549 (1077). In discharging their duties, constables may call to their aid the power of the county, or such assistance as may be necessary. It shall be the duty of every constable or sheriff to make due return of all process to him directed and delivered, at the proper office and on the proper return day thereof; or if the judgment be docketed in the district court, appealed or stayed, upon which he has an execution, on notice thereof to return the execution, stating thereon such fact.

5550 (1078). It shall be the duty of every constable or sheriff, on the receipt of any writ or other process (subpœnas excepted), to note thereon the time of receiving the same; he shall also state in his return on the same, the time and manner of executing it.

5551 (1079). No officer shall make a return on any process of "not found," as to any defendant, unless he shall have been once, at least, to the usual place of residence of the defendant, if such defendant have any in the county.

5552 (1080). It shall be the duty of every constable and sheriff to apprehend on view or warrant, and bring to justice all felons and disturbers and violaters of the criminal laws of this state, to suppress all riots, affrays, and unlawful assemblies, which may come to his knowledge, and generally to keep the peace in his proper county.

5553 (1081). In serving all process, either civil or criminal, and in doing his duties generally, when not otherwise restricted by law, the authority of a constable shall extend throughout the whole county in which he may be appointed; and in executing and serving process issued by a justice of the peace, he shall have and exercise the same authority and powers over goods and chattels and the persons of parties as is granted by law to a sheriff, under like process issued from courts of record.

Constables cannot demand fees in advance for summoning jurors. Beach v. State, ex rel. Emmons, 27, 400 (43 N. W., 177).

5554 (1082). When it shall become the duty of the officer to take the body of any person to the jail of the county, he shall deliver to the sheriff or jailer a certified copy of the execution, commitment, or other process, whereby he holds such person in custody, and return the original to the justice who issued the same; which copy shall be sufficient authority to the sheriff or jailer to keep the prisoner in jail until discharged by due course of law.

5555 (1083). Constables and sheriffs shall pay over to the party entitled thereto all money received by them in their official capacity, if demand be made by such party, his agent or attorney, at any time before he returns the writ upon which he has received it; if not paid over by that time, he shall pay the same to the justice when he returns the writ.

5556 (1084). Constables and sheriffs shall be liable to twenty per cent penalty upon the amount of damages for which judgment may be entered against them, for failing to make return, making false return, or failing to pay over money by them collected or received in their official capacity, and such judgment must include, in addition to the damages and costs, the penalty herein provided.

CHAPTER XIV.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

5557 (1085). The provisions of this code, which are in their nature applicable, and in respect to which no special provision is made by statute, shall apply to proceedings before justices of the peace.

Justice may probably issue summons to other counties to bring in obligors on a note. Bair v. Peoples Bank, 27, 581 (43 N. W., 347). Cited, Crossley v. Steele, 18, 221 (13 N. W., 175).

5558 (1086). Every justice must keep a book, denominated a docket, in which must be entered by him: First—The title of every action in which the writ is served, or where the parties voluntarily appear. Second—The date of the writ, the time of its return, and if an order to arrest the defendant or attach property was made, such fact must be stated, together with the affidavit upon which such order was made. Third—The filing of the bill of particulars of either party, and the nature thereof, and when not of too great length, the same shall be entered at length on the docket. Fourth—Which of the parties, if either of them, appear at the trial. Fifth—Every adjournment, stating on whose application, whether on oath or consent, and to what time. Sixth—When trial by jury is demanded, the demand must be stated, and by whom made, the names of the jurors selected, and the time appointed for the trial. Seventh—The names of the jurors who appear and of those sworn, the names of all witnesses sworn and at whose request. Eighth—

The exceptions to the ruling of the justice, on questions of law, taken by either party. Ninth—The verdict of the jury, and when received; if the jury disagree and are discharged, that fact must be stated. Tenth—The judgment of the justice, specifying the items of costs included, and the time when rendered. Eleventh—The issuing of execution and orders to sell, when issued and to whom, the renewals thereof, if any, and when made, the return and when made, and a statement of any money paid to the justice, and by whom. Twelfth—The giving of a transcript to be filed in the clerk's office, and when given. Thirteenth—If appeal be taken, the undertaking and the time of entering into the same, and by which party taken. Fourteenth—The undertaking for stay of execution, and the time of giving the same. Fifteenth—The satisfaction of the judgment, and the time of satisfying the same.

Clerical mistakes and deficiencies in docket held not reversible error. Tuttle v. Wilson, 29, 424 (45 N. W., 688). The docket or transcript is evidence of all facts required to be shown by it but not of other facts. Cleghorn v. Waterman, 16, 226 (20 N. W., 252, 636 and 877). Cited, C., B. & Q. R. R. Co. v. Goracke, 32, 92 (48 N. W., 879).

5559 (1087). The several particulars in the last section specified must be entered under the title of the action to which they relate, and at the time when they occurred, except that bills of exceptions in regard to the rulings on questions of law or evidence need not be entered until after the judgment, unless required by the justice or one of the parties; such entries in a justice's docket, or a transcript thereof, certified by the justice or his successor in office, shall be evidence to prove the facts stated therein.

5564 (1092). In case of the sickness or other disability, or necessary absence of a justice, at the time appointed for trial, another justice of the same county may, at his request, attend in his behalf, and shall thereupon become vested with the powers, for the time being, of the justice before whom the summons was returnable. In that case the proper entry of the proceeding before the attending justice, subscribed by him, must be made in the docket of the justice before whom the writ was returnable. If the case be adjourned, the justice before whom the summons was returnable must resume jurisdiction.

5565 (1093). The summons, execution, and every other paper made or issued by a justice must be filled up without a blank to be filled by another; otherwise it is void.

5566 (1094). A justice, at the request of a party, and on being satisfied that it is expedient, may specially depute any discreet person of suitable age, and not interested in the action, to serve a summons or execution with or without an order to arrest the defendants or to attach property. Such deputation must be in writing on the process.

A justice has no general power to appoint a constable. McMillan v. Rowe, 15, 522 (19 N. W., 504). A deputation in these words: "The State of Nebraska to Job Hathaway, of said county, specially deputized to serve these papers, Greeting," held, sufficient. Haskins v. Citizens Bank, 12, 41 (10 N. W., 466). If the writ be addressed to the person deputized, it is sufficent; no reason need be shown. Morse v. Carpenter, 31, 221 (47 N. W., 853).

5567 (1095). The person so deputed has the authority of a constable, in relation to the service, execution and return of such process, and is subject to the same obligation, but there can be no fee for his services taxed in the bill of costs.

5568 (1096). A justice may punish as for contempt, persons guilty of the following acts, and no others: First—Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior toward the justice, tending to interrupt the due course of the trial or other judicial proceedings before him. Second—A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct or violent disturbance, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding. Third—Willful resistance in the presence of the justice, to the execution of a lawful order or process made or issued by him.

5569 (1097). A warrant of arrest may be issued by such justice, on which the person so guilty may be arrested and brought before the justice, when an opportunity to be heard in his defense or excuse must be given. The justice may thereupon discharge him or may convict him for the offense and adjudge a punishment by fine or imprisonment, or both; such fine not to exceed twenty dollars, and such imprisonment ten days.

5570 (1098). The conviction, specifying particularly the offense and the judgment thereon, must be entered in his docket; a warrant of commitment to the jail of the county, until the fine be paid, or for the term of imprisonment, may then be issued; such warrant must contain a transcript of the entry in the docket, and the same must be executed by any constable or sheriff to whom it may be given, and by the jailer of the county.

5571 (1099). When a person intending to bring an action before a justice of the peace is a non-resident of the county in which he intends to commence such action, the justice may, previous to his issuing process, require such person to give security for the costs of suit, which may be done by depositing a sum of money, deemed by the justice to be sufficient to discharge the costs that may accrue in the action, or by giving an undertaking, with security approved by the justice, payable to the adverse party, for the payment of all costs that may accrue in the action. If any plaintiff or plaintiffs, after commencing an action before a justice in the county in which he or they reside, afterwards remove out of the county, the justice may require such plaintiff or plaintiffs to deposit a sum of money, equal to the costs that have accrued, and that probably will accrue, or require, in place thereof, that such party give sufficient security for all costs that have accrued, or which may accrue in the action, and in default to do either, shall enter a nonsuit against the plaintiff or plaintiffs.

5572 (1100). In all actions instituted before a justice of the peace, founded upon any bond, bill, promissory note, or other instrument of writing, for the payment of a sum of money certain, of which the whole amount of money promised therein is due, it shall be the duty of the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, to file said bond, bill, promissory note, or other written evidence of indebtedness, upon which said suit is brought, with such justice of the peace; and if, upon the trial, judgment shall be entered thereon in favor of the plaintiff, such bond, bill, promissory note, or other instrument in writing shall be retained by the justice so rendering judgment, who shall endorse thereon the sum for which he shall have entered judgment (provided the same shall in nowise exceed one hundred dollars), and shall subscribe his name thereto. And upon payment, or tender of the amount of such payment, together with the costs accruing thereon, or securing the payment of the same by putting in bail for the stay of execution, it shall not be lawful for the plaintiff to institute any other suit or suits upon such bond, bill, promissory note, or other instrument of writing, for the recovery of any other sum or sums, the payment of which is secured by the same bond, bill, promissory note, or other written evidence of indebtedness; Provided, That when an appeal shall be taken from the judgment of such justice, it shall be his duty to transmit any bond, bill, promissory note, or other written evidence produced before him on trial, to the clerk of the district court to which such cause shall have been appealed, on or before the second day of the term of the court next after taking such appeal; Provided, also, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to lessen or in anywise affect the right which any creditors now have to demand from any justice of the peace any joint and several obligation, for the purpose of prosecuting any party to said obligation, other than the party against whom judgment may have been rendered.

A justice has jurisdiction in actions on note or other instrument in writing up to $200. Strang v. Krickbaum, 18, 365 (25 N. W., 364). Cited, Fletcher v. Dougherty, 13, 227 (13 N. W., 207).

Sec. 5573. "An act concerning the mode of proving written instruments before justices of the peace." 1873. In force February 18. G. S., p. 717.

5573. That in all civil actions before justices of the peace, in which the defendant has been served with summons in this state, it shall not be necessary to prove the execution of any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other written instrument, or any endorsement thereon, upon which the action is brought, or set-off or counter-claim is based, unless the party sought to be charged as the maker, acceptor, or endorser, of such bond, promissory note, or bill of exchange, or other written instrument, shall make and file with the justice of the peace, before whom the suit is pending, an affidavit that such instrument was not made, given, subscribed, accepted, or endorsed by him.

Proof of execution need not be made unless denied as here provided. Phoenix Ins Co. v. Lemke, 18, 186 (24 N. W., 727). Cited, Andrews v. Mullen, 14, 250 (15 N. W., 216). This applies to cases brought in the county court where no affidavit is filed; on appeal to district court forgery cannot be set up as a defense. First National Bank v. Carson, 30, 104 (46 N. W., 276).

5574 (1101). It shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace to purchase any judgment upon any docket in his possession; and for so doing, and for every such offense such justice shall forfeit and pay a sum not more than fifty dollars, nor less than ten dollars, to be recovered by an action before any court having jurisdiction thereof, and when collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where such offense was committed.

This prohibition applies to an interest in the judgment rendered for costs. Phenix v. Bohman, 31, 131 (47 N. W., 637).

5575 (1102). The provisions of this title do not apply to proceedings in actions or suits pending when it takes effect. They shall be conducted to final judgement and determination in all respects as if it had not been adopted.

5576 (1103). Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction in all cases where the sum in question does not exceed two hundred dollars, except in cases limited in this title.

For limit as to subject-matter see 5374. Raised from one hundred dollars, 1881, p. 209. The words "sum in question" cannot mean the amount claimed by plaintiff. Moore v. Darrow, 11, 464 (9 N. W., 637). Bullock v. Jordan, 15, 668 (19 N. W., 508).

CRIMINAL CODE.*

PART I.—CRIMES AND OFFENSES.

CHAPTER I.—Accessories in Felony.

5577 (1). If any person shall aid, abet, or procure any other person to commit any felony, every person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for any time between the respective periods for which the principal offenders could be imprisoned for the principal offense; or, if such principal offender would, on conviction, be punishable with death, or be imprisoned for life, then such aider, abettor, or procurer shall be punished with death, or be imprisoned for life, the same as the principal offender would be.

5578 (2). An accessory after the fact is a person who, after full knowledge that a felony has been committed, conceals it from the magistrate, or harbors and protects the person charged with or found guilty of the crime. Any person found guilty of being an accessory after the fact shall be imprisoned in the jail of the county for any term not exceeding two years, and fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, to be regulated by the circumstances of the case and the enormity of the crime.

Accessories after the fact will not warrant conviction under an indictment for murder. Walrath v. The State, 8, 88.

CHAPTER II.—Homicide and Fœticide.

5579 (3). If any person shall purposely and of deliberate and premeditated malice or in the perpetration or attempt to perpetrate any rape, arson, robbery, or burglary, or by administering poison, or causing the same to be done, kill another; or, if any person by willful and corrupt perjury or subornation of the same, shall purposely procure the conviction and execution of any innocent person, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of murder in the first degree, and upon conviction thereof shall suffer death or shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary during life, in the discretion of the jury.

The original section providing the penalty of death absolutely was repealed 1893, ch. 44, p. 385. In force August 1, with the following proviso:

Provided, however, That such repeal shall not be construed to apply to any offenses committed prior to the taking effect of this act, nor shall the same affect any convictions or prosecutions held under said original section.

Murder may be prosecuted by information instead of indictment. Miller v. State, 29, 440 (45 N. W., 451). Burden of proof in this crime does not shift; every essential element of charge must be established. Beers v. State, 24, 624 (39 N. W., 790). Killing must have been done not only purposely but also with deliberation and premeditation. Simmerman v. State, 14, 568 (17 N.

* "An act to establish a criminal code." 1873. In force September 1. G. S., p. 719. This act is substantially an adoption of the criminal code of Ohio, and the construction given to it by the courts of that state is binding here. See Bohanan v. State, 18, 78 (24 N. W., 390). Later acts which do not expressly amend this code, but whose subject-matter is analogous to some of its provisions, are inserted in appropriate places and may be distinguished from the original by the absence of duplicate section numbering.

1. Criminal code (being part fourth of the code of Iowa). 1855, p. 225.
2. "An act to establish a criminal code for the territory of Nebraska." 1858, p. 41.
3. The criminal code adopted as a part of the Revised Statutes of 1866 (p. 592). This appears to have been mainly a re-enactment, with additions, of the criminal code of 1858 which it repeals (p. 683).

W., 115). Schaffer v. State, 22, 559 (35 N. W., 384). Murder in first degree restricted to cases where deliberation was shown to have taken place before commission of crime. Milton v. State, 6, 136. Beers v. State, 24, 623 (39 N. W., 790). Malice; definition; presumption; self-defense; rules; degree of crime question for jury. Vollmer v. State, 24, 838 (40 N. W., 420). Malice defined. Carr v. State, 23, 756 (37 N. W., 630). See Milton v. State, 6, 145; Marion v. State, 16, 352 (20 N. W., 289). One count charging defendant and one S. with having deliberately killed deceased, two other counts charged that the killing was done in an attempt to rob, held that they charged the same offense and state need not elect. Furst v. State, 31, 403 (47 N. W., 1116).

5580 (4). If any person shall purposely and maliciously, but without deliberation and premeditation, kill another, every such person shall be deemed guilty of murder in the second degree; and, on conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten years, or during life, in the discretion of the court.

See Bohanan v. State, 15, 214 (18 N. W., 129); Bohanan v. State, 18, 64 (24 N. W., 390); Anderson v. State, 26, 387 (41 N. W., 951).

5582 (6). Any physician or other person who shall administer, or advise to be administered, to any pregnant woman with a vitalized embryo or fœtus, at any stage of utero-gestation, any medicine, drug, or substance whatever, or who shall use or employ, or devise to be used or employed, any instrument or other means with intent thereby to destroy such vitalized embryo or fœtus, unless the same shall have been necessary to preserve the life of the mother, or shall have been advised by two physicians to be necessary for such purpose, shall, in case of the death of such vitalized embryo, or fœtus, or mother, in consequence thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years.

CHAPTER III.—FIGHTING BY AGREEMENT.

5583 (7). If any person shall actually engage as a principal in any premeditated fight or contention, commonly called a prize fight, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than ten years, and pay the costs of prosecution.

Fine reduced from fifty and one hundred dollars. 1875, p. 2

5585 (9). If any person shall engage in or fight a duel with another, or shall be second to such person who shall fight a duel, or if any person shall, by word, message, letter, or in any other way, challenge another to fight a duel, or shall accept a challenge to fight a duel, although no duel be fought, or shall, knowingly, be the bearer of such challenge, or shall advise, prompt, encourage, or persuade any person to fight a duel, or challenge another to fight a duel, whether such duel be fought or not, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten years, nor less than one year, and shall forever after be incapable of holding any office of honor, profit, or trust within this state; Provided, however, If death ensue from such duel, the person or persons concerned shall be deemed guilty of murder, and shall be punished for murder in the first or second degree (as the case may be), as is provided in this act, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

5586 (10). If any two persons shall agree and willfully fight or box at fisticuffs, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of an affray, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined, each, in a sum not exceeding fifty ($50) dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ten days* at the discretion of the court.

Amended by striking out the words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 45, p. 387.

CHAPTER IV.—VIOLENCE TO PERSONS NOT RESULTING IN DEATH.

5587 (11). If any person shall have carnal knowledge of his daughter or sister forcibly and against her will, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of rape and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary during life.

5588 (12). If any person shall have carnal knowledge of any other woman, or female child, than his daughter or sister, as aforesaid, forcibly and against her will; or if any male person, of the age of eighteen years or upwards, shall carnally know or abuse any female child under the age of fifteen years, with her consent, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a rape, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twenty nor less than three years.

Age of male raised from seventeen and of female from ten, 1887, p. 660. Delay by prosecutrix in making complaint, a strong indication that charge is false. Johnson v. State, 27, 692 (43 N. W., 425). Emission is presumed from the fact of actual penetration. Comstock v. State, 14, 208 (15 N. W., 355). Prosecutrix competent witness; prosecutrix not required to elect on which count she will proceed. Indictment definition of rape. Garrison v. State, 6, 282. Not necessary that there should be corroborating evidence to particular fact of the rape, facts and circumstances which tend to support testimony of prosecutrix. Fager v. State, 22, 333 (35 N. W., 195). Carnal knowledge with consent of female, though tardily given and after exercise of force, not rape. Reynolds v. State, 27, 93 (42 N. W., 903). Prosecutrix must resist, when and to what extent. Olive v. State, 11, 27 (9 N. W., 38). It is not necessary to prove that the female was a "child" but only that she was not fifteen. State v. Wright, 25, 40 (40 N. W., 596). See Skinner v. State, 28, 821 (45 N. W., 53); Davis v. State, 31, 247 (47 N. W., 854).

5589 (13). If any person shall forcibly, and by violence, or by putting in fear, take from the person of another any money or personal property, of any value whatever, with the intent to rob or steal, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of robbery, and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than fifteen nor less than three years.

Robbery includes stealing from the person, and conviction can therefore be had under sec. 5698 on an indictment found under this section. Brown v. State, 33, 356 (50 N. W., 154).

5590 (14). If any person shall assault another with intent to commit a murder, rape or robbery upon the person so assaulted, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than fifteen nor less than two years.

If the girl assaulted is under fifteen it is immaterial whether she consented or not. Davis v. State, 31, 247 (47 N. W., 854).

5591 (15). If any person shall voluntarily, unlawfully, and on purpose cut or bite the nose, lip or lips, ear or ears, or cut out or disable the tongue, put out an eye, slit the nose, ear, or lip, cut or disable any limb or member of any person, with intent to murder, kill, maim, or disfigure such person, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twenty years nor less than one year.

5592 (16). If any person shall maliciously shoot, stab, cut, or shoot at any other person, with intent to kill, wound, or maim such person, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twenty years nor less than one year.

Prisoner charged with shooting with intent to wound or intent to kill prosecutor not required to elect on which count he will proceed. Candy v. State, 8, 486. "Maliciously" not necessary to a good indictment. Whitman v. State, 17, 224 (22 N. W., 459).

5593 (17). If any person shall unlawfully assault or threaten another in a menacing manner, or shall unlawfully strike or wound another, the person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding three months,* in the discretion of the court, and shall, moreover, be liable to the party injured.

Punishment reduced from $150 and three months, 1875, p. 2. Amended by striking out "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 45, p. 387. One who is present and "aids" and "abets" is a principal. Cooney v. Burke, 11, 258 (9 N. W., 57). It is sufficient if the words used are identical in meaning with those in the statute. Hodgkins v. State, 36, — (54 N. W., 86).

5594. That any person who shall intentionally provoke or attempt to provoke an assault upon himself or another by the uttering of grossly vile and insulting epithets applied to the assaulting party, or one so tempted to commit an assault, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be find in any sum not exceeding ten dollars ($10), or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding ten days.

Secs. 5595 and 5596. "An act to provide for the punishment of persons guilty of an assault upon another with intent to inflict great bodily injury, and for the punishment of persons guilty of an assault upon another person with intent to kill the person assaulted." 1889, p. 385. In force June 30.

5595. That if any person assault another with intent to inflict a great bodily injury, he shall be punished, on conviction thereof, by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than (5) years.

This is a new and substantive offense, and is not an amendment of sec. 5593. Smith v. State 34, 689 (52 N. W., 572). This section adds to the criminal code a new offense and provides a punishment therefor, and is constitutional. Stricklett v. State, 31, 674 (48 N. W., 820).

5596. If any person shall assault another with the intent to kill the person so assaulted, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one (1) nor more than ten (10) years.

This section held void, as in conflict with section 14 (5590) of criminal code. Stricklett v. State, 31, 674 (48 N. W., 820).

5597 (18). Any person or persons who shall kidnap or forcibly or fraudulently carry off or decoy out of this state any person or persons, or shall arrest or imprison any person or persons, with the intention of having such person or persons carried out of the state, unless it be in pursuance of the laws thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than seven years, and shall, moreover, be liable for the costs of prosecution.

5598 (19). False imprisonment is the unlawful violation of the personal liberty of another, and consists in confinement or detention without sufficient legal authority. Any person convicted of false imprisonment shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one year in the county jail.

5599 (20). Every person who shall maliciously or forcibly or fraudulently lead, take or carry away, or decoy, or entice away, any child under the age of ten years, with intent unlawfully to detain or conceal such child from its parent or parents, or guardian, or other person having the lawful charge of such child, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years nor less than one year.

5600 (21). Every person who shall harbor or conceal with intent to detain from its parent or parents, or guardian, any child under the age of ten years, so led, taken, carried, decoyed, or enticed away, as in the preceding section specified, shall, upon conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years nor less than one year.

CHAPTER V.—OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE AND JUSTICE.

5601 (22). Any person or persons residing in this state, who shall levy war against this state, or the United States of America, or shall knowingly adhere to the enemies of this state, or the United States, giving them aid and comfort, shall be deemed guilty of treason against the state of Nebraska, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary during life.

5602 (23). Any person or persons residing within this state, who shall surrender or betray, or be in any way concerned in the surrendering or betraying any military post, fortification, arsenal, or military stores of this state, or the United States, into the possession or power of any enemies of either, or shall supply arms or ammunition or military stores to such enemies, or who shall unlawfully and without authority usurp possession and control of any such military post, fortification, arsenal, or military stores, or, having knowledge of any treason against this state or the United States, shall willfully omit or refuse to give information thereof to the governor, or some judge of this state, or to the president of the United States, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten years nor more than twenty years.

5603 (24). If any person shall, within this state, begin or set on foot, or provide or prepare the means for any unauthorized military expedition or enterprise, to be carried on from thence against the territory or people of any of the United States, every person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years.

5605 (26). If three or more persons shall assemble together with intent to do any unlawful act, with force and violence, against the person or property of another, or to do any unlawful act against the peace; or, being lawfully assembled, shall agree with each other to do any unlawful act as aforesaid, and shall make any movement or preparation therefor, the persons so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding three months.

Fine reduced from $100, 1875, p. 3. Owner of building may be guilty for unlawfully entering same. Meese v. State, 15, 560 (20 N. W., 33). See Dutcher v. State, 16, 30 (19 N. W., 612).

5606 (27). Whenever three or more persons shall be assembled as aforesaid, and proceed to commit any of the offenses aforesaid, it shall be the duty of all judges, justices of the peace, and sheriffs, and all ministerial officers, immediately, upon actual view, or as soon as may be, on information, to make proclamation in the hearing of such offenders, commanding them in the name of the state of Nebraska to disperse and depart to their several homes or lawful employments; and if, upon such proclamation, such persons shall not disperse and depart as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of such judges, justices of the peace, and sheriffs, and all other ministerial officers, respectively, to call upon all persons near, and, if necessary, throughout the county, to aid and assist in dispersing and taking into custody all persons assembled as aforesaid; and military officers and others, called on as aforesaid, and refusing to render immediate assistance, shall each be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

5608 (29). If any of the persons so unlawfully assembled shall be killed, maimed, or otherwise injured, in consequence of resisting the judges or others in dispersing and apprehending them, or in attempting to disperse and apprehend them, said judges, justices of the peace, sheriffs, and other ministerial officers, and others acting by their authority, or the authority of either of them, shall be holden guiltless; Provided, Such killing, maiming, or injury shall take place in consequence of the use of necessary and proper means to disperse or apprehend any such persons so unlawfully assembled.

Amended by striking out the words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 45, p. 388. Punishment changed from $200 and thirty days, 1875, p. 4. A justice of the peace has no jurisdiction where the punishment may be both fine and imprisonment. State v. Yates, 36, — (54 N. W., 429).

5610 (31). If any person shall rescue, by force, any offender, charged with, or convicted of, any offense, by the laws of this state made punishable with imprisonment, from any jail or other place of confinement, or from the custody of any officer, or other person charged with the safe keeping of such offender, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days.

5611 (32). If any person or persons shall at any time interrupt or molest any religious society or any member thereof; or any persons when meeting or met together for the purpose of worship, or performing any duties enjoined on, or appertaining to them, as members of such society, the person or persons so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty dollars; Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to deprive any religious society of the right of laying hands upon the person or persons who may be disturbing the congregation, and turning him or them out of the church or place of worship.

An information "willfully, maliciously, unlawfully interrupt, molest, and disturb a religious society, to-wit, the Welsh Presbyterian church," is good. Jones v. State, 28, 495 (44 N. W., 658).

5612 (33). If any person or persons shall be found making or exciting any contention or disturbance at any tavern, court, election or other meetings of the citizens for the purpose of transaction or doing any business appertaining to, or enjoined on them, the person or persons so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five ($$5\frac{00}{100}$) dollars, nor less than fifty (50c.) cents each.

5613 (34). If any person or persons shall hereafter willfully disturb, molest, or interrupt any literary society, school, or society formed for the intellectual improvement of its members, or any other school or society organized under any law of this state, or any school, society, or meeting formed or convened for improvement in music, letters, or for social amusement, such person or persons so offending shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

Person charged with disturbing a school meeting may prove that he was a member of school board and was present in the discharge of his duties. Bays v. State, 6, 172.

5614 (35). If any county surveyor, or deputy surveyor, shall be molested or prevented from doing or performing any of his official duties, by means of the threats or improper interference of any person or persons, such surveyor shall call on the sheriff of the county, who shall accompany him, and remove all force; and the person or persons thus threatening, or improperly interfering with any surveyor, while performing his official duties, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars; and, moreover, be liable for all damages by any person sustained by the hindrance of the surveyor, and also for all expenses and costs that may accrue in consequence of the attendance of the sheriff.

5615 (36). [Neglect by conservators of the peace.]—If any judge, justice of the peace, sheriff, or other officer bound to preserve the public peace shall have knowledge of an intention on the part of any two persons to fight with any deadly weapon or weapons, and such officer shall not use and exert his official authority to arrest the parties and prevent the duel, every such officer shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5616 (37). If any person or persons shall, corruptly or by threats or force, endeavor to influence, intimidate or impede any juror, witness, or officer in any court of this state in the discharge of his duty, or shall corruptly, or by threats or force obstruct or impede, or endeavor to obstruct or impede the due administration of justice therein, every person or persons so offending shall be punished by fine, not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, or by imprisonment, not exceeding twenty days.

Amended by striking "or both" from end of section, 1893, ch. 45, p. 388. Endeavor of prosecuting attorney to dissuade witnesses from testifying, criticised. Gandy v. State, 24, 723 (40 N. W., 302).

CHAPTER VI.—ATTEMPTS AND INDUCEMENTS TO POISONING AND ABORTION.

5617 (38). If any person or persons shall administer poison to another with the intent to destroy or take the life of the person or persons to whom the same shall be administered, or do him, her, or them an injury, or if any person or persons shall mix poison in water, food, drink, or medicine with the aforesaid intent, the person or persons so offending, their aiders and abettors, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than fifteen nor less than two years.

5618 (39). Any physician or other person who shall willfully administer to any pregnant woman any medicine, drug, substance, or thing whatever, or shall use any instrument or other means whatever, with intent thereby to procure the miscarriage of any such woman, unless the same shall have been necessary to preserve the life of such woman, or shall have been advised by two physicians to be necessary for that purpose, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

5619 (40). If any physician, or other person, while in a state of intoxication, shall prescribe any poison, drug, or medicine, to another person, which shall endanger the life of such other person, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

5620 (41). If any physician, or other person, shall prescribe any drug or medicine to another person, the true nature and composition of which he does not, if inquired of, truly make known, but avow the same a secret medicine or composition, thereby endangering the life of such other person, he shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5621 (42). Every apothecary, druggist, or other person who shall sell or give away, except upon the prescription of a physician, any article or articles of medicine belonging to the class usually known as poisons, shall be required: First—To register in a book kept for that purpose the name, age, sex, and color of the person obtaining such poison. Second—The quantity sold. Third—The purpose for which it was required. Fourth—The day and date on which it was obtained. Fifth—The name and place of abode of the person for whom the article is intended. Sixth—To carefully mark the word "poison" upon the label or wrapper of each package. Seventh—To neither sell or give away any article of poison to minors of either sex.

Maximum reduced from $200, 1875, p. 4.

5624 (45). If the publishers of any newspaper in the state shall print or publish any advertisement of any secret drug or nostrum, purporting to be exclusively for the use of females, or if any druggist or other person shall sell or keep for sale, or shall give away any such secret drug or nostrum, purporting to be exclusively for the use of females; or if any person shall, by printing or writing, or in any other way, publish an account or description of any drug, medicine, instrument, or apparatus for the purpose of preventing conception, procuring abortion, or miscarriage, or shall, by writing or printing in any circular, newspaper, pamphlet, or book, or in any other way publish or circulate any obscene notice, or shall within the state of Nebraska keep for sale or gratuitous distribution any newspaper, circular, pamphlet, or book containing such notice of such drugs, instruments, or apparatus, or shall keep for sale or gratuitous distribution any secret nostrum, drug, or medicine for the purpose of preventing conception, procuring abortion, or miscarriage, such person or persons so violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court; Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to affect teaching in regular chartered medical colleges or the publication of standard medical books.

CHAPTER VII.—Libel and Threatening Letters.

5625 (46). If any person shall knowingly send or deliver any letter or writing, with or without a name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, containing willful and malicious threats of injury of any kind whatever, or with intent or for the purpose of extorting money, or other valuable things, from any person, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5626 (47). If any person shall write, print, or publish any false and malicious libel of or concerning another, or shall cause or procure any such libel to be written or published, every person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six (6) months, or both, at the discretion of the court, and moreover, be liable to the party injured; Provided, That if said libel is published in a newspaper having a general circulation, the person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one (1) nor more than three (3) years.

Proviso added 1887, p. 659. Unless words are actionable per se, party must state in his petition wherein he has sustained damages. Geisler v. Brown, 6, 259. To charge a felony the paper must be of general circulation; if limited to one county it is merely a misdemeanor. Koen v. State, 35, 676 (53 N. W., 595).

CHAPTER VIII.—Breaking and Entering Buildings.

5627 (48). If any person shall, in the night season, willfully, maliciously, and forcibly break and enter into any dwelling house, kitchen, smoke house, shop, office, store house, mill, pottery, factory, water craft, school house, church or meeting house, barn or stable, warehouse, malt house, still house, railroad car factory, station house, or railroad car, with intent to kill, rob, commit a rape, or with intent to steal property of any value, or commit any felony, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of burglary, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten nor less than one year.

The name of owner must be set out in indictment; for this purpose the visible occupant is the owner. Winslow v. State, 26, 310 (41 N. W., 1116). Complaint before magistrate charging burglary with intent to steal, and information in district court charges burglary with intent to commit rape, describe same offense. Alderman v. State, 24, 101 (38 N. W., 36). A forcible breaking necessary. McGrath v. State, 25, 782 (41 N. W., 780). Sentence of ten years reduced for youth who has been led into the crime. Charles v. State, 27, 884 (44 N. W., 39). It must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the breaking was in the night time. Ashford v. State, 36, — (53 N. W., 1036).

5628 (49). If any person shall willfully and maliciously, either in the day time or night season, enter any dwelling house, kitchen, shop, store, warehouse, malt house, still house, mill, factory, pottery, water craft, school house, church or meeting house, smoke house, barn or stable, and shall attempt to kill, disfigure, or maim any person, rob, stab, commit a rape or arson, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten years nor less than one year.

5629 (50). If any person shall be found having upon him or her any picklock, crow, key, bit, or other instrument or tool, with intent feloniously to break and enter into any dwelling house, store, warehouse, shop, or other building, containing valuable property, he or she shall be deemed a vagrant, and punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years.

5630 (51). If any person shall in the night season unlawfully break open and enter any mansion house, shop, store, ship, boat, or other water craft, in which any person shall reside or dwell, and shall commit, or attempt to commit, any personal violence or abuse, or shall be so armed with any dangerous weapon as to indicate a violent intention, the person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the cell or dungeon of the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the court.

5631 (52). If any person shall, in the day time, unlawfully break open and enter any mansion house, shop, store, ship, boat, or other water craft, in which any person shall or may dwell or reside, and shall commit or attempt to commit any personal abuse, force, or violence, he or she so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding twenty days, at the discretion of the court.

5632 (53). If any person shall willfully and maliciously, in the day time, break and enter any dwelling house, kitchen, shop, store, warehouse, malt house, still house, mill, factory, pottery, water craft, school house, church or meeting house, smoke house, barn, stable, railroad depot, car factory, station house, or railroad car, with intent to steal, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding sixty days, at the discretion of the court.

CHAPTER IX.—BURNING BUILDINGS AND OTHER PROPERTY.

5633 (54). If any person shall willfully and maliciously burn, or cause to be burned, any dwelling house, kitchen, smoke house, shop, barn, stable, store house, warehouse, malt house, still house, mill, or pottery, the property of any other person; or any buildings, the property of any other person, of the value of fifty dollars, or containing property of the value of fifty dollars; or any church, meeting house, court house, workhouse, school house, jail, or other public building; or any ship, boat, or other water craft, of the value of fifty dollars; or any bridge of the value of fifty dollars, erected across any of the waters within this state; every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of arson, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twenty years nor less than one year.

5634 (55). If any person shall willfully and maliciously set fire to any of the buildings or other property described in the foregoing section, with intent to burn or destroy the same, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, and kept at hard labor, not more than seven years nor less than one year.

5635 (56). Every person who shall willfully and maliciously burn or cause to be burned any dwelling house, kitchen, smoke house, shop, office, barn, stable, store house, warehouse, still house, mill, pottery, or any other building of the value of fifty dollars; or, any ship, boat, or other water craft, of the value of fifty dollars; or any goods, wares, merchandise, or other chattels, of the value of fifty dollars, which shall be at the same time the property of such person, and insured against loss or damage by fire, with intent to prejudice such insurer, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of arson, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twenty years nor less than one year.

5636 (57). If any person shall willfully and maliciously set fire to any of the buildings, water craft, or other property described in the foregoing section, and which shall be at the same time the property of such person, and insured against loss or damage by fire, with intent to burn or destroy the same, and with intent to prejudice such insurer, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years nor less than one year.

5637 (58). If any person shall willfully, maliciously, and unlawfully attempt to burn, or cause to be burned, any dwelling house, kitchen, smoke house, shop, barn, stable, store house, warehouse, malt house, still house, mill, or pottery, the property of any other person, of the value of fifty dollars; or, any church, meeting-house, court house, workhouse, school house, jail, or other public building, or any ship, boat, or other water-craft, of the value of fifty dollars, or any bridge of the value of fifty dollars, erected across any of the waters within this state; or, if any person shall willfully, maliciously, or unlawfully attempt to set fire to any of the buildings or other property described herein, with intent to burn or destroy the same, by igniting or trying to set fire to or ignite the same, or any material or thing therein, or any combustible material or thing without the same and nearly adjoining thereto, though the same, or part thereof, be not fired or burned; every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding four months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5638 (59). Any person who shall willfully, maliciously, and unlawfully attempt to ignite, set fire to, or burn the Nebraska penitentiary, or any shop, storehouse, or building within the enclosed walls of the said penitentiary, by the means and in the manner described in the next preceding section, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year.

5639 (60). If any person shall willfully or maliciously set fire to, or burn, or cause to be burned, any barrack or stack of hay, wheat, rye, oats, barley, flax, hemp, or fodder, or grain of any kind; or any corn-crib, or place wherein corn may be deposited; or, any fence, boards, plank, scantling, rails, tan-bark, or timber, the property of another, and of the value of thirty-five dollars or upwards; every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year.

In an information for setting fire to a building, the ownership may be alleged in the party in possession, because the offense is against the habitation; but for the burning of stacks of wheat the name of the owner must be alleged and proved. Burger v. State, 34, 397 (51 N. W., 1027).

5640 (61). If any person shall willfully or maliciously commit any of the offenses enumerated in the next preceding section, but the injury or damage therefrom shall be of a less value than thirty-five dollars ($35), every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), nor less than five dollars ($5.00), or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days* at the discretion of the court.

Amended by striking out words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 46, p. 389. In force August 1.

CHAPTER X.—OFFENSES RELATING TO DOMESTIC ANIMALS.

5642 (63). If any person shall willfully and maliciously alter or deface any artificial ear mark or brand, upon any horse, mare, foal, filly, mule or ass, sheep, goat, or swine, cow, ox, steer, bull or heifer, the property of another, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars, and be liable in treble damages to the party injured.

5643 (64). If any person or persons shall willfully or maliciously kill or destroy any horse, mare, foal, filly, mule, ass, sheep, goat, cow, ox, steer, bull, heifer, or swine, the property of another or others, of the value of thirty-five dollars or upwards, or shall willfully and maliciously injure any such animal or animals, the property of another or others, to the amount of thirty-five dollars or upwards, the person or persons so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year.

Sec. 67 repealed 1887, p. 660.

5646. Any person or persons who shall willfully or inhumanly beat, strike, kick, wound, kill, or mutilate any horse, mule, cow, ox, sheep, or swine, or any other animal enumerated as among domesticated animals, or any person or persons, whether the offender be owner, agent, or servant, who allows his team, whether horses, mules, or oxen, to stand tied upon the street for four hours at a time in cold or stormy weather, to the injury of said team, shall upon conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

5647. Any person or persons who shall overdrive, torture, torment, overload, or overwork any horse or horses, mule or mules, or oxen shall, upon the conviction of any of the offenses enumerated herein, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

5648. Any person or persons, whether as owner or agent, having in charge horses, mules, cattle, sheep, or swine, or any other domesticated animal or animals commonly called live stock, who shall willfully or carelessly neglect to provide sufficient sustenance or shelter therefor, at any season of the year, shall upon the conviction be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

5649. It is hereby made the duty of sheriffs, constables, marshals of cities or villages, or police officers to immediately arrest any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the foregoing sections of this act, without warrant or process, and call upon bystanders or others for assistance when the same may be necessary to enable them to make such arrest. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall for each offense be fined in any sum not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

5650 (68). Any person who shall impound or cause to be impounded, in any pound or yard, for sale or slaughter, or for any other purpose, any domestic animal, shall supply the same during such confinement with a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food and water, and in default thereof shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and in case any domestic animal shall be at any time impounded or yarded, as aforesaid, and shall continue to be without necessary food and water for more than twenty-four successive hours, it shall be lawful for any person, from time to time, and as often as it shall be necessary, to enter into and upon any pound or yard in which any such domestic animal shall be so confined, and to supply it with necessary food and water so long as it shall remain so confined. Such person shall not be liable to any action for such entry, and the reasonable cost for such food and water may be collected by him of the owner of such domestic animal, and the said domestic animal shall not be exempt from levy and sale upon the execution issued upon a judgment therefor.

5651 (69). If any person shall carry or cause to be carried, in or upon any vehicle or otherwise, any domestic animal in a cruel or inhuman manner, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and whenever he shall be taken into custody therefor by any officer such officer may take charge of such vehicle and its contents, and deposit the same in some safe place of custody; and any necessary expenses which may be incurred for taking charge of and keeping and sustaining the same, shall be a lien thereon, to be paid before the same can be lawfully recovered, and if the said expenses, or any part thereof, remain unpaid, they may be recovered by the person incurring the same of the owner of said domestic animal in any action therefor; and it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation engaged in transporting live stock on railway trains to detain such stock in cars for a longer continuous period than twenty-four hours without supplying the same with food and water.

5652 (70). If any maimed, sick, infirm, or disabled domestic animal shall be abandoned to die by any person in any public place, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be lawful for any magistrate or chief of police in this state to appoint suitable persons to destroy such domestic animal, if unfit for further use.

* Secs. 5650 to 5652, one of the sections referred to (67) having been repealed 1887, p. 660.

5654 (72). Any person or persons who shall confine, or aid or assist in confining, any bull, steer, or other domestic or domesticated animal or animals, either by tying, penning, or enclosing the same, for the purpose of bull-baiting, bear-baiting, or other purpose of torture, or shall aid or assist in torturing the same when so tied or penned, either by dogs, whips, spears, or other instruments, shall pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5656 (74). If any two or more persons shall run a match, horse race or races in any public road in common use, for the purpose of trying the speed of their horses, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five dollars nor less than one dollar.

5658 (76). It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, or dispose of, or to permit to run at large, any horses, cattle, sheep, or domestic animal, knowing that such horse, cattle, sheep, or domestic animals are infected with contagious or infectious disease, or have been recently exposed thereto, unless he shall first duly inform the person to whom he may sell, barter, or dispose of such horse, cattle, sheep, or other domestic animal, of the same; and any person so offending shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be confined in the jail of the county not exceeding three months.

Fine reduced from $200, 1875, p. 5. It is a good defense to an action on a promissory note that the sole consideration was a glandered horse. Johnson v. Chilson, 29, 304 (45 N. W., 462). The words "contagious or infectious" describe one disease and not distinctive diseases. Stryker v. Crane, 33, 694 (50 N. W., 1132).

5659 (77). If any person, being the owner or having charge of any horses, cattle, sheep, or any kind of stock, knowing the same to be infected with contagious or infectious disease, shall knowingly permit it to come in contact with any other person's horse or stock, without such person's knowledge or permission, such person shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined in the jail of the county not less than ten nor more than fifty days.

5661 (80). It is hereby declared unlawful for any person or persons to interfere with, or set at liberty any domestic animal or animals impounded in a lawful manner by any other person; and every person so offending shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, nor less than five dollars.

5662 (81). If any person shall steal any hive, box, bee palace, or other contrivance containing honey or honey bees, the property of another, of less value than thirty-five dollars; or if any person shall steal honey from any such hive, box, bee palace, or other contrivance as aforesaid; or if any person shall willfully and maliciously disturb, injure, or destroy any such hive, box, bee palace, or other contrivance containing honey or honey bees; or if any person shall steal, or by any art, device, or contrivance, or in any manner whatever decoy from any such hive, box, bee palace, or contrivance any such honey bees, with intent to convert the same to his own use, or with intent to damage or defraud the owner thereof; or if any person shall by any art, contrivance, or device unlawfully and maliciously injure, damage, or destroy any such honey bees, by means of poison and otherwise, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and shall be confined in the jail of the county not less than ten nor more than thirty days, and shall moreover be liable to the party injured in double the value of the property stolen, injured, or destroyed.

5664 (83). It shall be unlawful for any person in the state of Nebraska to knowingly and intentionally kill, injure, or harm, except on the lands owned by such person, any robin, lark, thrush, blue bird, king bird, sparrow, wren, jay, swallow, turtle dove, oriole, wood pecker, yellow hammer, cuckoo, yellow bird, bobolink, or other bird or birds of like nature that promote agriculture and horticulture by feeding on noxious worms and insects, or that are attractive in appearance or cheerful in song. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than three nor more than ten dollars for each bird killed, injured, or harmed.

5665 (84). It shall be unlawful for any person, between the fifteenth day of April and the fifteenth day of February following, to trap, catch, kill, or to pursue with such intent, on the premises of another, any muskrat, mink, or otter; and it shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to enter upon the premises of another, without his consent, with a view of trapping, hunting, killing, or pursuing with intent to kill, any such animal or animals; and it shall furthermore be unlawful for any person to enter upon the premises of another, without his consent, and destroy, tear down, or in any manner injure the muskrat heaps or houses on such premises; any person offending against any of the provisions of this section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty dollars for each offense; Provided, This section shall not be so construed as to prevent the catching and killing of any animals specified, where there is danger of their doing injury to property, either public or private.

Amended by striking the words "or both" from end of section, 1893, ch. 47, p. 393.

5667 (86). It shall be unlawful for any person to kill, ensnare, or trap any wild buffalo, elk, mountain sheep, deer or antelope (except for the purpose of domestication), between the first day of January and the first day of October in each year, or to kill, ensnare, or trap any grouse between the first day of January and the first day of September in each year, or to kill, ensnare, trap, or net quail or wild turkey, between the first day of January and the first day of October in each year, or to ensnare, trap, or net the same at any time of the year, or to buy, sell, ship, transport, or carry, or have in possession any such animals or birds, between the dates within which the killing, ensnaring, trapping, or netting of such animals or birds is prohibited by law. It shall also be unlawful for any person, agent, or employee of any association, corporation, railroad company, or express company, to receive, carry, transport, or ship any such animal or bird at any time of the year. It shall be unlawful for any person to go upon the premises of another person or corporation for the purpose of hunting, trapping, netting, ensnaring, or killing any animal or bird at any season of the year, unless by the consent of the owner or owners of said premises. It is further enacted that any person, agent, or employee, as aforesaid, who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of fifteen dollars for each buffalo, elk, mountain sheep, deer, antelope, or wild turkey so as aforesaid killed, ensnared, trapped, netted, bought or sold, shipped, transported, or held in possession in violation of this section, and the sum of five dollars for each grouse or quail so as aforesaid killed, trapped, ensnared, netted, bought, sold, shipped, transported, or held in possession in violation of the provisions of this section. Having in possession any of the named animals or birds between said dates shall be deemed and taken as presumptive evidence that the same were killed, ensnared, netted, or trapped in violation of this section, and the civil authorities of any city, town, or precinct where any animal or bird shall have been killed, or held in possession in violation of law be found, are hereby authorized to cause the same to be seized with or without warrant, and to be distributed among the poor persons of such city, town or precinct; and any person who shall go upon the land of another, in violation of this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, pay for such offense in any sum not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, and shall be liable to the owner of the premises in an action for trespass.

Amended 1875, p. 18; 1885, p. 388.

5668 (87). [Interfering with private fish pond.]—That it shall be unlawful for any person to catch, interfere with, injure, or in any manner destroy, or maliciously disturb, to the damage of the private property of another, the fish in, or work connected with, any private fish pond, not exceeding ten acres, in this state. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this section shall be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; and it shall be lawful for any person to take up, remove, or clear away any fish net, fish lines, or fish pound placed or put in the waters of any lake, pond, or reservoir contrary to the provision of this act.

Amended 1893, ch. 47, p. 393.

Amended 1893, ch. 47, p. 394.

5672 (88). If any person or persons shall willfully and maliciously and without lawful authority box, bore, bark, girdle, saw, cut down, injure, or destroy, to the amount in value of thirty-five dollars or upwards, any fruit, ornamental, shade, or other tree or trees, standing or growing in any orchard, nursery, or grove, the property of another, every such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary and kept at hard labor not more than ten years nor less than one year, and shall, moreover, be liable to the party injured in double the amount of damages by him sustained.

Complaint under this must truly allege the ownership of trees. Ex parte Eads, 17, 146 (22 N. W., 352). Indictment held sufficient. State v. Priebnow, 14, 485 (16 N. W., 907).

Fine reduced from $200, 1875, p. 6.

Fine reduced from $300, 1875, p. 6.

Fine reduced from $400, 1875, p. 7.

5676 (92). Where there is a charge or indictment for stealing trees, fruits, or vegetables, the same may be sustained, though it should appear from the evidence that the trees, fruits, or vegetables were at the time of taking the same attached to the freehold property.

CHAPTER XIII.—Injuries to Railroad and Telegraph Property.

5677 (93). Every person who shall willfully and maliciously remove, break, displace, throw down, destroy, or in any manner injure any iron, wooden, or other rail, or any branches, or branchways, or any part of the tracks, or any bridge, viaduct, culvert, trestle-work, embankment, parapet, or other fixture, or any part thereof, attached to or connected with such tracks of any railroad in this state, now in operation, or which shall hereinafter be put in operation, or who shall willfully and maliciously place any obstructions upon the rail or rails, track or tracks of any such railroad, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than twenty years; Provided, however, That if any person shall, by the commission of either of the aforesaid offenses, occasion death of any person or persons, the person or persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of murder in the first or second degree, or manslaughter, according to the nature of the offense, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished as in other cases.

Cited, Weinecke v. State, 34, 16 (51 N. W., 307).

5678 (94). Every person who shall draw or drive any wagon, carriage, cart, coach, gig, or other two or four-wheeled vehicle on or between the rails or tracks, or on or along the graded roadway of such road (unless compelled by necessity so to do), without the knowledge and consent of the company owning or controlling said road, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, nor less than five dollars.

5679 (95). Every person who shall willfully and maliciously throw down, break, remove, displace, cut, split, burn, or in any other manner destroy or injure any of the rails, sills, cross-ties, piles, bridges, culverts, viaducts, parapets, or any other fixture to the value of thirty-five dollars or upward, or shall willfully and maliciously injure or destroy any embankment of any railroad within this state, now constructed, or in process of construction, or any railroad which shall hereafter be constructed, or in process of construction, to the value of thirty-five dollars or upwards, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years nor less than one year.

5680 (96). Every person who shall willfully and maliciouly cut, break, burn, injure, or destroy any locomotive, car, or other machinery now, or which may hereafter be in use upon any railroad within this state, or any wood house, car house, or water station erected for the accommodation and use of any railroad within this state, to the value of thirty-five dollars or upward, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years nor less than one year.

5681 (97). Every person who shall willfully or maliciously commit any of the acts or offenses enumerated in the last two preceding sections, but the injury or damage therefrom shall be of a less value than thirty-five dollars ($35), every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), nor less than five dollars ($5.00), or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days,* at the discretion of the court.

Amended by omitting words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 46, p. 390. In force August 1.

5682 (98). Every person who shall willfully and maliciously injure, molest or destroy any of the lines, wires, posts, piers, or abutments of any telegraph company, owner, or association, or any other materials or property of such company, owner, or association, used in or about the transmission of dispatches or other communications, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than three years, in case the damage to such company, owner, or association, from such injury, be thirty-five dollars or upward; but if such damage be less than thirty-five dollars, then the person so offending shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER XIV.—Injuries to Property Generally.

5683 (99). If any person shall knowingly, willfully, and maliciously demolish, cut down, or destroy any private, public, or toll bridge, cut, fell, deface, alter, or remove any landmark, corner, or bearing tree, properly established, the person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5684 (100). If any person shall willfully and maliciously demolish, throw down, alter, or deface any mile stone, mile board, or guide board, on or at the fork of any public road, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars or be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5685 (101). If any person shall willfully or maliciously alter, deface, break down, or destroy any monument or tombstone, erected or set up to perpetuate the memory of any deceased person, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the court.

5686 (102). Any person who shall willfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure, or remove any tomb, monument, or gravestone, or other structure placed in any cemetery, or any fence, railing, or other work for the protection or ornament of a cemetery, or tomb, monument, or gravestone, or other structure aforesaid, or of any cemetery lot within a cemetery, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than one nor more than thirty days; and such offender shall also be liable in an action of trespass, in the name of the association or other owner of such cemetery, to pay all such damages as have been occasioned by his unlawful act or acts.

5687 (103). If any person or persons shall wantonly or maliciously throw, put, or lay down, prostrate, deface, or injure any fence enclosing an orchard, pasture, meadow, garden, yard, or other field or enclosure, the property of, or lawfully occupied by any other person or persons, or corporation, or shall wantonly or maliciously open, let down, throw down, prostrate, injure, or deface any gate, or bars belonging to any such enclosure, every such person or persons shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the county, not exceeding thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5688 (104). If any person shall intentionally deface, obliterate, tear down, or destroy, in whole or in part, any copy or transcript of, or extract from any law of the United States or of this state, or any proclamation, publication, advertisement, or notification, whatsoever, set up in any public place, within this state, for the public information of any citizen, by the authority of any law or act of this state, such person shall be fined in any sum not exceeding ten dollars, and may be committed to jail for a time not exceeding twenty-four hours.

5690 (106). Any person who shall willfully and maliciously injure any lawful public road in this state, or any bridge, gate, or mile stone, or other fixture, on any such road, shall, for every such offense, pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars nor less than ten dollars; and, moreover, be liable to any party injured in double damages.

5691 (107). Any person who shall deposit any wood, stone, or other kind of materials, on any part of any lawful public road, in this state, inside of the ditches of such road, or outside of the ditches, but so near thereto as to cause the banks thereof to break into the same, or cause the accumulation of rubbish, or any kind of obstruction, shall, for every such offense, pay a fine of five dollars.

5692 (108). That if any person shall willfully and maliciously destroy or injure to the amount of one hundred dollars, any personal property of any description whatsoever, or any building or other structure upon land of any kind whatsoever, owned by any other person or persons, corporation, or association of persons, every person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year, nor more than three years; and, moreover, be liable to the party injured in double the amount of damages sustained thereby.

5693 (109). If any person shall willfully and maliciously injure or destroy to any amount less than one hundred dollars, any personal property of any description whatsoever, or any building or other structure of any kind, owned by another person, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the jail of the proper county not exceeding thirty days, and shall, moreover, be fined in double the amount of the damage of the property injured or destroyed.

A dog is personal property, but must wear collar on public road or person killing not liable. Nehr v. State, 35, 638 (53 N. W., 589).

5694 (110). If any person shall willfully and maliciously destroy or injure to the amount of thirty-five dollars and upwards, any salt well, salt furnace, or engine connected therewith, such person shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not less than one nor more than three years, and shall, moreover, be liable to the party injured in double the amount of damages sustained thereby.

5695 (111). If any person shall willfully and maliciously injure or deface any church edifice, school house, dwelling house, or other building, its fixtures, books, or appurtenances, or shall commit any nuisance therein, or shall purposely and maliciously commit any trespass upon the enclosed grounds attached thereto, or any fixtures placed thereon, or any enclosure or sidewalk about the same, such person shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Amended by omitting words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 47, p. 395.

5697 (113). If any person shall intentionally deface, obliterate, tear or destroy in whole or in part, any newspaper, magazine, or periodical on file in any reading room belonging to the state, or any library or other association in the state, or shall cut therefrom any article or advertisement, such person shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, nor less than ten ($10) dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days * at the discretion of the court.

Amended by omitting the words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 47, p. 395.

Sec. 5698. "An act defining the crime of larceny from the person and providing a penalty therefor." 1887, p. 658. In force July 1.

5698. Every person who steals property of any value by taking the same from the person of another without putting said person in fear by threats or the use of force and violence, shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than seven years.

This section is not an amendment of section 5699 or 5704. It defines a new crime and provides a penalty therefor, and is constitutional. State v. Arnold, 31, 75 (47 N. W., 694). As robbery includes stealing from the person, a conviction may be had under this section on an indictment under sec. 5589. Brown v. State, 33, 356 (50 N. W., 154). The value of the property taken is immaterial. Flannagan v. State, 32, 114 (49 N. W., 220). Conversion of property not larceny. Turner v. O'Brien, 5, 548.

5699 (114). If any person shall steal any money, or goods and chattels, of any kind whatever, whether the same be wholly money, or wholly in other property, or partly in money and partly in other property, the property of another, of the value of thirty-five dollars or upward; or shall steal, or maliciously destroy any money, promissory note, bill of exchange, order, draft, receipt, warrant, check, or bond, given for the payment of money, or receipt acknowledging the receipt of money, or other property, of the value of thirty-five dollars or upwards, every such person shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years nor less than one year; Provided, The word "money," in this section, shall be deemed and taken as including bank bills or notes, United States treasury notes, or other bills, bonds, or notes issued by lawful authority, and intended to pass and circulate as money.

Definition of larceny. Thompson v. People, 4, 528. Rule for fixing value in case of clothing, etc. Brooks v. State, 28, 389 (44 N. W., 436). Possession of a part of stolen goods presumptive evidence that person charged stole it. Thompson v. State, 6, 107. Possession of goods soon after theft, presumption left with the jury. Thompson v. People, 4, 529.

5700 (115). If any person shall receive or buy any bank bill or bills, or promissory note or notes, bills of exchange, order, receipt, draft, warrant, check, or bond, given for the payment of money, of thirty-five dollars, or upwards, which have been stolen, knowing the same to be stolen, with intent to defraud the owner thereof, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years, nor less than one year.

5701 (116). If any person shall receive or buy any goods or chattels of the value [of] thirty-five dollars or upwards, that shall be stolen or taken by robbers with intent to defraud the owner, or shall harbor or conceal any robber or thief guilty of felony, knowing him or her to be such, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years, nor less than one year.

Amended 1875, p. 7. Burden is on state of proving value of goods to be $35. Engster v. State, 11, 541 (10 N. W., 453). Receiving or buying stolen goods, with intent to defraud the owner, is not an accessory, but a substantive offense, and a conviction may be had without regard to the person who stole the goods, or from whom they were received. Levi v. State, 14, 3 (14 N. W., 543).

5702 (117). If any person shall steal any horse, mare, gelding, foal or filly, ass or mule, of any value; or, if any person shall receive or buy any horse, mare, gelding, foal or filly, ass or mule, that shall have been stolen, knowing the same to have been stolen, with intent, by such receiving or buying, to defraud the owner; or, if any person shall conceal any horse thief, knowing him to be such; or, if any person shall conceal any horse, mare, or gelding, foal or filly, ass or mule, knowing the same to have been stolen; every such person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten nor less than one year.

Penalty reduced from fifteen and three years, 1883, p. 333. A prosecution will lie under this act for a crime committed before the amendment, as only the penalty was changed. State v. Wish, 15, 448 (19 N. W., 686). There is no grand and petit larceny in horse-stealing. The character of the crime is the same whether the value of the horse be $500 or $20. Wells v. State, 11, 410 (9 N. W., 552). Sentence for ten years held excessive. Hair v. State, 14, 505 (16 N. W., 829).

5703 (118). If any person or persons shall, either during the life of the devisor, testator, or testatrix, or after his or her death, steal, or for any fraudulent purpose destroy or secrete any will, codicil, or other testamentary instrument, whether the same relate to real or personal estate, or both, or shall procure the same to be done, every such person shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than ten years. It shall not be necessary, in any indictment for the offense herein named, to allege that such will, codicil, or other instrument is the property of any person, or that the same is of any value.

5704 (119). If any person shall steal any money or goods and chattels of any kind whatever, of less value than thirty-five dollars, the property of another, or shall steal or maliciously destroy any money, promissory note, bill of exchange, order, draft, receipt, warrant, check, or bond given for the payment of money, or receipt acknowledging the receipt of money or other property of less value than thirty-five dollars, every person so offending shall make restitution to the party injured in twofold the value of the property stolen or destroyed, and be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for any time not exceeding thirty days. The word "money," in the section, shall be held to include bank bills or notes, United States treasury notes, or other bills, bonds or notes, issued by lawful authority and intended to pass and circulate as money.

5705 (120). If any person shall conceal any stolen money, goods or chattels of any kind whatever, of less value than thirty-five dollars ($35), or shall conceal any bank bill or bills, promissory note or notes, bill of exchange, order, warrant, draft, check or bond, or any accountable receipt for money, given for the payment or acknowledgment of any sum under thirty-five dollars ($35) the person so concealing, knowing the same to have been stolen, shall be fined for every such offense in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days* at the discretion of the court.

Fine reduced from $200, 1875, p. 8. Amended by omitting words "either or both" at *, 1885, ch. 46, p. 391. In force August 1.

CHAPTER XVI.—EMBEZZLEMENTS AND FRAUDS.

5706 (121). If any clerk, agent, attorney at law, or servant of any private person or any copartnership, except apprentices and persons within the age of eighteen years, or if any officer, attorney at law, agent, clerk, or servant of any incorporated company or joint stock company shall embezzle or convert to his own use, or fraudulently take or make away with or secrete with intent to embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use without the assent of his or her employer or employers, or the owner or owners thereof, any money, goods, rights in action, or other valuable security, or effects whatever, belonging to any other persons, body politic or corporate, which shall come into his or her possession or care, by virtue of such employment, or if any officer elected or appointed to any office of public trust in the state, or if any executor, administrator, guardian, or assignee for the benefit of creditors shall embezzle or convert to his or her own use any money, property, rights in action, or other valuable security or effects whatever, belonging to any individual, or company, or association that shall come into his or her possession by virtue or under color of his or her relation as officer, executor, administrator, guardian, or assignee, every such person so offending shall be punished in the manner provided by law for feloniously stealing property of the value of the article so embezzled, taken, or secreted, or of the value of any sum of money payable or due upon any right in action so embezzled. Every embezzlement of any evidence of any debt negotiable by delivery only, and actually executed by the master or employer of any such clerk, agent, officer, attorney at law, or servant, but not delivered or issued as a valid instrument, shall be deemed an offense within the meaning of this section.

Amended 1875, p. 8; 1885, p. 391. Owner must be deprived of the property to constitute embezzlement. Chaplin v. Lee, 18, 440 (25 N. W., 609). Until attorney's lien on money in his hands is discharged, he cannot be prosecuted for embezzlement thereof. Van Etten v. State, 24, 787 (40 N. W., 289). An agent receiving property to sell on commission who pledges it for money for his own use is guilty of embezzlement. Morehouse v. State, 35, 643 (53 N. W., 571). The fiduciary character of the accused is the distinguishing feature of this crime, and must be distinctly the charge. Zink v. State, 34, 37 (51 N. W., 294).

Secs. 5707 to 5709 formed secs. 2 to 4 of an act defining certain crimes and providing punishment therefor. 1875, p. 26. In force June 1.

5707. That if any clerk, apprentice, or servant, whether bound or hired, to whom any money, bank bill, or note, or goods, or chattels shall be entrusted or delivered by his or her master or mistress, shall withdraw himself or herself from his or her master or mistress, and go away with the said money, bank bill, or note, or goods, or chattels, or any part thereof, with intent to steal the same and defraud his or her master or mistress thereof, contrary to the trust and confidence in him or her reposed by his or her said master or mistress, shall embezzle the said money, bank bill, or note, goods or chattels, or any part thereof, or otherwise shall convert the same to his or her own use, with like purpose to steal the same, every such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and be punished accordingly.

5708. That if any bailee of any money, bank bill, or note, goods or chattels shall convert the same to his or her own use, with an intent to steal the same, he shall be deemed guilty of larceny in the same manner as if the original taking had been felonious, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished accordingly.

5709. That if any lodger shall take away, with intent to steal, embezzle, or purloin any bedding, furniture, goods, or chattels which he or she is to use in or with his or her lodging, he or she shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and on conviction, shall be punished accordingly.

5710 (122). Every person who shall buy or in any way receive any money, goods, rights in action, or any valuable security or effects whatever, knowing the same to have been embezzled, taken, or secreted, contrary to the provisions of the last section, shall be punished in the same manner, and to the same extent, as therein prescribed, upon a conviction of a servant for such embezzlement.

5711 (123). If any carrier or other person to whom any goods, money, right in action, or any valuable personal property or effects, shall have been delivered to be transported or carried for hire; or if any person employed in such transportation or carrying shall, without assent of his employer, take, embezzle, or convert to his own use, such goods, moneys, rights in action, property, or effects, or any part of them, and before delivery of such article at the place or to the person entitled to receive them; or if any innkeeper shall embezzle or convert to his own use, or fraudulently take, make away with, or secrete, with intent to embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use, without the consent of his guest, any money, bank notes, jewelry, articles of gold or silver manufacture, precious stones or bullion, delivered to such inn keeper by his guest for safe custody, every such person shall be punished in the manner prescribed by law for feloniously stealing property of the value of the article or articles so embezzled, taken, or secreted.

5712 (124). If any officer or other person charged with the collection, receipt, safe keeping, transfer, or disbursement of the public money, or any part thereof, belonging to the state or to any county, or precinct, organized city or village, or school district in this state, shall convert to his own use, or to the use of any other person or persons, body corporate, association or party whatever, in any way whatever, or shall use by way of investment in any kind of security, stock, loan, property, land, or merchandise, or in any other manner or form whatever, or shall loan, with or without interest, to any company, corporation, association, or individual, any portion of the public money, or any other funds, property, bonds, securities, assets, or effects of any kind, received, controlled, or held by him for safe keeping, transfer, or disbursement, or in any other way or manner, or for any other purpose; or, if any person shall advise, aid, or in any manner participate in such act, every such act shall be deemed and held in law to be an embezzlement of so much of the said moneys or other property as aforesaid, as shall be thus converted, used, invested, loaned, or paid out as aforesaid; which is hereby declared to be a high crime, and such officer or person or persons shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than twenty-one years, according to the magnitude of the embezzlement, and also pay a fine equal to double the amount of money or other property so embezzled as aforesaid, which fine shall operate as a judgment at law on all of the estate of the party so convicted and sentenced, and shall be enforced to collection by execution or other process, for the use only of the party or parties whose money or other funds, property, bonds, or securities, assets, or effects of any kind as aforesaid, has been so embezzled. And in all cases, such fine so operating as a judgment shall only be released or entered as satisfied by the party in interest as aforesaid. Any failure or refusal to pay over the public money, or any part thereof, by any officer or other person charged with the collection, receipt, transfer, disbursement, or safe-keeping of the public money, or any part thereof, whether belonging to the state, or to any county, or precinct, or school district, or organized city or incorporated village in this state, or any other public money whatever; or any failure to account to, or to make settlement within a reasonable time after a notice so to do, with any proper and legal authority of the official accounts of such officer or person, shall be held and taken as prima facie evidence of such embezzlement. And the refusal of any such officer or person, whether in or out of office, to pay any draft, order, or warrant which may be drawn upon him, by the proper officer, for any public money in his hands, no matter in what capacity the same may have been received or may be held by him, or any refusal, by any person or public officer named in this act, to pay over to his successor any public moneys, or securities promptly, on the legal requirement of any authorized officer of the state or county, shall be taken, on the trial of any indictment against such officer or person for embezzlement, as prima facie evidence of such embezzlement.

The mere delivery of certificates of deposit of a banker, even if assented to by his successor, will not relieve the outgoing officer and his sureties from liability for failing to pay over the money found due. Ex parte Parker, 11, 310 (9 N. W., 33). The gist of this crime is the intent to cheat and defraud. Ketchell v. State. 36, — (54 N. W., 564).

5714 (126). If any person shall falsely personate any other, before any court of record, or judge thereof, or before any justice of the peace, clerk of either the supreme court or other court, or any other officer of this state, who is, or may hereafter be, authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, powers of warrants of attorney, or to grant marriage licenses, with intent to defraud any person, body politic or corporate, any person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding six years.

5715 (127). If any person or persons shall knowingly sell or convey any tract of land without having a title to the same, either in law or equity, by descent, device, or evidence, by a written contract or deed of conveyance, with intent to defraud the purchaser, or other person, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than seven years nor less than one year.

5716 (128). Every factor or agent who shall deposit any merchandise entrusted or consigned to him, or any document so possessed or entrusted aforesaid, as a security for any money borrowed, or negotiable instrument received by such factor or agent, and shall apply or dispose of the same to his own use, contrary to good faith, and with intent to defraud the true owner, and every factor or agent who shall sell any merchandise or other property entrusted or consigned to him, in the like manner, and with the like fraudulent intent, and every other person who shall knowingly connive with, or aid, or assist any such factor or agent in any such fraudulent deposit or sale, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding three years nor less than one year.

5717 (129). If the owner of any merchandise, or other person in whose name any merchandise shall be shipped or delivered to the keeper of any warehouse, or other factor, or agent, to be shipped, shall, after the advancement to him or them of any money, or the giving to him or them of any negotiable security, by the consignee or consignees of such merchandise, without the consent of such consignee or consignees being therefor first had and obtained, make any disposition of such merchandise, different from, and inconsistent with that agreed upon between such owner or other person aforesaid, and such consignee or consignees, at the time of said money being so advanced, or said negotiable security being so given, with intent to defraud or injure such consignee or consignees, said owner or other person aforesaid, and all other persons conniving with him or them for the purpose of deceiving, defrauding, or injuring the said consignee, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year; Provided, however, That no person shall be subject to prosecution under this section who shall, before disposing of such merchandise, pay, or offer to pay, to the consignee or consignees the full amount of any advancement made thereon.

5718 (130). If any person shall execute and deliver, or shall cause, or procure to be executed and delivered to any person, any false or fictitious bill of lading, receipt, schedule, invoice, or other written instrument, to the purport and effect that any goods, wares, merchandise, live stock, or other property usually transported by carriers, had been or were held, delivered, received, placed, or deposited on board of any steamboat, or water craft, navigating the waters in or bordering upon the state of Nebraska, or at the freight office, depot, station, or other place designated or used by any railroad company or other common carrier, for the reception of any such property so usually transported by carriers, when such goods, wares, merchandise, live stock, or other property were not held, or had not in fact and in good faith been delivered, received, or deposited on board of such steamboat, or other water craft, or at such freight office, depot, station, or other place so designated or used by any common carrier for the reception of such property, when such bill of lading, receipt, invoice, schedule, or other written instrument was made and delivered, according to the purport and effect of such bill of lading, receipt, invoice, schedule or other written instrument, with intent to deceive, defraud, or injure any person or corporation, or if any person shall attempt to endorse, assign, transfer, or put off any such false or fictitious bill of lading, receipt, invoice, schedule, or other written instrument, knowing the same to be false, fraudulent, or fictitious, the person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding four years nor less than one year.

5719 (131). If any person shall execute and deliver, or shall cause or procure to be executed and delivered, to any other person any false and fictitious warehouse receipt, acknowledgment, or other instrument of writing, to the purport and effect that such person, or any other person or persons, copartnership, firm, body politic or corporate, which he or she represents, or pretends to represent, held or had received in store, or held or had received in any warehouse, or in any other place, or held or had received into possession, custody, or control of such person or persons, copartnership, firm or body politic, any goods, wares, or merchandise, when such goods, wares, or merchandise were not held and had not been received in good faith, according to the purport and effect of such warehouse receipt, receipt, acknowledgment, or instrument of writing, with intent to defraud, deceive, or injure any person whomsoever, or if any person shall endorse, assign, transfer, or deliver, or shall attempt to endorse, transfer, or deliver, to any other person any such false and fictitious warehouse receipt, receipt, acknowledgment, or instrument of writing, knowing the same to be false, fraudulent, or fictitious, such person shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year.

5720 (132). If any person or persons, or the agent of any person or persons, having in his or their possession, custody, or control any goods, wares, or merchandise, by virtue of any genuine instrument of writing, of the purport or effect of any such instrument of writing as is mentioned in either of the last two preceding sections, shall without authority, and with intent to injure or defraud the rightful owner thereof, sell, assign, transfer, or incumber such goods, wares, or merchandise, or any part thereof, to the value of fifty dollars or upward, or shall in any way convert the same to his own use, or if the consignor or consignors, or the agent of such consignor or consignors of any goods, wares, or merchandise, not being the absolute owner thereof, and not having authority to stop, countermand, or change the consignment thereof, or not having authority to sell or incumber the same during the transit, shall, after the shipment thereof on board any water craft, or, after the deposit thereof in or upon any vehicle for land carriage, in any way stop, countermand, or change the consignment thereof, or shall sell, dispose of, or incumber such goods, wares, or merchandise, during their transit, or after their delivery, or shall in any way convert the same, or any part thereof, to his or her own use, to the value of fifty dollars or upward, so that the rightful owner thereof shall sustain a loss thereby to the value of fifty dollars or upward, the person so offending, with intent as aforesaid, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not less than one nor more than four years.

5721 (133). Any railroad company, whose agent or agents shall knowingly divert, or permit to be diverted, any freights that may come under his or their control, from the railroad or railroads over which the same may have been ordered to be conveyed, as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay to the railroad company or companies from which said freights have been so diverted, three times the amount received for transporting such freights; and such agent or agents shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court; Provided, That the provisions of this act shall in no way interfere with any lawful obligations heretofore entered into by any railroad company.

5722 (134). Every partner who shall be guilty of any fraud in the affairs of the partnership, shall be liable civilly to the party injured to the extent of his damage, and shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5723 (135). Every president, director, cashier, teller, clerk, or agent of any banking company, who shall embezzle, abstract, or willfully misapply any of the moneys, funds, or credits of such company, or shall, without authority from the directors, issue or put in circulation any of the notes of such company, or shall, without such authority, issue or put forth any certificate of deposit, draw any order or bill of exchange, make any acceptance, assign any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment, or decree, or shall make any false entry on any book, report or statement of the company, with an intent in either case to injure or defraud such company, or to injure or defraud any other company, body corporate or politic, or any other individual person, or to deceive any officer or agent appointed to inspect the affairs of any banking company in the state, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than ten years.

5724 (136). Any person or persons who shall knowingly and willfully sell, or direct, or permit any person or persons in his or their employ to sell any commodity or article of merchandise, and make or give any false or short weight or measure, or any person or persons owning or keeping, or having charge of any scales or steelyards for the purpose of weighing live stock, hay, grain, coal, or other articles, who shall knowingly and willfully report any false or untrue weight, whereby any other person or persons may be defrauded, or injured; such person or persons shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty ($50) dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty (30) days,* at the discretion of the court, and also be answerable to the party defrauded or injured in double damages.

5725 (137). Any person, agent, or clerk who shall put up, or shall order or procure any other person to put up or pack sugar, rice, tobacco, soap, starch, candles, cheese, or any goods or articles sold by weight, packed in kegs, barrels, tierces, casks, boxes, hogsheads, or any case whatever, shall, in every instance, first weigh the entire box or cask, or whatever it may be, and plainly cut or mark upon the head, or most convenient part thereof, the exact number and fractions of pounds it weighs, and when packed or filled shall again ascertain the whole weight, and place the same immediately above the cut or marked tare weights, and subtract the one from the other, showing the net weight of the contents, which calculation shall not be obliterated while the bulk remains unbroken; and said articles, until the bulk is broken, shall be sold by the net weight; Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to release any person from the liability of allowing the actual tare at the time of sale on all kegs, barrels, tierces, casks, boxes, hogsheads, or cases containing articles which by their nature are liable to change the original tare.

5726 (138). Any brand, mark, or stamp put upon any keg, barrel, box, cask, hogshead, or case, by the manufacturer, indicating the articles, its quality, quantity, or the manufacturer's name, or either of them, shall be considered the manufacturer's certified brand, stamp, or mark, and shall be put thereon in such manner as to be identified by the manufacturer or his authorized agent, which shall be subject to no erasure or obliteration; neither shall such box lids, keg, barrel, hogshead, tierce, or cask heads, be transferred from one to the other, for the purpose of taking advantage of said brands, stamps, or marks, to sell an inferior article, or repacking take place, putting an inferior article into a superior branded keg, barrel, cask, hogshead, box, or case, to accomplish the same design; or to mark, or remark, anything containing pound bulk, so as to hide from view the original manufacturer's mark, stamp, or brand.

5728 (140). If any person shall put into any barrel, cask, or other vessel having the private stamp, brand, wrapper, label, or trade mark usually affixed by any maker of wine from grapes grown within the state of Nebraska, adulterated liquors for the purpose of deceiving any person by the sale thereof, * or of [if] any person or persons shall knowingly manufacture, vend, or give away, or direct, or permit any person or persons in his or their employ to manufacture, vend, or give away any malt, spirituous liquors, or other compound, any of which shall be adulterated with poisonous ingredients, such as strychnine, strontia, sugar of lead, or other poisonous substances,* such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court. *An analysis made by a practical chemist shall be deemed competent [testimony] in all cases arising under this section.

MINERALS AND MINERAL WATERS.

Secs. 5729 to 5733. "An act to protect manufacturers, bottlers, and dealers in soda and mineral waters and other beverages, from the loss of their casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, and boxes." 1883, p. 241. In force June 1.

5729. That all persons engaged in the manufacture, bottling, or selling of soda, mineral waters, or other beverages in casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes, with their names or other marks of ownership stamped or marked thereon, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such articles are manufactured, bottled, or sold a description of the name or marks so used by them, and cause the same to be printed for two (2) successive weeks in a weekly newspaper printed in the English language, and in counties where such articles are manufactured, bottled, or sold.

5730. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons hereafter, without the written consent of the owner or owners thereof, to fill with soda, mineral water, or other beverages, or any other articles of merchandise, medicine, compound, or preparation, for sale, or to be furnished to customers, any such casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes, so marked or stamped, or to sell, dispose of, buy, or traffic in, or wantonly destroy any such casks, barrel, keg, bottle, or box so marked or stamped by the owner or owners thereof, after such owner or owners shall have complied with the provisions of the first section of this act. Any person or persons who shall violate any provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace or police judge in this state, shall be fined five dollars ($5) for each and every cask, barrel, keg, or box, and fifty cents (50) for each and every bottle so by him, her, or them filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in, or wantonly destroyed, or by him, her, or them caused to be filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in or wantonly destroyed, together with the cost of suit for the first offense, and ten dollars ($10) for each and every cask, barrel, keg, or box, one dollar ($1) for each and every bottle so filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in or wantonly destroyed, or caused to be so filled, bought, sold, used, trafficked in or wantonly destroyed, together with the costs of suit for each subsequent offense.

5731. The using by any other person than the righful owner thereof, without such written permission, of any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle, or box, for the sale therein of soda, mineral water, or other beverage, or any other article of merchandise, medicine, compound, or preparation, or to be furnished to customers, or the buying, selling, or trafficking in any such barrel, cask, keg, bottle, or box by any person other than the owner without such written permission; or the fact that any junk dealer, or dealers in casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes shall have in his or her possession any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle, or box so marked or stamped, and registered as aforesaid, without such written permission shall and is hereby declared to be prima facie evidence that such use, buying, selling, trafficking in, or having in possession any such cask, barrel, keg, box, or bottle is unlawful within the meaning of this act, and any person or persons found guilty of any such use, buying, selling, trafficking in, or having in possession any soda cask, barrel, keg, box, or bottle, without such written permission, shall be liable to be arrested and fined as provided in the second section of this act, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of any justice of the peace or police judge within this state, upon oath having been made in writing before him by any owner, or by the agent of any owner or owners, that any person has violated the provisions of this act, to immediately issue his warrant and cause such person or persons so accused to be brought before him and proceed to try such accused party as in cases of misdemeanor; and in case such accused party shall be found guilty of having violated any of the provisions of this act, shall assess the fine as provided in the second section of this act, such fine and costs to be collected as provided by law in other cases of misdemeanor.

5732. In case the owner or owners of any cask, barrel, keg, bottle, or box so marked, stamped, and registered as aforesaid, shall in person, or by agent, make oath in writing before any justice of the peace or police judge, that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that any manufacturer or bottler of soda, mineral water, or other beverage, or any other person is using in any manner by this act declared to be unlawful, any of the casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes of such person or his principal; or that any junk dealer or dealers in casks, barrels, kegs, bottles, or boxes, or any other dealer, manufacturer, or bottler has any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle, or box secreted in, about, or upon his, her, or their premises, the said justice of the peace or police judge shall issue his search warrant and cause the premises designated to be searched, as in other cases where search warrants are issued, as is now provided by law; and in case any such cask, barrel, keg, bottle, or box duly marked or stamped, and registered as aforesaid, shall be found in, upon, or about the premises so designated, the officer executing such search warrant shall thereupon arrest the person or persons named in such search warrant and bring him, her, or them before the justice of the peace or police judge who issued such warrant, who shall thereupon hear and determine such case, and if the accused is found guilty, he, she, or they shall be fined as provided in the second section of this act.

5733. All costs incurred in the enforcement of the provisions of this act shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as in criminal cases, and all fines collected by virtue of this act shall be turned over by the justice of the peace or police judge collecting the same, in the same manner, and for the same purpose, as fines in cases of misdemeanor are now by law disposed of.

5734 (141). If any person or persons shall obtain, cause to be obtained, or attempt to obtain from any life or accident insurance company any sum of money, on any policy of life or accident insurance issued by any company in this state, by falsely or fraudulently representing the person or persons insured as dead, or shall cause any person or persons to be insured under an assumed name, and shall falsely represent the fictitious person or persons so insured as dead, and shall thereby obtain, cause to be obtained, or attempt to obtain from such company the amount of such insurance, and shall falsely obtain, cause to be obtained, or attempt to obtain from any such life or accident insurance company any sum of money upon any life or accident policy of such company by means of false and fraudulent written representation or affidavits, falsely representing that the person whose life was insured was dead, or that the person insured against accident was injured, every person so offending, if the sum so obtained, attempted or caused to be obtained shall be equal to or exceed thirty-five dollars, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding fifteen years; and if the sum so obtained, attempted or caused to be obtained shall be less than thirty-five dollars, shall be fined in any sum not more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the proper county not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5735 (142). If any person shall subscribe or become a member of, or be in any way interested in any association or company for the purpose of issuing or putting in circulation any bill, check, ticket, certificate of deposit, promissory note, receipt, or other paper of any bank, to circulate as money in this state, without being authorized so to do under the laws of this state, or of the United States, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than one year, and by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

5736. (143). If any person, number of persons, or corporation, in this state, without special leave from the legislative assembly, or authority from the government of the United States, shall emit or utter any bill of credit, make, sign, draw, or endorse any bond, prommissory note, or writing, bill of exchange or order, to be used as a general circulating medium as or in lieu of money or other currency, every such person or persons, or members of such corporation, assenting to such proceedings, being thereof duly convicted, shall pay a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

5737 (144). Any county commissioners or persons employed by them, whose duty it shall be to superintend, in whole or in part, the erection of any court house, jail, infirmary, or bridge, or the addition to, alteration, or improvement of the same, or the making of the plans, description, and specifications of the labor to be performed and materials to be furnished, and the estimates of the cost thereof, or the estimates of the amount of labor done and materials furnished from time to time, under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contract to be made, who shall in the performance of such duty knowingly permit the work to be done in any other mode or manner than as prescribed in such plans, descriptions, and specifications, unless the same shall be done with the approval and consent of the officers to whom the plans, drawings, representations, bills of material, and specifications of work, and estimates of the cost thereof in detail and in the aggregate, are required to be submitted for approval, or with material different from that required by such bills of material, unless done with the consent and approval of said officers as aforesaid, or shall knowingly make false estimates of the labor done and material furnished in the quantity or price thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months, and be liable to the county in which such misdemeanor may be committed for double the amount such county shall be damaged by reason thereof.

CHAPTER XVII.—FORGERY, COUNTERFEITING, ETC.

5738 (145). If any person shall falsely make, alter, forge, counterfeit, print, or photograph any record, or other authentic matter, of a public nature; or any license, or any certificate authorized by the laws of this state; or any charter, letters patent, deed, lease, writing obligatory, will, testament, annuity, bond, covenant, bank bill or note, check, draft, bill of exchange, contract or promissory note, for the payment of money or other property; or, any note, bond, coupon, stamps, postage, or fractional currency, or any security issued under authority of any act or acts of the Congress of the United States; or any acceptance of a bill of exchange; or the number of any principal sum of any accountable receipt for any note; or any order or any warrant or request for the payment of money, or the delivery of goods and chattels of any kind; or any acquittance or receipt, either for money or goods; or any acquittance, release, or discharge of any debt, account, action, suit, demand, or other thing, real or personal; or any plat, draft, or survey of land; or any transfer or assurance of money, stock, goods, chattels, or other property whatever; or any letter of attorney, or any other power to receive money, or to receive and transfer stock, or annuities; or to let, lease, dispose of, alien, or convey any goods or chattels, lands or tenements, or other estate, real or personal; or any bills drawn by the auditor of public accounts, for the payment of money at the treasury; or any check, ticket, order, or pass, purporting to have been issued by any railroad company, or by any officer or officers thereof, or by any street railroad company, or owner, or by any toll bridge company, or owner; or any private stamp, brand, wrapper, label, or trade-mark, usually affixed by any mechanic, manufacturer, druggist, merchant, or tradesman to or upon the goods, wares, merchandise, preparation, or mixture of such mechanic, manufacturer, druggist, merchant, or tradesman; or the seal of any public officer or office authorized or established in pursuance of the laws of this state, or of the United States, with intent to damage or defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, or any military body organized under the laws of this state; or shall utter or publish as true and genuine, or cause to be uttered or published as true and genuine, or shall have in his possession with intent to utter and publish as true and genuine, any of the above named false, altered, forged, counterfeited, falsely printed, or photographed matter, above specified and described, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged, counterfeited, falsely printed, or photographed, with intent to prejudice, damage, or defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for any space of time not exceeding twenty years, nor less than one year, and pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

An illegal instrument cannot be the subject of forgery. Roode v. State, 5, 177. Offering to pass, declaring or asserting, even indirectly, that it is good, is uttering. Smith v. State, 20, 287 (29 N. W., 923). When forged check is presented at bank by a stranger, and paid, and it afterward passes through several banks, held, that the first bank paying is liable. First National Bank v. State Bank, 22, 774 (36 N. W., 289). Note alleged to have been forged was for $500 payable to W. H. five years from date, with interest at twelve per cent, payable semi-annually. Note offered in evidence called for interest payable annually, was indorsed with name of payee, and two payments. Held, a variance between the allegation and the proof. Haslip v. State, 10, 591 (7 N. W., 331).

5739 (146). If any person shall have in his possession any die or dies, plate or plates, brand or brands, engraving, imprint, printed labels, wrappers, or any other instrument, thing, or means whatever, with intent therewith or thereby to falsely make, forge, or counterfeit any matter specified in the last preceding section or to cause or enable the same to be done; or shall have in his possession any such falsely made, forged, or counterfeited matter, whether the same be completely or only partly executed, for the purpose of bartering, selling, or disposing thereof, knowing the same to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, with intent thereby to prejudice, damage, or defraud any person or persons, body politic or corporate, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than six months, nor more than ten years, and pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

5740 (147). If any person shall sell, barter, or in any manner dispose of any false, forged, or counterfeited, bank note or notes; or shall barter, sell, or in any manner dispose of any counterfeit bank note or notes, the same not being filled up, or the signatures thereto forged or affixed, whether by single bill or by sheets; or shall sell, barter, or in any manner dispose of any bank note or notes, the same being filled up, but having the signatures of persons, not the officers of the bank from which such note or notes purport to have been issued, or having the names of fictitious persons thereto; or if any person shall be detected with any such spurious bank note or notes in his possession, for the purpose of selling, bartering, or disposing of the same; or if any person shall make, alter, publish, pass, or put in circulation, any note or notes, bill or bills, purporting to be the note or notes, bill or bills, of a bank, company, or association, which never did in fact exist; such person or persons, knowing at the time of publishing, passing, or putting in circulation, any such note or notes, bill or bills, that the bank, company, or association, purporting to have issued the same, never did exist, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than fifteen years nor less than one year, and pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

5741 (148). If any person shall engrave any plate for striking or printing any false or counterfeit bank notes, knowing it to be designed for that purpose, or shall, knowingly, have in his possession, and secretly keep, any plate for the purpose aforesaid; and if any person shall engrave, cut, indent, or cause any piece or pieces of brass, copper, or any other metal, for striking, printing, or altering any of the writing, printing, or figures of any bank note or notes, bill or bills, knowing them to be designed for that purpose; or shall knowingly have in his possession, and secretly keep the same for the purpose aforesaid; every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than fifteen years, nor less than one year.

5742 (149). Any person who shall vend or keep for sale any goods, merchandise, mixture, or preparation upon which any forged or counterfeit stamps, brands, imprints, wrappers, labels, or trade marks be placed or affixed, and intended to represent the said goods, merchandise, mixture, or preparation as the true and genuine goods, merchandise, mixture, or preparation, of any person or persons, knowing the same to be counterfeit, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5743 (150). If any person shall counterfeit any of the coins of gold, silver, or copper, currently passing in this state, or shall alter, or put off counterfeit coin or coins, knowing them to be such, or shall make any instrument for counterfeiting any of the coins aforesaid, knowing the purpose for which such instrument was made, or shall knowingly have in his possession, and secretly keep, any instrument for the purpose of counterfeiting any of the coins aforesaid; every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than fifteen years nor less than one year, and pay a fine not less than one hundred nor greater than three hundred dollars.

5744 (151). If any person shall gild any of the silver coins currently passing in this state, or shall gild any other metal having the likeness and similitude of any of the coins currently passing in this state, so as to give it the appearance of any of the gold coins of the United States, or any other gold coins currently passing in this state, with intent to injure or defraud, or if any person shall pass, or put in circulation, any such false or gilded money, knowing that it is not genuine; the person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than five years nor less than one year.

5745 (152). If any person, shall attempt to pass any base or counterfeit coin or coins, knowing them to be such, or shall attempt to pass any false, forged, and counterfeited bank note or notes, knowing them to be such, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than five years nor less than one year, and pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars.

5746 (153). If any person shall sell, barter, or in any manner dispose of any false, forged, or counterfeit coin, made in the likeness and similitude of any of the gold, silver, copper, or nickel coin or coins currently passing in this state, or if any person shall be detected with any such false, forged, or counterfeit coin or coins in his or her possession, for the purpose of selling, bartering, or disposing of the same, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeit, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than ten years nor less than one year, and pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5747 (154). If any person shall be detected with any false, forged, base, or counterfeit coin or coins, made in the similitude of any gold, silver, copper, or nickel coin or coins currently passing in this state, in his or her possession, for the purpose of uttering and publishing the same as true and genuine, knowing the same to be false, forged, base, or counterfeit, every such person shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than ten years nor less than one year.

CHAPTER XVIII.—PERVERSION OF PUBLIC JUSTICE.

5748 (155). If any person, having taken a lawful oath, or made lawful affirmation in any judicial proceeding, or in any other matter where, by law, an oath or affirmation is required, shall upon such oath or affirmation willfully and corruptly depose, affirm, or declare any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be true, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than fourteen years nor less than one year.

In order to convict, there must be, in addition to contradictory oath of one witness, at least corroborating facts and circumstances equal to testimony of another. Gandy v. State, 27, 734 (43 N. W., 747; 44 N. W., 108). Sufficient to charge that the false testimony was material. Gandy v. State, 23, 442 (40 N. W., 302).

5749 (156). If any person shall persuade, procure, or suborn any other person to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten years nor less than one year.

5750 (157). If any judge, justice, sheriff, coroner, constable, jailor, or other officer of this state, either judicial or ministerial, shall knowingly ask, demand, or receive any fee or reward to execute or do his duty, other than is or shall be allowed by the laws of this state, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5751 (158). If any person shall take upon himself to exercise or officiate in any other office or place of authority, in this state, without being legally authorized, the person so offending shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of the county, and be fed on bread and water only, not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5752 (159). If any judge, justice of the peace, clerk of any court, sheriff, coroner, constable, attorney, or counselor at law shall encourage, excite, and stir up any suit, quarrel, or controversy between two or more persons, with intent to injure such person or persons, such judge, justice of the peace, clerk, sheriff, constable, attorney, or counsellor at law shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and shall be answerable to the party injured in treble damages.

5753 (160). If any sheriff, coroner, constable, jailer, clerk, county recorder, county clerk, county treasurer, or assessor, by color of or in the execution of his office, shall designedly, willfully, or corruptly injure, defraud, or oppress any person, or shall attempt to defraud, injure, or oppress any person, such sheriff, coroner, constable, jailer, clerk, county recorder, county clerk, county treasurer, or assessor shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be answerable to the party so injured, defrauded or oppressed, in treble damages.

5754 (161). If any person, having been called upon by the sheriff, or other ministerial officer, in any county in this state, to assist such sheriff or other officer in apprehending any person charged with, or convicted of, any offense against any of the laws of this state, or in securing such offender when apprehended, or in conveying such offender to the jail of the county, shall neglect or refuse to render such assistance, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

5755 (162). If any sheriff, coroner, jailer, or other person whatsoever, having any offender in custody, charged with, or convicted of, any offense made punishable by the laws of this state, shall voluntarialy suffer such offender to escape and go at large, every sheriff, coroner, jailer, or other person so offending, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5756 (163). If any person shall aid or assist any prisoner, confined in any jail, or other place of confinement, charged with, or convicted of, any offense against the laws of this state, to make his or her escape from such jail or place of confinement, although no escape be actually made, every person so offending shall be fined not more than five hundred nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Indictment will lie for corrupting witness before subpœnaed; allegations of. Chrisman v. State, 18, 109 (24 N. W., 434). Cited, Bedford v. State, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 263).

5758 (165). If any juror or witness shall corruptly take and receive any money, goods, chattels, or other reward, either directly or indirectly, in any action or suit instituted before any court having jurisdiction thereof, such juror or witness so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days.

5759 (166). If any person shall by bribery, persuasion, seduction, or any other arts or means whatever, attempt to prevail upon any ministerial officer, or other person charged with the safe keeping of any person accused or convicted of any offense against the laws of this state, to permit such person to escape from the custody of such officer or other person, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not more than five hundred nor less than twenty-five dollars.

5760 (167). If any sheriff, or jailer, or any other person having the care and custody of any jail, shall suffer the same to become foul and unclean, so that the health of any prisoner may be endangered, such sheriff, jailer, or other person shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5761 (168). When any warrant legally issued by any magistrate in this state, in any criminal case, shall be delivered into the hands of any constable or other officer, to be executed, whose duty it shall be to execute such warrant, it is hereby made the duty of such constable or other officer to serve the same immediately, and if such constable or other officer shall neglect or delay to serve any such warrant, delivered to him as aforesaid, when in his power to serve the same, either alone or by calling upon assistance according to law, such constable or other officer shall, if the offense charged for which the warrant issued be a felony, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Amended by omitting words "or both" at *, 1893, ch. 47, p. 396.

There is no sec. 171 in the original act.

5764 (172). If any sheriff or jailer, or any other person, having the care and custody of any jail, shall suffer any person sentenced to imprisonment therein for any offense, to be dealt with in a manner less severe than is required by law, such sheriff or jailer shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

5765 (173). If any person or persons shall set at liberty or rescue any person who shall have been found guilty or convicted of a crime, the punishment of which is death, or shall aid in the escape of such convict, such person shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term not less than one year nor more than fourteeen years; and if any person or persons shall set at liberty or rescue any person who shall have been found guilty or convicted of a crime, the punishment of which is confinement in the penitentiary, whether such person be in custody of an officer or in the penitentiary, or shall aid in the escape of such convict, the person so offending, on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to the same punishment that would have been inflicted on the person so set at liberty or rescued.

5766 (174). Every person who shall convey into a state prison, jail, or other place of confinement, any disguise, instrument, arms, or other things proper or useful to aid any prisoner in his escape, with intent thereby to facilitate the escape of any prisoner committed to or detained in such prison, jail, or place of confinement, charged with, or convicted of any offense against the laws of this state, or the United States, whether such escape be effected or attempted, or not, shall be fined not more than five hundred, nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the jail not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5767 (175). If any person shall, directly or indirectly, give any sum or sums of money, or any other bribe, present, or reward, or any promise, contract, obligation, or security for the payment of any money, present, or reward, or any other thing, to any judge, justice of the peace, sheriff, coroner, clerk, constable, jailer, prosecuting attorney, member of the legislative assembly, or other officer, ministerial or judicial, but such fees as are allowed by law, with intent to induce or influence such officer to appoint or vote for any person for office, or to execute any of the powers in him vested, or perform any duty of him required, with partiality or favor, or otherwise than is required by law, or in consideration that such officer hath appointed or voted for any person for any office, or exercised any power in him vested, or performed any duty of him required, with partiality or favor, or otherwise contrary to law, the person so giving, and the officer so receiving, any money, bribe, present, reward, promise, contract, obligation, or security, with intent or for the purpose or consideration aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of bribery, and shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than five years.

See Guthrie v. State, 16, 672 (21 N. W., 455).

5768 (176). Every person who shall offer or attempt to bribe any member of the legislative assembly, judge, justice of the peace, sheriff, coroner, clerk, constable, jailer, prosecuting attorney, or other ministerial or judicial officer in any of the cases mentioned in the last preceding section, and every member of the legislative assembly, judge, justice of the peace, sheriff, coroner, clerk, constable, jailer, prosecuting attorney, or other ministerial or judicial officer, who shall propose or agree to receive a bribe in any of the cases mentioned in the said preceding section, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, nor less than three hundred dollars.

5769 (177). If any person shall take money, goods, chattels, lands, or other reward, or promise thereof, to compound any criminal offense, such person shall be fined in double the sum or value of the thing agreed for or taken, but no person shall be debarred from taking his goods or property from the thief or felon, or receiving compensation for the private injury occasioned by the commission of any such criminal offense.

The owner of stolen property may take a note for the injury sustained by the theft without compounding the felony. Cass County Bank v. Bricker, 34, 518 (52 N. W., 575).

5770 (178). If any two or more persons shall conspire or agree, falsely and maliciously, to charge or indict, or cause or procure to be charged or indicted, any person for any criminal offense, each of the persons so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned not exceeding one year.

5771 (179). If any person shall willfully and maliciously alter, deface, mutilate, destroy, abstract, or conceal, any record or part thereof, authorized to be made by any law of this state, of or pertaining to any court, justice of the peace, or any state, county, district, or municipal office or officer, or any other public record so authorized, or any paper or writing duly filed with, in, or by any such court, justice of the peace, office, or officer, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5772 (180). Any magistrate, clerk of the court, sheriff, constable, or other officer mentioned in chapter fifty of this code [6164], who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty required of such officer by any provision of said chapter fifty, or any clerk, sheriff, coroner, constable, county commissioner, justice of the peace, recorder, county surveyor, prosecuting or district attorney, or any ministerial officer, who shall be guilty of any palpable omission of duty, or who shall willfully or corruptly be guilty of malfeasance or partiality in the discharge of his official duties, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and the court shall have power to add to the judgment that any officer so convicted shall be removed from office; Provided, That the removal of a clerk of the district court from office shall not remove such officer from the office of the county clerk, but in such case the judge shall have power to appoint such clerk of the district court until the next general election of county officers. The court shall have the power, whenever any clerk of the district or supreme court, or the district or prosecuting attorney, shall be presented or indicted, to appoint for that occasion a prosecuting attorney or clerk, as the case may require, who shall thereby be invested, in relation to such presentment or indictment, with all the powers of clerk or prosecuting attorney. It shall be the duty of the court, when the judgment shall extend to removal from office, to cause immediate notice of such removal to be given to the proper department, in order that the vacancy thus occasioned may be filled.

CHAPTER XIX.—OFFENSES AGAINST ELECTION LAWS.

5773 (181). The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all elections authorized by the laws of this state.

5774 (182). Any person who shall vote in any precinct, or in any ward of a city in this state, in which he has not actually resided ten days, or such length of time required by law, next preceding the election, or into which he shall have come for temporary purposes merely, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars, and be imprisoned in the jail of the proper county not more than six months.

Illegal voting at a village election is not punishable under this section. State v. Chichester, 31, 325 (47 N. W., 934).

5775 (183). Any person being a resident of this state who shall go or come into any county, and vote in such county, not being an actual resident thereof for forty days next preceding the election, or for such time as may at the time be required by law, shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years.

5776 (184). Any person who shall vote more than once at the same election shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than five years nor less than one year.

5777 (185). Any resident of another state who shall vote in this state shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than five years.

5778 (186). Any person who shall vote who shall not have been a resident of this state for six months, or such time as required by law, immediately preceding the election, or who, at the time of the election, is not twenty-one years of age, knowing that he is not twenty-one years of age, or who is not a citizen of the United States, and has not filed his declaration to become such according to the laws of the United States, knowing that he is not such citizen, and that he has not filed such declaration, or who, being disqualified by law, by reason of his conviction of some infamous crime, shall not have been pardoned and restored to all the rights of a citizen, shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the proper county not more than six months.

5779 (187). Any person who shall procure, aid, or assist, counsel, or advise another to give his vote, knowing that such other person has not been a resident of this state six months, or such time as required by law, immediately preceding the election, or that, at the time of the election, he is not twenty-one years of age, or that he is not a citizen of the United States, and that he has made no declaration according to law to become such citizen; or that he is not duly qualified from other disability to vote at the place where, and the time when the vote is to be given, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months.

5780 (188). Any person who shall procure, aid, assist, counsel, or advise another to go or come into any county, for the purpose of giving his vote in such county, knowing that the person is not duly qualified to vote in such county, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than five years nor less than one year.

5781 (189). Any person who shall, by bribery, attempt to influence any elector of this state in giving his vote or ballot, or who shall use any threat to procure any elector to vote contrary to the inclination of such elector, or to deter him from giving his vote or ballot, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months.

5782 (190). Any person who shall furnish an elector who cannot read with a ticket, informing him that it contains a name or names different from those which are written or printed thereon, with an intent to induce him to vote contrary to his inclination; or who shall fraudulently or deceitfully change a ballot of any elector, by which such elector shall be prevented from voting for such candidate or candidates as he intended, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years.

5783 (191). If any judge of the election shall knowingly receive or sanction the reception of a vote from any person not having all the qualifications of an elector prescribed by the laws of this state; or shall receive or sanction the reception of a ballot from any person who shall refuse to answer any question which shall be put to him in accordance with the requirements of the laws of this state; or who shall refuse to take the oath prescribed by the laws of this state; or shall refuse or sanction the refusal by any other judge of the board to which he shall belong to administer any oath or affirmation required by the laws of this state, and in such case required to be administered; or if any judge of the election shall refuse to receive or shall sanction the rejection of a ballot from any person, knowing him to have the qualifications of an elector under the provisions of the laws of this state, at the place where such elector offers to vote, or if any judge or clerk of the election, on whom any duty is enjoined by the laws of this state, shall be guilty of any willful neglect of any such duty, or of any corrupt conduct in the execution of the same; such judge or clerk shall be fined in any sum not more than one thousand dollars nor less than three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the jail of the county not more than six months nor less than three months; Provided, That so much of the provisions of this section as may be superseded by any registration laws in force, shall not be operative where such laws are in force.

5785 (193). Any judge or judges of the election who shall, after proclamation made of the opening of the polls, put a ballot or ticket into the ballot-box, except his or their own ballot or ticket, or such as may be received in the regular discharge of his or their duties as such judge or judges, or who shall knowingly permit any ballot or ticket, fraudulently placed or deposited in such ballot-box by any other person or persons, to remain therein, or be counted with the legal votes cast at such election, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years nor less than one year.

5786 (194). Any judge or clerk of any election under the laws of this state, or any other person or persons who shall at any time willfully, knowingly, and with fraudulent intent, inscribe, write, or cause to be inscribed or written, in or upon any poll-book, tally-sheet, tally-list, in or upon any book or paper purporting to be such, or upon any election returns under the laws of this state, or upon any book or paper containing the same, the name or names of any person or persons not entitled to vote at such election, or not voting thereat, or any fictitious name, with intent to defeat, hinder, or prevent a fair expression of the will of the people at such election, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than three years nor less than one year.

5787 (195). Any person or persons who shall, at any time, have in his or their possession any falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited poll book, tally sheet, tally list, or election returns of any election under the laws of this state, knowing the same to be falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited, with intent to hinder, defeat, or prevent a fair expression of the popular will at any such election, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not more than three years nor less than one year.

5788 (196). If any person or persons, at any election held by virtue of any laws of this state, in any ward of any city, or in any village or election precinct in any county of this state, shall unlawfully, either by force, violence, fraud, or other improper means, obtain possession of any ballot-box or any ballot or ballots therein deposited, while the voting at such election is going on, or before the ballots shall have been duly taken out of such ballot-box by the judges of election according to law, such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three nor less than one year, at the discretion of the court.

5789 (197). If any person or persons shall unlawfully destroy any ballot-box used, any ballot or vote deposited, any poll book kept at any election held by virtue of any law of this state, such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years, at the discretion of the court.

5790 (198). If any person or persons, at any election held by virtue of any law of this state, in any ward of any city, or in any village or election precinct of any county in this state, shall unlawfully, either by force, violence, fraud, or other improper means, attempt to obtain possession of any ballot-box, or any ballot or ballots therein deposited, while the voting at such election is going on, or before the ballots shall all have been duly taken out of such ballot-box by the judges of such election, according to law; or if any person or persons shall unlawfully attempt to destroy any ballot-box used, any ballot or vote deposited, any poll book kept at any election held by virtue of any law of this state, such person or persons shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years, at the discretion of the court.

5791 (199). It shall be unlawful for any person in this state to sell or give away, or dispose of with intent to evade the law, any intoxicating liquors on the day of any general or special election. Any person offending against this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by fine not less than twenty-five dollars nor exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER XX.—Offenses Against Marriage and the Relation of Sex.

5792 (200). If any male person, seventeen years old and upward, shall have carnal knowledge of any woman, other than his wife, such woman being insane, he knowing her to be such, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than ten nor less than three years.

5795 (203). Persons within the degrees of consanguinity within which marriages are declared by the preceding section to be incestuous and void, who shall intermarry with each other, or who shall commit adultery or fornication with each other, or shall lewdly and lasciviously cohabit with each other, shall be liable to indictment, and upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years.

Not necessary that both parties should be indicted. Yeoman v. State, 21, 173 (31 N.W., 669). Held, not necessary to hold themselves out as husband and wife. Sexual cohabitation sufficient. State v. Lawrence, 19, 310 (27 N. W., 126).

5796 (204). If a father shall rudely or licentiously cohabit with his own daughter, the father shall, on conviction, be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding twenty years.

5797 (205). If any person of the age of fourteen years and upward shall willfully make an indecent exposure of his or her person in any street, lane, alley, or other place, in any city, town, village, or county, or shall utter, speak, or use any obscene or lascivious language or words in the presence or hearing of any female, the person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five dollars, or be imprisoned in the cell or dungeon of the jail of the county not exceeding ten days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 206 repealed 1887, p. 674. See secs. 5859 to 5864, post.

5798 (207). Any person over the age of eighteen, who, under promise of marriage, shall have illicit carnal intercourse with any female of good repute for chastity, under the age of eighteen years, shall be deemed guilty of seduction, and upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than five years, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months, but in such case the evidence of the female must be corroborated to the extent required as to the principal witness in cases of perjury.

Amended 1875, p. 11. Indictment must be substantially as in the statute; wife is competent witness. Lord v. State, 17, 528 (23 N. W., 507). Undue familiarity before and after admissible as evidence. State v. Way, 5, 288. Cited as to separate acts in Bailey v. State, — Neb., — (55 N. W., 243).

5800 (209). If any unmarried persons shall live and cohabit together in a state of fornication, such persons so offending shall each be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months.

5801 (210). Every house or building situated in this state, used and occupied as a house of ill-fame, or for the purpose of prostitution, shall be held and deemed a public nuisance; and any person owning, or having the control of, as guardian, lessee, or otherwise, such house or building, and knowingly leasing or subletting the same in whole or in part, for the purpose of keeping therein a house of ill-fame, or knowingly permit the same to be used or occupied for such purpose, or using or occupying the same for such purpose, shall for every such offense be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

What necessary to warrant conviction. Drake v. State, 14, 536 (17 N. W., 117).

5802 (211). The use or occupation by the lessee or tenant of any house or building, or any part thereof, for the purposes prohibited in the preceding section, shall be held by the courts of this state good cause on the part of the owner or lessor to avoid the agreement of lease or renting, and to re-enter at any time and take possession of such house or building.

Cited and construed, Hellman, Executrix, v. Oliver, 35, 334 (53 N. W., 145).

5803 (212). If any person or persons shall induce, decoy, entice, hire, engage, employ, or compel any female under eighteen years of age; or if any person or persons shall cause, by compulsion or otherwise, any female over eighteen years of age, against her will, to have illicit carnal intercourse with any person other than the person so inducing, decoying, enticing, hiring, engaging, employing, or causing such female to have such illicit carnal intercourse; or if any person or persons shall knowingly permit or allow any other person to have illicit intercourse with any female of good repute for chastity, at the house, residence, or upon the premises owned or controlled by such person, the person or persons so offending shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not more than five years.

Secs. 5804 to 5808. "An act to prohibit the keeping, maintaining, or harboring of girls under the age of eighteen (18) years and boys under the age of twenty-one (21) years in houses of ill fame, and to authorize any officer of the law, or the officers or agents of the Nebraska Humane Society, and all other humane or charitable societies, to compel their removal from such houses." 1891, p. 264. In force April 1.

5804. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to allow, keep, maintain, or harbor any girl under eighteen (18) years of age, or any boy under twenty-one (21) years of age in any house of ill-fame or any house of bad repute, and any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty (30) days, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs are paid.

5805. It shall be lawful for any sheriff, constable, chief of police, or any policeman, or city marshal, or any officer or agent of the Nebraska Humane Society, or any other humane or charitable society, to enter any house of ill fame to search for any such children allowed, kept, maintained, or harbored therein, and to institute and maintain proceedings in habeas corpus to remove such children from such houses of ill fame or bad repute, and it shall only be necessary to prove that such house from whence it is sought to remove such children is by common repute a house of ill fame, or of notoriously bad repute, or kept and run for the purpose of prostitution, to establish the unlawful detention, and depriving such children of their liberty.

5807. All costs and expenses of removing such children from such houses of ill fame or bad repnte shall be adjudged and taxed against the party seeking to restrain said children and keep them in such houses of ill fame or bad repute, to be recovered as costs in civil cases.

5808. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to relieve or release from liability of maintaining such children, any parents or persons charged with the support of such children after they have been removed by legal process from any houses of ill-fame or bad repute, and placed with other families or societies or persons. And all such persons, whether parents or others, who have been held and bound for the support and maintenance of such children, shall be held and bound for their support and maintenance after any such removal, and until such children have been placed in permanent homes with some person or society, which shall voluntarily assume their support and maintenance and education. The amount of said support and maintenance to be fixed by the county judge having jurisdiction, and to be recovered in a civil action, and to be paid to the person, or society, having in charge said child or children.

CHAPTER XXI.—Gaming, Betting, and Lotteries.

5809 (213). This chapter of the criminal code shall be given in charge to the grand jury at each regular term of the district court by the judge thereof, and the district court shall have concurrent jurisdiction of any offense in this chapter.

Rewritten 1875, p. 11.

5810 (214). Every person who shall play at any game whatever for any sum of money or other property of value, or shall bet any money or property upon any gaming table, bank, or device, prohibited by law, or at or upon any other gambling device, or who shall bet upon any game played at or by means of any such gaming table, or gambling device, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars, and not exceeding three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than one year, and upon a second or any subsequent conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than three hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than two years; Provided, That if any person or persons who shall lose any property or money in a gambling house or other place, either at cards or by means of any other gambling device or game of hazard of any kind, such person, the wife or guardian of such, his heirs, legal representatives, or creditors, shall have the right to recover the money or the amount thereof, or the property or the value thereof, in a civil action, and may sue each or all the persons participating in the game, and may join the keeper of the gambling house or other place in the same action, who shall be jointly and severally liable for any money or property lost in any game or through any gambling device of any kind, and no title shall pass to said property or money, and in an action to recover the same no evidence shall be required as to the specific kind or denomination of money, but only as to the amount so lost.

Amended 1875, p. 11; 1887, p. 665. Constitutional. Perry v. Gross, 25, 830 (41 N. W., 799). Does not apply to stakeholder who has taken no part in the illegal transaction. Riddle v. Perry, 19, 505 (27 N. W., 721). Deaver v. Bennett, 29, 814 (46 N. W., 161).

5812 (216). If any person or persons shall suffer any game or games whatsoever to be played for gain upon or by means of any gaming device or machine of any denomination or name, in his or their house, or any out-house, booth, arbor, or erection, of which he, she, or they have the care or possession, the person or persons so offending shall each pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Amended 1875, p. 12.

5813 (217). If any keeper or keepers of any tavern, ordinary, or other house of public resort, shall suffer any game or games whatsoever, except games of athletic exercises, to be played at or within such tavern, ordinary, or house of public resort, or in any out-house, building, or erection appendant thereto, every such keeper or keepers shall pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Amended 1875, p. 13.

5814 (218). If any person shall keep a room, building, arbor, booth, shed, or tenement, canal boat, or other water craft to be used or occupied for gambling, or if any person, being the owner of any room, building, arbor, booth, shed, or tenement, canal boat, or other water craft, shall rent the same to be used or occupied for gambling, the person so offending shall be fined in any sum not less than thirty nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten nor more than thirty [days], or both, at the discretion of the court; and if the owner of any room, building, arbor, booth, shed, or tenement, canal boat, or water craft, shall know that any gaming tables, apparatus, or establishment is kept or used in such room, building, arbor, booth, shed, or tenement, canal boat, or other water craft, for gambling, winning, betting, or gaining money or other property, and shall not forthwith cause complaint to be made against [the] person so keeping any such room, building, arbor, booth, shed, or tenement, canal boat, or other water craft, he shall be taken, held, and considered to have knowingly permitted the same to be used and occupied for gambling.

Amended 1875, p. 13.

Amended 1875, p. 14.

Penalty reduced, 1875, p. 14.

5817 (221). If any keeper of a public house, or retailer of spirituous liquors, in this state, shall establish, keep, or permit to be kept upon his or their lots or premises any ball or nine-pin alley, or shall in whole or in part be interested in any ball or nine-pin alley upon the lot or premises of another, he or they shall pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars; and this section shall be construed to extend to any alley denominated a nine-pin alley, whether such alley is used for playing therein a greater or less number than nine pins.

5818 (222). If any owner or keeper of a billiard saloon, or any owner or keeper of a billiard table, at any grocery, or other public place, shall permit or suffer any minor under the age of eighteen years to play at any game of billiards in such grocery, saloon, or public place, or upon such billiard table, or to remain or be in or upon the premises so occupied by him as such billiard saloon, or in which shall be such billiard table as aforesaid, every such person or persons shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty dollars for the first offense, and fifty dollars for each and every succeeding offense.

5820 (224). If any person shall open, set on foot, carry on, promote, make, or draw, publicly, or privately, any lottery, or scheme of chance, of any kind or description, by whatever name, style, or title the same may be denominated or known; or if any person shall by such ways and means expose or set to sale any house or houses, lands or real estate, or any goods or chattels, cash, or written evidences of debt, or certificates of claims, or any thing or things of value whatever, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court.

5823 (227). If any butcher or other person shall knowingly sell any unwholesome flesh of a diseased animal, or other unwholesome provision, he or she shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

5824 (228). If any person shall build, erect, continue, or keep up any dam, or other obstruction, in any river or stream of water in this state, and thereby raise an artificial pond, or produce stagnant waters, which shall be manifestly injurious to the public health and safety, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court; and the court shall, moreover, order every such nuisance to be abated or removed.

5825 (229). If any person or persons shall put any dead animal, carcass or part thereof, or other filthy substance, into any well, or into any spring, brook, or branch of running water, of which use is made for domestic purposes, every person so offending shall be fined in any sum not less than two nor more than forty dollars.

5826 (230). If any person or persons shall put the carcass of any dead animal, or the offals from any slaughter house or butcher's establishment, packing house, or fish house, or any spoiled meats, or spoiled fish, or any putrid animal substance, or the contents of any privy vault, upon or into any river, bay, creek, pond, canal, road, street, alley, lot, field, meadow, public ground, market space, or common, or if the owner or owners, occupant or occupants thereof shall knowingly permit the same to remain in any of the aforesaid situations, to the annoyance of the citizens of this state, or any of them, or shall neglect or refuse to remove or abate the nuisance occasioned thereby, within twenty-four hours after knowledge of the existence of such nuisance upon any of the above described premises owned or occupied by him, her, or them, or after notice thereof in writing from the street commissioner, supervisor, constable, any trustee, or health officer of any city or precinct in which such nuisance shall exist, every such person shall be fined in any sum not less than one nor more than fifty dollars. And if said nuisance be not abated within twenty-four hours thereafter, it shall be deemed a second offense against the provisions of this section, and every like neglect of each twenty-four hours thereafter shall be considered an additional offense against the provisions of this section.

Sec. 5828. "An act to prevent the introduction and spread of hog cholera and kindred diseases in the state of Nebraska." 1877, p. 149. In force June 1.

5828. That from and after the first day of June, A. D. 1877, it shall be unlawful for any railroad company operating its road in this state to bring or cause to be brought into this state from an adjoining state any empty car used for transporting hogs or sheep, or any empty combination car used for carrying grain and stock that has any filth of any kind whatever in the same; but the said railroad company shall, before it allows said car or cars to pass into this state, cause the same to be thoroughly cleaned and cleansed. Any person or persons or corporation violating any of the above provisions, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed one hundred dollars.

5829 (232). Every person who shall erect, keep up, or continue and maintain any nuisance to the injury of any part of the citizens of this state shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court, and the court shall, moreover, in case of conviction of such offense, order every such nuisance to be abated or removed. And the erecting, continuing, using, or maintaining any building, structure, or other place for the exercise of any trade, employment, manufacture, or other business which, by occasioning noxious exhalations, noisome or offensive smells, becomes injurious and dangerous to the health, comfort, or property of individuals or the public; the obstructing, or impeding, without legal authority, the passage of any navigable river, harbor, or collection of water; or the corrupting or rendering unwholesome or impure any water-course, stream, or water; or unlawfully diverting any such water-course from its natural course or state to the injury or prejudice of others; and the obstructing or incumbering by fences, buildings, structures, or otherwise, any of the public highways, or streets or alleys of any city or village, shall be deemed nuisances; and every person or persons guilty of erecting, continuing, using, or maintaining, or causing any such nuisances shall be guilty of a violation of this section, and in every such case the offense shall be construed and held to have been committed in any county whose inhabitants are or have been injured or aggrieved thereby.

Pollution of a stream may be enjoined. Barton v. Union Cattle Co., 28, 357 (44 N. W., 454).

5830 (233). That it shall be unlawful to catch any fish for the purpose of selling and packing the same for market, in this state, at any time between the first day of June and the first day of September; Provided, That should it be impracticable to take up or remove any stationary nets on the first of June, it shall be lawful for the owner or the person having such nets in charge to take up and remove the same at the earliest practicable day thereafter, and all fish therein at the time may be lawfully taken out, salted, and packed for market; but no more than one haul shall be taken from any net between the first day of June and the first day of September; and any person violating the provisions [of] this section shall pay for every such offense a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Maximum reduced from $200, 1875, p. 15.

Sec. 5832. "An act to protect butter and cheese manufacturers." 1883, p. 238. In force February 24.

5832. Whoever shall knowingly sell or supply or bring to be manufactured to any cheese manufactory, butter manufactory, or creamery in this state any milk diluted with water or in any way adulterated, or milk from which any cream has been taken, or milk commonly known as "skimmed milk;" or whoever shall keep any part of the milk known as "strippings," or whoever shall knowingly bring or supply milk to any cheese manufactory, butter manufactory, or creamery that is tainted or partly sour from want of proper care in keeping pails, strainers, or any vessels in which said milk is kept, clean and sweet, after being notified of such taint or carelessness, or any cheese manufacturer or butter manufacturer who shall knowingly use, or direct any of his employees to use, for his or their individual benefit, any cream of the milk brought to the cheese or butter manufacturer, without the consent of all the owners thereof, shall, for each and every offense, forfeit and pay a sum of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, with the costs of suit, to be sued for in any court of competent jurisdiction, for the benefit of the person or persons, firm, association, or corporation, or their assignees, upon whom such fraud be committed.

5833 (235). It shall be unlawful to transport or carry the substance or material generally known and called nitro-glycerine into, out of, within, through, or across this state, except as herein provided. Every wagon, cart, or other vehicle used in carrying nitro-glycerine shall have printed upon both sides and ends thereof in plain and distinct letters, large enough to occupy a space of two inches wide by eighteen inches long, the words, "nitro-glycerine"—"dangerous;" and every package, can, cask, barrel, or box, containing nitro-glycerine, shall have written or printed thereon upon two sides thereof, in plain and distinct letters, the words "nitro-glycerine"—"dangerous."

5834 (236). Every railroad, stage coach, steamship, vessel, or other water craft within this state, whose business it is to carry passengers, or who shall at the time be engaged in carrying passengers, are hereby prohibited from carrying or having on board thereof nitro-glycerine; and it shall be unlawful for any person, persons, or company to permit any passenger to ride on any conveyance as aforesaid that has on board thereof any of the substance or material aforesaid.

5835 (237). It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to manufacture nitro-glycerine within this state within a distance of one hundred and sixty rods of any occupied dwelling or public building, or to store the same in any quantity exceeding one hundred pounds within the limits of any city or incorporated village, or in any other place within one hundred and sixty rods of any occupied dwelling or public building.

5836 (238). Any person or persons knowingly offending against any of the provisions of either of the last three preceding sections shall pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

5837 (239). Every owner or possessor of land shall cut or mow down all the Canada thistles growing thereon, or in the highway adjoining the same, so often as to prevent their going to seed, and if any owner or possessor of land knowingly shall suffer any such thistles to grow thereon, or in any highway adjoining the same, and the seed to ripen so as to cause or endanger the spreading thereof, he shall forfeit and pay a fine not less than ten dollars nor more than forty dollars; and any person may enter on the land of another, who shall neglect or refuse to cut or mow down such thistles, for the purpose of cutting or mowing the same down, and shall not be liable to be sued in an action of trespass therefor.

5838 (240). If any person shall, knowingly, vend any grass or other seed in which there is any seed of the Canada thistle, such person shall, for every such offense, be fined the sum of twenty dollars.

5839. That all public buildings now in process of construction, or hereafter to be built or constructed, which may or shall be used for churches, school houses, operas, theatres, lecture rooms, hotels, public meetings, town halls, or which may or shall be used for any purpose whereby a collection of people may be assembled together for religious worship, amusement, instruction, or other purpose, shall be so built and constructed that all doors leading from the main hall or place where said collection of people may be assembled, or from the principal room which may be used for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be so swung upon their hinges and constructed that they shall open outward, and that all means of egress for the public from the main hall or principal room, and from the building, shall be by means of doors which shall open outward from the main hall or building.

5840. That all public buildings now built and used for any of the purposes mentioned in section one of this act shall within one year from the first day of July, A. D. 1877, be so changed that their doors and means of egress shall be in conformity with the provisions of this act; Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to churches and school houses already erected in rural districts.

5841. That any person or persons who shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

5842. That in all cities and towns having a population of one thousand inhabitants and upwards, the mayor of said town or city shall be and he is hereby authorized to close and prohibit all public buildings from being used for any of the purposes mentioned in section one of this act, until the provisions of this act shall be complied with.

Sec. 5843. "An act to make the selling or giving away of fire-arms, ammunitions, or other munitions which can be used in fire-arms to any Indian not a citizen, a felony, and providing a penalty therefor." 1891, p. 267. In force April 8.

5843. Any person who shall sell or give away under any pretext whatsoever, to any Indian not a citizen, any fire-arms, ammunition, or other munitions of any kind which can be used in fire-arms shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term not less than two years nor more than five years, or a fine not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

CHAPTER XXIII.—MISCELLANEOUS OFFENSES.

5844 (241). If any person of the age of fourteen years or upward shall be found on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, sporting, rioting, quarreling, hunting, fishing, or shooting, he or she shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, or be confined in the county jail for a term not exceeding twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the court. And if any person of the age of fourteen years or upward shall be found on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, at common labor (work of necessity and charity only excepted), he or she shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five dollars nor less than one dollar; Provided, Nothing herein contained in relation to common labor on said first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, shall be construed to extend to those who conscientiously do observe the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, nor to prevent families emigrating from traveling, watermen from landing their passengers, superintendents or keepers of toll bridges or toll gates from attending and superintending the same, or ferrymen from conveying travelers over the water, or persons moving their families on such days, or to prevent railway companies from running necessary trains.

That a person believes the seventh day to be the Sabbath is no protection; he must observe it. Liberman v State, 26, 469 (42 N. W., 419). Playing base-ball on Sunday is "sporting." State v. O'Rourk, 35, 614 (53 N. W., 591).

5845 (242). All idle persons not having visible means of support and maintenance, and who live without employment, and all persons wandering abroad and living in taverns, groceries, beer houses, market places, sheds, barns, or in open air, and not giving a good account of themselves, and all persons wandering about and begging, or who go about from door to door, or from place to place, or occupy public places for the purpose of begging and receiving alms, and all prostitutes, and all keepers, occupants, lessees, and pimps of houses used for prostitution or gambling, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be vagrants; and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned in the jail of the county not exceeding three months, and be subject to hard labor in said jail or elsewhere in the county, as the court may order; Provided, That any person so convicted, who shall be disqualified for manual labor by physical inability, and shall be a proper object for relief, shall be sent to the alms house of the proper city or county, or otherwise cared for, according to law.

5846 (243). If any person or persons shall exhibit any puppet show, wire-dancing, or tumbling, juggling, or sleight of hand, within this state, without first obtaining license as may be required by law, or by municipal ordinance, and shall ask and receive any money or other property for exhibiting the same, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of ten dollars.

5847 (244). If any person or persons shall open the grave or tomb where the body or bodies of any deceased person or persons shall have been deposited, and shall remove the body or bodies, or remains of any deceased person or persons, from the grave or place of sepulture, for the purpose of dissection, or any surgical, or any anatomical experiment, or for any other purpose, without the knowledge and consent of the near relations of the deceased, or shall in any way aid, assist, counsel, or procure the same to be done, every such person or persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

5848 (245). The preceding section shall not extend to the dissection of any criminal, where the same shall be directed to be delivered up for that purpose by competent authority, nor shall it be so construed as to prevent any person from removing the body or bodies of their deceased relations or intimate friends to any other place of sepulture that he or she may think proper.

TRADE.

Sec. 5849. "An act to prevent the uttering of false pedigrees of stock and fixing a penalty therefor." 1883, p. 61. In force June 1.

5849. If any person shall knowingly, and with intent to deceive, furnish to any purchaser of stock a printed or written false pedigree of the same, whereby such purchaser shall be induced to buy said stock, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, as the court may direct.

Secs. 5850 to 5852. "An act to prohibit grain dealers, persons, partnerships, companies, corporations, or associations from combining or entering into any agreement or contract to pool or fix the price to be paid for grain, hogs, cattle, or stock of any kind whatever, and to provide punishment for violations of the same." 1887, p. 675. In force July 1.

5850. That it shall be unlawful for any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association to enter into any agreement, contract, or combination with any other grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association for the pooling of prices of different and competing dealers and buyers, or to divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such dealers and buyers or any portion thereof, or for fixing the price which any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association shall pay for grain, hogs, cattle, or stock of any kind or nature whatever; and in case of any agreement, contract, or combination for such pooling of prices of different and competing dealers and buyers, or to divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such dealers and buyers or any portion thereof, or for fixing the price which any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association shall pay for grain, hogs, cattle, or stock of any kind or nature whatever, each day of its continuance shall be deemed a separate offense.

5851. That in case any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association subject to the provisions of this act, shall do or cause to be done, or permit to be done, any act, matter, or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter, or thing in this act required to be done, such grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby to the full amount of damages sustained in consequence of any such violation of the provisions of this act, together with a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court in every case of recovery, which attorney's fees shall be taxed and collected as a part of the costs in the case; and in any such action brought for the recovery of damages, the court before whom the same shall be pending may compel any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association, subject to the provisions of this act, or any director, officer, receiver, trustee, agent, employer, or clerk of them or either of them, defendant in such suit, to attend, appear, and testify in such case, and may compel the production of the books and papers of such grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, corporation, company, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, corporation, company, or association, party to any such suit; the claim that any such testimony or evidence may tend to criminate the person giving such evidence shall not excuse such witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person in the trial of any criminal proceeding.

5852. That any grain dealer or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, or any other person or persons, partnership, company, corporation, or association subject to the provisions of this act, or any director or officer, or any receiver, trustee, clerk, lessee, agent, or person acting for or employed by them or either of them, who alone or with any other partnership, company, corporation, association, person, or party shall willfully do or cause to be done, or shall willfully suffer or permit to be done, any act, matter, or thing in this act prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall willfully omit or fail to do any act, matter, or thing in this act required to be done, or shall cause or willfully suffer or permit any act, matter, or thing so directed or required by this act to be done, not to be so done, or shall aid or abet any such omission or failure, or shall be guilty of any infraction of this act, or shall aid or abet therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or imprisonment in the jail of the county not exceeding six (6) months, or both, in the discretion of the court, and shall, moreover, be liable to the suit of the party injured or damaged.

MORALS.

Secs. 5853 and 5854. "An act prohibiting selling, giving or furnishing tobacco in any of its forms to minors, and providing a penalty therefor." 1885, p. 394. In force June 1.

5853. That hereafter no person or persons in this state shall sell, give, or furnish any cigarette or cigarettes, or tobacco in any of its forms, to any minor under fifteen years of age.

5854. That if any person or persons in this state shall violate the provisions of this act, he, she, or they shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay for each and every such offense the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Secs. 5855 to 5857. "An act for the punishment of players of three card monte, and other confidence games, and of persons for selling on railroad trains prize packages and other prizes." 1875, p. 21. In force February 25.

5855. Whoever shall, in this state, deal play, and practice, or be in any manner accessory to the dealing, playing, or practicing of the confidence game or swindle known as three card monte, or of any such game, play, or practice, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and by confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

5856. Whoever shall in this state, on any railroad car, coach, or train, practice any confidence game not mentioned in the preceding section, or shall sell any prize packages, or other prize, or offer the same for sale, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months.

Sec. 5858 formed sec. 1 of "An act defining certain crimes and providing punishment therefor." 1875, p. 26. In force June 1. (For secs. 2 to 4, sees ante, secs. 5707–9.

5858. That the infamous crime against nature, either with man or beast, shall subject the offender to be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than one year, and my [may] extend to life.

Secs. 5859 to 5864. "An act to suppress the circulation, advertising, and vending of obscene and immoral literature and articles of indecent and immoral use, and to confiscate such property," etc. 1887, p. 671. In force July 1. (Repealing criminal code, sec. 206.)

5859. Whoever sells, or offers for sale, or gives away, or has in his possession with intent to sell, loan, or give away, any obscene, lewd, indecent, or lascivious book, pamphlet, paper, drawing, lithograph, engraving, picture, photograph, model, cast, or any instrument, or article of indecent or immoral use, or advertises the same for sale, or writes or prints any letter, circular, handbill, card, book, pamphlet, advertisement, or notice of any kind, giving information, directly, or indirectly, when, where, how, or by what means any of the articles or things hereinbefore mentioned can be purchased or otherwise obtained or made, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars nor less than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

5860. Whoever deposits in any postoffice within this state, or places in charge of any person to be carried or conveyed, any of the articles or things named in section 1 of this act, or any circular, handbill, card, advertisement, book, pamphlet, or notice of any kind, giving information, directly or indirectly, when, how, where, or by what means any of the articles or things mentioned in section one (1) of this act can be purchased or obtained, or knowingly or willfully receives the same to carry or convey, or knowingly carries or conveys the same in any manner, except in the United States mail, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or both fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

5861. Whoever prints or publishes or causes to be printed or published in any newspaper published or circulated in this state any advertisement of medicine, drug, nostrum, or apparatus for the cure of private or venereal diseases, or shall circulate or distribute any newspaper containing such an advertisement or notice mentioned in this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor less than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

5862. Whoever sells, lends, gives away, or shows, or has in his possession with or without intent to sell, give away, or show to any minor child any book, pamphlet, magazine, newspaper, story paper, or other paper devoted to the publication, or principally made up of criminal news, police reports, or accounts of criminal deeds, or pictures and stories of immoral deeds, lust, or crime, or exhibits upon any street or highway, or any place within the view, or which may be within the view, of any minor child any of the above described books, papers, or pictures, or uses or employs any minor child to give away, sell, or distribute, or who, having the care, custody, or control of any minor child, permits such child to sell, give away, or distribute any such books, papers, or pictures above described, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) nor less than fifty dollars ($50), or be imprisoned not more than six months in the county jail, or both fined and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court.

5863. All magistrates in this state are authorized, on due complaint supported by oath or affirmation of one or more persons, to issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of the county within which such complaint shall be made, or to any constable or police officer within said county, directing him or them, or any of them, to search for, seize, and take possession of such books, papers, pictures, circulars, articles and things named in sections one (1) and four (4) of this act, and said magistrate shall deliver personally or shall transmit, enclosed and under seal, specimens thereof to the county attorney of his county, and shall deposit within the county jail of his county or other secure place as to him shall seem meet, enclosed and under seal, the remainder thereof, and shall, upon the conviction of the person or persons offending under the provisions of this act, forthwith, in the presence of the person or persons upon whose complaint the said seizure or arrest was made, if he or they shall elect to be present, destroy, or cause to be destroyed, the remainder thereof so seized as aforesaid, and shall cause to be entered upon the record of his court the fact of such destruction.

5864. Nothing in this act shall be construed to affect teaching in regular chartered medical colleges; or the publication or use of standard medical books, or the practice of regular practitioners of medicine, or druggists in their regular business; or the possession by artists of models in the necessary line of their art.

SAFETY.

Secs. 5865 to 5871. "An act relating to and to punish tramps." 1879, p. 64. In force June 1.

5865. Any person going about from place to place and asking or subsisting on charity shall be taken and deemed to be a tramp.

5866. Any tramp who shall ask and receive from any person of any precinct, town, village, or city within this state any food, clothing, lodging, or other assistance, may be requested by such person, in his or her discretion, to perform a reasonable amount of labor therefor, and any such tramp who shall refuse to perform any such labor when so requested shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than three dollars nor more than twenty dollars and cost of prosecution, and shall stand committed until the same is paid, but not exceeding one day for each dollar of fine; or may be imprisoned in the county jail, at hard labor, not less than three days nor more than twenty days, in the discretion of the court; but no such tramp shall be required to perform any such labor before six o'clock in the morning, or after six o'clock in the evening.

5867. Any tramp who shall willfully and maliciously do any injury to any person, or to the property, real or personal, of any person, or who shall procure food, clothing, or other property from any person by threats, or by force, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction thereof shall be punished by confinement, at hard labor, in the state prison for a term not exceeding three years and not less than one year.

5869. All prosecutions for any of the offenses described in section two of this act may be tried and determined by the county judge, any justice of the peace or magistrate of the county in which the offense is committed, or, if in the limits of any city, town, or village, by the police court of said city, town, or village, and any court before whom such prosecution is tried may sentence the offender to pay a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, and may issue his warrant to carry such judgment into effect in case no appeal is taken.

5871. In all prosecutions before a justice of the peace, or police court, for violations of the provisions of section two of this act, the costs of prosecution shall be paid out of the county, city, town, or village treasury.

PART II.—CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

CHAPTER XXIV.—DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS.

5872 (246). Unless when otherwise provided, words used in this code in the present tense include the future as well as the present. Words used in the masculine gender comprehend as well the feminine and neuter. The singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular. The term "writing" includes printing. The term "oath" includes an affirmation.

5873 (247). The term "felony" signifies such an offense as may be punished with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary. Any other offense is denominated a misdemeanor.

5875 (249). The term "prosecuting attorney" signifies the same as district attorney.

5876 (250). In the construction of this code each general provision shall be controlled by a special provision on the same subject, if there be a conflict.

Cited and construed with relation to libel law (5626), Koen v. State, 35, 681 (53 N. W., 595).

5878 (252). Whenever any property or interest is intended to be protected by a provision of the penal law, and the general term "person" or any other general term is used to designate the party whose property is intended to be protected, the provisions of such penal laws and the protection thereby given shall extend to the property of the state, or of any county, and of all public or private corporations.

5879 (253). The word "signature" includes the mark of a person unable to write his name; a mark shall have the same effect as a signature, when the name is written by some other person and the mark is made near thereto by the person unable to write his name.

5880 (254). Except where a word, term, or phrase is specially defined, all words used in this code are to be taken and construed in the sense in which they are understood in common language, taking into consideration the context and subject matter relative to which they are employed. The titles merely, to the various chapters, sections, or clauses of this act, which are written or printed upon the bill at the time of its passage, shall constitute no part of this act of the legislature.

5881 (255). No offense committed, and no fine, forfeiture, or penalty incurred under existing laws previous to the taking effect of this code, shall be affected by the repeal herein of any such existing laws, but the punishment of such offenses, the recovery of such fines and forfeitures shall take place as if said laws repealed had remained in force; Provided, That the manner of procedure for the enforcement or imposition of all such punishments, and the collection of all such fines and forfeitures, shall be in accordance or as nearly in accordance with the provisions of this code as the nature of the case will admit; and in any case whatsoever, should the procedure provided for in this code be wholly inadequate, the procedure provided for in the laws repealed by this code may be followed so far as necessary to prevent a failure of justice.

Manner of procedure is under the law as it existed at the time of the commission of the offense. Marion v. State, 20, 237 (29 N. W., 911). One charged with a capital crime must be tried under the law in force when crime committed. Marion v. State, 16, 356 (20 N. W., 289).

5882 (256). [Prosecutions—Limitations.]—No person or persons shall be prosecuted for any felony (treason, murder, arson, and forgery excepted), unless the indictment for the same shall be found by a grand jury, within three years next after the offense shall have been done or committed. Nor shall any person be prosecuted, tried or punished for any misdemeanor or other indictable offense below the grade of felony, or for any fine or forfeiture under any penal statute, unless the indictment, information, or action for the same shall be found or instituted within one year and six months from the time of committing the offense or incurring the fine or forfeiture, or within one year for any offense the punishment of which is restricted by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and to imprisonment not exceeding three months; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to any person fleeing from justice; Provided, also, That where any suit, information, or indictment for any crime or misdemeanor is limited by any statute to be brought or exhibited within any other time than is hereby limited, then the same shall be brought or exhibited within the time limited by such statute; And provided, also, That where any indictment, information, or suit shall be quashed, or the proceedings in the same set aside or reversed, on writ of error, the time during the pendency of such indictment, information, or suit so quashed, set aside, or reversed, shall not be reckoned within this statute, so as to bar any new indictment, information, or suit for the same offense.

5883 (257). All fines and punishments provided for in this code shall be enforced by the procedure provided for in this code so far as such procedure extends or can be made applicable.

5884 (258). Any person sentenced to be punished for any felony (when sentence shall not have been reversed or annulled) shall be deemed incompetent to be an elector or juror, or to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit within this state, unless said convict shall receive from the governor of this state a general pardon, under his hand and the seal of the state, in which case said convict shall be restored to his civil rights and privileges; Provided, however, That such pardon shall not release such convict from the costs of his conviction.

5885 (259). Any person who shall been actually imprisoned in the penitentiary of any other state or territory of this union, under sentence for the commission of any crime which, by the laws of this state, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall be deemed incompetent to be an elector or juror, or to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit within this state, unless said convict shall have received a general pardon from the governor of the state in which he may have been imprisoned, agreeably to the laws thereof.

CHAPTER XXV—Powers and Duties of Certain Officers.

5887 (261). In cities in which there is a police judge, the mayor shall not, except in cases of urgency or necessity, be required to hear or examine into any criminal charge or case, and any warrants issued by the mayor of such city shall be returnable before the judge of the police court.

5888 (262). The judges of the district courts in their respective districts, and the magistrates mentioned in section two hundred and sixty, in their respective counties, shall jointly and severally be conservators of the peace within their respective jurisdictions, and shall have full power to enforce or cause to be enforced all laws that now exist or that shall hereafter be made for the prevention and punishment of offienses, or for the preservation and observance of the peace. The said judges of the district courts shall have the same powers to require securities for the keeping of the peace, and the good behavior, and bail for appearance in courts to answer complaints to keep the peace, and for crimes and offenses committed in their respective districts as any of the magistrates aforesaid have in their respective counties.

5889 (263). Constables shall be ministerial officers of the courts holden by justices of the peace in criminal cases, within their respective counties. And it shall be their duty to apprehend and bring to justice felons and disturbers of the peace, and to suppress riots and to keep and preserve the peace within their respective counties. They shall have power, and they are hereby authorized to execute all writs and process in criminal cases throughout the county in which they may reside and where they were elected or appointed.

5890 (264). If any person or persons, who may be charged with the commission of a crime or offense made punishable by the laws of this state, shall abscond or remove from the county in which such crime or offense be charged to have been committed, it shall be lawful for any sheriff, constable, or other person to apprehend the person or persons so charged, and forthwith remove him, her, or them to the county in which the alleged crime may be said to have been committed, and deliver such person or persons to any magistrate in said county, who shall cause the person or persons so delivered to be dealt with as the law may direct.

5891 (265). Every city, town, or village marshal, lawfully holding such office, shall be the appropriate ministerial officer of the police court or mayor's court of the city or town or incorporated village, and as such shall have all the powers and be charged with all the duties of constables in the making of arrests, serving process, and preserving the peace, as prescribed in the last two preceding sections in criminal matters.

Police judge has no jurisdiction over felonies but to recognize them to district court. Thompson v. State, 6, 106.

5892 (266). That it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace within this state, upon the written application of any three freeholders of any township thereof, to appoint one or more special constables within such township, whose duty it shall be to watch and guard the property of said freeholders, and to protect the same from all unlawful acts, and in the discharge of their duty they shall have authority to make arrests. The justice making such appointment shall make a memorandum thereof upon his docket, and the same shall continue in force for one year, unless sooner revoked by such justice. The constables appointed by virtue of this section shall be paid in full for their services by the freeholders for whose benefit they are appointed, and shall receive no compensation except from said freeholders.

Secs. 5892*a* to 5892*c*. "An act to prohibit the importation of armed men into this state for police duty, and to prevent the appointment of any but residents for such service." 1893, ch. 51, p. 403. In force August 1.

5892*a*. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons or association, company or corporation to bring or import into this state any person or persons or association of persons for the purpose of discharging the duties devolving upon the police officers, sheriffs or constables in the protection or preservation of public or private property.

5892*b*. That no sheriff, mayor, chief of police, or members of board of police commissioners shall appoint any under sheriff or deputy for the protection of public or private property, except the person so appointed shall be a resident of this state.

5892*c*. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than three years. And if any company, association or corporation shall be guilty of violating this act such company, association or corporation shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand ($1,000) dollars nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars.

CHAPTER XXVI.—PROCEDURE TO PREVENT CRIMES AND OFFENSES.

5893 (267). Whenever any person shall make complaint in writing, upon oath, before any justice of the peace, mayor of any city or incorporated village, police judge, or probate judge, that he has just cause to fear and does fear, that another will commit any offense against the person or property of himself, his ward, or child, it shall be the duty of the magistrate before whom such complaint is made, to issue a warrant in the name of the state to any constable of the county, commanding him forthwith to arrest the person complained of, and him to take before such magistrate, or any other magistrate named in this section, of the same county, to answer such complaint.

5894 (268). When the party complained of shall be brought before the magistrate, he shall be heard in his defense, and all witnesses produced shall be examined upon oath, and if, upon such examination, the magistrate shall be of the opinion there is just cause for the complaint, he shall order the person complained of to enter into recognizance, with good and sufficient security in any sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, for his appearance before the district court on the first day of the next term thereof, or forthwith, if it be term time of said court, and in the meantime that he shall keep the peace, and be of good behavior generally, and especially toward the person complaining.

5895 (269). In default of such recognizance and security, as provided in the preceding section, the magistrate shall commit the person complained of to the jail of the county, there to remain until discharged by due course of law.

5896 (270). But if the magistrate, on the examination, shall be satisfied that there is no just cause for the complaint, it shall be his duty to discharge the accused, and render judgment, in the name of the state, against the party complaining, for the costs of the prosecution, and the same shall be collected by execution as in civil cases.

Justice can render judgment for costs only against the person complaining and only for costs of prosecution; and where complaint was filed by wife, on account of herself and also her husband, judgment for costs against husband was held erroneous. Erickson v. State, 10, 587 (7 N. W., 33).

5897 (271). In case the defendant is recognized or committed as aforesaid, the magistrate shall require the material witnesses in the case to enter into recognizance to appear in court, as described in section three hundred and three, three hundred and four, [and] three hundred and five.

5898 (272). All recognizances authorized to be taken as aforesaid, either in term time or vacation of that court to which the same may be returnable, shall be delivered or transmitted by the magistrate taking the same to the clerk of such court, without unnecessary delay, and before the commencement of the term of the court next thereafter to be holden, if such recognizance be taken in vacation; but if the same be taken in term time, then it shall be returned forthwith.

5899 (273). Every person who, in the presence of any magistrate specified in the first section, shall make an affray or threaten to kill or beat another or to commit any offense against the person or property of another, and every person who, in the presence of such officer, shall contend with hot and angry words to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered without process, or any other proof, to give such security as above specified in this title, and in case of failure or refusal, he may be committed in like manner as above specified [5895].

5900 (274). The district court to which any transcript or recognizance to keep the peace, as aforesaid, shall be returned, shall, upon the appearance of the parties complaining and complained of, examine the witnesses produced upon oath, and may either discharge the accused from his recognizance or commitment, or may order him to enter into such other and further security as may be just, thereafter to keep the peace and be of good behavior for such term of time as the court may order.

5901 (275). For want of such security the court shall commit the person accused to the jail of the county, there to remain until such order be complied with, or he be otherwise discharged by due course of law; but in no case shall a person so failing to give security be confined for a period of time exceeding one year.

5902 (276). Whether such person be held to bail or be committed for want thereof, the court shall, in either case, render judgment against him for the costs of the prosecution and award execution therefor.

5903 (277). When any person shall have been recognized to the court to keep the peace as aforesaid, and the complainant shall fail to prosecute his complaint, the party recognized shall be discharged unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

5904 (278). If the district court shall discharge the person accused on the examination of the complaint, or because the complainant has failed to appear, said court may, in its discretion, render judgment against the person complaining for the costs of prosecution, and award execution therefor.

5905 (279). If, at any time, the sheriff of any county, constable, or marshal, or other police officer of any city or incorporated village, shall have reason to believe that any person in his bailiwick is about to engage as principal in any fight or contention described in section seven of this code, or is in preparation or training to engage as principal in any fight or contention, he shall forthwith arrest such person and conduct him before any judge of the district court, or a magistrate in his county, and upon the proper affidavit being filed, prosecute the complaint; and thereupon the judge or magistrate shall inquire into the truth of said charge, and if he shall find it true, he shall require the accused to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, residents of this state, to be approved by such judge or magistrate, in a sum not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, conditioned that the accused will not engage in any such fight or contention within the period of one year from and after the date of such arrest, and in default of such recognizance, such judge, justice, or mayor shall commit the party accused to the jail of the county, there to remain until he gives such recognizance, with sureties; Provided, That if, after the expiration of one month, the person so confined is unable to enter into such recognizance, the probate judge of the proper county may discharge such person on his own recognizance, in the same amount and with the same conditions, on proof satisfactory to such judge, by the affidavit of the accused, and other evidence, that the person so confined will not engage or be concerned in any such fight or contention within the time limited in said recognizance.

5906 (280). Every such recognizance or affidavit taken shall be by such judge or magistrate certified to the district court of the proper county, where the same shall be recorded; and any district attorney who shall receive information, or have reason to believe, that the condition of any such recognizance has been broken, shall immediately bring suit thereon in any county of this state, collect the amount due thereon, and pay the same into the treasury of the proper county.

5907 (281). If any sheriff shall have information and reason to believe that such fight or contention as is described in section seven of this code is about to take place in his county, he shall forthwith summon a force of citizens of the county sufficient for the purpose, and suppress such fight or contention, and arrest all persons present thereat who may be found violating any of the provisions of section seven or section eight of this act, and take them before some judge of the district court, or a magistrate, to be dealt with as provided by law.

5908 (282). All the expenses of carrying into effect the provisions of the last three preceding sections shall, in the first instance, be paid out of the county treasury, on a certificate of a judge of the court or magistrate before whom such examination shall be had; and such court or magistrate shall proceed, upon finding such charge true, to collect, from the person or persons against whom said complaint was found true, all the costs in said proceedings, to be taxed as in other criminal proceedings, in the manner provided by law for collecting fines and costs in criminal cases, and shall pay the same when collected, into the treasury of the proper county.

CHAPTER XXVII.—ARREST AND ARRAIGNMENT BEFORE MAGISTRATES.

5909 (283). Every sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, or deputy marshal, watchman, or police officer shall arrest and detain any person found violating any law of this state, or any legal ordinance of any city or incorporated village, until a legal warrant can be obtained.

5910 (284). Any person not an officer may, without warrant, arrest any person, if a petit larceny or a felony has been committed, and there has been reasonable ground to believe the person arrested guilty of such offense, and may detain him until a legal warrant can be obtained.

A private person may legally arrest one supposed to be a horse-thief. Simmerman v. State, 16, 623 (21 N. W., 387).

5911 (285). Justices of the peace, mayors of cities and villages, police judges and probate judges, shall have power to issue process for the apprehension of any person charged with a criminal offense.

5912 (286). Whenever a complaint in writing and upon oath, signed by the complainant, shall be filed with the magistrate, charging any person with the commission of an offense against the laws of this state, it shall be the duty of such magistrate to issue a warrant for the arrest of the person accused, if he shall have reasonable grounds to believe that the offense charged has been committed.

Title is no part of the complaint, a complaint is necessary to a valid examination. White v. State, 28, 341 (44 N. W., 444). If crime charged positively, it is not fatal that complaint not sworn to positively. Brown v. State, 16, 658 (21 N. W., 454). May be sworn to before clerk of court and is usually sufficient if in the language of the statute. State v. Lauver, 26, 757 (42 N. W., 762). Cited, In re Garst, 10, 80 (4 N. W., 511).

5913 (287). When the offense charged is a misdemeanor, the magistrate, before issuing the warrant, may, at his discretion, require the complainant to acknowledge himself responsible for costs in case the complaint shall be dismissed, which acknowledgment of security for costs shall be entered on the docket, and the magistrate on dismissal may, if in his opinion the complaint was without probable cause, enter a judgment against such complainant for costs made thereon. And in case said magistrate shall consider such complainant wholly irresponsible, such magistrate may, in his discretion, refuse to issue any warrant unless the complainant procure some responsible security to the satisfaction of such magistrate for said costs in case of such dismissal, and said security shall acknowledge himself so bound, and the magistrate shall enter it on his docket.

Public officers not required to furnish security for costs. State v. McCutcheon, 20, 305 (30 N. W., 58). Costs can be adjudged against complainant only after a finding that the complaint was without probable cause or malicious. Cobbey v. Berger, 13, 463 (14 N. W., 396). Constable cannot demand fees in advance for summoning jurors. Beach v. State, ex rel. Emmons, 27, 400 (43 N. W., 177).

5914 (288). The warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or to any constable of the county, or if the same be issued by an officer of a municipal corporation authorized to issue such warrant, then to the marshal or other police officer of such corporation, and reciting the substance of the accusation, shall command the officer forthwith to take the accused, and bring him before the magistrate or court issuing the warrant, or some other magistrate having cognizance of the case, to be dealt with according to law; and no seal shall be necessary to the validity of the warrant.

5915 (289). The magistrate issuing any such warrant may make an order thereon authorizing a person to be named in such warrant to execute the same; and the person named in such order may execute such warrant anywhere in the state, by apprehending and conveying such offender before the magistrate issuing such warrant, or before some other magistrate of the same county; and all sheriffs, coroners, and constables and others, when required, in their respective counties, shall aid and assist in the execution of such warrant.

5916 (290). If any person charged as aforesaid with the commission of an offense shall flee from justice, it shall be lawful for the officer in whose hands the warrant for such person has been placed to pursue and arrest such person in any other county of this state, and him to convey before the magistrate issuing the warrant, or any other magistrate having cognizance of the case, of the county where such offense was committed.

5917 (291). If any person charged with an offense shall abscond or remove from the county in which such offense is alleged to have been committed, it shall be lawful for any magistrate of the county in which such person may be found to issue a warrant for the arrest and removal of such person to the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, to be there delivered to any magistrate of such county, who shall cause the person so delivered to be dealt with according to law, and the warrant so issued shall have the same force and effect as if issued from the county in which such offense is alleged to have been committed.

5918 (292). Any officer or other person having in lawful custody any person accused of an offense for the purpose of bringing him before the proper magistrate or court, may place and detain such prisoner in any county jail of this state, for one night or longer, as the occasion may require, so as to answer the purposes of the arrest and custody.

5919 (293). In executing a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with an offense, or a search warrant, the officer may break open any outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house or other building, if, after notice of his office and purpose he be refused admittance. But this section is not intended to authorize any officer executing a search warrant to enter any house or building not described in the warrant.

5920 (294). Whenever any person has been arrested under a warrant as provided in the preceding sections of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the officer making the arrest to take the person so arrested before the proper magistrate; and the warrant, by virtue of which the arrest was made, with a proper return endorsed thereon and signed by the officer, shall be delivered to such magistrate.

5921 (295). When any offense is committed in view of any magistrate, he may, by verbal direction to any sheriff or constable or marshal or other proper officer, or if no such officer be present, then to any citizen, cause the offender to be arrested and kept in custody for the space of one hour, unless he shall sooner be taken from such custody by virtue of a warrant issued on complaint under oath; but a person so arrested shall not be confined in jail nor put upon trial until arrested by virtue of such a warrant.

5922 (296). The county commissioners of the several counties in this state are hereby authorized, when they deem the same expedient, to offer such rewards as in their judgment the nature of the case may require, for the detection or apprehension of any person charged with or convicted of a felony, and pay the same on the conviction of such person, together with all necessary expenses not otherwise provided for by law, incurred in making such detection or apprehension, out of the county treasury.

Sec. 5923. "An act to authorize sheriffs to offer reward for the capture of horse thieves, and to provide for the payment of the same. 1879, p. 181. In force June 1.

5923. That the sheriffs of the several counties within this state are hereby authorized to offer and pay a reward not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars for the capture and conviction of any person charged with stealing a horse or horses within their respective counties, and the county commissioners of such counties shall audit the accounts of such sheriffs for money paid out as such rewards, together with all necessary expenses incurred in the apprehension and detention of any such horse thief, and pay the same out of the treasury of their county.

CHAPTER XXVIII.—ADJOURNMENT AND EXAMINATION BEFORE A MAGISTRATE.

5924 (297). If it shall become necessary for any just cause to adjourn the examination of any person brought before the magistrate as set forth in the preceding chapter, it shall be lawful for such magistrate to adjourn such examination and commit such person, from time to time, for safe keeping, to the jail of the county, until the cause of delay be removed, and no longer; Provided, The whole time of such confinement in the jail shall not exceed four days; Provided, also, That the officer having in custody any such person, may, by the written order of the magistrate, detain such person in custody in some secure and convenient place other than the jail, to be designated by said magistrate in his order, not exceeding four days. And it shall be the duty of the officer in whose custody any person shall be detained as above, to provide for the sustenance of such prisoner while in custody.

5925 (298). When it shall become necessary to adjourn any trial according to the provisions of the preceding section, the person accused may enter into a recognizance before the magistrate, with good and sufficient security to be approved by the magistrate, in such amount as he shall deem reasonable, conditioned for the appearance of such person before said magistrate, at a place and day and hour in said recognizance specified; Provided, That such adjournment shall not be for a longer time than twenty days without the consent of the accused; And provided, That no person shall be let to bail who is charged with an offense not bailable under the constitution of this state.

This does not apply to district court. Binfield v. State, 15, 486 (19 N. W., 607). Need not be entered at large on justice docket. Is binding when returned into district court by justice. King v. State, 18, 381 (25 N. W., 519).

5926 (299). If any person recognized, agreeably to the last preceding section, shall fail to appear at the time appointed, or shall otherwise fail to comply with the conditions of the recognizance, the magistrate shall declare the same forfeited, and transmit a transcript of his proceeding in the case, together with the recognizance, to the clerk of the proper court; and such proceedings shall be had thereon by said court as shall be deemed expedient, and as if the recognizance had been taken in said court.

5927 (300). When the complaint is for a felony, or for an offense for which the fine can exceed one hundred dollars, or the imprisonment can exceed three months, upon the accused being brought before the magistrate he shall proceed as soon as may be, in the presence of the accused, to inquire into the complaint.

5928 (301). The magistrate, if requested, or if he sees good cause therefor, shall order that the witnesses on both sides shall be examined each one separate from all the others, and that the witnesses for may be kept separate from the witnesses against the accused during the examination.

5929 (302). If, upon the whole examination, it appears that there has been no offense committed, or that there is not probable cause for holding the prisoner to answer the offense, he shall be discharged.

An examination under this statute is not a trial, and is no bar to another examination before another magistrate. In re Garst, 10, 81 (4 N. W., 511).

5930 (303). If it shall appear that an offense has been committed, and there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, the magistrate shall bind by recognizance such witnesses against the prisoner as he shall deem necessary, to appear and testify before the court having cognizance of the offense, on the first day of the next term thereof, and not to depart from such court without leave. If the court is in session, they shall be recognized to appear forthwith, but no recognizance requiring such witnesses to appear at the next term shall be invalid from the fact that the court is in session.

5931 (304). When the magistrate is satisfied that there is reason to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his own recognizance, he may, when the offense charged is a felony, order him to recognize with sufficient securities. Any person may recognize for a married woman or minor to appear as a witness, or the magistrate may take the recognizance of either in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, which shall be valid notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority.

5932 (305). If any witness so required to enter into a recognizance refuse to comply with such order, the magistrate shall commit him or her to jail until he or she comply with such order or be otherwise discharged according to law.

5933 (306). It shall be the duty of every magistrate in criminal proceedings to keep a docket thereof as in civil cases. All recognizances taken under this title, together with a transcript of the proceedings, where the defendant is held to answer, shall be certified and returned forthwith to the clerk of the court at which the prisoner is to appear. The transcript shall contain an accurate bill of all the costs that have accrued, and the items composing the same.

5934 (307). If the offense for which the prisoner is held to answer be bailable, and the prisoner offer sufficient bail, a recognizance shall be taken for his appearance to answer the charge before the court in which the same is cognizable on the first day of the next term thereof, and not to depart such court without leave, and thereupon he shall be discharged.

If the day fixed in the recognizance is in fact the first day of the next term of district court, it is sufficient. It is not necessary that names of signers be entered on body of recognizance. Holmes v. State, 17, 73 (22 N. W., 232).

5935 (308). If the court to which the accused is recognized to appear is in session, the condition of the recognizance shall be that he shall appear at such court forthwith, and not depart therefrom without leave; but no recognizance requiring the accused to appear at the next term shall be rendered invalid by the fact that the court is in session.

5936 (309). If on the examination it shall appear to the magistrate that the accused has committed an offense of a higher grade than that charged, he may be held to answer therefor.

5937 (310). If the offense be not bailable, or sufficient bail be not offered, the prisoner shall be committed to the jail of the county in which the same is to be tried, there to remain until he be discharged by due course of law.

5938 (311). It shall be the duty of the magistrate who shall commit any offender to jail, either because such offender is unable to procure bail for his appearance at court, or because the offense is not by law bailable, to write on the warrant of commitment the names and residences of the principal witnesses by whom the crime was proved before said magistrate.

Omission of name of county from mittimus no ground for discharge on habeas corpus. State v. Banks, 24, 324 (38 N. W., 830).

5939 (312). Whenever any prisoner in the custody of the sheriff or jailer of any county, on any warrant of commitment as aforesaid, shall demand of said sheriff or jailer a copy of said warrant of commitment, said sheriff or jailer shall endorse on said copy the names of the witnesses written thereon as aforesaid; and any magistrate who shall neglect to write the name or names of the witnesses aforesaid on the warrant of commitment, or any sheriff or jailer who shall neglect to endorse the name of said witness or witnesses on a copy of said commitment, each magistrate, sheriff, or jailer offending in the premises shall be fined in the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same in any court of record.

5940 (313). When the complaint is for a misdemeanor only, of any grade of punishment whatever, if the cause is pending before the probate judge of the county, before whom the defendant enters a plea of guilty to the complaint, it shall be lawful for such judge, in his discretion, to render judgment of fine or imprisonment, or both, according to the law of the case, and pass sentence accordingly, and enforce the same according to law.

County judge has jurisdiction to pass sentence for misdemeanor on plea of guilty for violation of liquor law. Ex parte Maule, 19, 273 (27 N. W., 119).

5941 (314). Magistrates shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the district court and co-extensive with their respective counties, in all cases of misdemeanor in which the fine cannot exceed one hundered dollars and the imprisonment cannot exceed three months, except as otherwise provided by law.

A justice of the peace has concurrent jurisdiction with the district judge to enforce the provisions of sec. 2187. Sanders v. State, 34, 877 (52 N. W., 721).

5942 (315). In all cases where the magistrate shall have jurisdiction to try and sentence or finally discharge, as described in the preceding section, the charge made against the defendant shall be distinctly read to him, and he shall be required to plead thereto, which plea the magistrate shall enter upon his docket. If the defendant refuse to plead, the magistrate shall enter the fact, with a plea of "not guilty" in his behalf.

5943 (316). After the plea of the defendant has been entered, if he plead not guilty, the defendant, or complainant, or the district attorney, if he be present, may demand a jury; but if no jury be demanded, the cause may be tried by the magistrate.

5945 (318). In case the defendant or the district attorney or complainant shall neglect to strike out such names, the magistrate shall proceed to strike out the names for either or both the parties so neglecting, and the magistrate shall issue a venire directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, requiring him to summons the six persons whose names shall remain upon the list to appear before such magistrate at a time and place to be named therein, to serve as jurors for the trial of such cause.

5946 (319). If the defendant consent, the cause may be tried before a jury of any number of men more than two and less than six, to be selected from a list of double the number so agreed upon, or qualified inhabitants of the county, as provided in the last preceding section, each party striking out names from the list alternately, until the number so agreed upon shall remain, the defendant striking out the first name.

5947 (320). The venire shall be served personally upon the jurors, and returned within the time therein specified. If any of the jurors named in such venire shall fail to attend in pursuance thereof, or if there shall be any legal objection to any that shall appear, the magistrate shall supply the deficiency by directing the sheriff or constable, or other ministerial officer who may be present, and disinterested, to summon any of the bystanders, or others who may be competent, and against whom no cause of challenge shall appear, to act as jurors in the cause. The magistrate may compel any delinquent juror to attend by attachment. If the officer to whom the venire for a jury shall have been delivered, shall fail to return the same as thereby required, or if the jury shall fail to agree, and be discharged by the magistrate, a new jury shall be selected and summoned in the same manner, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had as herein prescribed in respect to the first jury, unless the defendant shall consent to be tried by the magistrate, in which case the magistrate shall proceed to try the case as if no jury had been demanded.

5948 (321). In all trials for misdemeanors before a magistrate either party may challenge jurors for cause to the same extent as in trials for like offenses in the district court.

5949 (322). Whenever the defendant shall be tried under the provisions of this chapter, and found guilty either by the magistrate or jury, or shall enter a plea of guilty, the court shall render judgment thereon, assessing such punishment either by fine or imprisonment, or both, as the nature of the case may require and the law permit; in such case the defendant shall, in addition to the fine or imprisonment, be adjudged to pay the costs, and to be committed to the county jail until the judgment be complied with. Whenever the defendant, tried under the provisions of this chapter, shall be acquitted, he shall be immediately discharged, and if the magistrate or jury trying the case shall state in the finding that the complaint was malicious or without probable cause, the magistrate shall enter judgment against the complainant for all costs that shall have accrued in the proceedings had upon such complaint, and shall commit such complainant to jail until such costs be paid, unless he shall execute a bond to the people of the state of Nebraska in double the amount thereof, with security satisfactory to the justice, that he will pay such judgment within thirty days after the date of its rendition.

Complainant cannot be imprisoned for costs which are a mere civil liability. State v. Ensign, 11, 530 (10 N. W., 449). In a felony it is error for the court to tax the cost to the complaining witness; and a motion to retax costs is not necessary in such a case. Burton v. State, 34, 127 (51 N. W., 601).

5950 (323). The judgment of the magistrate shall be carried into effect as provided in chapter forty-nine [6148 et seq.]. Prosecutions under this twenty-ninth chapter shall be governed by the provisions of this criminal code, so far as the same are in their nature applicable.

Cited, State v. Ensign, 11, 531 (10 N. W., 449).

5951 (324). The defendant shall have the right of appeal from any judgment of a magistrate imposing fine or imprisonment, or both, under this chapter, to the district court of the county, which appeal shall be taken immediately upon the rendition of such judgment, and shall stay all further proceedings upon such judgment. No appeal shall be granted or proceedings stayed unless the appellant shall within twenty-four hours after the rendition of such judgment, enter into a recognizance to the people of the state of Nebraska in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and with sureties to be fixed and approved by the magistrate before whom said proceedings were had, conditioned for his appearance at the district court of the county at the next term thereof, to answer the complaint against him. The magistrate from whose judgment the appeal is taken shall make return of the proceedings had before him, and shall certify the complaint and warrant together with all recognizances to said district court, on or before the first day of the term thereof, next thereafter to be holden in the county, and he may also require the complainant and witnesses to enter into recognizances, with or without security, as he may deem best, to appear at said court at the time last aforesaid, and abide the order of said court, and in case of refusal to enter into such recognizance, he may enforce the same by imprisonment if necessary.

Right of appeal is restricted to defendant, and does not apply to a complainant against whom judgment for costs has been rendered. State v. Ensign, 11, 531 (10 N. W., 449). A recognizance proper should not be signed, but when it is otherwise properly taken and certified the signature may be treated as surplusage. Irwin v. State, 10, 329 (6 N. W., 370).

5952 (325). The district court shall hear and determine any cause under this act, brought by appeal from a magistrate, upon the original complaint, unless such complaint shall be found insufficient or defective, in which event the court, at any stage of the proceedings, shall order a new complaint to be filed therein, and the case shall proceed thereon the same in all respects as if the original complaint had not been set aside.

5953 (326). If, upon a trial in the district court, the defendant shall be convicted, the court shall assess the punishment and judgment shall be rendered against him accordingly, and for the costs before the magistrate, also for the costs in such court, and that he be committed to the county jail until the judgment be complied with.

5954 (327). If in the progress of any trial before a magistrate, under the provisions of this chapter, it shall appear that the defendant ought to be put upon his trial for an offense not cognizable before a magistrate, the magistrate shall immediately stop all further proceedings before him, and proceed as in other criminal cases, exclusively cognizable before the district court.

5955 (328). Whenever conviction shall be had before a magistrate under this chapter, he shall make a certificate of such conviction, under his hand, in which it shall be sufficient briefly to state the offense charged and the conviction and judgment thereon; and if any fine was assessed or collected, the amount so assessed and collected, with the date at which the same was so done. Such certificate shall be filed by the magistrate within twenty days after such conviction, in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such conviction was had; and the original, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be evidence in all the courts of this state of the facts therein contained.

5956 (329). The district attorney, if present in any county in his district, in which any trial for misdemeanor is about to take place, or is in progress under this chapter, shall, if not actually engaged in any other business connected with his said office, appear and prosecute in such trial, if requested by the magistrate or the complainant.

CHAPTER XXX.—FUGITIVES TO AND FROM OTHER STATES AND COUNTRIES.

5957 (330). When an affidavit shall be filed before any judge of a district court, or any judge of probate or police court, or any justice of the peace, within this state, setting forth that any person charged with the commission of any criminal offense against the laws of any other state or any of the territories of the United States, and which, if the act had been committed in this state, would, by the laws thereof, have been a crime, is at the time of filing such affidavit within the county where the same may be filed, it shall be lawful, and it is hereby made the duty of such judge or justice of the peace, to issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him forthwith to arrest and bring before the officer issuing such writ the person so charged.

The complaint must set out specifically the nature of the crime, and that some complaint or indictment has been made against the prisoner in the state or territory from which he fled. Smith v. State, 21, 557 (32 N. W., 594). Forbes v. Hicks, 27, 116 (42 N. W., 898).

5958 (331). When the person arrested, as provided in the last preceding section, shall be brought before the officer issuing such warrant, it shall be lawful, and it is hereby made the duty of such officer, to hear and examine such charge, and upon proof by him adjudged to be sufficient, to commit such person to the jail of the county in which such examination shall take place, or cause such person to be delivered to some suitable person, to be removed to the proper place of prosecution.

5959 (332). Whenever any person is committed to jail by any judge or justice of the peace. by either of the provisions of the preceding section, it shall be the duty of such judge or justice of the peace forthwith to give notice, by letter or otherwise, to the sheriff of the county in which such offense shall have been committed, or to the person injured by such offense, or to the proper authorized agent or officer; and no person so committed shall be delayed longer in jail than necessary to allow a reasonable time to the person so notified, after he shall have received such notice, to apply for and obtain the proper requisition for the person so committed.

5960 (333). Whenever a demand is made upon the governor of this state by the executive of any other state or territory, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery of any person charged in such state or territory with any crime, if such person is not held in custody or under bail to answer for any offense against the laws of the United States or of this state, he shall issue his warrant under the seal of the state, authorizing the agent who makes the demand, either forthwith or at such time as may be designated in the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of this state, at the expense of such agent, and may also by such warrant require all peace officers to afford needful assistance in the execution thereof.

5961 (334). The governor of this state may, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of any foreign government, any fugitive from justice charged with treason or felony, and the accounts of the agents appointed must be audited by the auditor, and paid out of the state funds.

CHAPTER XXXI.—SEARCH WARRANTS.

5962 (335). It shall be lawful for any magistrate to issue warrants to search any house or place: First—For property stolen, embezzled, or obtained under false pretenses or tokens. Second—For forged or counterfeit coins, stamps, labels, trade marks, bank bills, or other instruments in writing, or for counterfeiting instruments. Third—For books, pamphlets, ballads, or printed papers containing obscene language, prints, pictures, or descriptions, manifestly tending to corrupt the morals of youth, and intended to be sold or circulated. Fourth—For any gambling table, establishment, device or apparatus kept or exhibited for the purpose of unlawful gaming, and for any money or personal property won by unlawful gaming. Fifth—For the body of any deceased person alleged to have been unlawfully removed from its sepulchre or grave.

See Kinkaid v. Hiatt, 24, 562 (39 N. W., 600).

5963 (336). No warrant for search, as described in the preceeding section, shall be issued until a complaint in writing, upon oath, has been filed with the magistrate; such complaint shall be signed by the complainant, and particularly describe the house or place to be searched, the person to be seized, and the things to be searched for, and allege substantially the offense in relation thereto, and that the complainant verily believes that such things are there concealed.

5964 (337). The warrant for search shall be directed to the proper officer, and shall recite, by reference to the complaint annexed, or otherwise, all the material facts alleged in the complaint, and particularly describe the thing for which the search is to be made, the house or place to be searched, and the person to be seized. It shall command the officer to search such house or place in the day time, for the property or other things, and if found to seize and bring the same, together with the person to be seized, before the magistrate, or some other magistrate of the county having cognizance of the same.

5965 (338). If the magistrate is satisfied that there is urgent necessity therefor, the warrant may order the searching of such house or place in the night time.

5966 (339). When the warrant is executed by the seizure of the property or things described therein, the same shall be safely kept by the magistrate to be used as evidence.

5967 (340). If upon the examination the magistrate shall be satisfied that the offense set forth in the complaint, in reference to the property, or other thing, seized by the officer, has been committed, it shall be his duty either to keep possession of such property, or other things, or deliver them to the sheriff of the proper county, there to remain until the case against the offender has been disposed of, or the claimant's right has been otherwise ascertained.

5968 (341). Upon the conviction of the offender, the property stolen, embezzled, or obtained under false pretenses, shall be returned to its owner, and the other things specified shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed, under the direction of the court; but if the alleged offender shall be discharged, either before the magistrate or the court before which he is recognized to appear, the property or other things shall be returned to the person in whose possession they were found.

5969 (342). When the person in whose possession money, or other property, won at gambling has been found, shall be convicted of any of the offenses of gambling, or winning of money, or property by any unlawful gaming, such money or other property shall be liable to pay any judgment which may be rendered against such person.

5970 (343). Whenever any counterfeit coin or instrument for the purpose of making or gilding counterfeit coin shall be taken from the convicts, or persons indicted for counterfeiting, or having the same in possession with criminal intent, and shall remain in the keeping of any county officers, it shall be lawful for the commissioners of the proper county to melt the said counterfeit coin into a mass, or cast the same into other form than that of coin, and sell the same, together with the instruments aforesaid, and pay the avails into the treasury of such county; Provided, That said instruments be so mutilated and broken as to prevent their being applied to the purpose of counterfeiting.

5971 (344). When any property stolen, embezzled, or obtained under false pretenses, shall, after the trial of the person charged with the larceny, embezzlement, or false obtaining thereof, remain in the possession of any officer, unclaimed by the owner, for the space of three months, the same shall, after public notice in a newspaper printed in the county, be sold at auction to the highest bidder, under the direction of the prosecuting attorney, and the avails thereof paid over to the treasury of the county for the use of the common schools therein.

5972 (345). In case any property stolen, embezzled, or obtained under false pretenses shall remain in the custody of any officer for one year unclaimed, as aforesaid, and the thief shall not within that time be taken, or if taken shall escape, it shall be disposed of in like manner and for like purposes as indicated in the preceding section.

CHAPTER XXXII.—DISCHARGE ON BAIL BY JUDGES.

5973 (346). When any person charged with the commission of any bailable offense shall be confined in jail, whether committed by warrant under the hand and seal of any judge or magistrate, or by the sheriff or coroner, under any warrant upon indictment found, it shall be lawful for any judge of the supreme court, judge of the district court within his district, or probate judge within his county, or police judge within the city of his jurisdiction, to admit such person to bail, by recognizing such person in such sum and with such securities as to such judge shall seem proper, conditioned for his appearance before the proper court, to answer the offense wherewith he may be charged.

Cited, State v. Speice, 24, 388-9 (38 N. W., 837).

5974 (347). For taking such bail, the judge may, by his special warrant, under his hand and seal, require the sheriff or jailer to bring such accused before him, at the court house of the proper county, at such time as in such warrant the judge may direct.

5975 (348). In fixing the amount of bail, the judge admitting to the same shall be governed in the amount and quality of bail required by the direction of the district court in all cases where such court shall have made any order or direction in that behalf.

5976 (349). In all cases when a judge or examining court shall recognize a prisoner under the provisions of the four preceding sections, he shall forthwith deposit with the clerk of the proper court the recognizance so taken, and also a warrant directed to the jailer requiring him to discharge the prisoner.

CHAPTER XXXIII.—SURRENDER BY SURETY.

5977 (350). When any person who is surety in a recognizance for the appearance of any defendant before any court in this state desires to surrender the defendant, he shall, by delivering the said defendant in open court, be discharged from any further responsibility on said recognizance; and the said defendant shall be committed by the court to the jail of the county, unless he shall give a new recognizance, with good and sufficient sureties, in such amount as the court may determine, conditioned as the original recognizance.

5978 (351). In all cases of bail for the appearance of any person or persons charged with any criminal offense, the security or securities of such person or persons may, at any time before judgment is rendered upon scire facias to show cause why execution should not issue against such security or securities, seize and surrender such person or persons charged as aforesaid to the sheriff of the county wherein the recognizance shall be taken.

5979 (352). And it shall be the duty of such sheriff, on such surrender and the delivery to him of a certified copy of the recognizance by which such security or securities are bound, to take such person or persons so charged as aforesaid into custody, and by writing acknowledge such surrender, and thereupon the security or securities shall be discharged from any such recognizance, upon payment of all costs occasioned thereby.

CHAPTER XXXIV.—HABEAS CORPUS.

5980 (353). If any person, except persons convicted of some crime or offense for which they stand committed, or persons committed for treason or felony, the punishment whereof is capital, plainly and specially expressed in the warrant of commitment, now is or shall be confined in any jail of this state, or shall be unlawfully deprived of his or her liberty, and shall make application either by him or herself, or by any person on his or her behalf, to any one of the judges of the district court, or to any probate judge, and does at the same time produce to such judge a copy of the commitment or cause of detention of such person, or if the person so imprisoned or detained is imprisoned or detained without any legal authority, upon making the same appear to such judge, by oath or affirmation, it shall be his duty forthwith to allow a writ of habeas corpus, which writ shall be issued forthwith by the clerk of the district court, or by the probate judge, as the case may require, under the seal of the court whereof the person allowing such writ is a judge, directed to the proper officer, person, or persons who detains such prisoner.

It is not to be used as a writ of error. Ex parte Fisher, 6, 310. Petition must state the facts which constitute the illegal restraint. Where ground alleged is want of probable cause, petition should set forth all the testimony taken before the examining magistrate. State, ex rel. Distin, v. Ensign, 13, 251 (13 N. W., 216). Where examining court has jurisdiction, and it is clearly shown that an offense has been committed, and there is testimony showing that the accused probably committed it, supreme court will not weigh the evidence. In re Balcom, 12, 316 (11 N. W., 312). Party entitled to writ who has been arrested in another state, and, without extradition, brought forcibly into Nebraska and imprisoned. In re Robinson, 29, 138 (45 N. W., 267). Writ not allowed for the discharge of one committed by justice for threats of murder clearly shown to have been made. State v. Banks, 24, 325–6 (38 N. W., 830).

5981 (354). It shall be the duty of the officer or person to whom such writ shall be directed to convey the person or persons so imprisoned or detained and named in such writ before the judge allowing the same, or, in case of his absence or disability, before some other judge of the same court, on the day specified in such writ, and shall make due return of said writ, together with the day and cause of the caption and detention of such person, according to the command thereof.

5982 (355). Whenever a habeas corpus shall be issued to bring the body of any prisoner committed as aforesaid, unless the court or judge issuing the same shall deem it wholly unnecessary and useless, the said court or judge shall issue a subpœna to the sheriff of the county where said person shall be confined, commanding him to summon the witness or witnesses therein named to appear before such judge or court, at the time and place when and where such habeas corpus shall be returnable; it shall be the duty of such sheriff to serve said subpœna, if it be possible, in time to enable such witness or witnesses to attend.

5983 (356). It shall be the duty of the witness or witnesses thus served with said subpœna to attend and give evidence before the judge or court issuing the same, on pain of being guilty of a contempt, and shall be proceeded against accordingly by said judge or court.

5984 (357). On the hearing of any habeas corpus issued as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the judge or court who shall hear the same to examine the witness or witnesses aforesaid, and such other witnesses as the prisoner may request, touching any offense mentioned in the warrant of commitment as aforesaid, whether said offense be technically set out in said commitment or not, and upon which hearing said judge or court may either recommit, bail, or discharge the prisoner, according to the facts of the case.

5985 (358). When the said judge shall have examined into the cause of the caption and detention of the person so brought before him, and shall be satisfied that the person is unlawfully imprisoned or detained, he shall forthwith discharge such prisoner from said confinement. And in case the person or persons applying for such writ shall be confined or detained in a legal manner, on a charge of having committed any crime or offense, the said judge shall, at his discretion, commit, discharge, or let to bail such person or persons, and if the said judge shall deem the offense bailable, on the principles of law, he shall cause the person charged as aforesaid to enter into recognizance, with one or more sufficient securities, in such sum as the judge shall think reasonable, the circumstances of the prisoner and the nature of the offense charged considered, conditioned for his appearance at the next court where the offense is cognizable; and said judge shall certify his proceedings, together with the recognizance, forthwith, to the proper court; and if the person or persons charged as aforesaid shall fail to enter into such recognizance, he or they shall be committed to prison by such judge.

5986 (359). If any person to whom such writ of habeas corpus shall be directed as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to obey or make return of the same according to the command thereof, or shall make a false return of said writ, or upon demand made by the prisoner, or any person in his or her behalf, shall refuse to deliver to the person demanding, within six hours after the demand thereof, a true copy of the warrant, or commitment, or detainer of such prisoner, every person so offending shall, for the first offense, forfeit to the party aggrieved the sum of two hundred dollars, and for the second offense the sum of four hundred dollars, and shall, if an officer, be incapable to hold his said office.

5988 (361). Any person who shall be set at large upon any habeas corpus shall not be again imprisoned for the same offense, unless by the legal order or process of the court wherein he or she shall be bound by recognizance to appear, or other court having jurisdiction of the cause or offense. And if any person shall knowingly, contrary to this chapter, recommit or imprison, or cause to be recommitted or imprisoned for the same offense or pretended offense, any person so set at large, or shall knowingly aid or assist therein, he shall forfeit to the party aggrieved five hundred dollars, any colorable pretense or variation in the warrant or commitment notwithstanding.

5989 (362). If any person of this state shall be committed to prison, or be in custody of any officer for any criminal matter, such prisoner shall not be removed therefrom into the custody of any other officer, unless by legal process, or when the prisoner shall be delivered to some inferior officer to carry to jail, or shall, by order of the proper court, be removed from one place to another within the state, for trial, or in case of fire, infection, or other necessity; and if any person, after such commitment, shall make out or sign, or countersign, any warrant for such removal, contrary to this chapter, he or she shall, for every such offense, forfeit to the party aggrieved five hundred dollars.

5990 (363). When any person shall appear to be committed by any judge or magistrate, and charged as accessory before the fact to any felony, the punishment whereof is capital, which felony shall be plainly and specially charged in the warrant of commitment, such person shall not be removed or bailed by virtue of this chapter, or in any other manner than as if this chapter had not been enacted.

5991 (364). No citizen of this state, being an inhabitant or resident of the same, shall be sent a prisoner to any place whatever out of the state, for any crime or offense committed within this state, except in cases specially authorized by law, and every such imprisonment is hereby declared to be illegal. And if any such citizen shall be so imprisoned, he may for every such imprisonment maintain an action of false imprisonment in any court having cognizance thereof, against the person or persons by whom he shall be so imprisoned or transported contrary to law, and against any person who shall contrive, write, seal, sign, or countersign any writing for such imprisonment or transportation, or shall be aiding and assisting in the same, or any of them, and shall recover triple costs besides damages, which damages so to be given shall not be less than five hundred dollars; and every person knowingly concerned in any manner as aforesaid, in such illegal imprisonment or transportation, contrary to this chapter, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be disabled from thenceforth to bear any office of trust or profit within this state; Provided, That if any citizen of this state, or any person or persons at any time resident in the same, shall have committed, or shall be charged with having committed, any treason, felony, or misdemeanor, in any other part of the United States or territories where he or she ought to be tried for such offense, he, she, or they may be sent to the state or territory having jurisdiction of the offense.

5992 (365). The penalties in this chapter made recoverable shall be recovered by the party aggrieved, his or her executors or administrators, by civil action in any court having cognizance of the same; Provided, That no person shall be sued or molested for any offense against this chapter, unless within two years after the time when such offense shall have been committed; but if the party aggrieved shall then be in prison, then within two years after the decease of the person imprisoned, or his or her delivery out of prison. And in every such action it shall be lawful for the defendant to plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence.

5993 (366). If any person shall be committed to prison, or be in custody of any officer for any criminal matter, by virtue of any warrant or commitment of any magistrate of this state having jurisdiction of such criminal matter, such person shall not be discharged from such imprisonment or custody by reason of any informality or defect of such warrant or commitment; Provided, Such warrant or commitment shall show substantially a criminal matter for which such magistrate had jurisdiction so to arrest or commit.

If affidavit for arrest tends to show a cause for arrest, defendant not discharged on habeas. Ex parte Davis, 17, 436 (23 N. W., 361).

5994 (367). In case of confinement, imprisonment, or detention by any person not a sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner, jailer, constable, or marshal of this state, nor a marshal or other like officer of the courts of the United States, the writ of habeas corpus shall be in the form following: The State of Nebraska, —— County, ss. The state of Nebraska to the sheriff of said county, greeting: We command you, that the body of ——, of ——, by ——, of —— imprisoned and restrained of his liberty, as it is said, you take and have before ——, a judge of our —— court —— or, in case of his absence or disability, before some other judge of the same court at ——, forthwith to do and receive what our said judge shall then and there consider —— concerning him in his behalf, and summon the said —— then and there to appear before our said judge to show the cause of the taking and detaining the said ——; and have you there this writ with your doings thereon. Witness ——, at ——, this —— day of ——, in the year ——. [Seal.] —— .

5995 (368). Such writ may be served in any county by any sheriff of the same or of any other county. When such writ shall be issued by a court in session, if such court shall have adjourned when the same is returned, it shall be returned before any judge of the same court, and if such writ is returned before one judge at a time when the court is in session, he may adjourn the case into the court, there to be heard and determined.

5996 (369). The person having the custody of the prisoner may, in all writs of habeas corpus issued under this chapter, be designated by his name of office, if he have any, or by his own name; or, if both such names are unknown or uncertain, he may be described by an assumed appellation, and any person who is served with the writ shall be deemed the person intended thereby.

5997 (370). The person to be produced shall be designated by his name, if known, and if that is unknown or uncertain, he may be described in any other way so as to make known who is intended.

5998 (371). In cases other than those provided for by the first section of this chapter the person who makes the return shall state therein, and in the cases provided for in this chapter the person in whose custody the prisoner shall be found shall state in writing to the court or judge before whom the writ is returned, plainly and unequivocally: First—Whether he has or has not the party in his custody or power, or under restraint. Second—If he has the party in his custody or power, or under restraint, he shall set forth at large the authority and the true and whole cause of such imprisonment and restraint, with a copy of the writ, warrant, or other process, if any, upon which the party is detained. Third—If he has had the party in his custody or power, or under restraint, and has transfered such custody or restraint to another, he shall state particularly to whom, at what time, for what cause and by what authority such transfer was made.

5999 (372). The return or statement shall be signed by the person making it, and it shall be sworn to by him, unless he is a public officer, and shall make the return in his official capacity.

6000 (373). Upon the return of any writ of habeas corpus, issued as aforesaid, if it shall appear that the person detained or imprisoned is in custody, under any warrant or commitment in pursuance of the law, the return shall be considered as prima facie evidence of the cause of detention; but if the person so imprisoned or detained is restrained of liberty by any alleged private authority, the return of said writ shall be considered only as a plea of the facts therein set forth, and the party claiming the custody shall be held to make proof of such facts; and upon the final disposition of any case arising upon a writ of habeas corpus, the court or judge determining the same, shall make such order as to costs as the case may require.

6001 (374). When any writ of habeas corpus shall have been allowed, the court or judge to which the same shall be returned, or into which it shall be adjourned, shall, for good cause shown, continue the said cause, and shall make order for the safe keeping of the person imprisoned, or detain him, as the nature of the case may require.

6002 (375). The proceedings upon any writ of habeas corpus shall be recorded by the clerks and judges respectively, and may be reviewed, and writs of error and certiorari may issue as in other cases now provided by law.

6003 (376). The probate judges of the several counties of this state shall be allowed the sum of two dollars for every allowance of the writ of habeas corpus, and the hearing and determining of the case upon the return of such writ, which sum, together with the fees of the clerk, sheriff, and witnesses in the case, shall be taxed by such probate judge on his return of his proceedings on such writ, and the same, when the person brought before such judge on such writ was in custody by virtue of the proceedings in any case in which such person is charged or attempted to be charged with the commission of any criminal offense, and when such person shall either be held to bail, or shall be remanded to custody by such judge, shall be taxed and collected as part of the original cost in such case; but when such person shall be wholly discharged by such judge, such costs shall be taxed to the state, and paid out of the county treasury of the proper county, upon the order of the county commissioners; Provided, That no person or officer shall have the right to demand the payment in advance of any fees which such person or officer may be entitled to by virtue of such proceedings on habeas corpus, when such writ shall have been issued or demanded for the discharge from custody of any person confined under color of proceedings in any criminal case.

CHAPTER XXXV.—Custody of Prisoners.

6004 (377). Whenever it shall be lawful and necessary to confine any prisoner in custody previous to conviction upon a criminal accusation, or in custody for contempt, or alleged contempt of court, or upon an attachment by order of a court or judge, or otherwise in lawful custody, or upon conviction for any offense, and there shall be no secure jail in the proper county, the officer or person having him in such custody may convey him to, and confine him in the jail of any county in this state, or other secure and convenient place of confinement in this state, to be procured by such officer or person having such prisoner in custody.

* to * inserted 1875, p. 17. Money received by sheriff for such service is received in an official capacity. Martin v. Seeley, 15, 138 (17 N. W., 346). See James v. Lincoln County, 5, 41.

6005 (378). The cost of keeping and maintaining any prisoner after his conviction of any offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, wherever he may be kept and confined, shall be paid by the state, according to the rate which may be established by law at the time when such services may be rendered or expenses incurred; Provided, The rate so established shall not be construed to apply to any contract which the governor may make for the confinement of convicts in the penitentiary of a state.

Wording corrected, 1875, p. 132.

6006 (379). The auditor of the state shall allow the account for the costs provided for in the last section, and draw warrants upon the treasury therefor, upon being furnished with a certified copy of the judgment or sentence of the court under which such convict is imprisoned, and an account, verified by affidavit, showing where and how long such convict has been kept, pursuant to such sentence.

6007 (380). The cost of keeping and maintaining any prisoner previous to his conviction of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or either before or after his conviction of an offense not so punishable, or when he shall not be convicted of any offense, shall be paid by the county in which the offense may be committed, or alleged to have been committed.

6008 (381). Every county attached for judicial purposes to another county shall be liable for costs heretofore or hereafter incurred in the prosecution of any person accused of the commission of an offense within the county so attached, and for costs in any other judicial proceeding originating therein, to the same extent, and on the same conditions, as if such prosecution were carried on or such proceedings were had within such county so attached; Provided, That the fees of jurors shall be paid by the county from which they may be drawn.

6009 (382). The costs to be paid under this chapter, by any county, shall be such as may be provided by law at the time when the services may be rendered or the expenses incurred, and shall be allowed by the commissioners of the proper county, upon the certificate of the clerk of the district court that such costs have been taxed by him or by the court, and are chargeable upon such county.

CHAPTER XXXVI.—Filing and Record of Recognizance.

6010 (383). Whenever a transcript or recognizance shall be returned to the clerk, it shall be his duty to enter the cause upon the appearance docket of the court, together with the date of the filing of the transcript and recognizance, the date and amount of the recognizance, the names of the sureties and the costs; whereupon the same shall be considered as of record in such court, and proceeded on by process issuing out of said court, in the same manner as if such recognizance had been entered into before such court; and when any court, having cognizance of a crime, shall take a recognizance, it shall be a sufficient record thereof on the journal of such court, to enter upon the journal the title of the cause, the crime charged, the name of the party, and his sureties thereto, the amount of such recognizance, and the time therein required for the appearance of the accused, and the same shall be considered as of record in such court; but in making up the complete record in any case, when one is required to be made, all recognizance, whether returned to or taken in such court, shall be recorded in full, if required by the prosecuting attorney or the accused.

Recognizance becomes a valid obligation when taken by justice and returned into district court. King v. State, 18, 383 (25 N. W., 519). Recognizance in bastardy proceedings valid against security though not entered on docket. State v. Moran, 24, 104-5 (38 N. W., 29). Omission of docket entries may be corrected by nunc pro tunc order. State v. Moran, 24, 105 (38 N. W., 29). Cited, State v. Speice, 24, 390 (38 N. W., 837).

CHAPTER XXXVII.—Proceedings Upon Forfeiture of Recognizance.

6011 (384). When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer, or testify in any court, shall fail to perform the conditions of such recognizance, his default shall be recorded, and the recognizance forfeited in open court.

6012 (385). Whenever such recognizance shall have been forfeited as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the recognizance was taken, to prosecute the same by civil action for the penalty thereof; and such action shall be governed by the provisions of the code of civil procedure, so far as the same may be applicable.

Money forfeited by one recognized to appear in district court of county to which venue has been changed, belongs to such county. State v. Speice, 24, 390-1 (38 N. W., 837).

6013 (386). The court in which the action for the penalty of any forfeited recognizance is brought may remit or reduce any part or the whole of such pen alty, and may render judgment thereon according to the circumstances of the case and the situation of the party, and upon such terms and conditions as to such court shall seem just and reasonable.

6014 (387). Whenever any judgment shall have been rendered against the defendants for the whole or any part of the penalty of a forfeited recognizance, as aforesaid, the court rendering said judgment shall have power to remit or reduce the amount thereof, when it shall be made to appear that after the rendition thereof the accused had been arrested and surrendered to the proper court, to be tried on such charge.

6015 (388). No action brought on any recognizance shall be barred or defeated, nor shall judgment thereon be reversed by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default, nor by reason of any defect in the form of the recognizance if it sufficiently appear from the tenor thereof at what court the party or witness was bound to appear and that the court or officer before whom it was taken was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.—DISCHARGE FROM CUSTODY OR FROM RECOGNIZANCE.

6016 (389). Any person held in jail charged with an indictable offense shall be discharged if he be not indicted at the term of the court at which he is held to answer, unless such person shall have been committed to jail on such charge after the rising and final report of the regular grand jury for said term, in which case the court in its discretion may discharge such person or order a new grand jury, as provided in section four hundred and five, or require such person to enter into recognizance with sufficient security for his appearance before said court to answer such charge at the next term thereof; Provided, That such person so held in jail without indictment shall not be discharged, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the witnesses on the part of the state have been enticed or kept away or are detained and prevented from attending court by sickness or some inevitable accident.

Where the witnesses on the part of the state have not been prevented from attending court, and no indictment has been found against the accused, at the term at which he is held to answer, he should be discharged. Ex parte Two Calf, 11, 221 (9 N. W., 44).

6017 (390). If any person indicted for any offense and committed to prison shall not be brought to trial before the end of the second term of the court having jurisdiction of the offense, which shall be held after such indictment found, he shall be entitled to be discharged, so far as relates to the offense for which he was committed, unless the delay shall happen on the application of the prisoner.

6018 (391). If any person indicted for any offense, who has given bail for his appearance, shall not be brought to trial before the end of the third term of the court in which the cause is pending, held after such indictment is found, he shall be entitled to be discharged, so far as relates to such offense, unless the delay happen on his application, or be occasioned by the want of time to try such cause at such third term.

6019 (392). If, when application is made for the discharge of a defendant under either of the last two sections, the court shall be satisfied there is material evidence on the part of the state, which cannot then be had, that reasonable exertions have been made to procure the same, and that there is just ground to believe that such evidence can be had at the succeeding term, the cause may be continued, and the prisoner remanded or admitted to bail, as the case may require.

CHAPTER XXXIX.—GRAND JURY.

6020 (393). Before the first day of each term of a court at which a grand jury shall be summoned to appear, the clerk of said court shall make out two lists, on which he shall enter the names of all persons who appear, by the returns of the magistrates, to have been either committed or bailed for an offense during the vacation of such court, the name of the magistrate who committed or bailed, and distinguishing whether such person was committed or bailed; one of these lists shall be delivered by the judge to the foreman of the grand jury, and the other, together with all the transcripts and other documents returned by the magistrates, shall be delivered to the prosecuting attorney.

6022 (395). When the foreman shall be appointed, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to him in the following words: "Saving yourself and fellow jurors, you, as foreman of this grand inquest, shall diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge or otherwise come to your knowledge, touching the present service. The counsel of the state, your own, and your fellows', you shall keep secret, unless called on in a court of justice to make disclosures. You shall present no person through malice, hatred, or ill-will, nor shall you leave any person unpresented through fear, favor, or affection, or for any reward or hope thereof; but in all your presentments you shall present the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your skill and understanding."

6024 (397). The grand jury, after being sworn, shall be charged as to their duty by the judge, who shall call their attention particularly to the obligation of secrecy which their oaths impose, and to such offenses as he is by law required to specially charge.

6025 (398). After the charge of the court, the grand jury shall retire with the officer appointed to attend to them, and shall proceed to inquire of and present all offenses whatever committed within the limits of the county in and for which they were impaneled and sworn or affirmed.

6026 (399). The prosecuting attorney or the assistant prosecuting attorney shall be allowed at all times to appear before the grand jury for the purpose of giving information relative to any matter cognizable by them, or giving them advice upon any legal matter they may require, and he may interrogate witnesses before them when they or he shall deem it necessary; but no other person shall be permitted to remain in the room with said jury while they are expressing their views or giving their votes on any matter before them.

6027 (400). Whenever required by the grand jury, or the prosecuting attorney, the clerk of the court in which such jury is impaneled shall issue subpœnas and other process to bring witnesses to testify before such grand jury.

6028 (401). Before any witness shall be examined by the grand jury, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to him, truly to testify of such matters and things as may be lawfully required of him before said jury, which oath or affirmation may be administered either by the foreman of said jury or by the clerk of the proper court.

6029 (402). If any witness appearing before a grand jury shall refuse to answer any interrogatories during the course of his examination, the fact shall be communicated to the court in writing, in which the question refused to be answered shall be stated, together with the excuse for the refusal, if any be given by the person interrogated; and the court shall thereupon determine whether the witness is bound to answer or not, and the grand jury shall be immediately informed of the decision.

6030 (403). If the court determine that the witness is bound to answer, and he persist in his refusal, he shall be brought before the court, who shall proceed in the same manner as if the witness had been interrogated and refused to answer in open court.

6031 (404). In case of the sickness, death, discharge, or non-attendance of any grand juror, after the grand jury shall be affirmed or sworn, it shall be lawful for the court, at their discretion, to cause another to be sworn or affirmed in his stead.

6032 (405). After the discharge of the grand jury, it shall be lawful for the court, when it shall be deemed necessary, to order the sheriff to call together a new grand jury from the bystanders or neighboring citizens, of sixteen good and lawful men, having the qualifications of grand jurors, who shall be returned and sworn or affirmed, and shall proceed in the same manner in all respects as provided by law in respect to grand juries.

After discharge of regular panel, court may order a new one summoned. Drake v. State, 14, 538 (17 N. W., 117).

6033 (406). No grand juror or officer of the court shall disclose that an indictment has been found against any person not in custody or under bail, except by the issuing of process, until the indictment is filed and the case docketed.

6034 (407). No grand juror shall be allowed to state or testify in any court in what manner he or other members of the grand jury voted on any question before them, or what opinion was expressed by any juror in relation to such question.

6035 (408). At least twelve of the grand jurors must concur in the finding of an indictment; when so found the foreman shall endorse on such indictment the words "A true bill," and subscribe his name thereto as foreman.

6036 (409). The grand jury shall, once at each term of the court at which they may be in attendance, visit the county jail, examine and report its condition as required by law.

6037 (410). Indictments found by a grand jury shall be presented by their foreman to the court, and shall be filed with the clerk, who shall endorse thereon the day of their filing, and shall enter each case upon the appearance docket, and also upon the trial docket of the term, as soon as the parties indicted have been arrested.

6038 (411). The court shall assign said indictments for trial at as early a time in such term as is practicable, and the recognizance of parties and witnesses shall, in all such causes, be taken for their appearance at the time so assigned; and in case of the continuance of any cause to the next term of the court, such recognizances shall be for the appearance of the parties and witnesses on such day thereof as the court may direct; and at the end of the term the clerk shall deliver the indictments undisposed of to the prosecuting attorney for safe keeping.

CHAPTER XL.—Of Indictments.

First—By the omission of the words "with force and arms," or any words of similar import; or, Second—By omitting to charge any offense to have been contrary to a statute or statutes; or, Third—For the omission of the words, "as appears by the record," nor for omitting to state the time at which the offense was committed, in any case where time is not of the essence of the offense; nor for stating the time imperfectly; nor for want of a statement of the value or price of any matter or thing or the amount of damages, or injury, in any case where the value or price, or the amount of damages, or injury is not of the essence of the offense; nor for the want of an allegation of the time or place of any material fact, when the time and place have once been stated in the indictment; nor that dates and numbers are represented by figures; nor for an omission to allege that the grand jurors were impaneled, sworn, or charged; nor for any surplusage or repugnant allegation when there is sufficient matter alleged to indicate the crime or person charged, nor for want of the averment of any matter not necessary to be proved; nor for any other defect or imperfection which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits.

Descriptive averments in an indictment must be proved as alleged. Prehm v. State, 22, 676 (36 N. W., 295). Defective indictment may be withdrawn and information charging same offense substituted. Alderman v. State, 24, 100 (38 N. W., 36). Omission of word "chosen" not fatal. Mere surplusage in an indictment will not vitiate it. Reading of indictment may be waived in court by counsel for prisoner. Kruger v. State, 1, 370. Time is only material to bring the offense within the statute of limitations. Brown v. State, 16, 660 (21 N. W., 454). Time and place once stated need not be repeated. Fisk v. State, 9, 64 (2 N. W., 381). Prosecutor not compelled to elect which count he will proceed upon in an indictment charging prisoner with shooting with intent to kill and shooting with intent to wound. Candy v. State, 8, 486. On charge of stealing from a corporation, articles of incorporation need not be introduced. Braithwaite v. State, 28, 835 (45 N. W., 247). Cited, Rakes v. People, 2, 162. When contain negative averments in prosecution under board of health act. Gee Wo v. State, 36, — (54 N. W., 513).

6040 (413). Whenever on trial of any indictment for any offense there shall appear to be any variance between the statement in such indictment, and the evidence offered in proof thereof in the Christian name or surname, or both Christian and surname, or other description whatever of any person whomsoever therein named or described, or in the name or description of any matter or thing whatsoever therein named or described, such variance shall not be deemed ground for an acquittal of the defendant, unless the court before which the trial shall be had, shall find that such variance is material to the merits of the case or may be prejudicial to the defendant.

Name of witness alleged to be John M. Thayer, shown to be Jeremiah; variance fatal. Gandy v. State, 27, 745 (43 N. W., 747; 44 N. W., 108). See Guthrie v. State, 16, 672 (21 N. W., 455).

6041 (414). In any indictment for falsely making, altering, forging, printing, photographing, uttering, disposing of or putting off any instrument, it shall be sufficient to set forth the purport and value thereof.

6042 (415). In any indictment for engraving or making the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing, or for using or having the unlawful custody or possession of any plate or other material upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing shall have been engraved or made, or for having the unlawful custody or possession of any paper upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing shall have been made or printed, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument, matter, or thing by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known.

6043 (416). That in all other cases whenever it shall be necessary to make any averment in any indictment as to any instrument, whether the same consists wholly or in part of writing, print, or figures, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof.

6044 (417). It shall be sufficient in any indictment where it shall be necessary to allege an intent to defraud, to allege that the party accused did the act with intent to defraud without alleging an intent to defraud any particular person or body corporate, and on the trial of any such indictment, it shall not be necessary to prove an intent to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the party accused did the act charged with the intent to defraud.

In an information for uttering a bank draft with a forged indorsement thereon, it need not be alleged that the bank is a corporation or that there was an intent to defraud any particular person. Roush v. State, 34, 325 (51 N. W., 755).

6045 (418). When any offense shall be committed upon or in relation to any property belonging to several partners or owners, the indictment for such offense shall be deemed sufficient if it allege such property belonged to any one or more of such partners or owners, without naming all of them.

6046 (419). An indictment for larceny may contain also a count for obtaining the same property by false pretenses, or a count for embezzlement thereof, and for receiving or concealing the same property, knowing it to have been stolen; and the jury may convict of either offense, and may find all or any of the persons indicted guilty of either of the offenses charged in the indictment.

6047 (420). In every indictment in which it shall be necessary to make any averment as to any money, or bank bill, or notes, United States treasury notes, postal and fractional currency, or other bills, bonds, or notes, issued by lawful authority and intended to pass and circulate as money, it shall be sufficient to describe such money or bills, notes, currency, or bonds, simply as money, without specifying any particular coin, note, bill, or bond; and such allegation shall be sustained by proof of any amount of coin or of any such note, bill, currency, or bond, although the particular species of coin of which such amount was composed, or the particular nature of such note, bill, currency, or bond shall not be proved.

6048 (421). When an offense shall be committed in relation to any election, an indictment for such offense shall be deemed sufficient if it allege that such election was authorized by law, without stating the names of the officers holding the election, or the persons voted for, or the offices to be filled at such election.

6049 (422). That in every indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offense charged upon the defendant, and before what court or authority the oath or affirmation was taken, averring such court or authority to have full power to administer the same, together with the proper averment or counts to falsify the matter or matters wherein the perjury is assigned, without setting forth any part of any record or proceeding, in law or equity, other than as aforesaid, and without setting forth the commission or authority of the court, or other authority before whom the perjury was committed.

6050 (423). Whenever any person shall be liable to prosecution as the receiver of any personal property that shall have been feloniously stolen, taken, or embezzled, he may be indicted in any county where he received or had such property, notwithstanding the theft was committed in another county.

6051 (424). When an offense shall be committed on a county line, the trial may be in either county divided by such line; and where any offense shall be committed against the person of another, and the person committing the offense shall be in one county, and the person receiving the injury shall be in another county, the trial may be had in either of said counties.

6052 (425). In any indictment for manslaughter, it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which, or the means by which, the death was caused; but it shall be sufficient to charge that the defendant did unlawfully kill and slay the deceased.

CHAPTER XLI.—ARREST AND ITS INCIDENTS AFTER INDICTMENT.

6053 (426). A warrant may be issued in term time or in vacation of the court, on an indictment found or presentment made in any county, and when directed to the sheriff of the county where such indictment was found, or presentment made, it shall be lawful for such officer to pursue and arrest the accused named in such warrant, in any county of this state where he may be found, and commit him to jail, or hold him to bail, as provided in this code [6055 et seq.].

6054 (427). When the party accused shall reside out of the county in which such indictment was found, it shall be lawful to issue a warrant thereon, directed to the sheriff of the county where the accused shall reside or may be found; and it shall be the duty of such officer to arrest the accused and convey him to the county from which such writ was issued, and there commit him to the jail of said county, or hold him [to bail], as provided in the preceding section.

6055 (428). When any sheriff or other officer shall be charged with the execution of a warrant issued on any indictment for a misdemeanor, he shall, during the vacation of the court from which the writ issued, have authority to take the recognizance of the person so indicted, together with sufficient sureties, resident and freeholders in the county from which such writ issued, in a sum of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, conditioned for the appearance of such person on the first day of the next term of such court.

6056 (429). The sheriff or other officer shall return the said writ according to the command thereof, with the name of the surety or sureties, together with the recognizance taken as aforesaid; and the recognizance so taken and returned shall be filed and recorded by the clerk of the court to which the same was returned, and may be proceeded on in the same way as if such recognizance had been taken in said court during term time.

6057 (430). When any person shall have been indicted for a felony, and the person so indicted shall not have been arrested or recognized to appear before the court, the court may, at their discretion, make an entry of the cause on their journal, and may order the amount in which the party [indicted] may be recognized for his appearance by any officer charged with the duty of arresting him.

Taken before sheriff void as a common law obligation. Dickinson v. State, 20, 81 (29 N.W. 184).

6058 (431). The clerk issuing a warrant on such an indictment shall endorse thereon the sum in which the recognizance of the accused was ordered as aforesaid to be taken.

6059 (432). The officer charged with the execution of the warrant aforesaid shall take the recognizance of the party accused in the sum ordered as aforesaid, together with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the appearance of the accused at the return of the writ before the court out of which the same issued; and such officer shall return such recognizance to the said court, to be recorded and proceeded on as provided in this code.

6060 (433). All recognizances taken during vacation of any court, by any judge or other officer thereof authorized to take them, shall be signed and sealed by the parties, and certified to by the officer taking the same.

6061 (434). Whenever any convict in the penitentiary shall be indicted for any offense committed while confined therein, said convict shall remain in the custody of the warden of said penitentiary, subject to the order of the district court of the county where the penitentiary, in which such convict is confined, is situate.

CHAPTER XLII.—Motions and Issues Upon the Indictment.

6062 (435). If there be at any time pending against the same defendant two or more indictments for the same criminal act, the prosecuting attorney shall be required to elect upon which he will proceed; and upon trial being had thereon the remaining indictment shall be quashed.

Information charging same offense as defective indictment may be substituted for latter. Alderman v. State, 24, 100 (38 N. W., 36).

6063 (436). The clerk of the district court shall, upon the filing of any indictment with him, and after the person indicted is in custody or let to bail, cause the same to be entered of record on the journal of said court, and in case of the loss of the original, such record or a certified copy thereof shall be used in the place thereof upon the trial of the cause. And* within twenty-four (24) hours after the filing of an indictment for felony, and in every other case on request, the clerk shall make and deliver to the sheriff, the defendant or his counsel, a copy of the indictment, and the sheriff on receiving such copy shall serve the same upon the defendant; and no one shall be, without his assent, arraigned or called on to answer to any indictment until one day shall have elapsed, after receiving in person or by counsel, or having an opportunity to receive a copy of such indictment as aforesaid.

All before * added and section otherwise amended 1877, p. 4. In force June 1. The right to a copy of the indictment and one day to prepare for trial cannot be denied. Zink v. State, 34, 37 (51 N. W., 294).

6064 (437). The court before whom any person shall be indicted for any offense which is capital, or punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, is hereby authorized and required to assign to such person counsel not exceeding two, if the prisoner has not the ability to procure counsel, and they shall have full access to the prisoner at all reasonable hours; and it shall not be lawful for the county clerk or county commisioners of any county in the state to audit or allow an account, [bill], or claim hereafter presented by an attorney or counselor at law for services performed under the provisions of this section, until said account, bill, or claim shall have been examined and allowed by the court before whom said trial is had, and the amount so allowed for such services certified by said court; Provided, That no such account, bill, or claim shall in any case, except in cases of homicide, exceed one hundred dollars.

Certificate of judge allowing amount is not conclusive on county board. County v. Armstrong, 23, 766 (37 N. W., 626). Cited, Henekerl v. Gage Co., 14, 19 (14 N. W., 549).

6065 (438). The court shall allow the accused a reasonable time to examine the indictment and prepare exceptions thereto.

6066 (439). The accused may except to an indictment by: First—A motion to quash. Second—A plea in abatement. Third—A demurrer.

6067 (440). A motion to quash may be made in all cases, when there is a defect apparent upon the face of the record, including defects in the form of the indictment or in the manner in which an offense is charged.

On motion to quash where crime alleged is same as in complaint before magistrate, district court will not inquire into validity of latter. Alderman v. State, 24, 99 (38 N. W., 36).

6068 (441). A plea in abatement may be made when there is a defect in the record, which is shown by facts extrinsic thereto.

Objections to inequality of the selection and other errors are waived, unless objected to before trial by motion to quash the panel. That the information is not sworn to is waived, unless motion to quash be made before pleading to the information. Davis v. State, 31, 252 (47 N. W., 854). Plea on ground that grand jury was not legally selected and chosen must point out the particular cause of illegality. Baldwin v. State, 12, 61 (10 N. W., 463). An order overruling plea in abatement to an indictment is not a final order, and error cannot be founded thereon until prisoner's conviction. Gartner v. State, 36, — (54 N. W., 516).

6069 (442.) The accused may demur when the facts stated in the indictment do not constitute an offense punishable by the laws of this state, or when the intent is not alleged, when proof of it is necessary to make out the offense charged.

6070 (443). When a motion to quash, or a plea in abatement, has been adjudged in favor of the accused, he may be committed or held to bail in such sum as the court may require for his appearance at the first day of the next term of said court.

6071 (444). The accused shall be taken to have waived all defects which may be excepted to by a motion to quash, or a plea in abatement, by demurring to an indictment or pleading in bar, or the general issue.

6072 (445). If the accused shall plead in abatement that he is not indicted by his true name, he must plead what his true name is, which shall be entered on the minutes of the court, and after such entry the trial and all other proceedings on the indictment shall be had against him by that name, referring also to the name by which he is indicted, in the same manner in all respects as if he had been indicted by his true name.

6073 (446). To any plea in abatement the prosecuting attorney may demur if it is not sufficient in substance, or he may reply, setting forth any facts which may show that there is no defect in the record as charged in the plea.

6074 (447). After a demurrer to an indictment has been overruled, the accused may plead "not guilty," or in bar.

6075 (448). The accused shall be arraigned by reading to him the indictment, unless, in cases of indictments for misdemeanors, the reading shall be waived by the accused by the nature of the charge being made known to him, and he shall then be asked whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offense charged.

6076 (449). The accused may then offer a plea in bar to the indictment that he has before had judgment of acquittal, or been convicted, or been pardoned for the same offense; and to this plea the prosecuting attorney may reply that there is no record of such acquittal or conviction, or that there has been no pardon; and on the trial of such issue to a jury the accused must produce the record of such conviction or acquittal, or the pardon, and prove that he is the same person charged in the record, or mentioned in the pardon; and shall be permitted to adduce such other evidence as may be necessary to establish the identity of the offense.

Plea of former conviction should show that the court had jurisdiction of the alleged offense. Thompson v. State, 6, 107. A demurrer may be interposed to plea in bar. Jury impaneled and discharged on account of defect in indictment not good in bar. State v. Priebnow, 16, 133 (19 N.W., 628). Murphey v. State, 25, 809 (41 N. W., 792).

6077 (450). No plea in bar or abatement shall be received by the court unless it be in writing, signed by the accused, and sworn to before some competent officer.

6078 (451). If the issue on the plea in bar be found against the defendant, or if upon the arraignment the accused offer no plea in bar, he shall plead "guilty" or "not guilty;" but if he plead evasively, or stand mute, he shall be taken to have plead "not guilty."

6079 (452). If the accused plead "guilty," the plea shall be recorded on the indictment, and the accused shall be placed in the custody of the sheriff until sentence.

Failure to endorse plea on indictment not fatal. Preuit v. People, 5, 380.

6080 (453). If the accused plead "not guilty," the plea shall be entered on the indictment, and the prosecuting attorney shall, under the direction of the court, designate a day for trial, which shall be a day of the term at which the plea is made, unless the court for good reasons continue the case to a subsequent term.

6081 (454). A person that becomes lunatic or insane after the commission of a crime or misdemeanor ought not to be tried for the offense during the continuance of the lunacy or insanity. If, after verdict of guilty, and before judgment pronounced, such person become lunatic or insane, then no judgment shall be given while such lunacy or insanity shall continue. And if, after judgment and before execution of the sentence, such person shall become lunatic or insane, then in case the punishment be capital, the execution thereof shall be stayed until the recovery of said person from the insanity or lunacy. In all such cases it shall be the duty of the court to impanel a jury to try the question whether the accused be, at the time of impaneling, insane or lunatic.

CHAPTER XLIII.—CHANGE OF VENUE.

6082 (455). All criminal cases shall be tried in the county where the offense was committed unless it shall appear to the court by affidavits that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had therein; in which case the court may direct the person accused to be tried in some adjoining county.

Venue need not be established by direct testimony. Weinecke v. State, 34, 14 (51 N. W., 307). Change of venue discretionary with the court. Smith v. State, 4, 286. Power to order change confined to district court of county where crime is committed. Gandy v. State, 27, 720 (43 N. W., 747; 44 N. W., 108). It should be made to appear to the court by affidavits that a fair and impartial verdict cannot be had in county where offense was committed. Preuit v. People, 5, 380.

6083 (456). When the venue is changed to an adjoining county, the clerk of the court in which the indictment was found shall make a certified transcript of all the proceedings in the case, which, together with the original indictment, he shall transmit to the clerk of the court to which the venue is changed, and the trial shall be conducted in all respects as if the offender had been indicted in the county to which the venue has been changed. All costs, fees, charges, and expenses accruing from a change of venue, together with all costs, fees, charges, and expenses made or incurred in the trial of, or in keeping, guarding, and maintaining the accused, shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found, and the clerk of the trial court shall make a statement of the costs, fees, charges, and expenses aforesaid, and certify and transmit the same to the clerk of the district court where the indictment was found, to be by him entered upon his docket and collected and paid as if a change of venue had not been had.

Amended 1883, p. 329; 1887, p. 667. The expenses of the county in which the cause is tried including jurors, bailiffs, use of court room, etc., are not costs to be borne by the county where indictment is found. Stanton Co. v. Madison Co., 10, 308 (4 N. W., 1055). The county in which the offense was committed is liable for the fees of an attorney appointed to assist, under sec. 3110. Fuller v. County of Madison, 33, 425 (50 N.W., 255). Money forfeited by one recognized to appear in district court of county to which venue has been changed belongs to such county. State v. Speice, 24, 390–1 (38 N. W., 837).

6084 (457). When a court has ordered a change of venue, a warrant shall be issued by the clerk, directed to the sheriff, commanding him safely to convey the prisoner to the jail of the county where he is to be tried, there to be safely kept by the jailer thereof until discharged by due course of law.

6085 (458). When a change of venue is allowed, the court shall recognize the witnesses on the part of the state to appear before the court in which the prisoner is to be tried.

CHAPTER XLIV.—PREPARATION FOR EVIDENCE.

6086 (459). In all criminal cases it shall be the duty of the clerk, upon a precipe being filed, to issue writs of subpœna for all witnesses named therein, directed to the sheriff of his county, or of any county of the state where the witnesses reside or may be found, which shall be served and returned as in other cases; and such sheriff, by writing indorsed on said writs, may depute any disinterested person to serve and return the same.

6087 (460). If the subpœna be served by such special deputy, it shall he his duty, after serving the same, to return thereon the manner in which the same was served; and also make oath or affirmation to the truth of said return, before some person competent to administer oaths; which shall be indorsed on such writ, and the same shall be returned according to the command thereof by the person serving the same through the post-office or otherwise.

6088 (461). Any person accused of crime amounting to felony shall have compulsory process to enforce the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and they shall be paid for their mileage and per diem the same fees as are now, or may hereafter be allowed by law, to witnesses for the state in the prosecution of such accused person, and in case such accused person is convicted and is unable to pay such mileage and per diem to his witnesses, they shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county wherein such crime was committed; and in case such accused person is acquitted upon his trial, the fees of his witnesses shall be likewise paid out of such county treasury; Provided, however, That in no case shall the fees of any such witnesses be so paid, unless before the trial of such accusation such accused person shall make and file his affidavit stating the names of his witnesses, and that he has made a statement to his counsel of the facts he expects to prove by such witnesses, and has been advised by such counsel that their testimony is material on the trial of such accusation, and shall also file an affidavit of such counsel that he deems the testimony of such witnesses necessary and material on behalf of such accused person, whereupon the court or judge shall make an order directing that such witnesses, not exceeding fifteen in number, be paid out of the county treasury of the county in which such accusation shall be made.

Rewritten 1885, p. 395.

6089 (462). Where any issue of fact is joined on any indictment, and any material witness for the defendant resides out of the state, or residing within the state, is sick or infirm, or is about to leave the state such defendant may apply in writing to the court in term time, or the judge thereof in vacation, for a commission to examine such witness upon interrogatories thereto annexed, and such court or judge may grant the same, and order what and for how long a time notice shall be given the prosecuting attorney before the witness shall be examined.

Newman v. State, 22, 358 (35 N. W., 194).

6090 (463). The proceedings in taking the examination of such witness and returning it to court shall be governed in all respects as the taking of depositions in all civil cases.

CHAPTER XLV.—TRIAL OF INDICTMENTS.

Prisoner must be present at his trial. Dodge v. People, 4, 226. Cannot waive this right. Burley v. State, 1, 391. Arguments on motions and demurrers, before commencement of trial, may be heard in absence of accused. Miller v. State, 29, 441 (45 N. W., 451). If statutory requirement not complied with, judgment will be reversed. Dodge v. People, 4, 233. Presence of prisoner necessary at the place where the homicide was alleged to have been committed. Fillion v. State, 5, 353.

6092 (465). When two or more persons are indicted for felony, each person so indicted shall, on application to the court for that pupose, be separately tried, *and every person charged with felony shall be furnished, previous to his trial, with a copy of the indictment, and at his request, with a list of the witnesses upon whose testimony the indictment was found.

All after * added 1875, p. 17.

6093. That when two or more persons shall have been charged together in the same indictment or information with a crime, and one or more shall have demanded a separate trial, and had the same, and when the court shall be satisfied, by reason of the same evidence being required in the further trial of parties to the same indictment or information, that the regular panel and bystanders are incompetent because of having heard the evidence, to sit in further causes in the same indictment or information, then it shall be lawful for the court to require the clerk of the court to write the names of sixty electors of the county wherein said cause is being tried, each upon a separate slip of paper, and place the same in a box, and after the same shall have been thoroughly mixed, to draw therefrom such a number as in the opinion of the court will be sufficient from which to select a jury to hear said cause, and the electors whose names are so drawn shall be summoned by the sheriff to forthwith appear before the court, and after having been examined, such as are found competent and shall have no lawful excuse for not serving as jurors shall constitute a special venire from which the court shall proceed to have a jury impaneled for the trial of the cause, and the court may repeat the exercise of this power until all the parties charged in the same indictment or information shall have been tried.

6094 (466). In all [criminal] cases, except as may be otherwise expressly provided, the jury summoned and impaneled according to the provisions of the laws in force relating to the summoning and impaneling of juries in other cases, shall try the accused.

Jurors are not judges of the law. Parish v. State, 14, 63 (15 N. W., 357).

6095 (467). Every person arraigned for any crime, punishable with death, shall be admitted, on his trial, to a peremptory challenge of sixteen jurors, and no more; and every person arraigned for any offense that may be punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding eighteen months, shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of eight jurors; and in all other criminal trials, the defendant shall be allowed a peremptory challenge of six jurors. The attorney prosecuting on behalf of the state, shall be admitted to a peremptory challenge of six jurors, in all cases where the offense charged is punishable with death, and of three jurors in all other cases.

Prisoner waiving his challenge cannot object to a disqualified juror when he knew of such disqualification at the time. Palmer v. People, 4, 74. Curran v. Percival, 21, 436 (32 N. W., 213). Peremptory challenges to jurors are not to be exercised until the jurors have been passed for cause, and twelve men are in the box. Rutherford v. State, 32, 714 (49 N. W., 701). Error in overruling challenge for cause, of one shown to be biased, not cured by subsequent peremptory challenge as part of defense. Thurman v. State, 27, 633 (43 N. W., 404).

6096 (468). The following shall be good causes for challenge to any person called as a juror on the trial of any indictment: First—That he was a member of the grand jury which found the indictment. Second—That he has formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused; Provided, That if a juror shall state that he has formed or expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, the court shall thereupon proceed to examine, on oath, such juror as to the ground of such opinion; and if it shall appear to have been founded upon reading newspaper statements, communications, comments, or reports, or upon rumor, or hearsay, and not upon conversations with witnesses of the transactions, or reading reports of their testimony, or hearing them testify, and the juror shall say, on oath, that he feels able, notwithstanding such opinion to render an impartial verdict upon the law and the evidence, the court, if satisfied that such juror is impartial, and will render such verdict, may, in its discretion, admit such juror as competent to serve in such case. Third—In indictments for an offense the punishment whereof is capital, that his opinions are such as to preclude him from finding the accused guilty of an offense punishable with death. Fourth—That he is a relation, within the fifth degree, to the person alleged to be injured, or attempted to be injured, or to the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted or to the defendant. Fifth—That he has served on a petit jury which was sworn in the same cause against the same defendant, and which jury either rendered a verdict which was set aside, or was discharged after hearing the evidence. Sixth—That he has served as a juror in a civil case brought against the defendant for the same act. Seventh—That he has been in good faith subpœnaed as a witness in the case. Eighth—That he is an habitual drunkard. Ninth—The same challenges shall be allowed in criminal prosecutions that are allowed to parties in civil cases.

If a proposed juror is a relative within the fifth degree to a defendant it is ground of challenge. Marion v. State, 20, 237 (29 N. W., 911). The failure to interrogate a juror on his voir dire as to his residence, is a waiver of the objection that he was not a resident of the county. Hickey v. State, 12, 491 (11 N. W., 744). Questions on voir dire examination should be confined strictly to juror's feeling as to bias. Gandy v. State, 27, 707 (43 N. W., 747; 44 N. W., 108). Juror shown to be incompetent from statements on voir dire. Thurman v. State, 27, 631 (43 N. W., 404). When it appears that juror has formed an opinion from reading reports of testimony, though he might swear that he could render an impartial verdict, yet he is incompetent. Carroll v. State, 5, 33. Juryman who thought he could "return a fair and impartial verdict but might lean a little the other way," held incompetent. Curry v. State, 4, 545. One who discloses that he has an opinion which will require evidence to remove, disqualified, though he thinks he could render an impartial verdict. Miller v. State, 29, 445 (45 N. W., 451). An opinion based upon a hypothetical case may not disqualify a man as a juror. Murphy v. State, 15, 384 (19 N. W., 489). Mere impressions will not disqualify. Curry v. State, 5, 415. When juror's convictions are such that in a case depending upon circumstantial evidence would preclude him from returning a verdict of guilty, if the punishment would be death, juror is incompetent. St. Louis v. State, 8, 412. See Palmer v. People, 4, 75; Curry v. State, 4, 548; Carroll v. State, 5, 31; Smith v. State, 5, 182; Cowan v. State, 22, 523 (35 N. W., 405); Johnson v. State, 34, 257 (51 N. W., 835). Order of exercising right. Rutherford v. State, 32, 716 (49 N. W., 701). Cited, The Anarchist Case, 8 Sup. Ct. Rep., 26.

6097 (469). All challenges for cause shall be tried by the court, on the oath of the person challenged, or on other evidence, and such challenge shall be made before the jury is sworn, and not afterward.

6098 (470). If two or more persons be put on trial at the same time, each must be allowed his separate peremptory challenge.

6099 (471). When all challenges have been made, the following oath shall be administered: "You shall well and truly try, and true deliverance make, between the state of Nebraska and the prisoner at the bar (giving his or her name); so help you God."

Any agreement of the jury to avoid agreeing upon a verdict is a violation of this oath. Green v. State, 10, 104 (4 N. W., 422).

6100 (472). Any juror shall be allowed to make affirmation, and the words "this you do as you shall answer under the pains and penalties of perjury" shall be substituted instead of the words "so help you God."

6101 (473). No person shall be disqualified as a witness in any criminal prosecution, by reason of his interest in the event of the same, as a party or otherwise, or by reason of his conviction of any crime, but such interest or conviction may be shown for the purpose of affecting his credibility. In the trial of all indictments, complaints, and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes or offenses, the person so charged shall, at his own request, but not otherwise, be deemed a competent witness; nor shall the neglect or refusal to testify create any presumption against him, nor shall any reference be made to, nor any comment upon, such neglect or refusal.

Confessions to be admissible should be made voluntarily and without inducement of any kind. Dodge v. People, 4, 230. Witness's interest in the case to be considered. St. Louis v. State, 8, 418. All statements made by a prisoner are to be taken together. Walrath v. State, 8, 86.

6102 (474). When two or more persons shall be indicted together, the court may, at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, direct any one of the defendants to be discharged, that he may be a witness for the state. An accused may, also, when there is not sufficient evidence to put him upon his defense, be discharged by the court; or, if not discharged by the court, shall be entitled to the immediate verdict of the jury, for the purpose of giving evidence for others accused with him; such order of discharge in either case shall be a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

One jointly indicted is a competent witness. Carroll v. State, 5, 35. Cited, Burger v. State, 34, 401 (51 N. W., 1027).

6103 (475). In trials for taking a woman away with intent to force her to be married or defiled, and for seduction, for the purpose of prostitution, no conviction shall be had on the evidence of the female offended against, unsupported by other evidence.

6104 (476). In trials for conspiracy, in cases when an overt act is required by law to consummate the offense, no conviction shall be had unless one or more overt acts be expressly alleged in the indictment, nor unless one or more of the acts so alleged be proved on trial; but other overt acts not alleged in the indictment may be given in evidence on the part of the prosecution.

6105 (477). In trials for treason, no evidence shall be given of any overt act that is not expressly laid in the indictment; and no conviction shall be had upon any indictment for said offense, unless one or more overt acts be expressly alleged therein. No person shall be convicted of treason but by the testimony of two lawful witnesses to the same overt act of treason whereof he stands indicted, unless he confesses the same in open court; and no person shall be convicted of an offense under the twenty-third or twenty-fourth section of this code, but by the testimony of two credible witnesses, unless the person indicted confesses his guilt in open court.

6106 (478). After the jury has been empaneled and sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order: First—The counsel for the state must state the case of the prosecution, and may briefly state the evidence by which he expects to sustain it. Second—The defendant, or his counsel must then state his defense, and may briefly state the evidence he expects to offer in support of it. Third—The state must first produce its evidence; the defendant will then produce his evidence. Fourth—The state will then be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, shall permit it to offer evidence in chief. Fifth—When the evidence is concluded, either party may request instructions to the jury on the points of law, which shall be given or refused by the court; which instructions shall be reduced to writing if either party require it. Sixth—When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted without argument, the counsel for the state shall commence, the defendant or his counsel follow, and the counsel for the state conclude the argument to the jury. Seventh—The court, after the argument is concluded, shall immediately, and before proceeding with other business, charge the jury; which charge, or any charge given after the conclusion of the argument, shall be reduced to writing by the court, if either party request it, before the argument to the jury is commenced; and such charge or charges, or any other charge or instruction provided for in this section, when so written and given, shall in no case be orally qualified, modified, or in any manner explained to the jury by the court; and all written charges and instructions shall be taken by the jury in their retirement and returned with their verdict into court, and shall remain on file with the papers of the case.

Order of introduction of testimony discretionary with the court. Clough v. State, 7, 337. Prosecutor may reopen his case and introduce testimony even after defense has examined witnesses. Clough v. State, 7, 341. Examination of witnesses. Clough v. State, 7, 340. Interested witnesses. Preuit v. State, 5, 384. Improper conduct of counsel during trial. Walrath v. State, 8, 89. Rule governing addresses of counsel. Carr v. State, 23, 762 (37 N. W., 630).

6107 (479). Whenever in the opinion of the court it is proper for the jury to have a view of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order them to be conducted in a body, under the charge of the sheriff, to the place which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the court. While the jury are thus absent, no person other than the sheriff having them in charge, and the person appointed to show them the place, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

6108 (480). When it shall appear at any time before the verdict that a mistake has been made in charging the proper offense, the accused shall not be discharged if there appear to be good cause to detain him in custody; but the court must recognize him to answer to the offense on the first day of the next term of such court; and shall, if necessary, likewise recognize the witnesses to appear and testify.

6109 (481). When a jury has been impaneled in a case contemplated by the preceding section, such jury may be discharged without prejudice to the prosecution.

Paper stricken from the files no part of the case unless brought in by order of court, or preserved in bill of exceptions. Clough v. State, 7, 354.

6110 (482). In all cases where a defendant shall feel himself aggrieved by any opinion or decision of the court, he may present his bill of exceptions thereto; and it shall be the duty of the court to sign and seal the same; and the taking, preparing, and signing, and sealing of said bill shall be governed by the rules established in such matters in civil cases. Where the ground of exception is that the verdict is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law, and the court has overruled a motion for a new trial made on that ground, the bill of exceptions shall set out the evidence. The bill of exceptions, when signed and sealed, shall be made a part of the record, and shall have the same force and effect as in civil cases.

6111 (483). The prosecuting attorney may take exceptions to any opinion or decision of the court during the prosecution of the cause; and the bill containing the exceptions, upon being presented, shall, if it be conformable to the truth, be signed and sealed by the court, which bill shall be made a part of the record, and be in all respects governed by the rules established as to bills of exceptions in civil cases, except as herein provided.

6112 (484.) When a case is finally submitted to the jury, they must be kept together in some convenient place, under the charge of an officer, until they agree upon a verdict, or are discharged by the court. The officer having them in charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, except to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict, unless by order of the court; nor shall he communicate to any one, before the verdict is delivered, any matter in relation to the state of their deliberations. If the jury are permitted to separate during the trial, they shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by any other person on the subject of the trial, or to listen to any conversation on the subject; and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon until the cause is finally submitted to them.

Jury may be permitted to separate during adjournment in trial of capital cases. Walrath v. State, 8, 92. St. Louis v. State, 8, 412. No presumption of error arises from the fact that the jury was allowed to separate during the trial. Langford v. State, 32, 785 (49 N. W., 766). Misconduct of juror in reading from copy of statutes, held, to vitiate verdict. Harris v. State, 24, 808-9 (40 N. W., 317). Presence of bailiff in jury room vitiates verdict. Gandy v. State, 24, 717 (40 N. W., 302). Affidavits of jurors for purpose of avoiding a verdict. Harris v. State, 24, 804 (40 N. W., 317).

6113 (485). In case a jury shall be discharged on account of sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or after they have been kept so long together that there is no probability of agreeing, the court shall, upon directing the discharge, order that the reasons for such discharge shall be entered upon the journal; and such discharge shall be without prejudice to the prosecution.

Record must show the necessity for discharge. State v. Shuchardt, 18, 457 (25 N. W., 722).

6114 (486). When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Before the verdict is accepted the jury may be polled at the request of either the prosecuting attorney or the defendant.

A verdict to be of any validity must be delivered in open court. A privy verdict is invalid. Longfellow v. State, 10, 107 (4 N. W., 420). Verdict signed by all the jurors is good. Clough v. State, 7, 342.

6115 (487). Upon an indictment for an offense consisting of different degrees the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the degree charged, and guilty of any degree inferior thereto, and upon an indictment for any offense the jury may find the defendant not guilty of the offense but guilty of an attempt to commit the same, where such an attempt is an offense.

6116 (488). When the indictment charges an offense against the property of another by larceny, embezzlement, or obtaining under false pretenses, the jury, on conviction, shall ascertain and declare in their verdict, the value of the property stolen, embezzled, or falsely obtained.

Jury must find value of property stolen, embezzled, or feloniously obtained. McCoy v. State, 22, 420 (35 N. W., 202).

6117 (489). That in all trials for murder the jury before whom such trial is had, if they find the prisoner guilty thereof, shall ascertain in their verdict whether it be murder in the first or second degree, or manslaughter; and if such person be convicted by confession in open court, the court shall proceed by examination of witnesses, in open court, to determine the degree of the crime, and shall pronounce sentence accordingly.

A verdict of "guilty" which does not fix the degree will not support a sentence. Williams v. State, 6, 342. Parish v. State, 18, 405 (25 N. W., 573). Verdict good if signed by all the jurors, and may be signed by foreman in presence and with consent of others without returning to jury room. Clough v. State, 7, 342. General verdict sufficient. Curry v. State, 5, 418. A verdict which omits the name of defendant fatally defective. Williams v. State, 6, 341. Indictment may contain count for murder in first degree, with one for murder in second degree and for manslaughter, when but one homicide is charged. Baldwin v. State, 12, 64 (10 N. W., 463). To constitute murder in the first degree it is necessary to prove that the act was done unlawfully, maliciously, with deliberation and premeditation. Schlencker v. State, 9, 248 (1 N. W., 857). On a second trial may be found guilty of a higher crime than on the first. Bohanan v. State, 18, 64 (24 N. W., 390). Cited, Dodge v. People, 4, 228; Ex parte Crawford, 12, 381 (11 N. W., 494); Vollmer v. State, 24, 845 (40 N. W., 420). Cited and construed, Olive v. State, 11, 12 (7 N. W., 444).

Sec. 6118. An act to authorize the judge of the district court to designate the county where an indictment may be found, and the person tried, for any felonious offense charged to have been committed in any unorganized county or territory of this state, or in any county where no district courts are held, and to provide for the payment of fees and expenses incurred in the arrest and prosecution of such person," etc. 1879, p. 62. In force February 24. (Repealing act of 1875, p. 31.)

6118. That it shall be lawful for the judge of any judicial district court within the state of Nebraska, where it has been made to appear to him that a crime has been committed amounting to felony, within any unorganized county or territory, or in any county where no terms of the district court of this state are held, attached to or in his said district, for judicial or other purposes, to designate the county in his district wherein the alleged offense may be inquired into by the grand jury, and in case an indictment found, the person or persons so indicted tried; Provided, Nothing herein shall prevent the person or persons indicted, upon a legal and proper application, removing the trial thereof to some other county in the same judicial district; And provided further, That all costs and expenses for the arrest and prosecution of such person or persons shall be paid out of the general fund of the state; And provided further, That no bill for costs or expenses shall be audited and paid without the certificate of the presiding judge of said district that said services have been performed, and that the account is correct.

CHAPTER XLVI.—MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL AND FOR ARREST OF JUDGMENT.

6119 (490). A new trial, after a verdict of conviction, may be granted on the application of the defendant, for any of the following reasons, affecting materially his substantial rights: First—Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, or the prosecuting attorney, or the witnesses for the state, or any order of the court, or abuse of discretion, by which the defendant was prevented from having a fair trial. Second—Misconduct of the jury, or the prosecuting attorney, or of the witnesses for the state. Third—Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against. Fourth—That the verdict is not sustained by sufficient evidence or is contrary to law. Fifth—Newly discovered evidence material for the defendant, which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial. Sixth—Error of law occurring at the trial.

Application for a new trial must be made if at all at the same term at which the verdict was rendered and within three days unless unavoidably prevented. Ex parte Holmes, 21, 327 (32 N. W., 69). These provisions are mandatory. Application must be made within a year from the date of judgment. Davis v. State, 31, 244 (47 N. W., 851). See also sec. 4837. Held, not to apply to a criminal case after the trial term. Bradshaw v. State, 19, 644 (28 N. W., 323). Misconduct of attorney not ground unless excepted to. Bullis v. Drake, 20, 172 (29 N. W., 292). Will not grant a new trial for the reason that a juror had expressed an opinion unfavorable to prisoner before the trial, unless it appears from the affidavit of both prisoner and counsel that neither of them had knowledge of such opinion before verdict. Clough v. State, 7, 350. New trial will not be granted on ground of newly discovered evidence when such evidence is merely cumulative. St. Louis v. State, 8, 415. Cited, Green v. State, 10, 103 (4 N. W., 422).

6120 (491). The application for a new trial shall be by motion upon written grounds, filed at the term the verdict is rendered, and shall, except for the cause of newly discovered evidence material for the party applying, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial, or [be] within three days after the verdict was rendered, unless unavoidably prevented. * In assigning the grounds of such motion, it shall be sufficient to assign the same in the language of the statute, and without further or other particularity.

All after * added 1881, p. 212. Since the amendment of 1881, it is sufficient if error is alleged in the precise language of the statute. McNamee v. State, 34, 290 (51 N. W., 821).

6121 (492). The causes enumerated in subdivisions two, three, and five of section four hundred and ninety must be sustained by affidavits showing their truth, and may be controverted by affidavits.

6122 (493). A motion in arrest of judgment may be granted by the court for either of the following causes: First—That the grand jury which found the indictment had no legal authority to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of it not being within the jurisdiction of the court. Second—That the facts stated in the indictment do not constitute an offense.

6123 (494). No judgment can be arrested for a defect in form. The effect of allowing a motion in arrest of judgment shall be to place the defendant in the same position with respect to the prosecution as before the indictment was found. If, from the evidence on trial, there shall be sufficient reason to believe him to be guilty of an offense, the court shall order him to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient security conditioned for his appearance at the first day of the next term of the same court; otherwise, the defendant shall be discharged.

CHAPTER XLVII.—JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE.

6124 (495). Before the sentence is pronounced, the defendant must be informed by the court of the verdict of the jury, and asked whether he has anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

Sentence within the limit of the law discretionary with court. Geiger v. State, 6, 550. If statute not complied with cause will be remanded. Dodge v. People, 4, 233. New trial will be granted, though no exception taken to error of court. Thompson v. People, 4, 530.

6125 (496). If the defendant have nothing to say, or if he show no good and sufficient cause why judgment should not be pronounced, the court shall proceed to pronounce judgment as provided by law.

6126 (497). Whenever a fine shall be the whole or part of a sentence, the court may, in its discretion, order that the person sentenced shall remain confined in the county jail until the amount of such fine and costs are paid.

6127 (498). In all cases when any person shall be convicted of any offense by this code declared criminal, and made punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the court shall declare in their sentence for what period of time, within the respective periods prescribed by law, such convict shall be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary, and shall moreover determine and declare in their sentence whether any, and if any, for what period of time, such convict shall be kept in solitary confinement in the cells of the penitentiary, without labor.

6128 (499). Any person convicted of any offense against the provisions of this act may be required by the court to enter into a recognizance with sufficient surety, in such sum as the court may deem proper, to keep the peace and be of good behavior for such length of time, not exceeding two years, as the court shall direct; and the court may order such person to stand committed until such order be complied with, or such person be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

6129 (500). In all cases wherein courts or magistrates have now or may hereafter have the power to punish offenses either in whole or in part, by requiring the offender to pay a fine or costs, or both, the said courts or magistrates may make it a part of the sentence that the party stand committed and be imprisoned in the jail of the proper county until the same be paid, or secured to be paid, or the defendant is otherwise discharged according to law.

On a conviction, it is the duty of the court to render judgment of imprisonment until costs are paid. In re Dobson, — Neb., — (— N. W., —).

6131 (502). When any court or magistrate shall sentence any convict to imprisonment in the jail of the county as a punishment for the offense committed, the judgment and sentence shall require that the convict be imprisoned in the cell of the jail of the county, or that he be kept at hard labor in the jail, in the discretion of the court or magistrate; and when the imprisonment is to be without labor, the sentence may require the convict to be fed on bread and water only, the whole or any part of the term of imprisonment.

CHAPTER XLVIII.—Proceedings in Error.

6132 (503). When a person shall be convicted of an offense, and shall give notice to the court of his intention to apply for a writ of error, the court may, at its discretion, on application of the person so convicted, suspend the execution of the sentence or judgment against him until the next term of the court, or for such period, not beyond the session of the court, nor beyond the next term of the supreme court, as will give the person so convicted a reasonable time to apply for such writ; Provided, When any such conviction is of an offense the punishment whereof is capital, at least one hundred days shall intervene between the date of such sentence and judgment, and the day appointed for the execution thereof.

6133 (504). No court shall suspend the execution of the sentence or judgment against any person convicted and sentenced for a misdemeanor, unless such person shall enter into a recognizance with such security as the court may require, conditioned that the person so convicted and sentenced shall appear at the next term of such court, and from term to term, until the case shall be determined, and abide the judgment or sentence of the court.

6134 (505). Whenever a person shall be convicted of a felony, and the judgment shall be suspended as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the court to order the person so convicted into the custody of the sheriff, to be imprisoned until the case in error be disposed of. If a person so convicted shall escape, the jailer or other officer from whose custody the escape was made may return to the clerk of the proper court the writ by virtue of which the convict was held in custody, with information of the escape endorsed thereon, whereupon said clerk shall issue a warrant stating such conviction, and commanding the sheriff of the county to pursue after such person into any county in the state; and said sheriff shall take such person and commit him to the jail of such county.

6135 (506). If no writ of error be allowed by the next term of the court after the sentence was pronounced, the court shall, at such term, carry the same into execution; or if no such writ be allowed by the expiration of the time of suspension, the judgment shall be carried into effect by the proper officers, the same as it would have been previously, had there been no suspension.

6136 (507). If a writ of error be allowed, and on the hearing the judgment of the court in which the trial was had shall be affirmed, such court shall carry into execution the sentence pronounced against the defendant at the next term after the judgment of affirmance is rendered.

6137 (508). In all criminal cases, writs of error shall be issued by the clerk of the supreme court upon the filing of a petition in error and transcript of the record of the proceedings of the district court and payment of costs as in civil cases; Provided, That if any person desiring to obtain such writ of error shall file an affidavit with the clerk of the court that he is unable, on account of his poverty, to pay said costs, the clerk shall enter the suit upon the docket, and upon the entry of final judgment endorse the amount of costs upon the mandate, and the same shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found.

Kountz v. State, 8, 295. Error must affirmatively appear. Fillion v. State, 5, 354. Order overruling motion to discharge prisoners, made before conviction and final judgment, is not a final order, and cannot be reviewed on error. Green v. State, 10, 103 (4 N. W., 422). See Anderson v. State, 26, 387 (41 N. W., 951); Ex parte Holmes, 21, 326 (32 N. W., 69).

6138 (509). In all cases of conviction where the punishment shall be capital, the judges or court allowing such writ of error shall order a suspension of the execution until such writ of error shall be heard and determined; upon hearing such writ of error, they shall order the prisoner to be discharged, a new trial to be had, or appoint a day certain for the execution of the sentence, as the nature of the case may require.

Sec. 6139. "An act to provide for the supreme court to reduce the sentence of persons convicted of crime when pending in the supreme court on error, and to allow said court to render judgment against such persons as may be warranted by the evidence." 1887, p. 668. In force March 31.

6139. That in all criminal cases that now are or may hereafter be pending in the supreme court on error, the said court may reduce the sentence rendered by the district court against the accused, when in their opinion the sentence is excessive, and it shall be the duty of said supreme court to render such sentence against the accused as in their opinion may be warranted by the evidence.

6140 (510). In all cases of conviction for a felony, the court, judge, or judges allowing the writ of error shall order the same to be made returnable before the supreme court, and shall order a suspension of the execution of said sentence.

6141 (511). In cases of conviction for misdemeanor in the district court, the court or judge allowing the writ of error shall make it returnable as in cases of conviction of felony, and may order a suspension of the execution of the sentence upon the defendant on his entering into a recognizance before the clerk of the court in which the cause was tried, with sufficient security, to be approved of by the clerk, in such sum as shall be specified in the order of the court or judge allowing such writ of error, which recognizance shall be conditioned for the defendant's prosecuting said writ of error to effect and surrendering himself to the custody of the sheriff of the county in which such conviction was had, in case the judgment of the court shall not be reversed, or a new trial ordered.

6142 (512). When the defendant has been committed to the penitentiary of this state, and the judgment by virtue of which the commitment is made shall be reversed on a writ of error, by which reversal the defendant shall be entitled to his discharge or to a new trial, the clerk of the court reversing said judgment shall, under the seal of the court, forthwith certify the same to the warden of the penitentiary.

6143 (513). Said warden, on receipt of such certificate, in case a discharge of such defendant be ordered, shall immediately discharge such defendant from the penitentiary.

6144 (514). In case a new trial be ordered, the warden of the penitentiary shall forthwith cause said defendant to be taken and conducted to the county jail and committed to the custody of the keeper thereof in the county in which said defendant was convicted.

Warden not entitled to extra pay for this, except expenses. State v. Wallichs, 15, 458 (20 N. W., 110).

EXCEPTIONS TAKEN BY PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.

6145 (515). The prosecuting attorney may present to the supreme court any bill of exceptions taken under the provisions of section four hundred and eighty three, and apply for permission to file it with the clerk thereof for the decision of such court upon the points presented therein; but prior thereto he shall give reasonable notice to the judge who presided at the trial in which the bill was taken of his purpose to make such application; and if the supreme court shall allow such bill to be filed, such judge shall appoint some competent attorney to argue the case against the prosecuting attorney, which attorney shall receive for his services a fee not exceeding one hundred dollars, to be fixed by such court, and to be paid out of the treasury of the county in which the bill was taken.

Bill of exceptions and petition in error on behalf of state, filed without leave of court, will be dismissed. State v. Halphrey, 14, 579 (16 N. W., 823). State v. Lydick, 11, 366 (9 N. W., 560). State v. Page, 12, 386 (11 N. W., 495). Cited, State v. Chichester, 31, 326 (47 N. W., 934).

6146 (516). If the supreme court shall be of the opinion that the questions presented should be decided upon, they shall allow the bill of exceptions to be filed and render a decision thereon.

6147 (517). The judgment of the court in the case in which the bill was taken shall not be reversed, nor in any manner affected; but the decision of the supreme court shall determine the law to govern in any similar case which may be pending at the time the decision is rendered, or which may afterward arise in the state.

CHAPTER XLIX.—Executions.

6148 (518). Every person sentenced to the penitentiary shall, within thirty days and as early as practicable after his sentence, unless the execution thereof be suspended, be conveyed to the penitentiary of this state, by the sheriff of the county in which the conviction took place, and shall there be delivered into the custody of the warden of said penitentiary, together with a copy of the sentence of the court ordering such imprisonment, there to be safely kept until the term of his confinement shall have expired, or he shall be pardoned. If the execution of the sentence be suspended, and the judgment is afterward affirmed, the defendant shall be conveyed to the penitentiary within thirty days after the court shall direct the sentence to be executed.

The term of imprisonment dates from the imposing of sentence, not from the delivery of the prisoner at the penitentiary. In re Fuller, 34, 581 (52 N. W., 577).

6149 (519). The sheriffs of the several counties of this state, during the time they shall be employed in conveying to the penitentiary any person sentenced to imprisonment therein, shall have the same power and authority to secure him in any jail within the state, and to demand the assistance of any sheriff, jailer, or other person within this state, in keeping such prisoner, as if the sheriff were in his own proper county; and all such sheriff, jailers, or other persons so called upon shall be liable, on refusal, to the same penalties as if the sheriff making the demand were in his own county.

6150 (520). When any person convicted of an offense shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail, the court or magistrate shall order the defendant into the custody of the sheriff, constable, or other proper officer, and shall issue to such officer a warrant of commitment, who shall deliver the convict, together with a copy of the warrant, to the jailer, in whose custody he shall remain in the jail of the proper county, until the term of his confinement shall have expired, or he shall have been pardoned, or otherwise legally discharged.

6151 (521). In all cases of misdemeanor in which courts or magistrates shall have power to fine any offender, and shall render judgment for such fine, it shall be lawful to issue executions for the same, with the costs taxed against said offender, to be levied on the goods and chattels of any such offender, and, for want of the same, upon the body of said offender, who shall thereupon be committed to the jail of the proper county until said fine and costs be paid, or secured to be paid, or the offender be otherwise discharged according to law.

6152 (522). When the convict is adjudged to be imprisoned for fines or costs, as provided for in section five hundred, the sentence and execution may, in the discretion of the court or magistrate, require the imprisonment to be at hard labor by the convict.

6153 (523). Where any jail, in any county in this state, shall not have a cell or dungeon therein, then, and in that case, when the court shall sentence any person or persons to imprisonment in the cell of any jail, under the provisions of this act, the person or persons so sentenced shall be confined in that part of the jail usually allotted to the confinement of criminals, or such convict may be imprisoned as provided in section three hundred and seventy-seven, when there is the necessity therefor mentioned in said section.

6154 (524). Judgments for fines and costs in criminal cases shall be a lien upon all the property of the defendant within the county from the time of docketing the case by the clerk of the proper court, and judgments upon forfeited recognizance shall be a like lien from the time of forfeiture. No property of any convict shall be exempt from execution issued upon any such judgment as aforesaid, against such convict, except in cases where the convict shall be sentenced to the penitentiary for a period of more than two years, or to suffer death, in which cases there shall be the same exemption as at the time may be provided by law for civil cases.

6155 (525). It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to issue execution for every judgment rendered during the term, for fines and forfeited recognizance, and for the costs in such cases, which remain unpaid and unreplevied; and upon like condition each magistrate shall issue execution forthwith for fines and costs assessed by him.

6156 (526). It shall and may be lawful for any person or persons convicted of any criminal offense to replevy the judgment for the fine and costs, or the costs only when no fine shall be imposed, by such convicted person or persons, with one or more good and sufficient freeholders entering into a recognizance before the court or magistrate, to the people of this state, for the payment of such fine and costs, or costs only, within five months from the date of the acknowledgment; which recognizance so taken is hereby declared valid in law, and to create a lien on the real estate of all such persons as shall acknowledge the same; and upon the breach thereof, execution shall be issued against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the persons who entered into recognizance, in the same manner as if it had been a judgment, which execution shall be collected in the same manner as is prescribed in the preceding section. No scire facias shall be necessary previous to issuing such execution.

6157 (527). In all cases where the person or persons, convicted as aforesaid, shall replevy the fine and costs, as is provided in the last preceding section, no execution shall issue for said fine and costs, as prescribed in section five hundred and twenty-five; and further, such person or persons, after replevying the fine and costs as aforesaid, shall not be imprisoned for such fine and costs, but such person or persons shall be wholly discharged from any imprisonment, in consequence of any conviction, unless where imprisonment is by this code made a part of the punishment; in that case such convicted person or persons shall be discharged from his, or her, or their imprisonment at the expiration thereof, if he, she, or they have replevied the fine and costs as aforesaid.

6158 (527*). Executions for fines and costs of prosecution, and on recognizances taken in pursuance of the preceding section, may be issued into any county in the state.

*This and the preceding section are both numbered 527 in the original. G. S., p. 838.

6159 (528). Whenever it shall be made satisfactory to appear to the district court, or to the probate judge of the proper county, after all legal means have been exhausted, that any person who is confined in jail for any fine or costs of prosecution, for any criminal offense, hath no estate wherewith to pay such fine and costs, or costs only, it shall be the duty of said court or judge to discharge such person from further imprisonment, for such fine and costs, which discharge shall operate as a complete release of such fine and costs; Provided, That nothing herein shall authorize any person to be discharged from imprisonment before the expiration of the time for which he or she may be sentenced to be imprisoned, as part of his or her punishment, nor until the convict shall have been imprisoned at least one day for every three dollars of the amount adjudged against him.

A criminal is not entitled to his discharge until the costs of his conviction are canceled by his imprisonment at $3 per day. In re Dobson, — Neb., — (— N. W., —).

6160 (529). In every case, whenever it is desirable to obtain execution to be issued to another county, or against the lands or real estate of any person against whom a judgment for fine or costs has been rendered by a magistrate, the magistrate may file with the clerk of the district court of the county wherein such magistrate holds his office, a transcript of the judgment and proceedings in the cause, whereupon such clerk shall enter the cause upon the proper docket for execution to be forthwith issued thereon by such clerk, and served in all respects as though the judgment had been rendered in the district court of such county.

6161 (530). When the physician regularly employed to have the medical care of persons in a county jail shall certify in writing to the jailer that the health or safety of any convict confined in such jail requires that he be treated in a manner different from that prescribed by the sentence of such convict, such jailer shall render to the convict such other and different treatment as shall be specified in such certificate as necessary, and may discharge him altogether if required by such certificate; Provided That such physician be one employed for such medical care by the approval of the county commissioners.

6162 (531). For the purpose of enabling the county commissioners of any county in this state to employ in a profitable manner all persons who have heretofore been or may hereafter be sentenced to hard labor in the jail of the county, said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to designate the place where the persons so sentenced shall work, and to make all proper and needful regulations and provisions for the profitable employment of such convicts, and for their safe custody during such employment. The county jail is hereby declared to extend to any stone quarry, road, or other place that shall be designated by the county commissioners for the employment of such convicts.

6163 (532). It shall be the duty of the county commissioners to make the contracts for the employment of convicts as specified in the preceding section, and the sheriff of the county shall collect the proceeds of all such labor, and after paying the board of such convicts and the expenses incident to such labor, to pay the balance to the county treasurer within ten days.

CHAPTER L.—RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS OF MONEY IN CRIMINAL CAUSES.

6164 (533). All moneys due upon any judgement for fines, costs, or forfeited recognizance, shall be paid to the magistrate or clerk of court where the judgment is pending, if paid before execution is issued therefor, otherwise to the officer holding the execution; or such moneys may be paid to the sheriff of the county if the judgment debtor is in jail, and every sheriff, constable, marshal, or other ministerial officer who shall receive any such moneys as aforesaid shall pay the same to the proper magistrate or clerk of court within ten days from the time of receiving the same.

6165 (534). Every magistrate or clerk of court, upon receiving any money on account of forfeited recognizances, fines, or costs accruing or due to the county or state, shall pay the same to the treasurer of the proper county (except as may be otherwise expressly provided), within ten days from the time of receiving the same. When any moneys shall be paid to a magistrate or clerk of court on account of costs due to individual persons, such magistrate shall pay the same to the persons to whom the same are due, upon demand therefor.

6166 (535). No costs shall be paid from the county treasury in any case of prosecution for a misdemeanor, or for surety to keep the peace, except as provided in section five hundred and forty-one.

6167 (536). Upon examination before a magistrate on complaint of a felony, whether the accused be held to answer in court or discharged, the magistrate may file with the county clerk a certified transcript of the costs, giving the items of the same, and to whom each is due, and on what account; as early as may be after the filing of such bill as aforesaid, but without assembling for the special purpose, the commissioners of the proper county shall examine into such bill of costs, as to its correctness, justice, and legality, and may, if need be, examine under oath any person upon the subject, which oath may be administered by the county clerk. And it shall be the duty of said commissioners to disallow any item, in whole or in part, of such bill, that shall be found to be unlawful or needlessly incurred; or, if it shall appear that the complaint was made for a felony, when it should have been for a misdemeanor only, they may, in their discretion, disallow the entire bill, or any part thereof. Said commissioners may order that such bill, or so much thereof as they find to be lawful and just, be paid from the county treasury, whereupon the county clerk shall draw warrants upon the county treasurer for the sums respectively due to each person upon such bill so allowed, which warrants said treasurer shall pay from the county general fund. And the amount of costs so allowed shall be certified by the county clerk, and the certificate filed with the papers in the cause, in the office of the clerk of the district court. And if the defendant shall be convicted, judgment shall be rendered against him for the costs so allowed, in addition to the costs made in the district court.

Costs incurred in prosecution for felony or misdemeanor before magistrates are payable from the county treasury only as provided in this section and section 6172. The complaint under which costs are made, although charging a felony, is not conclusive on the question of allowance and payment. Section is constitutional. Boggs v. Washington Co., 10, 299 (4 N. W., 984). The respective counties are legally liable for the costs earned by justices of the peace, sheriff, and constables, "on examinations before a magistrate or a" proper "complaint of a felony, whether the accused be held to answer in court or is discharged." And in cases where the charge is for a felony but ought to have been for a misdemeanor, the board may allow or disallow the bill in whole or in part. Dodge County v. Gregg, 14, 307 (15 N. W., 741).

6168 (537). Upon the discharge or conviction of the defendant in any case of felony in the district court, it shall be lawful for the clerk of such court to file in the office of the county clerk a bill of the costs not previously allowed by the county commissioners, whereupon the same shall be examined into, audited, and allowed, and paid in the manner specified in the last preceding section; Provided, That nothing in this or the preceding section shall preclude any magistrate or clerk, in any case, from delaying the filing of such cost bill for allowance as aforesaid, until it shall be determined whether the same will be collected from the defendant; and no cost bill shall be filed for allowance as aforesaid under the provisions of this section, while there is pending in the cause any proceedings in error, or any unexpired recognizance for replevy of the judgment as provided in section five hundred and twenty-six.

6169 (538). In any case of indictment for felony, where the defendant shall be convicted, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney, clerk of the court, and sheriff of the county to use all lawful means within the scope of their respective powers, if need be, for the collection of the costs from the defendant, and the fine also, if any shall have been adjudged against him. And when the costs shall have been collected, if the same shall have been allowed for payment from the county treasury as provided in the last preceding section, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court to certify and pay the same immediately to the county treasurer, together with any fine that may have been collected in the case.

6170 (539). Each and every magistrate shall, on or before the first day of February in each year, make out and deliver to the county clerk of the county in which he may reside, a statement in writing of all fines assessed by him for the year ending on the first day of January next preceding, showing the name of the party, the amount of the fine, the time when assessed, whether execution was issued thereon, and the return upon the same, or if no execution has been issued, the reasons for not issuing the same; and in case no fines have been assessed by such magistrate he shall return that fact, and said statement shall be certified by such magistrate to be a true and correct statement from his docket.

6171 (540). Any officer who shall pay to the county treasurer of any county any money collected for any fine, costs, forfeited recognizance, or proceeds of jail labor, shall take therefor the said treasurer's duplicate receipts, one of which shall be immediately filed with the county clerk, and the same shall be by him preserved in his office. All such receipts shall show upon the face thereof, definitely, what the moneys paid in were for, whether for fines, costs, forfeited recognizance, or jail labor, and the sums paid on account of each of said causes, and also the cause in which each item is paid, giving the name of the defendant in each case. All such moneys arising from fines and recognizance, shall be credited by such treasurer to the county school fund, and the costs and proceeds of jail labor he shall credit to the county general fund. Whenever any costs in any criminal case shall be paid from the county treasury, such payment must be made from the county general fund; and when any warrant is drawn by the county clerk upon the treasurer of the county for the payment of such costs, a true record of the same and the definite purpose of every such warrant shall be recorded in his office, showing the cause in which such costs are paid.

6172 (541). Magistrates and clerks of courts may furnish to the county clerks of their respective counties certified copies of any cost bills that are not collectible, in cases of misdemeanor and peace warrant causes; and it shall be the duty of each county clerk receiving any such bills to place them upon a separate file and preserve them in his office. At the first meeting of the county commissioners in each county, in the months of April and October of each year, if it shall appear from the records and files of the county clerk's office that the receipts into the county treasury from the sources mentioned in the last preceding section, from and after the taking effect of this code, are in excess of the amount allowed to be paid from said treasury, in the same time, for costs in criminal cases, including the sums paid for keeping and transporting prisoners in criminal cases, said commissioners shall make an order that a sum equal to such excess be appropriated from the county general fund, for the payment of cost bills, filed as aforesaid, in misdemeanor and peace warrant causes, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay all such bills, or parts thereof, as may be found lawful and just. And thereupon said commissioners shall audit all such bills in the manner required in section five hundred and thirty-six, due notice of which auditing shall be previously given to each magistrate and clerk who shall have filed any such bill, or bills, as aforesaid; and in case the amount of the excess aforesaid is insufficient to pay all of such bills on file, the commissioners shall determine which and what parts of such bills are most equitable to be paid, and the county clerk shall draw all necessary warrants upon the county treasury, for the payment of such bills, according to the order of the commissioners, which warrants said treasurer shall pay from the county general fund.

6173. That the fees of all witnesses in criminal cases in the district court shall be paid by the county where the indictment is found.

The object of this act was to settle which county should pay witness fees—the one from which or to which a change of venue is taken. Hewekerl v. Gage Co., 14, 20 (14 N. W., 549).

CHAPTER LI.—Special Procedure in Cases of Homicide.

6174 (542). Whenever it shall be brought to the knowledge of the coroner or the sheriff of any county in this state that a murder has been committed within their respective counties, and the person or persons committing such murder are unknown, or, if known, have fled from justice, it shall be the duty of the coroner or sheriff to make the same known to the governor of this state, together with such facts as may have come to his knowledge, going to show by whom such murder was committed, and the whereabouts of the murderer.

6175 (543). Upon the receipt of the information as prescribed by the preceding section, the governor of the state shall issue his proclamation offering such reward not exceeding two hundred dollars for each person murdered as he shall deem proper, for the arrest of the person or persons committing said crime, and the delivery of said person or persons to the sheriff or jailer of the county where said crime was committed. Upon the trial of any person for whom such reward has been offered, if the presiding judge shall, under his hand and seal of the court, certify to the governor that the person arrested and indicted committed the act charged in the indictment, the person or persons making the arrest shall be entitled to the reward.

6176 (544). The governor, upon presentation of the certificate, as provided for in the preceding section, shall give the person holding said certificate an order on the auditor of the state, who shall issue a warrant for the amount.

6177 (545). If any person shall give any mortal blow, or administer any poison to another, in any county within this state, with intent to kill, and the party so stricken or poisoned, thereof, shall die, in any other county or state, the person giving such mortal blow, or administering such poison, may be tried and convicted of murder, or manslaughter, as the case may be, in the county where such mortal blow was given, or poison administered.

6178 (546). That the mode of inflicting the punishment of death, in all cases under this act, shall be by hanging by the neck until the person is dead; and the sheriff, and in case of his death, inability, or absence, the coroner of the proper county in which sentence of death shall be pronounced, by virtue of this act, shall be the executioner.

6179 (547). When any person shall be sentenced to be hung, such punishment shall be inflicted in the immediate vicinity of the jail, within an inclosure to be prepared for that purpose under the direction of the sheriff, which inclosure shall be higher than the gallows, and so constructed as to exclude the view of persons outside thereof.

6180 (548). In all cases in which the jail in any county shall be of such construction that the sentence of death can conveniently be carried into execution within its walls, no inclosure need be prepared as is provided in the preceding section, but such execution shall take place within the walls of the jail.

6181 (549). Whenever the sentence of death shall be about to be carried into execution in any county of this state, which may at the time have no jail, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to cause such execution to be conducted agreeably to the provisions of section five hundred and forty-seven, at such convenient place at the county seat as he may select.

6182 (550). Besides the sheriff and his assistants, the following persons may be present at the execution, and none others: The clergyman in attendance upon the prisoner, such other persons as the prisoner may designate, not exceeding three in number, and such other persons as the sheriff may designate, not exceeding six in number.

6183 (551). Whenever the sheriff shall deem the presence of a military force necessary to carry into effect the provisions of the four preceding sections, he shall make a written requisition upon the officer of the militia highest in command then in his county, who shall issue the necessary orders to ensure a compliance with the requisition of such sheriff.

6184 (552). Whenever the sheriff shall inflict the punishment of death upon a convict, in obedience to the command of the court, he shall make return of his proceedings as soon as may be, to the clerk of the court where the conviction was had, and the clerk shall subjoin the return to the record of conviction and sentence.

6185 (553). If any convict sentenced to the punishment of death, shall appear to be insane, the sheriff shall forthwith give notice thereof to a judge of the district court of the judicial district, and shall summon a jury of twelve impartial men to inquire into such insanity, at a time and place to be fixed by the judge, and shall give immediate notice thereof to the district attorney.

6186 (554). The judge, clerk of the court and district attorney, shall attend the inquiry. Witnesses may be produced and examined before the jury. The finding shall be in writing, signed by the jury. If it be found that the convict is insane, the judge shall suspend the execution of the convict until the sheriff shall receive a warrant from the governor of the state, directing such execution. The finding of the jury and order of the judge, certified by the judge, shall be by the clerk entered on the journal of the court.

6187 (555). The sheriff shall transmit, immediately, a certified copy of such finding to the governor, who may, as soon as he shall be convinced that the convict has become of sound mind, issue a warrant appointing a time for his execution.

6188 (556). If a female convict sentenced to the punishment of death, appears to be pregnant, the sheriff shall, in like manner, summon a jury of six persons, who, on like proceedings being had as in the case of an insane convict, shall return a finding signed by them.

6189 (557). If, by such finding, it shall appear that such female convict is with child, the sheriff shall, in like manner, suspend the execution of her sentence, and shall transmit the finding to the governor, who, on being satisfied that such woman is no longer pregnant, shall issue a warrant appointing a day for the execution.

6190 (558). Whenever the governor may deem it expedient and proper to reprieve any person under sentence of death, under any condition whatsoever, the condition upon which such reprieve is granted shall be specified in the warrant, and the persons accepting such conditional reprieve shall subscribe such acceptance upon the warrant containing the conditions of reprieve in the presence of two witnesses, who shall attest the same; and such witnesses shall go before the clerk of the court where such sentence is recorded, and shall prove the same; and the clerk shall thereupon record the warrant of reprieve, together with the acceptance and proof thereof, in the journals of the court, a transcript of which record shall at all times thereafter be evidence for or against the person accepting such conditional reprieve.

6191 (559). If in a case of any reprieve the governor shall deem it expedient and proper to confine the persons so reprieved in the penitentiary, it being so specified in the warrant, the sheriff or other officer having the person so reprieved in his custody, shall convey him to the penitentiary in the same manner as other convicts are directed by law to be conveyed; and the warden of the penitentiary shall receive such person, together with the warrant of reprieve, and shall proceed with such convict as such warrant may direct; and the expenses of transporting such person to the penitentiary shall be allowed and paid as in other cases.

6192 (560). If any person reprieved according to section five hundred and fifty-eight, shall violate the conditions upon which such reprieve is granted, such person shall be proceeded against as in other cases of persons escaping from prison convicted of offenses.

6193 (561). If any person who has been convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung, shall escape, and shall not be retaken before the time fixed for his execution, it shall be lawful for the sheriff to re-arrest such person, and commit him to the jail of the proper county, and make return thereof to the court in which the sentence was passed; and thereupon the court shall proceed to fix the time of execution, which shall be carried into effect by the proper officer, as may be provided by law for the execution of persons convicted of murder in the first degree.

6194 (562). When any person has been duly tried and convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree, before any district court in this state, and, under said conviction, has been sentenced by said court to suffer death, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court before which said conviction was had, to issue his warrant, under the seal of said court, reciting therein said conviction and sentence, directed to the sheriff of his county, commanding him to proceed at the time and place named in said sentence, to carry the same into execution, by causing the person so convicted and sentenced to be hanged by the neck until he is dead.

6195 (563). That it shall be the duty of said sheriff, on receipt of said warrant, provided the supreme court, or a judge thereof, have not ordered a suspension of the execution of said sentence, to proceed at the time and place named in said warrant, to carry said sentence into execution, by causing said person so convicted and sentenced to be hanged by the neck until he is dead; and of the manner of his executing said warrant, and his doings thereon, he shall forthwith make return to said clerk, who shall cause said warrant and return to be recorded as a part of said case.

6196 (564). That in case the supreme court, or any judge thereof, shall have allowed a writ of error in said case, and ordered a suspension of the execution of said sentence until said writ of error shall be heard and determined, and, after having heard and determined the same, shall have appointed a day certain for, and ordered the execution of said sentence, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court to issue to said sheriff his warrant, under the seal of said court, commanding him to proceed to carry said sentence into execution, at the time so appointed by said court, which time shall be stated in said warrant; and upon receipt of said warrant last aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said sheriff to cause said sentence to be executed as aforesaid, at the time so appointed by the supreme court, and to make due return of said warrant, and of his proceedings thereunder, forthwith to said clerk of said district court, who shall cause said warrant and return to be recorded as aforesaid.

CHAPTER LII.—PARDONS, REPRIEVES, AND MITIGATION OF PENALTIES.

6197 (565). The governor shall have power to grant reprieves, commutation, and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses, except treason, and to remit fines and forfeiture upon such conditions, and with such restrictions and limitations as he may think proper, subject to the regulations prescribed in this chapter. But no pardon shall be granted until after notice shall have first been given for two weeks of such application for a pardon, by publishing the said notice in a newspaper printed in the county where the conviction was had, which notice shall state name of the applicant, the offense of which he was convicted, in what court, and when convicted, and the time when the application will be made, and in case no newspaper is published in said county, then the said notice may be given by posting the same at the court house door, of said county, two weeks before such application; Provided, however, That when any person is confined in the state penitentiary, the governor shall have power to pardon such person on account of good conduct, for the purpose of restoring him to civil rights, not more than ten days before the expiration of his term of imprisonment, without the notice provided for in this section.

6198 (566). The governor shall have power to issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry into effect any act which he has power to do, and which is regulated in this chapter; and all such officers are required to obey such warrant.

6199 (567). Whenever any convict is pardoned or reprieved, or his sentence is commuted, or any fine or forfeiture is remitted, it is the duty of the officer to whom the warrant is directed, as soon as may be after executing the same, to make a return in writing thereon, to the secretary of state, of his doings under the same, and sign the same with his name of office; and he must also file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the conviction was had, or in which the sentence was to have been enforced, a certified copy of the warrant and return, the proper entries in relation to which shall be made by such clerk.

6200 (568). The governor must report to the general assembly at its next meeting thereafter, each case of reprieve, commutation, or pardon granted, and the reasons therefor, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of the reprieve, commutation, or pardon. He must in like manner also report the names of all persons in whose favor fines or forfeitures have been remitted, and the several amounts remitted.

Secs. 6201 to 6203. "An act in relation to persons imprisoned for offenses against the state of Nebraska." 1875, p. 32. In force February 25. (Superseding sec. 569 of original code.)

6201. That every convict who is now or who may hereafter be confined in the Nebraska penitentiary, and who shall have no infraction of the rules or regulations of the penitentiary or laws of the state recorded against him, and who performs in a faithful manner the duties assigned to him in an orderly and peaceable manner, shall be entitled to the diminution of time from his sentence as appears in the following section, and pro rata for any part of a year where the sentence is for more or less than a year: Of two months on the first year; of two months on the second year; and three months on the third year; of four months on the fourth year, and the like diminution of time for each succeeding year of time of their sentence.

Sentence less than two years deduction for good time is one-sixth. In re Fuller, 34, 581 (58 N. W., 577). Where a life sentence is commuted to nine years' actual time, the convict is not entitled to reduce that by good time. In re Hall, 34, 206 (51 N. W., 750).

Sec. 570 repealed the following: R. S. 1866, secs. 34–36, p. 11; ch. 21, p. 176; sec. 109, p. 227; secs. 107, 110, pp. 340–1; sec. 12, p. 344; crim. code, p. 592 et seq., except ch. 29, p. 671. 1867 (Ter.), p. 5. 1867 (State), p. 46, as amended 1871, p. 80. 1869, p. 19, "An act to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors on days of election;" p. 81, "An act to punish offenders against chastity, morality, and decency," as amended 1870, p. 6; p. 94, "An act to amend sec. 20, sec. 4, crim. code;" secs. 31–38, 40, 43–50, pp. 105–9; sec. 103, pp. 214–15. 1871, p. 79, "An act in relation to persons imprisoned under sentence for offenses against the laws of Nebraska;" pp. 84 and 119, acts relative to justices of the peace; p. 118, act relative to counsel for indigent prisoners; p. 128, act to protect certain birds, and all acts in conflict; Provided, That the validity of such acts so repealed shall be saved and continued to the extent described in section 255.

6202. Whenever a charge of misconduct shall be sustained by the warden and inspectors at their first meeting after said charge or charges shall have been recorded by the warden or his deputy against a prisoner, he shall lose the deduction of time specified in section one of this act, but he may regain by continuous good conduct thereafter a deduction of time, not exceeding seventy-five per cent of said time specified in section one of this act, and as much less as the warden and inspectors may certify to, as a suitable reward for good conduct.

6203. The governor shall, upon receiving certificate of good conduct from the warden and inspectors, immediately issue his warrant for discharge of such convict; said warrant shall in all cases restore the prisoner to civil rights the same as though a pardon had been issued.

Secs. 6204 to 6206. "An act to provide for the pardon of convicts from the penitentiary in certain cases." 1889, p 387. In force June 30.

6204. That on the 4th day of July in each year the governor of this state may in his discretion grant and issue an unconditional pardon to two convicts in the penitentiary who have been confined therein for ten (10) years or more, and whose conduct while incarcerated in the penitentiary has been such as to entitle him or her to the benefits of the good time act.

6205. Said pardons shall be issued upon the written recommendation of the warden of the penitentiary, the attorney general, secretary of state, and the chief justice of the supreme court.

6206. This act shall not be construed or taken to abridge or deny the power now vested in the governor to grant pardons, but shall be an addition thereto.

Sec. 6206*a*. "An act to provide for the parole of prisoners, to place the power therefor in the governor of the state, and defining the duties of the governor and of officers in connection therewith." 1893, ch. 36, p. 367. In force August 1.

6206*a*. That the governor shall have power in the case of any prisoner, who is now, or hereafter may be, imprisoned in the state penitentiary under a sentence other than murder in the first or second degree, who may have served the minimum term provided by law for the crime for which he was convicted, (and who has not previously been convicted of felony and served a term in any penal institution within the United States of America), and in the case of any prisoner who is now or hereafter may be imprisoned under a sentence for murder in the first or second degree, and who has now, or hereafter shall have served twenty-five full years, to allow any such prisoner to go upon parole, outside of the enclosure of said penitentiary, to remain while on parole, within the state under the control and in the legal custody of the governor, and subject at any time to be taken back within the enclosure of said institution; and full power to retake and reimprison any convict so upon parole is hereby conferred upon the governor, whose written order shall be a sufficient warrant, for all officers named therein, to authorize such officers to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner; and it is hereby made the duty of all officers to execute said order the same as any ordinary criminal process.

CHAPTER LIII.—ERRORS FROM INFERIOR COURTS.

Secs. 6207 to 6212. "An act to provide for reviewing on error all criminal cases before county judges, police judges, justices of the peace, police magistrates, and all other courts inferior to the district court, wherein the accused shall be convicted and adjudged to pay a fine or to be imprisoned, or both." 1883, p. 330. In force June 1.

6207. That in all criminal cases tried before county judges, police judges, justices of the peace, police magistrates, and all other courts inferior to the district court, wherein the accused shall be convicted of a violation of any law of this state, or of an ordinance of any municipal corporation in this state, and adjudged to pay a fine or to be imprisoned, or both, such judgment may be reviewed on error in the district court of the county in which any such trial and conviction may be had.

6208. On application by or on behalf of such convicted person to any such officer or court before whom such trial and conviction may have been had, and upon tender of the legal fees, such officer shall make and deliver to such convicted person or his counsel a complete certified transcript of the judgment and all docket entries made on the trial of such case, and on receipt of a copy of the summons, as hereinafter set forth, shall forward to the clerk of the district court the original papers in the case.

6209. The proceeding to review any such judgment shall be by petition in error, to which shall be attached such transcript, and also any original papers received by the clerk, and the court in which the review is sought may, by summary process, compel a more complete record to be furnished and such original papers to be forwarded.

6210. When such petition and precipe are filed in any court, a summons in error, returnable in thirty days, shall be issued by the clerk, unless the judge of such court prescribe another day for the return, which summons shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the district attorney resides, containing such description of the judgment as to identify it, reciting the fact that a petition in error has been filed, and command such sheriff to notify the district attorney of the time it will be for hearing; and if original papers are required, it shall command the sheriff to notify the officer in whose possession they are to forward them to such clerk. In case the district attorney should reside in some county other than the one in which such proceedings in error are to be had, the clerk may send the summons in error by mail to the proper sheriff, who may return the same by mail to the clerk of the court from which it was issued.

6211. Upon the hearing of a petition in error, the court may affirm the judgment or reverse it in whole or in part, and order the accused to be discharged.

6212. No sentence or judgment shall be suspended or execution stayed until the defendant shall enter into a recognizance before the clerk of the district court where his petition in error is filed, conditioned that the defendant will prosecute his petition in error to effect, and surrender himself to the custody of the proper officer of the county in which the conviction was had, in case the judgment against him be not reversed or a new trial ordered.

CHAPTER LIV.—PROSECUTION OF OFFENSES BY INFORMATION.

Secs. 6213 to 6220. "An act to provide for prosecuting offenses on information and to dispense with the calling of grand juries, except by order of the district judges." 1885, p. 397. In force June 5.

6213. That the several courts of this state shall possess and may exercise the same power and jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine prosecutions upon information, for crimes, misdemeanors, and offenses, to issue writs and process, and do all other acts therein, as they possess and may exercise in cases of like prosecutions upon indictments.

Murder may be prosecuted by information instead of by indictment. Miller v. State, 29, 440 (45 N. W., 451).

Information must allege that crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the court. McCoy v. State, 22, 420 (35 N. W., 202). Names must be endorsed on the information before the trial term. Stevens v. State, 19, 648 (28 N. W., 304). Failure to endorse name of witness on information, ground for new trial. Parks v. State, 20, 517 (31 N. W., 5). But if testimony not material, not error. Gandy v. State, 24, 724 (40 N. W., 302). Names of witnesses cannot be added to information unless it be shown that they were not known before. Gandy v. State, 27, 732–4 (43 N. W., 747; 44 N. W., 108). Endorsement on day of trial of name of witness who was not called, not error. Miller v. State, 29, 444 (45 N. W., 451). Witnesses used in rebuttal of a collateral issue raised by defendant need not be endorsed. State v. Huckins, 23, 311 (36 N. W., 527).

6215. All information shall be verified by the oath of the prosecuting attorney, complainant, or some other person, and the offenses charged therein shall be stated with the same fullness and precision in matters of substance as is required in indictments in like cases. Different offenses and different degrees of the same offense may be joined in one information, in all cases where the same might by different counts in one indictment; and in all cases a defendant or defendants shall have the same rights, as to proceedings therein, as he or they would have if prosecuted for the same offense upon indictment.

When contain negative averments in prosecution under board of health act. Gee Wo v. State, 36, — (54 N. W., 513).

6216. That the provisions of chapters XL, XLI, XLII, XLIII, XLIV, XLV of the Criminal Code, in relation to indictments, and all other provisions of law applying to prosecutions upon indictments to writs, and process therein. and the issuing and service thereof, to motions, pleadings, trials, and punishments or the execution of any sentence and to all other proceedings in cases of indictments, whether in the court of original or appellate jurisdiction, shall in the same manner and to the same extent, as near as may be, apply to informations, and all prosecutions and proceedings thereon.

6217. Any person who may, according to law, be committed to jail, or become recognized or held to bail with sureties for his appearance in court to answer to any indictment, may, in like manner, so be committed to jail or become recognized and held to bail for his appearance, to answer to any information or indictment, as the case may be.

6218. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the proper county to inquire into and make full examination of all the facts and circumstances connected with any case of preliminary examination, as provided by law, touching the commission of any offense wherein the offender shall be committed to jail, or become recognized or held to bail, and if the prosecuting attorney shall determine in any such case that an information ought not to be filed, he shall make, subscribe, and file with the clerk of the court a statement in writing, containing his reasons, in fact and in law, for not filing an information in such case, and that such statement shall be filed at and during the term of court at which the offender shall be held for his appearance; Provided, That in such case such court may examine said statement, together with the evidence filed in the case, and if, upon such examination, the court shall not be satisfied with said statement, the prosecuting attorney shall be directed by the court to file the proper information, and bring the case to trial.

Information cannot be made against one whom the supreme court has found no cause of action. Richardson v. State, 22, 147 (34 N. W., 346).

They cannot be now summoned from bystanders in an emergency. Jones v. State, 18, 402 (25 N. W., 527).

6220. No information shall be filed against any person for any offense until such person shall have had a preliminary examination therefor as provided by law, before a justice of the peace or other examining magistrate or officer, unless such person shall waive his right to such examination; Provided, however, That information may be filed without such examination against fugitives from justice, and any fugitive from justice against whom an information shall be filed may be demanded by the governor of this state of the executive authority of any other state or territory, or of any foreign government, in the same manner, and the same proceedings may be had thereon, as provided by law in like cases of demand upon indictment filed.

Deputy prosecuting attorney cannot file information. Richards v. State, 22, 150 (34 N. W., 346). Cited, White v. State, 28, 349 (44 N. W., 443).

APPENDIX.

Secs. 6221 and 6222. "An act to appropriate money to employ counsel to assist in prosecuting certain state cases." 1893, ch. 58, p. 449. In force April 8.

6221. That the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of this state not otherwise appropriated, and that the same be placed under the control and direction of the governor of this state, to be used by him or so much thereof as he may deem necessary in employing attorneys in prosecuting all criminal cases wherein the state has been defrauded by its officers, employes or those dealing with any state institutions or dealing with or having in their custody, possession or control, any moneys, funds, property or effects of or belonging to the state, and necessary expenses connected therewith, or in commencing or prosecuting, any civil action or actions or proceedings against any officer, person or corporations indebted to the state on account of any moneys, funds, or effects received by him or them for or on behalf of the state or belonging to it or upon any official bond, or upon any contract or obligation, for the payment or safe keeping or disposal of any such moneys or funds or effects.

6222. The governor shall keep a just and correct account of the amount of money so expended by him, and shall report the same to the next term of the legislature of this state, stating in what cases said money has been paid out, the amount paid, and what for, and the nature of the crime charged.

6223. "An act to provide for the appointment of a commissioner general, and employes, and for the necessary expenses to be incurred in the presentation of the products, resources and possibilities of the state of Nebraska at the World's Columbian Exposition to be held in the city of Chicago in 1893, and for the repeal of section 4536 of the Consolidated Statutes of Nebraska." 1893, ch. 41, p. 380. In force April 8.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

SECTION 1. That for the proper presentation of the products, resources and possibilities of the state of Nebraska at the Columbian Exposition to be held in the city of Chicago in 1893, there be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise apppropriated, the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000), in addition to the amount now unexpended of the appropriation made under and by virtue of the act passed and approved March 27, 1891, entitled an act to provide for a presentation of the products, resources and possibilities of the state of Nebraska, at the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held at the city of Chicago, Illinois, or so much thereof as may be found necessary, the same to be expended and accounted for in accordance with and in a manner provided in sections 3, 4 and 5 of this act.

SEC. 2. The governor shall immediately on the taking effect of this act appoint one man of known and acknowledged qualifications and fitness, who shall be known as the commissioner general. He shall devote the whole of his time to the duties of the position during his term of office. He shall have sole and exclusive charge of the management, collecting, presenting and dismantling of the products and industries of the state at the said Columbian Exposition at Chicago. His term of office shall be from date of appointment until the end and closing up of the exposition, and its attending labors, not to exceed sixty days from the closing of the exposition. He shall at the close of his work render to the governor a full, complete and concise report of his duties, and shall at any time, when called upon by the governor, render a report of the condition and progress of his labors, which report shall be printed in some newspaper of general circulation in the state. He shall be the sole receiving and disbursing officer through whose hands all moneys drawn and expended must pass. He shall give bonds approved by the governor in a sum not less than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000).

SEC. 3. The appropriation provided for in this act can only be drawn from the state treasury on estimates made by the commissioner general and no one estimate shall exceed the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) except in a case of emergency, and then only on approval by the governor, showing the items of expenditures paid by him, giving the date paid, to whom and for what purpose, each item has been paid. Each estimate shall be accompanied by a detailed statement of the expenditures with proper vouchers. On compliance with the foregoing provisions of this section the state auditor is hereby authorized and required to draw his warrants on the state treasury against the funds appropriated in this act, which warrants shall be drawn in favor of the commissioner general.

SEC. 4. The commissioner general shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per annum, payable quarterly from the moneys provided for in this act, and in addition his traveling expenses for each day devoted to his official services, as duty may require. He is authorized and empowered to appoint assistants, and employ such clerical and other force as he may find necessary for the successful presentation of his work, the same to be paid from the funds appropriated by this act.

SEC. 5. At the close of his service the commissioner general shall render to the governor a full detailed statement and history of all his actions in pursuance of his duties, which shall include a complete financial statement of receipts and expenditures and a complete catalogue of the exhibits presented at the Columbian Exposition by this state.

Table of Session Laws Showing by Years Where Each Section Now in Force May Be Found, and When and Where Amended.

All of the laws enacted between the Revised Statutes of 1866, which is the basis of this compilation (see secs. 2098 to 2101), to the General Statutes of 1873 are referred to both under the year when enacted and also in the General Statutes. This double reference was deemed advisable on account of the inaccessibility of the sessional volumes for these early dates. The laws of 1873 were never published separately, but appear only in the General Statutes (G. S., ch. 84, p. 1083). Acts or parts of acts of a temporary nature, or acts wholly repealed, are not usually referred to herein. Black figures before "Remarks" column refer to Consolidated Statutes. G. S. stands for General Statutes; R. S. for Revised Statutes.
